Matthew 27:33 They came to a place called Golgotha (which means The Place of the Skull).

Matthew 27:34 There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, he refused to drink it.

Matthew 27:35 When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

Matthew 27:36 And sitting down, they kept watch over him there.

Matthew 27:37 Above his head they placed the written charge against him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Matthew 27:38 Two robbers were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

Matthew 27:39 Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads

Matthew 27:40 and saying, “You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!”

Matthew 27:41 In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders mocked him.

Matthew 27:42 “He saved others,” they said, “but he can’t save himself! He’s the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him.

Matthew 27:43 He trusts in God. Let God rescue him now if he wants him, for he said,`I am the Son of God.’“

Matthew 27:44 In the same way the robbers who were crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

Matthew 27:45 From the sixth hour until the ninth hour darkness came over all the land.

Matthew 27:46 About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?”—which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

Matthew 27:47 When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling Elijah.”

Matthew 27:48 Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink.

Matthew 27:49 The rest said, “Now leave him alone. Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.”

Matthew 27:50 And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.

Matthew 27:51 At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split.

Matthew 27:52 The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life.

Matthew 27:53 They came out of the tombs, and after Jesus' resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many people.

Matthew 27:54 When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, "Surely he was the Son of God!"

Matthew 27:55 Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs.

Matthew 27:56 Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

Matthew 27:57 As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus.

Matthew 27:58 Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

Matthew 27:59 Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

Matthew 27:60 and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

Matthew 27:61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

Matthew 27:62 The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate.

Matthew 27:63 "Sir," they said, "we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said,`After three days I will rise again.'

Matthew 27:64 So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first."

Matthew 27:65 "Take a guard," Pilate answered. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how."

Matthew 27:66 So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard.

Matthew 28:1 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

Matthew 28:2 There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it.

Matthew 28:3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.

Matthew 28:4 The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

Matthew 28:5 The angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

Matthew 28:6 He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay.

Matthew 28:7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples:`He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.’ Now I have told you.”

Matthew 28:8 So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples.

Matthew 28:9 Suddenly Jesus met them. “Greetings,” he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshipped him.

Matthew 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

Matthew 28:11 While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.

Matthew 28:12 When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money,

Matthew 28:13 telling them, “You are to say,`His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.’

Matthew 28:14 If this report gets to the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.”

Matthew 28:15 So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.

Matthew 28:16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go.

Matthew 28:17 When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted.

Matthew 28:18 Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Matthew 28:19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

Matthew 28:20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Mark

1:1 The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Mark 1:2 It is written in Isaiah the prophet: “I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way”—

Mark 1:3 “a voice of one calling in the desert,`Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.’“

Mark 1:4 And so John came, baptising in the desert region and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:5 The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptised by him in the Jordan River.

Mark 1:6 John wore clothing made of camel’s hair, with a leather belt round his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7 And this was his message: “After me will come one more powerful than I, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.

Mark 1:8 I baptise you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.”

Mark 1:9 At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptised by John in the Jordan.

Mark 1:10 As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove.

Mark 1:11 And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

Mark 1:12 At once the Spirit sent him out into the desert,

Mark 1:13 and he was in the desert for forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him.

Mark 1:14 After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God.

Mark 1:15 “The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!”

Mark 1:16 As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen.

Mark 1:17 “Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men.”

Mark 1:18 At once they left their nets and followed him.

Mark 1:19 When he had gone a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, preparing their nets.

Mark 1:20 Without delay he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Mark 1:21 They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.

Mark 1:22 The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law.

Mark 1:23 Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an evil spirit cried out,

Mark 1:24 “What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

Mark 1:25 “Be quiet!” said Jesus sternly. “Come out of him!”

Mark 1:26 The evil spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek.

Mark 1:27 The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching—and with authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits and they obey him.”

Mark 1:28 News about him spread quickly over the whole region of Galilee.

Mark 1:29 As soon as they left the synagogue, they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew.

Mark 1:30 Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told Jesus about her.

Mark 1:31 So he went to her, took her hand and helped her up. The fever left her and she began to wait on them.

Mark 1:32 That evening after sunset the people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon-possessed.

Mark 1:33 The whole town gathered at the door,

Mark 1:34 and Jesus healed many who had various diseases. He also drove out many demons, but he would not let the demons speak because they knew who he was.

Mark 1:35 Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.

Mark 1:36 Simon and his companions went to look for him,

Mark 1:37 and when they found him, they exclaimed: “Everyone is looking for you!”

Mark 1:38 Jesus replied, “Let us go somewhere else—to the nearby villages—so that I can preach there also. That is why I have come.”

Mark 1:39 So he travelled throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons.

Mark 1:40 A man with leprosy came to him and begged him on his knees, “If you are willing, you can make me clean.”

Mark 1:41 Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!”

Mark 1:42 Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cured.

Mark 1:43 Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning:

Mark 1:44 “See that you don’t tell this to anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”

Mark 1:45 Instead he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in lonely places. Yet the people still came to him from everywhere.

Mark 2:1 A few days later, when Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that he had come home.

Mark 2:2 So many gathered that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and he preached the word to them.

Mark 2:3 Some men came, bringing to him a paralytic, carried by four of them.

Mark 2:4 Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus and, after digging through it, lowered the mat the paralysed man was lying on.

Mark 2:5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

Mark 2:6 Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves,

Mark 2:7 “Why does this fellow talk like that? He’s blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

Mark 2:8 Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that this was what they were thinking in their hearts, and he said to them, “Why are you thinking these things?

Mark 2:9 Which is easier: to say to the paralytic,`Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say,`Get up, take your mat and walk’?

Mark 2:10 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins....” He said to the paralytic,

Mark 2:11 “I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home.”

Mark 2:12 He got up, took his mat and walked out in full view of them all. This amazed everyone and they praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

Mark 2:13 Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to him, and he began to teach them.

Mark 2:14 As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.

Mark 2:15 While Jesus was having dinner at Levi’s house, many tax collectors and “sinners” were eating with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him.

Mark 2:16 When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw him eating with the “sinners” and tax collectors, they asked his disciples: “Why does he eat with tax collectors and`sinners’?”

Mark 2:17 On hearing this, Jesus said to them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Mark 2:18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, “How is it that John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees are fasting, but yours are not?”

Mark 2:19 Jesus answered, “How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? They cannot, so long as they have him with them.

Mark 2:20 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and on that day they will fast.

Mark 2:21 “No-one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If he does, the new piece will pull away from the old, making the tear worse.

Mark 2:22 And no-one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. No, he pours new wine into new wineskins.”

Mark 2:23 One Sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields, and as his disciples walked along, they began to pick some ears of corn.

Mark 2:24 The Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

Mark 2:25 He answered, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need?

Mark 2:26 In the days of Abiathar the high priest, he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread, which is lawful only for priests to eat. And he also gave some to his companions.”

Mark 2:27 Then he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

Mark 2:28 So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

Mark 3:1 Another time he went into the synagogue, and a man with a shrivelled hand was there.

Mark 3:2 Some of them were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath.

Mark 3:3 Jesus said to the man with the shrivelled hand, “Stand up in front of everyone.”

Mark 3:4 Then Jesus asked them, “Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they remained silent.

Mark 3:5 He looked round at them in anger and, deeply distressed at their stubborn hearts, said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored.

Mark 3:6 Then the Pharisees went out and began to plot with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

Mark 3:7 Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the lake, and a large crowd from Galilee followed.

Mark 3:8 When they heard all he was doing, many people came to him from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, and the regions across the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon.

Mark 3:9 Because of the crowd he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him, to keep the people from crowding him.

Mark 3:10 For he had healed many, so that those with diseases were pushing forward to touch him.

Mark 3:11 Whenever the evil spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, “You are the Son of God.”

Mark 3:12 But he gave them strict orders not to tell who he was.

Mark 3:13 Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him.

Mark 3:14 He appointed twelve—designating them apostles— that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach

Mark 3:15 and to have authority to drive out demons.

Mark 3:16 These are the twelve he appointed: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter);

Mark 3:17 James son of Zebedee and his brother John (to them he gave the name Boanerges, which means Sons of Thunder);

Mark 3:18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot

Mark 3:19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Mark 3:20 Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered, so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat.

Mark 3:21 When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, “He is out of his mind.”

Mark 3:22 And the teachers of the law who came down from Jerusalem said, “He is possessed by Beelzebub! By the prince of demons he is driving out demons.”

Mark 3:23 So Jesus called them and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan drive out Satan?

Mark 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

Mark 3:25 If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

Mark 3:26 And if Satan opposes himself and is divided, he cannot stand; his end has come.

Mark 3:27 In fact, no-one can enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can rob his house.

Mark 3:28 I tell you the truth, all the sins and blasphemies of men will be forgiven them.

Mark 3:29 But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; he is guilty of an eternal sin."

Mark 3:30 He said this because they were saying, "He has an evil spirit."

Mark 3:31 Then Jesus' mother and brothers arrived. Standing outside, they sent someone in to call him.

Mark 3:32 A crowd was sitting around him, and they told him, "Your mother and brothers are outside looking for you."

Mark 3:33 "Who are my mother and my brothers?" he asked.

Mark 3:34 Then he looked at those seated in a circle around him and said, "Here are my mother and my brothers!

Mark 3:35 Whoever does God's will is my brother and sister and mother."

Mark 4:1 Again Jesus began to teach by the lake. The crowd that gathered round him was so large that he got into a boat and sat in it out on the lake, while all the people were along the shore at the water's edge.

Mark 4:2 He taught them many things by parables, and in his teaching said:

Mark 4:3 "Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed.

Mark 4:4 As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Mark 4:5 Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow.

Mark 4:6 But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.

Mark 4:7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants, so that they did not bear grain.

Mark 4:8 Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up, grew and produced a crop, multiplying thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times."

Mark 4:9 Then Jesus said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Mark 4:10 When he was alone, the Twelve and the others around him asked him about the parables.

Mark 4:11 He told them, “The secret of the kingdom of God has been given to you. But to those on the outside everything is said in parables

Mark 4:12 so that, “`they may be ever seeing but never perceiving, and ever hearing but never understanding; otherwise they might turn and be forgiven!’“

Mark 4:13 Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? How then will you understand any parable?

Mark 4:14 The farmer sows the word.

Mark 4:15 Some people are like seed along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them.

Mark 4:16 Others, like seed sown on rocky places, hear the word and at once receive it with joy.

Mark 4:17 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

Mark 4:18 Still others, like seed sown among thorns, hear the word;

Mark 4:19 but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful.

Mark 4:20 Others, like seed sown on good soil, hear the word, accept it, and produce a crop—thirty, sixty or even a hundred times what was sown.”

Mark 4:21 He said to them, “Do you bring in a lamp to put it under a bowl or a bed? Instead, don’t you put it on its stand?

Mark 4:22 For whatever is hidden is meant to be disclosed, and whatever is concealed is meant to be brought out into the open.

Mark 4:23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Mark 4:24 “Consider carefully what you hear,” he continued. “With the measure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more.

Mark 4:25 Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.”

Mark 4:26 He also said, “This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man scatters seed on the ground.

Mark 4:27 Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how.

Mark 4:28 All by itself the soil produces corn—first the stalk, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.

Mark 4:29 As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come.”

Mark 4:30 Again he said, “What shall we say the kingdom of God is like, or what parable shall we use to describe it?

Mark 4:31 It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest seed you plant in the ground.

Mark 4:32 Yet when planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants, with such big branches that the birds of the air can perch in its shade.”

Mark 4:33 With many similar parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand.

Mark 4:34 He did not say anything to them without using a parable. But when he was alone with his own disciples, he explained everything.

Mark 4:35 That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, “Let us go over to the other side.”

Mark 4:36 Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. There were also other boats with him.

Mark 4:37 A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped.

Mark 4:38 Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care if we drown?”

Mark 4:39 He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.

Mark 4:40 He said to his disciples, “Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

Mark 4:41 They were terrified and asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”

Mark 5:1 They went across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes.

Mark 5:2 When Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an evil spirit came from the tombs to meet him.

Mark 5:3 This man lived in the tombs, and no-one could bind him any more, not even with a chain.

Mark 5:4 For he had often been chained hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. No-one was strong enough to subdue him.

Mark 5:5 Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him.

Mark 5:7 He shouted at the top of his voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Swear to God that you won’t torture me!”

Mark 5:8 For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of this man, you evil spirit!”

Mark 5:9 Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” “My name is Legion,” he replied, “for we are many.”

Mark 5:10 And he begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of the area.

Mark 5:11 A large herd of pigs was feeding on the nearby hillside.

Mark 5:12 The demons begged Jesus, “Send us among the pigs; allow us to go into them.”

Mark 5:13 He gave them permission, and the evil spirits came out and went into the pigs. The herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

Mark 5:14 Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened.

Mark 5:15 When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

Mark 5:16 Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man—and told about the pigs as well.

Mark 5:17 Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

Mark 5:18 As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him.

Mark 5:19 Jesus did not let him, but said, “Go home to your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.”

Mark 5:20 So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

Mark 5:21 When Jesus had again crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered round him while he was by the lake.

Mark 5:22 Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came there. Seeing Jesus, he fell at his feet

Mark 5:23 and pleaded earnestly with him, “My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her so that she will be healed and live.”

Mark 5:24 So Jesus went with him. A large crowd followed and pressed around him.

Mark 5:25 And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years.

Mark 5:26 She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse.

Mark 5:27 When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak,

Mark 5:28 because she thought, “If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed.”

Mark 5:29 Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.

Mark 5:30 At once Jesus realised that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

Mark 5:31 “You see the people crowding against you,” his disciples answered, “and yet you can ask,`Who touched me?'“

Mark 5:32 But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it.

Mark 5:33 Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth.

Mark 5:34 He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.”

Mark 5:35 While Jesus was still speaking, some men came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler. “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why bother the teacher any more?”

Mark 5:36 Ignoring what they said, Jesus told the synagogue ruler, “Don’t be afraid; just believe.”

Mark 5:37 He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James.

Mark 5:38 When they came to the home of the synagogue ruler, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly.

Mark 5:39 He went in and said to them, “Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep.”

Mark 5:40 But they laughed at him. After he put them all out, he took the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was.

Mark 5:41 He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum!” (which means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”).

Mark 5:42 Immediately the girl stood up and walked around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished.

Mark 5:43 He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6:1 Jesus left there and went to his home town, accompanied by his disciples.

Mark 6:2 When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. “Where did this man get these things?” they asked. “What’s this wisdom that has been given him, that he even does miracles!

Mark 6:3 Isn’t this the carpenter? Isn’t this Mary’s son and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas and Simon? Aren’t his sisters here with us?” And they took offence at him.

Mark 6:4 Jesus said to them, “Only in his home town, among his relatives and in his own house is a prophet without honour.”

Mark 6:5 He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them.

Mark 6:6 And he was amazed at their lack of faith. Then Jesus went round teaching from village to village.

Mark 6:7 Calling the Twelve to him, he sent them out two by two and gave them authority over evil spirits.

Mark 6:8 These were his instructions: “Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts.

Mark 6:9 Wear sandals but not an extra tunic.

Mark 6:10 Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town.

Mark 6:11 And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave, as a testimony against them.”

Mark 6:12 They went out and preached that people should repent.

Mark 6:13 They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

Mark 6:14 King Herod heard about this, for Jesus’ name had become well known. Some were saying, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him.”

Mark 6:15 Others said, “He is Elijah.” And still others claimed, “He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of long ago.”

Mark 6:16 But when Herod heard this, he said, “John, the man I beheaded, has been raised from the dead!”

Mark 6:17 For Herod himself had given orders to have John arrested, and he had him bound and put in prison. He did this because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, whom he had married.

Mark 6:18 For John had been saying to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”

Mark 6:19 So Herodias nursed a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she was not able to, Mark 6:20 because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard John, he was greatly puzzled; yet he liked to listen to him.

Mark 6:21 Finally the opportune time came. On his birthday Herod gave a banquet for his high officials and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee.

Mark 6:22 When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I'll give it to you."

Mark 6:23 And he promised her with an oath, "Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom."

Mark 6:24 She went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?" "The head of John the Baptist," she answered.

Mark 6:25 At once the girl hurried in to the king with the request: "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

Mark 6:26 The king was greatly distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he did not want to refuse her.

Mark 6:27 So he immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. The man went, beheaded John in the prison,

Mark 6:28 and brought back his head on a platter. He presented it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 On hearing of this, John's disciples came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Mark 6:30 The apostles gathered round Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught.

Mark 6:31 Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

Mark 6:32 So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place.

Mark 6:33 But many who saw them leaving recognised them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them.

Mark 6:34 When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

Mark 6:35 By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. "This is a remote place," they said, "and it's already very late.

Mark 6:36 Send the people away so that they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

Mark 6:37 But he answered, “You give them something to eat.” They said to him, “That would take eight months of a man’s wages! Are we to go and spend that much on bread and give it to them to eat?”

Mark 6:38 “How many loaves do you have?” he asked. “Go and see.” When they found out, they said, “Five—and two fish.”

Mark 6:39 Then Jesus directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass.

Mark 6:40 So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

Mark 6:41 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to his disciples to set before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all.

Mark 6:42 They all ate and were satisfied,

Mark 6:43 and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish.

Mark 6:44 The number of the men who had eaten was five thousand.

Mark 6:45 Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd.

Mark 6:46 After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

Mark 6:47 When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and he was alone on land.

Mark 6:48 He saw the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night he went out to them, walking on the lake. He was about to pass by them,

Mark 6:49 but when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought he was a ghost. They cried out,

Mark 6:50 because they all saw him and were terrified. Immediately he spoke to them and said, “Take courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.”

Mark 6:51 Then he climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were completely amazed,

Mark 6:52 for they had not understood about the loaves; their hearts were hardened.

Mark 6:53 When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there.

Mark 6:54 As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognised Jesus.

Mark 6:55 They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was.

Mark 6:56 And wherever he went—into villages, towns or countryside— they placed the sick in the market-places. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched him were healed.

Mark 7:1 The Pharisees and some of the teachers of the law who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus and Mark 7:2 saw some of his disciples eating food with hands that were “unclean”, that is, unwashed.

Mark 7:3 (The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they give their hands a ceremonial washing, holding to the tradition of the elders.

Mark 7:4 When they come from the market-place they do not eat unless they wash. And they observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers and kettles.)

Mark 7:5 So the Pharisees and teachers of the law asked Jesus, “Why don’t your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders instead of eating their food with`unclean’ hands?”

Mark 7:6 He replied, “Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: “`These people honour me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Mark 7:7 They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.’

Mark 7:8 You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men.”

Mark 7:9 And he said to them: “You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!

Mark 7:10 For Moses said,`Honour your father and your mother,’ and,`Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.’

Mark 7:11 But you say that if a man says to his father or mother:`Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is Corban’ (that is, a gift devoted to God),

Mark 7:12 then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother.

Mark 7:13 Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like that.”

Mark 7:14 Again Jesus called the crowd to him and said, “Listen to me, everyone, and understand this.

Mark 7:15 Nothing outside a man can make him`unclean’ by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of a man that makes him`unclean’.”

Mark 7:16

Mark 7:17 After he had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about this parable.

Mark 7:18 “Are you so dull?” he asked. “Don’t you see that nothing that enters a man from the outside can make him`unclean’?

Mark 7:19 For it doesn’t go into his heart but into his stomach, and then out of his body.” (In saying this, Jesus declared all foods “clean”.)

Mark 7:20 He went on: “What comes out of a man is what makes him`unclean’.

Mark 7:21 For from within, out of men’s hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery,

Mark 7:22 greed, malice, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, arrogance and folly.

Mark 7:23 All these evils come from inside and make a man`unclean’.”

Mark 7:24 Jesus left that place and went to the vicinity of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it; yet he could not keep his presence secret.

Mark 7:25 In fact, as soon as she heard about him, a woman whose little daughter was possessed by an evil spirit came and fell at his feet.

Mark 7:26 The woman was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia. She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 “First let the children eat all they want,” he told her, “for it is not right to take the children’s bread and toss it to their dogs.”

Mark 7:28 “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “but even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

Mark 7:29 Then he told her, “For such a reply, you may go; the demon has left your daughter.”

Mark 7:30 She went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Mark 7:31 Then Jesus left the vicinity of Tyre and went through Sidon, down to the Sea of Galilee and into the region of the Decapolis.

Mark 7:32 There some people brought to him a man who was deaf and could hardly talk, and they begged him to place his hand on the man.

Mark 7:33 After he took him aside, away from the crowd, Jesus put his fingers into the man’s ears. Then he spat and touched the man’s tongue.

Mark 7:34 He looked up to heaven and with a deep sigh said to him, “Ephphatha!” (which means, “Be opened!”).

Mark 7:35 At this, the man’s ears were opened, his tongue was loosened and he began to speak plainly.

Mark 7:36 Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more he did so, the more they kept talking about it.

Mark 7:37 People were overwhelmed with amazement. “He has done everything well,” they said. “He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.”

Mark 8:1 During those days another large crowd gathered. Since they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him and said,

Mark 8:2 “I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat.

Mark 8:3 If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way, because some of them have come a long distance.”

Mark 8:4 His disciples answered, “But where in this remote place can anyone get enough bread to feed them?”

Mark 8:5 “How many loaves do you have?” Jesus asked. “Seven,” they replied.

Mark 8:6 He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. When he had taken the seven loaves and given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people, and they did so.

Mark 8:7 They had a few small fish as well; he gave thanks for them also and told the disciples to distribute them.

Mark 8:8 The people ate and were satisfied. Afterwards the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Mark 8:9 About four thousand men were present. And having sent them away,

Mark 8:10 he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the region of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8:11 The Pharisees came and began to question Jesus. To test him, they asked him for a sign from heaven.

Mark 8:12 He sighed deeply and said, “Why does this generation ask for a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, no sign will be given to it.”

Mark 8:13 Then he left them, got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.

Mark 8:14 The disciples had forgotten to bring bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat.

Mark 8:15 “Be careful,” Jesus warned them. “Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and that of Herod.”

Mark 8:16 They discussed this with one another and said, “It is because we have no bread.”

Mark 8:17 Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked them: “Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are your hearts hardened?

Mark 8:18 Do you have eyes but fail to see, and ears but fail to hear? And don’t you remember?

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of pieces did you pick up?” “Twelve,” they replied.

Mark 8:20 “And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many basketfuls of pieces did you pick up?” They answered, “Seven.”

Mark 8:21 He said to them, “Do you still not understand?”

Mark 8:22 They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him.

Mark 8:23 He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When he had spat on the man’s eyes and put his hands on him, Jesus asked, “Do you see anything?”

Mark 8:24 He looked up and said, “I see people; they look like trees walking around.”

Mark 8:25 Once more Jesus put his hands on the man’s eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.

Mark 8:26 Jesus sent him home, saying, “Don’t go into the village.”

Mark 8:27 Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

Mark 8:28 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.”

Mark 8:29 “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?” Peter answered, “You are the Christ.”

Mark 8:30 Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Mark 8:31 He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again.

Mark 8:32 He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

Mark 8:33 But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. “Get behind me, Satan!” he said. “You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men.”

Mark 8:34 Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Mark 8:35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it.

Mark 8:36 What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul?

Mark 8:37 Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?

Mark 8:38 If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father’s glory with the holy angels.”

Mark 9:1 And he said to them, “I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power.”

Mark 9:2 After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them.

Mark 9:3 His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them.

Mark 9:4 And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

Mark 9:5 Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

Mark 9:6 (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.)

Mark 9:7 Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: “This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!”

Mark 9:8 Suddenly, when they looked round, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

Mark 9:9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 They kept the matter to themselves, discussing what “rising from the dead” meant.

Mark 9:11 And they asked him, “Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

Mark 9:12 Jesus replied, “To be sure, Elijah does come first, and restores all things. Why then is it written that the Son of Man must suffer much and be rejected?

Mark 9:13 But I tell you, Elijah has come, and they have done to him everything they wished, just as it is written about him.”

Mark 9:14 When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and the teachers of the law arguing with them.

Mark 9:15 As soon as all the people saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with wonder and ran to greet him.

Mark 9:16 “What are you arguing with them about?” he asked.

Mark 9:17 A man in the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech.

Mark 9:18 Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not.”

Mark 9:19 “O unbelieving generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy to me.”

Mark 9:20 So they brought him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.

Mark 9:21 Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?" "From childhood," he answered.

Mark 9:22 "It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us and help us."

Mark 9:23 "`If you can'?" said Jesus. "Everything is possible for him who believes."

Mark 9:24 Immediately the boy's father exclaimed, "I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!"

Mark 9:25 When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he rebuked the evil spirit. "You deaf and mute spirit," he said, "I command you, come out of him and never enter him again."

Mark 9:26 The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He's dead."

Mark 9:27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him to his feet, and he stood up.

Mark 9:28 After Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

Mark 9:29 He replied, "This kind can come out only by prayer."

Mark 9:30 They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were,

Mark 9:31 because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise."

Mark 9:32 But they did not understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him about it.

Mark 9:33 They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the road?"

Mark 9:34 But they kept quiet because on the way they had argued about who was the greatest.

Mark 9:35 Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be the very last, and the servant of all."

Mark 9:36 He took a little child and had him stand among them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them,

Mark 9:37 "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me."

Mark 9:38 "Teacher," said John, "we saw a man driving out demons in your name and we told him to stop, because he was not one of us."

Mark 9:39 “Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “No-one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me,

Mark 9:40 for whoever is not against us is for us.

Mark 9:41 I tell you the truth, anyone who gives you a cup of water in my name because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose his reward.

Mark 9:42 “And if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone tied around his neck.

Mark 9:43 If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell, where the fire never goes out.

Mark 9:44

Mark 9:45 And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

Mark 9:46

Mark 9:47 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell,

Mark 9:48 where “`their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’

Mark 9:49 Everyone will be salted with fire.

Mark 9:50 “Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with each other.”

Mark 10:1 Jesus then left that place and went into the region of Judea and across the Jordan. Again crowds of people came to him, and as was his custom, he taught them.

Mark 10:2 Some Pharisees came and tested him by asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

Mark 10:3 “What did Moses command you?” he replied.

Mark 10:4 They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away.”

Mark 10:5 “It was because your hearts were hard that Moses wrote you this law,” Jesus replied.

Mark 10:6 “But at the beginning of creation God`made them male and female’.

Mark 10:7 `For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife,

Mark 10:8 and the two will become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one.

Mark 10:9 Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate.”

Mark 10:10 When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this.

Mark 10:11 He answered, “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her.

Mark 10:12 And if she divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery.”

Mark 10:13 People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them.

Mark 10:14 When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

Mark 10:15 I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

Mark 10:16 And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them.

Mark 10:17 As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. “Good teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Mark 10:18 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No-one is good— except God alone.

Mark 10:19 You know the commandments:`Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honour your father and mother.’“

Mark 10:20 “Teacher,” he declared, “all these I have kept since I was a boy.”

Mark 10:21 Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Mark 10:22 At this the man’s face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.

Mark 10:23 Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

Mark 10:24 The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

Mark 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Mark 10:26 The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, “Who then can be saved?”

Mark 10:27 Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God.”

Mark 10:28 Peter said to him, “We have left everything to follow you!”

Mark 10:29 “I tell you the truth,” Jesus replied, “no-one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel

Mark 10:30 will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and with them, persecutions) and in the age to come, eternal life.

Mark 10:31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Mark 10:32 They were on their way up to Jerusalem, with Jesus leading the way, and the disciples were astonished, while those who followed were afraid. Again he took the Twelve aside and told them what was going to happen to him.

Mark 10:33 “We are going up to Jerusalem,” he said, “and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and teachers of the law. They will condemn him to death and will hand him over to the Gentiles, Mark 10:34 who will mock him and spit on him, flog him and kill him. Three days later he will rise.”

Mark 10:35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do for us whatever we ask.”

Mark 10:36 “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

Mark 10:37 They replied, “Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory.”

Mark 10:38 “You don’t know what you are asking,” Jesus said. “Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptised with the baptism I am baptised with?”

Mark 10:39 “We can,” they answered. Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink and be baptised with the baptism I am baptised with,

Mark 10:40 but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared.”

Mark 10:41 When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John.

Mark 10:42 Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.

Mark 10:43 Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,

Mark 10:44 and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all.

Mark 10:45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:46 Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (that is, the Son of Timaeus), was sitting by the roadside begging.

Mark 10:47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:48 Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:49 Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” So they called to the blind man, “Cheer up! On your feet! He’s calling you.”

Mark 10:50 Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

Mark 10:51 “What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked him. The blind man said, “Rabbi, I want to see.”

Mark 10:52 “Go,” said Jesus, “your faith has healed you.” Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

Mark 11:1 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples,

Mark 11:2 saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no-one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Mark 11:3 If anyone asks you,`Why are you doing this?’ tell him,`The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.’“

Mark 11:4 They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it,

Mark 11:5 some people standing there asked, “What are you doing, untying that colt?”

Mark 11:6 They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go.

Mark 11:7 When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it.

Mark 11:8 Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields.

Mark 11:9 Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, “Hosanna!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”

Mark 11:10 “Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!” “Hosanna in the highest!”

Mark 11:11 Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Mark 11:12 The next day as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry.

Mark 11:13 Seeing in the distance a fig-tree in leaf, he went to find out if it had any fruit. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs.

Mark 11:14 Then he said to the tree, “May no-one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard him say it.

Mark 11:15 On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple area and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the benches of those selling doves,

Mark 11:16 and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts.

Mark 11:17 And as he taught them, he said, “Is it not written: “`My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations’? But you have made it`a den of robbers’.”

Mark 11:18 The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.

Mark 11:19 When evening came, they went out of the city.

Mark 11:20 In the morning, as they went along, they saw the fig-tree withered from the roots.

Mark 11:21 Peter remembered and said to Jesus, “Rabbi, look! The fig-tree you cursed has withered!”

Mark 11:22 “Have faith in God,” Jesus answered.

Mark 11:23 “I tell you the truth, if anyone says to this mountain,`Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him.

Mark 11:24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:25 And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.”

Mark 11:26

Mark 11:27 They arrived again in Jerusalem, and while Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders came to him.

Mark 11:28 “By what authority are you doing these things?” they asked. “And who gave you authority to do this?”

Mark 11:29 Jesus replied, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

Mark 11:30 John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or from men? Tell me!”

Mark 11:31 They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say,`From heaven’, he will ask,`Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Mark 11:32 But if we say,`From men’....” (They feared the people, for everyone held that John really was a prophet.)

Mark 11:33 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Mark 12:1 He then began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.

Mark 12:2 At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 But they seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Mark 12:4 Then he sent another servant to them; they struck this man on the head and treated him shamefully.

Mark 12:5 He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some of them they beat, others they killed.

Mark 12:6 “He had one left to send, a son, whom he loved. He sent him last of all, saying,`They will respect my son.’

Mark 12:7 “But the tenants said to one another,`This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

Mark 12:8 So they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 “What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others.

Mark 12:10 Haven’t you read this scripture: “`The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone;

Mark 12:11 the Lord has done this, and it is marvellous in our eyes’?”

Mark 12:12 Then they looked for a way to arrest him because they knew he had spoken the parable against them. But they were afraid of the crowd; so they left him and went away.

Mark 12:13 Later they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus to catch him in his words.

Mark 12:14 They came to him and said, “Teacher, we know you are a man of integrity. You aren’t swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are; but you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?

Mark 12:15 Should we pay or shouldn’t we?” But Jesus knew their hypocrisy. “Why are you trying to trap me?” he asked. “Bring me a denarius and let me look at it.”

Mark 12:16 They brought the coin, and he asked them, “Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?” “Caesar’s,” they replied.

Mark 12:17 Then Jesus said to them, “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s.” And they were amazed at him.

Mark 12:18 Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question.

Mark 12:19 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and have children for his brother.

Mark 12:20 Now there were seven brothers. The first one married and died without leaving any children.

Mark 12:21 The second one married the widow, but he also died, leaving no child. It was the same with the third.

Mark 12:22 In fact, none of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman died too.

Mark 12:23 At the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?”

Mark 12:24 Jesus replied, “Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God?

Mark 12:25 When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.

Mark 12:26 Now about the dead rising—have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the bush, how God said to him,`I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?

Mark 12:27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are badly mistaken!”

Mark 12:28 One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

Mark 12:29 “The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this:`Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Mark 12:30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’

Mark 12:31 The second is this:`Love your neighbour as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:32 “Well said, teacher,” the man replied. “You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him.

Mark 12:33 To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

Mark 12:34 When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And from then on no-one dared ask him any more questions.

Mark 12:35 While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, he asked, “How is it that the teachers of the law say that the Christ is the son of David?

Mark 12:36 David himself, speaking by the Holy Spirit, declared: “`The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet.”‘

Mark 12:37 David himself calls him`Lord’. How then can he be his son?” The large crowd listened to him with delight.

Mark 12:38 As he taught, Jesus said, “Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted in the market-places,

Mark 12:39 and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets.

Mark 12:40 They devour widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. Such men will be punished most severely.”

Mark 12:41 Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts.

Mark 12:42 But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny.

Mark 12:43 Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others.

Mark 12:44 They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on.”

Mark 13:1 As he was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher! What massive stones! What magnificent buildings!”

Mark 13:2 “Do you see all these great buildings?” replied Jesus. “Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

Mark 13:3 As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew asked him privately,

Mark 13:4 “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to be fulfilled?”

Mark 13:5 Jesus said to them: “Watch out that no-one deceives you.

Mark 13:6 Many will come in my name, claiming,`I am he,’ and will deceive many.

Mark 13:7 When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come.

Mark 13:8 Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth-pains.

Mark 13:9 “You must be on your guard. You will be handed over to the local councils and flogged in the synagogues. On account of me you will stand before governors and kings as witnesses to them.

Mark 13:10 And the gospel must first be preached to all nations.

Mark 13:11 Whenever you are arrested and brought to trial, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Just say whatever is given you at the time, for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

Mark 13:12 “Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death.

Mark 13:13 All men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Mark 13:14 “When you see`the abomination that causes desolation’ standing where it does not belong—let the reader understand—then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

Mark 13:15 Let no-one on the roof of his house go down or enter the house to take anything out.

Mark 13:16 Let no-one in the field go back to get his cloak.

Mark 13:17 How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers!

Mark 13:18 Pray that this will not take place in winter,

Mark 13:19 because those will be days of distress unequalled from the beginning, when God created the world, until now—and never to be equalled again.

Mark 13:20 If the Lord had not cut short those days, no-one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom he has chosen, he has shortened them.

Mark 13:21 At that time if anyone says to you,`Look, here is the Christ!’ or,`Look, there he is!’ do not believe it.

Mark 13:22 For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and miracles to deceive the elect—if that were possible.

Mark 13:23 So be on your guard; I have told you everything ahead of time.

Mark 13:24 “But in those days, following that distress, “`the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;

Mark 13:25 the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.’

Mark 13:26 “At that time men will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

Mark 13:27 And he will send his angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens.

Mark 13:28 “Now learn this lesson from the fig-tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near.

Mark 13:29 Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door.

Mark 13:30 I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.

Mark 13:31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Mark 13:32 “No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Mark 13:33 Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come.

Mark 13:34 It’s like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with his assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch.

Mark 13:35 “Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back—whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the cock crows, or at dawn.

Mark 13:36 If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping.

Mark 13:37 What I say to you, I say to everyone:`Watch!’“

Mark 14:1 Now the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were only two days away, and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some sly way to arrest Jesus and kill him.

Mark 14:2 “But not during the Feast,” they said, “or the people may riot.”

Mark 14:3 While he was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of a man known as Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.

Mark 14:4 Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, “Why this waste of perfume?

Mark 14:5 It could have been sold for more than a year’s wages and the money given to the poor.” And they rebuked her harshly.

Mark 14:6 “Leave her alone,” said Jesus. “Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me.

Mark 14:7 The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me.

Mark 14:8 She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial.

Mark 14:9 I tell you the truth, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

Mark 14:10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them.

Mark 14:11 They were delighted to hear this and promised to give him money. So he watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

Mark 14:12 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb, Jesus’ disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

Mark 14:13 So he sent two of his disciples, telling them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him.

Mark 14:14 Say to the owner of the house he enters,`The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’

Mark 14:15 He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”

Mark 14:16 The disciples left, went into the city and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

Mark 14:17 When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve.

Mark 14:18 While they were reclining at the table eating, he said, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me—one who is eating with me.”

Mark 14:19 They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, “Surely not I?”

Mark 14:20 “It is one of the Twelve,” he replied, “one who dips bread into the bowl with me.

Mark 14:21 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

Mark 14:22 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take it; this is my body.”

Mark 14:23 Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, and they all drank from it.

Mark 14:24 “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many,” he said to them.

Mark 14:25 “I tell you the truth, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.”

Mark 14:26 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 “You will all fall away,” Jesus told them, “for it is written: “`I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

Mark 14:28 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

Mark 14:29 Peter declared, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”

Mark 14:30 “I tell you the truth,” Jesus answered, “today—yes, tonight—before the cock crows twice you yourself will disown me three times.”

Mark 14:31 But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the others said the same.

Mark 14:32 They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, “Sit here while I pray.”

Mark 14:33 He took Peter, James and John along with him, and he began to be deeply distressed and troubled.

Mark 14:34 “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,” he said to them. “Stay here and keep watch.”

Mark 14:35 Going a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from him.

Mark 14:36 “Abba, Father,” he said, “everything is possible for you. Take this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will.”

Mark 14:37 Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” he said to Peter, “are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?

Mark 14:38 Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

Mark 14:39 Once more he went away and prayed the same thing.

Mark 14:40 When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They did not know what to say to him.

Mark 14:41 Returning the third time, he said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mark 14:42 Rise! Let us go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Mark 14:43 Just as he was speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, appeared. With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders.

Mark 14:44 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard.”

Mark 14:45 Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Mark 14:46 The men seized Jesus and arrested him.

Mark 14:47 Then one of those standing near drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

Mark 14:48 “Am I leading a rebellion,” said Jesus, “that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me?

Mark 14:49 Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.”

Mark 14:50 Then everyone deserted him and fled.

Mark 14:51 A young man, wearing nothing but a linen garment, was following Jesus. When they seized him, Mark 14:52 he fled naked, leaving his garment behind.

Mark 14:53 They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, elders and teachers of the law came together.

Mark 14:54 Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire.

Mark 14:55 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any.

Mark 14:56 Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree.

Mark 14:57 Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him:

Mark 14:58 “We heard him say,`I will destroy this man-made temple and in three days will build another, not made by man.’“

Mark 14:59 Yet even then their testimony did not agree.

Mark 14:60 Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, “Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?”

Mark 14:61 But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?”

Mark 14:62 “I am,” said Jesus. “And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Mark 14:63 The high priest tore his clothes. “Why do we need any more witnesses?” he asked.

Mark 14:64 “You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?” They all condemned him as worthy of death.

Mark 14:65 Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, “Prophesy!” And the guards took him and beat him.

Mark 14:66 While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by.

Mark 14:67 When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him. “You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus,” she said.

Mark 14:68 But he denied it. “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about,” he said, and went out into the entrance.

Mark 14:69 When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around, “This fellow is one of them.”

Mark 14:70 Again he denied it. After a little while, those standing near said to Peter, “Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean.”

Mark 14:71 He began to call down curses on himself, and he swore to them, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about.”

Mark 14:72 Immediately the cock crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: “Before the cock crows twice you will disown me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark 15:1 Very early in the morning, the chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law and the whole Sanhedrin, reached a decision. They bound Jesus, led him away and turned him over to Pilate.

Mark 15:2 “Are you the king of the Jews?” asked Pilate. “Yes, it is as you say,” Jesus replied.

Mark 15:3 The chief priests accused him of many things.

Mark 15:4 So again Pilate asked him, “Aren’t you going to answer? See how many things they are accusing you of.”

Mark 15:5 But Jesus still made no reply, and Pilate was amazed.

Mark 15:6 Now it was the custom at the Feast to release a prisoner whom the people requested.

Mark 15:7 A man called Barabbas was in prison with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the uprising.

Mark 15:8 The crowd came up and asked Pilate to do for them what he usually did.

Mark 15:9 “Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?” asked Pilate,

Mark 15:10 knowing it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him.

Mark 15:11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas instead.

Mark 15:12 “What shall I do, then, with the one you call the king of the Jews?” Pilate asked them.

Mark 15:13 “Crucify him!” they shouted.

Mark 15:14 “Why? What crime has he committed?” asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, “Crucify him!”

Mark 15:15 Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

Mark 15:16 The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers.

Mark 15:17 They put a purple robe on him, then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on him.

Mark 15:18 And they began to call out to him, “Hail, king of the Jews!”

Mark 15:19 Again and again they struck him on the head with a staff and spat on him. Falling on their knees, they paid homage to him.

Mark 15:20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

Mark 15:21 A certain man from Cyrene, Simon, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the country, and they forced him to carry the cross.

Mark 15:22 They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means The Place of the Skull).

Mark 15:23 Then they offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it.

Mark 15:24 And they crucified him. Dividing up his clothes, they cast lots to see what each would get.

Mark 15:25 It was the third hour when they crucified him.

Mark 15:26 The written notice of the charge against him read: THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Mark 15:28

Mark 15:29 Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying, “So! You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, Mark 15:30 come down from the cross and save yourself!”

Mark 15:31 In the same way the chief priests and the teachers of the law mocked him among themselves. “He saved others,” they said, “but he can’t save himself!

Mark 15:32 Let this Christ, this King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” Those crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

Mark 15:33 At the sixth hour darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.

Mark 15:34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?”—which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

Mark 15:35 When some of those standing near heard this, they said, “Listen, he’s calling Elijah.”

Mark 15:36 One man ran, filled a sponge with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink. “Now leave him alone. Let’s see if Elijah comes to take him down,” he said.

Mark 15:37 With a loud cry, Jesus breathed his last.

Mark 15:38 The curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

Mark 15:39 And when the centurion, who stood there in front of Jesus, heard his cry and saw how he died, he said, “Surely this man was the Son of God!”

Mark 15:40 Some women were watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

Mark 15:41 In Galilee these women had followed him and cared for his needs. Many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem were also there.

Mark 15:42 It was Preparation Day (that is, the day before the Sabbath). So as evening approached,

Mark 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the Council, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body.

Mark 15:44 Pilate was surprised to hear that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him if Jesus had already died.

Mark 15:45 When he learned from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph.

Mark 15:46 So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.

Mark 15:47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

Mark 16:1 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go to anoint Jesus’ body.

Mark 16:2 Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they were on their way to the tomb

Mark 16:3 and they asked each other, “Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?”

Mark 16:4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away.

Mark 16:5 As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

Mark 16:6 “Don’t be alarmed,” he said. “You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him.

Mark 16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter,`He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.’“

Mark 16:8 Trembling and bewildered, the women went out and fled from the tomb. They said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

Mark 16:9 When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons.

Mark 16:10 She went and told those who had been with him and who were mourning and weeping.

Mark 16:11 When they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe it.

Mark 16:12 Afterwards Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them while they were walking in the country.

Mark 16:13 These returned and reported it to the rest; but they did not believe them either.

Mark 16:14 Later Jesus appeared to the Eleven as they were eating; he rebuked them for their lack of faith and their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

Mark 16:15 He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.

Mark 16:16 Whoever believes and is baptised will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

Mark 16:18 they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people, and they will get well.”

Mark 16:19 After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and he sat at the right hand of God.

Mark 16:20 Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and confirmed his word by the signs that accompanied it.

Luke

1:1 Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us,

Luke 1:2 just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eye-witnesses and servants of the word.

Luke 1:3 Therefore, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, it seemed good also to me to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,

Luke 1:4 so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

Luke 1:5 In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah; his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron.

Luke 1:6 Both of them were upright in the sight of God, observing all the Lord's commandments and regulations blamelessly.

Luke 1:7 But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren; and they were both well on in years.

Luke 1:8 Once when Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God,

Luke 1:9 he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.

Luke 1:10 And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshippers were praying outside.

Luke 1:11 Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

Luke 1:12 When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear.

Luke 1:13 But the angel said to him: “Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to give him the name John.

Luke 1:14 He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth,

Luke 1:15 for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He is never to take wine or other fermented drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from birth.

Luke 1:16 Many of the people of Israel will he bring back to the Lord their God.

Luke 1:17 And he will go on before the Lord, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

Luke 1:18 Zechariah asked the angel, “How can I be sure of this? I am an old man and my wife is well on in years.”

Luke 1:19 The angel answered, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news.

Luke 1:20 And now you will be silent and not able to speak until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their proper time.”

Luke 1:21 Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple.

Luke 1:22 When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realised he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak.

Luke 1:23 When his time of service was completed, he returned home.

Luke 1:24 After this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion.

Luke 1:25 “The Lord has done this for me,” she said. “In these days he has shown his favour and taken away my disgrace among the people.”

Luke 1:26 In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee,

Luke 1:27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin’s name was Mary.

Luke 1:28 The angel went to her and said, “Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The Lord is with you.”

Luke 1:29 Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be.

Luke 1:30 But the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favour with God.

Luke 1:31 You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus.

Luke 1:32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David,

Luke 1:33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; his kingdom will never end.”

Luke 1:34 “How will this be,” Mary asked the angel, “since I am a virgin?”

Luke 1:35 The angel answered, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God.

Luke 1:36 Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be barren is in her sixth month.

Luke 1:37 For nothing is impossible with God.”

Luke 1:38 “I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May it be to me as you have said.” Then the angel left her.

Luke 1:39 At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea,

Luke 1:40 where she entered Zechariah’s home and greeted Elizabeth.

Luke 1:41 When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

Luke 1:42 In a loud voice she exclaimed: “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child you will bear!

Luke 1:43 But why am I so favoured, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

Luke 1:44 As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.

Luke 1:45 Blessed is she who has believed that what the Lord has said to her will be accomplished!”

Luke 1:46 And Mary said: “My soul glorifies the Lord

Luke 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,

Luke 1:48 for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed,

Luke 1:49 for the Mighty One has done great things for me—holy is his name.

Luke 1:50 His mercy extends to those who fear him, from generation to generation.

Luke 1:51 He has performed mighty deeds with his arm; he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.

Luke 1:52 He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.

Luke 1:53 He has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty.

Luke 1:54 He has helped his servant Israel, remembering to be merciful

Luke 1:55 to Abraham and his descendants for ever, even as he said to our fathers.”

Luke 1:56 Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

Luke 1:57 When it was time for Elizabeth to have her baby, she gave birth to a son.

Luke 1:58 Her neighbours and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they shared her joy.

Luke 1:59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him after his father Zechariah,

Luke 1:60 but his mother spoke up and said, “No! He is to be called John.”

Luke 1:61 They said to her, “There is no-one among your relatives who has that name.”

Luke 1:62 Then they made signs to his father, to find out what he would like to name the child.

Luke 1:63 He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone’s astonishment he wrote, “His name is John.”

Luke 1:64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak, praising God.

Luke 1:65 The neighbours were all filled with awe, and throughout the hill country of Judea people were talking about all these things.

Luke 1:66 Everyone who heard this wondered about it, asking, “What then is this child going to be?” For the Lord’s hand was with him.

Luke 1:67 His father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

Luke 1:68 “Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has come and has redeemed his people.

Luke 1:69 He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

Luke 1:70 (as he said through his holy prophets of long ago),

Luke 1:71 salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us—

Luke 1:72 to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant,

Luke 1:73 the oath he swore to our father Abraham:

Luke 1:74 to rescue us from the hand of our enemies, and to enable us to serve him without fear

Luke 1:75 in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

Luke 1:76 And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for him,

Luke 1:77 to give his people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

Luke 1:78 because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven

Luke 1:79 to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace.”

Luke 1:80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit; and he lived in the desert until he appeared publicly to Israel.

Luke 2:1 In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world.

Luke 2:2 (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.)

Luke 2:3 And everyone went to his own town to register.

Luke 2:4 So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David.

Luke 2:5 He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child.

Luke 2:6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born,

Luke 2:7 and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Luke 2:8 And there were shepherds living out in the fields near by, keeping watch over their flocks at night.

Luke 2:9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

Luke 2:10 But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.

Luke 2:11 Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord.

Luke 2:12 This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.”

Luke 2:13 Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

Luke 2:14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favour rests.”

Luke 2:15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

Luke 2:16 So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger.

Luke 2:17 When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child,

Luke 2:18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them.

Luke 2:19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.

Luke 2:20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

Luke 2:21 On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise him, he was named Jesus, the name the angel had given him before he had been conceived.

Luke 2:22 When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses had been completed, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

Luke 2:23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord”),

Luke 2:24 and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: “a pair of doves or two young pigeons”.

Luke 2:25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

Luke 2:26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord’s Christ.

Luke 2:27 Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required,

Luke 2:28 Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:

Luke 2:29 “Sovereign Lord, as you have promised, you now dismiss your servant in peace.

Luke 2:30 For my eyes have seen your salvation,

Luke 2:31 which you have prepared in the sight of all people,

Luke 2:32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.”

Luke 2:33 The child’s father and mother marvelled at what was said about him.

Luke 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: “This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against,

Luke 2:35 so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

Luke 2:36 There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage,

Luke 2:37 and then was a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying.

Luke 2:38 Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luke 2:39 When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth.

Luke 2:40 And the child grew and became strong; he was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

Luke 2:41 Every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover.

Luke 2:42 When he was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, according to the custom.

Luke 2:43 After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it.

Luke 2:44 Thinking he was in their company, they travelled on for a day. Then they began looking for him among their relatives and friends.

Luke 2:45 When they did not find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him.

Luke 2:46 After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

Luke 2:47 Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and his answers.

Luke 2:48 When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, “Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you.”

Luke 2:49 “Why were you searching for me?” he asked. “Didn’t you know I had to be in my Father’s house?”

Luke 2:50 But they did not understand what he was saying to them.

Luke 2:51 Then he went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But his mother treasured all these things in her heart.

Luke 2:52 And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men.

Luke 3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar— when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and Traconitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene—

Luke 3:2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came toJohn son of Zechariah in the desert.

Luke 3:3 He went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Luke 3:4 As is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: “A voice of one calling in the desert,`Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.

Luke 3:5 Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill made low. The crooked roads shall become straight, the rough ways smooth.

Luke 3:6 And all mankind will see God’s salvation.’“

Luke 3:7 John said to the crowds coming out to be baptised by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

Luke 3:8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves,`We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham.

Luke 3:9 The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

Luke 3:10 “What should we do then?” the crowd asked.

Luke 3:11 John answered, “The man with two tunics should share with him who has none, and the one who has food should do the same.”

Luke 3:12 Tax collectors also came to be baptised. “Teacher,” they asked, “what should we do?”

Luke 3:13 “Don’t collect any more than you are required to,” he told them.

Luke 3:14 Then some soldiers asked him, “And what should we do?” He replied, “Don’t extort money and don’t accuse people falsely— be content with your pay.”

Luke 3:15 The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Christ.

Luke 3:16 John answered them all, “I baptise you with water. But one more powerful than I will come, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Luke 3:17 His winnowing fork is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

Luke 3:18 And with many other words John exhorted the people and preached the good news to them.

Luke 3:19 But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and all the other evil things he had done,

Luke 3:20 Herod added this to them all: He locked John up in prison.

Luke 3:21 When all the people were being baptised, Jesus was baptised too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened

Luke 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

Luke 3:23 Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. He was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli,

Luke 3:24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,

Luke 3:25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,

Luke 3:26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,

Luke 3:27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,

Luke 3:28 the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,

Luke 3:29 the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,

Luke 3:30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,

Luke 3:31 the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,

Luke 3:32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon,

Luke 3:33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,

Luke 3:34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,

Luke 3:35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah,

Luke 3:36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,

Luke 3:37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan,

Luke 3:38 the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Luke 4:1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the desert,

Luke 4:2 where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry.

Luke 4:3 The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

Luke 4:4 Jesus answered, “It is written:`Man does not live on bread alone.’“

Luke 4:5 The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.

Luke 4:6 And he said to him, “I will give you all their authority and splendour, for it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to.

Luke 4:7 So if you worship me, it will all be yours.”

Luke 4:8 Jesus answered, “It is written:`Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.’“

Luke 4:9 The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down from here.

Luke 4:10 For it is written: “`He will command his angels concerning you to guard you carefully;

Luke 4:11 they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.’“

Luke 4:12 Jesus answered, “It says:`Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’“

Luke 4:13 When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left him until an opportune time.

Luke 4:14 Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside.

Luke 4:15 He taught in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.

Luke 4:16 He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read.

Luke 4:17 The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written:

Luke 4:18 “The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, Luke 4:19 to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.”

Luke 4:20 Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him,

Luke 4:21 and he began by saying to them, “Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.”

Luke 4:22 All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his lips. “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?” they asked.

Luke 4:23 Jesus said to them, “Surely you will quote this proverb to me:`Physician, heal yourself! Do here in your home town what we have heard that you did in Capernaum.’“

Luke 4:24 “I tell you the truth,” he continued, “no prophet is accepted in his home town.

Luke 4:25 I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah’s time, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine throughout the land.

Luke 4:26 Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon.

Luke 4:27 And there were many in Israel with leprosy in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian.”

Luke 4:28 All the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard this.

Luke 4:29 They got up, drove him out of the town, and took him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw him down the cliff.

Luke 4:30 But he walked right through the crowd and went on his way.

Luke 4:31 Then he went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath began to teach the people.

Luke 4:32 They were amazed at his teaching, because his message had authority.

Luke 4:33 In the synagogue there was a man possessed by a demon, an evil spirit. He cried out at the top of his voice,

Luke 4:34 “Ha! What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

Luke 4:35 “Be quiet!” Jesus said sternly. “Come out of him!” Then the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without injuring him.

Luke 4:36 All the people were amazed and said to each other, “What is this teaching? With authority and power he gives orders to evil spirits and they come out!”

Luke 4:37 And the news about him spread throughout the surrounding area.

Luke 4:38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her.

Luke 4:39 So he bent over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to wait on them.

Luke 4:40 When the sun was setting, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying his hands on each one, he healed them.

Luke 4:41 Moreover, demons came out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew he was the Christ.

Luke 4:42 At daybreak Jesus went out to a solitary place. The people were looking for him and when they came to where he was, they tried to keep him from leaving them.

Luke 4:43 But he said, “I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent.”

Luke 4:44 And he kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Luke 5:1 One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the people crowding round him and listening to the word of God,

Luke 5:2 he saw at the water’s edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets.

Luke 5:3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat.

Luke 5:4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch.”

Luke 5:5 Simon answered, “Master, we’ve worked hard all night and haven’t caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets.”

Luke 5:6 When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break.

Luke 5:7 So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

Luke 5:8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees and said, “Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!”

Luke 5:9 For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken,

Luke 5:10 and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon’s partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid; from now on you will catch men.”

Luke 5:11 So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.

Luke 5:12 While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell with his face to the ground and begged him, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

Luke 5:13 Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” And immediately the leprosy left him.

Luke 5:14 Then Jesus ordered him, “Don’t tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”

Luke 5:15 Yet the news about him spread all the more, so that crowds of people came to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses.

Luke 5:16 But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.

Luke 5:17 One day as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law, who had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem, were sitting there. And the power of the Lord was present for him to heal the sick.

Luke 5:18 Some men came carrying a paralytic on a mat and tried to take him into the house to lay him before Jesus.

Luke 5:19 When they could not find a way to do this because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

Luke 5:20 When Jesus saw their faith, he said, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”

Luke 5:21 The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began thinking to themselves, “Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

Luke 5:22 Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts?

Luke 5:23 Which is easier: to say,`Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say,`Get up and walk’?

Luke 5:24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins....” He said to the paralysed man, “I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home.”

Luke 5:25 Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on and went home praising God.

Luke 5:26 Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God. They were filled with awe and said, “We have seen remarkable things today.”

Luke 5:27 After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at his tax booth. “Follow me,” Jesus said to him,

Luke 5:28 and Levi got up, left everything and followed him.

Luke 5:29 Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them.

Luke 5:30 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to his disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and`sinners’?”

Luke 5:31 Jesus answered them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

Luke 5:32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

Luke 5:33 They said to him, “John’s disciples often fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours go on eating and drinking.”

Luke 5:34 Jesus answered, “Can you make the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them?

Luke 5:35 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; in those days they will fast.”

Luke 5:36 He told them this parable: “No-one tears a patch from a new garment and sews it on an old one. If he does, he will have torn the new garment, and the patch from the new will not match the old.

Luke 5:37 And no-one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined.

Luke 5:38 No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins.

Luke 5:39 And no-one after drinking old wine wants the new, for he says,`The old is better.’“

Luke 6:1 One Sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields, and his disciples began to pick some ears of corn, rub them in their hands and eat the grain.

Luke 6:2 Some of the Pharisees asked, “Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

Luke 6:3 Jesus answered them, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Luke 6:4 He entered the house of God, and taking the consecrated bread, he ate what is lawful only for priests to eat. And he also gave some to his companions.”

Luke 6:5 Then Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

Luke 6:6 On another Sabbath he went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shrivelled.

Luke 6:7 The Pharisees and the teachers of the law were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal on the Sabbath.

Luke 6:8 But Jesus knew what they were thinking and said to the man with the shrivelled hand, “Get up and stand in front of everyone.” So he got up and stood there.

Luke 6:9 Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?”

Luke 6:10 He looked round at them all, and then said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was completely restored.

Luke 6:11 But they were furious and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Luke 6:12 One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God.

Luke 6:13 When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles:

Luke 6:14 Simon (whom he named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew,

Luke 6:15 Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot,

Luke 6:16 Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Luke 6:17 He went down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coast of Tyre and Sidon,

Luke 6:18 who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by evil spirits were cured,

Luke 6:19 and the people all tried to touch him, because power was coming from him and healing them all.

Luke 6:20 Looking at his disciples, he said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

Luke 6:21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

Luke 6:22 Blessed are you when men hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.

Luke 6:23 “Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their fathers treated the prophets.

Luke 6:24 “But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort.

Luke 6:25 Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.

Luke 6:26 Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets.

Luke 6:27 “But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

Luke 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who ill-treat you.

Luke 6:29 If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. If someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic.

Luke 6:30 Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back.

Luke 6:31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Luke 6:32 “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even`sinners’ love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even`sinners’ do that.

Luke 6:34 And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even`sinners’ lend to`sinners’, expecting to be repaid in full.

Luke 6:35 But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked.

Luke 6:36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Luke 6:37 “Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Luke 6:38 Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”

Luke 6:39 He also told them this parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit?

Luke 6:40 A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

Luke 6:41 “Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

Luke 6:42 How can you say to your brother,`Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

Luke 6:43 “No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit.

Luke 6:44 Each tree is recognised by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thorn-bushes, or grapes from briers.

Luke 6:45 The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For out of the overflow of his heart his mouth speaks.

Luke 6:46 “Why do you call me,`Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say?

Luke 6:47 I will show you what he is like who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice.

Luke 6:48 He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When the flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built.

Luke 6:49 But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete.”

Luke 7:1 When Jesus had finished saying all this in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.

Luke 7:2 There a centurion’s servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die.

Luke 7:3 The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant.

Luke 7:4 When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, “This man deserves to have you do this,

Luke 7:5 because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue.”

Luke 7:6 So Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: “Lord, don’t trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof.

Luke 7:7 That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed.

Luke 7:8 For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one,`Go’, and he goes; and that one,`Come’, and he comes. I say to my servant,`Do this’, and he does it.”

Luke 7:9 When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel.”

Luke 7:10 Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

Luke 7:11 Soon afterwards, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him.

Luke 7:12 As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her.

Luke 7:13 When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don’t cry.”

Luke 7:14 Then he went up and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!”

Luke 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

Luke 7:16 They were all filled with awe and praised God. “A great prophet has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.”

Luke 7:17 This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.

Luke 7:18 John’s disciples told him about all these things. Calling two of them,

Luke 7:19 he sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?”

Luke 7:20 When the men came to Jesus, they said, “John the Baptist sent us to you to ask,`Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?’“

Luke 7:21 At that very time Jesus cured many who had diseases, sicknesses and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind.

Luke 7:22 So he replied to the messengers, “Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.

Luke 7:23 Blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of me.”

Luke 7:24 After John’s messengers left, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?

Luke 7:25 If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear expensive clothes and indulge in luxury are in palaces.

Luke 7:26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Luke 7:27 This is the one about whom it is written: “`I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

Luke 7:28 I tell you, among those born of women there is no-one greater than John; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

Luke 7:29 (All the people, even the tax collectors, when they heard Jesus’ words, acknowledged that God’s way was right, because they had been baptised by John.

Luke 7:30 But the Pharisees and experts in the law rejected God’s purpose for themselves, because they had not been baptised by John.)

Luke 7:31 “To what, then, can I compare the people of this generation? What are they like?

Luke 7:32 They are like children sitting in the market-place and calling out to each other: “`We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not cry.’

Luke 7:33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say,`He has a demon.’

Luke 7:34 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say,`Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and “sinners”.’

Luke 7:35 But wisdom is proved right by all her children.”

Luke 7:36 Now one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, so he went to the Pharisee’s house and reclined at the table.

Luke 7:37 When a woman who had lived a sinful life in that town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume,

Luke 7:38 and as she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.

Luke 7:39 When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner.”

Luke 7:40 Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to tell you.” “Tell me, teacher,” he said.

Luke 7:41 “Two men owed money to a certain money-lender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

Luke 7:42 Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he cancelled the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?”

Luke 7:43 Simon replied, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt cancelled.” “You have judged correctly,” Jesus said.

Luke 7:44 Then he turned towards the woman and said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.

Luke 7:45 You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet.

Luke 7:46 You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet.

Luke 7:47 Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—for she loved much. But he who has been forgiven little loves little.”

Luke 7:48 Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

Luke 7:49 The other guests began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

Luke 7:50 Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8:1 After this, Jesus travelled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him,

Luke 8:2 and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out;

Luke 8:3 Joanna the wife of Chuza, the manager of Herod’s household; Susanna; and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

Luke 8:4 While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, he told this parable:

Luke 8:5 “A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up.

Luke 8:6 Some fell on rock, and when it came up, the plants withered because they had no moisture.

Luke 8:7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants.

Luke 8:8 Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up and yielded a crop, a hundred times more than was sown.” When he said this, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 8:9 His disciples asked him what this parable meant.

Luke 8:10 He said, “The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that, “`though seeing, they may not see; though hearing, they may not understand.’

Luke 8:11 “This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God.

Luke 8:12 Those along the path are the ones who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.

Luke 8:13 Those on the rock are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in the time of testing they fall away.

Luke 8:14 The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life’s worries, riches and pleasures, and they do not mature.

Luke 8:15 But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop.

Luke 8:16 “No-one lights a lamp and hides it in a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he puts it on a stand, so that those who come in can see the light.

Luke 8:17 For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open.

Luke 8:18 Therefore consider carefully how you listen. Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him.”

Luke 8:19 Now Jesus’ mother and brothers came to see him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd.

Luke 8:20 Someone told him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you.”

Luke 8:21 He replied, “My mother and brothers are those who hear God’s word and put it into practice.”

Luke 8:22 One day Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.” So they got into a boat and set out.

Luke 8:23 As they sailed, he fell asleep. A squall came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger.

Luke 8:24 The disciples went and woke him, saying, “Master, Master, we’re going to drown!” He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm.

Luke 8:25 “Where is your faith?” he asked his disciples. In fear and amazement they asked one another, “Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him.”

Luke 8:26 They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is across the lake from Galilee.

Luke 8:27 When Jesus stepped ashore, he was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but had lived in the tombs.

Luke 8:28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting at the top of his voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don’t torture me!”

Luke 8:29 For Jesus had commanded the evil spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places.

Luke 8:30 Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” “Legion,” he replied, because many demons had gone into him.

Luke 8:31 And they begged him repeatedly not to order them to go into the Abyss.

Luke 8:32 A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into them, and he gave them permission.

Luke 8:33 When the demons came out of the man, they went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

Luke 8:34 When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside,

Luke 8:35 and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

Luke 8:36 Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed man had been cured.

Luke 8:37 Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them, because they were overcome with fear. So he got into the boat and left.

Luke 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,

Luke 8:39 "Return home and tell how much God has done for you." So the man went away and told all over the town how much Jesus had done for him.

Luke 8:40 Now when Jesus returned, a crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him.

Luke 8:41 Then a man named Jairus, a ruler of the synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come to his house

Luke 8:42 because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve, was dying. As Jesus was on his way, the crowds almost crushed him.

Luke 8:43 And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years, but no-one could heal her.

Luke 8:44 She came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak, and immediately her bleeding stopped.

Luke 8:45 "Who touched me?" Jesus asked. When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the people are crowding and pressing against you."

Luke 8:46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; I know that power has gone out from me."

Luke 8:47 Then the woman, seeing that she could not go unnoticed, came trembling and fell at his feet. In the presence of all the people, she told why she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed.

Luke 8:48 Then he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace.”

Luke 8:49 While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler. “Your daughter is dead,” he said. “Don’t bother the teacher any more.”

Luke 8:50 Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed.”

Luke 8:51 When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John and James, and the child’s father and mother.

Luke 8:52 Meanwhile, all the people were wailing and mourning for her. “Stop wailing,” Jesus said. “She is not dead but asleep.”

Luke 8:53 They laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

Luke 8:54 But he took her by the hand and said, “My child, get up!”

Luke 8:55 Her spirit returned, and at once she stood up. Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat.

Luke 8:56 Her parents were astonished, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9:1 When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases,

Luke 9:2 and he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

Luke 9:3 He told them: “Take nothing for the journey—no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, no extra tunic.

Luke 9:4 Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that town.

Luke 9:5 If people do not welcome you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave their town, as a testimony against them.”

Luke 9:6 So they set out and went from village to village, preaching the gospel and healing people everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was going on. And he was perplexed, because some were saying that John had been raised from the dead,

Luke 9:8 others that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life.

Luke 9:9 But Herod said, “I beheaded John. Who, then, is this I hear such things about?” And he tried to see him.

Luke 9:10 When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus what they had done. Then he took them with him and they withdrew by themselves to a town called Bethsaida, Luke 9:11 but the crowds learned about it and followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing.

Luke 9:12 Late in the afternoon the Twelve came to him and said, “Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside and find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here.”

Luke 9:13 He replied, “You give them something to eat.” They answered, “We have only five loaves of bread and two fish— unless we go and buy food for all this crowd.”

Luke 9:14 (About five thousand men were there.) But he said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.”

Luke 9:15 The disciples did so, and everybody sat down.

Luke 9:16 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them. Then he gave them to the disciples to set before the people.

Luke 9:17 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Luke 9:18 Once when Jesus was praying in private and his disciples were with him, he asked them, “Who do the crowds say I am?”

Luke 9:19 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life.”

Luke 9:20 “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?” Peter answered, “The Christ of God.”

Luke 9:21 Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone.

Luke 9:22 And he said, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.”

Luke 9:23 Then he said to them all: “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.

Luke 9:24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will save it.

Luke 9:25 What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit his very self?

Luke 9:26 If anyone is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Luke 9:27 I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:28 About eight days after Jesus said this, he took Peter, John and James with him and went up onto a mountain to pray.

Luke 9:29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning.

Luke 9:30 Two men, Moses and Elijah,

Luke 9:31 appeared in glorious splendour, talking with Jesus. They spoke about his departure, which he was about to bring to fulfilment at Jerusalem.

Luke 9:32 Peter and his companions were very sleepy, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him.

Luke 9:33 As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters— one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” (He did not know what he was saying.)

Luke 9:34 While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

Luke 9:35 A voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him.”

Luke 9:36 When the voice had spoken, they found that Jesus was alone. The disciples kept this to themselves, and told no-one at that time what they had seen.

Luke 9:37 The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him.

Luke 9:38 A man in the crowd called out, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child.

Luke 9:39 A spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It scarcely ever leaves him and is destroying him.

Luke 9:40 I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they could not.”

Luke 9:41 “O unbelieving and perverse generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

Luke 9:42 Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

Luke 9:43 And they were all amazed at the greatness of God. While everyone was marvelling at all that Jesus did, he said to his disciples,

Luke 9:44 “Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.”

Luke 9:45 But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

Luke 9:46 An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest.

Luke 9:47 Jesus, knowing their thoughts, took a little child and made him stand beside him.

Luke 9:48 Then he said to them, “Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For he who is least among you all—he is the greatest.”

Luke 9:49 “Master,” said John, “we saw a man driving out demons in your name and we tried to stop him, because he is not one of us.”

Luke 9:50 “Do not stop him,” Jesus said, “for whoever is not against you is for you.”

Luke 9:51 As the time approached for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem.

Luke 9:52 And he sent messengers on ahead, who went into a Samaritan village to get things ready for him;

Luke 9:53 but the people there did not welcome him, because he was heading for Jerusalem.

Luke 9:54 When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?”

Luke 9:55 But Jesus turned and rebuked them,

Luke 9:56 and they went to another village.

Luke 9:57 As they were walking along the road, a man said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.”

Luke 9:58 Jesus replied, “Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”

Luke 9:59 He said to another man, “Follow me.” But the man replied, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

Luke 9:60 Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:61 Still another said, “I will follow you, Lord; but first let me go back and say good-bye to my family.”

Luke 9:62 Jesus replied, “No-one who puts his hand to the plough and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God.”

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go.

Luke 10:2 He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.

Luke 10:3 Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

Luke 10:4 Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road.

Luke 10:5 “When you enter a house, first say,`Peace to this house.’

Luke 10:6 If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you.

Luke 10:7 Stay in that house, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

Luke 10:8 “When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is set before you.

Luke 10:9 Heal the sick who are there and tell them,`The kingdom of God is near you.’

Luke 10:10 But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say,

Luke 10:11 `Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.’

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Luke 10:13 “Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Luke 10:14 But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

Luke 10:15 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths.

Luke 10:16 “He who listens to you listens to me; he who rejects you rejects me; but he who rejects me rejects him who sent me.”

Luke 10:17 The seventy-two returned with joy and said, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name.”

Luke 10:18 He replied, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Luke 10:19 I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.

Luke 10:20 However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

Luke 10:21 At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure.

Luke 10:22 “All things have been committed to me by my Father. No-one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no-one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

Luke 10:23 Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see.

Luke 10:24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.”

Luke 10:25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 10:26 “What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?”

Luke 10:27 He answered: “`Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’; and,`Love your neighbour as yourself.’“

Luke 10:28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”

Luke 10:29 But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbour?”

Luke 10:30 In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half-dead.

Luke 10:31 A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan, as he travelled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him.

Luke 10:34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him.

Luke 10:35 The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper.`Look after him,’ he said,`and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.’

Luke 10:36 “Which of these three do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?”

Luke 10:37 The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.” Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.”

Luke 10:38 As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him.

Luke 10:39 She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet listening to what he said.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, “Lord, don’t you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!”

Luke 10:41 “Martha, Martha,” the Lord answered, “you are worried and upset about many things, Luke 10:42 but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Luke 11:1 One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

Luke 11:2 He said to them, “When you pray, say: “`Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread.

Luke 11:4 Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation.’“

Luke 11:5 Then he said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and he goes to him at midnight and says,`Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,

Luke 11:6 because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him.’

Luke 11:7 “Then the one inside answers,`Don’t bother me. The door is already locked, and my children are with me in bed. I can’t get up and give you anything.’

Luke 11:8 I tell you, though he will not get up and give him the bread because he is his friend, yet because of the man’s boldness he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

Luke 11:9 “So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

Luke 11:10 For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

Luke 11:11 “Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead?

Luke 11:12 Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Luke 11:14 Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon left, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowd was amazed.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, “By Beelzebub, the prince of demons, he is driving out demons.”

Luke 11:16 Others tested him by asking for a sign from heaven.

Luke 11:17 Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them: “Any kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and a house divided against itself will fall.

Luke 11:18 If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim that I drive out demons by Beelzebub.

Luke 11:19 Now if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your followers drive them out? So then, they will be your judges.

Luke 11:20 But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Luke 11:21 “When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe.

Luke 11:22 But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armour in which the man trusted and divides up the spoils.

Luke 11:23 “He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me, scatters.

Luke 11:24 “When an evil spirit comes out of a man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says,`I will return to the house I left.’

Luke 11:25 When it arrives, it finds the house swept clean and put in order.

Luke 11:26 Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that man is worse than the first.”

Luke 11:27 As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd called out, “Blessed is the mother who gave you birth and nursed you.”

Luke 11:28 He replied, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it.”

Luke 11:29 As the crowds increased, Jesus said, “This is a wicked generation. It asks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.

Luke 11:30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation.

Luke 11:31 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, and now one greater than Solomon is here.

Luke 11:32 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now one greater than Jonah is here.

Luke 11:33 “No-one lights a lamp and puts it in a place where it will be hidden, or under a bowl. Instead he puts it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light.

Luke 11:34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are good, your whole body also is full of light. But when they are bad, your body also is full of darkness.

Luke 11:35 See to it, then, that the light within you is not darkness.

Luke 11:36 Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, and no part of it dark, it will be completely lighted, as when the light of a lamp shines on you.”

Luke 11:37 When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him to eat with him; so he went in and reclined at the table.

Luke 11:38 But the Pharisee, noticing that Jesus did not first wash before the meal, was surprised.

Luke 11:39 Then the Lord said to him, “Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

Luke 11:40 You foolish people! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

Luke 11:41 But give what is inside [the dish] to the poor, and everything will be clean for you.

Luke 11:42 “Woe to you Pharisees, because you give God a tenth of your mint, rue and all other kinds of garden herbs, but you neglect justice and the love of God. You should have practised the latter without leaving the former undone.

Luke 11:43 “Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the most important seats in the synagogues and greetings in the market-places.

Luke 11:44 “Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves, which men walk over without knowing it.”

Luke 11:45 One of the experts in the law answered him, “Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us also.”

Luke 11:46 Jesus replied, “And you experts in the law, woe to you, because you load people down with burdens they can hardly carry, and you yourselves will not lift one finger to help them.

Luke 11:47 “Woe to you, because you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your forefathers who killed them.

Luke 11:48 So you testify that you approve of what your forefathers did; they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs.

Luke 11:49 Because of this, God in his wisdom said,`I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and others they will persecute.’

Luke 11:50 Therefore this generation will be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the beginning of the world,

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible for it all.

Luke 11:52 “Woe to you experts in the law, because you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering.”

Luke 11:53 When Jesus left there, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to oppose him fiercely and to besiege him with questions,

Luke 11:54 waiting to catch him in something he might say.

Luke 12:1 Meanwhile, when a crowd of many thousands had gathered, so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to his disciples, saying: “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

Luke 12:2 There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.

Luke 12:3 What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the roofs.

Luke 12:4 “I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more.

Luke 12:5 But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear him who, after the killing of the body, has power to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him.

Luke 12:6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God.

Luke 12:7 Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Luke 12:8 “I tell you, whoever acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man will also acknowledge him before the angels of God.

Luke 12:9 But he who disowns me before men will be disowned before the angels of God.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 “When you are brought before synagogues, rulers and authorities, do not worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say,

Luke 12:12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say.”

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

Luke 12:14 Jesus replied, “Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?”

Luke 12:15 Then he said to them, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.”

Luke 12:16 And he told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop.

Luke 12:17 He thought to himself,`What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’

Luke 12:18 “Then he said,`This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

Luke 12:19 And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.”‘

Luke 12:20 “But God said to him,`You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’

Luke 12:21 “This is how it will be with anyone who stores up things for himself but is not rich towards God.”

Luke 12:22 Then Jesus said to his disciples: “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear.

Luke 12:23 Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes.

Luke 12:24 Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds!

Luke 12:25 Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?

Luke 12:26 Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest?

Luke 12:27 “Consider how the lilies grow. They do not labour or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these.

Luke 12:28 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today, and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith!

Luke 12:29 And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it.

Luke 12:30 For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father knows that you need them.

Luke 12:31 But seek his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

Luke 12:32 “Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom.

Luke 12:33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

Luke 12:34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Luke 12:35 “Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning,

Luke 12:36 like men waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.

Luke 12:37 It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes. I tell you the truth, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them.

Luke 12:38 It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night.

Luke 12:39 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

Luke 12:40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”

Luke 12:41 Peter asked, “Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?”

Luke 12:42 The Lord answered, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time?

Luke 12:43 It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns.

Luke 12:44 I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

Luke 12:45 But suppose the servant says to himself,`My master is taking a long time in coming,’ and he then begins to beat the menservants and maidservants and to eat and drink and get drunk.

Luke 12:46 The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

Luke 12:47 “That servant who knows his master’s will and does not get ready or does not do what his master wants will be beaten with many blows.

Luke 12:48 But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Luke 12:49 “I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

Luke 12:50 But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed!

Luke 12:51 Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division.

Luke 12:52 From now on there will be five in one family divided against each other, three against two and two against three.

Luke 12:53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Luke 12:54 He said to the crowd: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say,`It’s going to rain,’ and it does.

Luke 12:55 And when the south wind blows, you say,`It’s going to be hot,’ and it is.

Luke 12:56 Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky. How is it that you don’t know how to interpret this present time?

Luke 12:57 “Why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right?

Luke 12:58 As you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, try hard to be reconciled to him on the way, or he may drag you off to the judge, and the judge turn you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

Luke 12:59 I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.”

Luke 13:1 Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

Luke 13:2 Jesus answered, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way?

Luke 13:3 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.

Luke 13:4 Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem?

Luke 13:5 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.”

Luke 13:6 Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig-tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any.

Luke 13:7 So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard,`For three years now I’ve been coming to look for fruit on this fig-tree and haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?’

Luke 13:8 “`Sir,’ the man replied,`leave it alone for one more year, and I’ll dig round it and fertilise it.

Luke 13:9 If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.’“

Luke 13:10 On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues,

Luke 13:11 and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all.

Luke 13:12 When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, “Woman, you are set free from your infirmity.”

Luke 13:13 Then he put his hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

Luke 13:14 Indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, the synagogue ruler said to the people, “There are six days for work. So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath.”

Luke 13:15 The Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Doesn’t each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water?

Luke 13:16 Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?”

Luke 13:17 When he said this, all his opponents were humiliated, but the people were delighted with all the wonderful things he was doing.

Luke 13:18 Then Jesus asked, “What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it to?

Luke 13:19 It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air perched in its branches.”

Luke 13:20 Again he asked, “What shall I compare the kingdom of God to?

Luke 13:21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount of flour until it worked all through the dough.”

Luke 13:22 Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 13:23 Someone asked him, “Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?” He said to them, Luke 13:24 “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.

Luke 13:25 Once the owner of the house gets up and closes the door, you will stand outside knocking and pleading,`Sir, open the door for us.’ “But he will answer,`I don’t know you or where you come from.’

Luke 13:26 “Then you will say,`We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’

Luke 13:27 “But he will reply,`I don’t know you or where you come from. Away from me, all you evildoers!’

Luke 13:28 “There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out.

Luke 13:29 People will come from east and west and north and south, and will take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

Luke 13:30 Indeed there are those who are last who will be first, and first who will be last.”

Luke 13:31 At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to him, “Leave this place and go somewhere else. Herod wants to kill you.”

Luke 13:32 He replied, “Go tell that fox,`I will drive out demons and heal people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal.’

Luke 13:33 In any case, I must keep going today and tomorrow and the next day—for surely no prophet can die outside Jerusalem!

Luke 13:34 “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!

Luke 13:35 Look, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me again until you say,`Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’“

Luke 14:1 One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched.

Luke 14:2 There in front of him was a man suffering from dropsy.

Luke 14:3 Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?”

Luke 14:4 But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him away.

Luke 14:5 Then he asked them, “If one of you has a son or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull him out?”

Luke 14:6 And they had nothing to say.

Luke 14:7 When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honour at the table, he told them this parable:

Luke 14:8 “When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honour, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited.

Luke 14:9 If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you,`Give this man your seat.’ Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place.

Luke 14:10 But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you,`Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honoured in the presence of all your fellow guests.

Luke 14:11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 14:12 Then Jesus said to his host, “When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or relatives, or your rich neighbours; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid.

Luke 14:13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind,

Luke 14:14 and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

Luke 14:15 When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, “Blessed is the man who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God.”

Luke 14:16 Jesus replied: “A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests.

Luke 14:17 At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited,`Come, for everything is now ready.’

Luke 14:18 “But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said,`I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.’

Luke 14:19 “Another said,`I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.’

Luke 14:20 “Still another said,`I have just got married, so I can’t come.’

Luke 14:21 “The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant,`Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.’

Luke 14:22 “`Sir,’ the servant said,`what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.’

Luke 14:23 “Then the master told his servant,`Go out to the roads and country lanes and make them come in, so that my house will be full.

Luke 14:24 I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.’“

Luke 14:25 Large crowds were travelling with Jesus, and turning to them he said:

Luke 14:26 “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters—yes, even his own life—he cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:27 And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:28 “Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will he not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if he has enough money to complete it?

Luke 14:29 For if he lays the foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule him,

Luke 14:30 saying,`This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.’

Luke 14:31 “Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Will he not first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand?

Luke 14:32 If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace.

Luke 14:33 In the same way, any of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:34 “Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again?

Luke 14:35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; it is thrown out. “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 15:1 Now the tax collectors and “sinners” were all gathering round to hear him.

Luke 15:2 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them.”

Luke 15:3 Then Jesus told them this parable:

Luke 15:4 “Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?

Luke 15:5 And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders

Luke 15:6 and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbours together and says,`Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.’

Luke 15:7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

Luke 15:8 “Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Does she not light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?

Luke 15:9 And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together and says,`Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.’

Luke 15:10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Luke 15:11 Jesus continued: “There was a man who had two sons.

Luke 15:12 The younger one said to his father,`Father, give me my share of the estate.’ So he divided his property between them.

Luke 15:13 “Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living.

Luke 15:14 After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need.

Luke 15:15 So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs.

Luke 15:16 He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no-one gave him anything.

Luke 15:17 “When he came to his senses, he said,`How many of my father’s hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death!

Luke 15:18 I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.

Luke 15:19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired men.’

Luke 15:20 So he got up and went to his father. “But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

Luke 15:21 “The son said to him,`Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

Luke 15:22 “But the father said to his servants,`Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

Luke 15:23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let’s have a feast and celebrate.

Luke 15:24 For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ So they began to celebrate.

Luke 15:25 “Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.

Luke 15:26 So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on.

Luke 15:27 `Your brother has come,’ he replied,`and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’

Luke 15:28 “The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him.

Luke 15:29 But he answered his father,`Look! All these years I’ve been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends.

Luke 15:30 But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!’

Luke 15:31 “`My son,’ the father said,`you are always with me, and everything I have is yours.

Luke 15:32 But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’“

Luke 16:1 Jesus told his disciples: “There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions.

Luke 16:2 So he called him in and asked him,`What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

Luke 16:3 “The manager said to himself,`What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m ashamed to beg—

Luke 16:4 I know what I’ll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.’

Luke 16:5 “So he called in each one of his master’s debtors. He asked the first,`How much do you owe my master?’

Luke 16:6 “`Eight hundred gallons of olive oil,’ he replied. “The manager told him,`Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred.’

Luke 16:7 “Then he asked the second,`And how much do you owe?’ “`A thousand bushels of wheat,’ he replied. “He told him,`Take your bill and make it eight hundred.’

Luke 16:8 “The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light.

Luke 16:9 I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

Luke 16:10 “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.

Luke 16:11 So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?

Luke 16:12 And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own?

Luke 16:13 “No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.”

Luke 16:14 The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus.

Luke 16:15 He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of men, but God knows your hearts. What is highly valued among men is detestable in God’s sight.

Luke 16:16 “The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it.

Luke 16:17 It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

Luke 16:18 “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Luke 16:19 “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day.

Luke 16:20 At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores

Luke 16:21 and longing to eat what fell from the rich man’s table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores.

Luke 16:22 “The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried.

Luke 16:23 In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side.

Luke 16:24 So he called to him,`Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.’

Luke 16:25 “But Abraham replied,`Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.

Luke 16:26 And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.’

Luke 16:27 “He answered,`Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father’s house,

Luke 16:28 for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’

Luke 16:29 “Abraham replied,`They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.’

Luke 16:30 “`No, father Abraham,’ he said,`but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

Luke 16:31 “He said to him,`If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’“

Luke 17:1 Jesus said to his disciples: “Things that cause people to sin are bound to come, but woe to that person through whom they come.

Luke 17:2 It would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a millstone tied round his neck than for him to cause one of these little ones to sin.

Luke 17:3 So watch yourselves. “If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him.

Luke 17:4 If he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times comes back to you and says,`I repent,’ forgive him.”

Luke 17:5 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”

Luke 17:6 He replied, “If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree,`Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.

Luke 17:7 “Suppose one of you had a servant ploughing or looking after the sheep. Would he say to the servant when he comes in from the field,`Come along now and sit down to eat’?

Luke 17:8 Would he not rather say,`Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and wait on me while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink’?

Luke 17:9 Would he thank the servant because he did what he was told to do?

Luke 17:10 So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say,`We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.’“

Luke 17:11 Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee.

Luke 17:12 As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance

Luke 17:13 and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

Luke 17:14 When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed.

Luke 17:15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice.

Luke 17:16 He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.

Luke 17:17 Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?

Luke 17:18 Was no-one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?”

Luke 17:19 Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”

Luke 17:20 Once, having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, “The kingdom of God does not come with your careful observation, Luke 17:21 nor will people say,`Here it is,’ or`There it is,’ because the kingdom of God is within you.”

Luke 17:22 Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.

Luke 17:23 Men will tell you,`There he is!’ or`Here he is!’ Do not go running off after them.

Luke 17:24 For the Son of Man in his day will be like the lightning, which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other.

Luke 17:25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

Luke 17:26 “Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man.

Luke 17:27 People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

Luke 17:28 “It was the same in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building.

Luke 17:29 But the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulphur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

Luke 17:30 “It will be just like this on the day the Son of Man is revealed.

Luke 17:31 On that day no-one who is on the roof of his house, with his goods inside, should go down to get them. Likewise, no-one in the field should go back for anything.

Luke 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife!

Luke 17:33 Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.

Luke 17:34 I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

Luke 17:35 Two women will be grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.”

Luke 17:36

Luke 17:37 “Where, Lord?” they asked. He replied, “Where there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather.”

Luke 18:1 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up.

Luke 18:2 He said: “In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about men.

Luke 18:3 And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea,`Grant me justice against my adversary.’

Luke 18:4 “For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself,`Even though I don’t fear God or care about men,

Luke 18:5 yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won’t eventually wear me out with her coming!’“ Luke 18:6 And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says.

Luke 18:7 And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off?

Luke 18:8 I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”

Luke 18:9 To some who were confident of their own righteousness and looked down on everybody else, Jesus told this parable:

Luke 18:10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Luke 18:11 The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself:`God, I thank you that I am not like other men—robbers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.’

Luke 18:13 “But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said,`God, have mercy on me, a sinner.’

Luke 18:14 “I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 18:15 People were also bringing babies to Jesus to have him touch them. When the disciples saw this, they rebuked them.

Luke 18:16 But Jesus called the children to him and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

Luke 18:17 I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

Luke 18:18 A certain ruler asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 18:19 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No-one is good— except God alone.

Luke 18:20 You know the commandments:`Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honour your father and mother.’“

Luke 18:21 “All these I have kept since I was a boy,” he said.

Luke 18:22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Luke 18:23 When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was a man of great wealth.

Luke 18:24 Jesus looked at him and said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!

Luke 18:25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Luke 18:26 Those who heard this asked, “Who then can be saved?”

Luke 18:27 Jesus replied, “What is impossible with men is possible with God.”

Luke 18:28 Peter said to him, “We have left all we had to follow you!”

Luke 18:29 “I tell you the truth,” Jesus said to them, “no-one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God

Luke 18:30 will fail to receive many times as much in this age and, in the age to come, eternal life.”

Luke 18:31 Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them, “We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled.

Luke 18:32 He will be turned over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him, spit on him, flog him and kill him.

Luke 18:33 On the third day he will rise again.”

Luke 18:34 The disciples did not understand any of this. Its meaning was hidden from them, and they did not know what he was talking about.

Luke 18:35 As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging.

Luke 18:36 When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

Luke 18:37 They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

Luke 18:38 He called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:39 Those who led the way rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:40 Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him,

Luke 18:41 “What do you want me to do for you?” “Lord, I want to see,” he replied.

Luke 18:42 Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.”

Luke 18:43 Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.

Luke 19:1 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through.

Luke 19:2 A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy.

Luke 19:3 He wanted to see who Jesus was, but being a short man he could not, because of the crowd.

Luke 19:4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

Luke 19:5 When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today.”

Luke 19:6 So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

Luke 19:7 All the people saw this and began to mutter, “He has gone to be the guest of a`sinner’.”

Luke 19:8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount.”

Luke 19:9 Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham.

Luke 19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost.”

Luke 19:11 While they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and the people thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear at once.

Luke 19:12 He said: “A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return.

Luke 19:13 So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas.`Put this money to work,’ he said,`until I come back.’

Luke 19:14 “But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say,`We don’t want this man to be our king.’

Luke 19:15 “He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it.

Luke 19:16 “The first one came and said,`Sir, your mina has earned ten more.’

Luke 19:17 “`Well done, my good servant!’ his master replied.`Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.’

Luke 19:18 “The second came and said,`Sir, your mina has earned five more.’

Luke 19:19 “His master answered,`You take charge of five cities.’

Luke 19:20 “Then another servant came and said,`Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth.

Luke 19:21 I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.’

Luke 19:22 “His master replied,`I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow?

Luke 19:23 Why then didn’t you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?’

Luke 19:24 “Then he said to those standing by,`Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.’

Luke 19:25 “`Sir,’ they said,`he already has ten!’

Luke 19:26 “He replied,`I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away.

Luke 19:27 But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be a king over them—bring them here and kill them in front of me.’“

Luke 19:28 After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

Luke 19:29 As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them,

Luke 19:30 “Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no-one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Luke 19:31 If anyone asks you,`Why are you untying it?' tell him,`The Lord needs it.'"

Luke 19:32 Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them.

Luke 19:33 As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

Luke 19:34 They replied, "The Lord needs it."

Luke 19:35 They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it.

Luke 19:36 As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road.

Luke 19:37 When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen:

Luke 19:38 "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

Luke 19:39 Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"

Luke 19:40 "I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

Luke 19:41 As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it

Luke 19:42 and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes.

Luke 19:43 The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side.

Luke 19:44 They will dash you to the ground, you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognise the time of God's coming to you."

Luke 19:45 Then he entered the temple area and began driving out those who were selling.

Luke 19:46 "It is written," he said to them, "`My house will be a house of prayer'; but you have made it`a den of robbers'."

Luke 19:47 Every day he was teaching at the temple. But the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the leaders among the people were trying to kill him.

Luke 19:48 Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people hung on his words.

Luke 20:1 One day as he was teaching the people in the temple courts and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, together with the elders, came up to him.

Luke 20:2 “Tell us by what authority you are doing these things,” they said. “Who gave you this authority?”

Luke 20:3 He replied, “I will also ask you a question. Tell me, Luke 20:4 John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or from men?”

Luke 20:5 They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say,`From heaven’, he will ask,`Why didn’t you believe him?’

Luke 20:6 But if we say,`From men’, all the people will stone us, because they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7 So they answered, “We don’t know where it was from.”

Luke 20:8 Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Luke 20:9 He went on to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, rented it to some farmers and went away for a long time.

Luke 20:10 At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:11 He sent another servant, but that one also they beat and treated shamefully and sent away empty-handed.

Luke 20:12 He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.

Luke 20:13 “Then the owner of the vineyard said,`What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love; perhaps they will respect him.’

Luke 20:14 “But when the tenants saw him, they talked the matter over.`This is the heir,’ they said.`Let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

Luke 20:15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. “What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” When the people heard this, they said, “May this never be!”

Luke 20:17 Jesus looked directly at them and asked, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written: “`The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone’?

Luke 20:18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed.”

Luke 20:19 The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest him immediately, because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.

Luke 20:20 Keeping a close watch on him, they sent spies, who pretended to be honest. They hoped to catch Jesus in something he said so that they might hand him over to the power and authority of the governor.

Luke 20:21 So the spies questioned him: “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right, and that you do not show partiality but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth.

Luke 20:22 Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

Luke 20:23 He saw through their duplicity and said to them,

Luke 20:24 “Show me a denarius. Whose portrait and inscription are on it?”

Luke 20:25 “Caesar’s,” they replied. He said to them, “Then give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

Luke 20:26 They were unable to trap him in what he had said there in public. And astonished by his answer, they became silent.

Luke 20:27 Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question.

Luke 20:28 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and have children for his brother.

Luke 20:29 Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless.

Luke 20:30 The second

Luke 20:31 and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children.

Luke 20:32 Finally, the woman died too.

Luke 20:33 Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?”

Luke 20:34 Jesus replied, “The people of this age marry and are given in marriage.

Luke 20:35 But those who are considered worthy of taking part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage,

Luke 20:36 and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God’s children, since they are children of the resurrection.

Luke 20:37 But in the account of the bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord`the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’.

Luke 20:38 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.”

Luke 20:39 Some of the teachers of the law responded, “Well said, teacher!”

Luke 20:40 And no-one dared to ask him any more questions.

Luke 20:41 Then Jesus said to them, “How is it that they say the Christ is the Son of David?

Luke 20:42 David himself declares in the Book of Psalms: "`The Lord said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand

Luke 20:43 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."'

Luke 20:44 David calls him`Lord'. How then can he be his son?"

Luke 20:45 While all the people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples,

Luke 20:46 "Beware of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and love to be greeted in the market-places and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets.

Luke 20:47 They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. Such men will be punished most severely."

Luke 21:1 As he looked up, Jesus saw the rich putting their gifts into the temple treasury.

Luke 21:2 He also saw a poor widow put in two very small copper coins.

Luke 21:3 "I tell you the truth," he said, "this poor widow has put in more than all the others.

Luke 21:4 All these people gave their gifts out of their wealth; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on."

Luke 21:5 Some of his disciples were remarking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and with gifts dedicated to God. But Jesus said,

Luke 21:6 "As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left on another; every one of them will be thrown down."

Luke 21:7 "Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?"

Luke 21:8 He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming,`I am he,' and`The time is near.' Do not follow them.

Luke 21:9 When you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away."

Luke 21:10 Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.

Luke 21:11 There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven.

Luke 21:12 "But before all this, they will lay hands on you and persecute you. They will deliver you to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors, and all on account of my name.

Luke 21:13 This will result in your being witnesses to them.

Luke 21:14 But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves.

Luke 21:15 For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict.

Luke 21:16 You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death.

Luke 21:17 All men will hate you because of me.

Luke 21:18 But not a hair of your head will perish.

Luke 21:19 By standing firm you will gain life.

Luke 21:20 “When you see Jerusalem being surrounded by armies, you will know that its desolation is near.

Luke 21:21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, and let those in the country not enter the city.

Luke 21:22 For this is the time of punishment in fulfilment of all that has been written.

Luke 21:23 How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! There will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people.

Luke 21:24 They will fall by the sword and will be taken as prisoners to all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

Luke 21:25 “There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea.

Luke 21:26 Men will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

Luke 21:28 When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

Luke 21:29 He told them this parable: “Look at the fig-tree and all the trees.

Luke 21:30 When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near.

Luke 21:31 Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

Luke 21:32 “I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.

Luke 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Luke 21:34 “Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap.

Luke 21:35 For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth.

Luke 21:36 Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man.”

Luke 21:37 Each day Jesus was teaching at the temple, and each evening he went out to spend the night on the hill called the Mount of Olives,

Luke 21:38 and all the people came early in the morning to hear him at the temple.

Luke 22:1 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was approaching,

Luke 22:2 and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some way to get rid of Jesus, for they were afraid of the people.

Luke 22:3 Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, one of the Twelve.

Luke 22:4 And Judas went to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus.

Luke 22:5 They were delighted and agreed to give him money.

Luke 22:6 He consented, and watched for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them when no crowd was present.

Luke 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

Luke 22:8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”

Luke 22:9 “Where do you want us to prepare for it?” they asked.

Luke 22:10 He replied, “As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters,

Luke 22:11 and say to the owner of the house,`The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’

Luke 22:12 He will show you a large upper room, all furnished. Make preparations there.”

Luke 22:13 They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

Luke 22:14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table.

Luke 22:15 And he said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Luke 22:16 For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfilment in the kingdom of God.”

Luke 22:17 After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, “Take this and divide it among you.

Luke 22:18 For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

Luke 22:19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

Luke 22:20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Luke 22:21 But the hand of him who is going to betray me is with mine on the table.

Luke 22:22 The Son of Man will go as it has been decreed, but woe to that man who betrays him.”

Luke 22:23 They began to question among themselves which of them it might be who would do this.

Luke 22:24 Also a dispute arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest.

Luke 22:25 Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors.

Luke 22:26 But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves.

Luke 22:27 For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

Luke 22:28 You are those who have stood by me in my trials.

Luke 22:29 And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me,

Luke 22:30 so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22:31 “Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you as wheat.

Luke 22:32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

Luke 22:33 But he replied, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.”

Luke 22:34 Jesus answered, “I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows today, you will deny three times that you know me.”

Luke 22:35 Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you without purse, bag or sandals, did you lack anything?” “Nothing,” they answered.

Luke 22:36 He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one.

Luke 22:37 It is written:`And he was numbered with the transgressors’; and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Yes, what is written about me is reaching its fulfilment.”

Luke 22:38 The disciples said, “See, Lord, here are two swords.” “That is enough,” he replied.

Luke 22:39 Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him.

Luke 22:40 On reaching the place, he said to them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.”

Luke 22:41 He withdrew about a stone’s throw beyond them, knelt down and prayed,

Luke 22:42 “Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.”

Luke 22:43 An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.

Luke 22:44 And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.

Luke 22:45 When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow.

Luke 22:46 “Why are you sleeping?” he asked them. “Get up and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.”

Luke 22:47 While he was still speaking a crowd came up, and the man who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him,

Luke 22:48 but Jesus asked him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

Luke 22:49 When Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with our swords?”

Luke 22:50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.

Luke 22:51 But Jesus answered, “No more of this!” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

Luke 22:52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders, who had come for him, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come with swords and clubs?

Luke 22:53 Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and you did not lay a hand on me. But this is your hour—when darkness reigns.”

Luke 22:54 Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance.

Luke 22:55 But when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down with them.

Luke 22:56 A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked closely at him and said, “This man was with him.”

Luke 22:57 But he denied it. “Woman, I don’t know him,” he said.

Luke 22:58 A little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.” “Man, I am not!” Peter replied.

Luke 22:59 About an hour later another asserted, “Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean.”

Luke 22:60 Peter replied, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Just as he was speaking, the cock crowed.

Luke 22:61 The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: “Before the cock crows today, you will disown me three times.”

Luke 22:62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Luke 22:63 The men who were guarding Jesus began mocking and beating him.

Luke 22:64 They blindfolded him and demanded, “Prophesy! Who hit you?”

Luke 22:65 And they said many other insulting things to him.

Luke 22:66 At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and teachers of the law, met together, and Jesus was led before them.

Luke 22:67 “If you are the Christ,” they said, “tell us.” Jesus answered, “If I tell you, you will not believe me,

Luke 22:68 and if I asked you, you would not answer.

Luke 22:69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God.”

Luke 22:70 They all asked, “Are you then the Son of God?” He replied, “You are right in saying I am.”

Luke 22:71 Then they said, “Why do we need any more testimony? We have heard it from his own lips.”

Luke 23:1 Then the whole assembly rose and led him off to Pilate.

Luke 23:2 And they began to accuse him, saying, “We have found this man subverting our nation. He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar and claims to be Christ, a king.”

Luke 23:3 So Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Yes, it is as you say,” Jesus replied.

Luke 23:4 Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.”

Luke 23:5 But they insisted, “He stirs up the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here.”

Luke 23:6 On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean.

Luke 23:7 When he learned that Jesus was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

Luke 23:8 When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him. From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform some miracle.

Luke 23:9 He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer.

Luke 23:10 The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him.

Luke 23:11 Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 That day Herod and Pilate became friends—before this they had been enemies.

Luke 23:13 Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people,

Luke 23:14 and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and have found no basis for your charges against him.

Luke 23:15 Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death.

Luke 23:16 Therefore, I will punish him and then release him.”

Luke 23:17

Luke 23:18 With one voice they cried out, “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!”

Luke 23:19 (Barabbas had been thrown into prison for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.)

Luke 23:20 Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate appealed to them again.

Luke 23:21 But they kept shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Luke 23:22 For the third time he spoke to them: “Why? What crime has this man committed? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore I will have him punished and then release him.”

Luke 23:23 But with loud shouts they insistently demanded that he be crucified, and their shouts prevailed.

Luke 23:24 So Pilate decided to grant their demand.

Luke 23:25 He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, the one they asked for, and surrendered Jesus to their will.

Luke 23:26 As they led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.

Luke 23:27 A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed for him.

Luke 23:28 Jesus turned and said to them, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children.

Luke 23:29 For the time will come when you will say,`Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’

Luke 23:30 Then “`they will say to the mountains, “Fall on us!” and to the hills “Cover us!”‘

Luke 23:31 For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

Luke 23:32 Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed.

Luke 23:33 When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left.

Luke 23:34 Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

Luke 23:35 The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.”

Luke 23:36 The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar

Luke 23:37 and said, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.”

Luke 23:38 There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Luke 23:39 One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: “Aren’t you the Christ? Save yourself and us!”

Luke 23:40 But the other criminal rebuked him. “Don’t you fear God,” he said, “since you are under the same sentence?

Luke 23:41 We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong.”

Luke 23:42 Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

Luke 23:43 Jesus answered him, “I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise.”

Luke 23:44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour,

Luke 23:45 for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

Luke 23:46 Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.” When he had said this, he breathed his last.

Luke 23:47 The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, “Surely this was a righteous man.”

Luke 23:48 When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away.

Luke 23:49 But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Luke 23:50 Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, a good and upright man,

Luke 23:51 who had not consented to their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea and he was waiting for the kingdom of God.

Luke 23:52 Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus’ body.

Luke 23:53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no-one had yet been laid.

Luke 23:54 It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was about to begin.

Luke 23:55 The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it.

Luke 23:56 Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

Luke 24:1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb.

Luke 24:2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

Luke 24:3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

Luke 24:4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them.

Luke 24:5 In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead?

Luke 24:6 He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee:

Luke 24:7 `The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'"

Luke 24:8 Then they remembered his words.

Luke 24:9 When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others.

Luke 24:10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles.

Luke 24:11 But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.

Luke 24:12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

Luke 24:13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem.

Luke 24:14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened.

Luke 24:15 As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them;

Luke 24:16 but they were kept from recognising him.

Luke 24:17 He asked them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?” They stood still, their faces downcast.

Luke 24:18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, “Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?”

Luke 24:19 “What things?” he asked. “About Jesus of Nazareth,” they replied. “He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people.

Luke 24:20 The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him;

Luke 24:21 but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place.

Luke 24:22 In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning

Luke 24:23 but didn’t find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive.

Luke 24:24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see.”

Luke 24:25 He said to them, “How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

Luke 24:26 Did not the Christ have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?”

Luke 24:27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

Luke 24:28 As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going further.

Luke 24:29 But they urged him strongly, “Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over.” So he went in to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them.

Luke 24:31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognised him, and he disappeared from their sight.

Luke 24:32 They asked each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?”

Luke 24:33 They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together

Luke 24:34 and saying, “It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.”

Luke 24:35 Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognised by them when he broke the bread.

Luke 24:36 While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

Luke 24:37 They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost.

Luke 24:38 He said to them, “Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds?

Luke 24:39 Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.”

Luke 24:40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet.

Luke 24:41 And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?”

Luke 24:42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish,

Luke 24:43 and he took it and ate it in their presence.

Luke 24:44 He said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms.”

Luke 24:45 Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures.

Luke 24:46 He told them, “This is what is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day,

Luke 24:47 and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Luke 24:48 You are witnesses of these things.

Luke 24:49 I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

Luke 24:50 When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, he lifted up his hands and blessed them.

Luke 24:51 While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven.

Luke 24:52 Then they worshipped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy.

Luke 24:53 And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God.

John

1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:2 He was with God in the beginning.

John 1:3 Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.

John 1:4 In him was life, and that life was the light of men.

John 1:5 The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

John 1:6 There came a man who was sent from God; his name was John.

John 1:7 He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all men might believe.

John 1:8 He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

John 1:9 The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world.

John 1:10 He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognise him.

John 1:11 He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him.

John 1:12 Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—

John 1:13 children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband’s will, but born of God.

John 1:14 The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:15 John testifies concerning him. He cries out, saying, “This was he of whom I said,`He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.’“

John 1:16 From the fulness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another.

John 1:17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

John 1:18 No-one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father’s side, has made him known.

John 1:19 Now this was John’s testimony when the Jews of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was.

John 1:20 He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, “I am not the Christ.”

John 1:21 They asked him, “Then who are you? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not.” “Are you the Prophet?” He answered, “No.”

John 1:22 Finally they said, “Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

John 1:23 John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, “I am the voice of one calling in the desert,`Make straight the way for the Lord.’“

John 1:24 Now some Pharisees who had been sent

John 1:25 questioned him, “Why then do you baptise if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

John 1:26 “I baptise with water,” John replied, “but among you stands one you do not know.

John 1:27 He is the one who comes after me, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.”

John 1:28 This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

John 1:29 The next day John saw Jesus coming towards him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

John 1:30 This is the one I meant when I said,`A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.’

John 1:31 I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptising with water was that he might be revealed to Israel.”

John 1:32 Then John gave this testimony: “I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him.

John 1:33 I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptise with water told me,`The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is he who will baptise with the Holy Spirit.’

John 1:34 I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God.”

John 1:35 The next day John was there again with two of his disciples.

John 1:36 When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!”

John 1:37 When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

John 1:38 Turning round, Jesus saw them following and asked, “What do you want?” They said, “Rabbi” (which means Teacher), “where are you staying?”

John 1:39 “Come,” he replied, “and you will see.” So they went and saw where he was staying, and spent that day with him. It was about the tenth hour.

John 1:40 Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus.

John 1:41 The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, “We have found the Messiah” (that is, the Christ).

John 1:42 And he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas” (which, when translated, is Peter).

John 1:43 The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, “Follow me.”

John 1:44 Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida.

John 1:45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

John 1:46 “Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?” Nathanael asked. “Come and see,” said Philip.

John 1:47 When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, “Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is nothing false.”

John 1:48 “How do you know me?” Nathanael asked. Jesus answered, “I saw you while you were still under the fig-tree before Philip called you.”

John 1:49 Then Nathanael declared, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel.”

John 1:50 Jesus said, “You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig-tree. You shall see greater things than that.”

John 1:51 He then added, “I tell you the truth, you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

John 2:1 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there,

John 2:2 and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

John 2:3 When the wine was gone, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no more wine.”

John 2:4 “Dear woman, why do you involve me?” Jesus replied. “My time has not yet come.”

John 2:5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

John 2:6 Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.

John 2:7 Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water”; so they filled them to the brim.

John 2:8 Then he told them, “Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet.” They did so,

John 2:9 and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realise where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside

John 2:10 and said, “Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now.”

John 2:11 This, the first of his miraculous signs, Jesus performed at Cana in Galilee. He thus revealed his glory, and his disciples put their faith in him.

John 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother and brothers and his disciples. There they stayed for a few days.

John 2:13 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 2:14 In the temple courts he found men selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money.

John 2:15 So he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple area, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables.

John 2:16 To those who sold doves he said, “Get these out of here! How dare you turn my Father’s house into a market!”

John 2:17 His disciples remembered that it is written: “Zeal for your house will consume me.”

John 2:18 Then the Jews demanded of him, “What miraculous sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?”

John 2:19 Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days.”

John 2:20 The Jews replied, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?”

John 2:21 But the temple he had spoken of was his body.

John 2:22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said. Then they believed the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

John 2:23 Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many people saw the miraculous signs he was doing and believed in his name.

John 2:24 But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, for he knew all men.

John 2:25 He did not need man’s testimony about man, for he knew what was in a man.

John 3:1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish ruling council.

John 3:2 He came to Jesus at night and said, “Rabbi, we know you are a teacher who has come from God. For no-one could perform the miraculous signs you are doing if God were not with him.”

John 3:3 In reply Jesus declared, “I tell you the truth, no-one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again.”

John 3:4 “How can a man be born when he is old?” Nicodemus asked. “Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother’s womb to be born!”

John 3:5 Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, no-one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.

John 3:6 Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit.

John 3:7 You should not be surprised at my saying,`You must be born again.’

John 3:8 The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

John 3:9 “How can this be?” Nicodemus asked.

John 3:10 “You are Israel’s teacher,” said Jesus, “and do you not understand these things?

John 3:11 I tell you the truth, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony.

John 3:12 I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?

John 3:13 No-one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven—the Son of Man.

John 3:14 Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up,

John 3:15 that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

John 3:18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son.

John 3:19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.

John 3:20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.

John 3:21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God.”

John 3:22 After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them, and baptised.

John 3:23 Now John also was baptising at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were constantly coming to be baptised.

John 3:24 (This was before John was put in prison.)

John 3:25 An argument developed between some of John’s disciples and a certain Jew over the matter of ceremonial washing.

John 3:26 They came to John and said to him, “Rabbi, that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan—the one you testified about—well, he is baptising, and everyone is going to him.”

John 3:27 To this John replied, “A man can receive only what is given him from heaven.

John 3:28 You yourselves can testify that I said,`I am not the Christ but am sent ahead of him.’

John 3:29 The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him, and is full of joy when he hears the bridegroom’s voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete.

John 3:30 He must become greater; I must become less.

John 3:31 “The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks as one from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above all.

John 3:32 He testifies to what he has seen and heard, but no-one accepts his testimony.

John 3:33 The man who has accepted it has certified that God is truthful.

John 3:34 For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Spirit without limit.

John 3:35 The Father loves the Son and has placed everything in his hands.

John 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God’s wrath remains on him.”

John 4:1 The Pharisees heard that Jesus was gaining and baptising more disciples than John,

John 4:2 although in fact it was not Jesus who baptised, but his disciples.

John 4:3 When the Lord learned of this, he left Judea and went back once more to Galilee.

John 4:4 Now he had to go through Samaria.

John 4:5 So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

John 4:6 Jacob’s well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

John 4:7 When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, “Will you give me a drink?”

John 4:8 (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

John 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, “You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?” (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

John 4:10 Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.”

John 4:11 “Sir,” the woman said, “you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?

John 4:12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his flocks and herds?”

John 4:13 Jesus answered, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, John 4:14 but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.”

John 4:15 The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water so that I won’t get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water.”

John 4:16 He told her, “Go, call your husband and come back.”

John 4:17 “I have no husband,” she replied. Jesus said to her, “You are right when you say you have no husband.

John 4:18 The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true.”

John 4:19 “Sir,” the woman said, “I can see that you are a prophet.

John 4:20 Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.”

John 4:21 Jesus declared, “Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

John 4:22 You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.

John 4:23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshippers the Father seeks.

John 4:24 God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in spirit and in truth.”

John 4:25 The woman said, “I know that Messiah” (called Christ) “is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

John 4:26 Then Jesus declared, “I who speak to you am he.”

John 4:27 Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no-one asked, “What do you want?” or “Why are you talking with her?”

John 4:28 Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people,

John 4:29 “Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?”

John 4:30 They came out of the town and made their way towards him.

John 4:31 Meanwhile his disciples urged him, “Rabbi, eat something.”

John 4:32 But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

John 4:33 Then his disciples said to each other, “Could someone have brought him food?”

John 4:34 “My food,” said Jesus, “is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.

John 4:35 Do you not say,`Four months more and then the harvest’? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.

John 4:36 Even now the reaper draws his wages, even now he harvests the crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.

John 4:37 Thus the saying`One sows and another reaps’ is true.

John 4:38 I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labour.”

John 4:39 Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I ever did.”

John 4:40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days.

John 4:41 And because of his words many more became believers.

John 4:42 They said to the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Saviour of the world.”

John 4:43 After the two days he left for Galilee.

John 4:44 (Now Jesus himself had pointed out that a prophet has no honour in his own country.)

John 4:45 When he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him. They had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, for they also had been there.

John 4:46 Once more he visited Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine. And there was a certain royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum.

John 4:47 When this man heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea, he went to him and begged him to come and heal his son, who was close to death.

John 4:48 “Unless you people see miraculous signs and wonders,” Jesus told him, “you will never believe.”

John 4:49 The royal official said, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

John 4:50 Jesus replied, “You may go. Your son will live.” The man took Jesus at his word and departed.

John 4:51 While he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living.

John 4:52 When he enquired as to the time when his son got better, they said to him, “The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour.”

John 4:53 Then the father realised that this was the exact time at which Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” So he and all his household believed.

John 4:54 This was the second miraculous sign that Jesus performed, having come from Judea to Galilee.

John 5:1 Some time later, Jesus went up to Jerusalem for a feast of the Jews.

John 5:2 Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate a pool, which in Aramaic is called Bethesda and which is surrounded by five covered colonnades.

John 5:3 Here a great number of disabled people used to lie—the blind, the lame, the paralysed.

John 5:4

John 5:5 One who was there had been an invalid for thirty-eight years.

John 5:6 When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had been in this condition for a long time, he asked him, “Do you want to get well?”

John 5:7 “Sir,” the invalid replied, “I have no-one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me.”

John 5:8 Then Jesus said to him, “Get up! Pick up your mat and walk.”

John 5:9 At once the man was cured; he picked up his mat and walked. The day on which this took place was a Sabbath,

John 5:10 and so the Jews said to the man who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath; the law forbids you to carry your mat.”

John 5:11 But he replied, “The man who made me well said to me,`Pick up your mat and walk.’“

John 5:12 So they asked him, “Who is this fellow who told you to pick it up and walk?”

John 5:13 The man who was healed had no idea who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

John 5:14 Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, “See, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you.”

John 5:15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

John 5:16 So, because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews persecuted him.

John 5:17 Jesus said to them, “My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working.”

John 5:18 For this reason the Jews tried all the harder to kill him; not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

John 5:19 Jesus gave them this answer: “I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does.

John 5:20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these.

John 5:21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son gives life to whom he is pleased to give it.

John 5:22 Moreover, the Father judges no-one, but has entrusted all judgment to the Son,

John 5:23 that all may honour the Son just as they honour the Father. He who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father, who sent him.

John 5:24 “I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life.

John 5:25 I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live.

John 5:26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son to have life in himself.

John 5:27 And he has given him authority to judge because he is the Son of Man.

John 5:28 “Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice

John 5:29 and come out—those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.

John 5:30 By myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me.

John 5:31 “If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid.

John 5:32 There is another who testifies in my favour, and I know that his testimony about me is valid.

John 5:33 “You have sent to John and he has testified to the truth.

John 5:34 Not that I accept human testimony; but I mention it that you may be saved.

John 5:35 John was a lamp that burned and gave light, and you chose for a time to enjoy his light.

John 5:36 “I have testimony weightier than that of John. For the very work that the Father has given me to finish, and which I am doing, testifies that the Father has sent me.

John 5:37 And the Father who sent me has himself testified concerning me. You have never heard his voice nor seen his form,

John 5:38 nor does his word dwell in you, for you do not believe the one he sent.

John 5:39 You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me,

John 5:40 yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

John 5:41 “I do not accept praise from men,

John 5:42 but I know you. I know that you do not have the love of God in your hearts.

John 5:43 I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not accept me; but if someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him.

John 5:44 How can you believe if you accept praise from one another, yet make no effort to obtain the praise that comes from the only God?

John 5:45 “But do not think I will accuse you before the Father. Your accuser is Moses, on whom your hopes are set.

John 5:46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.

John 5:47 But since you do not believe what he wrote, how are you going to believe what I say?”

John 6:1 Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias),

John 6:2 and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the miraculous signs he had performed on the sick.

John 6:3 Then Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down with his disciples.

John 6:4 The Jewish Passover Feast was near.

John 6:5 When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming towards him, he said to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?”

John 6:6 He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.

John 6:7 Philip answered him, “Eight months’ wages would not buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!”

John 6:8 Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, spoke up,

John 6:9 “Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?”

John 6:10 Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” There was plenty of grass in that place, and the men sat down, about five thousand of them.

John 6:11 Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

John 6:12 When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, “Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted.”

John 6:13 So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

John 6:14 After the people saw the miraculous sign that Jesus did, they began to say, “Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world.”

John 6:15 Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.

John 6:16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake,

John 6:17 where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them.

John 6:18 A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough.

John 6:19 When they had rowed three or three and a half miles, they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water; and they were terrified.

John 6:20 But he said to them, “It is I; don’t be afraid.”

John 6:21 Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

John 6:22 The next day the crowd that had stayed on the opposite shore of the lake realised that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with his disciples, but that they had gone away alone.

John 6:23 Then some boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

John 6:24 Once the crowd realised that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.

John 6:25 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

John 6:26 Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, you are looking for me, not because you saw miraculous signs but because you ate the loaves and had your fill.

John 6:27 Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him God the Father has placed his seal of approval.”

John 6:28 Then they asked him, “What must we do to do the works God requires?”

John 6:29 Jesus answered, “The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent.”

John 6:30 So they asked him, “What miraculous sign then will you give that we may see it and believe you? What will you do?

John 6:31 Our forefathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written:`He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’“

John 6:32 Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven.

John 6:33 For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

John 6:34 “Sir,” they said, “from now on give us this bread.”

John 6:35 Then Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.

John 6:36 But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe.

John 6:37 All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away.

John 6:38 For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me.

John 6:39 And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all that he has given me, but raise them up at the last day.

John 6:40 For my Father’s will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.”

John 6:41 At this the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.”

John 6:42 They said, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say,`I came down from heaven’?”

John 6:43 “Stop grumbling among yourselves,” Jesus answered.

John 6:44 “No-one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:45 It is written in the Prophets:`They will all be taught by God.’ Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me.

John 6:46 No-one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father.

John 6:47 I tell you the truth, he who believes has everlasting life.

John 6:48 I am the bread of life.

John 6:49 Your forefathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died.

John 6:50 But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which a man may eat and not die.

John 6:51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live for ever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

John 6:52 Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

John 6:53 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

John 6:54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:55 For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

John 6:56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

John 6:57 Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me.

John 6:58 This is the bread that came down from heaven. Your forefathers ate manna and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live for ever."

John 6:59 He said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

John 6:60 On hearing it, many of his disciples said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?"

John 6:61 Aware that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you?

John 6:62 What if you see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before!

John 6:63 The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

John 6:64 Yet there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray him.

John 6:65 He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no-one can come to me unless the Father has enabled him."

John 6:66 From this time many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him.

John 6:67 “You do not want to leave too, do you?” Jesus asked the Twelve.

John 6:68 Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

John 6:69 We believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.”

John 6:70 Then Jesus replied, “Have I not chosen you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!”

John 6:71 (He meant Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, who, though one of the Twelve, was later to betray him.)

John 7:1 After this, Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews there were waiting to take his life.

John 7:2 But when the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near,

John 7:3 Jesus’ brothers said to him, “You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do.

John 7:4 No-one who wants to become a public figure acts in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world.”

John 7:5 For even his own brothers did not believe in him.

John 7:6 Therefore Jesus told them, “The right time for me has not yet come; for you any time is right.

John 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that what it does is evil.

John 7:8 You go to the Feast. I am not yet going up to this Feast, because for me the right time has not yet come.”

John 7:9 Having said this, he stayed in Galilee.

John 7:10 However, after his brothers had left for the Feast, he went also, not publicly, but in secret.

John 7:11 Now at the Feast the Jews were watching for him and asking, “Where is that man?”

John 7:12 Among the crowds there was widespread whispering about him. Some said, “He is a good man.” Others replied, “No, he deceives the people.”

John 7:13 But no-one would say anything publicly about him for fear of the Jews.

John 7:14 Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach.

John 7:15 The Jews were amazed and asked, “How did this man get such learning without having studied?”

John 7:16 Jesus answered, “My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me.

John 7:17 If anyone chooses to do God’s will, he will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own.

John 7:18 He who speaks on his own does so to gain honour for himself, but he who works for the honour of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him.

John 7:19 Has not Moses given you the law? Yet not one of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill me?”

John 7:20 “You are demon-possessed,” the crowd answered. “Who is trying to kill you?”

John 7:21 Jesus said to them, “I did one miracle, and you are all astonished.

John 7:22 Yet, because Moses gave you circumcision (though actually it did not come from Moses, but from the patriarchs), you circumcise a child on the Sabbath.

John 7:23 Now if a child can be circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry with me for healing the whole man on the Sabbath?

John 7:24 Stop judging by mere appearances, and make a right judgment.”

John 7:25 At that point some of the people of Jerusalem began to ask, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?

John 7:26 Here he is, speaking publicly, and they are not saying a word to him. Have the authorities really concluded that he is the Christ?

John 7:27 But we know where this man is from; when the Christ comes, no-one will know where he is from.”

John 7:28 Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts, cried out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from. I am not here on my own, but he who sent me is true. You do not know him, John 7:29 but I know him because I am from him and he sent me.”

John 7:30 At this they tried to seize him, but no-one laid a hand on him, because his time had not yet come.

John 7:31 Still, many in the crowd put their faith in him. They said, “When the Christ comes, will he do more miraculous signs than this man?”

John 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering such things about him. Then the chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple guards to arrest him.

John 7:33 Jesus said, “I am with you for only a short time, and then I go to the one who sent me.

John 7:34 You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

John 7:35 The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go where our people live scattered among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?

John 7:36 What did he mean when he said,`You will look for me, but you will not find me,' and`Where I am, you cannot come'?"

John 7:37 On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.

John 7:38 Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him."

John 7:39 By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

John 7:40 On hearing his words, some of the people said, "Surely this man is the Prophet."

John 7:41 Others said, "He is the Christ." Still others asked, "How can the Christ come from Galilee?

John 7:42 Does not the Scripture say that the Christ will come from David's family and from Bethlehem, the town where David lived?"

John 7:43 Thus the people were divided because of Jesus.

John 7:44 Some wanted to seize him, but no-one laid a hand on him.

John 7:45 Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring him in?"

John 7:46 "No-one ever spoke the way this man does," the guards declared.

John 7:47 "You mean he has deceived you also?" the Pharisees retorted.

John 7:48 "Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him?

John 7:49 No! But this mob that knows nothing of the law—there is a curse on them."

John 7:50 Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus earlier and who was one of their own number, asked,

John 7:51 "Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him to find out what he is doing?"

John 7:52 They replied, "Are you from Galilee, too? Look into it, and you will find that a prophet does not come out of Galilee."

John 7:53 Then each went to his own home.

John 8:1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

John 8:2 At dawn he appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people gathered round him, and he sat down to teach them.

John 8:3 The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group

John 8:4 and said to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery.

John 8:5 In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?”

John 8:6 They were using this question as a trap, in order to have a basis for accusing him. But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger.

John 8:7 When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “If any one of you is without sin, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.”

John 8:8 Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.

John 8:9 At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there.

John 8:10 Jesus straightened up and asked her, “Woman, where are they? Has no-one condemned you?”

John 8:11 “No-one, sir,” she said. “Then neither do I condemn you,” Jesus declared. “Go now and leave your life of sin.”

John 8:12 When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

John 8:13 The Pharisees challenged him, “Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid.”

John 8:14 Jesus answered, “Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going.

John 8:15 You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no-one.

John 8:16 But if I do judge, my decisions are right, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me.

John 8:17 In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two men is valid.

John 8:18 I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me.”

John 8:19 Then they asked him, “Where is your father?” “You do not know me or my Father,” Jesus replied. “If you knew me, you would know my Father also.”

John 8:20 He spoke these words while teaching in the temple area near the place where the offerings were put. Yet no-one seized him, because his time had not yet come.

John 8:21 Once more Jesus said to them, “I am going away, and you will look for me, and you will die in your sin. Where I go, you cannot come.”

John 8:22 This made the Jews ask, “Will he kill himself? Is that why he says,`Where I go, you cannot come’?”

John 8:23 But he continued, “You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

John 8:24 I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am [the one I claim to be], you will indeed die in your sins.”

John 8:25 “Who are you?” they asked. “Just what I have been claiming all along,” Jesus replied.

John 8:26 “I have much to say in judgment of you. But he who sent me is reliable, and what I have heard from him I tell the world.”

John 8:27 They did not understand that he was telling them about his Father.

John 8:28 So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am [the one I claim to be] and that I do nothing on my own but speak just what the Father has taught me.

John 8:29 The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what pleases him.”

John 8:30 Even as he spoke, many put their faith in him.

John 8:31 To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, “If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples.

John 8:32 Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

John 8:33 They answered him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?”

John 8:34 Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave to sin.

John 8:35 Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it for ever.

John 8:36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

John 8:37 I know you are Abraham’s descendants. Yet you are ready to kill me, because you have no room for my word.

John 8:38 I am telling you what I have seen in the Father’s presence, and you do what you have heard from your father.”

John 8:39 “Abraham is our father,” they answered. “If you were Abraham’s children,” said Jesus, “then you would do the things Abraham did.

John 8:40 As it is, you are determined to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things.

John 8:41 You are doing the things your own father does.” “We are not illegitimate children,” they protested. “The only Father we have is God himself.”

John 8:42 Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me.

John 8:43 Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say.

John 8:44 You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

John 8:45 Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me!

John 8:46 Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don’t you believe me?

John 8:47 He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God.”

John 8:48 The Jews answered him, “Aren’t we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and demon-possessed?”

John 8:49 “I am not possessed by a demon,” said Jesus, “but I honour my Father and you dishonour me.

John 8:50 I am not seeking glory for myself; but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge.

John 8:51 I tell you the truth, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death.”

John 8:52 At this the Jews exclaimed, “Now we know that you are demon-possessed! Abraham died and so did the prophets, yet you say that if anyone keeps your word, he will never taste death.

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

John 8:54 Jesus replied, “If I glorify myself, my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me.

John 8:55 Though you do not know him, I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and keep his word.

John 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it and was glad.”

John 8:57 “You are not yet fifty years old,” the Jews said to him, “and you have seen Abraham!”

John 8:58 “I tell you the truth,” Jesus answered, “before Abraham was born, I am!”

John 8:59 At this, they picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus hid himself, slipping away from the temple grounds.

John 9:1 As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth.

John 9:2 His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

John 9:3 “Neither this man nor his parents sinned,” said Jesus, “but this happened so that the work of God might be displayed in his life.

John 9:4 As long as it is day, we must do the work of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no-one can work.

John 9:5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

John 9:6 Having said this, he spat on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and put it on the man’s eyes.

John 9:7 “Go,” he told him, “wash in the Pool of Siloam” (this word means Sent). So the man went and washed, and came home seeing.

John 9:8 His neighbours and those who had formerly seen him begging asked, “Isn’t this the same man who used to sit and beg?”

John 9:9 Some claimed that he was. Others said, “No, he only looks like him.” But he himself insisted, “I am the man.”

John 9:10 “How then were your eyes opened?” they demanded.

John 9:11 He replied, “The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see.”

John 9:12 “Where is this man?” they asked him. “I don’t know,” he said.

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind.

John 9:14 Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened the man’s eyes was a Sabbath.

John 9:15 Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. “He put mud on my eyes,” the man replied, “and I washed, and now I see.”

John 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath.” But others asked, “How can a sinner do such miraculous signs?” So they were divided.

John 9:17 Finally they turned again to the blind man, “What have you to say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” The man replied, “He is a prophet.”

John 9:18 The Jews still did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they sent for the man’s parents.

John 9:19 “Is this your son?” they asked. “Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that now he can see?”

John 9:20 “We know he is our son,” the parents answered, “and we know he was born blind.

John 9:21 But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we don't know. Ask him. He is of age; he will speak for himself."

John 9:22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews, for already the Jews had decided that anyone who acknowledged that Jesus was the Christ would be put out of the synagogue.

John 9:23 That was why his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

John 9:24 A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. "Give glory to God," they said. "We know this man is a sinner."

John 9:25 He replied, "Whether he is a sinner or not, I don't know. One thing I do know. I was blind but now I see!"

John 9:26 Then they asked him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

John 9:27 He answered, "I have told you already and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?"

John 9:28 Then they hurled insults at him and said, "You are this fellow's disciple! We are disciples of Moses!

John 9:29 We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this fellow, we don't even know where he comes from."

John 9:30 The man answered, "Now that is remarkable! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes.

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly man who does his will.

John 9:32 Nobody has ever heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind.

John 9:33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

John 9:34 To this they replied, "You were steeped in sin at birth; how dare you lecture us!" And they threw him out.

John 9:35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

John 9:36 "Who is he, sir?" the man asked. "Tell me so that I may believe in him."

John 9:37 Jesus said, "You have now seen him; in fact, he is the one speaking with you."

John 9:38 Then the man said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshipped him.

John 9:39 Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind."

John 9:40 Some Pharisees who were with him heard him say this and asked, "What? Are we blind too?"

John 9:41 Jesus said, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but now that you claim you can see, your guilt remains.

John 10:1 “I tell you the truth, the man who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber.

John 10:2 The man who enters by the gate is the shepherd of his sheep.

John 10:3 The watchman opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

John 10:4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice.

John 10:5 But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognise a stranger’s voice.”

John 10:6 Jesus used this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

John 10:7 Therefore Jesus said again, “I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep.

John 10:8 All who ever came before me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

John 10:9 I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. He will come in and go out, and find pasture.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

John 10:11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

John 10:12 The hired hand is not the shepherd who owns the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it.

John 10:13 The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

John 10:14 “I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me—

John 10:15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep.

John 10:16 I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.

John 10:17 The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life— only to take it up again.

John 10:18 No-one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father.”

John 10:19 At these words the Jews were again divided.

John 10:20 Many of them said, “He is demon-possessed and raving mad. Why listen to him?”

John 10:21 But others said, “These are not the sayings of a man possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

John 10:22 Then came the Feast of Dedication at Jerusalem. It was winter,

John 10:23 and Jesus was in the temple area walking in Solomon’s Colonnade.

John 10:24 The Jews gathered round him, saying, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.”

John 10:25 Jesus answered, “I did tell you, but you do not believe. The miracles I do in my Father’s name speak for me,

John 10:26 but you do not believe because you are not my sheep.

John 10:27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no-one can snatch them out of my hand.

John 10:29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no-one can snatch them out of my Father’s hand.

John 10:30 I and the Father are one.”

John 10:31 Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him,

John 10:32 but Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?”

John 10:33 “We are not stoning you for any of these,” replied the Jews, “but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God.”

John 10:34 Jesus answered them, “Is it not written in your Law,`I have said you are gods’?

John 10:35 If he called them`gods’, to whom the word of God came—and the Scripture cannot be broken—

John 10:36 what about the one whom the Father set apart as his very own and sent into the world? Why then do you accuse me of blasphemy because I said,`I am God’s Son’?

John 10:37 Do not believe me unless I do what my Father does.

John 10:38 But if I do it, even though you do not believe me, believe the miracles, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.”

John 10:39 Again they tried to seize him, but he escaped their grasp.

John 10:40 Then Jesus went back across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptising in the early days. Here he stayed

John 10:41 and many people came to him. They said, “Though John never performed a miraculous sign, all that John said about this man was true.”

John 10:42 And in that place many believed in Jesus.

John 11:1 Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

John 11:2 This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair.

John 11:3 So the sisters sent word to Jesus, “Lord, the one you love is sick.”

John 11:4 When he heard this, Jesus said, “This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God’s glory so that God’s Son may be glorified through it.”

John 11:5 Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

John 11:6 Yet when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days.

John 11:7 Then he said to his disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.”

John 11:8 “But Rabbi,” they said, “a short while ago the Jews tried to stone you, and yet you are going back there?”

John 11:9 Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? A man who walks by day will not stumble, for he sees by this world’s light.

John 11:10 It is when he walks by night that he stumbles, for he has no light.”

John 11:11 After he had said this, he went on to tell them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up.”

John 11:12 His disciples replied, “Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better.”

John 11:13 Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.

John 11:14 So then he told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead,

John 11:15 and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

John 11:16 Then Thomas (called Didymus) said to the rest of the disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

John 11:17 On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.

John 11:18 Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem,

John 11:19 and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother.

John 11:20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.

John 11:21 “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

John 11:22 But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.”

John 11:23 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

John 11:24 Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

John 11:25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies;

John 11:26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

John 11:27 “Yes, Lord,” she told him, “I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.”

John 11:28 And after she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. “The Teacher is here,” she said, “and is asking for you.”

John 11:29 When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

John 11:30 Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

John 11:31 When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

John 11:32 When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

John 11:33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled.

John 11:34 “Where have you laid him?” he asked. “Come and see, Lord,” they replied.

John 11:35 Jesus wept.

John 11:36 Then the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

John 11:37 But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

John 11:38 Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance.

John 11:39 “Take away the stone,” he said. “But, Lord,” said Martha, the sister of the dead man, “by this time there is a bad odour, for he has been there four days.”

John 11:40 Then Jesus said, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?”

John 11:41 So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

John 11:42 I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me.”

John 11:43 When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

John 11:44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face. Jesus said to them, “Take off the grave clothes and let him go.”

John 11:45 Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, put their faith in him.

John 11:46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

John 11:47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin. “What are we accomplishing?” they asked. “Here is this man performing many miraculous signs.

John 11:48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

John 11:49 Then one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, “You know nothing at all!

John 11:50 You do not realise that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish.”

John 11:51 He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation,

John 11:52 and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one.

John 11:53 So from that day on they plotted to take his life.

John 11:54 Therefore Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the Jews. Instead he withdrew to a region near the desert, to a village called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

John 11:55 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the country to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the Passover.

John 11:56 They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple area they asked one another, “What do you think? Isn’t he coming to the Feast at all?”

John 11:57 But the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone found out where Jesus was, he should report it so that they might arrest him.

John 12:1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

John 12:2 Here a dinner was given in Jesus’ honour. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him.

John 12:3 Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus’ feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

John 12:4 But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,

John 12:5 “Why wasn’t this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year’s wages.”

John 12:6 He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

John 12:7 “Leave her alone,” Jesus replied. “[It was intended] that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.

John 12:8 You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

John 12:9 Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there and came, not only because of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:10 So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well,

John 12:11 for on account of him many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and putting their faith in him.

John 12:12 The next day the great crowd that had come for the Feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem.

John 12:13 They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, “Hosanna!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Blessed is the King of Israel!”

John 12:14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, as it is written,

John 12:15 “Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion; see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey’s colt.”

John 12:16 At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realise that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him.

John 12:17 Now the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word.

John 12:18 Many people, because they had heard that he had given this miraculous sign, went out to meet him.

John 12:19 So the Pharisees said to one another, “See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!”

John 12:20 Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the Feast.

John 12:21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request. “Sir,” they said, “we would like to see Jesus.”

John 12:22 Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.

John 12:23 Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

John 12:24 I tell you the truth, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.

John 12:25 The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

John 12:26 Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honour the one who serves me.

John 12:27 “Now my heart is troubled, and what shall I say?`Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour.

John 12:28 Father, glorify your name!” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

John 12:29 The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.

John 12:30 Jesus said, “This voice was for your benefit, not mine.

John 12:31 Now is the time for judgment on this world; now the prince of this world will be driven out.

John 12:32 But I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself.”

John 12:33 He said this to show the kind of death he was going to die.

John 12:34 The crowd spoke up, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ will remain for ever, so how can you say,`The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this`Son of Man’?”

John 12:35 Then Jesus told them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, before darkness overtakes you. The man who walks in the dark does not know where he is going.

John 12:36 Put your trust in the light while you have it, so that you may become sons of light.” When he had finished speaking, Jesus left and hid himself from them.

John 12:37 Even after Jesus had done all these miraculous signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him.

John 12:38 This was to fulfil the word of Isaiah the prophet: “Lord, who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

John 12:39 For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

John 12:40 “He has blinded their eyes and deadened their hearts, so they can neither see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts, nor turn—and I would heal them.”

John 12:41 Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ glory and spoke about him.

John 12:42 Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they would not confess their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue;

John 12:43 for they loved praise from men more than praise from God.

John 12:44 Then Jesus cried out, “When a man believes in me, he does not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me.

John 12:45 When he looks at me, he sees the one who sent me.

John 12:46 I have come into the world as a light, so that no-one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

John 12:47 “As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it.

John 12:48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day.

John 12:49 For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it.

John 12:50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say.”

John 13:1 It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love.

John 13:2 The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus.

John 13:3 Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God;

John 13:4 so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel round his waist.

John 13:5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped round him.

John 13:6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

John 13:7 Jesus replied, "You do not realise now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

John 13:8 "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

John 13:9 "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

John 13:10 Jesus answered, "A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet; his whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you."

John 13:11 For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

John 13:12 When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them.

John 13:13 "You call me`Teacher' and`Lord', and rightly so, for that is what I am.

John 13:14 Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet.

John 13:15 I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

John 13:16 I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

John 13:17 Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

John 13:18 "I am not referring to all of you; I know those I have chosen. But this is to fulfil the scripture:`He who shares my bread has lifted up his heel against me.'

John 13:19 "I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am He.

John 13:20 I tell you the truth, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."

John 13:21 After he had said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified, “I tell you the truth, one of you is going to betray me.”

John 13:22 His disciples stared at one another, at a loss to know which of them he meant.

John 13:23 One of them, the disciple whom Jesus loved, was reclining next to him.

John 13:24 Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, “Ask him which one he means.”

John 13:25 Leaning back against Jesus, he asked him, “Lord, who is it?”

John 13:26 Jesus answered, “It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish.” Then, dipping the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon.

John 13:27 As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. “What you are about to do, do quickly,” Jesus told him,

John 13:28 but no-one at the meal understood why Jesus said this to him.

John 13:29 Since Judas had charge of the money, some thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the Feast, or to give something to the poor.

John 13:30 As soon as Judas had taken the bread, he went out. And it was night.

John 13:31 When he was gone, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified and God is glorified in him.

John 13:32 If God is glorified in him, God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once.

John 13:33 “My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

John 13:34 “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

John 13:35 By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

John 13:36 Simon Peter asked him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus replied, “Where I am going, you cannot follow now, but you will follow later.”

John 13:37 Peter asked, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”

John 13:38 Then Jesus answered, “Will you really lay down your life for me? I tell you the truth, before the cock crows, you will disown me three times!

John 14:1 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me.

John 14:2 In my Father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you.

John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

John 14:4 You know the way to the place where I am going.”

John 14:5 Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

John 14:6 Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:7 If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him.”

John 14:8 Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us.”

John 14:9 Jesus answered: “Don’t you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say,`Show us the Father’?

John 14:10 Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you are not just my own. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work.

John 14:11 Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves.

John 14:12 I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.

John 14:13 And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father.

John 14:14 You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

John 14:15 “If you love me, you will obey what I command.

John 14:16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you for ever—

John 14:17 the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you.

John 14:18 I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you.

John 14:19 Before long, the world will not see me any more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live.

John 14:20 On that day you will realise that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you.

John 14:21 Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him.”

John 14:22 Then Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, “But, Lord, why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?”

John 14:23 Jesus replied, “If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

John 14:24 He who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.

John 14:25 “All this I have spoken while still with you.

John 14:26 But the Counsellor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

John 14:28 “You heard me say,`I am going away and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

John 14:29 I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe.

John 14:30 I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world is coming. He has no hold on me,

John 14:31 but the world must learn that I love the Father and that I do exactly what my Father has commanded me. “Come now; let us leave.

John 15:1 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener.

John 15:2 He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful.

John 15:3 You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you.

John 15:4 Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

John 15:5 “I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

John 15:6 If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned.

John 15:7 If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you.

John 15:8 This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

John 15:9 "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love.

John 15:10 If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

John 15:11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

John 15:12 My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.

John 15:13 Greater love has no-one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

John 15:14 You are my friends if you do what I command.

John 15:15 I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you.

John 15:16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.

John 15:17 This is my command: Love each other.

John 15:18 "If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first.

John 15:19 If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you.

John 15:20 Remember the words I spoke to you:`No servant is greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also.

John 15:21 They will treat you this way because of my name, for they do not know the One who sent me.

John 15:22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin.

John 15:23 He who hates me hates my Father as well.

John 15:24 If I had not done among them what no-one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen these miracles, and yet they have hated both me and my Father.

John 15:25 But this is to fulfil what is written in their Law:`They hated me without reason.'

John 15:26 "When the Counsellor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me.

John 15:27 And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16:1 "All this I have told you so that you will not go astray.

John 16:2 They will put you out of the synagogue; in fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering a service to God.

John 16:3 They will do such things because they have not known the Father or me.

John 16:4 I have told you this, so that when the time comes you will remember that I warned you. I did not tell you this at first because I was with you.

John 16:5 "Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me,`Where are you going?'

John 16:6 Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief.

John 16:7 But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counsellor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

John 16:8 When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment:

John 16:9 in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me;

John 16:10 in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer;

John 16:11 and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned.

John 16:12 "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear.

John 16:13 But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.

John 16:14 He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you.

John 16:15 All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.

John 16:16 "In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me."

John 16:17 Some of his disciples said to one another, “What does he mean by saying,`In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,’ and`Because I am going to the Father’?”

John 16:18 They kept asking, “What does he mean by`a little while’? We don’t understand what he is saying.”

John 16:19 Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, “Are you asking one another what I meant when I said,`In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me’?

John 16:20 I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.

John 16:21 A woman giving birth to a child has pain because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world.

John 16:22 So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no-one will take away your joy.

John 16:23 In that day you will no longer ask me anything. I tell you the truth, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.

John 16:24 Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete.

John 16:25 “Though I have been speaking figuratively, a time is coming when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father.

John 16:26 In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf.

John 16:27 No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

John 16:28 I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”

John 16:29 Then Jesus’ disciples said, “Now you are speaking clearly and without figures of speech.

John 16:30 Now we can see that you know all things and that you do not even need to have anyone ask you questions. This makes us believe that you came from God.”

John 16:31 “You believe at last!” Jesus answered.

John 16:32 “But a time is coming, and has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me.

John 16:33 “I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

John 17:1 After Jesus said this, he looked towards heaven and prayed: “Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you.

John 17:2 For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him.

John 17:3 Now this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

John 17:4 I have brought you glory on earth by completing the work you gave me to do.

John 17:5 And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.

John 17:6 “I have revealed you to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word.

John 17:7 Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you.

John 17:8 For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me.

John 17:9 I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours.

John 17:10 All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them.

John 17:11 I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name—the name you gave me—so that they may be one as we are one.

John 17:12 While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled.

John 17:13 “I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them.

John 17:14 I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world.

John 17:15 My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one.

John 17:16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of it.

John 17:17 Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth.

John 17:18 As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world.

John 17:19 For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

John 17:20 “My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message,

John 17:21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

John 17:22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one:

John 17:23 I in them and you in me. May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

John 17:24 “Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

John 17:25 “Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me.

John 17:26 I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”

John 18:1 When he had finished praying, Jesus left with his disciples and crossed the Kidron Valley. On the other side there was an olive grove, and he and his disciples went into it.

John 18:2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples.

John 18:3 So Judas came to the grove, guiding a detachment of soldiers and some officials from the chief priests and Pharisees. They were carrying torches, lanterns and weapons.

John 18:4 Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to him, went out and asked them, “Who is it you want?”

John 18:5 “Jesus of Nazareth,” they replied. “I am he,” Jesus said. (And Judas the traitor was standing there with them.)

John 18:6 When Jesus said, “I am he,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 Again he asked them, “Who is it you want?” And they said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

John 18:8 “I told you that I am he,” Jesus answered. “If you are looking for me, then let these men go.”

John 18:9 This happened so that the words he had spoken would be fulfilled: “I have not lost one of those you gave me.”

John 18:10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.)

John 18:11 Jesus commanded Peter, "Put your sword away! Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given me?"

John 18:12 Then the detachment of soldiers with its commander and the Jewish officials arrested Jesus. They bound him

John 18:13 and brought him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.

John 18:14 Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be good if one man died for the people.

John 18:15 Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Because this disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard,

John 18:16 but Peter had to wait outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, came back, spoke to the girl on duty there and brought Peter in.

John 18:17 "You are not one of his disciples, are you?" the girl at the door asked Peter. He replied, "I am not."

John 18:18 It was cold, and the servants and officials stood round a fire they had made to keep warm. Peter also was standing with them, warming himself.

John 18:19 Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

John 18:20 "I have spoken openly to the world," Jesus replied. "I always taught in synagogues or at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret.

John 18:21 Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said."

John 18:22 When Jesus said this, one of the officials near by struck him in the face. "Is this the way you answer the high priest?" he demanded.

John 18:23 "If I said something wrong," Jesus replied, "testify as to what is wrong. But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?"

John 18:24 Then Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

John 18:25 As Simon Peter stood warming himself, he was asked, "You are not one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it, saying, "I am not."

John 18:26 One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, challenged him, "Didn't I see you with him in the olive grove?"

John 18:27 Again Peter denied it, and at that moment a cock began to crow.

John 18:28 Then the Jews led Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness the Jews did not enter the palace; they wanted to be able to eat the Passover.

John 18:29 So Pilate came out to them and asked, “What charges are you bringing against this man?”

John 18:30 “If he were not a criminal,” they replied, “we would not have handed him over to you.”

John 18:31 Pilate said, “Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law.” “But we have no right to execute anyone,” the Jews objected.

John 18:32 This happened so that the words Jesus had spoken indicating the kind of death he was going to die would be fulfilled.

John 18:33 Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

John 18:34 “Is that your own idea,” Jesus asked, “or did others talk to you about me?”

John 18:35 “Am I a Jew?” Pilate replied. “It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?”

John 18:36 Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place.”

John 18:37 “You are a king, then!” said Pilate. Jesus answered, “You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me.”

John 18:38 “What is truth?” Pilate asked. With this he went out again to the Jews and said, “I find no basis for a charge against him.

John 18:39 But it is your custom for me to release to you one prisoner at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to release`the king of the Jews’?”

John 18:40 They shouted back, “No, not him! Give us Barabbas!” Now Barabbas had taken part in a rebellion.

John 19:1 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.

John 19:2 The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head. They clothed him in a purple robe

John 19:3 and went up to him again and again, saying, “Hail, king of the Jews!” And they struck him in the face.

John 19:4 Once more Pilate came out and said to the Jews, “Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no basis for a charge against him.”

John 19:5 When Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate said to them, “Here is the man!”

John 19:6 As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted, “Crucify! Crucify!” But Pilate answered, “You take him and crucify him. As for me, I find no basis for a charge against him.”

John 19:7 The Jews insisted, “We have a law, and according to that law he must die, because he claimed to be the Son of God.”

John 19:8 When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid,

John 19:9 and he went back inside the palace. “Where do you come from?” he asked Jesus, but Jesus gave him no answer.

John 19:10 “Do you refuse to speak to me?” Pilate said. “Don’t you realise I have power either to free you or to crucify you?”

John 19:11 Jesus answered, “You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

John 19:12 From then on, Pilate tried to set Jesus free, but the Jews kept shouting, “If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar.”

John 19:13 When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge’s seat at a place known as the Stone Pavement (which in Aramaic is Gabbatha).

John 19:14 It was the day of Preparation of Passover Week, about the sixth hour. “Here is your king,” Pilate said to the Jews.

John 19:15 But they shouted, “Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!” “Shall I crucify your king?” Pilate asked. “We have no king but Caesar,” the chief priests answered.

John 19:16 Finally Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified. So the soldiers took charge of Jesus.

John 19:17 Carrying his own cross, he went out to the place of the Skull (which in Aramaic is called Golgotha).

John 19:18 Here they crucified him, and with him two others—one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

John 19:19 Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

John 19:20 Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek.

John 19:21 The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, “Do not write`The King of the Jews’, but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews.”

John 19:22 Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

John 19:23 When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining. This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.

John 19:24 “Let’s not tear it,” they said to one another. “Let’s decide by lot who will get it.” This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled which said, “They divided my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.” So this is what the soldiers did.

John 19:25 Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

John 19:26 When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing near by, he said to his mother, “Dear woman, here is your son,”

John 19:27 and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

John 19:28 Later, knowing that all was now completed, and so that the Scripture would be fulfilled, Jesus said, “I am thirsty.”

John 19:29 A jar of wine vinegar was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant, and lifted it to Jesus’ lips.

John 19:30 When he had received the drink, Jesus said, “It is finished.” With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

John 19:31 Now it was the day of Preparation, and the next day was to be a special Sabbath. Because the Jews did not want the bodies left on the crosses during the Sabbath, they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down.

John 19:32 The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other.

John 19:33 But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

John 19:34 Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus’ side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water.

John 19:35 The man who saw it has given testimony, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe.

John 19:36 These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled: “Not one of his bones will be broken,”

John 19:37 and, as another scripture says, “They will look on the one they have pierced.”

John 19:38 Later, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Now Joseph was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because he feared the Jews. With Pilate's permission, he came and took the body away.

John 19:39 He was accompanied by Nicodemus, the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.

John 19:40 Taking Jesus' body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen. This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs.

John 19:41 At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no-one had ever been laid.

John 19:42 Because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and since the tomb was near by, they laid Jesus there.

John 20:1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance.

John 20:2 So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

John 20:3 So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb.

John 20:4 Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

John 20:5 He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in.

John 20:6 Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there,

John 20:7 as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen.

John 20:8 Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed.

John 20:9 (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

John 20:10 Then the disciples went back to their homes,

John 20:11 but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb

John 20:12 and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

John 20:13 They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?" "They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him."

John 20:14 At this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus.

John 20:15 “Woman,” he said, “why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?” Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.”

John 20:16 Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned towards him and cried out in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher).

John 20:17 Jesus said, “Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them,`I am returning to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’“

John 20:18 Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them that he had said these things to her.

John 20:19 On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!”

John 20:20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

John 20:21 Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.”

John 20:22 And with that he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

John 20:23 If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

John 20:24 Now Thomas (called Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came.

John 20:25 So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe it.”

John 20:26 A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!”

John 20:27 Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe.”

John 20:28 Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!”

John 20:29 Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

John 20:30 Jesus did many other miraculous signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book.

John 20:31 But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 21:1 Afterwards Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Tiberias. It happened this way:

John 21:2 Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together.

John 21:3 "I'm going out to fish," Simon Peter told them, and they said, "We'll go with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

John 21:4 Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus.

John 21:5 He called out to them, "Friends, haven't you any fish?" "No," they answered.

John 21:6 He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

John 21:7 Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water.

John 21:8 The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.

John 21:9 When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread.

John 21:10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

John 21:11 Simon Peter climbed aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn.

John 21:12 Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord.

John 21:13 Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

John 21:14 This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

John 21:15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?" "Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."

John 21:16 Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me?" He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."

John 21:17 The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?” He said, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my sheep.

John 21:18 I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.”

John 21:19 Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me!”

John 21:20 Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”)

John 21:21 When Peter saw him, he asked, “Lord, what about him?”

John 21:22 Jesus answered, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me.”

John 21:23 Because of this, the rumour spread among the brothers that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die; he only said, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?”

John 21:24 This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

John 21:25 Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

1:1 In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach

Acts 1:2 until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen.

Acts 1:3 After his suffering, he showed himself to these men and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:4 On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: “Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about.

Acts 1:5 For John baptised with water, but in a few days you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 1:6 So when they met together, they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?”

Acts 1:7 He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority.

Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

Acts 1:9 After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight.

Acts 1:10 They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them.

Acts 1:11 “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

Acts 1:12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day’s walk from the city.

Acts 1:13 When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.

Acts 1:14 They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

Acts 1:15 In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty)

Acts 1:16 and said, “Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus—

Acts 1:17 he was one of our number and shared in this ministry.”

Acts 1:18 (With the reward he got for his wickedness, Judas bought a field; there he fell headlong, his body burst open and all his intestines spilled out.

Acts 1:19 Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so they called that field in their language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

Acts 1:20 “For,” said Peter, “it is written in the Book of Psalms, “`May his place be deserted; let there be no-one to dwell in it,’ and, “`May another take his place of leadership.’

Acts 1:21 Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

Acts 1:22 beginning from John’s baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of his resurrection.”

Acts 1:23 So they proposed two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias.

Acts 1:24 Then they prayed, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen Acts 1:25 to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs.”

Acts 1:26 Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.

Acts 2:1 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.

Acts 2:2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

Acts 2:3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.

Acts 2:4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Acts 2:5 Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven.

Acts 2:6 When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

Acts 2:7 Utterly amazed, they asked: “Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans?

Acts 2:8 Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language?

Acts 2:9 Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

Acts 2:10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome

Acts 2:11 (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!”

Acts 2:12 Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?”

Acts 2:13 Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”

Acts 2:14 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: “Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say.

Acts 2:15 These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It’s only nine in the morning!

Acts 2:16 No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

Acts 2:17 “`In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

Acts 2:18 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.

Acts 2:19 I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke.

Acts 2:20 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

Acts 2:21 And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.’

Acts 2:22 “Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know.

Acts 2:23 This man was handed over to you by God’s set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross.

Acts 2:24 But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him.

Acts 2:25 David said about him: “`I saw the Lord always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

Acts 2:26 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will live in hope,

Acts 2:27 because you will not abandon me to the grave, nor will you let your Holy One see decay.

Acts 2:28 You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.’

Acts 2:29 “Brothers, I can tell you confidently that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day.

Acts 2:30 But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne.

Acts 2:31 Seeing what was ahead, he spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to the grave, nor did his body see decay.

Acts 2:32 God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of the fact.

Acts 2:33 Exalted to the right hand of God, he has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear.

Acts 2:34 For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said, “`The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand

Acts 2:35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."'

Acts 2:36 "Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

Acts 2:37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

Acts 2:38 Peter replied, "Repent and be baptised, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:39 The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call."

Acts 2:40 With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."

Acts 2:41 Those who accepted his message were baptised, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

Acts 2:42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

Acts 2:43 Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles.

Acts 2:44 All the believers were together and had everything in common.

Acts 2:45 Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need.

Acts 2:46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts,

Acts 2:47 praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Acts 3:1 One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer—at three in the afternoon.

Acts 3:2 Now a man crippled from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts.

Acts 3:3 When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money.

Acts 3:4 Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, "Look at us!"

Acts 3:5 So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.

Acts 3:6 Then Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk."

Acts 3:7 Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man's feet and ankles became strong.

Acts 3:8 He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping, and praising God.

Acts 3:9 When all the people saw him walking and praising God,

Acts 3:10 they recognised him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 While the beggar held on to Peter and John, all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade.

Acts 3:12 When Peter saw this, he said to them: "Men of Israel, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed him over to be killed, and you disowned him before Pilate, though he had decided to let him go.

Acts 3:14 You disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you.

Acts 3:15 You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. We are witnesses of this.

Acts 3:16 By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has given this complete healing to him, as you can all see.

Acts 3:17 "Now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your leaders.

Acts 3:18 But this is how God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, saying that his Christ would suffer.

Acts 3:19 Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord,

Acts 3:20 and that he may send the Christ, who has been appointed for you—even Jesus.

Acts 3:21 He must remain in heaven until the time comes for God to restore everything, as he promised long ago through his holy prophets.

Acts 3:22 For Moses said,`The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you must listen to everything he tells you.

Acts 3:23 Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from among his people.'

Acts 3:24 “Indeed, all the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have foretold these days.

Acts 3:25 And you are heirs of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers. He said to Abraham,`Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed.’

Acts 3:26 When God raised up his servant, he sent him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways.”

Acts 4:1 The priests and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to Peter and John while they were speaking to the people.

Acts 4:2 They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead.

Acts 4:3 They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in jail until the next day.

Acts 4:4 But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand.

Acts 4:5 The next day the rulers, elders and teachers of the law met in Jerusalem.

Acts 4:6 Annas the high priest was there, and so were Caiaphas, John, Alexander and the other men of the high priest’s family.

Acts 4:7 They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: “By what power or what name did you do this?”

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: “Rulers and elders of the people!

Acts 4:9 If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a cripple and are asked how he was healed,

Acts 4:10 then know this, you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed.

Acts 4:11 He is “`the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone.’

Acts 4:12 Salvation is found in no-one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.”

Acts 4:13 When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realised that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:14 But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say.

Acts 4:15 So they ordered them to withdraw from the Sanhedrin and then conferred together.

Acts 4:16 “What are we going to do with these men?” they asked. “Everybody living in Jerusalem knows they have done an outstanding miracle, and we cannot deny it.

Acts 4:17 But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people, we must warn these men to speak no longer to anyone in this name.”

Acts 4:18 Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

Acts 4:19 But Peter and John replied, “Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God’s sight to obey you rather than God.

Acts 4:20 For we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

Acts 4:21 After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people were praising God for what had happened.

Acts 4:22 For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

Acts 4:23 On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.

Acts 4:24 When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. “Sovereign Lord,” they said, “you made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and everything in them.

Acts 4:25 You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David: “`Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

Acts 4:26 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord and against his Anointed One.’

Acts 4:27 Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed.

Acts 4:28 They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen.

Acts 4:29 Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness.

Acts 4:30 Stretch out your hand to heal and perform miraculous signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

Acts 4:31 After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

Acts 4:32 All the believers were one in heart and mind. No-one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they had.

Acts 4:33 With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and much grace was upon them all.

Acts 4:34 There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales

Acts 4:35 and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone as he had need.

Acts 4:36 Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means Son of Encouragement),

Acts 4:37 sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles' feet.

Acts 5:1 Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property.

Acts 5:2 With his wife's full knowledge he kept back part of the money for himself, but brought the rest and put it at the apostles' feet.

Acts 5:3 Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land?

Acts 5:4 Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God."

Acts 5:5 When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard what had happened.

Acts 5:6 Then the young men came forward, wrapped up his body, and carried him out and buried him.

Acts 5:7 About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

Acts 5:8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?" "Yes," she said, "that is the price."

Acts 5:9 Peter said to her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

Acts 5:10 At that moment she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

Acts 5:11 Great fear seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.

Acts 5:12 The apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers used to meet together in Solomon’s Colonnade.

Acts 5:13 No-one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people.

Acts 5:14 Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number.

Acts 5:15 As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that at least Peter’s shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.

Acts 5:16 Crowds gathered also from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those tormented by evil spirits, and all of them were healed.

Acts 5:17 Then the high priest and all his associates, who were members of the party of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy.

Acts 5:18 They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.

Acts 5:19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out.

Acts 5:20 “Go, stand in the temple courts,” he said, “and tell the people the full message of this new life.”

Acts 5:21 At daybreak they entered the temple courts, as they had been told, and began to teach the people. When the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin— the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the jail for the apostles.

Acts 5:22 But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they went back and reported,

Acts 5:23 “We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no-one inside.”

Acts 5:24 On hearing this report, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests were puzzled, wondering what would come of this.

Acts 5:25 Then someone came and said, “Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people.”

Acts 5:26 At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people would stone them.

Acts 5:27 Having brought the apostles, they made them appear before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest.

Acts 5:28 “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name,” he said. “Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man’s blood.”

Acts 5:29 Peter and the other apostles replied: “We must obey God rather than men!

Acts 5:30 The God of our fathers raised Jesus from the dead—whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree.

Acts 5:31 God exalted him to his own right hand as Prince and Saviour that he might give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel.

Acts 5:32 We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

Acts 5:33 When they heard this, they were furious and wanted to put them to death.

Acts 5:34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, who was honoured by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while.

Acts 5:35 Then he addressed them: “Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do to these men.

Acts 5:36 Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing.

Acts 5:37 After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered.

Acts 5:38 Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail.

Acts 5:39 But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God.”

Acts 5:40 His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in and had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

Acts 5:41 The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name.

Acts 5:42 Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.

Acts 6:1 In those days when the number of disciples was increasing, the Grecian Jews among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.

Acts 6:2 So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, “It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables.

Acts 6:3 Brothers, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them

Acts 6:4 and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word.”

Acts 6:5 This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit; also Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism.

Acts 6:6 They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

Acts 6:7 So the word of God spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Acts 6:8 Now Stephen, a man full of God’s grace and power, did great wonders and miraculous signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 Opposition arose, however, from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called)—Jews of Cyrene and Alexandria as well as the provinces of Cilicia and Asia. These men began to argue with Stephen,

Acts 6:10 but they could not stand up against his wisdom or the Spirit by whom he spoke.

Acts 6:11 Then they secretly persuaded some men to say, “We have heard Stephen speak words of blasphemy against Moses and against God.”

Acts 6:12 So they stirred up the people and the elders and the teachers of the law. They seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin.

Acts 6:13 They produced false witnesses, who testified, “This fellow never stops speaking against this holy place and against the law.

Acts 6:14 For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs Moses handed down to us.”

Acts 6:15 All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7:1 Then the high priest asked him, “Are these charges true?”

Acts 7:2 To this he replied: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran.

Acts 7:3 `Leave your country and your people,’ God said,`and go to the land I will show you.’

Acts 7:4 “So he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After the death of his father, God sent him to this land where you are now living.

Acts 7:5 He gave him no inheritance here, not even a foot of ground. But God promised him that he and his descendants after him would possess the land, even though at that time Abraham had no child.

Acts 7:6 God spoke to him in this way:`Your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and ill-treated for four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves,' God said,`and afterwards they will come out of that country and worship me in this place.'

Acts 7:8 Then he gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision. And Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him eight days after his birth. Later Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

Acts 7:9 "Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph, they sold him as a slave into Egypt. But God was with him

Acts 7:10 and rescued him from all his troubles. He gave Joseph wisdom and enabled him to gain the goodwill of Pharaoh king of Egypt; so he made him ruler over Egypt and all his palace.

Acts 7:11 "Then a famine struck all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering, and our fathers could not find food.

Acts 7:12 When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers on their first visit.

Acts 7:13 On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family.

Acts 7:14 After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family, seventy-five in all.

Acts 7:15 Then Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our fathers died.

Acts 7:16 Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor at Shechem for a certain sum of money.

Acts 7:17 "As the time drew near for God to fulfil his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased.

Acts 7:18 Then another king, who knew nothing about Joseph, became ruler of Egypt.

Acts 7:19 He dealt treacherously with our people and oppressed our forefathers by forcing them to throw out their newborn babies so that they would die.

Acts 7:20 "At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child. For three months he was cared for in his father's house.

Acts 7:21 When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son.

Acts 7:22 Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action.

Acts 7:23 “When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his fellow Israelites.

Acts 7:24 He saw one of them being ill-treated by an Egyptian, so he went to his defence and avenged him by killing the Egyptian.

Acts 7:25 Moses thought that his own people would realise that God was using him to rescue them, but they did not.

Acts 7:26 The next day Moses came upon two Israelites who were fighting. He tried to reconcile them by saying,`Men, you are brothers; why do you want to hurt each other?’

Acts 7:27 “But the man who was ill-treating the other pushed Moses aside and said,`Who made you ruler and judge over us?

Acts 7:28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’

Acts 7:29 When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he settled as a foreigner and had two sons.

Acts 7:30 “After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai.

Acts 7:31 When he saw this, he was amazed at the sight. As he went over to look more closely, he heard the Lord’s voice:

Acts 7:32 `I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.’ Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.

Acts 7:33 “Then the Lord said to him,`Take off your sandals; the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Acts 7:34 I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to set them free. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.’

Acts 7:35 “This is the same Moses whom they had rejected with the words,`Who made you ruler and judge?’ He was sent to be their ruler and deliverer by God himself, through the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

Acts 7:36 He led them out of Egypt and did wonders and miraculous signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea and for forty years in the desert.

Acts 7:37 “This is that Moses who told the Israelites,`God will send you a prophet like me from your own people.’

Acts 7:38 He was in the assembly in the desert, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers; and he received living words to pass on to us.

Acts 7:39 “But our fathers refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt.

Acts 7:40 They told Aaron,`Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt—we don’t know what has happened to him!’

Acts 7:41 That was the time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and held a celebration in honour of what their hands had made.

Acts 7:42 But God turned away and gave them over to the worship of the heavenly bodies. This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets: “`Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings for forty years in the desert, O house of Israel?

Acts 7:43 You have lifted up the shrine of Molech and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship. Therefore I will send you into exile’ beyond Babylon.

Acts 7:44 “Our forefathers had the tabernacle of the Testimony with them in the desert. It had been made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen.

Acts 7:45 Having received the tabernacle, our fathers under Joshua brought it with them when they took the land from the nations God drove out before them. It remained in the land until the time of David,

Acts 7:46 who enjoyed God’s favour and asked that he might provide a dwelling-place for the God of Jacob.

Acts 7:47 But it was Solomon who built the house for him.

Acts 7:48 “However, the Most High does not live in houses made by men. As the prophet says:

Acts 7:49 “`Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will you build for me? says the Lord. Or where will my resting place be?

Acts 7:50 Has not my hand made all these things?’

Acts 7:51 “You stiff-necked people, with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You are just like your fathers: You always resist the Holy Spirit!

Acts 7:52 Was there ever a prophet your fathers did not persecute? They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered him—

Acts 7:53 you who have received the law that was put into effect through angels but have not obeyed it.”

Acts 7:54 When they heard this, they were furious and gnashed their teeth at him.

Acts 7:55 But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

Acts 7:56 “Look,” he said, “I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

Acts 7:57 At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him,

Acts 7:58 dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.

Acts 7:59 While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.”

Acts 7:60 Then he fell on his knees and cried out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” When he had said this, he fell asleep.

Acts 8:1 And Saul was there, giving approval to his death. On that day a great persecution broke out against the church at Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria.

Acts 8:2 Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him.

Acts 8:3 But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off men and women and put them in prison.

Acts 8:4 Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went.

Acts 8:5 Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Christ there.

Acts 8:6 When the crowds heard Philip and saw the miraculous signs he did, they all paid close attention to what he said.

Acts 8:7 With shrieks, evil spirits came out of many, and many paralytics and cripples were healed.

Acts 8:8 So there was great joy in that city.

Acts 8:9 Now for some time a man named Simon had practised sorcery in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He boasted that he was someone great,

Acts 8:10 and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and exclaimed, “This man is the divine power known as the Great Power.”

Acts 8:11 They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his magic.

Acts 8:12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the good news of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptised, both men and women.

Acts 8:13 Simon himself believed and was baptised. And he followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles he saw.

Acts 8:14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

Acts 8:15 When they arrived, they prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, Acts 8:16 because the Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them; they had simply been baptised into the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 8:17 Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:18 When Simon saw that the Spirit was given at the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money

Acts 8:19 and said, "Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

Acts 8:20 Peter answered: "May your money perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money!

Acts 8:21 You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right before God.

Acts 8:22 Repent of this wickedness and pray to the Lord. Perhaps he will forgive you for having such a thought in your heart.

Acts 8:23 For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin."

Acts 8:24 Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me so that nothing you have said may happen to me."

Acts 8:25 When they had testified and proclaimed the word of the Lord, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.

Acts 8:26 Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza."

Acts 8:27 So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship,

Acts 8:28 and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the book of Isaiah the prophet.

Acts 8:29 The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it."

Acts 8:30 Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.

Acts 8:31 "How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

Acts 8:32 The eunuch was reading this passage of Scripture: "He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before the shearer is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

Acts 8:33 In his humiliation he was deprived of justice. Who can speak of his descendants? For his life was taken from the earth."

Acts 8:34 The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?"

Acts 8:35 Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus.

Acts 8:36 As they travelled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water. Why shouldn’t I be baptised?”

Acts 8:37

Acts 8:38 And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptised him.

Acts 8:39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing.

Acts 8:40 Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and travelled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

Acts 9:1 Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord’s disciples. He went to the high priest

Acts 9:2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:3 As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

Acts 9:4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?”

Acts 9:5 “Who are you, Lord?” Saul asked. “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,” he replied.

Acts 9:6 “Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

Acts 9:7 The men travelling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone.

Acts 9:8 Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus.

Acts 9:9 For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything.

Acts 9:10 In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, “Ananias!” “Yes, Lord,” he answered.

Acts 9:11 The Lord told him, “Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying.

Acts 9:12 In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight.”

Acts 9:13 “Lord,” Ananias answered, “I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem.

Acts 9:14 And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name.”

Acts 9:15 But the Lord said to Ananias, “Go! This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel.

Acts 9:16 I will show him how much he must suffer for my name.”

Acts 9:17 Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here—has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 9:18 Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptised,

Acts 9:19 and after taking some food, he regained his strength. Saul spent several days with the disciples in Damascus.

Acts 9:20 At once he began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God.

Acts 9:21 All those who heard him were astonished and asked, “Isn’t he the man who caused havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name? And hasn’t he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?”

Acts 9:22 Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.

Acts 9:23 After many days had gone by, the Jews conspired to kill him,

Acts 9:24 but Saul learned of their plan. Day and night they kept close watch on the city gates in order to kill him.

Acts 9:25 But his followers took him by night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.

Acts 9:26 When he came to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple.

Acts 9:27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus.

Acts 9:28 So Saul stayed with them and moved about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

Acts 9:29 He talked and debated with the Grecian Jews, but they tried to kill him.

Acts 9:30 When the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace. It was strengthened; and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, it grew in numbers, living in the fear of the Lord.

Acts 9:32 As Peter travelled about the country, he went to visit the saints in Lydda.

Acts 9:33 There he found a man named Aeneas, a paralytic who had been bedridden for eight years.

Acts 9:34 “Aeneas,” Peter said to him, “Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and tidy up your mat.” Immediately Aeneas got up.

Acts 9:35 All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

Acts 9:36 In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which, when translated, is Dorcas), who was always doing good and helping the poor.

Acts 9:37 About that time she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room.

Acts 9:38 Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, “Please come at once!”

Acts 9:39 Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

Acts 9:40 Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning towards the dead woman, he said, “Tabitha, get up.” She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up.

Acts 9:41 He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and the widows and presented her to them alive.

Acts 9:42 This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon.

Acts 10:1 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment.

Acts 10:2 He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly.

Acts 10:3 One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, “Cornelius!”

Acts 10:4 Cornelius stared at him in fear. “What is it, Lord?” he asked. The angel answered, “Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God.

Acts 10:5 Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter.

Acts 10:6 He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea.”

Acts 10:7 When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier who was one of his attendants.

Acts 10:8 He told them everything that had happened and sent them to Joppa.

Acts 10:9 About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray.

Acts 10:10 He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

Acts 10:11 He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners.

Acts 10:12 It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles of the earth and birds of the air.

Acts 10:13 Then a voice told him, “Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.”

Acts 10:14 “Surely not, Lord!” Peter replied. “I have never eaten anything impure or unclean.”

Acts 10:15 The voice spoke to him a second time, “Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.”

Acts 10:16 This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven.

Acts 10:17 While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found out where Simon’s house was and stopped at the gate.

Acts 10:18 They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there.

Acts 10:19 While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Simon, three men are looking for you.

Acts 10:20 So get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them.”

Acts 10:21 Peter went down and said to the men, “I’m the one you’re looking for. Why have you come?”

Acts 10:22 The men replied, “We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man, who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told him to have you come to his house so that he could hear what you have to say.”

Acts 10:23 Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests. The next day Peter started out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went along.

Acts 10:24 The following day he arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

Acts 10:25 As Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence.

Acts 10:26 But Peter made him get up. “Stand up,” he said, “I am only a man myself.”

Acts 10:27 Talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people.

Acts 10:28 He said to them: “You are well aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with a Gentile or visit him. But God has shown me that I should not call any man impure or unclean.

Acts 10:29 So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection. May I ask why you sent for me?”

Acts 10:30 Cornelius answered: “Four days ago I was in my house praying at this hour, at three in the afternoon. Suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me

Acts 10:31 and said,`Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and remembered your gifts to the poor.

Acts 10:32 Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, who lives by the sea.’

Acts 10:33 So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

Acts 10:34 Then Peter began to speak: “I now realise how true it is that God does not show favouritism

Acts 10:35 but accepts men from every nation who fear him and do what is right.

Acts 10:36 You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, telling the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.

Acts 10:37 You know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached—

Acts 10:38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him.

Acts 10:39 “We are witnesses of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree,

Acts 10:40 but God raised him from the dead on the third day and caused him to be seen.

Acts 10:41 He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Acts 10:42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead.

Acts 10:43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Acts 10:44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came on all who heard the message.

Acts 10:45 The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles.

Acts 10:46 For they heard them speaking in tongues and praising God. Then Peter said,

Acts 10:47 “Can anyone keep these people from being baptised with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have.”

Acts 10:48 So he ordered that they be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Acts 11:1 The apostles and the brothers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

Acts 11:2 So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticised him

Acts 11:3 and said, “You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them.”

Acts 11:4 Peter began and explained everything to them precisely as it had happened:

Acts 11:5 “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. I saw something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to where I was.

Acts 11:6 I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the air.

Acts 11:7 Then I heard a voice telling me,`Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.’

Acts 11:8 “I replied,`Surely not, Lord! Nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

Acts 11:9 “The voice spoke from heaven a second time,`Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.’

Acts 11:10 This happened three times, and then it was pulled up to heaven again.

Acts 11:11 “Right then three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea stopped at the house where I was staying.

Acts 11:12 The Spirit told me to have no hesitation about going with them. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man’s house.

Acts 11:13 He told us how he had seen an angel appear in his house and say,`Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter.

Acts 11:14 He will bring you a message through which you and all your household will be saved.'

Acts 11:15 "As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them as he had come on us at the beginning.

Acts 11:16 Then I remembered what the Lord had said:`John baptised with water, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Acts 11:17 So if God gave them the same gift as he gave us, who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to think that I could oppose God?"

Acts 11:18 When they heard this, they had no further objections and praised God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance unto life."

Acts 11:19 Now those who had been scattered by the persecution in connection with Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch, telling the message only to Jews.

Acts 11:20 Some of them, however, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus.

Acts 11:21 The Lord's hand was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 News of this reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

Acts 11:23 When he arrived and saw the evidence of the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts.

Acts 11:24 He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.

Acts 11:25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul,

Acts 11:26 and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch.

Acts 11:27 During this time some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

Acts 11:28 One of them, named Agabus, stood up and through the Spirit predicted that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world. (This happened during the reign of Claudius.)

Acts 11:29 The disciples, each according to his ability, decided to provide help for the brothers living in Judea.

Acts 11:30 This they did, sending their gift to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12:1 It was about this time that King Herod arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to persecute them.

Acts 12:2 He had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword.

Acts 12:3 When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This happened during the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Acts 12:4 After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

Acts 12:5 So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him.

Acts 12:6 The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries stood guard at the entrance.

Acts 12:7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. “Quick, get up!” he said, and the chains fell off Peter’s wrists.

Acts 12:8 Then the angel said to him, “Put on your clothes and sandals.” And Peter did so. “Wrap your cloak around you and follow me,” the angel told him.

Acts 12:9 Peter followed him out of the prison, but he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it. When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him.

Acts 12:11 Then Peter came to himself and said, “Now I know without a doubt that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from Herod’s clutches and from everything the Jewish people were anticipating.”

Acts 12:12 When this had dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying.

Acts 12:13 Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer the door.

Acts 12:14 When she recognised Peter’s voice, she was so overjoyed she ran back without opening it and exclaimed, “Peter is at the door!”

Acts 12:15 “You’re out of your mind,” they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, “It must be his angel.”

Acts 12:16 But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.

Acts 12:17 Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. “Tell James and the brothers about this,” he said, and then he left for another place.

Acts 12:18 In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter.

Acts 12:19 After Herod had a thorough search made for him and did not find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Then Herod went from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there a while.

Acts 12:20 He had been quarrelling with the people of Tyre and Sidon; they now joined together and sought an audience with him. Having secured the support of Blastus, a trusted personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because they depended on the king’s country for their food supply.

Acts 12:21 On the appointed day Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to the people.

Acts 12:22 They shouted, “This is the voice of a god, not of a man.”

Acts 12:23 Immediately, because Herod did not give praise to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died.

Acts 12:24 But the word of God continued to increase and spread.

Acts 12:25 When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission, they returned from Jerusalem, taking with them John, also called Mark.

Acts 13:1 In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch) and Saul.

Acts 13:2 While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.”

Acts 13:3 So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:4 The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. John was with them as their helper.

Acts 13:6 They travelled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, Acts 13:7 who was an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God.

Acts 13:8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith.

Acts 13:9 Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked straight at Elymas and said,

Acts 13:10 “You are a child of the devil and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord?

Acts 13:11 Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You are going to be blind, and for a time you will be unable to see the light of the sun.” Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

Acts 13:12 When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

Acts 13:13 From Paphos, Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem.

Acts 13:14 From Perga they went on to Pisidian Antioch. On the Sabbath they entered the synagogue and sat down.

Acts 13:15 After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue rulers sent word to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have a message of encouragement for the people, please speak.”

Acts 13:16 Standing up, Paul motioned with his hand and said: “Men of Israel and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me!

Acts 13:17 The God of the people of Israel chose our fathers; he made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt, with mighty power he led them out of that country,

Acts 13:18 he endured their conduct for about forty years in the desert,

Acts 13:19 he overthrew seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to his people as their inheritance.

Acts 13:20 All this took about 450 years. “After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet.

Acts 13:21 Then the people asked for a king, and he gave them Saul son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years.

Acts 13:22 After removing Saul, he made David their king. He testified concerning him:`I have found David son of Jesse a man after my own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.’

Acts 13:23 “From this man’s descendants God has brought to Israel the Saviour Jesus, as he promised.

Acts 13:24 Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel.

Acts 13:25 As John was completing his work, he said:`Who do you think I am? I am not that one. No, but he is coming after me, whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.’

Acts 13:26 “Brothers, children of Abraham, and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent.

Acts 13:27 The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognise Jesus, yet in condemning him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath.

Acts 13:28 Though they found no proper ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed.

Acts 13:29 When they had carried out all that was written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 But God raised him from the dead,

Acts 13:31 and for many days he was seen by those who had travelled with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to our people.

Acts 13:32 “We tell you the good news: What God promised our fathers Acts 13:33 he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm: “`You are my Son; today I have become your Father.’

Acts 13:34 The fact that God raised him from the dead, never to decay, is stated in these words: “`I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.’

Acts 13:35 So it is stated elsewhere: “`You will not let your Holy One see decay.’

Acts 13:36 “For when David had served God’s purpose in his own generation, he fell asleep; he was buried with his fathers and his body decayed.

Acts 13:37 But the one whom God raised from the dead did not see decay.

Acts 13:38 “Therefore, my brothers, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you.

Acts 13:39 Through him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses.

Acts 13:40 Take care that what the prophets have said does not happen to you:

Acts 13:41 “`Look, you scoffers, wonder and perish, for I am going to do something in your days that you would never believe, even if someone told you.’“

Acts 13:42 As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak further about these things on the next Sabbath.

Acts 13:43 When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who talked with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

Acts 13:44 On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord.

Acts 13:45 When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and talked abusively against what Paul was saying.

Acts 13:46 Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: “We had to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles.

Acts 13:47 For this is what the Lord has commanded us: “`I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.’“

Acts 13:48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honoured the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed for eternal life believed.

Acts 13:49 The word of the Lord spread through the whole region.

Acts 13:50 But the Jews incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.

Acts 13:51 So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium.

Acts 13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14:1 At Iconium Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue. There they spoke so effectively that a great number of Jews and Gentiles believed.

Acts 14:2 But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

Acts 14:3 So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by enabling them to do miraculous signs and wonders.

Acts 14:4 The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles.

Acts 14:5 There was a plot afoot among the Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, to ill-treat them and stone them.

Acts 14:6 But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding country,

Acts 14:7 where they continued to preach the good news.

Acts 14:8 In Lystra there sat a man crippled in his feet, who was lame from birth and had never walked.

Acts 14:9 He listened to Paul as he was speaking. Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had faith to be healed

Acts 14:10 and called out, “Stand up on your feet!” At that, the man jumped up and began to walk.

Acts 14:11 When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come down to us in human form!”

Acts 14:12 Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes because he was the chief speaker.

Acts 14:13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.

Acts 14:14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting:

Acts 14:15 “Men, why are you doing this? We too are only men, human like you. We are bringing you good news, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made heaven and earth and sea and everything in them.

Acts 14:16 In the past, he let all nations go their own way.

Acts 14:17 Yet he has not left himself without testimony: He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy.”

Acts 14:18 Even with these words, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.

Acts 14:19 Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead.

Acts 14:20 But after the disciples had gathered round him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

Acts 14:21 They preached the good news in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch,

Acts 14:22 strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. “We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God,” they said.

Acts 14:23 Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust.

Acts 14:24 After going through Pisidia, they came into Pamphylia, Acts 14:25 and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Acts 14:26 From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

Acts 14:27 On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 14:28 And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Acts 15:1 Some men came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the brothers: “Unless you are circumcised, according to the custom taught by Moses, you cannot be saved.”

Acts 15:2 This brought Paul and Barnabas into sharp dispute and debate with them. So Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and elders about this question.

Acts 15:3 The church sent them on their way, and as they travelled through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told how the Gentiles had been converted. This news made all the brothers very glad.

Acts 15:4 When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders, to whom they reported everything God had done through them.

Acts 15:5 Then some of the believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, “The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to obey the law of Moses.”

Acts 15:6 The apostles and elders met to consider this question.

Acts 15:7 After much discussion, Peter got up and addressed them: “Brothers, you know that some time ago God made a choice among you that the Gentiles might hear from my lips the message of the gospel and believe.

Acts 15:8 God, who knows the heart, showed that he accepted them by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as he did to us.

Acts 15:9 He made no distinction between us and them, for he purified their hearts by faith.

Acts 15:10 Now then, why do you try to test God by putting on the necks of the disciples a yoke that neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear?

Acts 15:11 No! We believe it is through the grace of our Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are.”

Acts 15:12 The whole assembly became silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul telling about the miraculous signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.

Acts 15:13 When they finished, James spoke up: “Brothers, listen to me.

Acts 15:14 Simon has described to us how God at first showed his concern by taking from the Gentiles a people for himself.

Acts 15:15 The words of the prophets are in agreement with this, as it is written:

Acts 15:16 “`After this I will return and rebuild David’s fallen tent. Its ruins I will rebuild, and I will restore it,

Acts 15:17 that the remnant of men may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles who bear my name, says the Lord, who does these things’

Acts 15:18 that have been known for ages.

Acts 15:19 “It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God.

Acts 15:20 Instead we should write to them, telling them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals and from blood.

Acts 15:21 For Moses has been preached in every city from the earliest times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath.”

Acts 15:22 Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to choose some of their own men and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas, two men who were leaders among the brothers.

Acts 15:23 With them they sent the following letter: The apostles and elders, your brothers, To the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia: Greetings.

Acts 15:24 We have heard that some went out from us without our authorisation and disturbed you, troubling your minds by what they said.

Acts 15:25 So we all agreed to choose some men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul—

Acts 15:26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:27 Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas to confirm by word of mouth what we are writing.

Acts 15:28 It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to burden you with anything beyond the following requirements:

Acts 15:29 You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality. You will do well to avoid these things. Farewell.

Acts 15:30 The men were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they gathered the church together and delivered the letter.

Acts 15:31 The people read it and were glad for its encouraging message.

Acts 15:32 Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the brothers.

Acts 15:33 After spending some time there, they were sent off by the brothers with the blessing of peace to return to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34

Acts 15:35 But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord.

Acts 15:36 Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the brothers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing.”

Acts 15:37 Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark, with them,

Acts 15:38 but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work.

Acts 15:39 They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus,

Acts 15:40 but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord.

Acts 15:41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Acts 16:1 He came to Derbe and then to Lystra, where a disciple named Timothy lived, whose mother was a Jewess and a believer, but whose father was a Greek.

Acts 16:2 The brothers at Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him.

Acts 16:3 Paul wanted to take him along on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:4 As they travelled from town to town, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the people to obey.

Acts 16:5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

Acts 16:6 Paul and his companions travelled throughout the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia.

Acts 16:7 When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to.

Acts 16:8 So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

Acts 16:9 During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

Acts 16:10 After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Acts 16:11 From Troas we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day on to Neapolis.

Acts 16:12 From there we travelled to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city of that district of Macedonia. And we stayed there several days.

Acts 16:13 On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there.

Acts 16:14 One of those listening was a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who was a worshipper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul’s message.

Acts 16:15 When she and the members of her household were baptised, she invited us to her home. “If you consider me a believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my house.” And she persuaded us.

Acts 16:16 Once when we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling.

Acts 16:17 This girl followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who are telling you the way to be saved.”

Acts 16:18 She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so troubled that he turned round and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!” At that moment the spirit left her.

Acts 16:19 When the owners of the slave girl realised that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market-place to face the authorities.

Acts 16:20 They brought them before the magistrates and said, “These men are Jews, and are throwing our city into an uproar Acts 16:21 by advocating customs unlawful for usRomans to accept or practise.”

Acts 16:22 The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten.

Acts 16:23 After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer was commanded to guard them carefully.

Acts 16:24 Upon receiving such orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Acts 16:25 About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.

Acts 16:26 Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everybody's chains came loose.

Acts 16:27 The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped.

Acts 16:28 But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!"

Acts 16:29 The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas.

Acts 16:30 He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

Acts 16:31 They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household."

Acts 16:32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house.

Acts 16:33 At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his family were baptised.

Acts 16:34 The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole family.

Acts 16:35 When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order: "Release those men."

Acts 16:36 The jailer told Paul, "The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace."

Acts 16:37 But Paul said to the officers: "They beat us publicly without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens, and threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out."

Acts 16:38 The officers reported this to the magistrates, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed.

Acts 16:39 They came to appease them and escorted them from the prison, requesting them to leave the city.

Acts 16:40 After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house, where they met with the brothers and encouraged them. Then they left.

Acts 17:1 When they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.

Acts 17:2 As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, Acts 17:3 explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. “This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ,” he said.

Acts 17:4 Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a large number of God-fearing Greeks and not a few prominent women.

Acts 17:5 But the Jews were jealous; so they rounded up some bad characters from the market-place, formed a mob and started a riot in the city. They rushed to Jason’s house in search of Paul and Silas in order to bring them out to the crowd.

Acts 17:6 But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some other brothers before the city officials, shouting: “These men who have caused trouble all over the world have now come here, Acts 17:7 and Jason has welcomed them into his house. They are all defying Caesar’s decrees, saying that there is another king, one called Jesus.”

Acts 17:8 When they heard this, the crowd and the city officials were thrown into turmoil.

Acts 17:9 Then they put Jason and the others on bail and let them go.

Acts 17:10 As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue.

Acts 17:11 Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true.

Acts 17:12 Many of the Jews believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men.

Acts 17:13 When the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God at Berea, they went there too, agitating the crowds and stirring them up.

Acts 17:14 The brothers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed at Berea.

Acts 17:15 The men who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and then left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.

Acts 17:16 While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was greatly distressed to see that the city was full of idols.

Acts 17:17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the market-place day by day with those who happened to be there.

Acts 17:18 A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to dispute with him. Some of them asked, “What is this babbler trying to say?” Others remarked, “He seems to be advocating foreign gods.” They said this because Paul was preaching the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.

Acts 17:19 Then they took him and brought him to a meeting of the Areopagus, where they said to him, “May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?

Acts 17:20 You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we want to know what they mean.”

Acts 17:21 (All the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.)

Acts 17:22 Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: “Men of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious.

Acts 17:23 For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Now what you worship as something unknown I am going to proclaim to you.

Acts 17:24 “The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by hands.

Acts 17:25 And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all men life and breath and everything else.

Acts 17:26 From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live.

Acts 17:27 God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.

Acts 17:28 `For in him we live and move and have our being.’ As some of your own poets have said,`We are his offspring.’

Acts 17:29 “Therefore since we are God’s offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone— an image made by man’s design and skill.

Acts 17:30 In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent.

Acts 17:31 For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead.”

Acts 17:32 When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some of them sneered, but others said, “We want to hear you again on this subject.”

Acts 17:33 At that, Paul left the Council.

Acts 17:34 A few men became followers of Paul and believed. Among them was Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus, also a woman named Damaris, and a number of others.

Acts 18:1 After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.

Acts 18:2 There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them,

Acts 18:3 and because he was a tentmaker as they were, he stayed and worked with them.

Acts 18:4 Every Sabbath he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.

Acts 18:5 When Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself exclusively to preaching, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 18:6 But when the Jews opposed Paul and became abusive, he shook out his clothes in protest and said to them, “Your blood be on your own heads! I am clear of my responsibility. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.”

Acts 18:7 Then Paul left the synagogue and went next door to the house of Titius Justus, a worshipper of God.

Acts 18:8 Crispus, the synagogue ruler, and his entire household believed in the Lord; and many of the Corinthians who heard him believed and were baptised.

Acts 18:9 One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: “Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent.

Acts 18:10 For I am with you, and no-one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city.”

Acts 18:11 So Paul stayed for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God.

Acts 18:12 While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him into court.

Acts 18:13 “This man,” they charged, “is persuading the people to worship God in ways contrary to the law.”

Acts 18:14 Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, “If you Jews were making a complaint about some misdemeanour or serious crime, it would be reasonable for me to listen to you.

Acts 18:15 But since it involves questions about words and names and your own law—settle the matter yourselves. I will not be a judge of such things.”

Acts 18:16 So he had them ejected from the court.

Acts 18:17 Then they all turned on Sosthenes the synagogue ruler and beat him in front of the court. But Gallio showed no concern whatever.

Acts 18:18 Paul stayed on in Corinth for some time. Then he left the brothers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. Before he sailed, he had his hair cut off at Cenchrea because of a vow he had taken.

Acts 18:19 They arrived at Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 When they asked him to spend more time with them, he declined.

Acts 18:21 But as he left, he promised, “I will come back if it is God’s will.” Then he set sail from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 When he landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church and then went down to Antioch.

Acts 18:23 After spending some time in Antioch, Paul set out from there and travelled from place to place throughout the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Acts 18:24 Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, with a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures.

Acts 18:25 He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spoke with great fervour and taught about Jesus accurately, though he knew only the baptism of John.

Acts 18:26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they invited him to their home and explained to him the way of God more adequately.

Acts 18:27 When Apollos wanted to go to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On arriving, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed.

Acts 18:28 For he vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 19:1 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul took the road through the interior and arrived at Ephesus. There he found some disciples

Acts 19:2 and asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” They answered, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

Acts 19:3 So Paul asked, “Then what baptism did you receive?” “John’s baptism,” they replied.

Acts 19:4 Paul said, “John’s baptism was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus.”

Acts 19:5 On hearing this, they were baptised into the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 19:6 When Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied.

Acts 19:7 There were about twelve men in all.

Acts 19:8 Paul entered the synagogue and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God.

Acts 19:9 But some of them became obstinate; they refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way. So Paul left them. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

Acts 19:10 This went on for two years, so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord.

Acts 19:11 God did extraordinary miracles through Paul,

Acts 19:12 so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and their illnesses were cured and the evil spirits left them.

Acts 19:13 Some Jews who went around driving out evil spirits tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were demon-possessed. They would say, “In the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches, I command you to come out.”

Acts 19:14 Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

Acts 19:15 [One day] the evil spirit answered them, “Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?”

Acts 19:16 Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. He gave them such a beating that they ran out of the house naked and bleeding.

Acts 19:17 When this became known to the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, they were all seized with fear, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour.

Acts 19:18 Many of those who believed now came and openly confessed their evil deeds.

Acts 19:19 A number who had practised sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly. When they calculated the value of the scrolls, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas.

Acts 19:20 In this way the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power.

Acts 19:21 After all this had happened, Paul decided to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia. “After I have been there,” he said, “I must visit Rome also.”

Acts 19:22 He sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he stayed in the province of Asia a little longer.

Acts 19:23 About that time there arose a great disturbance about the Way.

Acts 19:24 A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought in no little business for the craftsmen.

Acts 19:25 He called them together, along with the workmen in related trades, and said: “Men, you know we receive a good income from this business.

Acts 19:26 And you see and hear how this fellow Paul has convinced and led astray large numbers of people here in Ephesus and in practically the whole province of Asia. He says that man-made gods are no gods at all.

Acts 19:27 There is danger not only that our trade will lose its good name, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and the goddess herself, who is worshipped throughout the province of Asia and the world, will be robbed of her divine majesty.”

Acts 19:28 When they heard this, they were furious and began shouting: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

Acts 19:29 Soon the whole city was in an uproar. The people seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul’s travelling companions from Macedonia, and rushed as one man into the theatre.

Acts 19:30 Paul wanted to appear before the crowd, but the disciples would not let him.

Acts 19:31 Even some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, sent him a message begging him not to venture into the theatre.

Acts 19:32 The assembly was in confusion: Some were shouting one thing, some another. Most of the people did not even know why they were there.

Acts 19:33 The Jews pushed Alexander to the front, and some of the crowd shouted instructions to him. He motioned for silence in order to make a defence before the people.

Acts 19:34 But when they realised he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

Acts 19:35 The city clerk quietened the crowd and said: “Men of Ephesus, doesn’t all the world know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image, which fell from heaven?

Acts 19:36 Therefore, since these facts are undeniable, you ought to be quiet and not do anything rash.

Acts 19:37 You have brought these men here, though they have neither robbed temples nor blasphemed our goddess.

Acts 19:38 If, then, Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a grievance against anybody, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. They can press charges.

Acts 19:39 If there is anything further you want to bring up, it must be settled in a legal assembly.

Acts 19:40 As it is, we are in danger of being charged with rioting because of today’s events. In that case we would not be able to account for this commotion, since there is no reason for it.”

Acts 19:41 After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20:1 When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples and, after encouraging them, said good-bye and set out for Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 He travelled through that area, speaking many words of encouragement to the people, and finally arrived in Greece,

Acts 20:3 where he stayed three months. Because the Jews made a plot against him just as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy also, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.

Acts 20:5 These men went on ahead and waited for us at Troas.

Acts 20:6 But we sailed from Philippi after the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and five days later joined the others at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight.

Acts 20:8 There were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were meeting.

Acts 20:9 Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third storey and was picked up dead.

Acts 20:10 Paul went down, threw himself on the young man and put his arms around him. “Don’t be alarmed,” he said. “He’s alive!”

Acts 20:11 Then he went upstairs again and broke bread and ate. After talking until daylight, he left.

Acts 20:12 The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.

Acts 20:13 We went on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, where we were going to take Paul aboard. He had made this arrangement because he was going there on foot.

Acts 20:14 When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 The next day we set sail from there and arrived off Kios. The day after that we crossed over to Samos, and on the following day arrived at Miletus.

Acts 20:16 Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in the province of Asia, for he was in a hurry to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.

Acts 20:17 From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church.

Acts 20:18 When they arrived, he said to them: “You know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I came into the province of Asia.

Acts 20:19 I served the Lord with great humility and with tears, although I was severely tested by the plots of the Jews.

Acts 20:20 You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house.

Acts 20:21 I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

Acts 20:22 “And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there.

Acts 20:23 I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me.

Acts 20:24 However, I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the gospel of God’s grace.

Acts 20:25 “Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again.

Acts 20:26 Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of all men.

Acts 20:27 For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God.

Acts 20:28 Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.

Acts 20:29 I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock.

Acts 20:30 Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them.

Acts 20:31 So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

Acts 20:32 “Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

Acts 20:33 I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing.

Acts 20:34 You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions.

Acts 20:35 In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said:`It is more blessed to give than to receive.’“

Acts 20:36 When he had said this, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.

Acts 20:37 They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him.

Acts 20:38 What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Acts 21:1 After we had torn ourselves away from them, we put out to sea and sailed straight to Cos. The next day we went to Rhodes and from there to Patara.

Acts 21:2 We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, went on board and set sail.

Acts 21:3 After sighting Cyprus and passing to the south of it, we sailed on to Syria. We landed at Tyre, where our ship was to unload its cargo.

Acts 21:4 Finding the disciples there, we stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit they urged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:5 But when our time was up, we left and continued on our way. All the disciples and their wives and children accompanied us out of the city, and there on the beach we knelt to pray.

Acts 21:6 After saying good-bye to each other, we went aboard the ship, and they returned home.

Acts 21:7 We continued our voyage from Tyre and landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed with them for a day.

Acts 21:8 Leaving the next day, we reached Caesarea and stayed at the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the Seven.

Acts 21:9 He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

Acts 21:10 After we had been there a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

Acts 21:11 Coming over to us, he took Paul’s belt, tied his own hands and feet with it and said, “The Holy Spirit says,`In this way the Jews of Jerusalem will bind the owner of this belt and will hand him over to the Gentiles.’“

Acts 21:12 When we heard this, we and the people there pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:13 Then Paul answered, “Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

Acts 21:14 When he would not be dissuaded, we gave up and said, “The Lord’s will be done.”

Acts 21:15 After this, we got ready and went up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea accompanied us and brought us to the home of Mnason, where we were to stay. He was a man from Cyprus and one of the early disciples.

Acts 21:17 When we arrived at Jerusalem, the brothers received us warmly.

Acts 21:18 The next day Paul and the rest of us went to see James, and all the elders were present.

Acts 21:19 Paul greeted them and reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

Acts 21:20 When they heard this, they praised God. Then they said to Paul: “You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and all of them are zealous for the law.

Acts 21:21 They have been informed that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or live according to our customs.

Acts 21:22 What shall we do? They will certainly hear that you have come,

Acts 21:23 so do what we tell you. There are four men with us who have made a vow.

Acts 21:24 Take these men, join in their purification rites and pay their expenses, so that they can have their heads shaved. Then everybody will know there is no truth in these reports about you, but that you yourself are living in obedience to the law.

Acts 21:25 As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they should abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality.”

Acts 21:26 The next day Paul took the men and purified himself along with them. Then he went to the temple to give notice of the date when the days of purification would end and the offering would be made for each of them.

Acts 21:27 When the seven days were nearly over, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him,

Acts 21:28 shouting, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against our people and our law and this place. And besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple area and defiled this holy place.”

Acts 21:29 (They had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul and assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple area.)

Acts 21:30 The whole city was aroused, and the people came running from all directions. Seizing Paul, they dragged him from the temple, and immediately the gates were shut.

Acts 21:31 While they were trying to kill him, news reached the commander of the Roman troops that the whole city of Jerusalem was in an uproar.

Acts 21:32 He at once took some officers and soldiers and ran down to the crowd. When the rioters saw the commander and his soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

Acts 21:33 The commander came up and arrested him and ordered him to be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another, and since the commander could not get at the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be taken into the barracks.

Acts 21:35 When Paul reached the steps, the violence of the mob was so great he had to be carried by the soldiers.

Acts 21:36 The crowd that followed kept shouting, “Away with him!”

Acts 21:37 As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the barracks, he asked the commander, “May I say something to you?” “Do you speak Greek?” he replied.

Acts 21:38 “Aren’t you the Egyptian who started a revolt and led four thousand terrorists out into the desert some time ago?”

Acts 21:39 Paul answered, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no ordinary city. Please let me speak to the people.”

Acts 21:40 Having received the commander’s permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the crowd. When they were all silent, he said to them in Aramaic:

Acts 22:1 “Brothers and fathers, listen now to my defence.”

Acts 22:2 When they heard him speak to them in Aramaic, they became very quiet. Then Paul said:

Acts 22:3 “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city. Under Gamaliel I was thoroughly trained in the law of our fathers and was just as zealous for God as any of you are today.

Acts 22:4 I persecuted the followers of this Way to their death, arresting both men and women and throwing them into prison, Acts 22:5 as also the high priest and all the Council can testify. I even obtained letters from them to their brothers in Damascus, and went there to bring these people as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished.

Acts 22:6 “About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me.

Acts 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me,`Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?’

Acts 22:8 “`Who are you, Lord?’ I asked. “`I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,’ he replied.

Acts 22:9 My companions saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of him who was speaking to me.

Acts 22:10 “`What shall I do, Lord?’ I asked. “`Get up,’ the Lord said,`and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been assigned to do.’

Acts 22:11 My companions led me by the hand into Damascus, because the brilliance of the light had blinded me.

Acts 22:12 “A man named Ananias came to see me. He was a devout observer of the law and highly respected by all the Jews living there.

Acts 22:13 He stood beside me and said,`Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment I was able to see him.

Acts 22:14 “Then he said:`The God of our fathers has chosen you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and to hear words from his mouth.

Acts 22:15 You will be his witness to all men of what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptised and wash your sins away, calling on his name.’

Acts 22:17 “When I returned to Jerusalem and was praying at the temple, I fell into a trance

Acts 22:18 and saw the Lord speaking.`Quick!’ he said to me.`Leave Jerusalem immediately, because they will not accept your testimony about me.’

Acts 22:19 “`Lord,’ I replied,`these men know that I went from one synagogue to another to imprison and beat those who believe in you.

Acts 22:20 And when the blood of your martyr Stephen was shed, I stood there giving my approval and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.’

Acts 22:21 “Then the Lord said to me,`Go; I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’“

Acts 22:22 The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they raised their voices and shouted, “Rid the earth of him! He’s not fit to live!”

Acts 22:23 As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and flinging dust into the air,

Acts 22:24 the commander ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks. He directed that he be flogged and questioned in order to find out why the people were shouting at him like this.

Acts 22:25 As they stretched him out to flog him, Paul said to the centurion standing there, “Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen who hasn’t even been found guilty?”

Acts 22:26 When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it. “What are you going to do?” he asked. “This man is a Roman citizen.”

Acts 22:27 The commander went to Paul and asked, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?” “Yes, I am,” he answered.

Acts 22:28 Then the commander said, “I had to pay a big price for my citizenship.” “But I was born a citizen,” Paul replied.

Acts 22:29 Those who were about to question him withdrew immediately. The commander himself was alarmed when he realised that he had put Paul, a Roman citizen, in chains.

Acts 22:30 The next day, since the commander wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to assemble. Then he brought Paul and had him stand before them.

Acts 23:1 Paul looked straight at the Sanhedrin and said, “My brothers, I have fulfilled my duty to God in all good conscience to this day.”

Acts 23:2 At this the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by commanding that I be struck!”

Acts 23:4 Those who were standing near Paul said, “You dare to insult God’s high priest?”

Acts 23:5 Paul replied, “Brothers, I did not realise that he was the high priest; for it is written:`Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.’“

Acts 23:6 Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, “My brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I stand on trial because of my hope in the resurrection of the dead.”

Acts 23:7 When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

Acts 23:8 (The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and that there are neither angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.)

Acts 23:9 There was a great uproar, and some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees stood up and argued vigorously. “We find nothing wrong with this man,” they said. “What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?”

Acts 23:10 The dispute became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them. He ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force and bring him into the barracks.

Acts 23:11 The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, “Take courage! As you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.”

Acts 23:12 The next morning the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul.

Acts 23:13 More than forty men were involved in this plot.

Acts 23:14 They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have taken a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul.

Acts 23:15 Now then, you and the Sanhedrin petition the commander to bring him before you on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about his case. We are ready to kill him before he gets here.”

Acts 23:16 But when the son of Paul’s sister heard of this plot, he went into the barracks and told Paul.

Acts 23:17 Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him.”

Acts 23:18 So he took him to the commander. The centurion said, “Paul, the prisoner, sent for me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

Acts 23:19 The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside and asked, “What is it you want to tell me?”

Acts 23:20 He said: “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul before the Sanhedrin tomorrow on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about him.

Acts 23:21 Don’t give in to them, because more than forty of them are waiting in ambush for him. They have taken an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, waiting for your consent to their request.”

Acts 23:22 The commander dismissed the young man and cautioned him, “Don’t tell anyone that you have reported this to me.”

Acts 23:23 Then he called two of his centurions and ordered them, “Get ready a detachment of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea at nine tonight.

Acts 23:24 Provide mounts for Paul so that he may be taken safely to Governor Felix.”

Acts 23:25 He wrote a letter as follows:

Acts 23:26 Claudius Lysias, To His Excellency, Governor Felix: Greetings.

Acts 23:27 This man was seized by the Jews and they were about to kill him, but I came with my troops and rescued him, for I had learned that he is a Roman citizen.

Acts 23:28 I wanted to know why they were accusing him, so I brought him to their Sanhedrin.

Acts 23:29 I found that the accusation had to do with questions about their law, but there was no charge against him that deserved death or imprisonment.

Acts 23:30 When I was informed of a plot to be carried out against the man, I sent him to you at once. I also ordered his accusers to present to you their case against him.

Acts 23:31 So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul with them during the night and brought him as far as Antipatris.

Acts 23:32 The next day they let the cavalry go on with him, while they returned to the barracks.

Acts 23:33 When the cavalry arrived in Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

Acts 23:34 The governor read the letter and asked what province he was from. Learning that he was from Cilicia,

Acts 23:35 he said, “I will hear your case when your accusers get here.” Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard in Herod’s palace.

Acts 24:1 Five days later the high priest Ananias went down to Caesarea with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they brought their charges against Paul before the governor.

Acts 24:2 When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented his case before Felix: “We have enjoyed a long period of peace under you, and your foresight has brought about reforms in this nation.

Acts 24:3 Everywhere and in every way, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with profound gratitude.

Acts 24:4 But in order not to weary you further, I would request that you be kind enough to hear us briefly.

Acts 24:5 “We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect

Acts 24:6 and even tried to desecrate the temple; so we seized him.

Acts 24:7

Acts 24:8 By examining him yourself you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him.”

Acts 24:9 The Jews joined in the accusation, asserting that these things were true.

Acts 24:10 When the governor motioned for him to speak, Paul replied: “I know that for a number of years you have been a judge over this nation; so I gladly make my defence.

Acts 24:11 You can easily verify that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

Acts 24:12 My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple, or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city.

Acts 24:13 And they cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me.

Acts 24:14 However, I admit that I worship the God of our fathers as a follower of the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that agrees with the Law and that is written in the Prophets,

Acts 24:15 and I have the same hope in God as these men, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.

Acts 24:16 So I strive always to keep my conscience clear before God and man.

Acts 24:17 “After an absence of several years, I came to Jerusalem to bring my people gifts for the poor and to present offerings.

Acts 24:18 I was ceremonially clean when they found me in the temple courts doing this. There was no crowd with me, nor was I involved in any disturbance.

Acts 24:19 But there are some Jews from the province of Asia, who ought to be here before you and bring charges if they have anything against me.

Acts 24:20 Or these who are here should state what crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin—

Acts 24:21 unless it was this one thing I shouted as I stood in their presence:`It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.’“

Acts 24:22 Then Felix, who was well acquainted with the Way, adjourned the proceedings. “When Lysias the commander comes,” he said, “I will decide your case.”

Acts 24:23 He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard but to give him some freedom and permit his friends to take care of his needs.

Acts 24:24 Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him as he spoke about faith in Christ Jesus.

Acts 24:25 As Paul discoursed on righteousness, self-control and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and said, “That’s enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will send for you.”

Acts 24:26 At the same time he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him.

Acts 24:27 When two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, but because Felix wanted to grant a favour to the Jews, he left Paul in prison.

Acts 25:1 Three days after arriving in the province, Festus went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem,

Acts 25:2 where the chief priests and Jewish leaders appeared before him and presented the charges against Paul.

Acts 25:3 They urgently requested Festus, as a favour to them, to have Paul transferred to Jerusalem, for they were preparing an ambush to kill him along the way.

Acts 25:4 Festus answered, “Paul is being held at Caesarea, and I myself am going there soon.

Acts 25:5 Let some of your leaders come with me and press charges against the man there, if he has done anything wrong.”

Acts 25:6 After spending eight or ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea, and the next day he convened the court and ordered that Paul be brought before him.

Acts 25:7 When Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him, which they could not prove.

Acts 25:8 Then Paul made his defence: “I have done nothing wrong against the law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar.”

Acts 25:9 Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favour, said to Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there on these charges?”

Acts 25:10 Paul answered: “I am now standing before Caesar’s court, where I ought to be tried. I have not done any wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well.

Acts 25:11 If, however, I am guilty of doing anything deserving death, I do not refuse to die. But if the charges brought against me by these Jews are not true, no-one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!”

Acts 25:12 After Festus had conferred with his council, he declared: “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!”

Acts 25:13 A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus.

Acts 25:14 Since they were spending many days there, Festus discussed Paul's case with the king. He said: "There is a man here whom Felix left as a prisoner.

Acts 25:15 When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges against him and asked that he be condemned.

Acts 25:16 "I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over any man before he has faced his accusers and has had an opportunity to defend himself against their charges.

Acts 25:17 When they came here with me, I did not delay the case, but convened the court the next day and ordered the man to be brought in.

Acts 25:18 When his accusers got up to speak, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected.

Acts 25:19 Instead, they had some points of dispute with him about their own religion and about a dead man named Jesus whom Paul claimed was alive.

Acts 25:20 I was at a loss how to investigate such matters; so I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial there on these charges.

Acts 25:21 When Paul made his appeal to be held over for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar."

Acts 25:22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself." He replied, "Tomorrow you will hear him."

Acts 25:23 The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the audience room with the high ranking officers and the leading men of the city. At the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.

Acts 25:24 Festus said: "King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man! The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him in Jerusalem and here in Caesarea, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.

Acts 25:25 I found he had done nothing deserving of death, but because he made his appeal to the Emperor I decided to send him to Rome.

Acts 25:26 But I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that as a result of this investigation I may have something to write.

Acts 25:27 For I think it is unreasonable to send on a prisoner without specifying the charges against him."

Acts 26:1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You have permission to speak for yourself.” So Paul motioned with his hand and began his defence:

Acts 26:2 “King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to stand before you today as I make my defence against all the accusations of the Jews,

Acts 26:3 and especially so because you are well acquainted with all the Jewish customs and controversies. Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

Acts 26:4 “The Jews all know the way I have lived ever since I was a child, from the beginning of my life in my own country, and also in Jerusalem.

Acts 26:5 They have known me for a long time and can testify, if they are willing, that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee.

Acts 26:6 And now it is because of my hope in what God has promised our fathers that I am on trial today.

Acts 26:7 This is the promise our twelve tribes are hoping to see fulfilled as they earnestly serve God day and night. O King, it is because of this hope that the Jews are accusing me.

Acts 26:8 Why should any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?

Acts 26:9 “I too was convinced that I ought to do all that was possible to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

Acts 26:10 And that is just what I did in Jerusalem. On the authority of the chief priests I put many of the saints in prison, and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.

Acts 26:11 Many a time I went from one synagogue to another to have them punished, and I tried to force them to blaspheme. In my obsession against them, I even went to foreign cities to persecute them.

Acts 26:12 “On one of these journeys I was going to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests.

Acts 26:13 About noon, O King, as I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, blazing around me and my companions.

Acts 26:14 We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic,`Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’

Acts 26:15 “Then I asked,`Who are you, Lord?’ “`I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,’ the Lord replied.

Acts 26:16 `Now get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen of me and what I will show you.

Acts 26:17 I will rescue you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them

Acts 26:18 to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

Acts 26:19 “So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the vision from heaven.

Acts 26:20 First to those in Damascus, then to those in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and to the Gentiles also, I preached that they should repent and turn to God and prove their repentance by their deeds.

Acts 26:21 That is why the Jews seized me in the temple courts and tried to kill me.

Acts 26:22 But I have had God’s help to this very day, and so I stand here and testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen—

Acts 26:23 that the Christ would suffer and, as the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light to his own people and to the Gentiles.”

Acts 26:24 At this point Festus interrupted Paul’s defence. “You are out of your mind, Paul!” he shouted. “Your great learning is driving you insane.”

Acts 26:25 “I am not insane, most excellent Festus,” Paul replied. “What I am saying is true and reasonable.

Acts 26:26 The king is familiar with these things, and I can speak freely to him. I am convinced that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do.”

Acts 26:28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to be a Christian?”

Acts 26:29 Paul replied, “Short time or long—I pray God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except for these chains.”

Acts 26:30 The king rose, and with him the governor and Bernice and those sitting with them.

Acts 26:31 They left the room, and while talking with one another, they said, “This man is not doing anything that deserves death or imprisonment.”

Acts 26:32 Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Acts 27:1 When it was decided that we would sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, who belonged to the Imperial Regiment.

Acts 27:2 We boarded a ship from Adramyttium about to sail for ports along the coast of the province of Asia, and we put out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.

Acts 27:3 The next day we landed at Sidon; and Julius, in kindness to Paul, allowed him to go to his friends so they might provide for his needs.

Acts 27:4 From there we put out to sea again and passed to the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us.

Acts 27:5 When we had sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.

Acts 27:6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board.

Acts 27:7 We made slow headway for many days and had difficulty arriving off Cnidus. When the wind did not allow us to hold our course, we sailed to the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone.

Acts 27:8 We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 Much time had been lost, and sailing had already become dangerous because by now it was after the Fast. So Paul warned them,

Acts 27:10 “Men, I can see that our voyage is going to be disastrous and bring great loss to ship and cargo, and to our own lives also.”

Acts 27:11 But the centurion, instead of listening to what Paul said, followed the advice of the pilot and of the owner of the ship.

Acts 27:12 Since the harbour was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided that we should sail on, hoping to reach Phoenix and winter there. This was a harbour in Crete, facing both south-west and north-west.

Acts 27:13 When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had obtained what they wanted; so they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete.

Acts 27:14 Before very long, a wind of hurricane force, called the “north-easter”, swept down from the island.

Acts 27:15 The ship was caught by the storm and could not head into the wind; so we gave way to it and were driven along.

Acts 27:16 As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to make the lifeboat secure.

Acts 27:17 When the men had hoisted it aboard, they passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Fearing that they would run aground on the sand-bars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along.

Acts 27:18 We took such a violent battering from the storm that the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard.

Acts 27:19 On the third day, they threw the ship’s tackle overboard with their own hands.

Acts 27:20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

Acts 27:21 After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said: “Men, you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete; then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss.

Acts 27:22 But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed.

Acts 27:23 Last night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve stood beside me

Acts 27:24 and said,`Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.’

Acts 27:25 So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me.

Acts 27:26 Nevertheless, we must run aground on some island.”

Acts 27:27 On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic Sea, when about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land.

Acts 27:28 They took soundings and found that the water was one hundred and twenty feet deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was ninety feet deep.

Acts 27:29 Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight.

Acts 27:30 In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower some anchors from the bow.

Acts 27:31 Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved.”

Acts 27:32 So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it fall away.

Acts 27:33 Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. “For the last fourteen days,” he said, “you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food—you haven’t eaten anything.

Acts 27:34 Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head.”

Acts 27:35 After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat.

Acts 27:36 They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves.

Acts 27:37 Altogether there were 276 of us on board.

Acts 27:38 When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.

Acts 27:39 When daylight came, they did not recognise the land, but they saw a bay with a sandy beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could.

Acts 27:40 Cutting loose the anchors, they left them in the sea and at the same time untied the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach.

Acts 27:41 But the ship struck a sand-bar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was broken to pieces by the pounding of the surf.

Acts 27:42 The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping.

Acts 27:43 But the centurion wanted to spare Paul’s life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land.

Acts 27:44 The rest were to get there on planks or on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land in safety.

Acts 28:1 Once safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta.

Acts 28:2 The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold.

Acts 28:3 Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and, as he put it on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand.

Acts 28:4 When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to each other, “This man must be a murderer; for though he escaped from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live.”

Acts 28:5 But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects.

Acts 28:6 The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead, but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

Acts 28:7 There was an estate near by that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us to his home and for three days entertained us hospitably.

Acts 28:8 His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him and, after prayer, placed his hands on him and healed him.

Acts 28:9 When this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured.

Acts 28:10 They honoured us in many ways and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.

Acts 28:11 After three months we put out to sea in a ship that had wintered in the island. It was an Alexandrian ship with the figurehead of the twin gods Castor and Pollux.

Acts 28:12 We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three days.

Acts 28:13 From there we set sail and arrived at Rhegium. The next day the south wind came up, and on the following day we reached Puteoli.

Acts 28:14 There we found some brothers who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.

Acts 28:15 The brothers there had heard that we were coming, and they travelled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. At the sight of these men Paul thanked God and was encouraged.

Acts 28:16 When we got to Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with a soldier to guard him.

Acts 28:17 Three days later he called together the leaders of the Jews. When they had assembled, Paul said to them: “My brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or against the customs of our ancestors, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans.

Acts 28:18 They examined me and wanted to release me, because I was not guilty of any crime deserving death.

Acts 28:19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar—not that I had any charge to bring against my own people.

Acts 28:20 For this reason I have asked to see you and talk with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain.”

Acts 28:21 They replied, “We have not received any letters from Judea concerning you, and none of the brothers who have come from there has reported or said anything bad about you.

Acts 28:22 But we want to hear what your views are, for we know that people everywhere are talking against this sect.”

Acts 28:23 They arranged to meet Paul on a certain day, and came in even larger numbers to the place where he was staying. From morning till evening he explained and declared to them the kingdom of God and tried to convince them about Jesus from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.

Acts 28:24 Some were convinced by what he said, but others would not believe.

Acts 28:25 They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: “The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your forefathers when he said through Isaiah the prophet:

Acts 28:26 "`Go to this people and say, "You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving."

Acts 28:27 For this people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.'

Acts 28:28 "Therefore I want you to know that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!"

Acts 28:29

Acts 28:30 For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him.

Acts 28:31 Boldly and without hindrance he preached the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans

1:1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God—

Romans 1:2 the gospel he promised beforehand through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures

Romans 1:3 regarding his Son, who as to his human nature was a descendant of David,

Romans 1:4 and who through the Spirit of holiness was declared with power to be the Son of God, by his resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 1:5 Through him and for his name's sake, we received grace and apostleship to call people from among all the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith.

Romans 1:6 And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:7 To all in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world.

Romans 1:9 God, whom I serve with my whole heart in preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witness how constantly I remember you

Romans 1:10 in my prayers at all times; and I pray that now at last by God's will the way may be opened for me to come to you.

Romans 1:11 I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong—

Romans 1:12 that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith.

Romans 1:13 I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now) in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.

Romans 1:14 I am bound both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish.

Romans 1:15 That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are at Rome.

Romans 1:16 I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.

Romans 1:17 For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: “The righteous will live by faith.”

Romans 1:18 The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness,

Romans 1:19 since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them.

Romans 1:20 For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.

Romans 1:21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Romans 1:22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools

Romans 1:23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.

Romans 1:24 Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another.

Romans 1:25 They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is for ever praised. Amen.

Romans 1:26 Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones.

Romans 1:27 In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their perversion.

Romans 1:28 Furthermore, since they did not think it worth while to retain the knowledge of God, he gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done.

Romans 1:29 They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips,

Romans 1:30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;

Romans 1:31 they are senseless, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

Romans 1:32 Although they know God’s righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practise them.

Romans 2:1 You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things.

Romans 2:2 Now we know that God’s judgment against those who do such things is based on truth.

Romans 2:3 So when you, a mere man, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God’s judgment?

Romans 2:4 Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, tolerance and patience, not realising that God’s kindness leads you towards repentance?

Romans 2:5 But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God’s wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed.

Romans 2:6 God “will give to each person according to what he has done”.

Romans 2:7 To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honour and immortality, he will give eternal life.

Romans 2:8 But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger.

Romans 2:9 There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile;

Romans 2:10 but glory, honour and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.

Romans 2:11 For God does not show favouritism.

Romans 2:12 All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law.

Romans 2:13 For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God’s sight, but it is those who obey the law who will be declared righteous.

Romans 2:14 (Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law, they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law, Romans 2:15 since they show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts now accusing, now even defending them.)

Romans 2:16 This will take place on the day when God will judge men's secrets through Jesus Christ, as my gospel declares.

Romans 2:17 Now you, if you call yourself a Jew; if you rely on the law and brag about your relationship to God;

Romans 2:18 if you know his will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law;

Romans 2:19 if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in the dark,

Romans 2:20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth—

Romans 2:21 you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal?

Romans 2:22 You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

Romans 2:23 You who brag about the law, do you dishonour God by breaking the law?

Romans 2:24 As it is written: "God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

Romans 2:25 Circumcision has value if you observe the law, but if you break the law, you have become as though you had not been circumcised.

Romans 2:26 If those who are not circumcised keep the law's requirements, will they not be regarded as though they were circumcised?

Romans 2:27 The one who is not circumcised physically and yet obeys the law will condemn you who, even though you have the written code and circumcision, are a law-breaker.

Romans 2:28 A man is not a Jew if he is only one outwardly, nor is circumcision merely outward and physical.

Romans 2:29 No, a man is a Jew if he is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a man's praise is not from men, but from God.

Romans 3:1 What advantage, then, is there in being a Jew, or what value is there in circumcision?

Romans 3:2 Much in every way! First of all, they have been entrusted with the very words of God.

Romans 3:3 What if some did not have faith? Will their lack of faith nullify God’s faithfulness?

Romans 3:4 Not at all! Let God be true, and every man a liar. As it is written: “So that you may be proved right when you speak and prevail when you judge.”

Romans 3:5 But if our unrighteousness brings out God’s righteousness more clearly, what shall we say? That God is unjust in bringing his wrath on us? (I am using a human argument.)

Romans 3:6 Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world?

Romans 3:7 Someone might argue, “If my falsehood enhances God’s truthfulness and so increases his glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner?”

Romans 3:8 Why not say—as we are being slanderously reported as saying and as some claim that we say—”Let us do evil that good may result”? Their condemnation is deserved.

Romans 3:9 What shall we conclude then? Are we any better? Not at all! We have already made the charge that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under sin.

Romans 3:10 As it is written: “There is no-one righteous, not even one;

Romans 3:11 there is no-one who understands, no-one who seeks God.

Romans 3:12 All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no-one who does good, not even one.”

Romans 3:13 “Their throats are open graves; their tongues practise deceit.” “The poison of vipers is on their lips.”

Romans 3:14 “Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”

Romans 3:15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood;

Romans 3:16 ruin and misery mark their ways,

Romans 3:17 and the way of peace they do not know.”

Romans 3:18 “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

Romans 3:19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.

Romans 3:20 Therefore no-one will be declared righteous in his sight by observing the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of sin.

Romans 3:21 But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify.

Romans 3:22 This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference,

Romans 3:23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Romans 3:24 and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

Romans 3:25 God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement, through faith in his blood. He did this to demonstrate his justice, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished—

Romans 3:26 he did it to demonstrate his justice at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On that of observing the law? No, but on that of faith.

Romans 3:28 For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from observing the law.

Romans 3:29 Is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too,

Romans 3:30 since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.

Romans 3:31 Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.

Romans 4:1 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, discovered in this matter?

Romans 4:2 If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God.

Romans 4:3 What does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

Romans 4:4 Now when a man works, his wages are not credited to him as a gift, but as an obligation.

Romans 4:5 However, to the man who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness.

Romans 4:6 David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

Romans 4:7 “Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Romans 4:8 Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will never count against him.”

Romans 4:9 Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We have been saying that Abraham’s faith was credited to him as righteousness.

Romans 4:10 Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before!

Romans 4:11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. So then, he is the father of all who believe but have not been circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them.

Romans 4:12 And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:13 It was not through law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith.

Romans 4:14 For if those who live by law are heirs, faith has no value and the promise is worthless,

Romans 4:15 because law brings wrath. And where there is no law there is no transgression.

Romans 4:16 Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham's offspring—not only to those who are of the law but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all.

Romans 4:17 As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.

Romans 4:18 Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, "So shall your offspring be."

Romans 4:19 Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead.

Romans 4:20 Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God,

Romans 4:21 being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised.

Romans 4:22 This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."

Romans 4:23 The words "it was credited to him" were written not for him alone,

Romans 4:24 but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness— for us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.

Romans 4:25 He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Romans 5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

Romans 5:2 through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.

Romans 5:3 Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance;

Romans 5:4 perseverance, character; and character, hope.

Romans 5:5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

Romans 5:6 You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

Romans 5:7 Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, though for a good man someone might possibly dare to die.

Romans 5:8 But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:9 Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God’s wrath through him!

Romans 5:10 For if, when we were God’s enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

Romans 5:11 Not only is this so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Romans 5:12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned—

Romans 5:13 for before the law was given, sin was in the world. But sin is not taken into account when there is no law.

Romans 5:14 Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come.

Romans 5:15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God’s grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many!

Romans 5:16 Again, the gift of God is not like the result of the one man’s sin: The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification.

Romans 5:17 For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God’s abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18 Consequently, just as the result of one trespass was condemnation for all men, so also the result of one act of righteousness was justification that brings life for all men.

Romans 5:19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

Romans 5:20 The law was added so that the trespass might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more,

Romans 5:21 so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:1 What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning, so that grace may increase?

Romans 6:2 By no means! We died to sin; how can we live in it any longer?

Romans 6:3 Or don't you know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death?

Romans 6:4 We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

Romans 6:5 If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection.

Romans 6:6 For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin—

Romans 6:7 because anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

Romans 6:8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

Romans 6:9 For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him.

Romans 6:10 The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

Romans 6:11 In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires.

Romans 6:13 Do not offer the parts of your body to sin, as instruments of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer the parts of your body to him as instruments of righteousness.

Romans 6:14 For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace.

Romans 6:15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Romans 6:16 Don’t you know that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey— whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Romans 6:17 But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were entrusted.

Romans 6:18 You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

Romans 6:19 I put this in human terms because you are weak in your natural selves. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness leading to holiness.

Romans 6:20 When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness.

Romans 6:21 What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death!

Romans 6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life.

Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7:1 Do you not know, brothers—for I am speaking to men who know the law—that the law has authority over a man only as long as he lives?

Romans 7:2 For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage.

Romans 7:3 So then, if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress, even though she marries another man.

Romans 7:4 So, my brothers, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God.

Romans 7:5 For when we were controlled by the sinful nature, the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our bodies, so that we bore fruit for death.

Romans 7:6 But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

Romans 7:7 What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! Indeed I would not have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, “Do not covet.”

Romans 7:8 But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from law, sin is dead.

Romans 7:9 Once I was alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died.

Romans 7:10 I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death.

Romans 7:11 For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me, and through the commandment put me to death.

Romans 7:12 So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous and good.

Romans 7:13 Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! But in order that sin might be recognised as sin, it produced death in me through what was good, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

Romans 7:14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin.

Romans 7:15 I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do.

Romans 7:16 And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good.

Romans 7:17 As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.

Romans 7:18 I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out.

Romans 7:19 For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing.

Romans 7:20 Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

Romans 7:21 So I find this law at work: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me.

Romans 7:22 For in my inner being I delight in God’s law;

Romans 7:23 but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my members.

Romans 7:24 What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

Romans 7:25 Thanks be to God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in the sinful nature a slave to the law of sin.

Romans 8:1 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus,

Romans 8:2 because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:3 For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in sinful man,

Romans 8:4 in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit.

Romans 8:5 Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires.

Romans 8:6 The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace;

Romans 8:7 the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so.

Romans 8:8 Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God.

Romans 8:9 You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ.

Romans 8:10 But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness.

Romans 8:11 And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

Romans 8:12 Therefore, brothers, we have an obligation—but it is not to the sinful nature, to live according to it.

Romans 8:13 For if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live, Romans 8:14 because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

Romans 8:15 For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, “Abba, Father.”

Romans 8:16 The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God’s children.

Romans 8:17 Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

Romans 8:18 I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

Romans 8:19 The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed.

Romans 8:20 For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope

Romans 8:21 that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

Romans 8:22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time.

Romans 8:23 Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.

Romans 8:24 For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has?

Romans 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

Romans 8:26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express.

Romans 8:27 And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God’s will.

Romans 8:28 And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:29 For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

Romans 8:30 And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

Romans 8:31 What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Romans 8:33 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies.

Romans 8:34 Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Romans 8:35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?

Romans 8:36 As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."

Romans 8:37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

Romans 8:38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

Romans 8:39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9:1 I speak the truth in Christ—I am not lying, my conscience confirms it in the Holy Spirit—

Romans 9:2 I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.

Romans 9:3 For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race,

Romans 9:4 the people of Israel. Theirs is the adoption as sons; theirs the divine glory, the covenants, the receiving of the law, the temple worship and the promises.

Romans 9:5 Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them is traced the human ancestry of Christ, who is God over all, for ever praised! Amen.

Romans 9:6 It is not as though God's word had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel.

Romans 9:7 Nor because they are his descendants are they all Abraham's children. On the contrary, "It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned."

Romans 9:8 In other words, it is not the natural children who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as Abraham's offspring.

Romans 9:9 For this was how the promise was stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."

Romans 9:10 Not only that, but Rebekah’s children had one and the same father, our father Isaac.

Romans 9:11 Yet, before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad—in order that God’s purpose in election might stand:

Romans 9:12 not by works but by him who calls—she was told, “The older will serve the younger.”

Romans 9:13 Just as it is written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

Romans 9:14 What then shall we say? Is God unjust? Not at all!

Romans 9:15 For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.”

Romans 9:16 It does not, therefore, depend on man’s desire or effort, but on God’s mercy.

Romans 9:17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: “I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.”

Romans 9:18 Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden.

Romans 9:19 One of you will say to me: “Then why does God still blame us? For who resists his will?”

Romans 9:20 But who are you, O man, to talk back to God? “Shall what is formed say to him who formed it,`Why did you make me like this?’“

Romans 9:21 Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for noble purposes and some for common use?

Romans 9:22 What if God, choosing to show his wrath and make his power known, bore with great patience the objects of his wrath—prepared for destruction?

Romans 9:23 What if he did this to make the riches of his glory known to the objects of his mercy, whom he prepared in advance for glory—

Romans 9:24 even us, whom he also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?

Romans 9:25 As he says in Hosea: “I will call them`my people’ who are not my people; and I will call her`my loved one’ who is not my loved one,”

Romans 9:26 and, “It will happen that in the very place where it was said to them,`You are not my people,’ they will be called`sons of the living God’.”

Romans 9:27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: “Though the number of the Israelites be like the sand by the sea, only the remnant will be saved.

Romans 9:28 For the Lord will carry out his sentence on earth with speed and finality.”

Romans 9:29 It is just as Isaiah said previously: “Unless the Lord Almighty had left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.”

Romans 9:30 What then shall we say? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith;

Romans 9:31 but Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness, has not attained it.

Romans 9:32 Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the “stumbling-stone”.

Romans 9:33 As it is written: “See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”

Romans 10:1 Brothers, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved.

Romans 10:2 For I can testify about them that they are zealous for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge.

Romans 10:3 Since they did not know the righteousness that comes from God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God’s righteousness.

Romans 10:4 Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Romans 10:5 Moses describes in this way the righteousness that is by the law: “The man who does these things will live by them.”

Romans 10:6 But the righteousness that is by faith says: “Do not say in your heart,`Who will ascend into heaven?’“ (that is, to bring Christ down)

Romans 10:7 “or`Who will descend into the deep?’“ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

Romans 10:8 But what does it say? “The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,” that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming:

Romans 10:9 That if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Romans 10:10 For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.

Romans 10:11 As the Scripture says, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”

Romans 10:12 For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him,

Romans 10:13 for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Romans 10:14 How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?

Romans 10:15 And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Romans 10:16 But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”

Romans 10:17 Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ.

Romans 10:18 But I ask: Did they not hear? Of course they did: “Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.”

Romans 10:19 Again I ask: Did Israel not understand? First, Moses says, “I will make you envious by those who are not a nation; I will make you angry by a nation that has no understanding.”

Romans 10:20 And Isaiah boldly says, “I was found by those who did not seek me; I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me.”

Romans 10:21 But concerning Israel he says, “All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people.”

Romans 11:1 I ask then: Did God reject his people? By no means! I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin.

Romans 11:2 God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Don’t you know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah—how he appealed to God against Israel:

Romans 11:3 “Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me”?

Romans 11:4 And what was God’s answer to him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”

Romans 11:5 So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

Romans 11:6 And if by grace, then it is no longer by works; if it were, grace would no longer be grace.

Romans 11:7 What then? What Israel sought so earnestly it did not obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened,

Romans 11:8 as it is written: “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes so that they could not see and ears so that they could not hear, to this very day.”

Romans 11:9 And David says: “May their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling-block and a retribution for them.

Romans 11:10 May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and their backs be bent for ever.”

Romans 11:11 Again I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel envious.

Romans 11:12 But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their fulness bring!

Romans 11:13 I am talking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make much of my ministry

Romans 11:14 in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy and save some of them.

Romans 11:15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

Romans 11:16 If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

Romans 11:17 If some of the branches have been broken off, and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root,

Romans 11:18 do not boast over those branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.

Romans 11:19 You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.”

Romans 11:20 Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid.

Romans 11:21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either.

Romans 11:22 Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.

Romans 11:23 And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

Romans 11:24 After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

Romans 11:25 I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.

Romans 11:26 And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.

Romans 11:27 And this is my covenant with them when I take away their sins.”

Romans 11:28 As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies on your account; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs,

Romans 11:29 for God’s gifts and his call are irrevocable.

Romans 11:30 Just as you who were at one time disobedient to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience,

Romans 11:31 so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God’s mercy to you.

Romans 11:32 For God has bound all men over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all.

Romans 11:33 Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out!

Romans 11:34 “Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counsellor?”

Romans 11:35 “Who has ever given to God, that God should repay him?”

Romans 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

Romans 12:1 Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship.

Romans 12:2 Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Romans 12:3 For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you.

Romans 12:4 Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function,

Romans 12:5 so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

Romans 12:6 We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a man’s gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith.

Romans 12:7 If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach;

Romans 12:8 if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully.

Romans 12:9 Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good.

Romans 12:10 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honour one another above yourselves.

Romans 12:11 Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord.

Romans 12:12 Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.

Romans 12:13 Share with God's people who are in need. Practise hospitality.

Romans 12:14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.

Romans 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn.

Romans 12:16 Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.

Romans 12:17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everybody.

Romans 12:18 If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.

Romans 12:19 Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord.

Romans 12:20 On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head."

Romans 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 13:1 Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.

Romans 13:2 Consequently, he who rebels against the authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves.

Romans 13:3 For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Then do what is right and he will commend you.

Romans 13:4 For he is God’s servant to do you good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword for nothing. He is God’s servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.

Romans 13:5 Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience.

Romans 13:6 This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God’s servants, who give their full time to governing.

Romans 13:7 Give everyone what you owe him: If you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honour, then honour.

Romans 13:8 Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellow-man has fulfilled the law.

Romans 13:9 The commandments, “Do not commit adultery,” “Do not murder,” “Do not steal,” “Do not covet,” and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this one rule: “Love your neighbour as yourself.”

Romans 13:10 Love does no harm to its neighbour. Therefore love is the fulfilment of the law.

Romans 13:11 And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.

Romans 13:12 The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armour of light.

Romans 13:13 Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy.

Romans 13:14 Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.

Romans 14:1 Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters.

Romans 14:2 One man’s faith allows him to eat everything, but another man, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables.

Romans 14:3 The man who eats everything must not look down on him who does not, and the man who does not eat everything must not condemn the man who does, for God has accepted him.

Romans 14:4 Who are you to judge someone else’s servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

Romans 14:5 One man considers one day more sacred than another; another man considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.

Romans 14:6 He who regards one day as special, does so to the Lord. He who eats meat, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and he who abstains, does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God.

Romans 14:7 For none of us lives to himself alone and none of us dies to himself alone.

Romans 14:8 If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

Romans 14:9 For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

Romans 14:10 You, then, why do you judge your brother? Or why do you look down on your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.

Romans 14:11 It is written: "`As surely as I live,' says the Lord,`Every knee will bow before me; every tongue will confess to God.'"

Romans 14:12 So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

Romans 14:13 Therefore let us stop passing judgment on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling-block or obstacle in your brother's way.

Romans 14:14 As one who is in the Lord Jesus, I am fully convinced that no food is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for him it is unclean.

Romans 14:15 If your brother is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not by your eating destroy your brother for whom Christ died.

Romans 14:16 Do not allow what you consider good to be spoken of as evil.

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit,

Romans 14:18 because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men.

Romans 14:19 Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.

Romans 14:20 Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a man to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble.

Romans 14:21 It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother to fall.

Romans 14:22 So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the man who does not condemn himself by what he approves.

Romans 14:23 But the man who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

Romans 15:1 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves.

Romans 15:2 Each of us should please his neighbour for his good, to build him up.

Romans 15:3 For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.”

Romans 15:4 For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Romans 15:5 May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus,

Romans 15:6 so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 15:7 Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.

Romans 15:8 For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God’s truth, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs

Romans 15:9 so that the Gentiles may glorify God for his mercy, as it is written: “Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing hymns to your name.”

Romans 15:10 Again, it says, “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people.”

Romans 15:11 And again, “Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and sing praises to him, all you peoples.”

Romans 15:12 And again, Isaiah says, “The Root of Jesse will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations; the Gentiles will hope in him.”

Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:14 I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another.

Romans 15:15 I have written to you quite boldly on some points, as if to remind you of them again, because of the grace God gave me

Romans 15:16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles with the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:17 Therefore I glory in Christ Jesus in my service to God.

Romans 15:18 I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obey God by what I have said and done—

Romans 15:19 by the power of signs and miracles, through the power of the Spirit. So from Jerusalem all the way round to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.

Romans 15:20 It has always been my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation.

Romans 15:21 Rather, as it is written: "Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."

Romans 15:22 This is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.

Romans 15:23 But now that there is no more place for me to work in these regions, and since I have been longing for many years to see you,

Romans 15:24 I plan to do so when I go to Spain. I hope to visit you while passing through and to have you assist me on my journey there, after I have enjoyed your company for a while.

Romans 15:25 Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem in the service of the saints there.

Romans 15:26 For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.

Romans 15:27 They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings.

Romans 15:28 So after I have completed this task and have made sure that they have received this fruit, I will go to Spain and visit you on the way.

Romans 15:29 I know that when I come to you, I will come in the full measure of the blessing of Christ.

Romans 15:30 I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me.

Romans 15:31 Pray that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea and that my service in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints there,

Romans 15:32 so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and together with you be refreshed.

Romans 15:33 The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16:1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant of the church in Cenchrea.

Romans 16:2 I ask you to receive her in the Lord in a way worthy of the saints and to give her any help she may need from you, for she has been a great help to many people, including me.

Romans 16:3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus.

Romans 16:4 They risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them.

Romans 16:5 Greet also the church that meets at their house. Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia.

Romans 16:6 Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you.

Romans 16:7 Greet Andronicus and Junias, my relatives who have been in prison with me. They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

Romans 16:8 Greet Ampliatus, whom I love in the Lord.

Romans 16:9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Greet Apelles, tested and approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Greet Herodion, my relative. Greet those in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

Romans 16:12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, those women who work hard in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, another woman who has worked very hard in the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me, too.

Romans 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas and the brothers with them.

Romans 16:15 Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas and all the saints with them.

Romans 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send greetings.

Romans 16:17 I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Keep away from them.

Romans 16:18 For such people are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattery they deceive the minds of naive people.

Romans 16:19 Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I am full of joy over you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil.

Romans 16:20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

Romans 16:21 Timothy, my fellow-worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my relatives.

Romans 16:22 I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord.

Romans 16:23 Gaius, whose hospitality I and the whole church here enjoy, sends you his greetings. Erastus, who is the city’s director of public works, and our brother Quartus send you their greetings.

Romans 16:24

Romans 16:25 Now to him who is able to establish you by my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past,

Romans 16:26 but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings by the command of the eternal God, so that all nations might believe and obey him—

Romans 16:27 to the only wise God be glory for ever through Jesus Christ! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

1 Corinthians 1:2 To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ— their Lord and ours:

1 Corinthians 1:3 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:4 I always thank God for you because of his grace given you in Christ Jesus.

1 Corinthians 1:5 For in him you have been enriched in every way— in all your speaking and in all your knowledge—

1 Corinthians 1:6 because our testimony about Christ was confirmed in you.

1 Corinthians 1:7 Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed.

1 Corinthians 1:8 He will keep you strong to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9 God, who has called you into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.

1 Corinthians 1:10 I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought.

1 Corinthians 1:11 My brothers, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you.

1 Corinthians 1:12 What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul"; another, "I follow Apollos"; another, "I follow Cephas"; still another, "I follow Christ."

1 Corinthians 1:13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptised into the name of Paul?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I am thankful that I did not baptise any of you except Crispus and Gaius,

1 Corinthians 1:15 so no-one can say that you were baptised into my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 (Yes, I also baptised the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I don't remember if I baptised anyone else.)

1 Corinthians 1:17 For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the gospel—not with words of human wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

1 Corinthians 1:18 For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 1:19 For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where is the wise man? Where is the scholar? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

1 Corinthians 1:21 For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.

1 Corinthians 1:22 Jews demand miraculous signs and Greeks look for wisdom,

1 Corinthians 1:23 but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,

1 Corinthians 1:24 but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

1 Corinthians 1:25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.

1 Corinthians 1:26 Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth.

1 Corinthians 1:27 But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong.

1 Corinthians 1:28 He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are,

1 Corinthians 1:29 so that no-one may boast before him.

1 Corinthians 1:30 It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption.

1 Corinthians 1:31 Therefore, as it is written: “Let him who boasts boast in the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 2:1 When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with eloquence or superior wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God.

1 Corinthians 2:2 For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.

1 Corinthians 2:3 I came to you in weakness and fear, and with much trembling.

1 Corinthians 2:4 My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power,

1 Corinthians 2:5 so that your faith might not rest on men’s wisdom, but on God’s power.

1 Corinthians 2:6 We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.

1 Corinthians 2:7 No, we speak of God’s secret wisdom, a wisdom that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began.

1 Corinthians 2:8 None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

1 Corinthians 2:9 However, as it is written: “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him”—

1 Corinthians 2:10 but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man’s spirit within him? In the same way no-one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 2:12 We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us.

1 Corinthians 2:13 This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words.

1 Corinthians 2:14 The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Corinthians 2:15 The spiritual man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment:

1 Corinthians 2:16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:1 Brothers, I could not address you as spiritual but as worldly—mere infants in Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:2 I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready.

1 Corinthians 3:3 You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarrelling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere men?

1 Corinthians 3:4 For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not mere men?

1 Corinthians 3:5 What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe—as the Lord has assigned to each his task.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow.

1 Corinthians 3:8 The man who plants and the man who waters have one purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labour.

1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are God's fellow-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should be careful how he builds.

1 Corinthians 3:11 For no-one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:12 If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw,

1 Corinthians 3:13 his work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work.

1 Corinthians 3:14 If what he has built survives, he will receive his reward.

1 Corinthians 3:15 If it is burned up, he will suffer loss; he himself will be saved, but only as one escaping through the flames.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is sacred, and you are that temple.

1 Corinthians 3:18 Do not deceive yourselves. If any one of you thinks he is wise by the standards of this age, he should become a "fool" so that he may become wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness";

1 Corinthians 3:20 and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."

1 Corinthians 3:21 So then, no more boasting about men! All things are yours,

1 Corinthians 3:22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours,

1 Corinthians 3:23 and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God.

1 Corinthians 4:1 So then, men ought to regard us as servants of Christ and as those entrusted with the secret things of God.

1 Corinthians 4:2 Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.

1 Corinthians 4:3 I care very little if I am judged by you or by any human court; indeed, I do not even judge myself.

1 Corinthians 4:4 My conscience is clear, but that does not make me innocent. It is the Lord who judges me.

1 Corinthians 4:5 Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.

1 Corinthians 4:6 Now, brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written." Then you will not take pride in one man over against another.

1 Corinthians 4:7 For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

1 Corinthians 4:8 Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! You have become kings—and that without us! How I wish that you really had become kings so that we might be kings with you!

1 Corinthians 4:9 For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like men condemned to die in the arena. We have been made a spectacle to the whole universe, to angels as well as to men.

1 Corinthians 4:10 We are fools for Christ, but you are so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honoured, we are dishonoured!

1 Corinthians 4:11 To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty, we are in rags, we are brutally treated, we are homeless.

1 Corinthians 4:12 We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it;

1 Corinthians 4:13 when we are slandered, we answer kindly. Up to this moment we have become the scum of the earth, the refuse of the world.

1 Corinthians 4:14 I am not writing this to shame you, but to warn you, as my dear children.

1 Corinthians 4:15 Even though you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.

1 Corinthians 4:16 Therefore I urge you to imitate me.

1 Corinthians 4:17 For this reason I am sending to you Timothy, my son whom I love, who is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.

1 Corinthians 4:18 Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you.

1 Corinthians 4:19 But I will come to you very soon, if the Lord is willing, and then I will find out not only how these arrogant people are talking, but what power they have.

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a whip, or in love and with a gentle spirit?

1 Corinthians 5:1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that does not occur even among pagans: A man has his father’s wife.

1 Corinthians 5:2 And you are proud! Shouldn’t you rather have been filled with grief and have put out of your fellowship the man who did this?

1 Corinthians 5:3 Even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit. And I have already passed judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present.

1 Corinthians 5:4 When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present,

1 Corinthians 5:5 hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful nature may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 5:6 Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast works through the whole batch of dough?

1 Corinthians 5:7 Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

1 Corinthians 5:8 Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9 I have written to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—

1 Corinthians 5:10 not at all meaning the people of this world who are immoral, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world.

1 Corinthians 5:11 But now I am writing to you that you must not associate with anyone who calls himself a brother but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or a slanderer, a drunkard or a swindler. With such a man do not even eat.

1 Corinthians 5:12 What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are you not to judge those inside?

1 Corinthians 5:13 God will judge those outside. "Expel the wicked man from among you."

1 Corinthians 6:1 If any of you has a dispute with another, dare he take it before the ungodly for judgment instead of before the saints?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life!

1 Corinthians 6:4 Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, appoint as judges even men of little account in the church!

1 Corinthians 6:5 I say this to shame you. Is it possible that there is nobody among you wise enough to judge a dispute between believers?

1 Corinthians 6:6 But instead, one brother goes to law against another—and this in front of unbelievers!

1 Corinthians 6:7 The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means you have been completely defeated already. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

1 Corinthians 6:8 Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, and you do this to your brothers.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders

1 Corinthians 6:10 nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 “Everything is permissible for me”—but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is permissible for me”—but I will not be mastered by anything.

1 Corinthians 6:13 “Food for the stomach and the stomach for food”—but God will destroy them both. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

1 Corinthians 6:14 By his power God raised the Lord from the dead, and he will raise us also.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ himself? Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never!

1 Corinthians 6:16 Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said, “The two will become one flesh.”

1 Corinthians 6:17 But he who unites himself with the Lord is one with him in spirit.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own;

1 Corinthians 6:20 you were bought at a price. Therefore honour God with your body.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry.

1 Corinthians 7:2 But since there is so much immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 The husband should fulfil his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:4 The wife’s body does not belong to her alone but also to her husband. In the same way, the husband’s body does not belong to him alone but also to his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:5 Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent and for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again so that Satan will not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

1 Corinthians 7:6 I say this as a concession, not as a command.

1 Corinthians 7:7 I wish that all men were as I am. But each man has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.

1 Corinthians 7:8 Now to the unmarried and the widows I say: It is good for them to stay unmarried, as I am.

1 Corinthians 7:9 But if they cannot control themselves, they should marry, for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

1 Corinthians 7:10 To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:11 But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord): If any brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her.

1 Corinthians 7:13 And if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him.

1 Corinthians 7:14 For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the unbeliever leaves, let him do so. A believing man or woman is not bound in such circumstances; God has called us to live in peace.

1 Corinthians 7:16 How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or, how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

1 Corinthians 7:17 Nevertheless, each one should retain the place in life that the Lord assigned to him and to which God has called him. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.

1 Corinthians 7:18 Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.

1 Corinthians 7:19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. Keeping God’s commands is what counts.

1 Corinthians 7:20 Each one should remain in the situation which he was in when God called him.

1 Corinthians 7:21 Were you a slave when you were called? Don’t let it trouble you—although if you can gain your freedom, do so.

1 Corinthians 7:22 For he who was a slave when he was called by the Lord is the Lord’s freedman; similarly, he who was a free man when he was called is Christ’s slave.

1 Corinthians 7:23 You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men.

1 Corinthians 7:24 Brothers, each man, as responsible to God, should remain in the situation God called him to.

1 Corinthians 7:25 Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord’s mercy is trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 7:26 Because of the present crisis, I think that it is good for you to remain as you are.

1 Corinthians 7:27 Are you married? Do not seek a divorce. Are you unmarried? Do not look for a wife.

1 Corinthians 7:28 But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face many troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

1 Corinthians 7:29 What I mean, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they had none;

1 Corinthians 7:30 those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep;

1 Corinthians 7:31 those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

1 Corinthians 7:32 I would like you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord’s affairs—how he can please the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:33 But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife—

1 Corinthians 7:34 and his interests are divided. An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord’s affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided devotion to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:36 If anyone thinks he is acting improperly towards the virgin he is engaged to, and if she is getting on in years and he feels he ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning. They should get married.

1 Corinthians 7:37 But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his own will, and who has made up his mind not to marry the virgin—this man also does the right thing.

1 Corinthians 7:38 So then, he who marries the virgin does right, but he who does not marry her does even better.

1 Corinthians 7:39 A woman is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but he must belong to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40 In my judgment, she is happier if she stays as she is— and I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that we all possess knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

1 Corinthians 8:2 The man who thinks he knows something does not yet know as he ought to know.

1 Corinthians 8:3 But the man who loves God is known by God.

1 Corinthians 8:4 So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol is nothing at all in the world and that there is no God but one.

1 Corinthians 8:5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”),

1 Corinthians 8:6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we live; and there is but one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things came and through whom we live.

1 Corinthians 8:7 But not everyone knows this. Some people are still so accustomed to idols that when they eat such food they think of it as having been sacrificed to an idol, and since their conscience is weak, it is defiled.

1 Corinthians 8:8 But food does not bring us near to God; we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

1 Corinthians 8:9 Be careful, however, that the exercise of your freedom does not become a stumbling-block to the weak.

1 Corinthians 8:10 For if anyone with a weak conscience sees you who have this knowledge eating in an idol’s temple, won’t he be emboldened to eat what has been sacrificed to idols?

1 Corinthians 8:11 So this weak brother, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge.

1 Corinthians 8:12 When you sin against your brothers in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:13 Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause him to fall.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not the result of my work in the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 Even though I may not be an apostle to others, surely I am to you! For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 9:3 This is my defence to those who sit in judgment on me.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Don’t we have the right to food and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 Don’t we have the right to take a believing wife along with us, as do the other apostles and the Lord’s brothers and Cephas?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Or is it only I and Barnabas who must work for a living?

1 Corinthians 9:7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its grapes? Who tends a flock and does not drink of the milk?

1 Corinthians 9:8 Do I say this merely from a human point of view? Doesn’t the Law say the same thing?

1 Corinthians 9:9 For it is written in the Law of Moses: “Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.” Is it about oxen that God is concerned?

1 Corinthians 9:10 Surely he says this for us, doesn’t he? Yes, this was written for us, because when the ploughman ploughs and the thresher threshes, they ought to do so in the hope of sharing in the harvest.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap a material harvest from you?

1 Corinthians 9:12 If others have this right of support from you, shouldn’t we have it all the more? But we did not use this right. On the contrary, we put up with anything rather than hinder the gospel of Christ.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Don’t you know that those who work in the temple get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar?

1 Corinthians 9:14 In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:15 But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this in the hope that you will do such things for me. I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of this boast.

1 Corinthians 9:16 Yet when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, for I am compelled to preach. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

1 Corinthians 9:17 If I preach voluntarily, I have a reward; if not voluntarily, I am simply discharging the trust committed to me.

1 Corinthians 9:18 What then is my reward? Just this: that in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and so not make use of my rights in preaching it.

1 Corinthians 9:19 Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible.

1 Corinthians 9:20 To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law.

1 Corinthians 9:21 To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law.

1 Corinthians 9:22 To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some.

1 Corinthians 9:23 I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize.

1 Corinthians 9:25 Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last for ever.

1 Corinthians 9:26 Therefore I do not run like a man running aimlessly; I do not fight like a man beating the air.

1 Corinthians 9:27 No, I beat my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.

1 Corinthians 10:1 For I do not want you to be ignorant of the fact, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea.

1 Corinthians 10:2 They were all baptised into Moses in the cloud and in the sea.

1 Corinthians 10:3 They all ate the same spiritual food

1 Corinthians 10:4 and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:5 Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert.

1 Corinthians 10:6 Now these things occurred as examples to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did.

1 Corinthians 10:7 Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: “The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in pagan revelry.”

1 Corinthians 10:8 We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did— and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died.

1 Corinthians 10:9 We should not test the Lord, as some of them did—and were killed by snakes.

1 Corinthians 10:10 And do not grumble, as some of them did—and were killed by the destroying angel.

1 Corinthians 10:11 These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfilment of the ages has come.

1 Corinthians 10:12 So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don’t fall!

1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

1 Corinthians 10:14 Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry.

1 Corinthians 10:15 I speak to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say.

1 Corinthians 10:16 Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:17 Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

1 Corinthians 10:18 Consider the people of Israel: Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 Do I mean then that a sacrifice offered to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?

1 Corinthians 10:20 No, but the sacrifices of pagans are offered to demons, not to God, and I do not want you to be participants with demons.

1 Corinthians 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord’s table and the table of demons.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Are we trying to arouse the Lord’s jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

1 Corinthians 10:23 “Everything is permissible”—but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is permissible”—but not everything is constructive.

1 Corinthians 10:24 Nobody should seek his own good, but the good of others.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Eat anything sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience,

1 Corinthians 10:26 for, “The earth is the Lord’s, and everything in it.”

1 Corinthians 10:27 If some unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go, eat whatever is put before you without raising questions of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:28 But if anyone says to you, “This has been offered in sacrifice,” then do not eat it, both for the sake of the man who told you and for conscience’ sake—

1 Corinthians 10:29 the other man’s conscience, I mean, not yours. For why should my freedom be judged by another’s conscience?

1 Corinthians 10:30 If I take part in the meal with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I thank God for?

1 Corinthians 10:31 So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Do not cause anyone to stumble, whether Jews, Greeks or the church of God—

1 Corinthians 10:33 even as I try to please everybody in every way. For I am not seeking my own good but the good of many, so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 11:1 Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:2 I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the teachings, just as I passed them on to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 Now I want you to realise that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.

1 Corinthians 11:4 Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonours his head.

1 Corinthians 11:5 And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonours her head—it is just as though her head were shaved.

1 Corinthians 11:6 If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off; and if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head.

1 Corinthians 11:7 A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.

1 Corinthians 11:8 For man did not come from woman, but woman from man;

1 Corinthians 11:9 neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.

1 Corinthians 11:10 For this reason, and because of the angels, the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head.

1 Corinthians 11:11 In the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.

1 Corinthians 11:12 For as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God.

1 Corinthians 11:13 Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Does not the very nature of things teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him,

1 Corinthians 11:15 but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For long hair is given to her as a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no other practice—nor do the churches of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 In the following directives I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good.

1 Corinthians 11:18 In the first place, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions among you, and to some extent I believe it.

1 Corinthians 11:19 No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you have God's approval.

1 Corinthians 11:20 When you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper you eat,

1 Corinthians 11:21 for as you eat, each of you goes ahead without waiting for anybody else. One remains hungry, another gets drunk.

1 Corinthians 11:22 Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? Certainly not!

1 Corinthians 11:23 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread,

1 Corinthians 11:24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:25 In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:26 For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28 A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup.

1 Corinthians 11:29 For anyone who eats and drinks without recognising the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself.

1 Corinthians 11:30 That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep.

1 Corinthians 11:31 But if we judged ourselves, we would not come under judgment.

1 Corinthians 11:32 When we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned with the world.

1 Corinthians 11:33 So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for each other.

1 Corinthians 11:34 If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when you meet together it may not result in judgment. And when I come I will give further directions.

1 Corinthians 12:1 Now about spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You know that when you were pagans, somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols.

1 Corinthians 12:3 Therefore I tell you that no-one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed," and no-one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4 There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:5 There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord.

1 Corinthians 12:6 There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men.

1 Corinthians 12:7 Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:8 To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit,

1 Corinthians 12:9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit,

1 Corinthians 12:10 to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:11 All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines.

1 Corinthians 12:12 The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:13 For we were all baptised by one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.

1 Corinthians 12:14 Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.

1 Corinthians 12:15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?

1 Corinthians 12:18 But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be.

1 Corinthians 12:19 If they were all one part, where would the body be?

1 Corinthians 12:20 As it is, there are many parts, but one body.

1 Corinthians 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I don’t need you!” And the head cannot say to the feet, “I don’t need you!”

1 Corinthians 12:22 On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,

1 Corinthians 12:23 and the parts that we think are less honourable we treat with special honour. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty,

1 Corinthians 12:24 while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honour to the parts that lacked it,

1 Corinthians 12:25 so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.

1 Corinthians 12:26 If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honoured, every part rejoices with it.

1 Corinthians 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.

1 Corinthians 12:28 And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, also those having gifts of healing, those able to help others, those with gifts of administration, and those speaking in different kinds of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?

1 Corinthians 12:30 Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

1 Corinthians 12:31 But eagerly desire the greater gifts. And now I will show you the most excellent way.

1 Corinthians 13:1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

1 Corinthians 13:2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3 If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.

1 Corinthians 13:5 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

1 Corinthians 13:6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

1 Corinthians 13:9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part,

1 Corinthians 13:10 but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me.

1 Corinthians 13:12 Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

1 Corinthians 13:13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1 Follow the way of love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy.

1 Corinthians 14:2 For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God. Indeed, no-one understands him; he utters mysteries with his spirit.

1 Corinthians 14:3 But everyone who prophesies speaks to men for their strengthening, encouragement and comfort.

1 Corinthians 14:4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church.

1 Corinthians 14:5 I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. He who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may be edified.

1 Corinthians 14:6 Now, brothers, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or word of instruction?

1 Corinthians 14:7 Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the flute or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes?

1 Corinthians 14:8 Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle?

1 Corinthians 14:9 So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air.

1 Corinthians 14:10 Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning.

1 Corinthians 14:11 If then I do not grasp the meaning of what someone is saying, I am a foreigner to the speaker, and he is a foreigner to me.

1 Corinthians 14:12 So it is with you. Since you are eager to have spiritual gifts, try to excel in gifts that build up the church.

1 Corinthians 14:13 For this reason anyone who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret what he says.

1 Corinthians 14:14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

1 Corinthians 14:15 So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind; I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind.

1 Corinthians 14:16 If you are praising God with your spirit, how can one who finds himself among those who do not understand say “Amen” to your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 14:17 You may be giving thanks well enough, but the other man is not edified.

1 Corinthians 14:18 I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you.

1 Corinthians 14:19 But in the church I would rather speak five intelligible words to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.

1 Corinthians 14:20 Brothers, stop thinking like children. In regard to evil be infants, but in your thinking be adults.

1 Corinthians 14:21 In the Law it is written: "Through men of strange tongues and through the lips of foreigners I will speak to this people, but even then they will not listen to me," says the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:22 Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; prophecy, however, is for believers, not for unbelievers.

1 Corinthians 14:23 So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who do not understand or some unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind?

1 Corinthians 14:24 But if an unbeliever or someone who does not understand comes in while everybody is prophesying, he will be convinced by all that he is a sinner and will be judged by all,

1 Corinthians 14:25 and the secrets of his heart will be laid bare. So he will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, "God is really among you!"

1 Corinthians 14:26 What then shall we say, brothers? When you come together, everyone has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. All of these must be done for the strengthening of the church.

1 Corinthians 14:27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, two—or at the most three— should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:28 If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to himself and God.

1 Corinthians 14:29 Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said.

1 Corinthians 14:30 And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop.

1 Corinthians 14:31 For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged.

1 Corinthians 14:32 The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets.

1 Corinthians 14:33 For God is not a God of disorder but of peace. As in all the congregations of the saints,

1 Corinthians 14:34 women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission, as the Law says.

1 Corinthians 14:35 If they want to enquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home; for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.

1 Corinthians 14:36 Did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only people it has reached?

1 Corinthians 14:37 If anybody thinks he is a prophet or spiritually gifted, let him acknowledge that what I am writing to you is the Lord’s command.

1 Corinthians 14:38 If he ignores this, he himself will be ignored.

1 Corinthians 14:39 Therefore, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

1 Corinthians 14:40 But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way.

1 Corinthians 15:1 Now, brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand.

1 Corinthians 15:2 By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:3 For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:5 and that he appeared to Peter, and then to the Twelve.

1 Corinthians 15:6 After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep.

1 Corinthians 15:7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles,

1 Corinthians 15:8 and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.

1 Corinthians 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

1 Corinthians 15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.

1 Corinthians 15:11 Whether, then, it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

1 Corinthians 15:12 But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

1 Corinthians 15:13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised.

1 Corinthians 15:14 And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith.

1 Corinthians 15:15 More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised.

1 Corinthians 15:16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either.

1 Corinthians 15:17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.

1 Corinthians 15:18 Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.

1 Corinthians 15:19 If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men.

1 Corinthians 15:20 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

1 Corinthians 15:21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man.

1 Corinthians 15:22 For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15:23 But each in his own turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him.

1 Corinthians 15:24 Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

1 Corinthians 15:27 For he “has put everything under his feet”. Now when it says that “everything” has been put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself, who put everything under Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:28 When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all.

1 Corinthians 15:29 Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptised for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptised for them?

1 Corinthians 15:30 And as for us, why do we endanger ourselves every hour?

1 Corinthians 15:31 I die every day—I mean that, brothers—just as surely as I glory over you in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Corinthians 15:32 If I fought wild beasts in Ephesus for merely human reasons, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

1 Corinthians 15:33 Do not be misled: “Bad company corrupts good character.”

1 Corinthians 15:34 Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God—I say this to your shame.

1 Corinthians 15:35 But someone may ask, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?”

1 Corinthians 15:36 How foolish! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

1 Corinthians 15:37 When you sow, you do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or of something else.

1 Corinthians 15:38 But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body.

1 Corinthians 15:39 All flesh is not the same: Men have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another.

1 Corinthians 15:40 There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendour of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendour of the earthly bodies is another.

1 Corinthians 15:41 The sun has one kind of splendour, the moon another and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendour.

1 Corinthians 15:42 So will it be with the resurrection of the dead. The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable;

1 Corinthians 15:43 it is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

1 Corinthians 15:44 it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

1 Corinthians 15:45 So it is written: “The first man Adam became a living being”; the last Adam, a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46 The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 As was the earthly man, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:49 And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50 I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

1 Corinthians 15:51 Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—

1 Corinthians 15:52 in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:53 For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality.

1 Corinthians 15:54 When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: “Death has been swallowed up in victory.”

1 Corinthians 15:55 “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?”

1 Corinthians 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

1 Corinthians 15:57 But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:58 Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labour in the Lord is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 16:1 Now about the collection for God’s people: Do what I told the Galatian churches to do.

1 Corinthians 16:2 On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with his income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made.

1 Corinthians 16:3 Then, when I arrive, I will give letters of introduction to the men you approve and send them with your gift to Jerusalem.

1 Corinthians 16:4 If it seems advisable for me to go also, they will accompany me.

1 Corinthians 16:5 After I go through Macedonia, I will come to you—for I will be going through Macedonia.

1 Corinthians 16:6 Perhaps I will stay with you awhile, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey, wherever I go.

1 Corinthians 16:7 I do not want to see you now and make only a passing visit; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits.

1 Corinthians 16:8 But I will stay on at Ephesus until Pentecost,

1 Corinthians 16:9 because a great door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many who oppose me.

1 Corinthians 16:10 If Timothy comes, see to it that he has nothing to fear while he is with you, for he is carrying on the work of the Lord, just as I am.

1 Corinthians 16:11 No-one, then, should refuse to accept him. Send him on his way in peace so that he may return to me. I am expecting him along with the brothers.

1 Corinthians 16:12 Now about our brother Apollos: I strongly urged him to go to you with the brothers. He was quite unwilling to go now, but he will go when he has the opportunity.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith; be men of courage; be strong.

1 Corinthians 16:14 Do everything in love.

1 Corinthians 16:15 You know that the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints. I urge you, brothers,

1 Corinthians 16:16 to submit to such as these and to everyone who joins in the work, and labours at it.

1 Corinthians 16:17 I was glad when Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus arrived, because they have supplied what was lacking from you.

1 Corinthians 16:18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours also. Such men deserve recognition.

1 Corinthians 16:19 The churches in the province of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Priscilla greet you warmly in the Lord, and so does the church that meets at their house.

1 Corinthians 16:20 All the brothers here send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

1 Corinthians 16:21 I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand.

1 Corinthians 16:22 If anyone does not love the Lord—a curse be on him. Come, O Lord!

1 Corinthians 16:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

1 Corinthians 16:24 My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the church of God in Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia:

2 Corinthians 1:2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort,

2 Corinthians 1:4 who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God.

2 Corinthians 1:5 For just as the sufferings of Christ flow over into our lives, so also through Christ our comfort overflows.

2 Corinthians 1:6 If we are distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we suffer.

2 Corinthians 1:7 And our hope for you is firm, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:8 We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the hardships we suffered in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired even of life.

2 Corinthians 1:9 Indeed, in our hearts we felt the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises the dead.

2 Corinthians 1:10 He has delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will continue to deliver us,

2 Corinthians 1:11 as you help us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the gracious favour granted us in answer to the prayers of many.

2 Corinthians 1:12 Now this is our boast: Our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, in the holiness and sincerity that are from God. We have done so not according to worldly wisdom but according to God’s grace.

2 Corinthians 1:13 For we do not write to you anything you cannot read or understand. And I hope that,

2 Corinthians 1:14 as you have understood us in part, you will come to understand fully that you can boast of us just as we will boast of you in the day of the Lord Jesus.

2 Corinthians 1:15 Because I was confident of this, I planned to visit you first so that you might benefit twice.

2 Corinthians 1:16 I planned to visit you on my way to Macedonia and to come back to you from Macedonia, and then to have you send me on my way to Judea.

2 Corinthians 1:17 When I planned this, did I do it lightly? Or do I make my plans in a worldly manner so that in the same breath I say, “Yes, yes” and “No, no”?

2 Corinthians 1:18 But as surely as God is faithful, our message to you is not “Yes” and “No”.

2 Corinthians 1:19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by me and Silas and Timothy, was not “Yes” and “No”, but in him it has always been “Yes.”

2 Corinthians 1:20 For no matter how many promises God has made, they are “Yes” in Christ. And so through him the “Amen” is spoken by us to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 1:21 Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us,

2 Corinthians 1:22 set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

2 Corinthians 1:23 I call God as my witness that it was in order to spare you that I did not return to Corinth.

2 Corinthians 1:24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, because it is by faith you stand firm.

2 Corinthians 2:1 So I made up my mind that I would not make another painful visit to you.

2 Corinthians 2:2 For if I grieve you, who is left to make me glad but you whom I have grieved?

2 Corinthians 2:3 I wrote as I did so that when I came I should not be distressed by those who ought to make me rejoice. I had confidence in all of you, that you would all share my joy.

2 Corinthians 2:4 For I wrote to you out of great distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to grieve you but to let you know the depth of my love for you.

2 Corinthians 2:5 If anyone has caused grief, he has not so much grieved me as he has grieved all of you, to some extent—not to put it too severely.

2 Corinthians 2:6 The punishment inflicted on him by the majority is sufficient for him.

2 Corinthians 2:7 Now instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:8 I urge you, therefore, to reaffirm your love for him.

2 Corinthians 2:9 The reason I wrote to you was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything.

2 Corinthians 2:10 If you forgive anyone, I also forgive him. And what I have forgiven—if there was anything to forgive—I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake,

2 Corinthians 2:11 in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

2 Corinthians 2:12 Now when I went to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ and found that the Lord had opened a door for me,

2 Corinthians 2:13 I still had no peace of mind, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said good-bye to them and went on to Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ and through us spreads everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of him.

2 Corinthians 2:15 For we are to God the aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing.

2 Corinthians 2:16 To the one we are the smell of death; to the other, the fragrance of life. And who is equal to such a task?

2 Corinthians 2:17 Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, like men sent from God.

2 Corinthians 3:1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some people, letters of recommendation to you or from you?

2 Corinthians 3:2 You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everybody.

2 Corinthians 3:3 You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:4 Such confidence as this is ours through Christ before God.

2 Corinthians 3:5 Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God.

2 Corinthians 3:6 He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant— not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

2 Corinthians 3:7 Now if the ministry that brought death, which was engraved in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory, fading though it was,

2 Corinthians 3:8 will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious?

2 Corinthians 3:9 If the ministry that condemns men is glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness!

2 Corinthians 3:10 For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory.

2 Corinthians 3:11 And if what was fading away came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts!

2 Corinthians 3:12 Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.

2 Corinthians 3:13 We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from gazing at it while the radiance was fading away.

2 Corinthians 3:14 But their minds were made dull, for to this day the same veil remains when the old covenant is read. It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away.

2 Corinthians 3:15 Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:16 But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

2 Corinthians 3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18 And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord’s glory, are being transformed into his likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:1 Therefore, since through God’s mercy we have this ministry, we do not lose heart.

2 Corinthians 4:2 Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways; we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God. On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to every man’s conscience in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 4:3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing.

2 Corinthians 4:4 The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

2 Corinthians 4:5 For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake.

2 Corinthians 4:6 For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:7 But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us.

2 Corinthians 4:8 We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair;

2 Corinthians 4:9 persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed.

2 Corinthians 4:10 We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.

2 Corinthians 4:11 For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that his life may be revealed in our mortal body.

2 Corinthians 4:12 So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

2 Corinthians 4:13 It is written: “I believed; therefore I have spoken.” With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak,

2 Corinthians 4:14 because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you in his presence.

2 Corinthians 4:15 All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16 Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day.

2 Corinthians 4:17 For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.

2 Corinthians 4:18 So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

2 Corinthians 5:1 Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.

2 Corinthians 5:2 Meanwhile we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling,

2 Corinthians 5:3 because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.

2 Corinthians 5:4 For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

2 Corinthians 5:5 Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

2 Corinthians 5:6 Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:7 We live by faith, not by sight.

2 Corinthians 5:8 We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:9 So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it.

2 Corinthians 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due to him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

2 Corinthians 5:11 Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord, we try to persuade men. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience.

2 Corinthians 5:12 We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart.

2 Corinthians 5:13 If we are out of our mind, it is for the sake of God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

2 Corinthians 5:14 For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died.

2 Corinthians 5:15 And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

2 Corinthians 5:16 So from now on we regard no-one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer.

2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

2 Corinthians 5:18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

2 Corinthians 5:19 that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:20 We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God.

2 Corinthians 5:21 God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6:1 As God's fellow-workers we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain.

2 Corinthians 6:2 For he says, "In the time of my favour I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you." I tell you, now is the time of God's favour, now is the day of salvation.

2 Corinthians 6:3 We put no stumbling-block in anyone's path, so that our ministry will not be discredited.

2 Corinthians 6:4 Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships and distresses;

2 Corinthians 6:5 in beatings, imprisonments and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger;

2 Corinthians 6:6 in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love;

2 Corinthians 6:7 in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left;

2 Corinthians 6:8 through glory and dishonour, bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors;

2 Corinthians 6:9 known, yet regarded as unknown; dying, and yet we live on; beaten, and yet not killed;

2 Corinthians 6:10 sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

2 Corinthians 6:11 We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you.

2 Corinthians 6:12 We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us.

2 Corinthians 6:13 As a fair exchange—I speak as to my children—open wide your hearts also.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?

2 Corinthians 6:15 What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? What does a believer have in common with an unbeliever?

2 Corinthians 6:16 What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: “I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.”

2 Corinthians 6:17 “Therefore come out from them and be separate, says the Lord. Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you.”

2 Corinthians 6:18 “I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.”

2 Corinthians 7:1 Since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God.

2 Corinthians 7:2 Make room for us in your hearts. We have wronged no-one, we have corrupted no-one, we have exploited no-one.

2 Corinthians 7:3 I do not say this to condemn you; I have said before that you have such a place in our hearts that we would live or die with you.

2 Corinthians 7:4 I have great confidence in you; I take great pride in you. I am greatly encouraged; in all our troubles my joy knows no bounds.

2 Corinthians 7:5 For when we came into Macedonia, this body of ours had no rest, but we were harassed at every turn—conflicts on the outside, fears within.

2 Corinthians 7:6 But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus,

2 Corinthians 7:7 and not only by his coming but also by the comfort you had given him. He told us about your longing for me, your deep sorrow, your ardent concern for me, so that my joy was greater than ever.

2 Corinthians 7:8 Even if I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it. Though I did regret it—I see that my letter hurt you, but only for a little while—

2 Corinthians 7:9 yet now I am happy, not because you were made sorry, but because your sorrow led you to repentance. For you became sorrowful as God intended and so were not harmed in any way by us.

2 Corinthians 7:10 Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death.

2 Corinthians 7:11 See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern, what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter.

2 Corinthians 7:12 So even though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong or of the injured party, but rather that before God you could see for yourselves how devoted to us you are.

2 Corinthians 7:13 By all this we are encouraged. In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus was, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you.

2 Corinthians 7:14 I had boasted to him about you, and you have not embarrassed me. But just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting about you to Titus has proved to be true as well.

2 Corinthians 7:15 And his affection for you is all the greater when he remembers that you were all obedient, receiving him with fear and trembling.

2 Corinthians 7:16 I am glad I can have complete confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:1 And now, brothers, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches.

2 Corinthians 8:2 Out of the most severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity.

2 Corinthians 8:3 For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own,

2 Corinthians 8:4 they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints.

2 Corinthians 8:5 And they did not do as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God’s will.

2 Corinthians 8:6 So we urged Titus, since he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion this act of grace on your part.

2 Corinthians 8:7 But just as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

2 Corinthians 8:8 I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others.

2 Corinthians 8:9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.

2 Corinthians 8:10 And here is my advice about what is best for you in this matter: Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so.

2 Corinthians 8:11 Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means.

2 Corinthians 8:12 For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have.

2 Corinthians 8:13 Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality.

2 Corinthians 8:14 At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. Then there will be equality,

2 Corinthians 8:15 as it is written: “He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little.”

2 Corinthians 8:16 I thank God, who put into the heart of Titus the same concern I have for you.

2 Corinthians 8:17 For Titus not only welcomed our appeal, but he is coming to you with much enthusiasm and on his own initiative.

2 Corinthians 8:18 And we are sending along with him the brother who is praised by all the churches for his service to the gospel.

2 Corinthians 8:19 What is more, he was chosen by the churches to accompany us as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honour the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help.

2 Corinthians 8:20 We want to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this liberal gift.

2 Corinthians 8:21 For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of men.

2 Corinthians 8:22 In addition, we are sending with them our brother who has often proved to us in many ways that he is zealous, and now even more so because of his great confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow-worker among you; as for our brothers, they are representatives of the churches and an honour to Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:24 Therefore show these men the proof of your love and the reason for our pride in you, so that the churches can see it.

2 Corinthians 9:1 There is no need for me to write to you about this service to the saints.

2 Corinthians 9:2 For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last year you in Achaia were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action.

2 Corinthians 9:3 But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove hollow, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be.

2 Corinthians 9:4 For if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to say anything about you—would be ashamed of having been so confident.

2 Corinthians 9:5 So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to visit you in advance and finish the arrangements for the generous gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift, not as one grudgingly given.

2 Corinthians 9:6 Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.

2 Corinthians 9:7 Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:9 As it is written: “He has scattered abroad his gifts to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever.”

2 Corinthians 9:10 Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.

2 Corinthians 9:11 You will be made rich in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

2 Corinthians 9:12 This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of God’s people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.

2 Corinthians 9:13 Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, men will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else.

2 Corinthians 9:14 And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you.

2 Corinthians 9:15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

2 Corinthians 10:1 By the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I appeal to you— I, Paul, who am “timid” when face to face with you, but “bold” when away!

2 Corinthians 10:2 I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as bold as I expect to be towards some people who think that we live by the standards of this world.

2 Corinthians 10:3 For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does.

2 Corinthians 10:4 The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds.

2 Corinthians 10:5 We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:6 And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

2 Corinthians 10:7 You are looking only on the surface of things. If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ, he should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as he.

2 Corinthians 10:8 For even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up rather than pulling you down, I will not be ashamed of it.

2 Corinthians 10:9 I do not want to seem to be trying to frighten you with my letters.

2 Corinthians 10:10 For some say, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but in person he is unimpressive and his speaking amounts to nothing.”

2 Corinthians 10:11 Such people should realise that what we are in our letters when we are absent, we will be in our actions when we are present.

2 Corinthians 10:12 We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are not wise.

2 Corinthians 10:13 We, however, will not boast beyond proper limits, but will confine our boasting to the field God has assigned to us, a field that reaches even to you.

2 Corinthians 10:14 We are not going too far in our boasting, as would be the case if we had not come to you, for we did get as far as you with the gospel of Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:15 Neither do we go beyond our limits by boasting of work done by others. Our hope is that, as your faith continues to grow, our area of activity among you will greatly expand,

2 Corinthians 10:16 so that we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you. For we do not want to boast about work already done in another man's territory.

2 Corinthians 10:17 But, "Let him who boasts boast in the Lord."

2 Corinthians 10:18 For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

2 Corinthians 11:1 I hope you will put up with a little of my foolishness; but you are already doing that.

2 Corinthians 11:2 I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband, to Christ, so that I might present you as a pure virgin to him.

2 Corinthians 11:3 But I am afraid that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent's cunning, your minds may somehow be led astray from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it easily enough.

2 Corinthians 11:5 But I do not think I am in the least inferior to those "super-apostles".

2 Corinthians 11:6 I may not be a trained speaker, but I do have knowledge. We have made this perfectly clear to you in every way.

2 Corinthians 11:7 Was it a sin for me to lower myself in order to elevate you by preaching the gospel of God to you free of charge?

2 Corinthians 11:8 I robbed other churches by receiving support from them so as to serve you.

2 Corinthians 11:9 And when I was with you and needed something, I was not a burden to anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied what I needed. I have kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will continue to do so.

2 Corinthians 11:10 As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, nobody in the regions of Achaia will stop this boasting of mine.

2 Corinthians 11:11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

2 Corinthians 11:12 And I will keep on doing what I am doing in order to cut the ground from under those who want an opportunity to be considered equal with us in the things they boast about.

2 Corinthians 11:13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14 And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15 It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

2 Corinthians 11:16 I repeat: Let no-one take me for a fool. But if you do, then receive me just as you would a fool, so that I may do a little boasting.

2 Corinthians 11:17 In this self-confident boasting I am not talking as the Lord would, but as a fool.

2 Corinthians 11:18 Since many are boasting in the way the world does, I too will boast.

2 Corinthians 11:19 You gladly put up with fools since you are so wise!

2 Corinthians 11:20 In fact, you even put up with anyone who enslaves you or exploits you or takes advantage of you or pushes himself forward or slaps you in the face.

2 Corinthians 11:21 To my shame I admit that we were too weak for that! What anyone else dares to boast about—I am speaking as a fool— I also dare to boast about.

2 Corinthians 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they Abraham’s descendants? So am I.

2 Corinthians 11:23 Are they servants of Christ? (I am out of my mind to talk like this.) I am more. I have worked much harder, been in prison more frequently, been flogged more severely, and been exposed to death again and again.

2 Corinthians 11:24 Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one.

2 Corinthians 11:25 Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I spent a night and a day in the open sea,

2 Corinthians 11:26 I have been constantly on the move. I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city, in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false brothers.

2 Corinthians 11:27 I have laboured and toiled and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked.

2 Corinthians 11:28 Besides everything else, I face daily the pressure of my concern for all the churches.

2 Corinthians 11:29 Who is weak, and I do not feel weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not inwardly burn?

2 Corinthians 11:30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

2 Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is to be praised for ever, knows that I am not lying.

2 Corinthians 11:32 In Damascus the governor under King Aretas had the city of the Damascenes guarded in order to arrest me.

2 Corinthians 11:33 But I was lowered in a basket from a window in the wall and slipped through his hands.

2 Corinthians 12:1 I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know—God knows.

2 Corinthians 12:3 And I know that this man—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows—

2 Corinthians 12:4 was caught up to paradise. He heard inexpressible things, things that man is not permitted to tell.

2 Corinthians 12:5 I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses.

2 Corinthians 12:6 Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no-one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say.

2 Corinthians 12:7 To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me.

2 Corinthians 12:8 Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me.

2 Corinthians 12:9 But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me.

2 Corinthians 12:10 That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:11 I have made a fool of myself, but you drove me to it. I ought to have been commended by you, for I am not in the least inferior to the “super-apostles”, even though I am nothing.

2 Corinthians 12:12 The things that mark an apostle—signs, wonders and miracles—were done among you with great perseverance.

2 Corinthians 12:13 How were you inferior to the other churches, except that I was never a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

2 Corinthians 12:14 Now I am ready to visit you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you, because what I want is not your possessions but you. After all, children should not have to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

2 Corinthians 12:15 So I will very gladly spend for you everything I have and expend myself as well. If I love you more, will you love me less?

2 Corinthians 12:16 Be that as it may, I have not been a burden to you. Yet, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you by trickery!

2 Corinthians 12:17 Did I exploit you through any of the men I sent you?

2 Corinthians 12:18 I urged Titus to go to you and I sent our brother with him. Titus did not exploit you, did he? Did we not act in the same spirit and follow the same course?

2 Corinthians 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? We have been speaking in the sight of God as those in Christ; and everything we do, dear friends, is for your strengthening.

2 Corinthians 12:20 For I am afraid that when I come I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be. I fear that there may be quarrelling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder.

2 Corinthians 12:21 I am afraid that when I come again my God will humble me before you, and I will be grieved over many who have sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual sin and debauchery in which they have indulged.

2 Corinthians 13:1 This will be my third visit to you. “Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.”

2 Corinthians 13:2 I already gave you a warning when I was with you the second time. I now repeat it while absent: On my return I will not spare those who sinned earlier or any of the others,

2 Corinthians 13:3 since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you.

2 Corinthians 13:4 For to be sure, he was crucified in weakness, yet he lives by God’s power. Likewise, we are weak in him, yet by God’s power we will live with him to serve you.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realise that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?

2 Corinthians 13:6 And I trust that you will discover that we have not failed the test.

2 Corinthians 13:7 Now we pray to God that you will not do anything wrong. Not that people will see that we have stood the test but that you will do what is right even though we may seem to have failed.

2 Corinthians 13:8 For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

2 Corinthians 13:9 We are glad whenever we are weak but you are strong; and our prayer is for your perfection.

2 Corinthians 13:10 This is why I write these things when I am absent, that when I come I may not have to be harsh in my use of authority— the authority the Lord gave me for building you up, not for tearing you down.

2 Corinthians 13:11 Finally, brothers, good-bye. Aim for perfection, listen to my appeal, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

2 Corinthians 13:13 All the saints send their greetings.

2 Corinthians 13:14 May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Galatians

1:1 Paul, an apostle—sent not from men nor by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—

Galatians 1:2 and all the brothers with me, To the churches in Galatia:

Galatians 1:3 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

Galatians 1:4 who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

Galatians 1:5 to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Galatians 1:6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—

Galatians 1:7 which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned!

Galatians 1:9 As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned!

Galatians 1:10 Am I now trying to win the approval of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Galatians 1:11 I want you to know, brothers, that the gospel I preached is not something that man made up.

Galatians 1:12 I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ.

Galatians 1:13 For you have heard of my previous way of life in Judaism, how intensely I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it.

Galatians 1:14 I was advancing in Judaism beyond many Jews of my own age and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

Galatians 1:15 But when God, who set me apart from birth and called me by his grace, was pleased

Galatians 1:16 to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not consult any man,

Galatians 1:17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was, but I went immediately into Arabia and later returned to Damascus.

Galatians 1:18 Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Peter and stayed with him fifteen days.

Galatians 1:19 I saw none of the other apostles—only James, the Lord’s brother.

Galatians 1:20 I assure you before God that what I am writing to you is no lie.

Galatians 1:21 Later I went to Syria and Cilicia.

Galatians 1:22 I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea that are in Christ.

Galatians 1:23 They only heard the report: “The man who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy.”

Galatians 1:24 And they praised God because of me.

Galatians 2:1 Fourteen years later I went up again to Jerusalem, this time with Barnabas. I took Titus along also.

Galatians 2:2 I went in response to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. But I did this privately to those who seemed to be leaders, for fear that I was running or had run my race in vain.

Galatians 2:3 Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek.

Galatians 2:4 [This matter arose] because some false brothers had infiltrated our ranks to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus and to make us slaves.

Galatians 2:5 We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.

Galatians 2:6 As for those who seemed to be important—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not judge by external appearance—those men added nothing to my message.

Galatians 2:7 On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the task of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles, just as Peter had been to the Jews.

Galatians 2:8 For God, who was at work in the ministry of Peter as an apostle to the Jews, was also at work in my ministry as an apostle to the Gentiles.

Galatians 2:9 James, Peter and John, those reputed to be pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognised the grace given to me. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the Jews.

Galatians 2:10 All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.

Galatians 2:11 When Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong.

Galatians 2:12 Before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles because he was afraid of those who belonged to the circumcision group.

Galatians 2:13 The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray.

Galatians 2:14 When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter in front of them all, “You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew. How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?

Galatians 2:15 “We who are Jews by birth and not`Gentile sinners’

Galatians 2:16 know that a man is not justified by observing the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by observing the law, because by observing the law no-one will be justified.

Galatians 2:17 “If, while we seek to be justified in Christ, it becomes evident that we ourselves are sinners, does that mean that Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not!

Galatians 2:18 If I rebuild what I destroyed, I prove that I am a lawbreaker.

Galatians 2:19 For through the law I died to the law so that I might live for God.

Galatians 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:21 I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing!”

Galatians 3:1 You foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? Before your very eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed as crucified.

Galatians 3:2 I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit by observing the law, or by believing what you heard?

Galatians 3:3 Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Spirit, are you now trying to attain your goal by human effort?

Galatians 3:4 Have you suffered so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing?

Galatians 3:5 Does God give you his Spirit and work miracles among you because you observe the law, or because you believe what you heard?

Galatians 3:6 Consider Abraham: “He believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

Galatians 3:7 Understand, then, that those who believe are children of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8 The Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: “All nations will be blessed through you.”

Galatians 3:9 So those who have faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.

Galatians 3:10 All who rely on observing the law are under a curse, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law.”

Galatians 3:11 Clearly no-one is justified before God by the law, because, “The righteous will live by faith.”

Galatians 3:12 The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, “The man who does these things will live by them.”

Galatians 3:13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”

Galatians 3:14 He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

Galatians 3:15 Brothers, let me take an example from everyday life. Just as no-one can set aside or add to a human covenant that has been duly established, so it is in this case.

Galatians 3:16 The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. The Scripture does not say “and to seeds”, meaning many people, but “and to your seed”, meaning one person, who is Christ.

Galatians 3:17 What I mean is this: The law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise.

Galatians 3:18 For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on a promise; but God in his grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

Galatians 3:19 What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was put into effect through angels by a mediator.

Galatians 3:20 A mediator, however, does not represent just one party; but God is one.

Galatians 3:21 Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.

Galatians 3:22 But the Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.

Galatians 3:23 Before this faith came, we were held prisoners by the law, locked up until faith should be revealed.

Galatians 3:24 So the law was put in charge to lead us to Christ that we might be justified by faith.

Galatians 3:25 Now that faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law.

Galatians 3:26 You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus,

Galatians 3:27 for all of you who were baptised into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

Galatians 3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:29 If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 4:1 What I am saying is that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, although he owns the whole estate.

Galatians 4:2 He is subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

Galatians 4:3 So also, when we were children, we were in slavery under the basic principles of the world.

Galatians 4:4 But when the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under law,

Galatians 4:5 to redeem those under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons.

Galatians 4:6 Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, “Abba, Father.”

Galatians 4:7 So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, God has made you also an heir.

Galatians 4:8 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those who by nature are not gods.

Galatians 4:9 But now that you know God—or rather are known by God— how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them all over again?

Galatians 4:10 You are observing special days and months and seasons and years!

Galatians 4:11 I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.

Galatians 4:12 I plead with you, brothers, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong.

Galatians 4:13 As you know, it was because of an illness that I first preached the gospel to you.

Galatians 4:14 Even though my illness was a trial to you, you did not treat me with contempt or scorn. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God, as if I were Christ Jesus himself.

Galatians 4:15 What has happened to all your joy? I can testify that, if you could have done so, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me.

Galatians 4:16 Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?

Galatians 4:17 Those people are zealous to win you over, but for no good. What they want is to alienate you [from us], so that you may be zealous for them.

Galatians 4:18 It is fine to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always and not just when I am with you.

Galatians 4:19 My dear children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you,

Galatians 4:20 how I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about you!

Galatians 4:21 Tell me, you who want to be under the law, are you not aware of what the law says?

Galatians 4:22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman.

Galatians 4:23 His son by the slave woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a promise.

Galatians 4:24 These things may be taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar.

Galatians 4:25 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children.

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Galatians 4:27 For it is written: “Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labour pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband.”

Galatians 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Galatians 4:29 At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now.

Galatians 4:30 But what does the Scripture say? “Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman’s son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman’s son.”

Galatians 4:31 Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Galatians 5:1 It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

Galatians 5:2 Mark my words! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to you at all.

Galatians 5:3 Again I declare to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is required to obey the whole law.

Galatians 5:4 You who are trying to be justified by law have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace.

Galatians 5:5 But by faith we eagerly await through the Spirit the righteousness for which we hope.

Galatians 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.

Galatians 5:7 You were running a good race. Who cut in on you and kept you from obeying the truth?

Galatians 5:8 That kind of persuasion does not come from the one who calls you.

Galatians 5:9 “A little yeast works through the whole batch of dough.”

Galatians 5:10 I am confident in the Lord that you will take no other view. The one who is throwing you into confusion will pay the penalty, whoever he may be.

Galatians 5:11 Brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offence of the cross has been abolished.

Galatians 5:12 As for those agitators, I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves!

Galatians 5:13 You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love.

Galatians 5:14 The entire law is summed up in a single command: “Love your neighbour as yourself.”

Galatians 5:15 If you keep on biting and devouring each other, watch out or you will be destroyed by each other.

Galatians 5:16 So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature.

Galatians 5:17 For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in conflict with each other, so that you do not do what you want.

Galatians 5:18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law.

Galatians 5:19 The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery;

Galatians 5:20 idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions

Galatians 5:21 and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

Galatians 5:23 gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

Galatians 5:24 Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires.

Galatians 5:25 Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit.

Galatians 5:26 Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.

Galatians 6:1 Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted.

Galatians 6:2 Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfil the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:3 If anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

Galatians 6:4 Each one should test his own actions. Then he can take pride in himself, without comparing himself to somebody else,

Galatians 6:5 for each one should carry his own load.

Galatians 6:6 Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor.

Galatians 6:7 Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.

Galatians 6:8 The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

Galatians 6:9 Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

Galatians 6:10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Galatians 6:11 See what large letters I use as I write to you with my own hand!

Galatians 6:12 Those who want to make a good impression outwardly are trying to compel you to be circumcised. The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13 Not even those who are circumcised obey the law, yet they want you to be circumcised that they may boast about your flesh.

Galatians 6:14 May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Galatians 6:15 Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what counts is a new creation.

Galatians 6:16 Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, even to the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17 Finally, let no-one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

Galatians 6:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints in Ephesus, the faithful in Christ Jesus:

Ephesians 1:2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ.

Ephesians 1:4 For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love

Ephesians 1:5 he predestined us to be adopted as his sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—

Ephesians 1:6 to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves.

Ephesians 1:7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God’s grace

Ephesians 1:8 that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding.

Ephesians 1:9 And he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ,

Ephesians 1:10 to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfilment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ.

Ephesians 1:11 In him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will,

Ephesians 1:12 in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:13 And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit,

Ephesians 1:14 who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God’s possession—to the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:15 For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,

Ephesians 1:16 I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers.

Ephesians 1:17 I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better.

Ephesians 1:18 I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,

Ephesians 1:19 and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is like the working of his mighty strength,

Ephesians 1:20 which he exerted in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms,

Ephesians 1:21 far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every title that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come.

Ephesians 1:22 And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church,

Ephesians 1:23 which is his body, the fulness of him who fills everything in every way.

Ephesians 2:1 As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins,

Ephesians 2:2 in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient.

Ephesians 2:3 All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature objects of wrath.

Ephesians 2:4 But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy,

Ephesians 2:5 made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.

Ephesians 2:6 And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus,

Ephesians 2:7 in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:8 For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—

Ephesians 2:9 not by works, so that no-one can boast.

Ephesians 2:10 For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Ephesians 2:11 Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves “the circumcision” (that done in the body by the hands of men)—

Ephesians 2:12 remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world.

Ephesians 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14 For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility,

Ephesians 2:15 by abolishing in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new man out of the two, thus making peace,

Ephesians 2:16 and in this one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility.

Ephesians 2:17 He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near.

Ephesians 2:18 For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

Ephesians 2:19 Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow-citizens with God’s people and members of God’s household,

Ephesians 2:20 built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone.

Ephesians 2:21 In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord.

Ephesians 2:22 And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

Ephesians 3:1 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—

Ephesians 3:2 Surely you have heard about the administration of God’s grace that was given to me for you,

Ephesians 3:3 that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation, as I have already written briefly.

Ephesians 3:4 In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ,

Ephesians 3:5 which was not made known to men in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God’s holy apostles and prophets.

Ephesians 3:6 This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 3:7 I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of his power.

Ephesians 3:8 Although I am less than the least of all God's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,

Ephesians 3:9 and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things.

Ephesians 3:10 His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms,

Ephesians 3:11 according to his eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ephesians 3:12 In him and through faith in him we may approach God with freedom and confidence.

Ephesians 3:13 I ask you, therefore, not to be discouraged because of my sufferings for you, which are your glory.

Ephesians 3:14 For this reason I kneel before the Father,

Ephesians 3:15 from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name.

Ephesians 3:16 I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being,

Ephesians 3:17 so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love,

Ephesians 3:18 may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ,

Ephesians 3:19 and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fulness of God.

Ephesians 3:20 Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us,

Ephesians 3:21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Ephesians 4:1 As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.

Ephesians 4:2 Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.

Ephesians 4:3 Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

Ephesians 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when you were called—

Ephesians 4:5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism;

Ephesians 4:6 one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Ephesians 4:7 But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it.

Ephesians 4:8 This is why it says: “When he ascended on high, he led captives in his train and gave gifts to men.”

Ephesians 4:9 (What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions?

Ephesians 4:10 He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.)

Ephesians 4:11 It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers,

Ephesians 4:12 to prepare God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up

Ephesians 4:13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fulness of Christ.

Ephesians 4:14 Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming.

Ephesians 4:15 Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ.

Ephesians 4:16 From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Ephesians 4:17 So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking.

Ephesians 4:18 They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts.

Ephesians 4:19 Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, with a continual lust for more.

Ephesians 4:20 You, however, did not come to know Christ that way.

Ephesians 4:21 Surely you heard of him and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus.

Ephesians 4:22 You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires;

Ephesians 4:23 to be made new in the attitude of your minds;

Ephesians 4:24 and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

Ephesians 4:25 Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbour, for we are all members of one body.

Ephesians 4:26 “In your anger do not sin”: Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry,

Ephesians 4:27 and do not give the devil a foothold.

Ephesians 4:28 He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his own hands, that he may have something to share with those in need.

Ephesians 4:29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.

Ephesians 4:30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Ephesians 4:31 Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice.

Ephesians 4:32 Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 5:1 Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children

Ephesians 5:2 and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:3 But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality, or of any kind of impurity, or of greed, because these are improper for God’s holy people.

Ephesians 5:4 Nor should there be obscenity, foolish talk or coarse joking, which are out of place, but rather thanksgiving.

Ephesians 5:5 For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person—such a man is an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Ephesians 5:6 Let no-one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things God’s wrath comes on those who are disobedient.

Ephesians 5:7 Therefore do not be partners with them.

Ephesians 5:8 For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light

Ephesians 5:9 (for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth)

Ephesians 5:10 and find out what pleases the Lord.

Ephesians 5:11 Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them.

Ephesians 5:12 For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret.

Ephesians 5:13 But everything exposed by the light becomes visible,

Ephesians 5:14 for it is light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said: “Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

Ephesians 5:15 Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise,

Ephesians 5:16 making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:17 Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is.

Ephesians 5:18 Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit.

Ephesians 5:19 Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord,

Ephesians 5:20 always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 5:21 Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Ephesians 5:22 Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, of which he is the Saviour.

Ephesians 5:24 Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her

Ephesians 5:26 to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word,

Ephesians 5:27 and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.

Ephesians 5:28 In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

Ephesians 5:29 After all, no-one ever hated his own body, but he feeds and cares for it, just as Christ does the church—

Ephesians 5:30 for we are members of his body.

Ephesians 5:31 “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”

Ephesians 5:32 This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church.

Ephesians 5:33 However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Ephesians 6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

Ephesians 6:2 “Honour your father and mother”—which is the first commandment with a promise—

Ephesians 6:3 “that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth.”

Ephesians 6:4 Fathers, do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

Ephesians 6:5 Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect and fear, and with sincerity of heart, just as you would obey Christ.

Ephesians 6:6 Obey them not only to win their favour when their eye is on you, but like slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from your heart.

Ephesians 6:7 Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not men,

Ephesians 6:8 because you know that the Lord will reward everyone for whatever good he does, whether he is slave or free.

Ephesians 6:9 And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Do not threaten them, since you know that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favouritism with him.

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on the full armour of God so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes.

Ephesians 6:12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Ephesians 6:13 Therefore put on the full armour of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand.

Ephesians 6:14 Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled round your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place,

Ephesians 6:15 and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace.

Ephesians 6:16 In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

Ephesians 6:17 Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Ephesians 6:18 And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints.

Ephesians 6:19 Pray also for me, that whenever I open my mouth, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel,

Ephesians 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.

Ephesians 6:21 Tychicus, the dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, so that you also may know how I am and what I am doing.

Ephesians 6:22 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are, and that he may encourage you.

Ephesians 6:23 Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:24 Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love.

Philippians

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons:

Philippians 1:2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3 I thank my God every time I remember you.

Philippians 1:4 In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy

Philippians 1:5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now,

Philippians 1:6 being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:7 It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart; for whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me.

Philippians 1:8 God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:9 And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,

Philippians 1:10 so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

Philippians 1:11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:12 Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel.

Philippians 1:13 As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.

Philippians 1:14 Because of my chains, most of the brothers in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly.

Philippians 1:15 It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.

Philippians 1:16 The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defence of the gospel.

Philippians 1:17 The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.

Philippians 1:18 But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

Philippians 1:19 for I know that through your prayers and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.

Philippians 1:20 I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

Philippians 1:21 For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Philippians 1:22 If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labour for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!

Philippians 1:23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far;

Philippians 1:24 but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.

Philippians 1:25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,

Philippians 1:26 so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

Philippians 1:27 Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, contending as one man for the faith of the gospel

Philippians 1:28 without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God.

Philippians 1:29 For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him,

Philippians 1:30 since you are going through the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

Philippians 2:1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion,

Philippians 2:2 then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose.

Philippians 2:3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves.

Philippians 2:4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Philippians 2:5 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:

Philippians 2:6 Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,

Philippians 2:7 but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

Philippians 2:8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Philippians 2:9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name,

Philippians 2:10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

Philippians 2:11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:12 Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed— not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling,

Philippians 2:13 for it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose.

Philippians 2:14 Do everything without complaining or arguing,

Philippians 2:15 so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe

Philippians 2:16 as you hold out the word of life—in order that I may boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labour for nothing.

Philippians 2:17 But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you.

Philippians 2:18 So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

Philippians 2:19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you.

Philippians 2:20 I have no-one else like him, who takes a genuine interest in your welfare.

Philippians 2:21 For everyone looks out for his own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 2:22 But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel.

Philippians 2:23 I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me.

Philippians 2:24 And I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon.

Philippians 2:25 But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.

Philippians 2:26 For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill.

Philippians 2:27 Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow.

Philippians 2:28 Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety.

Philippians 2:29 Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honour men like him,

Philippians 2:30 because he almost died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.

Philippians 3:1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you.

Philippians 3:2 Watch out for those dogs, those men who do evil, those mutilators of the flesh.

Philippians 3:3 For it is we who are the circumcision, we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh—

Philippians 3:4 though I myself have reasons for such confidence. If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more:

Philippians 3:5 circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee;

Philippians 3:6 as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless.

Philippians 3:7 But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ.

Philippians 3:8 What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ

Philippians 3:9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith.

Philippians 3:10 I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death,

Philippians 3:11 and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Philippians 3:12 Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.

Philippians 3:13 Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead,

Philippians 3:14 I press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenwards in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15 All of us who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you.

Philippians 3:16 Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

Philippians 3:17 Join with others in following my example, brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you.

Philippians 3:18 For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.

Philippians 3:19 Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things.

Philippians 3:20 But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Saviour from there, the Lord Jesus Christ,

Philippians 3:21 who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

Philippians 4:1 Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends!

Philippians 4:2 I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to agree with each other in the Lord.

Philippians 4:3 Yes, and I ask you, loyal yokefellow, help these women who have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Philippians 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

Philippians 4:5 Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.

Philippians 4:6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

Philippians 4:7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Philippians 4:9 Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it.

Philippians 4:11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.

Philippians 4:12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

Philippians 4:13 I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

Philippians 4:14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles.

Philippians 4:15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only;

Philippians 4:16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need.

Philippians 4:17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account.

Philippians 4:18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.

Philippians 4:19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20 To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4:21 Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send greetings.

Philippians 4:22 All the saints send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

Philippians 4:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Colossians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

Colossians 1:2 To the holy and faithful brothers in Christ at Colosse: Grace and peace to you from God our Father.

Colossians 1:3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you,

Colossians 1:4 because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints—

Colossians 1:5 the faith and love that spring from the hope that is stored up for you in heaven and that you have already heard about in the word of truth, the gospel

Colossians 1:6 that has come to you. All over the world this gospel is bearing fruit and growing, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and understood God's grace in all its truth.

Colossians 1:7 You learned it from Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf,

Colossians 1:8 and who also told us of your love in the Spirit.

Colossians 1:9 For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding.

Colossians 1:10 And we pray this in order that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God,

Colossians 1:11 being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully

Colossians 1:12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light.

Colossians 1:13 For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves,

Colossians 1:14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Colossians 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.

Colossians 1:16 For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him.

Colossians 1:17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

Colossians 1:18 And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy.

Colossians 1:19 For God was pleased to have all his fulness dwell in him,

Colossians 1:20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

Colossians 1:21 Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behaviour.

Colossians 1:22 But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation—

Colossians 1:23 if you continue in your faith, established and firm, not moved from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

Colossians 1:24 Now I rejoice in what was suffered for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions, for the sake of his body, which is the church.

Colossians 1:25 I have become its servant by the commission God gave me to present to you the word of God in its fulness—

Colossians 1:26 the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints.

Colossians 1:27 To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Colossians 1:28 We proclaim him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

Colossians 1:29 To this end I labour, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in me.

Colossians 2:1 I want you to know how much I am struggling for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not met me personally.

Colossians 2:2 My purpose is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ,

Colossians 2:3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Colossians 2:4 I tell you this so that no-one may deceive you by fine-sounding arguments.

Colossians 2:5 For though I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit and delight to see how orderly you are and how firm your faith in Christ is.

Colossians 2:6 So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him,

Colossians 2:7 rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

Colossians 2:8 See to it that no-one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ.

Colossians 2:9 For in Christ all the fulness of the Deity lives in bodily form,

Colossians 2:10 and you have been given fulness in Christ, who is the Head over every power and authority.

Colossians 2:11 In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature, not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by Christ,

Colossians 2:12 having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

Colossians 2:13 When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins,

Colossians 2:14 having cancelled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross.

Colossians 2:15 And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Colossians 2:16 Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day.

Colossians 2:17 These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

Colossians 2:18 Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you for the prize. Such a person goes into great detail about what he has seen, and his unspiritual mind puffs him up with idle notions.

Colossians 2:19 He has lost connection with the Head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.

Colossians 2:20 Since you died with Christ to the basic principles of this world, why, as though you still belonged to it, do you submit to its rules:

Colossians 2:21 “Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!”?

Colossians 2:22 These are all destined to perish with use, because they are based on human commands and teachings.

Colossians 2:23 Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence.

Colossians 3:1 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

Colossians 3:2 Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things.

Colossians 3:3 For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:4 When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5 Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry.

Colossians 3:6 Because of these, the wrath of God is coming.

Colossians 3:7 You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived.

Colossians 3:8 But now you must rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander and filthy language from your lips.

Colossians 3:9 Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices

Colossians 3:10 and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

Colossians 3:11 Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.

Colossians 3:12 Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Colossians 3:13 Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

Colossians 3:14 And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Colossians 3:15 Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

Colossians 3:17 And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:18 Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

Colossians 3:19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them.

Colossians 3:20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

Colossians 3:21 Fathers, do not embitter your children, or they will become discouraged.

Colossians 3:22 Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything; and do it, not only when their eye is on you and to win their favour, but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord.

Colossians 3:23 Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, Colossians 3:24 since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

Colossians 3:25 Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for his wrong, and there is no favouritism.

Colossians 4:1 Masters, provide your slaves with what is right and fair, because you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2 Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.

Colossians 4:3 And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains.

Colossians 4:4 Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should.

Colossians 4:5 Be wise in the way you act towards outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.

Colossians 4:6 Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Colossians 4:7 Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a dear brother, a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord.

Colossians 4:8 I am sending him to you for the express purpose that you may know about our circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts.

Colossians 4:9 He is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and dear brother, who is one of you. They will tell you everything that is happening here.

Colossians 4:10 My fellow-prisoner Aristarchus sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.)

Colossians 4:11 Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only Jews among my fellow-workers for the kingdom of God, and they have proved a comfort to me.

Colossians 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for you, that you may stand firm in all the will of God, mature and fully assured.

Colossians 4:13 I vouch for him that he is working hard for you and for those at Laodicea and Hierapolis.

Colossians 4:14 Our dear friend Luke, the doctor, and Demas send greetings.

Colossians 4:15 Give my greetings to the brothers at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house.

Colossians 4:16 After this letter has been read to you, see that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea.

Colossians 4:17 Tell Archippus: “See to it that you complete the work you have received in the Lord.”

Colossians 4:18 I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silas and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We always thank God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers.

1 Thessalonians 1:3 We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labour prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 1:4 For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you,

1 Thessalonians 1:5 because our gospel came to you not simply with words, but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord; in spite of severe suffering, you welcomed the message with the joy given by the Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 1:7 And so you became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia.

1 Thessalonians 1:8 The Lord’s message rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere. Therefore we do not need to say anything about it,

1 Thessalonians 1:9 for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God,

1 Thessalonians 1:10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

1 Thessalonians 2:1 You know, brothers, that our visit to you was not a failure.

1 Thessalonians 2:2 We had previously suffered and been insulted in Philippi, as you know, but with the help of our God we dared to tell you his gospel in spite of strong opposition.

1 Thessalonians 2:3 For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you.

1 Thessalonians 2:4 On the contrary, we speak as men approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please men but God, who tests our hearts.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover up greed—God is our witness.

1 Thessalonians 2:6 We were not looking for praise from men, not from you or anyone else. As apostles of Christ we could have been a burden to you,

1 Thessalonians 2:7 but we were gentle among you, like a mother caring for her little children.

1 Thessalonians 2:8 We loved you so much that we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well, because you had become so dear to us.

1 Thessalonians 2:9 Surely you remember, brothers, our toil and hardship; we worked night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone while we preached the gospel of God to you.

1 Thessalonians 2:10 You are witnesses, and so is God, of how holy, righteous and blameless we were among you who believed.

1 Thessalonians 2:11 For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children,

1 Thessalonians 2:12 encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy of God, who calls you into his kingdom and glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 And we also thank God continually because, when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it actually is, the word of God, which is at work in you who believe.

1 Thessalonians 2:14 For you, brothers, became imitators of God's churches in Judea, which are in Christ Jesus: You suffered from your own countrymen the same things those churches suffered from the Jews,

1 Thessalonians 2:15 who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and also drove us out. They displease God and are hostile to all men

1 Thessalonians 2:16 in their effort to keep us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. In this way they always heap up their sins to the limit. The wrath of God has come upon them at last.

1 Thessalonians 2:17 But, brothers, when we were torn away from you for a short time (in person, not in thought), out of our intense longing we made every effort to see you.

1 Thessalonians 2:18 For we wanted to come to you—certainly I, Paul, did, again and again—but Satan stopped us.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown in which we will glory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Is it not you?

1 Thessalonians 2:20 Indeed, you are our glory and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3:1 So when we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left by ourselves in Athens.

1 Thessalonians 3:2 We sent Timothy, who is our brother and God's fellow-worker in spreading the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith,

1 Thessalonians 3:3 so that no-one would be unsettled by these trials. You know quite well that we were destined for them.

1 Thessalonians 3:4 In fact, when we were with you, we kept telling you that we would be persecuted. And it turned out that way, as you well know.

1 Thessalonians 3:5 For this reason, when I could stand it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith. I was afraid that in some way the tempter might have tempted you and our efforts might have been useless.

1 Thessalonians 3:6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you and has brought good news about your faith and love. He has told us that you always have pleasant memories of us and that you long to see us, just as we also long to see you.

1 Thessalonians 3:7 Therefore, brothers, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:8 For now we really live, since you are standing firm in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 3:9 How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy we have in the presence of our God because of you?

1 Thessalonians 3:10 Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you again and supply what is lacking in your faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you.

1 Thessalonians 3:12 May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other and for everyone else, just as ours does for you.

1 Thessalonians 3:13 May he strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.

1 Thessalonians 4:1 Finally, brothers, we instructed you how to live in order to please God, as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more.

1 Thessalonians 4:2 For you know what instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:3 It is God’s will that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality;

1 Thessalonians 4:4 that each of you should learn to control his own body in a way that is holy and honourable,

1 Thessalonians 4:5 not in passionate lust like the heathen, who do not know God;

1 Thessalonians 4:6 and that in this matter no-one should wrong his brother or take advantage of him. The Lord will punish men for all such sins, as we have already told you and warned you.

1 Thessalonians 4:7 For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life.

1 Thessalonians 4:8 Therefore, he who rejects this instruction does not reject man but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 4:9 Now about brotherly love we do not need to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love each other.

1 Thessalonians 4:10 And in fact, you do love all the brothers throughout Macedonia. Yet we urge you, brothers, to do so more and more.

1 Thessalonians 4:11 Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business and to work with your hands, just as we told you,

1 Thessalonians 4:12 so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders and so that you will not be dependent on anybody.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:14 We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

1 Thessalonians 4:15 According to the Lord’s own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

1 Thessalonians 4:17 After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord for ever.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 Therefore encourage each other with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5:1 Now, brothers, about times and dates we do not need to write to you,

1 Thessalonians 5:2 for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 While people are saying, “Peace and safety”, destruction will come on them suddenly, as labour pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

1 Thessalonians 5:4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief.

1 Thessalonians 5:5 You are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness.

1 Thessalonians 5:6 So then, let us not be like others, who are asleep, but let us be alert and self-controlled.

1 Thessalonians 5:7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night.

1 Thessalonians 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be self-controlled, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet.

1 Thessalonians 5:9 For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:10 He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with him.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:12 Now we ask you, brothers, to respect those who work hard among you, who are over you in the Lord and who admonish you.

1 Thessalonians 5:13 Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 And we urge you, brothers, warn those who are idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone.

1 Thessalonians 5:15 Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Be joyful always;

1 Thessalonians 5:17 pray continually;

1 Thessalonians 5:18 give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 Do not put out the Spirit’s fire;

1 Thessalonians 5:20 do not treat prophecies with contempt.

1 Thessalonians 5:21 Test everything. Hold on to the good.

1 Thessalonians 5:22 Avoid every kind of evil.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:24 The one who calls you is faithful and he will do it.

1 Thessalonians 5:25 Brothers, pray for us.

1 Thessalonians 5:26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

1 Thessalonians 5:27 I charge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers.

1 Thessalonians 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silas and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Thessalonians 1:2 Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 We ought always to thank God for you, brothers, and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love every one of you has for each other is increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1:4 Therefore, among God's churches we boast about your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring.

2 Thessalonians 1:5 All this is evidence that God's judgment is right, and as a result you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering.

2 Thessalonians 1:6 God is just: He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you

2 Thessalonians 1:7 and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels.

2 Thessalonians 1:8 He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

2 Thessalonians 1:9 They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power

2 Thessalonians 1:10 on the day he comes to be glorified in his holy people and to be marvelled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.

2 Thessalonians 1:11 With this in mind, we constantly pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of his calling, and that by his power he may fulfil every good purpose of yours and every act prompted by your faith.

2 Thessalonians 1:12 We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:1 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers,

2 Thessalonians 2:2 not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for [that day will not come] until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction.

2 Thessalonians 2:4 He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshipped, so that he sets himself up in God’s temple, proclaiming himself to be God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5 Don’t you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things?

2 Thessalonians 2:6 And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way.

2 Thessalonians 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendour of his coming.

2 Thessalonians 2:9 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Satan displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders,

2 Thessalonians 2:10 and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie

2 Thessalonians 2:12 and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.

2 Thessalonians 2:13 But we ought always to thank God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because from the beginning God chose you to be saved through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:14 He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:15 So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the teachings we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope,

2 Thessalonians 2:17 encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word.

2 Thessalonians 3:1 Finally, brothers, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honoured, just as it was with you.

2 Thessalonians 3:2 And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men, for not everyone has faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3 But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.

2 Thessalonians 3:4 We have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command.

2 Thessalonians 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance.

2 Thessalonians 3:6 In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we command you, brothers, to keep away from every brother who is idle and does not live according to the teaching you received from us.

2 Thessalonians 3:7 For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example. We were not idle when we were with you,

2 Thessalonians 3:8 nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked night and day, labouring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:9 We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help, but in order to make ourselves a model for you to follow.

2 Thessalonians 3:10 For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: "If a man will not work, he shall not eat."

2 Thessalonians 3:11 We hear that some among you are idle. They are not busy; they are busybodies.

2 Thessalonians 3:12 Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and earn the bread they eat.

2 Thessalonians 3:13 And as for you, brothers, never tire of doing what is right.

2 Thessalonians 3:14 If anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take special note of him. Do not associate with him, in order that he may feel ashamed.

2 Thessalonians 3:15 Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

2 Thessalonians 3:16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:17 I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand, which is the distinguishing mark in all my letters. This is how I write.

2 Thessalonians 3:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Saviour and of Christ Jesus our hope,

1 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Timothy 1:3 As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain men not to teach false doctrines any longer

1 Timothy 1:4 nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. These promote controversies rather than God’s work—which is by faith.

1 Timothy 1:5 The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

1 Timothy 1:6 Some have wandered away from these and turned to meaningless talk.

1 Timothy 1:7 They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.

1 Timothy 1:8 We know that the law is good if one uses it properly.

1 Timothy 1:9 We also know that law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,

1 Timothy 1:10 for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine

1 Timothy 1:11 that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

1 Timothy 1:12 I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service.

1 Timothy 1:13 Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief.

1 Timothy 1:14 The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 1:15 Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst.

1 Timothy 1:16 But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his unlimited patience as an example for those who would believe on him and receive eternal life.

1 Timothy 1:17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 1:18 Timothy, my son, I give you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight,

1 Timothy 1:19 holding on to faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and so have shipwrecked their faith.

1 Timothy 1:20 Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 2:1 I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone—

1 Timothy 2:2 for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

1 Timothy 2:3 This is good, and pleases God our Saviour,

1 Timothy 2:4 who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

1 Timothy 2:6 who gave himself as a ransom for all men—the testimony given in its proper time.

1 Timothy 2:7 And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle— I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a teacher of the true faith to the Gentiles.

1 Timothy 2:8 I want men everywhere to lift up holy hands in prayer, without anger or disputing.

1 Timothy 2:9 I also want women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes,

1 Timothy 2:10 but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

1 Timothy 2:11 A woman should learn in quietness and full submission.

1 Timothy 2:12 I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she must be silent.

1 Timothy 2:13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.

1 Timothy 2:14 And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner.

1 Timothy 2:15 But women will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love and holiness with propriety.

1 Timothy 3:1 Here is a trustworthy saying: If anyone sets his heart on being an overseer, he desires a noble task.

1 Timothy 3:2 Now the overseer must be above reproach, the husband of but one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach,

1 Timothy 3:3 not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money.

1 Timothy 3:4 He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him with proper respect.

1 Timothy 3:5 (If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God's church?)

1 Timothy 3:6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same judgment as the devil.

1 Timothy 3:7 He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil's trap.

1 Timothy 3:8 Deacons, likewise, are to be men worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in much wine, and not pursuing dishonest gain.

1 Timothy 3:9 They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience.

1 Timothy 3:10 They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons.

1 Timothy 3:11 In the same way, their wives are to be women worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything.

1 Timothy 3:12 A deacon must be the husband of but one wife and must manage his children and his household well.

1 Timothy 3:13 Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 3:14 Although I hope to come to you soon, I am writing you these instructions so that,

1 Timothy 3:15 if I am delayed, you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

1 Timothy 3:16 Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great: He appeared in a body, was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4:1 The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons.

1 Timothy 4:2 Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron.

1 Timothy 4:3 They forbid people to marry and order them to abstain from certain foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and who know the truth.

1 Timothy 4:4 For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving,

1 Timothy 4:5 because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer.

1 Timothy 4:6 If you point these things out to the brothers, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, brought up in the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed.

1 Timothy 4:7 Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train yourself to be godly.

1 Timothy 4:8 For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

1 Timothy 4:9 This is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance

1 Timothy 4:10 (and for this we labour and strive), that we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, and especially of those who believe.

1 Timothy 4:11 Command and teach these things.

1 Timothy 4:12 Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity.

1 Timothy 4:13 Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching.

1 Timothy 4:14 Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through a prophetic message when the body of elders laid their hands on you.

1 Timothy 4:15 Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress.

1 Timothy 4:16 Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

1 Timothy 5:1 Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as brothers,

1 Timothy 5:2 older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.

1 Timothy 5:3 Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need.

1 Timothy 5:4 But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God.

1 Timothy 5:5 The widow who is really in need and left all alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and to ask God for help.

1 Timothy 5:6 But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives.

1 Timothy 5:7 Give the people these instructions, too, so that no-one may be open to blame.

1 Timothy 5:8 If anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for his immediate family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:9 No widow may be put on the list of widows unless she is over sixty, has been faithful to her husband,

1 Timothy 5:10 and is well known for her good deeds, such as bringing up children, showing hospitality, washing the feet of the saints, helping those in trouble and devoting herself to all kinds of good deeds.

1 Timothy 5:11 As for younger widows, do not put them on such a list. For when their sensual desires overcome their dedication to Christ, they want to marry.

1 Timothy 5:12 Thus they bring judgment on themselves, because they have broken their first pledge.

1 Timothy 5:13 Besides, they get into the habit of being idle and going about from house to house. And not only do they become idlers, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things they ought not to.

1 Timothy 5:14 So I counsel younger widows to marry, to have children, to manage their homes and to give the enemy no opportunity for slander.

1 Timothy 5:15 Some have in fact already turned away to follow Satan.

1 Timothy 5:16 If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, she should help them and not let the church be burdened with them, so that the church can help those widows who are really in need.

1 Timothy 5:17 The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honour, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching.

1 Timothy 5:18 For the Scripture says, “Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain,” and “The worker deserves his wages.”

1 Timothy 5:19 Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or three witnesses.

1 Timothy 5:20 Those who sin are to be rebuked publicly, so that the others may take warning.

1 Timothy 5:21 I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, to keep these instructions without partiality, and to do nothing out of favouritism.

1 Timothy 5:22 Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, and do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

1 Timothy 5:23 Stop drinking only water, and use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

1 Timothy 5:24 The sins of some men are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them.

1 Timothy 5:25 In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not cannot be hidden.

1 Timothy 6:1 All who are under the yoke of slavery should consider their masters worthy of full respect, so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered.

1 Timothy 6:2 Those who have believing masters are not to show less respect for them because they are brothers. Instead, they are to serve them even better, because those who benefit from their service are believers, and dear to them. These are the things you are to teach and urge on them.

1 Timothy 6:3 If anyone teaches false doctrines and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching,

1 Timothy 6:4 he is conceited and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions

1 Timothy 6:5 and constant friction between men of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain.

1 Timothy 6:6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

1 Timothy 6:7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it.

1 Timothy 6:8 But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that.

1 Timothy 6:9 People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction.

1 Timothy 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

1 Timothy 6:11 But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness.

1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:13 In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and of Christ Jesus, who while testifying before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you

1 Timothy 6:14 to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Timothy 6:15 which God will bring about in his own time—God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

1 Timothy 6:16 who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no-one has seen or can see. To him be honour and might for ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 6:17 Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.

1 Timothy 6:18 Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share.

1 Timothy 6:19 In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

1 Timothy 6:20 Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to your care. Turn away from godless chatter and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge,

1 Timothy 6:21 which some have professed and in so doing have wandered from the faith. Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

2 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my dear son: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:3 I thank God, whom I serve, as my forefathers did, with a clear conscience, as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers.

2 Timothy 1:4 Recalling your tears, I long to see you, so that I may be filled with joy.

2 Timothy 1:5 I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.

2 Timothy 1:6 For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

2 Timothy 1:7 For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power, of love and of self-discipline.

2 Timothy 1:8 So do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord, or ashamed of me his prisoner. But join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God,

2 Timothy 1:9 who has saved us and called us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time,

2 Timothy 1:10 but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

2 Timothy 1:11 And of this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher.

2 Timothy 1:12 That is why I am suffering as I am. Yet I am not ashamed, because I know whom I have believed, and am convinced that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him for that day.

2 Timothy 1:13 What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 1:14 Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

2 Timothy 1:15 You know that everyone in the province of Asia has deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2 Timothy 1:16 May the Lord show mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains.

2 Timothy 1:17 On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he searched hard for me until he found me.

2 Timothy 1:18 May the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! You know very well in how many ways he helped me in Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2:1 You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:2 And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others.

2 Timothy 2:3 Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:4 No-one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs—he wants to please his commanding officer.

2 Timothy 2:5 Similarly, if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not receive the victor’s crown unless he competes according to the rules.

2 Timothy 2:6 The hardworking farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops.

2 Timothy 2:7 Reflect on what I am saying, for the Lord will give you insight into all this.

2 Timothy 2:8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, descended from David. This is my gospel,

2 Timothy 2:9 for which I am suffering even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But God’s word is not chained.

2 Timothy 2:10 Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:11 Here is a trustworthy saying: If we died with him, we will also live with him;

2 Timothy 2:12 if we endure, we will also reign with him. If we disown him, he will also disown us;

2 Timothy 2:13 if we are faithless, he will remain faithful, for he cannot disown himself.

2 Timothy 2:14 Keep reminding them of these things. Warn them before God against quarrelling about words; it is of no value, and only ruins those who listen.

2 Timothy 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.

2 Timothy 2:16 Avoid godless chatter, because those who indulge in it will become more and more ungodly.

2 Timothy 2:17 Their teaching will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus,

2 Timothy 2:18 who have wandered away from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some.

2 Timothy 2:19 Nevertheless, God’s solid foundation stands firm, sealed with this inscription: “The Lord knows those who are his,” and, “Everyone who confesses the name of the Lord must turn away from wickedness.”

2 Timothy 2:20 In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some for ignoble.

2 Timothy 2:21 If a man cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work.

2 Timothy 2:22 Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

2 Timothy 2:23 Don’t have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels.

2 Timothy 2:24 And the Lord’s servant must not quarrel; instead, he must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful.

2 Timothy 2:25 Those who oppose him he must gently instruct, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth,

2 Timothy 2:26 and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will.

2 Timothy 3:1 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days.

2 Timothy 3:2 People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy,

2 Timothy 3:3 without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good,

2 Timothy 3:4 treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—

2 Timothy 3:5 having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.

2 Timothy 3:6 They are the kind who worm their way into homes and gain control over weak-willed women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires,

2 Timothy 3:7 always learning but never able to acknowledge the truth.

2 Timothy 3:8 Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these men oppose the truth—men of depraved minds, who, as far as the faith is concerned, are rejected.

2 Timothy 3:9 But they will not get very far because, as in the case of those men, their folly will be clear to everyone.

2 Timothy 3:10 You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance,

2 Timothy 3:11 persecutions, sufferings—what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured. Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them.

2 Timothy 3:12 In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted,

2 Timothy 3:13 while evil men and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

2 Timothy 3:14 But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it,

2 Timothy 3:15 and how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:16 All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness,

2 Timothy 3:17 so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 4:1 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge:

2 Timothy 4:2 Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction.

2 Timothy 4:3 For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear.

2 Timothy 4:4 They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.

2 Timothy 4:5 But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry.

2 Timothy 4:6 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure.

2 Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

2 Timothy 4:8 Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

2 Timothy 4:9 Do your best to come to me quickly,

2 Timothy 4:10 for Demas, because he loved this world, has deserted me and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, andTitus to Dalmatia.

2 Timothy 4:11 OnlyLuke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is helpful to me in my ministry.

2 Timothy 4:12 I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

2 Timothy 4:13 When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, and my scrolls, especially the parchments.

2 Timothy 4:14 Alexander the metalworker did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will repay him for what he has done.

2 Timothy 4:15 You too should be on your guard against him, because he strongly opposed our message.

2 Timothy 4:16 At my first defence, no-one came to my support, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them.

2 Timothy 4:17 But the Lord stood at my side and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was delivered from the lion’s mouth.

2 Timothy 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

2 Timothy 4:19 Greet Priscilla and Aquila and the household of Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 4:20 Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus.

2 Timothy 4:21 Do your best to get here before winter. Eubulus greets you, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers.

2 Timothy 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1:1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the faith of God’s elect and the knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness—

Titus 1:2 a faith and knowledge resting on the hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before the beginning of time,

Titus 1:3 and at his appointed season he brought his word to light through the preaching entrusted to me by the command of God our Saviour,

Titus 1:4 To Titus, my true son in our common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

Titus 1:5 The reason I left you in Crete was that you might straighten out what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you.

Titus 1:6 An elder must be blameless, the husband of but one wife, a man whose children believe and are not open to the charge of being wild and disobedient.

Titus 1:7 Since an overseer is entrusted with God’s work, he must be blameless—not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain.

Titus 1:8 Rather he must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined.

Titus 1:9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it.

Titus 1:10 For there are many rebellious people, mere talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group.

Titus 1:11 They must be silenced, because they are ruining whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach—and that for the sake of dishonest gain.

Titus 1:12 Even one of their own prophets has said, “Cretans are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons.”

Titus 1:13 This testimony is true. Therefore, rebuke them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith

Titus 1:14 and will pay no attention to Jewish myths or to the commands of those who reject the truth.

Titus 1:15 To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are corrupted and do not believe, nothing is pure. In fact, both their minds and consciences are corrupted.

Titus 1:16 They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him. They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good.

Titus 2:1 You must teach what is in accord with sound doctrine.

Titus 2:2 Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in love and in endurance.

Titus 2:3 Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine, but to teach what is good.

Titus 2:4 Then they can train the younger women to love their husbands and children,

Titus 2:5 to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands, so that no-one will malign the word of God.

Titus 2:6 Similarly, encourage the young men to be self-controlled.

Titus 2:7 In everything set them an example by doing what is good. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness

Titus 2:8 and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.

Titus 2:9 Teach slaves to be subject to their masters in everything, to try to please them, not to talk back to them,

Titus 2:10 and not to steal from them, but to show that they can be fully trusted, so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Saviour attractive.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men.

Titus 2:12 It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, Titus 2:13 while we wait for the blessed hope—the glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ,

Titus 2:14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.

Titus 2:15 These, then, are the things you should teach. Encourage and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you.

Titus 3:1 Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to do whatever is good,

Titus 3:2 to slander no-one, to be peaceable and considerate, and to show true humility towards all men.

Titus 3:3 At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another.

Titus 3:4 But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour appeared,

Titus 3:5 he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit,

Titus 3:6 whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Saviour,

Titus 3:7 so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

Titus 3:8 This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

Titus 3:9 But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and arguments and quarrels about the law, because these are unprofitable and useless.

Titus 3:10 Warn a divisive person once, and then warn him a second time. After that, have nothing to do with him.

Titus 3:11 You may be sure that such a man is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned.

Titus 3:12 As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to winter there.

Titus 3:13 Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way and see that they have everything they need.

Titus 3:14 Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is good, in order that they may provide for daily necessities and not live unproductive lives.

Titus 3:15 Everyone with me sends you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

1:1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and fellow-worker,

Philemon 1:2 to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier and to the church that meets in your home:

Philemon 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon 1:4 I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers,

Philemon 1:5 because I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints.

Philemon 1:6 I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ.

Philemon 1:7 Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.

Philemon 1:8 Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do,

Philemon 1:9 yet I appeal to you on the basis of love. I then, as Paul— an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus—

Philemon 1:10 I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, who became my son while I was in chains.

Philemon 1:11 Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

Philemon 1:12 I am sending him—who is my very heart—back to you.

Philemon 1:13 I would have liked to keep him with me so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel.

Philemon 1:14 But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favour you do will be spontaneous and not forced.

Philemon 1:15 Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back for good—

Philemon 1:16 no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a dear brother. He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

Philemon 1:17 So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

Philemon 1:18 If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me.

Philemon 1:19 I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay it back—not to mention that you owe me your very self.

Philemon 1:20 I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

Philemon 1:21 Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

Philemon 1:22 And one thing more: Prepare a guest room for me, because I hope to be restored to you in answer to your prayers.

Philemon 1:23 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you greetings.

Philemon 1:24 And so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke, my fellow-workers.

Philemon 1:25 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hebrews

1:1 In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways,

Hebrews 1:2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe.

Hebrews 1:3 The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

Hebrews 1:4 So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.

Hebrews 1:5 For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father”? Or again, “I will be his Father, and he will be my Son”?

Hebrews 1:6 And again, when God brings his firstborn into the world, he says, “Let all God’s angels worship him.”

Hebrews 1:7 In speaking of the angels he says, “He makes his angels winds, his servants flames of fire.”

Hebrews 1:8 But about the Son he says, “Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever, and righteousness will be the sceptre of your kingdom.

Hebrews 1:9 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions by anointing you with the oil of joy.”

Hebrews 1:10 He also says, “In the beginning, O Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

Hebrews 1:11 They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment.

Hebrews 1:12 You will roll them up like a robe; like a garment they will be changed. But you remain the same, and your years will never end.”

Hebrews 1:13 To which of the angels did God ever say, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”?

Hebrews 1:14 Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?

Hebrews 2:1 We must pay more careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.

Hebrews 2:2 For if the message spoken by angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment,

Hebrews 2:3 how shall we escape if we ignore such a great salvation? This salvation, which was first announced by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard him.

Hebrews 2:4 God also testified to it by signs, wonders and various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.

Hebrews 2:5 It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking.

Hebrews 2:6 But there is a place where someone has testified: “What is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?

Hebrews 2:7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honour

Hebrews 2:8 and put everything under his feet.” In putting everything under him, God left nothing that is not subject to him. Yet at present we do not see everything subject to him.

Hebrews 2:9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because he suffered death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

Hebrews 2:10 In bringing many sons to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering.

Hebrews 2:11 Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers.

Hebrews 2:12 He says, “I will declare your name to my brothers; in the presence of the congregation I will sing your praises.”

Hebrews 2:13 And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again he says, “Here am I, and the children God has given me.”

Hebrews 2:14 Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—

Hebrews 2:15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

Hebrews 2:16 For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham’s descendants.

Hebrews 2:17 For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 2:18 Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Hebrews 3:1 Therefore, holy brothers, who share in the heavenly calling, fix your thoughts on Jesus, the apostle and high priest whom we confess.

Hebrews 3:2 He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was faithful in all God’s house.

Hebrews 3:3 Jesus has been found worthy of greater honour than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honour than the house itself.

Hebrews 3:4 For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything.

Hebrews 3:5 Moses was faithful as a servant in all God’s house, testifying to what would be said in the future.

Hebrews 3:6 But Christ is faithful as a son over God’s house. And we are his house, if we hold on to our courage and the hope of which we boast.

Hebrews 3:7 So, as the Holy Spirit says: “Today, if you hear his voice,

Hebrews 3:8 do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion, during the time of testing in the desert,

Hebrews 3:9 where your fathers tested and tried me and for forty years saw what I did.

Hebrews 3:10 That is why I was angry with that generation, and I said,`Their hearts are always going astray, and they have not known my ways.’

Hebrews 3:11 So I declared on oath in my anger,`They shall never enter my rest.’“

Hebrews 3:12 See to it, brothers, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

Hebrews 3:13 But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin’s deceitfulness.

Hebrews 3:14 We have come to share in Christ if we hold firmly till the end the confidence we had at first.

Hebrews 3:15 As has just been said: “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion.”

Hebrews 3:16 Who were they who heard and rebelled? Were they not all those Moses led out of Egypt?

Hebrews 3:17 And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert?

Hebrews 3:18 And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest if not to those who disobeyed?

Hebrews 3:19 So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.

Hebrews 4:1 Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it.

Hebrews 4:2 For we also have had the gospel preached to us, just as they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them, because those who heard did not combine it with faith.

Hebrews 4:3 Now we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said, “So I declared on oath in my anger,`They shall never enter my rest.’“ And yet his work has been finished since the creation of the world.

Hebrews 4:4 For somewhere he has spoken about the seventh day in these words: “And on the seventh day God rested from all his work.”

Hebrews 4:5 And again in the passage above he says, “They shall never enter my rest.”

Hebrews 4:6 It still remains that some will enter that rest, and those who formerly had the gospel preached to them did not go in, because of their disobedience.

Hebrews 4:7 Therefore God again set a certain day, calling it Today, when a long time later he spoke through David, as was said before: “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”

Hebrews 4:8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day.

Hebrews 4:9 There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God;

Hebrews 4:10 for anyone who enters God’s rest also rests from his own work, just as God did from his.

Hebrews 4:11 Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no-one will fall by following their example of disobedience.

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

Hebrews 4:13 Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

Hebrews 4:14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess.

Hebrews 4:15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathise with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin.

Hebrews 4:16 Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Hebrews 5:1 Every high priest is selected from among men and is appointed to represent them in matters related to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Hebrews 5:2 He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray, since he himself is subject to weakness.

Hebrews 5:3 This is why he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 5:4 No-one takes this honour upon himself; he must be called by God, just as Aaron was.

Hebrews 5:5 So Christ also did not take upon himself the glory of becoming a high priest. But God said to him, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father.”

Hebrews 5:6 And he says in another place, “You are a priest for ever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

Hebrews 5:7 During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

Hebrews 5:8 Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered

Hebrews 5:9 and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him

Hebrews 5:10 and was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:11 We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.

Hebrews 5:12 In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food!

Hebrews 5:13 Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness.

Hebrews 5:14 But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.

Hebrews 6:1 Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death, and of faith in God,

Hebrews 6:2 instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

Hebrews 6:3 And God permitting, we will do so.

Hebrews 6:4 It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit,

Hebrews 6:5 who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age,

Hebrews 6:6 if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.

Hebrews 6:7 Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God.

Hebrews 6:8 But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned.

Hebrews 6:9 Even though we speak like this, dear friends, we are confident of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation.

Hebrews 6:10 God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.

Hebrews 6:11 We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, in order to make your hope sure.

Hebrews 6:12 We do not want you to become lazy, but to imitate those who through faith and patience inherit what has been promised.

Hebrews 6:13 When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no-one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself,

Hebrews 6:14 saying, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants."

Hebrews 6:15 And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.

Hebrews 6:16 Men swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument.

Hebrews 6:17 Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath.

Hebrews 6:18 God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged.

Hebrews 6:19 We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain,

Hebrews 6:20 where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest for ever, in the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:1 This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him,

Hebrews 7:2 and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means “king of righteousness”; then also, “king of Salem” means “king of peace”.

Hebrews 7:3 Without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God he remains a priest for ever.

Hebrews 7:4 Just think how great he was: Even the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth of the plunder!

Hebrews 7:5 Now the law requires the descendants of Levi who become priests to collect a tenth from the people—that is, their brothers—even though their brothers are descended from Abraham.

Hebrews 7:6 This man, however, did not trace his descent from Levi, yet he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises.

Hebrews 7:7 And without doubt the lesser person is blessed by the greater.

Hebrews 7:8 In the one case, the tenth is collected by men who die; but in the other case, by him who is declared to be living.

Hebrews 7:9 One might even say that Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham,

Hebrews 7:10 because when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the body of his ancestor.

Hebrews 7:11 If perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the law was given to the people), why was there still need for another priest to come—one in the order of Melchizedek, not in the order of Aaron?

Hebrews 7:12 For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law.

Hebrews 7:13 He of whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe, and no-one from that tribe has ever served at the altar.

Hebrews 7:14 For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah, and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

Hebrews 7:15 And what we have said is even more clear if another priest like Melchizedek appears,

Hebrews 7:16 one who has become a priest not on the basis of a regulation as to his ancestry but on the basis of the power of an indestructible life.

Hebrews 7:17 For it is declared: “You are a priest for ever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

Hebrews 7:18 The former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless

Hebrews 7:19 (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.

Hebrews 7:20 And it was not without an oath! Others became priests without any oath,

Hebrews 7:21 but he became a priest with an oath when God said to him: “The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind:`You are a priest for ever.’“

Hebrews 7:22 Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

Hebrews 7:23 Now there have been many of those priests, since death prevented them from continuing in office;

Hebrews 7:24 but because Jesus lives for ever, he has a permanent priesthood.

Hebrews 7:25 Therefore he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.

Hebrews 7:26 Such a high priest meets our need—one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens.

Hebrews 7:27 Unlike the other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. He sacrificed for their sins once for all when he offered himself.

Hebrews 7:28 For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak; but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect for ever.

Hebrews 8:1 The point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, Hebrews 8:2 and who serves in the sanctuary, the true tabernacle set up by the Lord, not by man.

Hebrews 8:3 Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, and so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer.

Hebrews 8:4 If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, for there are already men who offer the gifts prescribed by the law.

Hebrews 8:5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: “See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.”

Hebrews 8:6 But the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which he is mediator is superior to the old one, and it is founded on better promises.

Hebrews 8:7 For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another.

Hebrews 8:8 But God found fault with the people and said: “The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

Hebrews 8:9 It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they did not remain faithful to my covenant, and I turned away from them, declares the Lord.

Hebrews 8:10 This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Hebrews 8:11 No longer will a man teach his neighbour, or a man his brother, saying,`Know the Lord,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

Hebrews 8:12 For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

Hebrews 8:13 By calling this covenant “new”, he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and ageing will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9:1 Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary.

Hebrews 9:2 A tabernacle was set up. In its first room were the lampstand, the table and the consecrated bread; this was called the Holy Place.

Hebrews 9:3 Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place, Hebrews 9:4 which had the golden altar of incense and the gold-covered ark of the covenant. This ark contained the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that had budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant.

Hebrews 9:5 Above the ark were the cherubim of the Glory, overshadowing the atonement cover. But we cannot discuss these things in detail now.

Hebrews 9:6 When everything had been arranged like this, the priests entered regularly into the outer room to carry on their ministry.

Hebrews 9:7 But only the high priest entered the inner room, and that only once a year, and never without blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.

Hebrews 9:8 The Holy Spirit was showing by this that the way into the Most Holy Place had not yet been disclosed as long as the first tabernacle was still standing.

Hebrews 9:9 This is an illustration for the present time, indicating that the gifts and sacrifices being offered were not able to clear the conscience of the worshipper.

Hebrews 9:10 They are only a matter of food and drink and various ceremonial washings—external regulations applying until the time of the new order.

Hebrews 9:11 When Christ came as high priest of the good things that are already here, he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not man-made, that is to say, not a part of this creation.

Hebrews 9:12 He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves; but he entered the Most Holy Place once for all by his own blood, having obtained eternal redemption.

Hebrews 9:13 The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean.

Hebrews 9:14 How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!

Hebrews 9:15 For this reason Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance—now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant.

Hebrews 9:16 In the case of a will, it is necessary to prove the death of the one who made it,

Hebrews 9:17 because a will is in force only when somebody has died; it never takes effect while the one who made it is living.

Hebrews 9:18 This is why even the first covenant was not put into effect without blood.

Hebrews 9:19 When Moses had proclaimed every commandment of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves, together with water, scarlet wool and branches of hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people.

Hebrews 9:20 He said, “This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to keep.”

Hebrews 9:21 In the same way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and everything used in its ceremonies.

Hebrews 9:22 In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Hebrews 9:23 It was necessary, then, for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

Hebrews 9:24 For Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary that was only a copy of the true one; he entered heaven itself, now to appear for us in God’s presence.

Hebrews 9:25 Nor did he enter heaven to offer himself again and again, the way the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own.

Hebrews 9:26 Then Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world. But now he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Hebrews 9:27 Just as man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment,

Hebrews 9:28 so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Hebrews 10:1 The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming— not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship.

Hebrews 10:2 If it could, would they not have stopped being offered? For the worshippers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt guilty for their sins.

Hebrews 10:3 But those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins,

Hebrews 10:4 because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Hebrews 10:5 Therefore, when Christ came into the world, he said: “Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me;

Hebrews 10:6 with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased.

Hebrews 10:7 Then I said,`Here I am—it is written about me in the scroll—I have come to do your will, O God.’“

Hebrews 10:8 First he said, “Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor were you pleased with them” (although the law required them to be made).

Hebrews 10:9 Then he said, “Here I am, I have come to do your will.” He sets aside the first to establish the second.

Hebrews 10:10 And by that will, we have been made holy through the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Hebrews 10:11 Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

Hebrews 10:12 But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God.

Hebrews 10:13 Since that time he waits for his enemies to be made his footstool,

Hebrews 10:14 because by one sacrifice he has made perfect for ever those who are being made holy.

Hebrews 10:15 The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First he says:

Hebrews 10:16 “This is the covenant I will make with them after that time, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds.”

Hebrews 10:17 Then he adds: “Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more.”

Hebrews 10:18 And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

Hebrews 10:19 Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus,

Hebrews 10:20 by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body,

Hebrews 10:21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

Hebrews 10:22 let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water.

Hebrews 10:23 Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful.

Hebrews 10:24 And let us consider how we may spur one another on towards love and good deeds.

Hebrews 10:25 Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 10:26 If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left,

Hebrews 10:27 but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God.

Hebrews 10:28 Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Hebrews 10:29 How much more severely do you think a man deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace?

Hebrews 10:30 For we know him who said, “It is mine to avenge; I will repay,” and again, “The Lord will judge his people.”

Hebrews 10:31 It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Hebrews 10:32 Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you stood your ground in a great contest in the face of suffering.

Hebrews 10:33 Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated.

Hebrews 10:34 You sympathised with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.

Hebrews 10:35 So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded.

Hebrews 10:36 You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised.

Hebrews 10:37 For in just a very little while, “He who is coming will come and will not delay.

Hebrews 10:38 But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.”

Hebrews 10:39 But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who believe and are saved.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.

Hebrews 11:2 This is what the ancients were commended for.

Hebrews 11:3 By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God’s command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

Hebrews 11:4 By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended as a righteous man, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.

Hebrews 11:5 By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death; he could not be found, because God had taken him away. For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God.

Hebrews 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

Hebrews 11:7 By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

Hebrews 11:8 By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.

Hebrews 11:9 By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

Hebrews 11:10 For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Hebrews 11:11 By faith Abraham, even though he was past age—and Sarah herself was barren—was enabled to become a father because he considered him faithful who had made the promise.

Hebrews 11:12 And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

Hebrews 11:13 All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance. And they admitted that they were aliens and strangers on earth.

Hebrews 11:14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own.

Hebrews 11:15 If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return.

Hebrews 11:16 Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

Hebrews 11:17 By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had received the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son,

Hebrews 11:18 even though God had said to him, “It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.”

Hebrews 11:19 Abraham reasoned that God could raise the dead, and figuratively speaking, he did receive Isaac back from death.

Hebrews 11:20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to their future.

Hebrews 11:21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph’s sons, and worshipped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

Hebrews 11:22 By faith Joseph, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt and gave instructions about his bones.

Hebrews 11:23 By faith Moses’ parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king’s edict.

Hebrews 11:24 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh’s daughter.

Hebrews 11:25 He chose to be ill-treated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time.

Hebrews 11:26 He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.

Hebrews 11:27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king’s anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible.

Hebrews 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

Hebrews 11:29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.

Hebrews 11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days.

Hebrews 11:31 By faith the prostitute Rahab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient.

Hebrews 11:32 And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel and the prophets,

Hebrews 11:33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions, Hebrews 11:34 quenched the fury of the flames, and escaped the edge of the sword; whose weakness was turned to strength; and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies.

Hebrews 11:35 Women received back their dead, raised to life again. Others were tortured and refused to be released, so that they might gain a better resurrection.

Hebrews 11:36 Some faced jeers and flogging, while still others were chained and put in prison.

Hebrews 11:37 They were stoned; they were sawn in two; they were put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and ill-treated—

Hebrews 11:38 the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

Hebrews 11:39 These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised.

Hebrews 11:40 God had planned something better for us so that only together with us would they be made perfect.

Hebrews 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

Hebrews 12:2 Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:3 Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

Hebrews 12:4 In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

Hebrews 12:5 And you have forgotten that word of encouragement that addresses you as sons: “My son, do not make light of the Lord’s discipline, and do not lose heart when he rebukes you,

Hebrews 12:6 because the Lord disciplines those he loves, and he punishes everyone he accepts as a son.”

Hebrews 12:7 Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as sons. For what son is not disciplined by his father?

Hebrews 12:8 If you are not disciplined (and everyone undergoes discipline), then you are illegitimate children and not true sons.

Hebrews 12:9 Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live!

Hebrews 12:10 Our fathers disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, that we may share in his holiness.

Hebrews 12:11 No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.

Hebrews 12:12 Therefore, strengthen your feeble arms and weak knees!

Hebrews 12:13 “Make level paths for your feet,” so that the lame may not be disabled, but rather healed.

Hebrews 12:14 Make every effort to live in peace with all men and to be holy; without holiness no-one will see the Lord.

Hebrews 12:15 See to it that no-one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many.

Hebrews 12:16 See that no-one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son.

Hebrews 12:17 Afterwards, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. He could bring about no change of mind, though he sought the blessing with tears.

Hebrews 12:18 You have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire; to darkness, gloom and storm;

Hebrews 12:19 to a trumpet blast or to such a voice speaking words that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them,

Hebrews 12:20 because they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned.”

Hebrews 12:21 The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, “I am trembling with fear.”

Hebrews 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly,

Hebrews 12:23 to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all men, to the spirits of righteous men made perfect,

Hebrews 12:24 to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Hebrews 12:25 See to it that you do not refuse him who speaks. If they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, how much less will we, if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven?

Hebrews 12:26 At that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, “Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens.”

Hebrews 12:27 The words “once more” indicate the removing of what can be shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Hebrews 12:28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe,

Hebrews 12:29 for our “God is a consuming fire.”

Hebrews 13:1 Keep on loving each other as brothers.

Hebrews 13:2 Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:3 Remember those in prison as if you were their fellow-prisoners, and those who are ill-treated as if you yourselves were suffering.

Hebrews 13:4 Marriage should be honoured by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral.

Hebrews 13:5 Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, “Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.”

Hebrews 13:6 So we say with confidence, “The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?”

Hebrews 13:7 Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith.

Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

Hebrews 13:9 Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings. It is good for our hearts to be strengthened by grace, not by ceremonial foods, which are of no value to those who eat them.

Hebrews 13:10 We have an altar from which those who minister at the tabernacle have no right to eat.

Hebrews 13:11 The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place as a sin offering, but the bodies are burned outside the camp.

Hebrews 13:12 And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through his own blood.

Hebrews 13:13 Let us, then, go to him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore.

Hebrews 13:14 For here we do not have an enduring city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

Hebrews 13:15 Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that confess his name.

Hebrews 13:16 And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

Hebrews 13:17 Obey your leaders and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you as men who must give an account. Obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no advantage to you.

Hebrews 13:18 Pray for us. We are sure that we have a clear conscience and desire to live honourably in every way.

Hebrews 13:19 I particularly urge you to pray so that I may be restored to you soon.

Hebrews 13:20 May the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep,

Hebrews 13:21 equip you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Hebrews 13:22 Brothers, I urge you to bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written you only a short letter.

Hebrews 13:23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he arrives soon, I will come with him to see you.

Hebrews 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all God’s people. Those from Italy send you their greetings.

Hebrews 13:25 Grace be with you all.

James

1:1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes scattered among the nations: Greetings.

James 1:2 Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds,

James 1:3 because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance.

James 1:4 Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him.

James 1:6 But when he asks, he must believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind.

James 1:7 That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord;

James 1:8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all he does.

James 1:9 The brother in humble circumstances ought to take pride in his high position.

James 1:10 But the one who is rich should take pride in his low position, because he will pass away like a wild flower.

James 1:11 For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way, the rich man will fade away even while he goes about his business.

James 1:12 Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.

James 1:13 When tempted, no-one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone;

James 1:14 but each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed.

James 1:15 Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.

James 1:16 Don’t be deceived, my dear brothers.

James 1:17 Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.

James 1:18 He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all he created.

James 1:19 My dear brothers, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry,

James 1:20 for man’s anger does not bring about the righteous life that God desires.

James 1:21 Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent, and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

James 1:22 Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.

James 1:23 Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror

James 1:24 and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.

James 1:25 But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it—he will be blessed in what he does.

James 1:26 If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue, he deceives himself and his religion is worthless.

James 1:27 Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

James 2:1 My brothers, as believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ, don't show favouritism.

James 2:2 Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in shabby clothes also comes in.

James 2:3 If you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say, "Here's a good seat for you," but say to the poor man, "You stand there" or "Sit on the floor by my feet,"

James 2:4 have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

James 2:5 Listen, my dear brothers: Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him?

James 2:6 But you have insulted the poor. Is it not the rich who are exploiting you? Are they not the ones who are dragging you into court?

James 2:7 Are they not the ones who are slandering the noble name of him to whom you belong?

James 2:8 If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbour as yourself," you are doing right.

James 2:9 But if you show favouritism, you sin and are convicted by the law as law-breakers.

James 2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it.

James 2:11 For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a law-breaker.

James 2:12 Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom,

James 2:13 because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment!

James 2:14 What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him?

James 2:15 Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food.

James 2:16 If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it?

James 2:17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

James 2:18 But someone will say, “You have faith; I have deeds.” Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do.

James 2:19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

James 2:20 You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless?

James 2:21 Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?

James 2:22 You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did.

James 2:23 And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend.

James 2:24 You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

James 2:25 In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction?

James 2:26 As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

James 3:1 Not many of you should presume to be teachers, my brothers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly.

James 3:2 We all stumble in many ways. If anyone is never at fault in what he says, he is a perfect man, able to keep his whole body in check.

James 3:3 When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal.

James 3:4 Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go.

James 3:5 Likewise the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark.

James 3:6 The tongue also is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the whole course of his life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.

James 3:7 All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man,

James 3:8 but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

James 3:9 With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God’s likeness.

James 3:10 Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, this should not be.

James 3:11 Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring?

James 3:12 My brothers, can a fig-tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

James 3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it by his good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom.

James 3:14 But if you harbour bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth.

James 3:15 Such “wisdom” does not come down from heaven but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil.

James 3:16 For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

James 3:17 But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.

James 3:18 Peacemakers who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness.

James 4:1 What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don’t they come from your desires that battle within you?

James 4:2 You want something but don’t get it. You kill and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have, because you do not ask God.

James 4:3 When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

James 4:4 You adulterous people, don’t you know that friendship with the world is hatred towards God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:5 Or do you think Scripture says without reason that the spirit he caused to live in us envies intensely?

James 4:6 But he gives us more grace. That is why Scripture says: “God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

James 4:7 Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

James 4:8 Come near to God and he will come near to you. Wash your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

James 4:9 Grieve, mourn and wail. Change your laughter to mourning and your joy to gloom.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

James 4:11 Brothers, do not slander one another. Anyone who speaks against his brother or judges him speaks against the law and judges it. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it, but sitting in judgment on it.

James 4:12 There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy. But you—who are you to judge your neighbour?

James 4:13 Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money."

James 4:14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

James 4:15 Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that."

James 4:16 As it is, you boast and brag. All such boasting is evil.

James 4:17 Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins.

James 5:1 Now listen, you rich people, weep and wail because of the misery that is coming upon you.

James 5:2 Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes.

James 5:3 Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days.

James 5:4 Look! The wages you failed to pay the workmen who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty.

James 5:5 You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselves in the day of slaughter.

James 5:6 You have condemned and murdered innocent men, who were not opposing you.

James 5:7 Be patient, then, brothers, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop and how patient he is for the autumn and spring rains.

James 5:8 You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near.

James 5:9 Don't grumble against each other, brothers, or you will be judged. The Judge is standing at the door!

James 5:10 Brothers, as an example of patience in the face of suffering, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

James 5:11 As you know, we consider blessed those who have persevered. You have heard of Job’s perseverance and have seen what the Lord finally brought about. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

James 5:12 Above all, my brothers, do not swear—not by heaven or by earth or by anything else. Let your “Yes” be yes, and your “No”, no, or you will be condemned.

James 5:13 Is any one of you in trouble? He should pray. Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise.

James 5:14 Is any one of you sick? He should call the elders of the church to pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord.

James 5:15 And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise him up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven.

James 5:16 Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.

James 5:17 Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years.

James 5:18 Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.

James 5:19 My brothers, if one of you should wander from the truth and someone should bring him back,

James 5:20 remember this: Whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save him from death and cover over a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To God’s elect, strangers in the world, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

1 Peter 1:2 who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by his blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

1 Peter 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1 Peter 1:4 and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade— kept in heaven for you,

1 Peter 1:5 who through faith are shielded by God’s power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.

1 Peter 1:6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.

1 Peter 1:7 These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed.

1 Peter 1:8 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy,

1 Peter 1:9 for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

1 Peter 1:10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke of the grace that was to come to you, searched intently and with the greatest care,

1 Peter 1:11 trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.

1 Peter 1:12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

1 Peter 1:13 Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed.

1 Peter 1:14 As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance.

1 Peter 1:15 But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do;

1 Peter 1:16 for it is written: “Be holy, because I am holy.”

1 Peter 1:17 Since you call on a Father who judges each man’s work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear.

1 Peter 1:18 For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your forefathers,

1 Peter 1:19 but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.

1 Peter 1:20 He was chosen before the creation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake.

1 Peter 1:21 Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

1 Peter 1:22 Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love one another deeply, from the heart.

1 Peter 1:23 For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

1 Peter 1:24 For, “All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall,

1 Peter 1:25 but the word of the Lord stands for ever.” And this is the word that was preached to you.

1 Peter 2:1 Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind.

1 Peter 2:2 Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation,

1 Peter 2:3 now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

1 Peter 2:4 As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him—

1 Peter 2:5 you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:6 For in Scripture it says: “See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”

1 Peter 2:7 Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe, “The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone,”

1 Peter 2:8 and, “A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall.” They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

1 Peter 2:10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

1 Peter 2:11 Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul.

1 Peter 2:12 Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

1 Peter 2:13 Submit yourselves for the Lord’s sake to every authority instituted among men: whether to the king, as the supreme authority,

1 Peter 2:14 or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right.

1 Peter 2:15 For it is God’s will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish men.

1 Peter 2:16 Live as free men, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God.

1 Peter 2:17 Show proper respect to everyone: Love the brotherhood of believers, fear God, honour the king.

1 Peter 2:18 Slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and considerate, but also to those who are harsh.

1 Peter 2:19 For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God.

1 Peter 2:20 But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.

1 Peter 2:21 To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

1 Peter 2:22 “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

1 Peter 2:23 When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly.

1 Peter 2:24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.

1 Peter 2:25 For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

1 Peter 3:1 Wives, in the same way be submissive to your husbands so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behaviour of their wives,

1 Peter 3:2 when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.

1 Peter 3:3 Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as braided hair and the wearing of gold jewellery and fine clothes.

1 Peter 3:4 Instead, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God’s sight.

1 Peter 3:5 For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God used to make themselves beautiful. They were submissive to their own husbands,

1 Peter 3:6 like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

1 Peter 3:7 Husbands, in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

1 Peter 3:8 Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble.

1 Peter 3:9 Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing.

1 Peter 3:10 For, "Whoever would love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from deceitful speech.

1 Peter 3:11 He must turn from evil and do good; he must seek peace and pursue it.

1 Peter 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

1 Peter 3:13 Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?

1 Peter 3:14 But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened."

1 Peter 3:15 But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect,

1 Peter 3:16 keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behaviour in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.

1 Peter 3:17 It is better, if it is God's will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

1 Peter 3:18 For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit,

1 Peter 3:19 through whom also he went and preached to the spirits in prison

1 Peter 3:20 who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water,

1 Peter 3:21 and this water symbolises baptism that now saves you also— not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience towards God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

1 Peter 3:22 who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand— with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

1 Peter 4:1 Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because he who has suffered in his body is done with sin.

1 Peter 4:2 As a result, he does not live the rest of his earthly life for evil human desires, but rather for the will of God.

1 Peter 4:3 For you have spent enough time in the past doing what pagans choose to do—living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry.

1 Peter 4:4 They think it strange that you do not plunge with them into the same flood of dissipation, and they heap abuse on you.

1 Peter 4:5 But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4:6 For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to men in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

1 Peter 4:7 The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray.

1 Peter 4:8 Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.

1 Peter 4:9 Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling.

1 Peter 4:10 Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms.

1 Peter 4:11 If anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God. If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 4:12 Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you.

1 Peter 4:13 But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed.

1 Peter 4:14 If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

1 Peter 4:15 If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler.

1 Peter 4:16 However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.

1 Peter 4:17 For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

1 Peter 4:18 And, "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?"

1 Peter 4:19 So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

1 Peter 5:1 To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow-elder, a witness of Christ's sufferings and one who also will share in the glory to be revealed:

1 Peter 5:2 Be shepherds of God’s flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve;

1 Peter 5:3 not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock.

1 Peter 5:4 And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.

1 Peter 5:5 Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility towards one another, because, “God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

1 Peter 5:6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under God’s mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.

1 Peter 5:7 Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

1 Peter 5:8 Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.

1 Peter 5:9 Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

1 Peter 5:10 And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.

1 Peter 5:11 To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 5:12 With the help of Silas, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

1 Peter 5:13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark.

1 Peter 5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1:1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours:

2 Peter 1:2 Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

2 Peter 1:3 His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.

2 Peter 1:4 Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

2 Peter 1:5 For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge;

2 Peter 1:6 and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness;

2 Peter 1:7 and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love.

2 Peter 1:8 For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:9 But if anyone does not have them, he is short-sighted and blind, and has forgotten that he has been cleansed from his past sins.

2 Peter 1:10 Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall,

2 Peter 1:11 and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:12 So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have.

2 Peter 1:13 I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of this body,

2 Peter 1:14 because I know that I will soon put it aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

2 Peter 1:15 And I will make every effort to see that after my departure you will always be able to remember these things.

2 Peter 1:16 We did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

2 Peter 1:17 For he received honour and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.”

2 Peter 1:18 We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain.

2 Peter 1:19 And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

2 Peter 1:20 Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet’s own interpretation.

2 Peter 1:21 For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 2:1 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them—bringing swift destruction on themselves.

2 Peter 2:2 Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute.

2 Peter 2:3 In their greed these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.

2 Peter 2:4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but sent them to hell, putting them into gloomy dungeons to be held for judgment;

2 Peter 2:5 if he did not spare the ancient world when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others;

2 Peter 2:6 if he condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, and made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly;

2 Peter 2:7 and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man, who was distressed by the filthy lives of lawless men

2 Peter 2:8 (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)—

2 Peter 2:9 if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue godly men from trials and to hold the unrighteous for the day of judgment, while continuing their punishment.

2 Peter 2:10 This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the sinful nature and despise authority. Bold and arrogant, these men are not afraid to slander celestial beings;

2 Peter 2:11 yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings in the presence of the Lord.

2 Peter 2:12 But these men blaspheme in matters they do not understand. They are like brute beasts, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like beasts they too will perish.

2 Peter 2:13 They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, revelling in their pleasures while they feast with you.

2 Peter 2:14 With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable; they are experts in greed—an accursed brood!

2 Peter 2:15 They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness.

2 Peter 2:16 But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—a beast without speech—who spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

2 Peter 2:17 These men are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them.

2 Peter 2:18 For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to the lustful desires of sinful human nature, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error.

2 Peter 2:19 They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity—for a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him.

2 Peter 2:20 If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning.

2 Peter 2:21 It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them.

2 Peter 2:22 Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit," and, "A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud."

2 Peter 3:1 Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders to stimulate you to wholesome thinking.

2 Peter 3:2 I want you to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Saviour through your apostles.

2 Peter 3:3 First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires.

2 Peter 3:4 They will say, "Where is this`coming' he promised? Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation."

2 Peter 3:5 But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water.

2 Peter 3:6 By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed.

2 Peter 3:7 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

2 Peter 3:8 But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

2 Peter 3:11 Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives

2 Peter 3:12 as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.

2 Peter 3:13 But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.

2 Peter 3:14 So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him.

2 Peter 3:15 Bear in mind that our Lord’s patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom that God gave him.

2 Peter 3:16 He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort, as they do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

2 Peter 3:17 Therefore, dear friends, since you already know this, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of lawless men and fall from your secure position.

2 Peter 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever! Amen.

1 John

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched—this we proclaim concerning the Word of life.

1 John 1:2 The life appeared; we have seen it and testify to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and has appeared to us.

1 John 1:3 We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:4 We write this to make our joy complete.

1 John 1:5 This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.

1 John 1:6 If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth.

1 John 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

1 John 1:8 If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:10 If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives.

1 John 2:1 My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defence—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

1 John 2:2 He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

1 John 2:3 We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands.

1 John 2:4 The man who says, “I know him,” but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

1 John 2:5 But if anyone obeys his word, God’s love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him:

1 John 2:6 Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

1 John 2:7 Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command but an old one, which you have had since the beginning. This old command is the message you have heard.

1 John 2:8 Yet I am writing you a new command; its truth is seen in him and you, because the darkness is passing and the true light is already shining.

1 John 2:9 Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates his brother is still in the darkness.

1 John 2:10 Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him to make him stumble.

1 John 2:11 But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks around in the darkness; he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded him.

1 John 2:12 I write to you, dear children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of his name.

1 John 2:13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, dear children, because you have known the Father.

1 John 2:14 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God lives in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

1 John 2:15 Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

1 John 2:16 For everything in the world—the cravings of sinful man, the lust of his eyes and the boasting of what he has and does— comes not from the Father but from the world.

1 John 2:17 The world and its desires pass away, but the man who does the will of God lives for ever.

1 John 2:18 Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour.

1 John 2:19 They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.

1 John 2:20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth.

1 John 2:21 I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and because no lie comes from the truth.

1 John 2:22 Who is the liar? It is the man who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a man is the antichrist—he denies the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:23 No-one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

1 John 2:24 See that what you have heard from the beginning remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father.

1 John 2:25 And this is what he promised us—even eternal life.

1 John 2:26 I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray.

1 John 2:27 As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit—just as it has taught you, remain in him.

1 John 2:28 And now, dear children, continue in him, so that when he appears we may be confident and unashamed before him at his coming.

1 John 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him.

1 John 3:1 How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

1 John 3:2 Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

1 John 3:3 Everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure.

1 John 3:4 Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness.

1 John 3:5 But you know that he appeared so that he might take away our sins. And in him is no sin.

1 John 3:6 No-one who lives in him keeps on sinning. No-one who continues to sin has either seen him or known him.

1 John 3:7 Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. He who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

1 John 3:8 He who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work.

1 John 3:9 No-one who is born of God will continue to sin, because God's seed remains in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God.

1 John 3:10 This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not a child of God; nor is anyone who does not love his brother.

1 John 3:11 This is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another.

1 John 3:12 Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous.

1 John 3:13 Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you.

1 John 3:14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. Anyone who does not love remains in death.

1 John 3:15 Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life in him.

1 John 3:16 This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.

1 John 3:17 If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him?

1 John 3:18 Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.

1 John 3:19 This then is how we know that we belong to the truth, and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence

1 John 3:20 whenever our hearts condemn us. For God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

1 John 3:21 Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God

1 John 3:22 and receive from him anything we ask, because we obey his commands and do what pleases him.

1 John 3:23 And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us.

1 John 3:24 Those who obey his commands live in him, and he in them. And this is how we know that he lives in us: We know it by the Spirit he gave us.

1 John 4:1 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 John 4:2 This is how you can recognise the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God,

1 John 4:3 but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.

1 John 4:4 You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

1 John 4:5 They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them.

1 John 4:6 We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognise the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood.

1 John 4:7 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

1 John 4:8 Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.

1 John 4:9 This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.

1 John 4:10 This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

1 John 4:11 Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

1 John 4:12 No-one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.

1 John 4:13 We know that we live in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.

1 John 4:14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world.

1 John 4:15 If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him and he in God.

1 John 4:16 And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him.

1 John 4:17 In this way, love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

1 John 4:19 We love because he first loved us.

1 John 4:20 If anyone says, “I love God,” yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen.

1 John 4:21 And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

1 John 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well.

1 John 5:2 This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands.

1 John 5:3 This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome,

1 John 5:4 for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith.

1 John 5:5 Who is it that overcomes the world? Only he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

1 John 5:6 This is the one who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

1 John 5:7 For there are three that testify:

1 John 5:8 the Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement.

1 John 5:9 We accept man’s testimony, but God’s testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which he has given about his Son.

1 John 5:10 Anyone who believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his heart. Anyone who does not believe God has made him out to be a liar, because he has not believed the testimony God has given about his Son.

1 John 5:11 And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

1 John 5:12 He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

1 John 5:13 I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.

1 John 5:14 This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

1 John 5:15 And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

1 John 5:16 If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray and God will give him life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that he should pray about that.

1 John 5:17 All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.

1 John 5:18 We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him.

1 John 5:19 We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

1 John 5:20 We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true—even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

1 John 5:21 Dear children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

1:1 The elder, To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in the truth—and not I only, but also all who know the truth—

2 John 1:2 because of the truth, which lives in us and will be with us for ever:

2 John 1:3 Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father’s Son, will be with us in truth and love.

2 John 1:4 It has given me great joy to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as the Father commanded us.

2 John 1:5 And now, dear lady, I am not writing you a new command but one we have had from the beginning. I ask that we love one another.

2 John 1:6 And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands. As you have heard from the beginning, his command is that you walk in love.

2 John 1:7 Many deceivers, who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh, have gone out into the world. Any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist.

2 John 1:8 Watch out that you do not lose what you have worked for, but that you may be rewarded fully.

2 John 1:9 Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God; whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

2 John 1:10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not take him into your house or welcome him.

2 John 1:11 Anyone who welcomes him shares in his wicked work.

2 John 1:12 I have much to write to you, but I do not want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to visit you and talk with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

2 John 1:13 The children of your chosen sister send their greetings.

3 John

1:1 The elder, To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

3 John 1:2 Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well.

3 John 1:3 It gave me great joy to have some brothers come and tell about your faithfulness to the truth and how you continue to walk in the truth.

3 John 1:4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

3 John 1:5 Dear friend, you are faithful in what you are doing for the brothers, even though they are strangers to you.

3 John 1:6 They have told the church about your love. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

3 John 1:7 It was for the sake of the Name that they went out, receiving no help from the pagans.

3 John 1:8 We ought therefore to show hospitality to such men so that we may work together for the truth.

3 John 1:9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will have nothing to do with us.

3 John 1:10 So if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, gossiping maliciously about us. Not satisfied with that, he refuses to welcome the brothers. He also stops those who want to do so and puts them out of the church.

3 John 1:11 Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. Anyone who does what is good is from God. Anyone who does what is evil has not seen God.

3 John 1:12 Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone—and even by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

3 John 1:13 I have much to write to you, but I do not want to do so with pen and ink.

3 John 1:14 I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face. Peace to you. The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name.

Juda

1:1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, To those who have been called, who are loved by God the Father and kept by Jesus Christ:

Juda 1:2 Mercy, peace and love be yours in abundance.

Juda 1:3 Dear friends, although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt I had to write and urge you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints.

Juda 1:4 For certain men whose condemnation was written about long ago have secretly slipped in among you. They are godless men, who change the grace of our God into a licence for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord.

Juda 1:5 Though you already know all this, I want to remind you that the Lord delivered his people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe.

Juda 1:6 And the angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their own home—these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day.

Juda 1:7 In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.

Juda 1:8 In the very same way, these dreamers pollute their own bodies, reject authority and slander celestial beings.

Juda 1:9 But even the archangel Michael, when he was disputing with the devil about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring a slanderous accusation against him, but said, “The Lord rebuke you!”

Juda 1:10 Yet these men speak abusively against whatever they do not understand; and what things they do understand by instinct, like unreasoning animals—these are the very things that destroy them.

Juda 1:11 Woe to them! They have taken the way of Cain; they have rushed for profit into Balaam’s error; they have been destroyed in Korah’s rebellion.

Juda 1:12 These men are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted—twice dead.

Juda 1:13 They are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shame; wandering stars, for whom blackest darkness has been reserved for ever.

Juda 1:14 Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men: “See, the Lord is coming with thousands upon thousands of his holy ones

Juda 1:15 to judge everyone, and to convict all the ungodly of all the ungodly acts they have done in the ungodly way, and of all the harsh words ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”

Juda 1:16 These men are grumblers and fault-finders; they follow their own evil desires; they boast about themselves and flatter others for their own advantage.

Juda 1:17 But, dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ foretold.

Juda 1:18 They said to you, “In the last times there will be scoffers who will follow their own ungodly desires.”

Juda 1:19 These are the men who divide you, who follow mere natural instincts and do not have the Spirit.

Juda 1:20 But you, dear friends, build yourselves up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit.

Juda 1:21 Keep yourselves in God’s love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life.

Juda 1:22 Be merciful to those who doubt;

Juda 1:23 snatch others from the fire and save them; to others show mercy, mixed with fear—hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh.

Juda 1:24 To him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy—

Juda 1:25 to the only God our Saviour be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and for evermore! Amen.

Revelation

1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John,

Revelation 1:2 who testifies to everything he saw—that is, the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

Revelation 1:4 John, To the seven churches in the province of Asia: Grace and peace to you from him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits before his throne,

Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, Revelation 1:6 and has made us to be a kingdom and priests to serve his God and Father—to him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.

Revelation 1:7 Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and all the peoples of the earth will mourn because of him. So shall it be! Amen.

Revelation 1:8 “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.”

Revelation 1:9 I, John, your brother and companion in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance that are ours in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 1:10 On the Lord’s Day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,

Revelation 1:11 which said: “Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea.”

Revelation 1:12 I turned round to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned I saw seven golden lampstands,

Revelation 1:13 and among the lampstands was someone “like a son of man”, dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet and with a golden sash round his chest.

Revelation 1:14 His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like blazing fire.

Revelation 1:15 His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters.

Revelation 1:16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in all its brilliance.

Revelation 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last.

Revelation 1:18 I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades.

Revelation 1:19 "Write, therefore, what you have seen, what is now and what will take place later.

Revelation 1:20 The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2:1 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands:

Revelation 2:2 I know your deeds, your hard work and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate wicked men, that you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false.

Revelation 2:3 You have persevered and have endured hardships for my name, and have not grown weary.

Revelation 2:4 Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love.

Revelation 2:5 Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.

Revelation 2:6 But you have this in your favour: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

Revelation 2:7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.

Revelation 2:8 "To the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These are the words of him who is the First and the Last, who died and came to life again.

Revelation 2:9 I know your afflictions and your poverty—yet you are rich! I know the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 2:10 Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you, and you will suffer persecution for ten days. Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Revelation 2:11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt at all by the second death.

Revelation 2:12 “To the angel of the church in Pergamum write: These are the words of him who has the sharp, double-edged sword.

Revelation 2:13 I know where you live—where Satan has his throne. Yet you remain true to my name. You did not renounce your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness, who was put to death in your city—where Satan lives.

Revelation 2:14 Nevertheless, I have a few things against you: You have people there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin by eating food sacrificed to idols and by committing sexual immorality.

Revelation 2:15 Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

Revelation 2:16 Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

Revelation 2:17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it.

Revelation 2:18 “To the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes are like blazing fire and whose feet are like burnished bronze.

Revelation 2:19 I know your deeds, your love and faith, your service and perseverance, and that you are now doing more than you did at first.

Revelation 2:20 Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols.

Revelation 2:21 I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling.

Revelation 2:22 So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways.

Revelation 2:23 I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds.

Revelation 2:24 Now I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, to you who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned Satan’s so-called deep secrets (I will not impose any other burden on you):

Revelation 2:25 Only hold on to what you have until I come.

Revelation 2:26 To him who overcomes and does my will to the end, I will give authority over the nations—

Revelation 2:27 `He will rule them with an iron sceptre; he will dash them to pieces like pottery’— just as I have received authority from my Father.

Revelation 2:28 I will also give him the morning star.

Revelation 2:29 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:1 “To the angel of the church in Sardis write: These are the words of him who holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.

Revelation 3:2 Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God.

Revelation 3:3 Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what time I will come to you.

Revelation 3:4 Yet you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes. They will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy.

Revelation 3:5 He who overcomes will, like them, be dressed in white. I will never blot out his name from the book of life, but will acknowledge his name before my Father and his angels.

Revelation 3:6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:7 “To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no-one can shut, and what he shuts no-one can open.

Revelation 3:8 I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no-one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

Revelation 3:9 I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews though they are not, but are liars—I will make them come and fall down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you.

Revelation 3:10 Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth.

Revelation 3:11 I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no-one will take your crown.

Revelation 3:12 Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name.

Revelation 3:13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:14 “To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the ruler of God’s creation.

Revelation 3:15 I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other!

Revelation 3:16 So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17 You say,`I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.’ But you do not realise that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked.

Revelation 3:18 I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so that you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so that you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so that you can see.

Revelation 3:19 Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent.

Revelation 3:20 Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.

Revelation 3:21 To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne.

Revelation 3:22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

Revelation 4:1 After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.”

Revelation 4:2 At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it.

Revelation 4:3 And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian. A rainbow, resembling an emerald, encircled the throne.

Revelation 4:4 Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had crowns of gold on their heads.

Revelation 4:5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder. Before the throne, seven lamps were blazing. These are the seven spirits of God.

Revelation 4:6 Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the centre, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and behind.

Revelation 4:7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle.

Revelation 4:8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under his wings. Day and night they never stop saying: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.”

Revelation 4:9 Whenever the living creatures give glory, honour and thanks to him who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever,

Revelation 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:

Revelation 4:11 “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being.”

Revelation 5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals.

Revelation 5:2 And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?”

Revelation 5:3 But no-one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it.

Revelation 5:4 I wept and wept because no-one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside.

Revelation 5:5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Revelation 5:6 Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the centre of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Revelation 5:7 He came and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne.

Revelation 5:8 And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

Revelation 5:9 And they sang a new song: “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

Revelation 5:10 You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

Revelation 5:11 Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders.

Revelation 5:12 In a loud voice they sang: “Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and praise!”

Revelation 5:13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, singing: “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honour and glory and power, for ever and ever!”

Revelation 5:14 The four living creatures said, “Amen”, and the elders fell down and worshipped.

Revelation 6:1 I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals. Then I heard one of the four living creatures say in a voice like thunder, “Come!”

Revelation 6:2 I looked, and there before me was a white horse! Its rider held a bow, and he was given a crown, and he rode out as a conqueror bent on conquest.

Revelation 6:3 When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!”

Revelation 6:4 Then another horse came out, a fiery red one. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth and to make men slay each other. To him was given a large sword.

Revelation 6:5 When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there before me was a black horse! Its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand.

Revelation 6:6 Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying, “A quart of wheat for a day’s wages, and three quarts of barley for a day’s wages, and do not damage the oil and the wine!”

Revelation 6:7 When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!”

Revelation 6:8 I looked, and there before me was a pale horse! Its rider was named Death, and Hades was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine and plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

Revelation 6:9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained.

Revelation 6:10 They called out in a loud voice, “How long, Sovereign Lord, holy and true, until you judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?”

Revelation 6:11 Then each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to wait a little longer, until the number of their fellow-servants and brothers who were to be killed as they had been was completed.

Revelation 6:12 I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair, the whole moon turned blood red,

Revelation 6:13 and the stars in the sky fell to earth, as late figs drop from a fig-tree when shaken by a strong wind.

Revelation 6:14 The sky receded like a scroll, rolling up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

Revelation 6:15 Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, and every slave and every free man hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains.

Revelation 6:16 They called to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!

Revelation 6:17 For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?”

Revelation 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree.

Revelation 7:2 Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea:

Revelation 7:3 “Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”

Revelation 7:4 Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel.

Revelation 7:5 From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben 12,000, from the tribe of Gad 12,000, Revelation 7:6 from the tribe of Asher 12,000, from the tribe of Naphtali 12,000, from the tribe of Manasseh 12,000,

Revelation 7:7 from the tribe of Simeon 12,000, from the tribe of Levi 12,000, from the tribe of Issachar 12,000,

Revelation 7:8 from the tribe of Zebulun 12,000, from the tribe of Joseph 12,000, from the tribe of Benjamin 12,000.

Revelation 7:9 After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no-one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands.

Revelation 7:10 And they cried out in a loud voice: “Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

Revelation 7:11 All the angels were standing round the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,

Revelation 7:12 saying: “Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honour and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!”

Revelation 7:13 Then one of the elders asked me, “These in white robes— who are they, and where did they come from?”

Revelation 7:14 I answered, “Sir, you know.” And he said, “These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:15 Therefore, “they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

Revelation 7:16 Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst. The sun will not beat upon them, nor any scorching heat.

Revelation 7:17 For the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd; he will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8:1 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Revelation 8:2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

Revelation 8:3 Another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense to offer, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar before the throne.

Revelation 8:4 The smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, went up before God from the angel’s hand.

Revelation 8:5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it on the earth; and there came peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

Revelation 8:6 Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them.

Revelation 8:7 The first angel sounded his trumpet, and there came hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was hurled down upon the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

Revelation 8:8 The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a huge mountain, all ablaze, was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood, Revelation 8:9 a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Revelation 8:10 The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from the sky on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water—

Revelation 8:11 the name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters turned bitter, and many people died from the waters that had become bitter.

Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them turned dark. A third of the day was without light, and also a third of the night.

Revelation 8:13 As I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying in mid-air call out in a loud voice: “Woe! Woe! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!”

Revelation 9:1 The fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth. The star was given the key to the shaft of the Abyss.

Revelation 9:2 When he opened the Abyss, smoke rose from it like the smoke from a gigantic furnace. The sun and sky were darkened by the smoke from the Abyss.

Revelation 9:3 And out of the smoke locusts came down upon the earth and were given power like that of scorpions of the earth.

Revelation 9:4 They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

Revelation 9:5 They were not given power to kill them, but only to torture them for five months. And the agony they suffered was like that of the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a man.

Revelation 9:6 During those days men will seek death, but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will elude them.

Revelation 9:7 The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold, and their faces resembled human faces.

Revelation 9:8 Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.

Revelation 9:9 They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle.

Revelation 9:10 They had tails and stings like scorpions, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months.

Revelation 9:11 They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek, Apollyon.

Revelation 9:12 The first woe is past; two other woes are yet to come.

Revelation 9:13 The sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice coming from the horns of the golden altar that is before God.

Revelation 9:14 It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

Revelation 9:15 And the four angels who had been kept ready for this very hour and day and month and year were released to kill a third of mankind.

Revelation 9:16 The number of the mounted troops was two hundred million. I heard their number.

Revelation 9:17 The horses and riders I saw in my vision looked like this: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulphur. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke and sulphur.

Revelation 9:18 A third of mankind was killed by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulphur that came out of their mouths.

Revelation 9:19 The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like snakes, having heads with which they inflict injury.

Revelation 9:20 The rest of mankind that were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the work of their hands; they did not stop worshipping demons, and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood—idols that cannot see or hear or walk.

Revelation 9:21 Nor did they repent of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts.

Revelation 10:1 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs were like fiery pillars.

Revelation 10:2 He was holding a little scroll, which lay open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, Revelation 10:3 and he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders spoke.

Revelation 10:4 And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven say, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said and do not write it down.”

Revelation 10:5 Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven.

Revelation 10:6 And he swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it, and said, “There will be no more delay!

Revelation 10:7 But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets.”

Revelation 10:8 Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me once more: “Go, take the scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

Revelation 10:9 So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, “Take it and eat it. It will turn your stomach sour, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.”

Revelation 10:10 I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned sour.

Revelation 10:11 Then I was told, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings.”

Revelation 11:1 I was given a reed like a measuring rod and was told, “Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count the worshippers there.

Revelation 11:2 But exclude the outer court; do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles. They will trample on the holy city for 42 months.

Revelation 11:3 And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth.”

Revelation 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

Revelation 11:5 If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies. This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die.

Revelation 11:6 These men have power to shut up the sky so that it will not rain during the time they are prophesying; and they have power to turn the waters into blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they want.

Revelation 11:7 Now when they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the Abyss will attack them, and overpower and kill them.

Revelation 11:8 Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which is figuratively called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

Revelation 11:9 For three and a half days men from every people, tribe, language and nation will gaze on their bodies and refuse them burial.

Revelation 11:10 The inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and will celebrate by sending each other gifts, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on earth.

Revelation 11:11 But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and terror struck those who saw them.

Revelation 11:12 Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies looked on.

Revelation 11:13 At that very hour there was a severe earthquake and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Revelation 11:14 The second woe has passed; the third woe is coming soon.

Revelation 11:15 The seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, which said: “The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever.”

Revelation 11:16 And the twenty-four elders, who were seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshipped God, Revelation 11:17 saying: “We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.

Revelation 11:18 The nations were angry; and your wrath has come. The time has come for judging the dead, and for rewarding your servants the prophets and your saints and those who reverence your name, both small and great—and for destroying those who destroy the earth.”

Revelation 11:19 Then God’s temple in heaven was opened, and within his temple was seen the ark of his covenant. And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

Revelation 12:1 A great and wondrous sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head.

Revelation 12:2 She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth.

Revelation 12:3 Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads.

Revelation 12:4 His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born.

Revelation 12:5 She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron sceptre. And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne.

Revelation 12:6 The woman fled into the desert to a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

Revelation 12:7 And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back.

Revelation 12:8 But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven.

Revelation 12:9 The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

Revelation 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down.

Revelation 12:11 They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

Revelation 12:12 Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you! He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short.”

Revelation 12:13 When the dragon saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.

Revelation 12:14 The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the desert, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent’s reach.

Revelation 12:15 Then from his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and sweep her away with the torrent.

Revelation 12:16 But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.

Revelation 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 13:1 And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea. And I saw a beast coming out of the sea. He had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name.

Revelation 13:2 The beast I saw resembled a leopard, but had feet like those of a bear and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.

Revelation 13:3 One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was astonished and followed the beast.

Revelation 13:4 Men worshipped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshipped the beast and asked, "Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?"

Revelation 13:5 The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise his authority for forty-two months.

Revelation 13:6 He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling-place and those who live in heaven.

Revelation 13:7 He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation.

Revelation 13:8 All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb that was slain from the creation of the world.

Revelation 13:9 He who has an ear, let him hear.

Revelation 13:10 If anyone is to go into captivity, into captivity he will go. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, with the sword he will be killed. This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of the saints.

Revelation 13:11 Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.

Revelation 13:12 He exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.

Revelation 13:13 And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men.

Revelation 13:14 Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honour of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived.

Revelation 13:15 He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed.

Revelation 13:16 He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead,

Revelation 13:17 so that no-one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.

Revelation 13:18 This calls for wisdom. If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is man’s number. His number is 666.

Revelation 14:1 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father’s name written on their foreheads.

Revelation 14:2 And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and like a loud peal of thunder. The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps.

Revelation 14:3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No-one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.

Revelation 14:4 These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among men and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb.

Revelation 14:5 No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.

Revelation 14:6 Then I saw another angel flying in mid-air, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language and people.

Revelation 14:7 He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea and the springs of water.”

Revelation 14:8 A second angel followed and said, “Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries.”

Revelation 14:9 A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: “If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on the forehead or on the hand, Revelation 14:10 he, too, will drink of the wine of God’s fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. He will be tormented with burning sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb.

Revelation 14:11 And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name.”

Revelation 14:12 This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God’s commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.

Revelation 14:13 Then I heard a voice from heaven say, “Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labour, for their deeds will follow them.”

Revelation 14:14 I looked, and there before me was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one “like a son of man” with a crown of gold on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

Revelation 14:15 Then another angel came out of the temple and called in a loud voice to him who was sitting on the cloud, “Take your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.”

Revelation 14:16 So he who was seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

Revelation 14:17 Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.

Revelation 14:18 Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, “Take your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth’s vine, because its grapes are ripe.”

Revelation 14:19 The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God’s wrath.

Revelation 14:20 They were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses’ bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia.

Revelation 15:1 I saw in heaven another great and marvellous sign: seven angels with the seven last plagues—last, because with them God’s wrath is completed.

Revelation 15:2 And I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire and, standing beside the sea, those who had been victorious over the beast and his image and over the number of his name. They held harps given them by God

Revelation 15:3 and sang the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb: “Great and marvellous are your deeds, Lord God Almighty. Just and true are your ways, King of the ages.

Revelation 15:4 Who will not fear you, O Lord, and bring glory to your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.”

Revelation 15:5 After this I looked and in heaven the temple, that is, the tabernacle of the Testimony, was opened.

Revelation 15:6 Out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues. They were dressed in clean, shining linen and wore golden sashes round their chests.

Revelation 15:7 Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives for ever and ever.

Revelation 15:8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no-one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Revelation 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go, pour out the seven bowls of God’s wrath on the earth.”

Revelation 16:2 The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly and painful sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshipped his image.

Revelation 16:3 The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a dead man, and every living thing in the sea died.

Revelation 16:4 The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood.

Revelation 16:5 Then I heard the angel in charge of the waters say: “You are just in these judgments, you who are and who were, the Holy One, because you have so judged;

Revelation 16:6 for they have shed the blood of your saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink as they deserve.”

Revelation 16:7 And I heard the altar respond: “Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and just are your judgments.”

Revelation 16:8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and the sun was given power to scorch people with fire.

Revelation 16:9 They were seared by the intense heat and they cursed the name of God, who had control over these plagues, but they refused to repent and glorify him.

Revelation 16:10 The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. Men gnawed their tongues in agony

Revelation 16:11 and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, but they refused to repent of what they had done.

Revelation 16:12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the East.

Revelation 16:13 Then I saw three evil spirits that looked like frogs; they came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

Revelation 16:14 They are spirits of demons performing miraculous signs, and they go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them for the battle on the great day of God Almighty.

Revelation 16:15 “Behold, I come like a thief! Blessed is he who stays awake and keeps his clothes with him, so that he may not go naked and be shamefully exposed.”

Revelation 16:16 Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

Revelation 16:17 The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and out of the temple came a loud voice from the throne, saying, “It is done!”

Revelation 16:18 Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since man has been on earth, so tremendous was the quake.

Revelation 16:19 The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. God remembered Babylon the Great and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of his wrath.

Revelation 16:20 Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found.

Revelation 16:21 From the sky huge hailstones of about a hundred pounds each fell upon men. And they cursed God on account of the plague of hail, because the plague was so terrible.

Revelation 17:1 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters.

Revelation 17:2 With her the kings of the earth committed adultery and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries.”

Revelation 17:3 Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a desert. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries.

Revelation 17:5 This title was written on her forehead: MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Revelation 17:6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.

Revelation 17:7 Then the angel said to me: “Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:8 The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and will come up out of the Abyss and go to his destruction. The inhabitants of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the creation of the world will be astonished when they see the beast, because he once was, now is not, and yet will come.

Revelation 17:9 “This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits.

Revelation 17:10 They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a little while.

Revelation 17:11 The beast who once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction.

Revelation 17:12 “The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast.

Revelation 17:13 They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.

Revelation 17:14 They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers.”

Revelation 17:15 Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages.

Revelation 17:16 The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

Revelation 17:17 For God has put it into their hearts to accomplish his purpose by agreeing to give the beast their power to rule, until God’s words are fulfilled.

Revelation 17:18 The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

Revelation 18:1 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendour.

Revelation 18:2 With a mighty voice he shouted: “Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great! She has become a home for demons and a haunt for every evil spirit, a haunt for every unclean and detestable bird.

Revelation 18:3 For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries. The kings of the earth committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries.”

Revelation 18:4 Then I heard another voice from heaven say: “Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues;

Revelation 18:5 for her sins are piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes.

Revelation 18:6 Give back to her as she has given; pay her back double for what she has done. Mix her a double portion from her own cup.

Revelation 18:7 Give her as much torture and grief as the glory and luxury she gave herself. In her heart she boasts,`I sit as queen; I am not a widow, and I will never mourn.’

Revelation 18:8 Therefore in one day her plagues will overtake her: death, mourning and famine. She will be consumed by fire, for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.

Revelation 18:9 “When the kings of the earth who committed adultery with her and shared her luxury see the smoke of her burning, they will weep and mourn over her.

Revelation 18:10 Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry: “`Woe! Woe, O great city, O Babylon, city of power! In one hour your doom has come!’

Revelation 18:11 “The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her because no-one buys their cargoes any more—

Revelation 18:12 cargoes of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet cloth; every sort of citron wood, and articles of every kind made of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron and marble;

Revelation 18:13 cargoes of cinnamon and spice, of incense, myrrh and frankincense, of wine and olive oil, of fine flour and wheat; cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and bodies and souls of men.

Revelation 18:14 “They will say,`The fruit you longed for is gone from you. All your riches and splendour have vanished, never to be recovered.’

Revelation 18:15 The merchants who sold these things and gained their wealth from her will stand far off, terrified at her torment. They will weep and mourn

Revelation 18:16 and cry out: “`Woe! Woe, O great city, dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet, and glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls!

Revelation 18:17 In one hour such great wealth has been brought to ruin!’ “Every sea captain, and all who travel by ship, the sailors, and all who earn their living from the sea, will stand far off.

Revelation 18:18 When they see the smoke of her burning, they will exclaim,`Was there ever a city like this great city?’

Revelation 18:19 They will throw dust on their heads, and with weeping and mourning cry out: “`Woe! Woe, O great city, where all who had ships on the sea became rich through her wealth! In one hour she has been brought to ruin!

Revelation 18:20 Rejoice over her, O heaven! Rejoice, saints and apostles and prophets! God has judged her for the way she treated you.’“ Revelation 18:21 Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: “With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again.

Revelation 18:22 The music of harpists and musicians, flute players and trumpeters, will never be heard in you again. No workman of any trade will ever be found in you again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again.

Revelation 18:23 The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The voice of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again. Your merchants were the world’s great men. By your magic spell all the nations were led astray.

Revelation 18:24 In her was found the blood of prophets and of the saints, and of all who have been killed on the earth.”

Revelation 19:1 After this I heard what sounded like the roar of a great multitude in heaven shouting: “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, Revelation 19:2 for true and just are his judgments. He has condemned the great prostitute who corrupted the earth by her adulteries. He has avenged on her the blood of his servants.”

Revelation 19:3 And again they shouted: “Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever.”

Revelation 19:4 The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God, who was seated on the throne. And they cried: “Amen, Hallelujah!”

Revelation 19:5 Then a voice came from the throne, saying: “Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, both small and great!”

Revelation 19:6 Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and like loud peals of thunder, shouting: “Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns.

Revelation 19:7 Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.

Revelation 19:8 Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.)

Revelation 19:9 Then the angel said to me, "Write:`Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!'" And he added, "These are the true words of God."

Revelation 19:10 At this I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do it! I am a fellow-servant with you and with your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Revelation 19:11 I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war.

Revelation 19:12 His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no-one knows but he himself.

Revelation 19:13 He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God.

Revelation 19:14 The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean.

Revelation 19:15 Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron sceptre." He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty.

Revelation 19:16 On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

Revelation 19:17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in mid-air, "Come, gather together for the great supper of God, Revelation 19:18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."

Revelation 19:19 Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army.

Revelation 19:20 But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed the miraculous signs on his behalf. With these signs he had deluded those who had received the mark of the beast and worshipped his image. The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulphur.

Revelation 19:21 The rest of them were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

Revelation 20:1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain.

Revelation 20:2 He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:3 He threw him into the Abyss, and locked and sealed it over him, to keep him from deceiving the nations any more until the thousand years were ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time.

Revelation 20:4 I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshipped the beast or his image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:5 (The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:7 When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison

Revelation 20:8 and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore.

Revelation 20:9 They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God’s people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them.

Revelation 20:10 And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulphur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Revelation 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them.

Revelation 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books.

Revelation 20:13 The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done.

Revelation 20:14 Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death.

Revelation 20:15 If anyone’s name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea.

Revelation 21:2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.

Revelation 21:4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

Revelation 21:5 He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

Revelation 21:6 He said to me: “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life.

Revelation 21:7 He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Revelation 21:8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practise magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulphur. This is the second death.”

Revelation 21:9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

Revelation 21:10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Revelation 21:11 It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal.

Revelation 21:12 It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel.

Revelation 21:13 There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west.

Revelation 21:14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Revelation 21:15 The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city, its gates and its walls.

Revelation 21:16 The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide. He measured the city with the rod and found it to be 12,000 stadia in length, and as wide and high as it is long.

Revelation 21:17 He measured its wall and it was 144 cubits thick, by man's measurement, which the angel was using.

Revelation 21:18 The wall was made of jasper, and the city of pure gold, as pure as glass.

Revelation 21:19 The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, Revelation 21:20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

Revelation 21:21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl. The great street of the city was of pure gold, like transparent glass.

Revelation 21:22 I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

Revelation 21:23 The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp.

Revelation 21:24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendour into it.

Revelation 21:25 On no day will its gates ever be shut, for there will be no night there.

Revelation 21:26 The glory and honour of the nations will be brought into it.

Revelation 21:27 Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation 22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb

Revelation 22:2 down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

Revelation 22:3 No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him.

Revelation 22:4 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

Revelation 22:5 There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

Revelation 22:6 The angel said to me, “These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place.”

Revelation 22:7 “Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy in this book.”

Revelation 22:8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing them to me.

Revelation 22:9 But he said to me, “Do not do it! I am a fellow-servant with you and with your brothers the prophets and of all who keep the words of this book. Worship God!”

Revelation 22:10 Then he told me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near.

Revelation 22:11 Let him who does wrong continue to do wrong; let him who is vile continue to be vile; let him who does right continue to do right; and let him who is holy continue to be holy.”

Revelation 22:12 “Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done.

Revelation 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

Revelation 22:14 “Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city.

Revelation 22:15 Outside are the dogs, those who practise magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practises falsehood.

Revelation 22:16 “I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star.”

Revelation 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Revelation 22:18 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book.

Revelation 22:19 And if anyone takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from him his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Revelation 22:20 He who testifies to these things says, “Yes, I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Revelation 22:21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with God’s people. Amen.

Bible, 1982 New King James Translation.

Genesis

1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:2 The earth was without form, and void; and darkness [was] on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

Genesis 1:3 Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.

Genesis 1:4 And God saw the light, that [it was] good; and God divided the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. So the evening and the morning were the first day.

Genesis 1:6 Then God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.”

Genesis 1:7 Thus God made the firmament, and divided the waters which [were] under the firmament from the waters which [were] above the firmament; and it was so.

Genesis 1:8 And God called the firmament Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.

Genesis 1:9 Then God said, “Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry [land] appear”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:10 And God called the dry [land] Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that [it was] good.

Genesis 1:11 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb [that] yields seed, [and] the fruit tree [that] yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed [is] in itself, on the earth”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:12 And the earth brought forth grass, the herb [that] yields seed according to its kind, and the tree [that] yields fruit, whose seed [is] in itself according to its kind. And God saw that [it was] good.

Genesis 1:13 So the evening and the morning were the third day.

Genesis 1:14 Then God said, “Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs and seasons, and for days and years;

Genesis 1:15 “and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:16 Then God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. [He made] the stars also.

Genesis 1:17 God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth,

Genesis 1:18 and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that [it was] good.

Genesis 1:19 So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

Genesis 1:20 Then God said, “Let the waters abound with an abundance of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the face of the firmament of the heavens.”

Genesis 1:21 So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that [it was] good.

Genesis 1:22 And God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 1:23 So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Genesis 1:24 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth, [each] according to its kind”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:25 And God made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that [it was] good.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.”

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in His [own] image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

Genesis 1:28 Then God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

Genesis 1:29 And God said, “See, I have given you every herb [that] yields seed which [is] on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.

Genesis 1:30 “Also, to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which [there is] life, [I have given] every green herb for food”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:31 Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed [it was] very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Genesis 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth, and all the host of them, were finished.

Genesis 2:2 And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

Genesis 2:3 Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

Genesis 2:4 This [is] the history of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

Genesis 2:5 before any plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and [there was] no man to till the ground;

Genesis 2:6 but a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.

Genesis 2:7 And the LORD God formed man [of] the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

Genesis 2:8 The LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed.

Genesis 2:9 And out of the ground the LORD God made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life [was] also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:10 Now a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it parted and became four riverheads.

Genesis 2:11 The name of the first [is] Pishon; it [is] the one which skirts the whole land of Havilah, where [there is] gold.

Genesis 2:12 And the gold of that land [is] good. Bdellium and the onyx stone [are] there.

Genesis 2:13 The name of the second river [is] Gihon; it [is] the one which goes around the whole land of Cush.

Genesis 2:14 The name of the third river [is] Hiddekel; it [is] the one which goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river [is] the Euphrates.

Genesis 2:15 Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it.

Genesis 2:16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, “Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

Genesis 2:17 “but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

Genesis 2:18 And the LORD God said, “[It is] not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him.”

Genesis 2:19 Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought [them] to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that [was] its name.

Genesis 2:20 So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him.

Genesis 2:21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place.

Genesis 2:22 Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

Genesis 2:23 And Adam said: “This [is] now bone of my bones And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Woman, Because she was taken out of Man.”

Genesis 2:24 Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.

Genesis 2:25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

Genesis 3:1 Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Has God indeed said, ‘You shall not eat of every tree of the garden’?”

Genesis 3:2 And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

Genesis 3:3 “but of the fruit of the tree which [is] in the midst of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.’ “

Genesis 3:4 Then the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die.

Genesis 3:5 “For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:6 So when the woman saw that the tree [was] good for food, that it [was] pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make [one] wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

Genesis 3:7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they [were] naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.

Genesis 3:8 And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:9 Then the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, "Where [are] you?"

Genesis 3:10 So he said, "I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself."

Genesis 3:11 And He said, "Who told you that you [were] naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?"

Genesis 3:12 Then the man said, "The woman whom You gave [to be] with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate."

Genesis 3:13 And the LORD God said to the woman, "What [is] this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

Genesis 3:14 So the LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, You [are] cursed more than all cattle, And more than every beast of the field; On your belly you shall go, And you shall eat dust All the days of your life.

Genesis 3:15 And I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel."

Genesis 3:16 To the woman He said: "I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception; In pain you shall bring forth children; Your desire [shall be] for your husband, And he shall rule over you."

Genesis 3:17 Then to Adam He said, "Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat of it': "Cursed [is] the ground for your sake; In toil you shall eat [of] it All the days of your life.

Genesis 3:18 Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you, And you shall eat the herb of the field.

Genesis 3:19 In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread Till you return to the ground, For out of it you were taken; For dust you [are,] And to dust you shall return."

Genesis 3:20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

Genesis 3:21 Also for Adam and his wife the LORD God made tunics of skin, and clothed them.

Genesis 3:22 Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever”—

Genesis 3:23 therefore the LORD God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken.

Genesis 3:24 So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4:1 Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, and said, “I have acquired a man from the LORD.”

Genesis 4:2 Then she bore again, this time his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

Genesis 4:3 And in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to the LORD.

Genesis 4:4 Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat. And the LORD respected Abel and his offering, Genesis 4:5 but He did not respect Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

Genesis 4:6 So the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen?

Genesis 4:7 “If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire [is] for you, but you should rule over it.”

Genesis 4:8 Now Cain talked with Abel his brother; and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him.

Genesis 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where [is] Abel your brother?” He said, “I do not know. [Am] I my brother’s keeper?”

Genesis 4:10 And He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground.

Genesis 4:11 “So now you [are] cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.

Genesis 4:12 “When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond you shall be on the earth.”

Genesis 4:13 And Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment [is] greater than I can bear!

Genesis 4:14 “Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall be hidden from Your face; I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen [that] anyone who finds me will kill me.”

Genesis 4:15 And the LORD said to him, “Therefore, whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” And the LORD set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

Genesis 4:16 Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east of Eden.

Genesis 4:17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son—Enoch.

Genesis 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehujael, and Mehujael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech.

Genesis 4:19 Then Lamech took for himself two wives: the name of one [was] Adah, and the name of the second [was] Zillah.

Genesis 4:20 And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.

Genesis 4:21 His brother’s name [was] Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute.

Genesis 4:22 And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain [was] Naamah.

Genesis 4:23 Then Lamech said to his wives: “Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; Wives of Lamech, listen to my speech! For I have killed a man for wounding me, Even a young man for hurting me.

Genesis 4:24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold.”

Genesis 4:25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, “For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.”

Genesis 4:26 And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh. Then [men] began to call on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5:1 This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

Genesis 5:2 He created them male and female, and blessed them and called them Mankind in the day they were created.

Genesis 5:3 And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot [a son] in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

Genesis 5:4 After he begot Seth, the days of Adam were eight hundred years; and he had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:5 So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

Genesis 5:6 Seth lived one hundred and five years, and begot Enosh.

Genesis 5:7 After he begot Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:8 So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

Genesis 5:9 Enosh lived ninety years, and begot Cainan.

Genesis 5:10 After he begot Cainan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

Genesis 5:12 Cainan lived seventy years, and begot Mahalalel.

Genesis 5:13 After he begot Mahalalel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:14 So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

Genesis 5:15 Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and begot Jared.

Genesis 5:16 After he begot Jared, Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.

Genesis 5:18 Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and begot Enoch.

Genesis 5:19 After he begot Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:20 So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died.

Genesis 5:21 Enoch lived sixty-five years, and begot Methuselah.

Genesis 5:22 After he begot Methuselah, Enoch walked with God three hundred years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.

Genesis 5:24 And Enoch walked with God; and he [was] not, for God took him.

Genesis 5:25 Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and begot Lamech.

Genesis 5:26 After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.

Genesis 5:28 Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and had a son.

Genesis 5:29 And he called his name Noah, saying, “This [one] will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed.”

Genesis 5:30 After he begot Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and had sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.

Genesis 5:32 And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:1 Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,

Genesis 6:2 that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they [were] beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

Genesis 6:3 And the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he [is] indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

Genesis 6:4 There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore [children] to them. Those [were] the mighty men who [were] of old, men of renown.

Genesis 6:5 Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man [was] great in the earth, and [that] every intent of the thoughts of his heart [was] only evil continually.

Genesis 6:6 And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

Genesis 6:7 So the LORD said, “I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them.”

Genesis 6:8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

Genesis 6:9 This is the genealogy of Noah. Noah was a just man, perfect in his generations. Noah walked with God.

Genesis 6:10 And Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

Genesis 6:12 So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

Genesis 6:13 And God said to Noah, “The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Genesis 6:14 “ Make yourself an ark of gopherwood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch.

Genesis 6:15 “And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark [shall be] three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

Genesis 6:16 “You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit from above; and set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it [with] lower, second, and third [decks.]

Genesis 6:17 “And behold, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which [is] the breath of life; everything that [is] on the earth shall die.

Genesis 6:18 “But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall go into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 6:19 “And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every [sort] into the ark, to keep [them] alive with you; they shall be male and female.

Genesis 6:20 “Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every [kind] will come to you to keep [them] alive.

Genesis 6:21 “And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather [it] to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them.”

Genesis 6:22 Thus Noah did; according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

Genesis 7:1 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen [that] you [are] righteous before Me in this generation.

Genesis 7:2 “You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that [are] unclean, a male and his female;

Genesis 7:3 “also seven each of birds of the air, male and female, to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth.

Genesis 7:4 “For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made.”

Genesis 7:5 And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him.

Genesis 7:6 Noah [was] six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth.

Genesis 7:7 So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.

Genesis 7:8 Of clean animals, of animals that [are] unclean, of birds, and of everything that creeps on the earth,

Genesis 7:9 two by two they went into the ark to Noah, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

Genesis 7:10 And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

Genesis 7:12 And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

Genesis 7:13 On the very same day Noah and Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark—

Genesis 7:14 they and every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort.

Genesis 7:15 And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which [is] the breath of life.

Genesis 7:16 So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

Genesis 7:17 Now the flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

Genesis 7:18 The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters.

Genesis 7:19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered.

Genesis 7:20 The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.

Genesis 7:21 And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man.

Genesis 7:22 All in whose nostrils [was] the breath of the spirit of life, all that [was] on the dry [land,] died.

Genesis 7:23 So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those who [were] with him in the ark remained [alive.]

Genesis 7:24 And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Genesis 8:1 Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that [were] with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.

Genesis 8:2 The fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were also stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

Genesis 8:3 And the waters receded continually from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased.

Genesis 8:4 Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.

Genesis 8:5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. In the tenth [month,] on the first [day] of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

Genesis 8:6 So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

Genesis 8:7 Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth.

Genesis 8:8 He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground.

Genesis 8:9 But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters [were] on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself.

Genesis 8:10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark.

Genesis 8:11 Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf [was] in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.

Genesis 8:12 So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.

Genesis 8:13 And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first [month,] the first [day] of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry.

Genesis 8:14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried.

Genesis 8:15 Then God spoke to Noah, saying,

Genesis 8:16 “Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 8:17 “Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that [is] with you: birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 8:18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives with him.

Genesis 8:19 Every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, [and] whatever creeps on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

Genesis 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

Genesis 8:21 And the LORD smelled a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, “I will never again curse the ground for man’s sake, although the imagination of man’s heart [is] evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.

Genesis 8:22 “While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, Cold and heat, Winter and summer, And day and night Shall not cease.”

Genesis 9:1 So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

Genesis 9:2 “And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move [on] the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand.

Genesis 9:3 “Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herbs.

Genesis 9:4 “But you shall not eat flesh with its life, [that is,] its blood.

Genesis 9:5 “Surely for your lifeblood I will demand [a reckoning;] from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man’s brother I will require the life of man.

Genesis 9:6 “Whoever sheds man’s blood, By man his blood shall be shed; For in the image of God He made man.

Genesis 9:7 And as for you, be fruitful and multiply; Bring forth abundantly in the earth And multiply in it.”

Genesis 9:8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:

Genesis 9:9 “And as for Me, behold, I establish My covenant with you and with your descendants after you, Genesis 9:10 “and with every living creature that [is] with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth.

Genesis 9:11 “Thus I establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

Genesis 9:12 And God said: “This [is] the sign of the covenant which I make between Me and you, and every living creature that [is] with you, for perpetual generations:

Genesis 9:13 “I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.

Genesis 9:14 “It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud;

Genesis 9:15 “and I will remember My covenant which [is] between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

Genesis 9:16 “The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that [is] on the earth.”

Genesis 9:17 And God said to Noah, “This [is] the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that [is] on the earth.”

Genesis 9:18 Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham [was] the father of Canaan.

Genesis 9:19 These three [were] the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.

Genesis 9:20 And Noah began [to be] a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.

Genesis 9:21 Then he drank of the wine and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent.

Genesis 9:22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

Genesis 9:23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid [it] on both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces [were] turned away, and they did not see their father’s nakedness.

Genesis 9:24 So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.

Genesis 9:25 Then he said: “Cursed [be] Canaan; A servant of servants He shall be to his brethren.”

Genesis 9:26 And he said: “Blessed [be] the LORD, The God of Shem, And may Canaan be his servant.

Genesis 9:27 May God enlarge Japheth, And may he dwell in the tents of Shem; And may Canaan be his servant.”

Genesis 9:28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

Genesis 9:29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

Genesis 10:1 Now this [is] the genealogy of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood.

Genesis 10:2 The sons of Japheth [were] Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

Genesis 10:3 The sons of Gomer [were] Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

Genesis 10:4 The sons of Javan [were] Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

Genesis 10:5 From these the coastland [peoples] of the Gentiles were separated into their lands, everyone according to his language, according to their families, into their nations.

Genesis 10:6 The sons of Ham [were] Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.

Genesis 10:7 The sons of Cush [were] Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtechah; and the sons of Raamah [were] Sheba and Dedan.

Genesis 10:8 Cush begot Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth.

Genesis 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, “Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.”

Genesis 10:10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

Genesis 10:11 From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah,

Genesis 10:12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (that [is] the principal city).

Genesis 10:13 Mizraim begot Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim,

Genesis 10:14 Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines and Caphtorim).

Genesis 10:15 Canaan begot Sidon his firstborn, and Heth;

Genesis 10:16 the Jebusite, the Amorite, and the Girgashite;

Genesis 10:17 the Hivite, the Arkite, and the Sinite;

Genesis 10:18 the Arvadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were dispersed.

Genesis 10:19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon as you go toward Gerar, as far as Gaza; then as you go toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

Genesis 10:20 These [were] the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands [and] in their nations.

Genesis 10:21 And [children] were born also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder.

Genesis 10:22 The sons of Shem [were] Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.

Genesis 10:23 The sons of Aram [were] Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

Genesis 10:24 Arphaxad begot Salah, and Salah begot Eber.

Genesis 10:25 To Eber were born two sons: the name of one [was] Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name [was] Joktan.

Genesis 10:26 Joktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Genesis 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Genesis 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Genesis 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these [were] the sons of Joktan.

Genesis 10:30 And their dwelling place was from Mesha as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east.

Genesis 10:31 These [were] the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

Genesis 10:32 These [were] the families of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations; and from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood.

Genesis 11:1 Now the whole earth had one language and one speech.

Genesis 11:2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there.

Genesis 11:3 Then they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake [them] thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar.

Genesis 11:4 And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top [is] in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

Genesis 11:5 But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.

Genesis 11:6 And the LORD said, "Indeed the people [are] one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them.

Genesis 11:7 "Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."

Genesis 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city.

Genesis 11:9 Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Genesis 11:10 This [is] the genealogy of Shem: Shem [was] one hundred years old, and begot Arphaxad two years after the flood.

Genesis 11:11 After he begot Arphaxad, Shem lived five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:12 Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, and begot Salah.

Genesis 11:13 After he begot Salah, Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:14 Salah lived thirty years, and begot Eber.

Genesis 11:15 After he begot Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:16 Eber lived thirty-four years, and begot Peleg.

Genesis 11:17 After he begot Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:18 Peleg lived thirty years, and begot Reu.

Genesis 11:19 After he begot Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and begot Serug.

Genesis 11:21 After he begot Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:22 Serug lived thirty years, and begot Nahor.

Genesis 11:23 After he begot Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and begot Terah.

Genesis 11:25 After he begot Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:26 Now Terah lived seventy years, and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Genesis 11:27 This [is] the genealogy of Terah: Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran begot Lot.

Genesis 11:28 And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

Genesis 11:29 Then Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife [was] Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.

Genesis 11:30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

Genesis 11:31 And Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out with them from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran and dwelt there.

Genesis 11:32 So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

Genesis 12:1 Now the LORD had said to Abram: "Get out of your country, From your family And from your father's house, To a land that I will show you.

Genesis 12:2 I will make you a great nation; I will bless you And make your name great; And you shall be a blessing.

Genesis 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you; And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

Genesis 12:4 So Abram departed as the LORD had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram [was] seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Genesis 12:5 Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother’s son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan.

Genesis 12:6 Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh. And the Canaanites [were] then in the land.

Genesis 12:7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, “To your descendants I will give this land.” And there he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Genesis 12:8 And he moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and he pitched his tent [with] Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; there he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 12:9 So Abram journeyed, going on still toward the South.

Genesis 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to dwell there, for the famine [was] severe in the land.

Genesis 12:11 And it came to pass, when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, “Indeed I know that you [are] a woman of beautiful countenance.

Genesis 12:12 “Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, ‘This [is] his wife’; and they will kill me, but they will let you live.

Genesis 12:13 “Please say you [are] my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that I may live because of you.”

Genesis 12:14 So it was, when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she [was] very beautiful.

Genesis 12:15 The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken to Pharaoh’s house.

Genesis 12:16 He treated Abram well for her sake. He had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels.

Genesis 12:17 But the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife.

Genesis 12:18 And Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What [is] this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she [was] your wife?

Genesis 12:19 “Why did you say, ‘She [is] my sister’? I might have taken her as my wife. Now therefore, here is your wife; take [her] and go your way.”

Genesis 12:20 So Pharaoh commanded [his] men concerning him; and they sent him away, with his wife and all that he had.

Genesis 13:1 Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the South.

Genesis 13:2 Abram [was] very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.

Genesis 13:3 And he went on his journey from the South as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

Genesis 13:4 to the place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 13:5 Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks and herds and tents.

Genesis 13:6 Now the land was not able to support them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together.

Genesis 13:7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram’s livestock and the herdsmen of Lot’s livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land.

Genesis 13:8 So Abram said to Lot, “Please let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we [are] brethren.

Genesis 13:9 “[Is] not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If [you take] the left, then I will go to the right; or, if [you go] to the right, then I will go to the left.”

Genesis 13:10 And Lot lifted his eyes and saw all the plain of Jordan, that it [was] well watered everywhere (before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah) like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go toward Zoar.

Genesis 13:11 Then Lot chose for himself all the plain of Jordan, and Lot journeyed east. And they separated from each other.

Genesis 13:12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and pitched [his] tent even as far as Sodom.

Genesis 13:13 But the men of Sodom [were] exceedingly wicked and sinful against the LORD.

Genesis 13:14 And the LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him: “Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are—northward, southward, eastward, and westward; Genesis 13:15 “for all the land which you see I give to you and your descendants forever.

Genesis 13:16 “And I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, [then] your descendants also could be numbered.

Genesis 13:17 “Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you.”

Genesis 13:18 Then Abram moved [his] tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre, which [are] in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

Genesis 14:1 And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations,

Genesis 14:2 [that] they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Genesis 14:3 All these joined together in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea).

Genesis 14:4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Genesis 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that [were] with him came and attacked the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, Genesis 14:6 and the Horites in their mountain of Seir, as far as El Paran, which [is] by the wilderness.

Genesis 14:7 Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (that [is,] Kadesh), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in Hazezon Tamar.

Genesis 14:8 And the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that [is,] Zoar) went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim

Genesis 14:9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of nations, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five.

Genesis 14:10 Now the Valley of Siddim [was full of] asphalt pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; [some] fell there, and the remainder fled to the mountains.

Genesis 14:11 Then they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way.

Genesis 14:12 They also took Lot, Abram's brother's son who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

Genesis 14:13 Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, for he dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; and they [were] allies with Abram.

Genesis 14:14 Now when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained [servants] who were born in his own house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

Genesis 14:15 He divided his forces against them by night, and he and his servants attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which [is] north of Damascus.

Genesis 14:16 So he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people.

Genesis 14:17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that [is,] the King's Valley), after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who [were] with him.

Genesis 14:18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he [was] the priest of God Most High.

Genesis 14:19 And he blessed him and said: "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth; Genesis 14:20 And blessed be God Most High, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand." And he gave him a tithe of all.

Genesis 14:21 Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, and take the goods for yourself."

Genesis 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth, Genesis 14:23 "that I [will take] nothing, from a thread to a sandal strap, and that I will not take anything that [is] yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich'—

Genesis 14:24 "except only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion."

Genesis 15:1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I [am] your shield, your exceedingly great reward."

Genesis 15:2 But Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will You give me, seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house [is] Eliezer of Damascus?"

Genesis 15:3 Then Abram said, "Look, You have given me no offspring; indeed one born in my house is my heir!"

Genesis 15:4 And behold, the word of the LORD [came] to him, saying, “This one shall not be your heir, but one who will come from your own body shall be your heir.”

Genesis 15:5 Then He brought him outside and said, “Look now toward heaven, and count the stars if you are able to number them.” And He said to him, “So shall your descendants be.”

Genesis 15:6 And he believed in the LORD, and He accounted it to him for righteousness.

Genesis 15:7 Then He said to him, “I [am] the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it.”

Genesis 15:8 And he said, “Lord GOD, how shall I know that I will inherit it?”

Genesis 15:9 So He said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

Genesis 15:10 Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, down the middle, and placed each piece opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds in two.

Genesis 15:11 And when the vultures came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

Genesis 15:12 Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, horror [and] great darkness fell upon him.

Genesis 15:13 Then He said to Abram: “Know certainly that your descendants will be strangers in a land [that is] not theirs, and will serve them, and they will afflict them four hundred years.

Genesis 15:14 “And also the nation whom they serve I will judge; afterward they shall come out with great possessions.

Genesis 15:15 “Now as for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried at a good old age.

Genesis 15:16 “But in the fourth generation they shall return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites [is] not yet complete.”

Genesis 15:17 And it came to pass, when the sun went down and it was dark, that behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch that passed between those pieces.

Genesis 15:18 On the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: “To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates—

Genesis 15:19 “the Kenites, the Kenezzites, the Kadmonites,

Genesis 15:20 “the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,

Genesis 15:21 “the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.”

Genesis 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no [children.] And she had an Egyptian maidservant whose name was Hagar.

Genesis 16:2 So Sarai said to Abram, "See now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing [children.] Please, go in to my maid; perhaps I shall obtain children by her." And Abram heeded the voice of Sarai.

Genesis 16:3 Then Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 16:4 So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became despised in her eyes.

Genesis 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong [be] upon you! I gave my maid into your embrace; and when she saw that she had conceived, I became despised in her eyes. The LORD judge between you and me."

Genesis 16:6 So Abram said to Sarai, "Indeed your maid [is] in your hand; do to her as you please." And when Sarai dealt harshly with her, she fled from her presence.

Genesis 16:7 Now the Angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 And He said, "Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from, and where are you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai."

Genesis 16:9 The Angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hand."

Genesis 16:10 Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, "I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude."

Genesis 16:11 And the Angel of the LORD said to her: "Behold, you [are] with child, And you shall bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, Because the LORD has heard your affliction.

Genesis 16:12 He shall be a wild man; His hand [shall be] against every man, And every man's hand against him. And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren."

Genesis 16:13 Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, "Have I also here seen Him who sees me?"

Genesis 16:14 Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; observe, [it is] between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 16:15 So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

Genesis 16:16 Abram [was] eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Genesis 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I [am] Almighty God; walk before Me and be blameless.

Genesis 17:2 “And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.”

Genesis 17:3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying:

Genesis 17:4 “As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations.

Genesis 17:5 “No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations.

Genesis 17:6 “I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.

Genesis 17:7 “And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you.

Genesis 17:8 “Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.”

Genesis 17:9 And God said to Abraham: “As for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

Genesis 17:10 “This [is] My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: Every male child among you shall be circumcised;

Genesis 17:11 “and you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between Me and you.

Genesis 17:12 “He who is eight days old among you shall be circumcised, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not your descendant.

Genesis 17:13 “He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised, and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

Genesis 17:14 “And the uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

Genesis 17:15 Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah [shall be] her name.

Genesis 17:16 “And I will bless her and also give you a son by her; then I will bless her, and she shall be [a mother of] nations; kings of peoples shall be from her.”

Genesis 17:17 Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Shall [a child] be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear [a child?”]

Genesis 17:18 And Abraham said to God, “Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!”

Genesis 17:19 Then God said: “No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, [and] with his descendants after him.

Genesis 17:20 “And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

Genesis 17:21 “But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time next year.”

Genesis 17:22 Then He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

Genesis 17:23 So Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him.

Genesis 17:24 Abraham [was] ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Genesis 17:25 And Ishmael his son [was] thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Genesis 17:26 That very same day Abraham was circumcised, and his son Ishmael;

Genesis 17:27 and all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18:1 Then the LORD appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre, as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day.

Genesis 18:2 So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; and when he saw [them,] he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground,

Genesis 18:3 and said, “My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant.

Genesis 18:4 “Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

Genesis 18:5 “And I will bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, inasmuch as you have come to your servant.” They said, “Do as you have said.”

Genesis 18:6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, “Quickly, make ready three measures of fine meal; knead [it] and make cakes.”

Genesis 18:7 And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave [it] to a young man, and he hastened to prepare it.

Genesis 18:8 So he took butter and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set [it] before them; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate.

Genesis 18:9 Then they said to him, “Where [is] Sarah your wife?” So he said, “Here, in the tent.”

Genesis 18:10 And He said, “I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and behold, Sarah your wife shall have a son.” (Sarah was listening in the tent door which [was] behind him.)

Genesis 18:11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; [and] Sarah had passed the age of childbearing.

Genesis 18:12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, “After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?”

Genesis 18:13 And the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I surely bear [a child,] since I am old?’

Genesis 18:14 “Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.”

Genesis 18:15 But Sarah denied [it,] saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid. And He said, “No, but you did laugh!”

Genesis 18:16 Then the men rose from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them on the way.

Genesis 18:17 And the LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing, Genesis 18:18 “since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

Genesis 18:19 “For I have known him, in order that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice, that the LORD may bring to Abraham what He has spoken to him.”

Genesis 18:20 And the LORD said, “Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grave,

Genesis 18:21 “I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, I will know.”

Genesis 18:22 Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the LORD.

Genesis 18:23 And Abraham came near and said, “Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

Genesis 18:24 “Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city; would You also destroy the place and not spare [it] for the fifty righteous that were in it?

Genesis 18:25 “Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?”

Genesis 18:26 So the LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.”

Genesis 18:27 Then Abraham answered and said, “Indeed now, I who [am but] dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord:

Genesis 18:28 “Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would You destroy all of the city for [lack of] five?” So He said, “If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy [it.”]

Genesis 18:29 And he spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose there should be forty found there?” So He said, “I will not do [it] for the sake of forty.”

Genesis 18:30 Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there?” So He said, “I will not do [it] if I find thirty there.”

Genesis 18:31 And he said, “Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?” So He said, “I will not destroy [it] for the sake of twenty.”

Genesis 18:32 Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy [it] for the sake of ten.”

Genesis 18:33 So the LORD went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19:1 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw [them,] he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

Genesis 19:2 And he said, “Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant’s house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way.” And they said, “No, but we will spend the night in the open square.”

Genesis 19:3 But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

Genesis 19:4 Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.

Genesis 19:5 And they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them [carnally.”]

Genesis 19:6 So Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him,

Genesis 19:7 and said, “Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly!

Genesis 19:8 “See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof.”

Genesis 19:9 And they said, “Stand back!” Then they said, “This one came in to stay [here,] and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them.” So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door.

Genesis 19:10 But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

Genesis 19:11 And they struck the men who [were] at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary [trying] to find the door.

Genesis 19:12 Then the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city—take [them] out of this place!

Genesis 19:13 “For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

Genesis 19:14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, “Get up, get out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city!” But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.

Genesis 19:15 When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, “Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city.”

Genesis 19:16 And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, his wife’s hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city.

Genesis 19:17 So it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that he said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be destroyed.”

Genesis 19:18 Then Lot said to them, “Please, no, my lords!

Genesis 19:19 “Indeed now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die.

Genesis 19:20 “See now, this city [is] near [enough] to flee to, and it [is] a little one; please let me escape there ([is] it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.”

Genesis 19:21 And he said to him, “See, I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken.

Genesis 19:22 “Hurry, escape there. For I cannot do anything until you arrive there.” Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

Genesis 19:23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar.

Genesis 19:24 Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens.

Genesis 19:25 So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

Genesis 19:26 But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

Genesis 19:27 And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

Genesis 19:28 Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace.

Genesis 19:29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

Genesis 19:30 Then Lot went up out of Zoar and dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave.

Genesis 19:31 Now the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father [is] old, and [there is] no man on the earth to come in to us as is the custom of all the earth.

Genesis 19:32 “Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.”

Genesis 19:33 So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

Genesis 19:34 It happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, “Indeed I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in [and] lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father."

Genesis 19:35 Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

Genesis 19:36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

Genesis 19:37 The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he [is] the father of the Moabites to this day.

Genesis 19:38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he [is] the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

Genesis 20:1 And Abraham journeyed from there to the South, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar.

Genesis 20:2 Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She [is] my sister." And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

Genesis 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, "Indeed you [are] a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she [is] a man's wife."

Genesis 20:4 But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, "Lord, will You slay a righteous nation also?

Genesis 20:5 "Did he not say to me, 'She [is] my sister'? And she, even she herself said, 'He [is] my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this."

Genesis 20:6 And God said to him in a dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For I also withheld you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

Genesis 20:7 "Now therefore, restore the man's wife; for he [is] a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore [her,] know that you shall surely die, you and all who [are] yours."

Genesis 20:8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were very much afraid.

Genesis 20:9 And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done."

Genesis 20:10 Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you have in view, that you have done this thing?"

Genesis 20:11 And Abraham said, "Because I thought, surely the fear of God [is] not in this place; and they will kill me on account of my wife.

Genesis 20:12 “But indeed [she is] truly my sister. She [is] the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

Genesis 20:13 “And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, that I said to her, ‘This [is] your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, say of me, “He [is] my brother.” ‘ “

Genesis 20:14 Then Abimelech took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave [them] to Abraham; and he restored Sarah his wife to him.

Genesis 20:15 And Abimelech said, “See, my land [is] before you; dwell where it pleases you.”

Genesis 20:16 Then to Sarah he said, “Behold, I have given your brother a thousand [pieces] of silver; indeed this vindicates you before all who [are] with you and before everybody.” Thus she was rebuked.

Genesis 20:17 So Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servants. Then they bore [children;]

Genesis 20:18 for the LORD had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

Genesis 21:1 And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had spoken.

Genesis 21:2 For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

Genesis 21:3 And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him—whom Sarah bore to him—Isaac.

Genesis 21:4 Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Genesis 21:5 Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Genesis 21:6 And Sarah said, “God has made me laugh, [and] all who hear will laugh with me.”

Genesis 21:7 She also said, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne [him] a son in his old age.”

Genesis 21:8 So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.

Genesis 21:9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, scoffing.

Genesis 21:10 Therefore she said to Abraham, “Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, [namely] with Isaac.”

Genesis 21:11 And the matter was very displeasing in Abraham’s sight because of his son.

Genesis 21:12 But God said to Abraham, “Do not let it be displeasing in your sight because of the lad or because of your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for in Isaac your seed shall be called.

Genesis 21:13 “Yet I will also make a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he [is] your seed.”

Genesis 21:14 So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water; and putting [it] on her shoulder, he gave [it] and the boy to Hagar, and sent her away. Then she departed and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba.

Genesis 21:15 And the water in the skin was used up, and she placed the boy under one of the shrubs.

Genesis 21:16 Then she went and sat down across from [him] at a distance of about a bowshot; for she said to herself, “Let me not see the death of the boy.” So she sat opposite [him,] and lifted her voice and wept.

Genesis 21:17 And God heard the voice of the lad. Then the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, “What ails you, Hagar? Fear not, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he [is.]

Genesis 21:18 “Arise, lift up the lad and hold him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation.”

Genesis 21:19 Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink.

Genesis 21:20 So God was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

Genesis 21:21 He dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Genesis 21:22 And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, “God [is] with you in all that you do.

Genesis 21:23 “Now therefore, swear to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my posterity; but that according to the kindness that I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt.”

Genesis 21:24 And Abraham said, “I will swear.”

Genesis 21:25 Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech’s servants had seized.

Genesis 21:26 And Abimelech said, “I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor had I heard [of it] until today.”

Genesis 21:27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.

Genesis 21:28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

Genesis 21:29 Then Abimelech asked Abraham, “What [is the meaning of] these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves?”

Genesis 21:30 And he said, “You will take [these] seven ewe lambs from my hand, that they may be my witness that I have dug this well.”

Genesis 21:31 Therefore he called that place Beersheba, because the two of them swore an oath there.

Genesis 21:32 Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba. So Abimelech rose with Phichol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 21:33 Then [Abraham] planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.

Genesis 21:34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

Genesis 22:1 Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 22:2 Then He said, “Take now your son, your only [son] Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you.”

Genesis 22:3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.

Genesis 22:4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off.

Genesis 22:5 And Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you.”

Genesis 22:6 So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid [it] on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together.

Genesis 22:7 But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, “My father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” Then he said, “Look, the fire and the wood, but where [is] the lamb for a burnt offering?”

Genesis 22:8 And Abraham said, “My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering.” So the two of them went together.

Genesis 22:9 Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

Genesis 22:10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

Genesis 22:11 But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” So he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 22:12 And He said, “Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only [son,] from Me.”

Genesis 22:13 Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind [him was] a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

Genesis 22:14 And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide; as it is said [to] this day, “In the Mount of The LORD it shall be provided.”

Genesis 22:15 Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven,

Genesis 22:16 and said: “By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only [son—]

Genesis 22:17 “blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which [is] on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies.

Genesis 22:18 “In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.”

Genesis 22:19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

Genesis 22:20 Now it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, “Indeed Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor:

Genesis 22:21 “Huz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,

Genesis 22:22 “Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.”

Genesis 22:23 And Bethuel begot Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham’s brother.

Genesis 22:24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah.

Genesis 23:1 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; [these were] the years of the life of Sarah.

Genesis 23:2 So Sarah died in Kirjath Arba (that [is,] Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

Genesis 23:3 Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying,

Genesis 23:4 “I [am] a foreigner and a visitor among you. Give me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.”

Genesis 23:5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

Genesis 23:6 “Hear us, my lord: You [are] a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead.”

Genesis 23:7 Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth.

Genesis 23:8 And he spoke with them, saying, “If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me,

Genesis 23:9 “that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which [is] at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you.”

Genesis 23:10 Now Ephron dwelt among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all who entered at the gate of his city, saying,

Genesis 23:11 “No, my lord, hear me: I give you the field and the cave that [is] in it; I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!”

Genesis 23:12 Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land;

Genesis 23:13 and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, “If you [will give it,] please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take [it] from me and I will bury my dead there.”

Genesis 23:14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

Genesis 23:15 “My lord, listen to me; the land [is worth] four hundred shekels of silver. What [is] that between you and me? So bury your dead.”

Genesis 23:16 And Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, currency of the merchants.

Genesis 23:17 So the field of Ephron which [was] in Machpelah, which [was] before Mamre, the field and the cave which [was] in it, and all the trees that [were] in the field, which [were] within all the surrounding borders, were deeded

Genesis 23:18 to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

Genesis 23:19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre (that [is,] Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 23:20 So the field and the cave that [is] in it were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

Genesis 24:1 Now Abraham was old, well advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

Genesis 24:2 So Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, “Please, put your hand under my thigh,

Genesis 24:3 “and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell;

Genesis 24:4 “but you shall go to my country and to my family, and take a wife for my son Isaac.”

Genesis 24:5 And the servant said to him, “Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?”

Genesis 24:6 But Abraham said to him, “Beware that you do not take my son back there.

Genesis 24:7 “The LORD God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, ‘To your descendants I give this land,’ He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

Genesis 24:8 “And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there.”

Genesis 24:9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

Genesis 24:10 Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and departed, for all his master’s goods [were in] his hand. And he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

Genesis 24:11 And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw [water.]

Genesis 24:12 Then he said, “O LORD God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

Genesis 24:13 “Behold, [here] I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

Genesis 24:14 “Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,’ and she says, ‘Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink'—[let] her [be the one] You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."

Genesis 24:15 And it happened, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder.

Genesis 24:16 Now the young woman [was] very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and came up.

Genesis 24:17 And the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher."

Genesis 24:18 So she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink.

Genesis 24:19 And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw [water] for your camels also, until they have finished drinking."

Genesis 24:20 Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw [water,] and drew for all his camels.

Genesis 24:21 And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

Genesis 24:22 So it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten [shekels] of gold,

Genesis 24:23 and said, "Whose daughter [are] you? Tell me, please, is there room [in] your father's house for us to lodge?"

Genesis 24:24 So she said to him, "I [am] the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah's son, whom she bore to Nahor."

Genesis 24:25 Moreover she said to him, "We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge."

Genesis 24:26 Then the man bowed down his head and worshiped the LORD.

Genesis 24:27 And he said, "Blessed [be] the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren."

Genesis 24:28 So the young woman ran and told her mother's household these things.

Genesis 24:29 Now Rebekah had a brother whose name [was] Laban, and Laban ran out to the man by the well.

Genesis 24:30 So it came to pass, when he saw the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, “Thus the man spoke to me,” that he went to the man. And there he stood by the camels at the well.

Genesis 24:31 And he said, “Come in, O blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels.”

Genesis 24:32 Then the man came to the house. And he unloaded the camels, and provided straw and feed for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who [were] with him.

Genesis 24:33 [Food] was set before him to eat, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told about my errand.” And he said, “Speak on.”

Genesis 24:34 So he said, “I [am] Abraham’s servant.

Genesis 24:35 “The LORD has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great; and He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 24:36 “And Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and to him he has given all that he has.

Genesis 24:37 “Now my master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell;

Genesis 24:38 ‘but you shall go to my father’s house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.’

Genesis 24:39 “And I said to my master, ‘Perhaps the woman will not follow me.’

Genesis 24:40 “But he said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my family and from my father’s house.

Genesis 24:41 ‘You will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my family; for if they will not give [her] to you, then you will be released from my oath.’

Genesis 24:42 “ And this day I came to the well and said, ‘O LORD God of my master Abraham, if You will now prosper the way in which I go,

Genesis 24:43 ‘behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that when the virgin comes out to draw [water,] and I say to her, “Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,”

Genesis 24:44 ‘and she says to me, “Drink, and I will draw for your camels also,”—[let] her [be] the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.’

Genesis 24:45 “ But before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah, coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew [water.] And I said to her, ‘Please let me drink.’

Genesis 24:46 “And she made haste and let her pitcher down from her [shoulder,] and said, ‘Drink, and I will give your camels a drink also.’ So I drank, and she gave the camels a drink also.

Genesis 24:47 “Then I asked her, and said, ‘Whose daughter [are] you?’ And she said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him.’ So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.

Genesis 24:48 “And I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the way of truth to take the daughter of my master’s brother for his son.

Genesis 24:49 “Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.”

Genesis 24:50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, “The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you either bad or good.

Genesis 24:51 “Here [is] Rebekah before you; take [her] and go, and let her be your master’s son’s wife, as the LORD has spoken.”

Genesis 24:52 And it came to pass, when Abraham’s servant heard their words, that he worshiped the LORD, [bowing himself] to the earth.

Genesis 24:53 Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave [them] to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

Genesis 24:54 And he and the men who [were] with him ate and drank and stayed all night. Then they arose in the morning, and he said, “Send me away to my master.”

Genesis 24:55 But her brother and her mother said, “Let the young woman stay with us [a few] days, at least ten; after that she may go.”

Genesis 24:56 And he said to them, “Do not hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way; send me away so that I may go to my master.”

Genesis 24:57 So they said, “We will call the young woman and ask her personally.”

Genesis 24:58 Then they called Rebekah and said to her, “Will you go with this man?” And she said, “I will go.”

Genesis 24:59 So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham’s servant and his men.

Genesis 24:60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her: “Our sister, [may] you [become] [The mother of] thousands of ten thousands; And may your descendants possess The gates of those who hate them.”

Genesis 24:61 Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed.

Genesis 24:62 Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he dwelt in the South.

Genesis 24:63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there, the camels [were] coming.

Genesis 24:64 Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from her camel;

Genesis 24:65 for she had said to the servant, “Who [is] this man walking in the field to meet us?” The servant said, “It [is] my master.” So she took a veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent; and he took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother’s [death.]

Genesis 25:1 Abraham again took a wife, and her name [was] Keturah.

Genesis 25:2 And she bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

Genesis 25:3 Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.

Genesis 25:4 And the sons of Midian [were] Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these [were] the children of Keturah.

Genesis 25:5 And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac.

Genesis 25:6 But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had; and while he was still living he sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son, to the country of the east.

Genesis 25:7 This [is] the sum of the years of Abraham’s life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years.

Genesis 25:8 Then Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full [of years,] and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which [is] before Mamre, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, Genesis 25:10 the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife.

Genesis 25:11 And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac dwelt at Beer Lahai Roi.

Genesis 25:12 Now this [is] the genealogy of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah’s maidservant, bore to Abraham.

Genesis 25:13 And these [were] the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Genesis 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Genesis 25:15 Hadar, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Genesis 25:16 These [were] the sons of Ishmael and these [were] their names, by their towns and their settlements, twelve princes according to their nations.

Genesis 25:17 These [were] the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:18 (They dwelt from Havilah as far as Shur, which [is] east of Egypt as you go toward Assyria.) He died in the presence of all his brethren.

Genesis 25:19 This [is] the genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham begot Isaac.

Genesis 25:20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan Aram, the sister of Laban the Syrian.

Genesis 25:21 Now Isaac pleaded with the LORD for his wife, because she [was] barren; and the LORD granted his plea, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

Genesis 25:22 But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If [all is] well, why [am I like] this?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

Genesis 25:23 And the LORD said to her:"Two nations [are] in your womb, Two peoples shall be separated from your body; [One] people shall be stronger than the other, And the older shall serve the younger."

Genesis 25:24 So when her days were fulfilled [for her] to give birth, indeed [there were] twins in her womb.

Genesis 25:25 And the first came out red. [He was] like a hairy garment all over; so they called his name Esau.

Genesis 25:26 Afterward his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Jacob. Isaac [was] sixty years old when she bore them.

Genesis 25:27 So the boys grew. And Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a mild man, dwelling in tents.

Genesis 25:28 And Isaac loved Esau because he ate [of his] game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Genesis 25:29 Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he [was] weary.

Genesis 25:30 And Esau said to Jacob, “Please feed me with that same red [stew,] for I [am] weary.” Therefore his name was called Edom.

Genesis 25:31 But Jacob said, “Sell me your birthright as of this day.”

Genesis 25:32 And Esau said, “Look, I [am] about to die; so what [is] this birthright to me?”

Genesis 25:33 Then Jacob said, “Swear to me as of this day.” So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

Genesis 25:34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau despised [his] birthright.

Genesis 26:1 There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar.

Genesis 26:2 Then the LORD appeared to him and said: “Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land of which I shall tell you.

Genesis 26:3 “Dwell in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.

Genesis 26:4 “And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed;

Genesis 26:5 “because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.”

Genesis 26:6 So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

Genesis 26:7 And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, “She [is] my sister”; for he was afraid to say, “[She is] my wife,” [because he thought,] “lest the men of the place kill me for Rebekah, because she [is] beautiful to behold.”

Genesis 26:8 Now it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, showing endearment to Rebekah his wife.

Genesis 26:9 Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, “Quite obviously she [is] your wife; so how could you say, ‘She [is] my sister’?” And Isaac said to him, “Because I said, ‘Lest I die on account of her.’ “

Genesis 26:10 And Abimelech said, “What [is] this you have done to us? One of the people might soon have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us.”

Genesis 26:11 So Abimelech charged all [his] people, saying, “He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.”

Genesis 26:12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; and the LORD blessed him.

Genesis 26:13 The man began to prosper, and continued prospering until he became very prosperous;

Genesis 26:14 for he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great number of servants. So the Philistines envied him.

Genesis 26:15 Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth.

Genesis 26:16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we."

Genesis 26:17 Then Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

Genesis 26:18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them.

Genesis 26:19 Also Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found a well of running water there.

Genesis 26:20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water [is] ours." So he called the name of the well Esek, because they quarreled with him.

Genesis 26:21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that [one] also. So he called its name Sitnah.

Genesis 26:22 And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name Rehoboth, because he said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land."

Genesis 26:23 Then he went up from there to Beersheba.

Genesis 26:24 And the LORD appeared to him the same night and said, "I [am] the God of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I [am] with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham's sake."

Genesis 26:25 So he built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD, and he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants dug a well.

Genesis 26:26 Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phichol the commander of his army.

Genesis 26:27 And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?"

Genesis 26:28 But they said, "We have certainly seen that the LORD is with you. So we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, between you and us; and let us make a covenant with you, Genesis 26:29 ‘that you will do us no harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but good and have sent you away in peace. You [are] now the blessed of the LORD.’ “

Genesis 26:30 So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 Then they arose early in the morning and swore an oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

Genesis 26:32 It came to pass the same day that Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.”

Genesis 26:33 So he called it Shebah. Therefore the name of the city [is] Beersheba to this day.

Genesis 26:34 When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Genesis 26:35 And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis 27:1 Now it came to pass, when Isaac was old and his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, “My son.” And he answered him, “Here I am.”

Genesis 27:2 Then he said, “Behold now, I am old. I do not know the day of my death.

Genesis 27:3 “Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me.

Genesis 27:4 “And make me savory food, such as I love, and bring [it] to me that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die.”

Genesis 27:5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring [it.]

Genesis 27:6 So Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, “Indeed I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying,

Genesis 27:7 ‘Bring me game and make savory food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.’

Genesis 27:8 “Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you.

Genesis 27:9 “Go now to the flock and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will make savory food from them for your father, such as he loves.

Genesis 27:10 “Then you shall take [it] to your father, that he may eat [it,] and that he may bless you before his death.”

Genesis 27:11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “Look, Esau my brother [is] a hairy man, and I [am] a smooth-[skinned] man.

Genesis 27:12 “Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be a deceiver to him; and I shall bring a curse on myself and not a blessing.”

Genesis 27:13 But his mother said to him, “[Let] your curse [be] on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get [them] for me.”

Genesis 27:14 And he went and got [them] and brought [them] to his mother, and his mother made savory food, such as his father loved.

Genesis 27:15 Then Rebekah took the choice clothes of her elder son Esau, which [were] with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.

Genesis 27:16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

Genesis 27:17 Then she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

Genesis 27:18 So he went to his father and said, “My father.’ And he said, “Here I am. Who [are] you, my son?”

Genesis 27:19 Jacob said to his father, “I [am] Esau your firstborn; I have done just as you told me; please arise, sit and eat of my game, that your soul may bless me.”

Genesis 27:20 But Isaac said to his son, “How [is it] that you have found [it] so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the LORD your God brought [it] to me.”

Genesis 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you [are] really my son Esau or not.”

Genesis 27:22 So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice [is] Jacob’s voice, but the hands [are] the hands of Esau.”

Genesis 27:23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

Genesis 27:24 Then he said, “[Are] you really my son Esau?” He said, “I [am.”]

Genesis 27:25 He said, “Bring [it] near to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, so that my soul may bless you.” So he brought [it] near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

Genesis 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come near now and kiss me, my son.”

Genesis 27:27 And he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him and said: “Surely, the smell of my son [Is] like the smell of a field Which the LORD has blessed.

Genesis 27:28 Therefore may God give you Of the dew of heaven, Of the fatness of the earth, And plenty of grain and wine.

Genesis 27:29 Let peoples serve you, And nations bow down to you. Be master over your brethren, And let your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed [be] everyone who curses you, And blessed [be] those who bless you!”

Genesis 27:30 Now it happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

Genesis 27:31 He also had made savory food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, “Let my father arise and eat of his son’s game, that your soul may bless me.”

Genesis 27:32 And his father Isaac said to him, “Who [are] you?” So he said, “I [am] your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

Genesis 27:33 Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, “Who? Where [is] the one who hunted game and brought [it] to me? I ate all [of it] before you came, and I have blessed him—[and] indeed he shall be blessed.”

Genesis 27:34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me—me also, O my father!”

Genesis 27:35 But he said, “Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing.”

Genesis 27:36 And [Esau] said, “Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!” And he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

Genesis 27:37 Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, “Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants; with grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?”

Genesis 27:38 And Esau said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me—me also, O my father!” And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

Genesis 27:39 Then Isaac his father answered and said to him:”Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, And of the dew of heaven from above.

Genesis 27:40 By your sword you shall live, And you shall serve your brother; And it shall come to pass, when you become restless, That you shall break his yoke from your neck.”

Genesis 27:41 So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

Genesis 27:42 And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, “Surely your brother Esau comforts himself concerning you [by intending] to kill you.

Genesis 27:43 “Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: arise, flee to my brother Laban in Haran.

Genesis 27:44 “And stay with him a few days, until your brother’s fury turns away,

Genesis 27:45 “until your brother’s anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of you both in one day?”

Genesis 27:46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these [who are] the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?”

Genesis 28:1 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him: “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

Genesis 28:2 “Arise, go to Padan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father; and take yourself a wife from there of the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother.

Genesis 28:3 “May God Almighty bless you, And make you fruitful and multiply you, That you may be an assembly of peoples;

Genesis 28:4 And give you the blessing of Abraham, To you and your descendants with you, That you may inherit the land In which you are a stranger, Which God gave to Abraham.”

Genesis 28:5 So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Genesis 28:6 Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Padan Aram to take himself a wife from there, [and that] as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,”

Genesis 28:7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Padan Aram.

Genesis 28:8 Also Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please his father Isaac.

Genesis 28:9 So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Genesis 28:10 Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran.

Genesis 28:11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep.

Genesis 28:12 Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder [was] set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

Genesis 28:13 And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: “I [am] the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants.

Genesis 28:14 “Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.

Genesis 28:15 “Behold, I [am] with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you.”

Genesis 28:16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know [it.”]

Genesis 28:17 And he was afraid and said, “How awesome [is] this place! This [is] none other than the house of God, and this [is] the gate of heaven!”

Genesis 28:18 Then Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it.

Genesis 28:19 And he called the name of that place Bethel; but the name of that city had been Luz previously.

Genesis 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, Genesis 28:21 “so that I come back to my father’s house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God.

Genesis 28:22 “And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be God’s house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You.”

Genesis 29:1 So Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the East.

Genesis 29:2 And he looked, and saw a well in the field; and behold, there [were] three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone [was] on the well’s mouth.

Genesis 29:3 Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well’s mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well’s mouth.

Genesis 29:4 And Jacob said to them, “My brethren, where [are] you from?” And they said, “We [are] from Haran.”

Genesis 29:5 Then he said to them, “Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?” And they said, “We know him.”

Genesis 29:6 So he said to them, “Is he well?” And they said, “[He is] well. And look, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep.”

Genesis 29:7 Then he said, “Look, [it is] still high day; [it is] not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed [them.”]

Genesis 29:8 But they said, “We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well’s mouth; then we water the sheep.”

Genesis 29:9 Now while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

Genesis 29:10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother’s brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother’s brother, that Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well’s mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother’s brother.

Genesis 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept.

Genesis 29:12 And Jacob told Rachel that he [was] her father’s relative and that he [was] Rebekah’s son. So she ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister’s son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things.

Genesis 29:14 And Laban said to him, “Surely you [are] my bone and my flesh.” And he stayed with him for a month.

Genesis 29:15 Then Laban said to Jacob, “Because you [are] my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what [should] your wages [be?”]

Genesis 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder [was] Leah, and the name of the younger [was] Rachel.

Genesis 29:17 Leah’s eyes [were] delicate, but Rachel was beautiful of form and appearance.

Genesis 29:18 Now Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.”

Genesis 29:19 And Laban said, “[It is] better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me.”

Genesis 29:20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed [only] a few days to him because of the love he had for her.

Genesis 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give [me] my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her.”

Genesis 29:22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.

Genesis 29:23 Now it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.

Genesis 29:24 And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah [as] a maid.

Genesis 29:25 So it came to pass in the morning, that behold, it [was] Leah. And he said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why then have you deceived me?”

Genesis 29:26 And Laban said, “It must not be done so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.

Genesis 29:27 “Fulfill her week, and we will give you this one also for the service which you will serve with me still another seven years.”

Genesis 29:28 Then Jacob did so and fulfilled her week. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also.

Genesis 29:29 And Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as a maid.

Genesis 29:30 Then [Jacob] also went in to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with Laban still another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah [was] unloved, He opened her womb; but Rachel [was] barren.

Genesis 29:32 So Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben; for she said, “The LORD has surely looked on my affliction. Now therefore, my husband will love me.”

Genesis 29:33 Then she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I [am] unloved, He has therefore given me this [son] also.” And she called his name Simeon.

Genesis 29:34 She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore his name was called Levi.

Genesis 29:35 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now I will praise the LORD.” Therefore she called his name Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

Genesis 30:1 Now when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I die!”

Genesis 30:2 And Jacob’s anger was aroused against Rachel, and he said, “[Am] I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”

Genesis 30:3 So she said, “Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, and she will bear [a child] on my knees, that I also may have children by her.”

Genesis 30:4 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid as wife, and Jacob went in to her.

Genesis 30:5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:6 Then Rachel said, “God has judged my case; and He has also heard my voice and given me a son.” Therefore she called his name Dan.

Genesis 30:7 And Rachel’s maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:8 Then Rachel said, “With great wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, [and] indeed I have prevailed.” So she called his name Naphtali.

Genesis 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, she took Zilpah her maid and gave her to Jacob as wife.

Genesis 30:10 And Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:11 Then Leah said, “A troop comes!” So she called his name Gad.

Genesis 30:12 And Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:13 Then Leah said, “I am happy, for the daughters will call me blessed.” So she called his name Asher.

Genesis 30:14 Now Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me [some] of your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:15 But she said to her, “[Is it] a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?” And Rachel said, “Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:16 When Jacob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” And he lay with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Genesis 30:18 Leah said, “God has given me my wages, because I have given my maid to my husband.” So she called his name Issachar.

Genesis 30:19 Then Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

Genesis 30:20 And Leah said, “God has endowed me [with] a good endowment; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons.” So she called his name Zebulun.

Genesis 30:21 Afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

Genesis 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb.

Genesis 30:23 And she conceived and bore a son, and said, “God has taken away my reproach.”

Genesis 30:24 So she called his name Joseph, and said, “The LORD shall add to me another son.”

Genesis 30:25 And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my country.

Genesis 30:26 “Give [me] my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you.”

Genesis 30:27 And Laban said to him, “Please [stay,] if I have found favor in your eyes, [for] I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.”

Genesis 30:28 Then he said, “Name me your wages, and I will give [it.”]

Genesis 30:29 So [Jacob] said to him, “You know how I have served you and how your livestock has been with me.

Genesis 30:30 “For what you had before I [came was] little, and it has increased to a great amount; the LORD has blessed you since my coming. And now, when shall I also provide for my own house?”

Genesis 30:31 So he said, “What shall I give you?” And Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flocks:

Genesis 30:32 “Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and [these] shall be my wages.

Genesis 30:33 “So my righteousness will answer for me in time to come, when the subject of my wages comes before you: every one that [is] not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, will be considered stolen, if [it is] with me.”

Genesis 30:34 And Laban said, “Oh, that it were according to your word!”

Genesis 30:35 So he removed that day the male goats that were speckled and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had [some] white in it, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and gave [them] into the hand of his sons.

Genesis 30:36 Then he put three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

Genesis 30:37 Now Jacob took for himself rods of green poplar and of the almond and chestnut trees, peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which [was] in the rods.

Genesis 30:38 And the rods which he had peeled, he set before the flocks in the gutters, in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, so that they should conceive when they came to drink.

Genesis 30:39 So the flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.

Genesis 30:40 Then Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; but he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban's flock.

Genesis 30:41 And it came to pass, whenever the stronger livestock conceived, that Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the livestock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

Genesis 30:42 But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put [them] in; so the feebler were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's.

Genesis 30:43 Thus the man became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks, female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31:1 Now [Jacob] heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what was our father's he has acquired all this wealth."

Genesis 31:2 And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and indeed it [was] not [favorable] toward him as before.

Genesis 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will be with you."

Genesis 31:4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, to his flock,

Genesis 31:5 and said to them, "I see your father's countenance, that it [is] not [favorable] toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me.

Genesis 31:6 "And you know that with all my might I have served your father.

Genesis 31:7 "Yet your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me.

Genesis 31:8 "If he said thus: 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said thus: 'The streaked shall be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked.

Genesis 31:9 "So God has taken away the livestock of your father and given [them] to me.

Genesis 31:10 "And it happened, at the time when the flocks conceived, that I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the flocks [were] streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted.

Genesis 31:11 “Then the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, ‘Jacob.’ And I said, ‘Here I am.’

Genesis 31:12 “And He said, ‘Lift your eyes now and see, all the rams which leap on the flocks [are] streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.

Genesis 31:13 ‘I [am] the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar [and] where you made a vow to Me. Now arise, get out of this land, and return to the land of your family.’ “

Genesis 31:14 Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, “Is there still any portion or inheritance for us in our father’s house?

Genesis 31:15 “Are we not considered strangers by him? For he has sold us, and also completely consumed our money.

Genesis 31:16 “For all these riches which God has taken from our father are [really] ours and our children’s; now then, whatever God has said to you, do it.”

Genesis 31:17 Then Jacob rose and set his sons and his wives on camels.

Genesis 31:18 And he carried away all his livestock and all his possessions which he had gained, his acquired livestock which he had gained in Padan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 31:19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel had stolen the household idols that were her father’s.

Genesis 31:20 And Jacob stole away, unknown to Laban the Syrian, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee.

Genesis 31:21 So he fled with all that he had. He arose and crossed the river, and headed toward the mountains of Gilead.

Genesis 31:22 And Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled.

Genesis 31:23 Then he took his brethren with him and pursued him for seven days’ journey, and he overtook him in the mountains of Gilead.

Genesis 31:24 But God had come to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, “Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.”

Genesis 31:25 So Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountains, and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mountains of Gilead.

Genesis 31:26 And Laban said to Jacob: “What have you done, that you have stolen away unknown to me, and carried away my daughters like captives [taken] with the sword?

Genesis 31:27 “Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and not tell me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp?

Genesis 31:28 “And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have done foolishly in [so] doing.

Genesis 31:29 “It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, ‘Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.’

Genesis 31:30 “And now you have surely gone because you greatly long for your father’s house, [but] why did you steal my gods?”

Genesis 31:31 Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, “Because I was afraid, for I said, ‘Perhaps you would take your daughters from me by force.’

Genesis 31:32 “With whomever you find your gods, do not let him live. In the presence of our brethren, identify what I have of yours and take [it] with you.” For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

Genesis 31:33 And Laban went into Jacob’s tent, into Leah’s tent, and into the two maids’ tents, but he did not find [them.] Then he went out of Leah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent.

Genesis 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household idols, put them in the camel’s saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all about the tent but did not find [them.]

Genesis 31:35 And she said to her father, “Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women [is] with me.” And he searched but did not find the household idols.

Genesis 31:36 Then Jacob was angry and rebuked Laban, and Jacob answered and said to Laban: “What [is] my trespass? What [is] my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me?

Genesis 31:37 “Although you have searched all my things, what part of your household things have you found? Set [it] here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both!

Genesis 31:38 “These twenty years I [have been] with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.

Genesis 31:39 “That which was torn [by beasts] I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. You required it from my hand, [whether] stolen by day or stolen by night.

Genesis 31:40 “[There] I was! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from my eyes.

Genesis 31:41 “Thus I have been in your house twenty years; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

Genesis 31:42 “Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked [you] last night.”

Genesis 31:43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, "[These] daughters [are] my daughters, and [these] children [are] my children, and [this] flock [is] my flock; all that you see [is] mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?

Genesis 31:44 "Now therefore, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me."

Genesis 31:45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up [as] a pillar.

Genesis 31:46 Then Jacob said to his brethren, "Gather stones." And they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the heap.

Genesis 31:47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.

Genesis 31:48 And Laban said, "This heap [is] a witness between you and me this day." Therefore its name was called Galeed, Genesis 31:49 also Mizpah, because he said, "May the LORD watch between you and me when we are absent one from another.

Genesis 31:50 "If you afflict my daughters, or if you take [other] wives besides my daughters, [although] no man [is] with us—see, God [is] witness between you and me!"

Genesis 31:51 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Here is this heap and here is [this] pillar, which I have placed between you and me.

Genesis 31:52 "This heap [is] a witness, and [this] pillar [is] a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

Genesis 31:53 "The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father judge between us." And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

Genesis 31:54 Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain.

Genesis 31:55 And early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his sons and daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Genesis 32:1 So Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

Genesis 32:2 When Jacob saw them, he said, "This [is] God's camp." And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

Genesis 32:3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

Genesis 32:4 And he commanded them, saying, "Speak thus to my lord Esau, 'Thus your servant Jacob says: "I have dwelt with Laban and stayed there until now.

Genesis 32:5 “I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favor in your sight.” ‘ “

Genesis 32:6 Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he also is coming to meet you, and four hundred men [are] with him.”

Genesis 32:7 So Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that [were] with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies.

Genesis 32:8 And he said, “If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the other company which is left will escape.”

Genesis 32:9 Then Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your family, and I will deal well with you’:

Genesis 32:10 “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two companies.

Genesis 32:11 “Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and attack me [and] the mother with the children.

Genesis 32:12 “For You said, ‘I will surely treat you well, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.’ “

Genesis 32:13 So he lodged there that same night, and took what came to his hand as a present for Esau his brother:

Genesis 32:14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Genesis 32:15 thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.

Genesis 32:16 Then he delivered [them] to the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass over before me, and put some distance between successive droves.”

Genesis 32:17 And he commanded the first one, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going? Whose [are] these in front of you?’

Genesis 32:18 “then you shall say, ‘They [are] your servant Jacob’s. It [is] a present sent to my lord Esau; and behold, he also [is] behind us.’ “

Genesis 32:19 So he commanded the second, the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, “In this manner you shall speak to Esau when you find him;

Genesis 32:20 “and also say, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob [is] behind us.’ “ For he said, “I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.”

Genesis 32:21 So the present went on over before him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.

Genesis 32:22 And he arose that night and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven sons, and crossed over the ford of Jabbok.

Genesis 32:23 He took them, sent them over the brook, and sent over what he had.

Genesis 32:24 Then Jacob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day.

Genesis 32:25 Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob’s hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him.

Genesis 32:26 And He said, “Let Me go, for the day breaks.” But he said, “I will not let You go unless You bless me!”

Genesis 32:27 So He said to him, “What [is] your name?” He said, “Jacob.”

Genesis 32:28 And He said, “Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed.”

Genesis 32:29 Then Jacob asked, saying, “Tell [me] Your name, I pray.” And He said, “Why [is] it [that] you ask about My name?” And He blessed him there.

Genesis 32:30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: “For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.”

Genesis 32:31 Just as he crossed over Penuel the sun rose on him, and he limped on his hip.

Genesis 32:32 Therefore to this day the children of Israel do not eat the muscle that shrank, which [is] on the hip socket, because He touched the socket of Jacob’s hip in the muscle that shrank.

Genesis 33:1 Now Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and there, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants.

Genesis 33:2 And he put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last.

Genesis 33:3 Then he crossed over before them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

Genesis 33:4 But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

Genesis 33:5 And he lifted his eyes and saw the women and children, and said, “Who [are] these with you?” So he said, “The children whom God has graciously given your servant.”

Genesis 33:6 Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and bowed down.

Genesis 33:7 And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down. Afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed down.

Genesis 33:8 Then Esau said, “What [do] you [mean by] all this company which I met?” And he said, “[These are] to find favor in the sight of my lord.”

Genesis 33:9 But Esau said, “I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.”

Genesis 33:10 And Jacob said, “No, please, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present from my hand, inasmuch as I have seen your face as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me.

Genesis 33:11 “Please, take my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.” So he urged him, and he took [it.]

Genesis 33:12 Then Esau said, “Let us take our journey; let us go, and I will go before you.”

Genesis 33:13 But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children [are] weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing [are] with me. And if the men should drive them hard one day, all the flock will die.

Genesis 33:14 “Please let my lord go on ahead before his servant. I will lead on slowly at a pace which the livestock that go before me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come to my lord in Seir.”

Genesis 33:15 And Esau said, “Now let me leave with you [some] of the people who [are] with me.” But he said, “What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.”

Genesis 33:16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

Genesis 33:17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

Genesis 33:18 Then Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which [is] in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram; and he pitched his tent before the city.

Genesis 33:19 And he bought the parcel of land, where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred pieces of money.

Genesis 33:20 Then he erected an altar there and called it El Elohe Israel.

Genesis 34:1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

Genesis 34:2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her and lay with her, and violated her.

Genesis 34:3 His soul was strongly attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman and spoke kindly to the young woman.

Genesis 34:4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, “Get me this young woman as a wife.”

Genesis 34:5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. Now his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Jacob held his peace until they came.

Genesis 34:6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.

Genesis 34:7 And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard [it;] and the men were grieved and very angry, because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter, a thing which ought not to be done.

Genesis 34:8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, “The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife.

Genesis 34:9 “And make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to yourselves.

Genesis 34:10 “So you shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you. Dwell and trade in it, and acquire possessions for yourselves in it.”

Genesis 34:11 Then Shechem said to her father and her brothers, “Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give.

Genesis 34:12 “Ask me ever so much dowry and gift, and I will give according to what you say to me; but give me the young woman as a wife.”

Genesis 34:13 But the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, and spoke deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

Genesis 34:14 And they said to them, “We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that [would be] a reproach to us.

Genesis 34:15 “But on this [condition] we will consent to you: If you will become as we [are,] if every male of you is circumcised, Genesis 34:16 “then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us; and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

Genesis 34:17 “But if you will not heed us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone.”

Genesis 34:18 And their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor’s son.

Genesis 34:19 So the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he delighted in Jacob’s daughter. He [was] more honorable than all the household of his father.

Genesis 34:20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke with the men of their city, saying:

Genesis 34:21 “These men [are] at peace with us. Therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it. For indeed the land [is] large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us as wives, and let us give them our daughters.

Genesis 34:22 “Only on this [condition] will the men consent to dwell with us, to be one people: if every male among us is circumcised as they [are] circumcised.

Genesis 34:23 “[Will] not their livestock, their property, and every animal of theirs [be] ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us.”

Genesis 34:24 And all who went out of the gate of his city heeded Hamor and Shechem his son; every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

Genesis 34:25 Now it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, each took his sword and came boldly upon the city and killed all the males.

Genesis 34:26 And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem’s house, and went out.

Genesis 34:27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because their sister had been defiled.

Genesis 34:28 They took their sheep, their oxen, and their donkeys, what [was] in the city and what [was] in the field,

Genesis 34:29 and all their wealth. All their little ones and their wives they took captive; and they plundered even all that [was] in the houses.

Genesis 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have troubled me by making me obnoxious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and since I [am] few in number, they will gather themselves together against me and kill me. I shall be destroyed, my household and I.”

Genesis 34:31 But they said, “Should he treat our sister like a harlot?”

Genesis 35:1 Then God said to Jacob, “Arise, go up to Bethel and dwell there; and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother.”

Genesis 35:2 And Jacob said to his household and to all who [were] with him, “Put away the foreign gods that [are] among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments.

Genesis 35:3 “Then let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me in the way which I have gone.”

Genesis 35:4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which [were] in their hands, and the earrings which [were] in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree which [was] by Shechem.

Genesis 35:5 And they journeyed, and the terror of God was upon the cities that [were] all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

Genesis 35:6 So Jacob came to Luz (that [is,] Bethel), which [is] in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who [were] with him.

Genesis 35:7 And he built an altar there and called the place El Bethel, because there God appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother.

Genesis 35:8 Now Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the terebinth tree. So the name of it was called Allon Bachuth.

Genesis 35:9 Then God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Padan Aram, and blessed him.

Genesis 35:10 And God said to him, “Your name [is] Jacob; your name shall not be called Jacob anymore, but Israel shall be your name.” So He called his name Israel.

Genesis 35:11 Also God said to him: “I [am] God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall proceed from you, and kings shall come from your body.

Genesis 35:12 “The land which I gave Abraham and Isaac I give to you; and to your descendants after you I give this land.”

Genesis 35:13 Then God went up from him in the place where He talked with him.

Genesis 35:14 So Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it.

Genesis 35:15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

Genesis 35:16 Then they journeyed from Bethel. And when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel labored [in childbirth,] and she had hard labor.

Genesis 35:17 Now it came to pass, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, “Do not fear; you will have this son also.”

Genesis 35:18 And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name Ben-Oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

Genesis 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that [is,] Bethlehem).

Genesis 35:20 And Jacob set a pillar on her grave, which [is] the pillar of Rachel’s grave to this day.

Genesis 35:21 Then Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

Genesis 35:22 And it happened, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father’s concubine; and Israel heard [about it.] Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

Genesis 35:23 the sons of Leah [were] Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun;

Genesis 35:24 the sons of Rachel [were] Joseph and Benjamin;

Genesis 35:25 the sons of Bilhah, Rachel’s maidservant, [were] Dan and Naphtali;

Genesis 35:26 and the sons of Zilpah, Leah’s maidservant, [were] Gad and Asher. These [were] the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

Genesis 35:27 Then Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kirjath Arba (that [is,] Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had dwelt.

Genesis 35:28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.

Genesis 35:29 So Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, [being] old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36:1 Now this [is] the genealogy of Esau, who is Edom.

Genesis 36:2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

Genesis 36:3 and Basemath, Ishmael’s daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

Genesis 36:4 Now Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel.

Genesis 36:5 And Aholibamah bore Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah. These [were] the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 36:6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the persons of his household, his cattle and all his animals, and all his goods which he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went to a country away from the presence of his brother Jacob.

Genesis 36:7 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and the land where they were strangers could not support them because of their livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So Esau dwelt in Mount Seir. Esau [is] Edom.

Genesis 36:9 And this [is] the genealogy of Esau the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir.

Genesis 36:10 These [were] the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau.

Genesis 36:11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

Genesis 36:12 Now Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These [were] the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

Genesis 36:13 These [were] the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

Genesis 36:14 These were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon. And she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah.

Genesis 36:15 These [were] the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn [son] of Esau, were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, Genesis 36:16 Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, [and] Chief Amalek. These [were] the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They [were] the sons of Adah.

Genesis 36:17 These [were] the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These [were] the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These [were] the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

Genesis 36:18 And these [were] the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jaalam, and Chief Korah. These [were] the chiefs [who descended] from Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:19 These [were] the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these [were] their chiefs.

Genesis 36:20 These [were] the sons of Seir the Horite who inhabited the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Genesis 36:21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These [were] the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

Genesis 36:22 And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Lotan's sister [was] Timna.

Genesis 36:23 These [were] the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 These [were] the sons of Zibeon: both Ajah and Anah. This [was the] Anah who found the water in the wilderness as he pastured the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Genesis 36:25 These [were] the children of Anah: Dishon and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:26 These [were] the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

Genesis 36:27 These [were] the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

Genesis 36:28 These [were] the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Genesis 36:29 These [were] the chiefs of the Horites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah,

Genesis 36:30 Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, and Chief Dishan. These [were] the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

Genesis 36:31 Now these [were] the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel:

Genesis 36:32 Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city [was] Dinhabah.

Genesis 36:33 And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:34 When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:35 And when Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. And the name of his city [was] Avith.

Genesis 36:36 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:37 And when Samlah died, Saul of Rehoboth-[by-the-River] reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:38 When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:39 And when Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor died, Hadar reigned in his place; and the name of his city [was] Pau. His wife's name [was] Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

Genesis 36:40 And these [were] the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families and their places, by their names: Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, Genesis 36:41 Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,

Genesis 36:42 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,

Genesis 36:43 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These [were] the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession. Esau [was] the father of the Edomites.

Genesis 37:1 Now Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 37:2 This [is] the history of Jacob. Joseph, [being] seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the lad [was] with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to his father.

Genesis 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he [was] the son of his old age. Also he made him a tunic of [many] colors.

Genesis 37:4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.

Genesis 37:5 Now Joseph had a dream, and he told [it] to his brothers; and they hated him even more.

Genesis 37:6 So he said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:

Genesis 37:7 "There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf."

Genesis 37:8 And his brothers said to him, "Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

Genesis 37:9 Then he dreamed still another dream and told it to his brothers, and said, "Look, I have dreamed another dream. And this time, the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me."

Genesis 37:10 So he told [it] to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What [is] this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your mother and I and your brothers indeed come to bow down to the earth before you?"

Genesis 37:11 And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter [in mind.]

Genesis 37:12 Then his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

Genesis 37:13 And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding [the flock] in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." So he said to him, "Here I am."

Genesis 37:14 Then he said to him, “Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me.” So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.

Genesis 37:15 Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, “What are you seeking?”

Genesis 37:16 So he said, “I am seeking my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding [their flocks.”]

Genesis 37:17 And the man said, “They have departed from here, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’ “ So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

Genesis 37:18 Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him.

Genesis 37:19 Then they said to one another, “Look, this dreamer is coming!

Genesis 37:20 “Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, ‘Some wild beast has devoured him.’ We shall see what will become of his dreams!”

Genesis 37:21 But Reuben heard [it,] and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, “Let us not kill him.”

Genesis 37:22 And Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood, [but] cast him into this pit which [is] in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him”—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph [of] his tunic, the tunic of [many] colors that [was] on him.

Genesis 37:24 Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit [was] empty; [there was] no water in it.

Genesis 37:25 And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry [them] down to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 So Judah said to his brothers, “What profit [is there] if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?

Genesis 37:27 “Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he [is] our brother [and] our flesh.” And his brothers listened.

Genesis 37:28 Then Midianite traders passed by; so [the brothers] pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty [shekels] of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 Then Reuben returned to the pit, and indeed Joseph [was] not in the pit; and he tore his clothes.

Genesis 37:30 And he returned to his brothers and said, “The lad [is] no [more;] and I, where shall I go?”

Genesis 37:31 So they took Joseph’s tunic, killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the tunic in the blood.

Genesis 37:32 Then they sent the tunic of [many] colors, and they brought [it] to their father and said, “We have found this. Do you know whether it [is] your son’s tunic or not?”

Genesis 37:33 And he recognized it and said, “[It is] my son’s tunic. A wild beast has devoured him. Without doubt Joseph is torn to pieces.”

Genesis 37:34 Then Jacob tore his clothes, put sackcloth on his waist, and mourned for his son many days.

Genesis 37:35 And all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and he said, “For I shall go down into the grave to my son in mourning.” Thus his father wept for him.

Genesis 37:36 Now the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh [and] captain of the guard.

Genesis 38:1 It came to pass at that time that Judah departed from his brothers, and visited a certain Adullamite whose name [was] Hirah.

Genesis 38:2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name [was] Shua, and he married her and went in to her.

Genesis 38:3 So she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er.

Genesis 38:4 She conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.

Genesis 38:5 And she conceived yet again and bore a son, and called his name Shelah. He was at Chezib when she bore him.

Genesis 38:6 Then Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name [was] Tamar.

Genesis 38:7 But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD killed him.

Genesis 38:8 And Judah said to Onan, “Go in to your brother’s wife and marry her, and raise up an heir to your brother.”

Genesis 38:9 But Onan knew that the heir would not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in to his brother’s wife, that he emitted on the ground, lest he should give an heir to his brother.

Genesis 38:10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD; therefore He killed him also.

Genesis 38:11 Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, “Remain a widow in your father’s house till my son Shelah is grown.” For he said, “Lest he also die like his brothers.” And Tamar went and dwelt in her father’s house.

Genesis 38:12 Now in the process of time the daughter of Shua, Judah’s wife, died; and Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

Genesis 38:13 And it was told Tamar, saying, “Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

Genesis 38:14 So she took off her widow’s garments, covered [herself] with a veil and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place which [was] on the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him as a wife.

Genesis 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought she [was] a harlot, because she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 Then he turned to her by the way, and said, “Please let me come in to you”; for he did not know that she [was] his daughter-in-law. So she said, “What will you give me, that you may come in to me?”

Genesis 38:17 And he said, “I will send a young goat from the flock.” So she said, “Will you give [me] a pledge till you send [it?”]

Genesis 38:18 Then he said, “What pledge shall I give you?” So she said, “Your signet and cord, and your staff that [is] in your hand.” Then he gave [them] to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

Genesis 38:19 So she arose and went away, and laid aside her veil and put on the garments of her widowhood.

Genesis 38:20 And Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive [his] pledge from the woman’s hand, but he did not find her.

Genesis 38:21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, “Where is the harlot who [was] openly by the roadside?” And they said, “There was no harlot in this [place.”]

Genesis 38:22 So he returned to Judah and said, “I cannot find her. Also, the men of the place said there was no harlot in this [place.”]

Genesis 38:23 Then Judah said, “Let her take [them] for herself, lest we be shamed; for I sent this young goat and you have not found her.”

Genesis 38:24 And it came to pass, about three months after, that Judah was told, saying, “Tamar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot; furthermore she [is] with child by harlotry.” So Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned!”

Genesis 38:25 When she [was] brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man to whom these belong, I [am] with child.”

And she said, “Please determine whose these [are—the] signet and cord, and staff.”

Genesis 38:26 So Judah acknowledged [them] and said, “She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah my son.” And he never knew her again.

Genesis 38:27 Now it came to pass, at the time for giving birth, that behold, twins [were] in her womb.

Genesis 38:28 And so it was, when she was giving birth, that [the one] put out [his] hand; and the midwife took a scarlet [thread] and bound it on his hand, saying, “This one came out first.”

Genesis 38:29 Then it happened, as he drew back his hand, that his brother came out unexpectedly; and she said, “How did you break through? [This] breach [be] upon you!” Therefore his name was called Perez.

Genesis 38:30 Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet [thread] on his hand. And his name was called Zerah.

Genesis 39:1 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there.

Genesis 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

Genesis 39:3 And his master saw that the LORD [was] with him and that the LORD made all he did to prosper in his hand.

Genesis 39:4 So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him overseer of his house, and all [that] he had he put under his authority.

Genesis 39:5 So it was, from the time [that] he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s house for Joseph’s sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field.

Genesis 39:6 Thus he left all that he had in Joseph’s hand, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.

Genesis 39:7 And it came to pass after these things that his master’s wife cast longing eyes on Joseph, and she said, “Lie with me.”

Genesis 39:8 But he refused and said to his master’s wife, “Look, my master does not know what [is] with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand.

Genesis 39:9 “[There is] no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you [are] his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?”

Genesis 39:10 So it was, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not heed her, to lie with her [or] to be with her.

Genesis 39:11 But it happened about this time, when Joseph went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house [was] inside,

Genesis 39:12 that she caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me.” But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and ran outside.

Genesis 39:13 And so it was, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and fled outside,

Genesis 39:14 that she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, “See, he has brought in to us a Hebrew to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice.

Genesis 39:15 “And it happened, when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me, and fled and went outside.”

Genesis 39:16 So she kept his garment with her until his master came home.

Genesis 39:17 Then she spoke to him with words like these, saying, “The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came in to me to mock me;

Genesis 39:18 “so it happened, as I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me and fled outside.”

Genesis 39:19 So it was, when his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, saying, “Your servant did to me after this manner,” that his anger was aroused.

Genesis 39:20 Then Joseph’s master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the king’s prisoners [were] confined. And he was there in the prison.

Genesis 39:21 But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

Genesis 39:22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph’s hand all the prisoners who [were] in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing.

Genesis 39:23 The keeper of the prison did not look into anything [that was] under [Joseph’s] authority, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made [it] prosper.

Genesis 40:1 It came to pass after these things [that] the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.

Genesis 40:2 And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief butler and the chief baker.

Genesis 40:3 So he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Joseph [was] confined.

Genesis 40:4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; so they were in custody for a while.

Genesis 40:5 Then the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who [were] confined in the prison, had a dream, both of them, each man's dream in one night [and] each man's dream with its [own] interpretation.

Genesis 40:6 And Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked at them, and saw that they [were] sad.

Genesis 40:7 So he asked Pharaoh's officers who [were] with him in the custody of his lord's house, saying, "Why do you look [so] sad today?"

Genesis 40:8 And they said to him, "We each have had a dream, and [there is] no interpreter of it." So Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell [them] to me, please."

Genesis 40:9 Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "Behold, in my dream a vine [was] before me, Genesis 40:10 "and in the vine [were] three branches; it [was] as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes.

Genesis 40:11 "Then Pharaoh's cup [was] in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

Genesis 40:12 And Joseph said to him, "This [is] the interpretation of it: The three branches [are] three days.

Genesis 40:13 "Now within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand according to the former manner, when you were his butler.

Genesis 40:14 "But remember me when it is well with you, and please show kindness to me; make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house.

Genesis 40:15 "For indeed I was stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; and also I have done nothing here that they should put me into the dungeon."

Genesis 40:16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also [was] in my dream, and there [were] three white baskets on my head.

Genesis 40:17 "In the uppermost basket [were] all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

Genesis 40:18 So Joseph answered and said, "This [is] the interpretation of it: The three baskets [are] three days.

Genesis 40:19 "Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head from you and hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

Genesis 40:20 Now it came to pass on the third day, [which was] Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

Genesis 40:21 Then he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand.

Genesis 40:22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.

Genesis 40:23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Genesis 41:1 Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river.

Genesis 41:2 Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.

Genesis 41:3 Then behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the [other] cows on the bank of the river.

Genesis 41:4 And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke.

Genesis 41:5 He slept and dreamed a second time; and suddenly seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, plump and good.

Genesis 41:6 Then behold, seven thin heads, blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.

Genesis 41:7 And the seven thin heads devoured the seven plump and full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and indeed, [it was] a dream.

Genesis 41:8 Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but [there was] no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying: "I remember my faults this day.

Genesis 41:10 "When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, [both] me and the chief baker, Genesis 41:11 "we each had a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his [own] dream.

Genesis 41:12 "Now there [was] a young Hebrew man with us there, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us; to each man he interpreted according to his [own] dream.

Genesis 41:13 "And it came to pass, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."

Genesis 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, and [there is] no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you [that] you can understand a dream, to interpret it.”

Genesis 41:16 So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, “[It is] not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace.”

Genesis 41:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: “Behold, in my dream I stood on the bank of the river.

Genesis 41:18 “Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.

Genesis 41:19 “Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:20 “And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows.

Genesis 41:21 “When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they [were] just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke.

Genesis 41:22 “Also I saw in my dream, and suddenly seven heads came up on one stalk, full and good.

Genesis 41:23 “Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, [and] blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.

Genesis 41:24 “And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So I told [this] to the magicians, but [there was] no one who could explain [it] to me.”

Genesis 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The dreams of Pharaoh [are] one; God has shown Pharaoh what He [is] about to do:

Genesis 41:26 “The seven good cows [are] seven years, and the seven good heads [are] seven years; the dreams [are] one.

Genesis 41:27 “And the seven thin and ugly cows which came up after them [are] seven years, and the seven empty heads blighted by the east wind are seven years of famine.

Genesis 41:28 “This [is] the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He [is] about to do.

Genesis 41:29 “Indeed seven years of great plenty will come throughout all the land of Egypt;

Genesis 41:30 “but after them seven years of famine will arise, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine will deplete the land.

Genesis 41:31 “So the plenty will not be known in the land because of the famine following, for it [will be] very severe.

Genesis 41:32 “And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing [is] established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

Genesis 41:33 “Now therefore, let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 “Let Pharaoh do [this,] and let him appoint officers over the land, to collect one-fifth [of the produce] of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.

Genesis 41:35 “And let them gather all the food of those good years that are coming, and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

Genesis 41:36 “Then that food shall be as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land may not perish during the famine.”

Genesis 41:37 So the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants.

Genesis 41:38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find [such a one] as this, a man in whom [is] the Spirit of God?”

Genesis 41:39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Inasmuch as God has shown you all this, [there is] no one as discerning and wise as you.

Genesis 41:40 “You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you.”

Genesis 41:41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:42 Then Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Joseph’s hand; and he clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

Genesis 41:43 And he had him ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried out before him, “Bow the knee!” So he set him over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 Pharaoh also said to Joseph, “I [am] Pharaoh, and without your consent no man may lift his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:45 And Pharaoh called Joseph’s name Zaphnath-Paaneah. And he gave him as a wife Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On. So Joseph went out over [all] the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:47 Now in the seven plentiful years the ground brought forth abundantly.

Genesis 41:48 So he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; he laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them.

Genesis 41:49 Joseph gathered very much grain, as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for [it was] immeasurable.

Genesis 41:50 And to Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 41:51 Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: “For God has made me forget all my toil and all my father’s house.”

Genesis 41:52 And the name of the second he called Ephraim: “For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

Genesis 41:53 Then the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt ended,

Genesis 41:54 and the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said. The famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

Genesis 41:55 So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Then Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, do.”

Genesis 41:56 The famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 So all countries came to Joseph in Egypt to buy [grain,] because the famine was severe in all lands.

Genesis 42:1 When Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, “Why do you look at one another?”

Genesis 42:2 And he said, “Indeed I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down to that place and buy for us there, that we may live and not die.”

Genesis 42:3 So Joseph’s ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt.

Genesis 42:4 But Jacob did not send Joseph’s brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, “Lest some calamity befall him.”

Genesis 42:5 And the sons of Israel went to buy [grain] among those who journeyed, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 42:6 Now Joseph [was] governor over the land; and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down before him with [their] faces to the earth.

Genesis 42:7 Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke roughly to them. Then he said to them, “Where do you come from?” And they said, “From the land of Canaan to buy food.”

Genesis 42:8 So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

Genesis 42:9 Then Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, “You [are] spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!”

Genesis 42:10 And they said to him, “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food.

Genesis 42:11 “We [are] all one man’s sons; we [are] honest [men;] your servants are not spies.”

Genesis 42:12 But he said to them, “No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land.”

Genesis 42:13 And they said, “Your servants [are] twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and in fact, the youngest [is] with our father today, and one [is] no more.”

Genesis 42:14 But Joseph said to them, “It [is] as I spoke to you, saying, ‘You [are] spies!’

Genesis 42:15 “In this [manner] you shall be tested: By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

Genesis 42:16 “Send one of you, and let him bring your brother; and you shall be kept in prison, that your words may be tested to see whether [there is] any truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you [are] spies!”

Genesis 42:17 So he put them all together in prison three days.

Genesis 42:18 Then Joseph said to them the third day, “Do this and live, [for] I fear God:

Genesis 42:19 “If you [are] honest [men,] let one of your brothers be confined to your prison house; but you, go and carry grain for the famine of your houses.

Genesis 42:20 “And bring your youngest brother to me; so your words will be verified, and you shall not die.” And they did so.

Genesis 42:21 Then they said to one another, “We [are] truly guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not hear; therefore this distress has come upon us.”

Genesis 42:22 And Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not speak to you, saying, ‘Do not sin against the boy’; and you would not listen? Therefore behold, his blood is now required of us.”

Genesis 42:23 But they did not know that Joseph understood [them,] for he spoke to them through an interpreter.

Genesis 42:24 And he turned himself away from them and wept. Then he returned to them again, and talked with them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Then Joseph gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, to restore every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. Thus he did for them.

Genesis 42:26 So they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there.

Genesis 42:27 But as one [of them] opened his sack to give his donkey feed at the encampment, he saw his money; and there it was, in the mouth of his sack.

Genesis 42:28 So he said to his brothers, "My money has been restored, and there it is, in my sack!" Then their hearts failed [them] and they were afraid, saying to one another, "What [is] this [that] God has done to us?"

Genesis 42:29 Then they went to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying:

Genesis 42:30 "The man [who is] lord of the land spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

Genesis 42:31 "But we said to him, 'We [are] honest [men;] we are not spies.

Genesis 42:32 'We [are] twelve brothers, sons of our father; one [is] no [more,] and the youngest [is] with our father this day in the land of Canaan.'

Genesis 42:33 "Then the man, the lord of the country, said to us, 'By this I will know that you [are] honest [men:] Leave one of your brothers [here] with me, take [food for] the famine of your households, and be gone.

Genesis 42:34 'And bring your youngest brother to me; so I shall know that you [are] not spies, but [that] you [are] honest [men.] I will grant your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.' "

Genesis 42:35 Then it happened as they emptied their sacks, that surprisingly each man's bundle of money [was] in his sack; and when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

Genesis 42:36 And Jacob their father said to them, "You have bereaved me: Joseph is no [more,] Simeon is no [more,] and you want to take Benjamin. All these things are against me."

Genesis 42:37 Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "Kill my two sons if I do not bring him [back] to you; put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you."

Genesis 42:38 But he said, “My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If any calamity should befall him along the way in which you go, then you would bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.”

Genesis 43:1 Now the famine [was] severe in the land.

Genesis 43:2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, “Go back, buy us a little food.”

Genesis 43:3 But Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother [is] with you.’ “

Genesis 43:4 “If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.

Genesis 43:5 “But if you will not send [him,] we will not go down; for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother [is] with you.’ “

Genesis 43:6 And Israel said, “Why did you deal [so] wrongfully with me [as] to tell the man whether you had still [another] brother?”

Genesis 43:7 But they said, “The man asked us pointedly about ourselves and our family, saying, ‘[Is] your father still alive? Have you [another] brother?’ And we told him according to these words. Could we possibly have known that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down’?”

Genesis 43:8 Then Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you [and] also our little ones.

Genesis 43:9 “I myself will be surety for him; from my hand you shall require him. If I do not bring him [back] to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.

Genesis 43:10 “For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned this second time.”

Genesis 43:11 And their father Israel said to them, “If [it must be] so, then do this: Take some of the best fruits of the land in your vessels and carry down a present for the man—a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

Genesis 43:12 “Take double money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight.

Genesis 43:13 “Take your brother also, and arise, go back to the man.

Genesis 43:14 “And may God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved, I am bereaved!”

Genesis 43:15 So the men took that present and Benjamin, and they took double money in their hand, and arose and went down to Egypt; and they stood before Joseph.

Genesis 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Take [these] men to my home, and slaughter an animal and make ready; for [these] men will dine with me at noon.”

Genesis 43:17 Then the man did as Joseph ordered, and the man brought the men into Joseph’s house.

Genesis 43:18 Now the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph’s house; and they said, “[It is] because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may make a case against us and fall upon us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys.”

Genesis 43:19 When they drew near to the steward of Joseph’s house, they talked with him at the door of the house,

Genesis 43:20 and said, “O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food;

Genesis 43:21 “but it happened, when we came to the encampment, that we opened our sacks, and there, [each] man’s money [was] in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it back in our hand.

Genesis 43:22 “And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.”

Genesis 43:23 But he said, “Peace [be] with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Genesis 43:24 So the man brought the men into Joseph’s house and gave [them] water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed.

Genesis 43:25 Then they made the present ready for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they heard that they would eat bread there.

Genesis 43:26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which [was] in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the earth.

Genesis 43:27 Then he asked them about [their] well-being, and said, “[Is] your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? [Is] he still alive?”

Genesis 43:28 And they answered, “Your servant our father [is] in good health; he [is] still alive.” And they bowed their heads down and prostrated themselves.

Genesis 43:29 Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, and said, “[Is] this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.”

Genesis 43:30 Now his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought [somewhere] to weep. And he went into [his] chamber and wept there.

Genesis 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, “Serve the bread.”

Genesis 43:32 So they set him a place by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that [is] an abomination to the Egyptians.

Genesis 43:33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another.

Genesis 43:34 Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin’s serving was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Genesis 44:1 And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the mouth of his sack.

Genesis 44:2 “Also put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money.” So he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

Genesis 44:3 As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

Genesis 44:4 When they had gone out of the city, [and] were not [yet] far off, Joseph said to his steward, “Get up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid evil for good?

Genesis 44:5 ‘[Is] not this [the one] from which my lord drinks, and with which he indeed practices divination? You have done evil in so doing.’ “

Genesis 44:6 So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words.

Genesis 44:7 And they said to him, “Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing.

Genesis 44:8 “Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord’s house?

Genesis 44:9 “With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord’s slaves.”

Genesis 44:10 And he said, “Now also [let] it [be] according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you shall be blameless.”

Genesis 44:11 Then each man speedily let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack.

Genesis 44:12 So he searched. He began with the oldest and left off with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Genesis 44:13 Then they tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

Genesis 44:14 So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he [was] still there; and they fell before him on the ground.

Genesis 44:15 And Joseph said to them, "What deed [is] this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practice divination?"

Genesis 44:16 Then Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; here we are, my lord's slaves, both we and [he] also with whom the cup was found."

Genesis 44:17 But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so; the man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave. And as for you, go up in peace to your father."

Genesis 44:18 Then Judah came near to him and said: "O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's hearing, and do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you [are] even like Pharaoh.

Genesis 44:19 "My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?'

Genesis 44:20 "And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of [his] old age, [who is] young; his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's children, and his father loves him.'

Genesis 44:21 "Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.'

Genesis 44:22 "And we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for [if] he should leave his father, [his father] would die.'

Genesis 44:23 "But you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.'

Genesis 44:24 "So it was, when we went up to your servant my father, that we told him the words of my lord.

Genesis 44:25 "And our father said, 'Go back [and] buy us a little food.'

Genesis 44:26 "But we said, 'We cannot go down; if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we may not see the man's face unless our youngest brother [is] with us.'

Genesis 44:27 "Then your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons;

Genesis 44:28 ‘and the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn to pieces”; and I have not seen him since.

Genesis 44:29 ‘But if you take this one also from me, and calamity befalls him, you shall bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.’

Genesis 44:30 “Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad [is] not with us, since his life is bound up in the lad’s life, Genesis 44:31 “it will happen, when he sees that the lad [is] not [with us,] that he will die. So your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

Genesis 44:32 “For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him [back] to you, then I shall bear the blame before my father forever.’

Genesis 44:33 “Now therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad as a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers.

Genesis 44:34 “For how shall I go up to my father if the lad [is] not with me, lest perhaps I see the evil that would come upon my father?”

Genesis 45:1 Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, “Make everyone go out from me!” So no one stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

Genesis 45:2 And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard [it.]

Genesis 45:3 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I [am] Joseph; does my father still live?” But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence.

Genesis 45:4 And Joseph said to his brothers, “Please come near to me.” So they came near. Then he said: “I [am] Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

Genesis 45:5 “But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life.

Genesis 45:6 “For these two years the famine [has been] in the land, and [there are] still five years in which [there will be] neither plowing nor harvesting.

Genesis 45:7 “And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Genesis 45:8 “So now [it was] not you [who] sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 “Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Joseph: “God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry.

Genesis 45:10 “You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children’s children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have.

Genesis 45:11 “There I will provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for [there are] still five years of famine.” ‘

Genesis 45:12 “And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that [it is] my mouth that speaks to you.

Genesis 45:13 “So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and bring my father down here.”

Genesis 45:14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.

Genesis 45:15 Moreover he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers talked with him.

Genesis 45:16 Now the report of it was heard in Pharaoh’s house, saying, “Joseph’s brothers have come.” So it pleased Pharaoh and his servants well.

Genesis 45:17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: Load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan.

Genesis 45:18 ‘Bring your father and your households and come to me; I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.

Genesis 45:19 ‘Now you are commanded—do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father and come.

Genesis 45:20 ‘Also do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt [is] yours.’ “

Genesis 45:21 Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey.

Genesis 45:22 He gave to all of them, to each man, changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred [pieces] of silver and five changes of garments.

Genesis 45:23 And he sent to his father these [things:] ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and food for his father for the journey.

Genesis 45:24 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed; and he said to them, “See that you do not become troubled along the way.”

Genesis 45:25 Then they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father.

Genesis 45:26 And they told him, saying, “Joseph [is] still alive, and he [is] governor over all the land of Egypt.” And Jacob’s heart stood still, because he did not believe them.

Genesis 45:27 But when they told him all the words which Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.

Genesis 45:28 Then Israel said, “[It is] enough. Joseph my son [is] still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46:1 So Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Genesis 46:2 Then God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, “Jacob, Jacob!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 46:3 So He said, “I [am] God, the God of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there.

Genesis 46:4 “I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up [again;] and Joseph will put his hand on your eyes.”

Genesis 46:5 Then Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives, in the carts which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

Genesis 46:6 So they took their livestock and their goods, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him.

Genesis 46:7 His sons and his sons’ sons, his daughters and his sons’ daughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

Genesis 46:8 Now these [were] the names of the children of Israel, Jacob and his sons, who went to Egypt: Reuben [was] Jacob’s firstborn.

Genesis 46:9 The sons of Reuben [were] Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

Genesis 46:10 The sons of Simeon [were] Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.

Genesis 46:11 The sons of Levi [were] Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Genesis 46:12 The sons of Judah [were] Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:13 The sons of Issachar [were] Tola, Puvah, Job, and Shimron.

Genesis 46:14 The sons of Zebulun [were] Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

Genesis 46:15 These [were] the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the persons, his sons and his daughters, [were] thirty-three.

Genesis 46:16 The sons of Gad [were] Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

Genesis 46:17 The sons of Asher [were] Jimnah, Ishuah, Isui, Beriah, and Serah, their sister. And the sons of Beriah [were] Heber and Malchiel.

Genesis 46:18 These [were] the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and these she bore to Jacob: sixteen persons.

Genesis 46:19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife, [were] Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 46:20 And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 46:21 The sons of Benjamin [were] Belah, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

Genesis 46:22 These [were] the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob: fourteen persons in all.

Genesis 46:23 The son of Dan [was] Hushim.

Genesis 46:24 The sons of Naphtali [were] Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

Genesis 46:25 These [were] the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob: seven persons in all.

Genesis 46:26 All the persons who went with Jacob to Egypt, who came from his body, besides Jacob's sons' wives, [were] sixty-six persons in all.

Genesis 46:27 And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt [were] two persons. All the persons of the house of Jacob who went to Egypt were seventy.

Genesis 46:28 Then he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to point out before him [the way] to Goshen. And they came to the land of Goshen.

Genesis 46:29 So Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; and he presented himself to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a good while.

Genesis 46:30 And Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you [are] still alive."

Genesis 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, 'My brothers and those of my father's house, who [were] in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

Genesis 46:32 'And the men [are] shepherds, for their occupation has been to feed livestock; and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.'

Genesis 46:33 "So it shall be, when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'

Genesis 46:34 “that you shall say, ‘Your servants’ occupation has been with livestock from our youth even till now, both we [and] also our fathers,’ that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd [is] an abomination to the Egyptians.”

Genesis 47:1 Then Joseph went and told Pharaoh, and said, “My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; and indeed they [are] in the land of Goshen.”

Genesis 47:2 And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:3 Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, “What [is] your occupation?” And they said to Pharaoh, “Your servants [are] shepherds, both we [and] also our fathers.”

Genesis 47:4 And they said to Pharaoh, “We have come to dwell in the land, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine [is] severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.”

Genesis 47:5 Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.

Genesis 47:6 “The land of Egypt [is] before you. Have your father and brothers dwell in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know [any] competent men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock.”

Genesis 47:7 Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and set him before Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How old [are] you?”

Genesis 47:9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my pilgrimage [are] one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.”

Genesis 47:10 So Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:11 And Joseph situated his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

Genesis 47:12 Then Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father’s household with bread, according to the number in [their] families.

Genesis 47:13 Now [there was] no bread in all the land; for the famine [was] very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

Genesis 47:14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

Genesis 47:15 So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed."

Genesis 47:16 Then Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you [bread] for your livestock, if the money is gone."

Genesis 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread [in exchange] for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread [in exchange] for all their livestock that year.

Genesis 47:18 When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

Genesis 47:19 "Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give [us] seed, that we may live and not die, that the land may not be desolate."

Genesis 47:20 Then Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's.

Genesis 47:21 And as for the people, he moved them into the cities, from [one] end of the borders of Egypt to the [other] end.

Genesis 47:22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had rations [allotted to them] by Pharaoh, and they ate their rations which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their lands.

Genesis 47:23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Indeed I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, [here is] seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

Genesis 47:24 "And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones."

Genesis 47:25 So they said, "You have saved our lives; let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."

Genesis 47:26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, [that] Pharaoh should have one-fifth, except for the land of the priests only, [which] did not become Pharaoh's.

Genesis 47:27 So Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions there and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

Genesis 47:28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

Genesis 47:29 When the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt,

Genesis 47:30 "but let me lie with my fathers; you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place." And he said, "I will do as you have said."

Genesis 47:31 Then he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. So Israel bowed himself on the head of the bed.

Genesis 48:1 Now it came to pass after these things that Joseph was told, "Indeed your father [is] sick"; and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

Genesis 48:2 And Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph is coming to you"; and Israel strengthened himself and sat up on the bed.

Genesis 48:3 Then Jacob said to Joseph: "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, Genesis 48:4 "and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and give this land to your descendants after you [as] an everlasting possession.'

Genesis 48:5 "And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, [are] mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

Genesis 48:6 "Your offspring whom you beget after them shall be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.

Genesis 48:7 "But as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when [there was] but a little distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)."

Genesis 48:8 Then Israel saw Joseph's sons, and said, "Who [are] these?"

Genesis 48:9 And Joseph said to his father, "They [are] my sons, whom God has given me in this [place."] And he said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them."

Genesis 48:10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, [so that] he could not see. Then Joseph brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

Genesis 48:11 And Israel said to Joseph, “I had not thought to see your face; but in fact, God has also shown me your offspring!”

Genesis 48:12 So Joseph brought them from beside his knees, and he bowed down with his face to the earth.

Genesis 48:13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim with his right hand toward Israel’s left hand, and Manasseh with his left hand toward Israel’s right hand, and brought [them] near him.

Genesis 48:14 Then Israel stretched out his right hand and laid [it] on Ephraim’s head, who [was] the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh’s head, guiding his hands knowingly, for Manasseh [was] the firstborn.

Genesis 48:15 And he blessed Joseph, and said: “God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, The God who has fed me all my life long to this day, Genesis 48:16 The Angel who has redeemed me from all evil, Bless the lads; Let my name be named upon them, And the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; And let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.”

Genesis 48:17 Now when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; so he took hold of his father’s hand to remove it from Ephraim’s head to Manasseh’s head.

Genesis 48:18 And Joseph said to his father, “Not so, my father, for this [one is] the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.”

Genesis 48:19 But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations.”

Genesis 48:20 So he blessed them that day, saying, “By you Israel will bless, saying, ‘May God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh!’ “ And thus he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

Genesis 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers.

Genesis 48:22 “Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow.”

Genesis 49:1 And Jacob called his sons and said, “Gather together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the last days:

Genesis 49:2 “Gather together and hear, you sons of Jacob, And listen to Israel your father.

Genesis 49:3 “Reuben, you are my firstborn, My might and the beginning of my strength, The excellency of dignity and the excellency of power.

Genesis 49:4 Unstable as water, you shall not excel, Because you went up to your father's bed; Then you defiled [it—He] went up to my couch.

Genesis 49:5 "Simeon and Levi [are] brothers; Instruments of cruelty [are in] their dwelling place.

Genesis 49:6 Let not my soul enter their council; Let not my honor be united to their assembly; For in their anger they slew a man, And in their self-will they hamstrung an ox.

Genesis 49:7 Cursed [be] their anger, for [it is] fierce; And their wrath, for it is cruel! I will divide them in Jacob And scatter them in Israel.

Genesis 49:8 "Judah, you [are he] whom your brothers shall praise; Your hand [shall be] on the neck of your enemies; Your father's children shall bow down before you.

Genesis 49:9 Judah [is] a lion's whelp; From the prey, my son, you have gone up. He bows down, he lies down as a lion; And as a lion, who shall rouse him?

Genesis 49:10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah, Nor a lawgiver from between his feet, Until Shiloh comes; And to Him [shall be] the obedience of the people.

Genesis 49:11 Binding his donkey to the vine, And his donkey's colt to the choice vine, He washed his garments in wine, And his clothes in the blood of grapes.

Genesis 49:12 His eyes [are] darker than wine, And his teeth whiter than milk.

Genesis 49:13 "Zebulun shall dwell by the haven of the sea; He [shall become] a haven for ships, And his border shall adjoin Sidon.

Genesis 49:14 "Issachar is a strong donkey, Lying down between two burdens;

Genesis 49:15 He saw that rest [was] good, And that the land [was] pleasant; He bowed his shoulder to bear [a burden,] And became a band of slaves.

Genesis 49:16 "Dan shall judge his people As one of the tribes of Israel.

Genesis 49:17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, A viper by the path, That bites the horse's heels So that its rider shall fall backward.

Genesis 49:18 I have waited for your salvation, O LORD!

Genesis 49:19 "Gad, a troop shall tramp upon him, But he shall triumph at last.

Genesis 49:20 "Bread from Asher [shall be] rich, And he shall yield royal dainties.

Genesis 49:21 “Naphtali [is] a deer let loose; He uses beautiful words.

Genesis 49:22 “Joseph [is] a fruitful bough, A fruitful bough by a well; His branches run over the wall.

Genesis 49:23 The archers have bitterly grieved him, Shot [at him] and hated him.

Genesis 49:24 But his bow remained in strength, And the arms of his hands were made strong By the hands of the Mighty [God] of Jacob (From there [is] the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel),

Genesis 49:25 By the God of your father who will help you, And by the Almighty who will bless you [With] blessings of heaven above, Blessings of the deep that lies beneath, Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.

Genesis 49:26 The blessings of your father Have excelled the blessings of my ancestors, Up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

Genesis 49:27 “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; In the morning he shall devour the prey, And at night he shall divide the spoil.”

Genesis 49:28 All these [are] the twelve tribes of Israel, and this [is] what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them; he blessed each one according to his own blessing.

Genesis 49:29 Then he charged them and said to them: “I am to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that [is] in the field of Ephron the Hittite, Genesis 49:30 “in the cave that [is] in the field of Machpelah, which [is] before Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial place.

Genesis 49:31 “There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah.

Genesis 49:32 “The field and the cave that [is] there [were] purchased from the sons of Heth.”

Genesis 49:33 And when Jacob had finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50:1 Then Joseph fell on his father’s face, and wept over him, and kissed him.

Genesis 50:2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.

Genesis 50:3 Forty days were required for him, for such are the days required for those who are embalmed; and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

Genesis 50:4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying,

Genesis 50:5 ‘My father made me swear, saying, “Behold, I am dying; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me.” Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back.’ “

Genesis 50:6 And Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear.”

Genesis 50:7 So Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

Genesis 50:8 as well as all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father’s house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds they left in the land of Goshen.

Genesis 50:9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great gathering.

Genesis 50:10 Then they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which [is] beyond the Jordan, and they mourned there with a great and very solemn lamentation. He observed seven days of mourning for his father.

Genesis 50:11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “This [is] a deep mourning of the Egyptians.” Therefore its name was called Abel Mizraim, which [is] beyond the Jordan.

Genesis 50:12 So his sons did for him just as he had commanded them.

Genesis 50:13 For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property for a burial place.

Genesis 50:14 And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

Genesis 50:15 When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “Perhaps Joseph will hate us, and may actually repay us for all the evil which we did to him.”

Genesis 50:16 So they sent [messengers] to Joseph, saying, “Before your father died he commanded, saying, Genesis 50:17 ‘Thus you shall say to Joseph: “I beg you, please forgive the trespass of your brothers and their sin; for they did evil to you.” ‘ Now, please, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of your father.” And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

Genesis 50:18 Then his brothers also went and fell down before his face, and they said, “Behold, we [are] your servants.”

Genesis 50:19 Joseph said to them, “Do not be afraid, for [am] I in the place of God?

Genesis 50:20 “But as for you, you meant evil against me; [but] God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as [it is] this day, to save many people alive.

Genesis 50:21 “Now therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones.” And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Genesis 50:22 So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father’s household. And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.

Genesis 50:23 Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third [generation.] The children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were also brought up on Joseph’s knees.

Genesis 50:24 And Joseph said to his brethren, “I am dying; but God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land of which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”

Genesis 50:25 Then Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here.”

Genesis 50:26 So Joseph died, [being] one hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1:1 Now these [are] the names of the children of Israel who came to Egypt; each man and his household came with Jacob:

Exodus 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;

Exodus 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;

Exodus 1:4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 All those who were descendants of Jacob were seventy persons (for Joseph was in Egypt [already).]

Exodus 1:6 And Joseph died, all his brothers, and all that generation.

Exodus 1:7 But the children of Israel were fruitful and increased abundantly, multiplied and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.

Exodus 1:8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.

Exodus 1:9 And he said to his people, “Look, the people of the children of Israel [are] more and mightier than we;

Exodus 1:10 “come, let us deal shrewdly with them, lest they multiply, and it happen, in the event of war, that they also join our enemies and fight against us, and [so] go up out of the land.”

Exodus 1:11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh supply cities, Pithom and Raamses.

Exodus 1:12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were in dread of the children of Israel.

Exodus 1:13 So the Egyptians made the children of Israel serve with rigor.

Exodus 1:14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage—in mortar, in brick, and in all manner of service in the field. All their service in which they made them serve [was] with rigor.

Exodus 1:15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of one [was] Shiphrah and the name of the other Puah;

Exodus 1:16 and he said, “When you do the duties of a midwife for the Hebrew women, and see [them] on the birthstools, if it [is] a son, then you shall kill him; but if it [is] a daughter, then she shall live.”

Exodus 1:17 But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the male children alive.

Exodus 1:18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this thing, and saved the male children alive?”

Exodus 1:19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women [are] not like the Egyptian women; for they [are] lively and give birth before the midwives come to them.”

Exodus 1:20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very mighty.

Exodus 1:21 And so it was, because the midwives feared God, that He provided households for them.

Exodus 1:22 So Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, “Every son who is born you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive.”

Exodus 2:1 And a man of the house of Levi went and took [as wife] a daughter of Levi.

Exodus 2:2 So the woman conceived and bore a son. And when she saw that he [was] a beautiful [child,] she hid him three months.

Exodus 2:3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took an ark of bulrushes for him, daubed it with asphalt and pitch, put the child in it, and laid [it] in the reeds by the river’s bank.

Exodus 2:4 And his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.

Exodus 2:5 Then the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river. And her maidens walked along the riverside; and when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her maid to get it.

Exodus 2:6 And when she had opened [it,] she saw the child, and behold, the baby wept. So she had compassion on him, and said, “This is one of the Hebrews’ children.”

Exodus 2:7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?”

Exodus 2:8 And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go.” So the maiden went and called the child’s mother.

Exodus 2:9 Then Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give [you] your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him.

Exodus 2:10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. So she called his name Moses, saying, “Because I drew him out of the water.”

Exodus 2:11 Now it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out to his brethren and looked at their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brethren.

Exodus 2:12 So he looked this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two Hebrew men were fighting, and he said to the one who did the wrong, “Why are you striking your companion?”

Exodus 2:14 Then he said, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” So Moses feared and said, “Surely this thing is known!”

Exodus 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of this matter, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midian; and he sat down by a well.

Exodus 2:16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew water, and they filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.

Exodus 2:17 Then the shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

Exodus 2:18 When they came to Reuel their father, he said, “How [is it that] you have come so soon today?”

Exodus 2:19 And they said, “An Egyptian delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and he also drew enough water for us and watered the flock.”

Exodus 2:20 So he said to his daughters, “And where [is] he? Why [is] it [that] you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.”

Exodus 2:21 Then Moses was content to live with the man, and he gave Zipporah his daughter to Moses.

Exodus 2:22 And she bore [him] a son, and he called his name Gershom; for he said, “I have been a stranger in a foreign land.”

Exodus 2:23 Now it happened in the process of time that the king of Egypt died. Then the children of Israel groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry came up to God because of the bondage.

Exodus 2:24 So God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

Exodus 2:25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God acknowledged [them.]

Exodus 3:1 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exodus 3:2 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush [was] not consumed.

Exodus 3:3 Then Moses said, “I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn.”

Exodus 3:4 So when the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Exodus 3:5 Then He said, “Do not draw near this place. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand [is] holy ground.”

Exodus 3:6 Moreover He said, “I [am] the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.

Exodus 3:7 And the LORD said: “I have surely seen the oppression of My people who [are] in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows.

Exodus 3:8 “So I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.

Exodus 3:9 “Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.

Exodus 3:10 “Come now, therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:11 But Moses said to God, “Who [am] I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?”

Exodus 3:12 So He said, “I will certainly be with you. And this [shall be] a sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain.”

Exodus 3:13 Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, [when] I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What [is] His name?’ what shall I say to them?”

Exodus 3:14 And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’ “

Exodus 3:15 Moreover God said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This [is] My name forever, and this [is] My memorial to all generations.’

Exodus 3:16 “Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, “I have surely visited you and [seen] what is done to you in Egypt;

Exodus 3:17 “and I have said I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” ‘

Exodus 3:18 “Then they will heed your voice; and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt; and you shall say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us; and now, please, let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’

Exodus 3:19 “But I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand.

Exodus 3:20 “So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in its midst; and after that he will let you go.

Exodus 3:21 “And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be, when you go, that you shall not go empty-handed.

Exodus 3:22 “But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, namely, of her who dwells near her house, articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put [them] on your sons and on your daughters. So you shall plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus 4:1 Then Moses answered and said, “But suppose they will not believe me or listen to my voice; suppose they say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’ “

Exodus 4:2 So the LORD said to him, “What [is] that in your hand?” He said, “A rod.”

Exodus 4:3 And He said, “Cast it on the ground.” So he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.

Exodus 4:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out your hand and take [it] by the tail” (and he reached out his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand),

Exodus 4:5 “that they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

Exodus 4:6 Furthermore the LORD said to him, “Now put your hand in your bosom.” And he put his hand in his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand [was] leprous, like snow.

Exodus 4:7 And He said, “Put your hand in your bosom again.” So he put his hand in his bosom again, and drew it out of his bosom, and behold, it was restored like his [other] flesh.

Exodus 4:8 “Then it will be, if they do not believe you, nor heed the message of the first sign, that they may believe the message of the latter sign.

Exodus 4:9 “And it shall be, if they do not believe even these two signs, or listen to your voice, that you shall take water from the river and pour [it] on the dry [land.] And the water which you take from the river will become blood on the dry [land.”]

Exodus 4:10 Then Moses said to the LORD, “O my Lord, I [am] not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; but I [am] slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

Exodus 4:11 So the LORD said to him, “Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? [Have] not I, the LORD?

Exodus 4:12 “Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say.”

Exodus 4:13 But he said, “O my Lord, please send by the hand of whomever [else] You may send.”

Exodus 4:14 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and He said: “Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And look, he is also coming out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.

Exodus 4:15 “Now you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you shall do.

Exodus 4:16 “So he shall be your spokesman to the people. And he himself shall be as a mouth for you, and you shall be to him as God.

Exodus 4:17 “And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

Exodus 4:18 So Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brethren who [are] in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

Exodus 4:19 And the LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go, return to Egypt; for all the men who sought your life are dead.”

Exodus 4:20 Then Moses took his wife and his sons and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

Exodus 4:21 And the LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in your hand. But I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.

Exodus 4:22 “Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Israel [is] My son, My firstborn.

Exodus 4:23 “So I say to you, let My son go that he may serve Me. But if you refuse to let him go, indeed I will kill your son, your firstborn.” ’ “

Exodus 4:24 And it came to pass on the way, at the encampment, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him.

Exodus 4:25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and cast [it] at [Moses’] feet, and said, “Surely you [are] a husband of blood to me!”

Exodus 4:26 So He let him go. Then she said, “[You are] a husband of blood!”—because of the circumcision.

Exodus 4:27 And the LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So he went and met him on the mountain of God, and kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 So Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him.

Exodus 4:29 Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.

Exodus 4:30 And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. Then he did the signs in the sight of the people.

Exodus 4:31 So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel and that He had looked on their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

Exodus 5:1 Afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.’ “

Exodus 5:2 And Pharaoh said, “Who [is] the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, nor will I let Israel go.”

Exodus 5:3 So they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go three days’ journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword.”

Exodus 5:4 Then the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people from their work? Get [back] to your labor.”

Exodus 5:5 And Pharaoh said, “Look, the people of the land [are] many now, and you make them rest from their labor!”

Exodus 5:6 So the same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their officers, saying,

Exodus 5:7 “You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

Exodus 5:8 “And you shall lay on them the quota of bricks which they made before. You shall not reduce it. For they are idle; therefore they cry out, saying, ‘Let us go [and] sacrifice to our God.’

Exodus 5:9 “Let more work be laid on the men, that they may labor in it, and let them not regard false words.”

Exodus 5:10 And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, “Thus says Pharaoh: ‘I will not give you straw.

Exodus 5:11 ‘Go, get yourselves straw where you can find it; yet none of your work will be reduced.’ “

Exodus 5:12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

Exodus 5:13 And the taskmasters forced [them] to hurry, saying, “Fulfill your work, [your] daily quota, as when there was straw.”

Exodus 5:14 Also the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten [and] were asked, “Why have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as before?”

Exodus 5:15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, “Why are you dealing thus with your servants?

Exodus 5:16 “There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, ‘Make brick!’ And indeed your servants [are] beaten, but the fault [is] in your [own] people.”

Exodus 5:17 But he said, “You [are] idle! Idle! Therefore you say, ‘Let us go [and] sacrifice to the LORD.’

Exodus 5:18 “Therefore go now [and] work; for no straw shall be given you, yet you shall deliver the quota of bricks.”

Exodus 5:19 And the officers of the children of Israel saw [that] they [were] in trouble after it was said, “You shall not reduce [any] bricks from your daily quota.”

Exodus 5:20 Then, as they came out from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron who stood there to meet them.

Exodus 5:21 And they said to them, “Let the LORD look on you and judge, because you have made us abhorrent in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Exodus 5:22 So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Lord, why have You brought trouble on this people? Why [is] it You have sent me?

Exodus 5:23 “For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all.”

Exodus 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh. For with a strong hand he will let them go, and with a strong hand he will drive them out of his land.”

Exodus 6:2 And God spoke to Moses and said to him: “I [am] the LORD.

Exodus 6:3 “I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty, but [by] My name LORD I was not known to them.

Exodus 6:4 “I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, in which they were strangers.

Exodus 6:5 “And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant.

Exodus 6:6 “Therefore say to the children of Israel: ‘I [am] the LORD; I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, I will rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.

Exodus 6:7 ‘I will take you as My people, and I will be your God. Then you shall know that I [am] the LORD your God who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:8 ‘And I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and I will give it to you [as] a heritage: I [am] the LORD.’ “

Exodus 6:9 So Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel; but they did not heed Moses, because of anguish of spirit and cruel bondage.

Exodus 6:10 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 6:11 “Go in, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the children of Israel go out of his land.”

Exodus 6:12 And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, “The children of Israel have not heeded me. How then shall Pharaoh heed me, for I [am] of uncircumcised lips?”

Exodus 6:13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them a command for the children of Israel and for Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 These [are] the heads of their fathers’ houses: The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, [were] Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These are the families of Reuben.

Exodus 6:15 And the sons of Simeon [were] Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These [are] the families of Simeon.

Exodus 6:16 These [are] the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi [were] one hundred and thirty-seven.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon [were] Libni and Shimi according to their families.

Exodus 6:18 And the sons of Kohath [were] Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath [were] one hundred and thirty-three.

Exodus 6:19 The sons of Merari [were] Mahali and Mushi. These [are] the families of Levi according to their generations.

Exodus 6:20 Now Amram took for himself Jochebed, his father’s sister, as wife; and she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram [were] one hundred and thirty-seven.

Exodus 6:21 The sons of Izhar [were] Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

Exodus 6:22 And the sons of Uzziel [were] Mishael, Elzaphan, and Zithri.

Exodus 6:23 Aaron took to himself Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, as wife; and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Exodus 6:24 And the sons of Korah [were] Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korahites.

Exodus 6:25 Eleazar, Aaron’s son, took for himself one of the daughters of Putiel as wife; and she bore him Phinehas. These [are] the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites according to their families.

Exodus 6:26 These [are the same] Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, “Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.”

Exodus 6:27 These [are] the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These [are the same] Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 6:28 And it came to pass, on the day the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 6:29 that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, “I [am] the LORD. Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you.”

Exodus 6:30 But Moses said before the LORD, “Behold, I [am] of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heed me?”

Exodus 7:1 So the LORD said to Moses: “See, I have made you [as] God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 “You shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh to send the children of Israel out of his land.

Exodus 7:3 “And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:4 “But Pharaoh will not heed you, so that I may lay My hand on Egypt and bring My armies [and] My people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.

Exodus 7:5 “And the Egyptians shall know that I [am] the LORD, when I stretch out My hand on Egypt and bring out the children of Israel from among them.”

Exodus 7:6 Then Moses and Aaron did [so;] just as the LORD commanded them, so they did.

Exodus 7:7 And Moses [was] eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Exodus 7:9 “When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Show a miracle for yourselves,’ then you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your rod and cast [it] before Pharaoh, [and] let it become a serpent.’ “

Exodus 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, just as the LORD commanded. And Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

Exodus 7:11 But Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers; so the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

Exodus 7:12 For every man threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron’s rod swallowed up their rods.

Exodus 7:13 And Pharaoh’s heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:14 So the LORD said to Moses: “Pharaoh’s heart [is] hard; he refuses to let the people go.

Exodus 7:15 “Go to Pharaoh in the morning, when he goes out to the water, and you shall stand by the river’s bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand.

Exodus 7:16 “And you shall say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness”; but indeed, until now you would not hear!

Exodus 7:17 ‘Thus says the LORD: “By this you shall know that I [am] the LORD. Behold, I will strike the waters which [are] in the river with the rod that [is] in my hand, and they shall be turned to blood.

Exodus 7:18 “And the fish that [are] in the river shall die, the river shall stink, and the Egyptians will loathe to drink the water of the river.” ‘ “

Exodus 7:19 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your rod and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, that they may become blood. And there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in [buckets of] wood and [pitchers of] stone.’ “

Exodus 7:20 And Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD commanded. So he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that [were] in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the waters that [were] in the river were turned to blood.

Exodus 7:21 The fish that [were] in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink the water of the river. So there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 Then the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments; and Pharaoh’s heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house. Neither was his heart moved by this.

Exodus 7:24 So all the Egyptians dug all around the river for water to drink, because they could not drink the water of the river.

Exodus 7:25 And seven days passed after the LORD had struck the river.

Exodus 8:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 8:2 “But if you refuse to let [them] go, behold, I will smite all your territory with frogs.

Exodus 8:3 “So the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, into your bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your servants, on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls.

Exodus 8:4 “And the frogs shall come up on you, on your people, and on all your servants.” ‘ “

Exodus 8:5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.’ “

Exodus 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Entreat the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, “Accept the honor of saying when I shall intercede for you, for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, [that] they may remain in the river only.”

Exodus 8:10 So he said, “Tomorrow.” And he said, “[Let it be] according to your word, that you may know that [there is] no one like the LORD our God.

Exodus 8:11 “And the frogs shall depart from you, from your houses, from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only.”

Exodus 8:12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:13 So the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields.

Exodus 8:14 They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

Exodus 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:16 So the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.’ “

Exodus 8:17 And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and it became lice on man and beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:18 Now the magicians so worked with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice on man and beast.

Exodus 8:19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This [is] the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:20 And the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes out to the water. Then say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 8:21 “Or else, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms [of flies] on you and your servants, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms [of flies,] and also the ground on which they [stand.]

Exodus 8:22 “And in that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms [of flies] shall be there, in order that you may know that I [am] the LORD in the midst of the land.

Exodus 8:23 “I will make a difference between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be.” ‘ “

Exodus 8:24 And the LORD did so. Thick swarms [of flies] came into the house of Pharaoh, [into] his servants’ houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was corrupted because of the swarms [of flies.]

Exodus 8:25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God in the land.”

Exodus 8:26 And Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we would be sacrificing the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, then will they not stone us?

Exodus 8:27 “We will go three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He will command us.”

Exodus 8:28 And Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Intercede for me.”

Exodus 8:29 Then Moses said, “Indeed I am going out from you, and I will entreat the LORD, that the swarms [of flies] may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. But let Pharaoh not deal deceitfully anymore in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.

Exodus 8:31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; He removed the swarms [of flies] from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained.

Exodus 8:32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also; neither would he let the people go.

Exodus 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 9:2 “For if you refuse to let [them] go, and still hold them, Exodus 9:3 “behold, the hand of the LORD will be on your cattle in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the oxen, and on the sheep—a very severe pestilence.

Exodus 9:4 “And the LORD will make a difference between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. So nothing shall die of all [that] belongs to the children of Israel.” ‘ “

Exodus 9:5 Then the LORD appointed a set time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.”

Exodus 9:6 So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died.

Exodus 9:7 Then Pharaoh sent, and indeed, not even one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh became hard, and he did not let the people go.

Exodus 9:8 So the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of ashes from a furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh.

Exodus 9:9 “And it will become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and it will cause boils that break out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:10 Then they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses scattered [them] toward heaven. And [they] caused boils that break out in sores on man and beast.

Exodus 9:11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians.

Exodus 9:12 But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh; and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

Exodus 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me, Exodus 9:14 “for at this time I will send all My plagues to your very heart, and on your servants and on your people, that you may know that [there is] none like Me in all the earth.

Exodus 9:15 “Now if I had stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, then you would have been cut off from the earth.

Exodus 9:16 “But indeed for this [purpose] I have raised you up, that I may show My power [in] you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth.

Exodus 9:17 “As yet you exalt yourself against My people in that you will not let them go.

Exodus 9:18 “Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause very heavy hail to rain down, such as has not been in Egypt since its founding until now.

Exodus 9:19 “Therefore send now [and] gather your livestock and all that you have in the field, for the hail shall come down on every man and every animal which is found in the field and is not brought home; and they shall die.” ‘ “

Exodus 9:20 He who feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his livestock flee to the houses.

Exodus 9:21 But he who did not regard the word of the LORD left his servants and his livestock in the field.

Exodus 9:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt—on man, on beast, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:23 And Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire darted to the ground. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.

Exodus 9:24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, so very heavy that there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

Exodus 9:25 And the hail struck throughout the whole land of Egypt, all that [was] in the field, both man and beast; and the hail struck every herb of the field and broke every tree of the field.

Exodus 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel [were,] there was no hail.

Exodus 9:27 And Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time. The LORD [is] righteous, and my people and I [are] wicked.

Exodus 9:28 “Entreat the LORD, that there may be no [more] mighty thundering and hail, for [it is] enough. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

Exodus 9:29 So Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the earth [is] the LORD’s.

Exodus 9:30 “But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God.”

Exodus 9:31 Now the flax and the barley were struck, for the barley [was] in the head and the flax [was] in bud.

Exodus 9:32 But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they [are] late crops.

Exodus 9:33 So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth.

Exodus 9:34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet more; and he hardened his heart, he and his servants.

Exodus 9:35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hard; neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

Exodus 10:1 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, that I may show these signs of Mine before him,

Exodus 10:2 “and that you may tell in the hearing of your son and your son’s son the mighty things I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, that you may know that I [am] the LORD.”

Exodus 10:3 So Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 10:4 ‘Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory.

Exodus 10:5 ‘And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that no one will be able to see the earth; and they shall eat the residue of what is left, which remains to you from the hail, and they shall eat every tree which grows up for you out of the field.

Exodus 10:6 ‘They shall fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians—which neither your fathers nor your fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.’ “ And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

Exodus 10:7 Then Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?”

Exodus 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God. Who [are] the ones that are going?”

Exodus 10:9 And Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we will go, for we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

Exodus 10:10 Then he said to them, “The LORD had better be with you when I let you and your little ones go! Beware, for evil is ahead of you.

Exodus 10:11 “Not so! Go now, you [who are] men, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desired.” And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

Exodus 10:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land—all that the hail has left.”

Exodus 10:13 So Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day and all [that] night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

Exodus 10:14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and rested on all the territory of Egypt. [They were] very severe; previously there had been no such locusts as they, nor shall there be such after them.

Exodus 10:15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. So there remained nothing green on the trees or on the plants of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 10:16 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Exodus 10:17 “Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and entreat the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only.”

Exodus 10:18 So he went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.

Exodus 10:19 And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the territory of Egypt.

Exodus 10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

Exodus 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness [which] may even be felt.”

Exodus 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.

Exodus 10:23 They did not see one another; nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

Exodus 10:24 Then Pharaoh called to Moses and said, “Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be kept back. Let your little ones also go with you.”

Exodus 10:25 But Moses said, “You must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

Exodus 10:26 “Our livestock also shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. For we must take some of them to serve the LORD our God, and even we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there.”

Exodus 10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let them go.

Exodus 10:28 Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! Take heed to yourself and see my face no more! For in the day you see my face you shall die!”

Exodus 10:29 And Moses said, “You have spoken well. I will never see your face again.”

Exodus 11:1 And the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring yet one [more] plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will let you go from here. When he lets [you] go, he will surely drive you out of here altogether.

Exodus 11:2 “Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold.”

Exodus 11:3 And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses [was] very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants and in the sight of the people.

Exodus 11:4 Then Moses said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt;

Exodus 11:5 ‘and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who [is] behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the animals.

Exodus 11:6 ‘Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was not like it [before,] nor shall be like it again.

Exodus 11:7 ‘But against none of the children of Israel shall a dog move its tongue, against man or beast, that you may know that the LORD does make a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.’

Exodus 11:8 “And all these your servants shall come down to me and bow down to me, saying, ‘Get out, and all the people who follow you!’ After that I will go out.” Then he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

Exodus 11:9 But the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not heed you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 11:10 So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; and the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 12:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, Exodus 12:2 “This month [shall be] your beginning of months; it [shall be] the first month of the year to you.

Exodus 12:3 “Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: ‘On the tenth [day] of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of [his] father, a lamb for a household.

Exodus 12:4 ‘And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take [it] according to the number of the persons; according to each man’s need you shall make your count for the lamb.

Exodus 12:5 ‘Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take [it] from the sheep or from the goats.

Exodus 12:6 ‘Now you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight.

Exodus 12:7 ‘And they shall take [some] of the blood and put [it] on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.

Exodus 12:8 ‘Then they shall eat the flesh on that night; roasted in fire, with unleavened bread [and] with bitter [herbs] they shall eat it.

Exodus 12:9 ‘Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails.

Exodus 12:10 ‘You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire.

Exodus 12:11 ‘And thus you shall eat it: [with] a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. It [is] the LORD’s Passover.

Exodus 12:12 ‘For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I [am] the LORD.

Exodus 12:13 ‘Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you [are.] And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy [you] when I strike the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 ‘So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance.

Exodus 12:15 ‘Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

Exodus 12:16 ‘On the first day [there shall be] a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but [that] which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you.

Exodus 12:17 ‘So you shall observe [the Feast of] Unleavened Bread, for on this same day I will have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance.

Exodus 12:18 ‘In the first [month,] on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

Exodus 12:19 ‘For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, since whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether [he is] a stranger or a native of the land.

Exodus 12:20 ‘You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.’ “

Exodus 12:21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover [lamb.]

Exodus 12:22 “And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip [it] in the blood that [is] in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that [is] in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.

Exodus 12:23 “For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike [you.]

Exodus 12:24 “And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever.

Exodus 12:25 “It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, just as He promised, that you shall keep this service.

Exodus 12:26 “And it shall be, when your children say to you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’

Exodus 12:27 “that you shall say, ‘It [is] the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.’ “ So the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

Exodus 12:28 Then the children of Israel went away and did [so;] just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Exodus 12:29 And it came to pass at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who [was] in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock.

Exodus 12:30 So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for [there was] not a house where [there was] not one dead.

Exodus 12:31 Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, “Rise, go out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel. And go, serve the LORD as you have said.

Exodus 12:32 “Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also.”

Exodus 12:33 And the Egyptians urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. For they said, “We [shall] all [be] dead.”

Exodus 12:34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.

Exodus 12:35 Now the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked from the Egyptians articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing.

Exodus 12:36 And the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they granted them [what they requested.] Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

Exodus 12:37 Then the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children.

Exodus 12:38 A mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of livestock.

Exodus 12:39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.

Exodus 12:40 Now the sojourn of the children of Israel who lived in Egypt [was] four hundred and thirty years.

Exodus 12:41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years—on that very same day—it came to pass that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:42 It [is] a night of solemn observance to the LORD for bringing them out of the land of Egypt. This [is] that night of the LORD, a solemn observance for all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

Exodus 12:43 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “This [is] the ordinance of the Passover: No foreigner shall eat it.

Exodus 12:44 “But every man’s servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then he may eat it.

Exodus 12:45 “A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat it.

Exodus 12:46 “In one house it shall be eaten; you shall not carry any of the flesh outside the house, nor shall you break one of its bones.

Exodus 12:47 “All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

Exodus 12:48 “And when a stranger dwells with you [and wants] to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as a native of the land. For no uncircumcised person shall eat it.

Exodus 12:49 “One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you.”

Exodus 12:50 Thus all the children of Israel did; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Exodus 12:51 And it came to pass, on that very same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their armies.

Exodus 13:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 13:2 “Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, [both] of man and beast; it is Mine.”

Exodus 13:3 And Moses said to the people: “Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out of this [place.] No leavened bread shall be eaten.

Exodus 13:4 “On this day you are going out, in the month Abib.

Exodus 13:5 “And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month.

Exodus 13:6 “Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day [there shall be] a feast to the LORD.

Exodus 13:7 “Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And no leavened bread shall be seen among you, nor shall leaven be seen among you in all your quarters.

Exodus 13:8 “And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, ‘[This is done] because of what the LORD did for me when I came up from Egypt.’

Exodus 13:9 “It shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD’s law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:10 “You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

Exodus 13:11 “ And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, Exodus 13:12 “that you shall set apart to the LORD all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males [shall be] the LORD’s.

Exodus 13:13 “But every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem [it,] then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem.

Exodus 13:14 “So it shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What [is] this?’ that you shall say to him, ‘By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Exodus 13:15 ‘And it came to pass, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all males that open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’

Exodus 13:16 “It shall be as a sign on your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

Exodus 13:17 Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them [by] way of the land of the Philistines, although that [was] near; for God said, “Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.”

Exodus 13:18 So God led the people around [by] way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up in orderly ranks out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 13:19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here with you.”

Exodus 13:20 So they took their journey from Succoth and camped in Etham at the edge of the wilderness.

Exodus 13:21 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night.

Exodus 13:22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night [from] before the people.

Exodus 14:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 14:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal Zephon; you shall camp before it by the sea.

Exodus 14:3 “For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, ‘They [are] bewildered by the land; the wilderness has closed them in.’

Exodus 14:4 “Then I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, so that he will pursue them; and I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, that the Egyptians may know that I [am] the LORD.” And they did so.

Exodus 14:5 Now it was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people; and they said, “Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?”

Exodus 14:6 So he made ready his chariot and took his people with him.

Exodus 14:7 Also, he took six hundred choice chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt with captains over every one of them.

Exodus 14:8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israel; and the children of Israel went out with boldness.

Exodus 14:9 So the Egyptians pursued them, all the horses [and] chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

Exodus 14:10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.

Exodus 14:11 Then they said to Moses, “Because [there were] no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt?

Exodus 14:12 “[Is] this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, ‘Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians?’ For [it would have been] better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.”

Exodus 14:13 And Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever.

Exodus 14:14 “The LORD will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.”

Exodus 14:15 And the LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry to Me? Tell the children of Israel to go forward.

Exodus 14:16 “But lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it. And the children of Israel shall go on dry [ground] through the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:17 “And I indeed will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them. So I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen.

Exodus 14:18 “Then the Egyptians shall know that I [am] the LORD, when I have gained honor for Myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.”

Exodus 14:19 And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them.

Exodus 14:20 So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness [to the one,] and it gave light by night [to the other,] so that the one did not come near the other all that night.

Exodus 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go [back] by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry [land,] and the waters were divided.

Exodus 14:22 So the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry [ground,] and the waters [were] a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exodus 14:23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

Exodus 14:24 Now it came to pass, in the morning watch, that the LORD looked down upon the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He troubled the army of the Egyptians.

Exodus 14:25 And He took off their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty; and the Egyptians said, “Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.”

Exodus 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.”

Exodus 14:27 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and when the morning appeared, the sea returned to its full depth, while the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:28 Then the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, [and] all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. Not so much as one of them remained.

Exodus 14:29 But the children of Israel had walked on dry [land] in the midst of the sea, and the waters [were] a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exodus 14:30 So the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

Exodus 14:31 Thus Israel saw the great work which the LORD had done in Egypt; so the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD and His servant Moses.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying: "I will sing to the LORD, For He has triumphed gloriously! The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea!

Exodus 15:2 The LORD [is] my strength and song, And He has become my salvation; He [is] my God, and I will praise Him; My father's God, and I will exalt Him.

Exodus 15:3 The LORD [is] a man of war; The LORD [is] His name.

Exodus 15:4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has cast into the sea; His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.

Exodus 15:5 The depths have covered them; They sank to the bottom like a stone.

Exodus 15:6 "Your right hand, O LORD, has become glorious in power; Your right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces.

Exodus 15:7 And in the greatness of Your excellence You have overthrown those who rose against You; You sent forth Your wrath; It consumed them like stubble.

Exodus 15:8 And with the blast of Your nostrils The waters were gathered together; The floods stood upright like a heap; The depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exodus 15:9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; My desire shall be satisfied on them. I will draw my sword, My hand shall destroy them.'

Exodus 15:10 You blew with Your wind, The sea covered them; They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Exodus 15:11 "Who [is] like You, O LORD, among the gods? Who [is] like You, glorious in holiness, Fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Exodus 15:12 You stretched out Your right hand; The earth swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 You in Your mercy have led forth The people whom You have redeemed; You have guided [them] in Your strength To Your holy habitation.

Exodus 15:14 "The people will hear [and] be afraid; Sorrow will take hold of the inhabitants of Philistia.

Exodus 15:15 Then the chiefs of Edom will be dismayed; The mighty men of Moab, Trembling will take hold of them; All the inhabitants of Canaan will melt away.

Exodus 15:16 Fear and dread will fall on them; By the greatness of Your arm They will be [as] still as a stone, Till Your people pass over, O LORD, Till the people pass over Whom You have purchased.

Exodus 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them In the mountain of Your inheritance, [In] the place, O LORD, [which] You have made For Your own dwelling, The sanctuary, O LORD, [which] Your hands have established.

Exodus 15:18 “The LORD shall reign forever and ever.”

Exodus 15:19 For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israel went on dry [land] in the midst of the sea.

Exodus 15:20 Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

Exodus 15:21 And Miriam answered them: “Sing to the LORD, For He has triumphed gloriously! The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea!”

Exodus 15:22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea; then they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

Exodus 15:23 Now when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they [were] bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah.

Exodus 15:24 And the people complained against Moses, saying, “What shall we drink?”

Exodus 15:25 So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. When he cast [it] into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He made a statute and an ordinance for them. And there He tested them,

Exodus 15:26 and said, “If you diligently heed the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I [am] the LORD who heals you.”

Exodus 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there [were] twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there by the waters.

Exodus 16:1 And they journeyed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they departed from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 Then the whole congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

Exodus 16:3 And the children of Israel said to them, “Oh, that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat [and] when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

Exodus 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain quota every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in My law or not.

Exodus 16:5 “And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.”

Exodus 16:6 Then Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, “At evening you shall know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:7 “And in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD; for He hears your complaints against the LORD. But what [are] we, that you complain against us?”

Exodus 16:8 Also Moses said, “[This shall be seen] when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to the full; for the LORD hears your complaints which you make against Him. And what [are] we? Your complaints [are] not against us but against the LORD.”

Exodus 16:9 Then Moses spoke to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your complaints.’ “

Exodus 16:10 Now it came to pass, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

Exodus 16:11 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 16:12 “I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I [am] the LORD your God.’ “

Exodus 16:13 So it was that quails came up at evening and covered the camp, and in the morning the dew lay all around the camp.

Exodus 16:14 And when the layer of dew lifted, there, on the surface of the wilderness, was a small round substance, [as] fine as frost on the ground.

Exodus 16:15 So when the children of Israel saw [it,] they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it [was.] And Moses said to them, “This [is] the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.

Exodus 16:16 “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Let every man gather it according to each one’s need, one omer for each person, [according to the] number of persons; let every man take for [those] who [are] in his tent.’ “

Exodus 16:17 Then the children of Israel did so and gathered, some more, some less.

Exodus 16:18 So when they measured [it] by omers, he who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack. Every man had gathered according to each one’s need.

Exodus 16:19 And Moses said, “Let no one leave any of it till morning.”

Exodus 16:20 Notwithstanding they did not heed Moses. But some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was angry with them.

Exodus 16:21 So they gathered it every morning, every man according to his need. And when the sun became hot, it melted.

Exodus 16:22 And so it was, on the sixth day, [that] they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

Exodus 16:23 Then he said to them, “This [is what] the LORD has said: ‘Tomorrow [is] a Sabbath rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake [today,] and boil what you will boil; and lay up for yourselves all that remains, to be kept until morning.’ “

Exodus 16:24 So they laid it up till morning, as Moses commanded; and it did not stink, nor were there any worms in it.

Exodus 16:25 Then Moses said, “Eat that today, for today [is] a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.

Exodus 16:26 “Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, [which is] the Sabbath, there will be none.”

Exodus 16:27 Now it happened [that some] of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found none.

Exodus 16:28 And the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws?

Exodus 16:29 “See! For the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you on the sixth day bread for two days. Let every man remain in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.”

Exodus 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Exodus 16:31 And the house of Israel called its name Manna. And it [was] like white coriander seed, and the taste of it [was] like wafers [made] with honey.

Exodus 16:32 Then Moses said, “This [is] the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Fill an omer with it, to be kept for your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’ “

Exodus 16:33 And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot and put an omer of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.”

Exodus 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.

Exodus 16:35 And the children of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

Exodus 16:36 Now an omer [is] one-tenth of an ephah.

Exodus 17:1 Then all the congregation of the children of Israel set out on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped in Rephidim; but [there was] no water for the people to drink.

Exodus 17:2 Therefore the people contended with Moses, and said, “Give us water, that we may drink.” And Moses said to them, “Why do you contend with me? Why do you tempt the LORD?”

Exodus 17:3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people complained against Moses, and said, “Why [is] it you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?”

Exodus 17:4 So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me!”

Exodus 17:5 And the LORD said to Moses, “Go on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. Also take in your hand your rod with which you struck the river, and go.

Exodus 17:6 “Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 17:7 So he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Exodus 17:8 Now Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

Exodus 17:9 And Moses said to Joshua, “Choose us some men and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand.”

Exodus 17:10 So Joshua did as Moses said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 And so it was, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

Exodus 17:12 But Moses' hands [became] heavy; so they took a stone and put [it] under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

Exodus 17:13 So Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Exodus 17:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write this [for] a memorial in the book and recount [it] in the hearing of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven."

Exodus 17:15 And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-LORD-Is-My-Banner;

Exodus 17:16 for he said, "Because the LORD has sworn: the LORD [will have] war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Exodus 18:1 And Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people—that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exodus 18:2 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

Exodus 18:3 with her two sons, of whom the name of one [was] Gershom (for he said, "I have been a stranger in a foreign land")

Exodus 18:4 and the name of the other [was] Eliezer (for [he said,] "The God of my father [was] my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh");

Exodus 18:5 and Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he was encamped at the mountain of God.

Exodus 18:6 Now he had said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her."

Exodus 18:7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and kissed him. And they asked each other about [their] well-being, and they went into the tent.

Exodus 18:8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them on the way, and [how] the LORD had delivered them.

Exodus 18:9 Then Jethro rejoiced for all the good which the LORD had done for Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:10 And Jethro said, “Blessed [be] the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, [and] who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:11 “Now I know that the LORD [is] greater than all the gods; for in the very thing in which they behaved proudly, [He was] above them.”

Exodus 18:12 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, took a burnt offering and [other] sacrifices [to offer] to God. And Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses’ father-in-law before God.

Exodus 18:13 And so it was, on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people; and the people stood before Moses from morning until evening.

Exodus 18:14 So when Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, “What [is] this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit, and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?”

Exodus 18:15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God.

Exodus 18:16 “When they have a difficulty, they come to me, and I judge between one and another; and I make known the statutes of God and His laws.”

Exodus 18:17 So Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “The thing that you do [is] not good.

Exodus 18:18 “Both you and these people who [are] with you will surely wear yourselves out. For this thing [is] too much for you; you are not able to perform it by yourself.

Exodus 18:19 “Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you: Stand before God for the people, so that you may bring the difficulties to God.

Exodus 18:20 “And you shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and show them the way in which they must walk and the work they must do.

Exodus 18:21 “Moreover you shall select from all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place [such] over them [to be] rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

Exodus 18:22 “And let them judge the people at all times. Then it will be [that] every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they themselves shall judge. So it will be easier for you, for they will bear [the burden] with you.

Exodus 18:23 “If you do this thing, and God [so] commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their place in peace.”

Exodus 18:24 So Moses heeded the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.

Exodus 18:25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people: rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

Exodus 18:26 So they judged the people at all times; the hard cases they brought to Moses, but they judged every small case themselves.

Exodus 18:27 Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way to his own land.

Exodus 19:1 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came [to] the Wilderness of Sinai.

Exodus 19:2 For they had departed from Rephidim, had come [to] the Wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Israel camped there before the mountain.

Exodus 19:3 And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:

Exodus 19:4 ‘You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and [how] I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to Myself.

Exodus 19:5 ‘Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth [is] Mine.

Exodus 19:6 ‘And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These [are] the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel.”

Exodus 19:7 So Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 19:8 Then all the people answered together and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do.” So Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

Exodus 19:9 And the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I come to you in the thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever.” So Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

Exodus 19:10 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes.

Exodus 19:11 “And let them be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Exodus 19:12 “You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, ‘Take heed to yourselves [that] you do [not] go up to the mountain or touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 19:13 ‘Not a hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot [with an arrow;] whether man or beast, he shall not live.’ When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come near the mountain.”

Exodus 19:14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

Exodus 19:15 And he said to the people, “Be ready for the third day; do not come near [your] wives.”

Exodus 19:16 Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who [were] in the camp trembled.

Exodus 19:17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 Now Mount Sinai [was] completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.

Exodus 19:19 And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice.

Exodus 19:20 Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Exodus 19:21 And the LORD said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to gaze at the LORD, and many of them perish.

Exodus 19:22 “Also let the priests who come near the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them.”

Exodus 19:23 But Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai; for You warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds around the mountain and consecrate it.’ “

Exodus 19:24 Then the LORD said to him, “Away! Get down and then come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break out against them.”

Exodus 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Exodus 20:1 And God spoke all these words, saying:

Exodus 20:2 “ I [am] the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Exodus 20:3 “ You shall have no other gods before Me.

Exodus 20:4 “ You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness [of anything] that [is] in heaven above, or that [is] in the earth beneath, or that [is] in the water under the earth;

Exodus 20:5 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, [am] a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth [generations] of those who hate Me,

Exodus 20:6 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Exodus 20:7 “ You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold [him] guiltless who takes His name in vain.

Exodus 20:8 “ Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Exodus 20:9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

Exodus 20:10 but the seventh day [is] the Sabbath of the LORD your God. [In it] you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who [is] within your gates.

Exodus 20:11 For [in] six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that [is] in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

Exodus 20:12 “ Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Exodus 20:13 “ You shall not murder.

Exodus 20:14 “ You shall not commit adultery.

Exodus 20:15 “ You shall not steal.

Exodus 20:16 “ You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Exodus 20:17 “ You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that [is] your neighbor’s.”

Exodus 20:18 Now all the people witnessed the thunderings, the lightning flashes, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw [it,] they trembled and stood afar off.

Exodus 20:19 Then they said to Moses, “You speak with us, and we will hear; but let not God speak with us, lest we die.”

Exodus 20:20 And Moses said to the people, “Do not fear; for God has come to test you, and that His fear may be before you, so that you may not sin.”

Exodus 20:21 So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near the thick darkness where God [was.]

Exodus 20:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: 'You have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

Exodus 20:23 'You shall not make [anything to be] with Me—gods of silver or gods of gold you shall not make for yourselves.

Exodus 20:24 'An altar of earth you shall make for Me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I record My name I will come to you, and I will bless you.

Exodus 20:25 'And if you make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stone; for if you use your tool on it, you have profaned it.

Exodus 20:26 'Nor shall you go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness may not be exposed on it.'

Exodus 21:1 "Now these [are] the judgments which you shall set before them:

Exodus 21:2 "If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years; and in the seventh he shall go out free and pay nothing.

Exodus 21:3 "If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he [comes in] married, then his wife shall go out with him.

Exodus 21:4 "If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

Exodus 21:5 "But if the servant plainly says, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,' Exodus 21:6 "then his master shall bring him to the judges. He shall also bring him to the door, or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him forever.

Exodus 21:7 " And if a man sells his daughter to be a female slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do.

Exodus 21:8 "If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt deceitfully with her.

Exodus 21:9 "And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters.

Exodus 21:10 "If he takes another [wife,] he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marriage rights.

Exodus 21:11 "And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out free, without [paying] money.

Exodus 21:12 " He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:13 “However, if he did not lie in wait, but God delivered [him] into his hand, then I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.

Exodus 21:14 “ But if a man acts with premeditation against his neighbor, to kill him by treachery, you shall take him from My altar, that he may die.

Exodus 21:15 “ And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:16 “ He who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:17 “ And he who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:18 “ If men contend with each other, and one strikes the other with a stone or with [his] fist, and he does not die but is confined to [his] bed, Exodus 21:19 “if he rises again and walks about outside with his staff, then he who struck [him] shall be acquitted. He shall only pay [for] the loss of his time, and shall provide [for him] to be thoroughly healed.

Exodus 21:20 “ And if a man beats his male or female servant with a rod, so that he dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished.

Exodus 21:21 “Notwithstanding, if he remains alive a day or two, he shall not be punished; for he [is] his property.

Exodus 21:22 “ If men fight, and hurt a woman with child, so that she gives birth prematurely, yet no harm follows, he shall surely be punished accordingly as the woman’s husband imposes on him; and he shall pay as the judges [determine.]

Exodus 21:23 “But if [any] harm follows, then you shall give life for life, Exodus 21:24 “eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, Exodus 21:25 “burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

Exodus 21:26 “If a man strikes the eye of his male or female servant, and destroys it, he shall let him go free for the sake of his eye.

Exodus 21:27 “And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female servant, he shall let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

Exodus 21:28 “ If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox [shall be] acquitted.

Exodus 21:29 “But if the ox tended to thrust with its horn in times past, and it has been made known to his owner, and he has not kept it confined, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:30 “If there is imposed on him a sum of money, then he shall pay to redeem his life, whatever is imposed on him.

Exodus 21:31 “Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him.

Exodus 21:32 “If the ox gores a male or female servant, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

Exodus 21:33 “ And if a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in it, Exodus 21:34 “the owner of the pit shall make [it] good; he shall give money to their owner, but the dead [animal] shall be his.

Exodus 21:35 “ If one man’s ox hurts another’s, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the money from it; and the dead [ox] they shall also divide.

Exodus 21:36 “Or if it was known that the ox tended to thrust in time past, and its owner has not kept it confined, he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal shall be his own.

Exodus 22:1 “If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

Exodus 22:2 “If the thief is found breaking in, and he is struck so that he dies, [there shall be] no guilt for his bloodshed.

Exodus 22:3 “If the sun has risen on him, [there shall be] guilt for his bloodshed. He should make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

Exodus 22:4 “If the theft is certainly found alive in his hand, whether it is an ox or donkey or sheep, he shall restore double.

Exodus 22:5 “ If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed, and lets loose his animal, and it feeds in another man’s field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

Exodus 22:6 “ If fire breaks out and catches in thorns, so that stacked grain, standing grain, or the field is consumed, he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

Exodus 22:7 “ If a man delivers to his neighbor money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man’s house, if the thief is found, he shall pay double.

Exodus 22:8 “If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought to the judges [to see] whether he has put his hand into his neighbor’s goods.

Exodus 22:9 “ For any kind of trespass, [whether it concerns] an ox, a donkey, a sheep, or clothing, [or] for any kind of lost thing which [another] claims to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; [and] whomever the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.

Exodus 22:10 “If a man delivers to his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, is hurt, or driven away, no one seeing [it,]

Exodus 22:11 “[then] an oath of the LORD shall be between them both, that he has not put his hand into his neighbor’s goods; and the owner of it shall accept [that,] and he shall not make [it] good.

Exodus 22:12 “But if, in fact, it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to the owner of it.

Exodus 22:13 “If it is torn to pieces [by a beast, then] he shall bring it as evidence, [and] he shall not make good what was torn.

Exodus 22:14 “ And if a man borrows [anything] from his neighbor, and it becomes injured or dies, the owner of it not [being] with it, he shall surely make [it] good.

Exodus 22:15 “If its owner [was] with it, he shall not make [it] good; if it [was] hired, it came for its hire.

Exodus 22:16 “ If a man entices a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, he shall surely pay the bride-price for her [to be] his wife.

Exodus 22:17 “If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the bride-price of virgins.

Exodus 22:18 “ You shall not permit a sorceress to live.

Exodus 22:19 “ Whoever lies with an animal shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 22:20 “ He who sacrifices to [any] god, except to the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

Exodus 22:21 “ You shall neither mistreat a stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 22:22 “ You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child.

Exodus 22:23 “If you afflict them in any way, [and] they cry at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry;

Exodus 22:24 “and My wrath will become hot, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

Exodus 22:25 “ If you lend money to [any of] My people [who are] poor among you, you shall not be like a moneylender to him; you shall not charge him interest.

Exodus 22:26 “If you ever take your neighbor’s garment as a pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down.

Exodus 22:27 “For that [is] his only covering, it [is] his garment for his skin. What will he sleep in? And it will be that when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I [am] gracious.

Exodus 22:28 “ You shall not revile God, nor curse a ruler of your people.

Exodus 22:29 “ You shall not delay [to offer] the first of your ripe produce and your juices. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.

Exodus 22:30 “Likewise you shall do with your oxen [and] your sheep. It shall be with its mother seven days; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

Exodus 22:31 “ And you shall be holy men to Me: you shall not eat meat torn [by beasts] in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23:1 “You shall not circulate a false report. Do not put your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

Exodus 23:2 “You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; nor shall you testify in a dispute so as to turn aside after many to pervert [justice.]

Exodus 23:3 “You shall not show partiality to a poor man in his dispute.

Exodus 23:4 “ If you meet your enemy’s ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again.

Exodus 23:5 “If you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden, and you would refrain from helping it, you shall surely help him with it.

Exodus 23:6 “ You shall not pervert the judgment of your poor in his dispute.

Exodus 23:7 “Keep yourself far from a false matter; do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked.

Exodus 23:8 “And you shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the discerning and perverts the words of the righteous.

Exodus 23:9 “Also you shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the heart of a stranger, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 “ Six years you shall sow your land and gather in its produce, Exodus 23:11 “but the seventh [year] you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave, the beasts of the field may eat. In like manner you shall do with your vineyard [and] your olive grove.

Exodus 23:12 “Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female servant and the stranger may be refreshed.

Exodus 23:13 “And in all that I have said to you, be circumspect and make no mention of the name of other gods, nor let it be heard from your mouth.

Exodus 23:14 “ Three times you shall keep a feast to Me in the year:

Exodus 23:15 “You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread (you shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt; none shall appear before Me empty);

Exodus 23:16 “and the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labors which you have sown in the field; and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you have gathered in [the fruit of] your labors from the field.

Exodus 23:17 “Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

Exodus 23:18 “You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; nor shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until morning.

Exodus 23:19 “The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Exodus 23:20 “ Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 “Beware of Him and obey His voice; do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions; for My name [is] in Him.

Exodus 23:22 “But if you indeed obey His voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

Exodus 23:23 “For My Angel will go before you and bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.

Exodus 23:24 “You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them and completely break down their [sacred] pillars.

Exodus 23:25 “So you shall serve the LORD your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you.

Exodus 23:26 “No one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

Exodus 23:27 “ I will send My fear before you, I will cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and will make all your enemies turn [their] backs to you.

Exodus 23:28 “And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you.

Exodus 23:29 “I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the beast of the field become too numerous for you.

Exodus 23:30 “Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and you inherit the land.

Exodus 23:31 “And I will set your bounds from the Red Sea to the sea, Philistia, and from the desert to the River. For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.

Exodus 23:32 “You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

Exodus 23:33 “They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me. For [if] you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

Exodus 24:1 Now He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship from afar.

Exodus 24:2 “And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him.”

Exodus 24:3 So Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the LORD has said we will do.”

Exodus 24:4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exodus 24:5 Then he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD.

Exodus 24:6 And Moses took half the blood and put [it] in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said, “All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient.”

Exodus 24:8 And Moses took the blood, sprinkled [it] on the people, and said, “This is the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you according to all these words.”

Exodus 24:9 Then Moses went up, also Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel,

Exodus 24:10 and they saw the God of Israel. And [there was] under His feet as it were a paved work of sapphire stone, and it was like the very heavens in [its] clarity.

Exodus 24:11 But on the nobles of the children of Israel He did not lay His hand. So they saw God, and they ate and drank.

Exodus 24:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and be there; and I will give you tablets of stone, and the law and commandments which I have written, that you may teach them.”

Exodus 24:13 So Moses arose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up to the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 And he said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Indeed Aaron and Hur [are] with you. If any man has a difficulty, let him go to them.”

Exodus 24:15 Then Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain.

Exodus 24:16 Now the glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 The sight of the glory of the LORD [was] like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel.

Exodus 24:18 So Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 25:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring Me an offering. From everyone who gives it willingly with his heart you shall take My offering.

Exodus 25:3 “And this [is] the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, and bronze;

Exodus 25:4 “blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] fine linen, and goats’ [hair;]

Exodus 25:5 “ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood;

Exodus 25:6 “oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;

Exodus 25:7 “onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

Exodus 25:8 “And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.

Exodus 25:9 “According to all that I show you, [that is,] the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings, just so you shall make [it.]

Exodus 25:10 “ And they shall make an ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits [shall be] its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exodus 25:11 “And you shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and shall make on it a molding of gold all around.

Exodus 25:12 “You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put [them] in its four corners; two rings [shall be] on one side, and two rings on the other side.

Exodus 25:13 “And you shall make poles [of] acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 25:14 “You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried by them.

Exodus 25:15 “The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

Exodus 25:16 “And you shall put into the ark the Testimony which I will give you.

Exodus 25:17 “You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits [shall be] its length and a cubit and a half its width.

Exodus 25:18 “And you shall make two cherubim of gold; of hammered work you shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:19 “Make one cherub at one end, and the other cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim at the two ends of it [of one piece] with the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:20 “And the cherubim shall stretch out [their] wings above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and they shall face one another; the faces of the cherubim [shall be] toward the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:21 “You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the Testimony that I will give you.

Exodus 25:22 “And there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which [are] on the ark of the Testimony, about everything which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

Exodus 25:23 “ You shall also make a table of acacia wood; two cubits [shall be] its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exodus 25:24 “And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold all around.

Exodus 25:25 “You shall make for it a frame of a handbreadth all around, and you shall make a gold molding for the frame all around.

Exodus 25:26 “And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that [are] at its four legs.

Exodus 25:27 “The rings shall be close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.

Exodus 25:28 “And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them.

Exodus 25:29 “You shall make its dishes, its pans, its pitchers, and its bowls for pouring. You shall make them of pure gold.

Exodus 25:30 “And you shall set the showbread on the table before Me always.

Exodus 25:31 “ You shall also make a lampstand of pure gold; the lampstand shall be of hammered work. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its [ornamental] knobs, and flowers shall be [of one piece.]

Exodus 25:32 “And six branches shall come out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.

Exodus 25:33 “Three bowls [shall be] made like almond [blossoms] on one branch, [with] an [ornamental] knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond [blossoms] on the other branch, [with] an [ornamental] knob and a flower—and so for the six branches that come out of the lampstand.

Exodus 25:34 “On the lampstand itself four bowls [shall be] made like almond [blossoms, each with] its [ornamental] knob and flower.

Exodus 25:35 “And [there shall be] a knob under the [first] two branches of the same, a knob under the [second] two branches of the same, and a knob under the [third] two branches of the same, according to the six branches that extend from the lampstand.

Exodus 25:36 “Their knobs and their branches [shall be of one piece;] all of it [shall be] one hammered piece of pure gold.

Exodus 25:37 “You shall make seven lamps for it, and they shall arrange its lamps so that they give light in front of it.

Exodus 25:38 “And its wick-trimmers and their trays [shall be] of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 “It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils.

Exodus 25:40 “And see to it that you make [them] according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain.

Exodus 26:1 “Moreover you shall make the tabernacle [with] ten curtains [of] fine woven linen and blue, purple, and scarlet [thread;] with artistic designs of cherubim you shall weave them.

Exodus 26:2 “The length of each curtain [shall be] twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have the same measurements.

Exodus 26:3 “Five curtains shall be coupled to one another, and [the other] five curtains [shall be] coupled to one another.

Exodus 26:4 “And you shall make loops of blue [yarn] on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of [one] set, and likewise you shall do on the outer edge of [the other] curtain of the second set.

Exodus 26:5 “Fifty loops you shall make in the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that [is] on the end of the second set, that the loops may be clasped to one another.

Exodus 26:6 “And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps, so that it may be one tabernacle.

Exodus 26:7 “ You shall also make curtains of goats’ [hair,] to be a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains.

Exodus 26:8 “The length of each curtain [shall be] thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall all have the same measurements.

Exodus 26:9 “And you shall couple five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the forefront of the tent.

Exodus 26:10 “You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in [one] set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain of the second set.

Exodus 26:11 “And you shall make fifty bronze clasps, put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

Exodus 26:12 “The remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:13 “And a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other side, of what remains of the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.

Exodus 26:14 “You shall also make a covering of ram skins dyed red for the tent, and a covering of badger skins above that.

Exodus 26:15 “ And for the tabernacle you shall make the boards of acacia wood, standing upright.

Exodus 26:16 “Ten cubits [shall be] the length of a board, and a cubit and a half [shall be] the width of each board.

Exodus 26:17 “Two tenons [shall be] in each board for binding one to another. Thus you shall make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:18 “And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.

Exodus 26:19 “You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.

Exodus 26:20 “And for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, [there shall be] twenty boards

Exodus 26:21 “and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under each of the boards.

Exodus 26:22 “For the far side of the tabernacle, westward, you shall make six boards.

Exodus 26:23 “And you shall also make two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:24 “They shall be coupled together at the bottom and they shall be coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus it shall be for both of them. They shall be for the two corners.

Exodus 26:25 “So there shall be eight boards with their sockets of silver—sixteen sockets—two sockets under each board.

Exodus 26:26 “ And you shall make bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle, Exodus 26:27 “five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the far side westward.

Exodus 26:28 “The middle bar shall pass through the midst of the boards from end to end.

Exodus 26:29 “You shall overlay the boards with gold, make their rings of gold [as] holders for the bars, and overlay the bars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 “And you shall raise up the tabernacle according to its pattern which you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 “ You shall make a veil woven of blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen. It shall be woven with an artistic design of cherubim.

Exodus 26:32 “You shall hang it upon the four pillars of acacia [wood] overlaid with gold. Their hooks [shall be] gold, upon four sockets of silver.

Exodus 26:33 “And you shall hang the veil from the clasps. Then you shall bring the ark of the Testimony in there, behind the veil. The veil shall be a divider for you between the holy [place] and the Most Holy.

Exodus 26:34 “You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy.

Exodus 26:35 “You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand across from the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and you shall put the table on the north side.

Exodus 26:36 “ You shall make a screen for the door of the tabernacle, [woven of] blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen, made by a weaver.

Exodus 26:37 “And you shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia [wood,] and overlay them with gold; their hooks [shall be of] gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

Exodus 27:1 “You shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide—the altar shall be square—and its height [shall be] three cubits.

Exodus 27:2 “You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it. And you shall overlay it with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 “Also you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.

Exodus 27:4 “You shall make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the network you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.

Exodus 27:5 “You shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, that the network may be midway up the altar.

Exodus 27:6 “And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.

Exodus 27:7 “The poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar to bear it.

Exodus 27:8 “You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make [it.]

Exodus 27:9 “ You shall also make the court of the tabernacle. For the south side [there shall be] hangings for the court [made of] fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long for one side.

Exodus 27:10 “And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets [shall be] bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands [shall be] silver.

Exodus 27:11 “Likewise along the length of the north side [there shall be] hangings one hundred [cubits] long, with its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of bronze, and the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.

Exodus 27:12 “ And along the width of the court on the west side [shall be] hangings of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets.

Exodus 27:13 “The width of the court on the east side [shall be] fifty cubits.

Exodus 27:14 “The hangings on [one] side [of the gate shall be] fifteen cubits, [with] their three pillars and their three sockets.

Exodus 27:15 “And on the other side [shall be] hangings of fifteen [cubits, with] their three pillars and their three sockets.

Exodus 27:16 “ For the gate of the court [there shall be] a screen twenty cubits long, [woven of] blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen, made by a weaver. It [shall have] four pillars and four sockets.

Exodus 27:17 “All the pillars around the court shall have bands of silver; their hooks [shall be] of silver and their sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:18 “The length of the court [shall be] one hundred cubits, the width fifty throughout, and the height five cubits, [made of] fine woven linen, and its sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:19 “All the utensils of the tabernacle for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the court, [shall be] of bronze.

Exodus 27:20 “ And you shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to cause the lamp to burn continually.

Exodus 27:21 “In the tabernacle of meeting, outside the veil which [is] before the Testimony, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening until morning before the LORD. [It shall be] a statute forever to their generations on behalf of the children of Israel.

Exodus 28:1 “Now take Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister to Me as priest, Aaron [and] Aaron’s sons: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Exodus 28:2 “And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.

Exodus 28:3 “So you shall speak to all [who are] gifted artisans, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron’s garments, to consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest.

Exodus 28:4 “And these [are] the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, an ephod, a robe, a skillfully woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. So they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to Me as priest.

Exodus 28:5 “ They shall take the gold, blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine linen, Exodus 28:6 “and they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, [and] scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen, artistically worked.

Exodus 28:7 “It shall have two shoulder straps joined at its two edges, and [so] it shall be joined together.

Exodus 28:8 “And the intricately woven band of the ephod, which [is] on it, shall be of the same workmanship, [made of] gold, blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen.

Exodus 28:9 “Then you shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel:

Exodus 28:10 “six of their names on one stone, and six names on the other stone, in order of their birth.

Exodus 28:11 “With the work of an engraver in stone, [like] the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall set them in settings of gold.

Exodus 28:12 “And you shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod [as] memorial stones for the sons of Israel. So Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders as a memorial.

Exodus 28:13 “You shall also make settings of gold,

Exodus 28:14 “and you shall make two chains of pure gold like braided cords, and fasten the braided chains to the settings.

Exodus 28:15 “ You shall make the breastplate of judgment. Artistically woven according to the workmanship of the ephod you shall make it: of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen, you shall make it.

Exodus 28:16 “It shall be doubled into a square: a span [shall be] its length, and a span [shall be] its width.

Exodus 28:17 “And you shall put settings of stones in it, four rows of stones: [The first] row [shall be] a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald; [this shall be] the first row;

Exodus 28:18 “the second row [shall be] a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

Exodus 28:19 “the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exodus 28:20 “and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in gold settings.

Exodus 28:21 “And the stones shall have the names of the sons of Israel, twelve according to their names, [like] the engravings of a signet, each one with its own name; they shall be according to the twelve tribes.

Exodus 28:22 “ You shall make chains for the breastplate at the end, like braided cords of pure gold.

Exodus 28:23 “And you shall make two rings of gold for the breastplate, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

Exodus 28:24 “Then you shall put the two braided [chains] of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate;

Exodus 28:25 “and the [other] two ends of the two braided [chains] you shall fasten to the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front.

Exodus 28:26 “ You shall make two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which is on the inner side of the ephod.

Exodus 28:27 “And two [other] rings of gold you shall make, and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod.

Exodus 28:28 “They shall bind the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod, using a blue cord, so that it is above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and so that the breastplate does not come loose from the ephod.

Exodus 28:29 “So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate of judgment over his heart, when he goes into the holy [place,] as a memorial before the LORD continually.

Exodus 28:30 “And you shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be over Aaron’s heart when he goes in before the LORD. So Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually.

Exodus 28:31 “ You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

Exodus 28:32 “There shall be an opening for his head in the middle of it; it shall have a woven binding all around its opening, like the opening in a coat of mail, so that it does not tear.

Exodus 28:33 “ And upon its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:

Exodus 28:34 “a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around.

Exodus 28:35 “And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he goes into the holy [place] before the LORD and when he comes out, that he may not die.

Exodus 28:36 “ You shall also make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, [like] the engraving of a signet: HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

Exodus 28:37 “And you shall put it on a blue cord, that it may be on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban.

Exodus 28:38 “So it shall be on Aaron’s forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israel hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

Exodus 28:39 “ You shall skillfully weave the tunic of fine linen [thread,] you shall make the turban of fine linen, and you shall make the sash of woven work.

Exodus 28:40 “ For Aaron’s sons you shall make tunics, and you shall make sashes for them. And you shall make hats for them, for glory and beauty.

Exodus 28:41 “So you shall put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him. You shall anoint them, consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

Exodus 28:42 “And you shall make for them linen trousers to cover their nakedness; they shall reach from the waist to the thighs.

Exodus 28:43 “They shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they come into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy [place,] that they do not incur iniquity and die. [It shall be] a statute forever to him and his descendants after him.

Exodus 29:1 “And this is what you shall do to them to hallow them for ministering to Me as priests: Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, Exodus 29:2 “and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil (you shall make them of wheat flour).

Exodus 29:3 “You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 “And Aaron and his sons you shall bring to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and you shall wash them with water.

Exodus 29:5 “Then you shall take the garments, put the tunic on Aaron, and the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the intricately woven band of the ephod.

Exodus 29:6 “You shall put the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban.

Exodus 29:7 “And you shall take the anointing oil, pour [it] on his head, and anoint him.

Exodus 29:8 “Then you shall bring his sons and put tunics on them.

Exodus 29:9 “And you shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and put the hats on them. The priesthood shall be theirs for a perpetual statute. So you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:10 “ You shall also have the bull brought before the tabernacle of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the bull.

Exodus 29:11 “Then you shall kill the bull before the LORD, [by] the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Exodus 29:12 “You shall take [some] of the blood of the bull and put [it] on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour all the blood beside the base of the altar.

Exodus 29:13 “And you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that [is] on them, and burn [them] on the altar.

Exodus 29:14 “But the flesh of the bull, with its skin and its offal, you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It [is] a sin offering.

Exodus 29:15 “ You shall also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram;

Exodus 29:16 “and you shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood and sprinkle [it] all around on the altar.

Exodus 29:17 “Then you shall cut the ram in pieces, wash its entrails and its legs, and put [them] with its pieces and with its head.

Exodus 29:18 “And you shall burn the whole ram on the altar. It [is] a burnt offering to the LORD; it [is] a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:19 “ You shall also take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram.

Exodus 29:20 “Then you shall kill the ram, and take some of its blood and put [it] on the tip of the right ear of Aaron and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.

Exodus 29:21 “And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle [it] on Aaron and on his garments, on his sons and on the garments of his sons with him; and he and his garments shall be hallowed, and his sons and his sons’ garments with him.

Exodus 29:22 “Also you shall take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, the right thigh (for it [is] a ram of consecration),

Exodus 29:23 “one loaf of bread, one cake [made with] oil, and one wafer from the basket of the unleavened bread that [is] before the LORD;

Exodus 29:24 “and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and you shall wave them [as] a wave offering before the LORD.

Exodus 29:25 “You shall receive them back from their hands and burn [them] on the altar as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma before the LORD. It [is] an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:26 “Then you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron’s consecration and wave it [as] a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.

Exodus 29:27 “And from the ram of the consecration you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering which is waved, and the thigh of the heave offering which is raised, of [that] which [is] for Aaron and of [that] which is for his sons.

Exodus 29:28 “It shall be from the children of Israel [for] Aaron and his sons by a statute forever. For it is a heave offering; it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, [that is,] their heave offering to the LORD.

Exodus 29:29 “ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons’ after him, to be anointed in them and to be consecrated in them.

Exodus 29:30 “That son who becomes priest in his place shall put them on for seven days, when he enters the tabernacle of meeting to minister in the holy [place.]

Exodus 29:31 “ And you shall take the ram of the consecration and boil its flesh in the holy place.

Exodus 29:32 “Then Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that [is] in the basket, [by] the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Exodus 29:33 “They shall eat those things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate [and] to sanctify them; but an outsider shall not eat [them,] because they [are] holy.

Exodus 29:34 “And if any of the flesh of the consecration offerings, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be eaten, because it [is] holy.

Exodus 29:35 “ Thus you shall do to Aaron and his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. Seven days you shall consecrate them.

Exodus 29:36 “And you shall offer a bull every day [as] a sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.

Exodus 29:37 “Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar must be holy.

Exodus 29:38 “ Now this [is] what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs of the first year, day by day continually.

Exodus 29:39 “One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight.

Exodus 29:40 “With the one lamb shall be one-tenth [of an ephah] of flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine [as] a drink offering.

Exodus 29:41 “And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight; and you shall offer with it the grain offering and the drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:42 “[This shall be] a continual burnt offering throughout your generations [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet you to speak with you.

Exodus 29:43 “And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and [the tabernacle] shall be sanctified by My glory.

Exodus 29:44 “So I will consecrate the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. I will also consecrate both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as priests.

Exodus 29:45 “I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their God.

Exodus 29:46 “And they shall know that I [am] the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I [am] the LORD their God.

Exodus 30:1 “You shall make an altar to burn incense on; you shall make it of acacia wood.

Exodus 30:2 “A cubit [shall be] its length and a cubit its width—it shall be square—and two cubits [shall be] its height. Its horns [shall be] of one piece with it.

Exodus 30:3 “And you shall overlay its top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold; and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around.

Exodus 30:4 “Two gold rings you shall make for it, under the molding on both its sides. You shall place [them] on its two sides, and they will be holders for the poles with which to bear it.

Exodus 30:5 “You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 “And you shall put it before the veil that [is] before the ark of the Testimony, before the mercy seat that [is] over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

Exodus 30:7 “Aaron shall burn on it sweet incense every morning; when he tends the lamps, he shall burn incense on it.

Exodus 30:8 “And when Aaron lights the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense on it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:9 “You shall not offer strange incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering; nor shall you pour a drink offering on it.

Exodus 30:10 “And Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement; once a year he shall make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It [is] most holy to the LORD.”

Exodus 30:11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 30:12 “When you take the census of the children of Israel for their number, then every man shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no plague among them when [you] number them.

Exodus 30:13 “This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel [is] twenty gerahs). The half-shekel [shall be] an offering to the LORD.

Exodus 30:14 “Everyone included among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the LORD.

Exodus 30:15 “The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when [you] give an offering to the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.

Exodus 30:16 “And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.”

Exodus 30:17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 30:18 “You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base also of bronze, for washing. You shall put it between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. And you shall put water in it, Exodus 30:19 “for Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in water from it.

Exodus 30:20 “When they go into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, lest they die.

Exodus 30:21 “So they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. And it shall be a statute forever to them—to him and his descendants throughout their generations.”

Exodus 30:22 Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 30:23 “Also take for yourself quality spices—five hundred [shekels] of liquid myrrh, half as much sweet-smelling cinnamon (two hundred and fifty [shekels),] two hundred and fifty [shekels] of sweet-smelling cane, Exodus 30:24 “five hundred [shekels] of cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin of olive oil.

Exodus 30:25 “And you shall make from these a holy anointing oil, an ointment compounded according to the art of the perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil.

Exodus 30:26 “With it you shall anoint the tabernacle of meeting and the ark of the Testimony;

Exodus 30:27 “the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense;

Exodus 30:28 “the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base.

Exodus 30:29 “You shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them must be holy.

Exodus 30:30 “And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that [they] may minister to Me as priests.

Exodus 30:31 “And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:32 ‘It shall not be poured on man’s flesh; nor shall you make [any other] like it, according to its composition. It [is] holy, [and] it shall be holy to you.

Exodus 30:33 ‘Whoever compounds [any] like it, or whoever puts [any] of it on an outsider, shall be cut off from his people.’ “

Exodus 30:34 And the LORD said to Moses: “Take sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, and pure frankincense with [these] sweet spices; there shall be equal amounts of each.

Exodus 30:35 “You shall make of these an incense, a compound according to the art of the perfumer, salted, pure, [and] holy.

Exodus 30:36 “And you shall beat [some] of it very fine, and put some of it before the Testimony in the tabernacle of meeting where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.

Exodus 30:37 “But [as for] the incense which you shall make, you shall not make any for yourselves, according to its composition. It shall be to you holy for the LORD.

Exodus 30:38 “Whoever makes [any] like it, to smell it, he shall be cut off from his people.”

Exodus 31:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 31:2 “See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

Exodus 31:3 “And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all [manner of] workmanship,

Exodus 31:4 “to design artistic works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze, Exodus 31:5 “in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all [manner of] workmanship.

Exodus 31:6 “And I, indeed I, have appointed with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have put wisdom in the hearts of all who are gifted artisans, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

Exodus 31:7 “the tabernacle of meeting, the ark of the Testimony and the mercy seat that [is] on it, and all the furniture of the tabernacle—

Exodus 31:8 “the table and its utensils, the pure [gold] lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense,

Exodus 31:9 “the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base—

Exodus 31:10 “the garments of ministry, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests,

Exodus 31:11 “and the anointing oil and sweet incense for the holy [place.] According to all that I have commanded you they shall do.”

Exodus 31:12 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 31:13 “Speak also to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it [is] a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that [you] may know that I [am] the LORD who sanctifies you.

Exodus 31:14 'You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for [it is] holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does [any] work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people.

Exodus 31:15 'Work shall be done for six days, but the seventh [is] the Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does [any] work on the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 31:16 'Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations [as] a perpetual covenant.

Exodus 31:17 'It [is] a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for [in] six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.' "

Exodus 31:18 And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

Exodus 32:1 Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together to Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make us gods that shall go before us; for [as for] this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

Exodus 32:2 And Aaron said to them, "Break off the golden earrings which [are] in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring [them] to me."

Exodus 32:3 "So all the people broke off the golden earrings which [were] in their ears, and brought [them] to Aaron.

Exodus 32:4 And he received [the gold] from their hand, and he fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made a molded calf. Then they said, "This [is] your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!"

Exodus 32:5 So when Aaron saw [it,] he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, "Tomorrow [is] a feast to the LORD."

Exodus 32:6 Then they rose early on the next day, offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

Exodus 32:7 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go, get down! For your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt have corrupted [themselves.]

Exodus 32:8 "They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molded calf, and worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'This [is] your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!' "

Exodus 32:9 And the LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and indeed it [is] a stiff-necked people!

Exodus 32:10 "Now therefore, let Me alone, that My wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them. And I will make of you a great nation."

Exodus 32:11 Then Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said: "LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

Exodus 32:12 "Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, 'He brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this harm to Your people.

Exodus 32:13 "Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self, and said to them, 'I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit [it] forever.' "

Exodus 32:14 So the LORD relented from the harm which He said He would do to His people.

Exodus 32:15 And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony [were] in his hand. The tablets [were] written on both sides; on the one [side] and on the other they were written.

Exodus 32:16 Now the tablets [were] the work of God, and the writing [was] the writing of God engraved on the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "[There is] a noise of war in the camp."

Exodus 32:18 But he said: "[It is] not the noise of the shout of victory, Nor the noise of the cry of defeat, [But] the sound of singing I hear."

Exodus 32:19 So it was, as soon as he came near the camp, that he saw the calf [and] the dancing. So Moses' anger became hot, and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 Then he took the calf which they had made, burned [it] in the fire, and ground [it] to powder; and he scattered [it] on the water and made the children of Israel drink [it.]

Exodus 32:21 And Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you that you have brought [so] great a sin upon them?"

Exodus 32:22 So Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord become hot. You know the people, that they [are set] on evil.

Exodus 32:23 “For they said to me, ‘Make us gods that shall go before us; [as for] this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’

Exodus 32:24 “And I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them break [it] off.’ So they gave [it] to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out.”

Exodus 32:25 Now when Moses saw that the people [were] unrestrained (for Aaron had not restrained them, to [their] shame among their enemies),

Exodus 32:26 then Moses stood in the entrance of the camp, and said, “Whoever [is] on the LORD’s side—[come] to me.” And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

Exodus 32:27 And he said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Let every man put his sword on his side, and go in and out from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and let every man kill his brother, every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.’ “

Exodus 32:28 So the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

Exodus 32:29 Then Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day, for every man has opposed his son and his brother.”

Exodus 32:30 Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. So now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

Exodus 32:31 Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Oh, these people have committed a great sin, and have made for themselves a god of gold!

Exodus 32:32 “Yet now, if You will forgive their sin—but if not, I pray, blot me out of Your book which You have written.”

Exodus 32:33 And the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book.

Exodus 32:34 “Now therefore, go, lead the people to [the place] of which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, in the day when I visit for punishment, I will visit punishment upon them for their sin.”

Exodus 32:35 So the LORD plagued the people because of what they did with the calf which Aaron made.

Exodus 33:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Depart [and] go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give it.’

Exodus 33:2 “And I will send [My] Angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.

Exodus 33:3 “[Go up] to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, lest I consume you on the way, for you [are] a stiff-necked people.”

Exodus 33:4 And when the people heard this bad news, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments.

Exodus 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the children of Israel, ‘You [are] a stiff-necked people. I could come up into your midst in one moment and consume you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, that I may know what to do to you.’ “

Exodus 33:6 So the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

Exodus 33:7 Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of meeting. And it came to pass [that] everyone who sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of meeting which [was] outside the camp.

Exodus 33:8 So it was, whenever Moses went out to the tabernacle, [that] all the people rose, and each man stood [at] his tent door and watched Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle.

Exodus 33:9 And it came to pass, when Moses entered the tabernacle, that the pillar of cloud descended and stood [at] the door of the tabernacle, and [the] [Lord] talked with Moses.

Exodus 33:10 All the people saw the pillar of cloud standing [at] the tabernacle door, and all the people rose and worshiped, each man [in] his tent door.

Exodus 33:11 So the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

Exodus 33:12 Then Moses said to the LORD, “See, You say to me, ‘Bring up this people.’ But You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.’

Exodus 33:13 “Now therefore, I pray, if I have found grace in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You and that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation [is] Your people.”

Exodus 33:14 And He said, “My Presence will go [with you,] and I will give you rest.”

Exodus 33:15 Then he said to Him, “If Your Presence does not go [with us,] do not bring us up from here.

Exodus 33:16 “For how then will it be known that Your people and I have found grace in Your sight, except You go with us? So we shall be separate, Your people and I, from all the people who [are] upon the face of the earth."

Exodus 33:17 So the LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have spoken; for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name."

Exodus 33:18 And he said, "Please, show me Your glory."

Exodus 33:19 Then He said, "I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."

Exodus 33:20 But He said, "You cannot see My face; for no man shall see Me, and live."

Exodus 33:21 And the LORD said, "Here is a place by Me, and you shall stand on the rock.

Exodus 33:22 "So it shall be, while My glory passes by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by.

Exodus 33:23 "Then I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back; but My face shall not be seen."

Exodus 34:1 And the LORD said to Moses, "Cut two tablets of stone like the first [ones,] and I will write on [these] tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke.

Exodus 34:2 "So be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there on the top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 "And no man shall come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain; let neither flocks nor herds feed before that mountain."

Exodus 34:4 So he cut two tablets of stone like the first [ones.] Then Moses rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him; and he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

Exodus 34:5 Now the LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

Exodus 34:6 And the LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth,

Exodus 34:7 "keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, by no means clearing [the guilty,] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children to the third and the fourth generation."

Exodus 34:8 So Moses made haste and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped.

Exodus 34:9 Then he said, “If now I have found grace in Your sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray, go among us, even though we [are] a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your inheritance.”

Exodus 34:10 And He said: “Behold, I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among whom you [are] shall see the work of the LORD. For it [is] an awesome thing that I will do with you.

Exodus 34:11 “Observe what I command you this day. Behold, I am driving out from before you the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.

Exodus 34:12 “Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be a snare in your midst.

Exodus 34:13 “But you shall destroy their altars, break their [sacred] pillars, and cut down their [wooden] images

Exodus 34:14 ‘(for you shall worship no other god, for the LORD, whose name [is] Jealous, [is] a jealous God),

Exodus 34:15 “lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they play the harlot with their gods and make sacrifice to their gods, and [one of them] invites you and you eat of his sacrifice,

Exodus 34:16 “and you take of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters play the harlot with their gods and make your sons play the harlot with their gods.

Exodus 34:17 “You shall make no molded gods for yourselves.

Exodus 34:18 “ The Feast of Unleavened Bread you shall keep. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the appointed time of the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 “All that open the womb [are] Mine, and every male firstborn among your livestock, [whether] ox or sheep.

Exodus 34:20 “But the firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you will not redeem [him,] then you shall break his neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty-handed.

Exodus 34:21 “ Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.

Exodus 34:22 “And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year’s end.

Exodus 34:23 “Three times in the year all your men shall appear before the Lord, the LORD God of Israel.

Exodus 34:24 “For I will cast out the nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither will any man covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

Exodus 34:25 “ You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven, nor shall the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover be left until morning.

Exodus 34:26 “The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

Exodus 34:27 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write these words, for according to the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

Exodus 34:28 So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

Exodus 34:29 Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony [were] in Moses’ hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him.

Exodus 34:30 So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

Exodus 34:31 Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them.

Exodus 34:32 Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them as commandments all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

Exodus 34:34 But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take the veil off until he came out; and he would come out and speak to the children of Israel whatever he had been commanded.

Exodus 34:35 And whenever the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses’ face shone, then Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

Exodus 35:1 Then Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them, “These [are] the words which the LORD has commanded [you] to do:

Exodus 35:2 “Work shall be done for six days, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

Exodus 35:3 “You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day.”

Exodus 35:4 And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “This [is] the thing which the LORD commanded, saying:

Exodus 35:5 ‘Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever [is] of a willing heart, let him bring it as an offering to the LORD: gold, silver, and bronze;

Exodus 35:6 ‘blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] fine linen, and goats’ [hair;]

Exodus 35:7 ‘ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood;

Exodus 35:8 ‘oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;

Exodus 35:9 ‘onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

Exodus 35:10 ‘ All [who are] gifted artisans among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:11 ‘the tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;

Exodus 35:12 ‘the ark and its poles, [with] the mercy seat, and the veil of the covering;

Exodus 35:13 ‘the table and its poles, all its utensils, and the showbread;

Exodus 35:14 ‘also the lampstand for the light, its utensils, its lamps, and the oil for the light;

Exodus 35:15 ‘the incense altar, its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, and the screen for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle;

Exodus 35:16 ‘the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, all its utensils, [and] the laver and its base;

Exodus 35:17 ‘the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;

Exodus 35:18 ‘the pegs of the tabernacle, the pegs of the court, and their cords;

Exodus 35:19 ‘the garments of ministry, for ministering in the holy [place—the] holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.’ “

Exodus 35:20 And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

Exodus 35:21 Then everyone came whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, [and] they brought the LORD’s offering for the work of the tabernacle of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments.

Exodus 35:22 They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, [and] brought earrings and nose rings, rings and necklaces, all jewelry of gold, that is, every man who [made] an offering of gold to the LORD.

Exodus 35:23 And every man, with whom was found blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] fine linen, and goats' [hair,] red skins of rams, and badger skins, brought [them.]

Exodus 35:24 Everyone who offered an offering of silver or bronze brought the LORD's offering. And everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought [it.]

Exodus 35:25 All the women [who were] gifted artisans spun yarn with their hands, and brought what they had spun, of blue , purple, [and] scarlet, and fine linen.

Exodus 35:26 And all the women whose heart stirred with wisdom spun yarn of goats' [hair.]

Exodus 35:27 The rulers brought onyx stones, and the stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate,

Exodus 35:28 and spices and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

Exodus 35:29 The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts were willing to bring [material] for all kinds of work which the LORD, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.

Exodus 35:30 And Moses said to the children of Israel, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

Exodus 35:31 "and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and all manner of workmanship,

Exodus 35:32 "to design artistic works, to work in gold and silver and bronze, Exodus 35:33 "in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of artistic workmanship.

Exodus 35:34 "And He has put in his heart the ability to teach, [in] him and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

Exodus 35:35 "He has filled them with skill to do all manner of work of the engraver and the designer and the tapestry maker, in blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine linen, and of the weaver—those who do every work and those who design artistic works.

Exodus 36:1 “And Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whom the LORD has put wisdom and understanding, to know how to do all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, shall do according to all that the LORD has commanded.”

Exodus 36:2 Then Moses called Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, everyone whose heart was stirred, to come and do the work.

Exodus 36:3 And they received from Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of making the sanctuary. So they continued bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.

Exodus 36:4 Then all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work he was doing,

Exodus 36:5 and they spoke to Moses, saying, “The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded [us] to do.”

Exodus 36:6 So Moses gave a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary.” And the people were restrained from bringing,

Exodus 36:7 for the material they had was sufficient for all the work to be done—indeed too much.

Exodus 36:8 Then all the gifted artisans among them who worked on the tabernacle made ten curtains woven of fine linen, and of blue, purple, and scarlet [thread; with] artistic designs of cherubim they made them.

Exodus 36:9 The length of each curtain [was] twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the curtains [were] all the same size.

Exodus 36:10 And he coupled five curtains to one another, and [the other] five curtains he coupled to one another.

Exodus 36:11 He made loops of blue [yarn] on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set; likewise he did on the outer edge of [the other] curtain of the second set.

Exodus 36:12 Fifty loops he made on one curtain, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain on the end of the second set; the loops held one [curtain] to another.

Exodus 36:13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps, that it might be one tabernacle.

Exodus 36:14 He made curtains of goats’ [hair] for the tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

Exodus 36:15 The length of each curtain [was] thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains [were] the same size.

Exodus 36:16 He coupled five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves.

Exodus 36:17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain of the second set.

Exodus 36:18 He also made fifty bronze clasps to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

Exodus 36:19 Then he made a covering for the tent of ram skins dyed red, and a covering of badger skins above [that.]

Exodus 36:20 For the tabernacle he made boards of acacia wood, standing upright.

Exodus 36:21 The length of each board [was] ten cubits, and the width of each board a cubit and a half.

Exodus 36:22 Each board had two tenons for binding one to another. Thus he made for all the boards of the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:23 And he made boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.

Exodus 36:24 Forty sockets of silver he made to go under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.

Exodus 36:25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty boards

Exodus 36:26 and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under each of the boards.

Exodus 36:27 For the west side of the tabernacle he made six boards.

Exodus 36:28 He also made two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:29 And they were coupled at the bottom and coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus he made both of them for the two corners.

Exodus 36:30 So there were eight boards and their sockets—sixteen sockets of silver—two sockets under each of the boards.

Exodus 36:31 And he made bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 36:32 five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle on the far side westward.

Exodus 36:33 And he made the middle bar to pass through the boards from one end to the other.

Exodus 36:34 He overlaid the boards with gold, made their rings of gold [to be] holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

Exodus 36:35 And he made a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen; it was worked [with] an artistic design of cherubim.

Exodus 36:36 He made for it four pillars of acacia [wood,] and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

Exodus 36:37 He also made a screen for the tabernacle door, of blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and fine woven linen, made by a weaver,

Exodus 36:38 and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their rings with gold, but their five sockets [were] bronze.

Exodus 37:1 Then Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits [was] its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exodus 37:2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold all around it.

Exodus 37:3 And he cast for it four rings of gold [to be set] in its four corners: two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side of it.

Exodus 37:4 He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:5 And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

Exodus 37:6 He also made the mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits [was] its length and a cubit and a half its width.

Exodus 37:7 He made two cherubim of beaten gold; he made them of one piece at the two ends of the mercy seat:

Exodus 37:8 one cherub at one end on this side, and the other cherub at the [other] end on that side. He made the cherubim at the two ends [of one piece] with the mercy seat.

Exodus 37:9 The cherubim spread out [their] wings above, [and] covered the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

Exodus 37:10 He made the table of acacia wood; two cubits [was] its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exodus 37:11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold all around it.

Exodus 37:12 Also he made a frame of a handbreadth all around it, and made a molding of gold for the frame all around it.

Exodus 37:13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that [were] at its four legs.

Exodus 37:14 The rings were close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.

Exodus 37:15 And he made the poles of acacia wood to bear the table, and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:16 He made of pure gold the utensils which were on the table: its dishes, its cups, its bowls, and its pitchers for pouring.

Exodus 37:17 He also made the lampstand of pure gold; of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its [ornamental] knobs, and its flowers were of the same piece.

Exodus 37:18 And six branches came out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.

Exodus 37:19 There were three bowls made like almond [blossoms] on one branch, with an [ornamental] knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond [blossoms] on the other branch, with an [ornamental] knob and a flower—and so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

Exodus 37:20 And on the lampstand itself [were] four bowls made like almond [blossoms, each with] its [ornamental] knob and flower.

Exodus 37:21 [There was] a knob under the [first] two branches of the same, a knob under the [second] two branches of the same, and a knob under the [third] two branches of the same, according to the six branches extending from it.

Exodus 37:22 Their knobs and their branches were of one piece; all of it [was] one hammered piece of pure gold.

Exodus 37:23 And he made its seven lamps, its wick-trimmers, and its trays of pure gold.

Exodus 37:24 Of a talent of pure gold he made it, with all its utensils.

Exodus 37:25 He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length [was] a cubit and its width a cubit—[it was] square—and two cubits [was] its height. Its horns were [of one piece] with it.

Exodus 37:26 And he overlaid it with pure gold: its top, its sides all around, and its horns. He also made for it a molding of gold all around it.

Exodus 37:27 He made two rings of gold for it under its molding, by its two corners on both sides, as holders for the poles with which to bear it.

Exodus 37:28 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:29 He also made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

Exodus 38:1 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood; five cubits [was] its length and five cubits its width—[it was] square—and its height [was] three cubits.

Exodus 38:2 He made its horns on its four corners; the horns were [of one piece] with it. And he overlaid it with bronze.

Exodus 38:3 He made all the utensils for the altar: the pans, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze.

Exodus 38:5 He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, [as] holders for the poles.

Exodus 38:8 He made the laver of bronze and its base of bronze, from the bronze mirrors of the serving women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Exodus 38:9 Then he made the court on the south side; the hangings of the court [were of] fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long.

Exodus 38:10 There [were] twenty pillars for them, with twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] silver.

Exodus 38:11 On the north side [the hangings were] one hundred cubits [long,] with twenty pillars and their twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] silver.

Exodus 38:12 And on the west side [there were] hangings of fifty cubits, with ten pillars and their ten sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] silver.

Exodus 38:14 The hangings of one side [of the gate were] fifteen cubits [long, with] their three pillars and their three sockets,

Exodus 38:16 All the hangings of the court all around [were of] fine woven linen.

Exodus 38:17 The sockets for the pillars [were] bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] silver, and the overlay of their capitals [was] silver; and all the pillars of the court had bands of silver.

Exodus 38:18 The screen for the gate of the court [was] woven of blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and of fine woven linen. The length [was] twenty cubits, and the height along its width [was] five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

Exodus 38:19 And [there were] four pillars [with] their four sockets of bronze; their hooks [were] silver, and the overlay of their capitals and their bands [was] silver.

Exodus 38:20 All the pegs of the tabernacle, and of the court all around, [were] bronze.

Exodus 38:21 This is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which was counted according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

Exodus 38:22 Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 38:23 And with him [was] Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and designer, a weaver of blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and of fine linen.

Exodus 38:24 All the gold that was used in all the work of the holy [place,] that is, the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

Exodus 38:25 And the silver from those who were numbered of the congregation [was] one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary:

Exodus 38:26 a bekah for each man ([that is,] half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary), for everyone included in the numbering from twenty years old and above, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty [men.]

Exodus 38:27 And from the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary and the bases of the veil: one hundred sockets from the hundred talents, one talent for each socket.

Exodus 38:28 Then from the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five [shekels] he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made bands for them.

Exodus 38:29 The offering of bronze [was] seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels.

Exodus 38:30 And with it he made the sockets for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils for the altar,

Exodus 38:31 the sockets for the court all around, the bases for the court gate, all the pegs for the tabernacle, and all the pegs for the court all around.

Exodus 39:1 Of the blue, purple, and scarlet [thread] they made garments of ministry, for ministering in the holy [place,] and made the holy garments for Aaron, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:2 He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and of fine woven linen.

Exodus 39:3 And they beat the gold into thin sheets and cut [it into] threads, to work [it] in [with] the blue, purple, and scarlet [thread] and the fine linen, [into] artistic designs.

Exodus 39:4 They made shoulder straps for it to couple [it] together; it was coupled together at its two edges.

Exodus 39:5 And the intricately woven band of his ephod that [was] on it [was] of the same workmanship, [woven of] gold, blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and of fine woven linen, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:6 And they set onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold; they were engraved, as signets are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel.

Exodus 39:7 He put them on the shoulders of the ephod [as] memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:8 And he made the breastplate, artistically woven like the workmanship of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] and of fine woven linen.

Exodus 39:9 They made the breastplate square by doubling it; a span [was] its length and a span its width when doubled.

Exodus 39:10 And they set in it four rows of stones: a row with a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald was the first row;

Exodus 39:11 the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

Exodus 39:12 the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exodus 39:13 the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. [They were] enclosed in settings of gold in their mountings.

Exodus 39:14 [There were] twelve stones according to the names of the sons of Israel: according to their names, [engraved like] a signet, each one with its own name according to the twelve tribes.

Exodus 39:15 And they made chains for the breastplate at the ends, like braided cords of pure gold.

Exodus 39:16 They also made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

Exodus 39:17 And they put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

Exodus 39:18 The two ends of the two braided chains they fastened in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front.

Exodus 39:19 And they made two rings of gold and put [them] on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which [was] on the inward side of the ephod.

Exodus 39:20 They made two [other] gold rings and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod.

Exodus 39:21 And they bound the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would be above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate would not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:22 He made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

Exodus 39:23 And [there was] an opening in the middle of the robe, like the opening in a coat of mail, [with] a woven binding all around the opening, so that it would not tear.

Exodus 39:24 They made on the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, and of fine woven [linen.]

Exodus 39:25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates on the hem of the robe all around between the pomegranates:

Exodus 39:26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe to minister in, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:27 They made tunics, artistically woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,

Exodus 39:28 a turban of fine linen, exquisite hats of fine linen, short trousers of fine woven linen,

Exodus 39:29 and a sash of fine woven linen with blue, purple, and scarlet [thread,] made by a weaver, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:30 Then they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription [like] the engraving of a signet: HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

Exodus 39:31 And they tied to it a blue cord, to fasten [it] above on the turban, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:32 Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.

Exodus 39:33 And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;

Exodus 39:34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of badger skins, and the veil of the covering;

Exodus 39:35 the ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the mercy seat;

Exodus 39:36 the table, all its utensils, and the showbread;

Exodus 39:37 the pure [gold] lampstand with its lamps (the lamps set in order), all its utensils, and the oil for light;

Exodus 39:38 the gold altar, the anointing oil, and the sweet incense; the screen for the tabernacle door;

Exodus 39:39 the bronze altar, its grate of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver with its base;

Exodus 39:40 the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, the screen for the court gate, its cords, and its pegs; all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

Exodus 39:41 and the garments of ministry, to minister in the holy [place:] the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.

Exodus 39:42 According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.

Exodus 39:43 Then Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, just so they had done it. And Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Exodus 40:2 "On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:3 "You shall put in it the ark of the Testimony, and partition off the ark with the veil.

Exodus 40:4 "You shall bring in the table and arrange the things that are to be set in order on it; and you shall bring in the lampstand and light its lamps.

Exodus 40:5 "You shall also set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put up the screen for the door of the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:6 "Then you shall set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:7 "And you shall set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exodus 40:8 "You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen at the court gate.

Exodus 40:9 "And you shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that [is] in it; and you shall hallow it and all its utensils, and it shall be holy.

Exodus 40:10 "You shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar. The altar shall be most holy.

Exodus 40:11 “And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and consecrate it.

Exodus 40:12 “Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of meeting and wash them with water.

Exodus 40:13 “You shall put the holy garments on Aaron, and anoint him and consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest.

Exodus 40:14 “And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics.

Exodus 40:15 “You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to Me as priests; for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.”

Exodus 40:16 Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

Exodus 40:17 And it came to pass in the first month of the second year, on the first [day] of the month, [that] the tabernacle was raised up.

Exodus 40:18 So Moses raised up the tabernacle, fastened its sockets, set up its boards, put in its bars, and raised up its pillars.

Exodus 40:19 And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:20 He took the Testimony and put [it] into the ark, inserted the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark.

Exodus 40:21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, hung up the veil of the covering, and partitioned off the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:22 He put the table in the tabernacle of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil;

Exodus 40:23 and he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:24 He put the lampstand in the tabernacle of meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the tabernacle;

Exodus 40:25 and he lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:26 He put the gold altar in the tabernacle of meeting in front of the veil;

Exodus 40:27 and he burned sweet incense on it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:28 He hung up the screen [at] the door of the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:29 And he put the altar of burnt offering [before] the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:30 He set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water there for washing;

Exodus 40:31 and Moses, Aaron, and his sons would wash their hands and their feet [with water] from it.

Exodus 40:32 Whenever they went into the tabernacle of meeting, and when they came near the altar, they washed, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:33 And he raised up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the screen of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

Exodus 40:34 Then the cloud covered the tabernacle of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:35 And Moses was not able to enter the tabernacle of meeting, because the cloud rested above it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:36 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would go onward in all their journeys.

Exodus 40:37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey till the day that it was taken up.

Exodus 40:38 For the cloud of the LORD [was] above the tabernacle by day, and fire was over it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

1:1 Now the LORD called to Moses, and spoke to him from the tabernacle of meeting, saying,

Leviticus 1:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the livestock—of the herd and of the flock.

Leviticus 1:3 ‘ If his offering [is] a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish; he shall offer it of his own free will at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD.

Leviticus 1:4 ‘Then he shall put his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

Leviticus 1:5 ‘He shall kill the bull before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron’s sons, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar that [is by] the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 1:6 ‘And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces.

Leviticus 1:7 ‘The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay the wood in order on the fire.

Leviticus 1:8 'Then the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that [is] on the fire upon the altar;

Leviticus 1:9 'but he shall wash its entrails and its legs with water. And the priest shall burn all on the altar as a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:10 ' If his offering [is] of the flocks—of the sheep or of the goats—as a burnt sacrifice, he shall bring a male without blemish.

Leviticus 1:15 'The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn [it] on the altar; its blood shall be drained out at the side of the altar.

Leviticus 1:16 'And he shall remove its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes.

Leviticus 1:17 'Then he shall split it at its wings, [but] shall not divide [it] completely; and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that [is] on the fire. It [is] a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:1 'When anyone offers a grain offering to the LORD, his offering shall be [of] fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it.

Leviticus 2:2 'He shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests, one of whom shall take from it his handful of fine flour and oil with all the frankincense. And the priest shall burn [it as] a memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:3 'The rest of the grain offering [shall be] Aaron's and his sons'. [It is] most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.

Leviticus 2:4 ' And if you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, [it shall be] unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

Leviticus 2:5 'But if your offering [is] a grain offering [baked] in a pan, [it shall be of] fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil.

Leviticus 2:6 'You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it [is] a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:7 ' If your offering [is] a grain offering [baked] in a covered pan, it shall be made [of] fine flour with oil.

Leviticus 2:8 'You shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the LORD. And when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar.

Leviticus 2:11 ' No grain offering which you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you shall burn no leaven nor any honey in any offering to the LORD made by fire.

Leviticus 2:12 'As for the offering of the firstfruits, you shall offer them to the LORD, but they shall not be burned on the altar for a sweet aroma.

Leviticus 2:13 'And every offering of your grain offering you shall season with salt; you shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

Leviticus 2:14 ' If you offer a grain offering of your firstfruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the grain offering of your firstfruits green heads of grain roasted on the fire, grain beaten from full heads.

Leviticus 2:15 'And you shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it. It [is] a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:16 'Then the priest shall burn the memorial portion: [part] of its beaten grain and [part] of its oil, with all the frankincense, as an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:1 'When his offering [is] a sacrifice of a peace offering, if he offers [it] of the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:2 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.

Leviticus 3:3 'Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire to the LORD. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that [is] on the entrails,

Leviticus 3:4 'the two kidneys and the fat that [is] on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;

Leviticus 3:5 ‘and Aaron’s sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which [is] on the wood that [is] on the fire, [as] an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:6 ‘ If his offering as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD [is] of the flock, [whether] male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

Leviticus 3:7 ‘If he offers a lamb as his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:8 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of meeting; and Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

Leviticus 3:9 ‘Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD, its fat [and] the whole fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone. And the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that [is] on the entrails,

Leviticus 3:10 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that [is] on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;

Leviticus 3:11 ‘and the priest shall burn [them] on the altar [as] food, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:12 ‘ And if his offering [is] a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:15 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that [is] on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;

Leviticus 3:16 ‘and the priest shall burn them on the altar [as] food, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma; all the fat [is] the LORD’s.

Leviticus 3:17 ‘ [This shall be] a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings: you shall eat neither fat nor blood.’ “

Leviticus 4:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 4:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a person sins unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD [in anything] which ought not to be done, and does any of them,

Leviticus 4:3 ‘if the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned a young bull without blemish as a sin offering.

Leviticus 4:4 ‘He shall bring the bull to the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull’s head, and kill the bull before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:5 ‘Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood and bring it to the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 4:6 ‘The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 4:7 ‘And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 4:8 ‘He shall take from it all the fat of the bull as the sin offering. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat which [is] on the entrails,

Leviticus 4:9 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that [is] on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove,

Leviticus 4:10 ‘as it was taken from the bull of the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:11 ‘But the bull’s hide and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and offal—

Leviticus 4:12 ‘the whole bull he shall carry outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

Leviticus 4:13 ‘ Now if the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done [something against] any of the commandments of the LORD [in anything] which should not be done, and are guilty;

Leviticus 4:14 ‘when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 4:15 ‘And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD. Then the bull shall be killed before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:16 ‘The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull’s blood to the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 4:17 ‘Then the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle [it] seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil.

Leviticus 4:18 ‘And he shall put [some] of the blood on the horns of the altar which [is] before the LORD, which [is] in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 4:19 ‘He shall take all the fat from it and burn [it] on the altar.

Leviticus 4:20 ‘And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull as a sin offering; thus he shall do with it. So the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

Leviticus 4:21 ‘Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It [is] a sin offering for the assembly.

Leviticus 4:22 ‘ When a ruler has sinned, and done [something] unintentionally [against] any of the commandments of the LORD his God [in anything] which should not be done, and is guilty,

Leviticus 4:23 ‘or if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a male without blemish.

Leviticus 4:24 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it at the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It [is] a sin offering.

Leviticus 4:25 ‘The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put [it] on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:26 ‘And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 4:27 ‘ If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing [something against] any of the commandments of the LORD [in anything] which ought not to be done, and is guilty,

Leviticus 4:28 ‘or if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, then he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has committed.

Leviticus 4:29 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:30 ‘Then the priest shall take [some] of its blood with his finger, put [it] on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all [the remaining] blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:31 ‘He shall remove all its fat, as fat is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 4:32 ‘ If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.

Leviticus 4:33 'Then he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it as a sin offering at the place where they kill the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:34 'The priest shall take [some] of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put [it] on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all [the remaining] blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:35 'He shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering. Then the priest shall burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:1 'If a person sins in hearing the utterance of an oath, and [is] a witness, whether he has seen or known [of the matter—if] he does not tell [it,] he bears guilt.

Leviticus 5:2 'Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether [it is] the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and he is unaware of it, he also shall be unclean and guilty.

Leviticus 5:3 'Or if he touches human uncleanness—whatever uncleanness with which a man may be defiled, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes [it,] then he shall be guilty.

Leviticus 5:4 'Or if a person swears, speaking thoughtlessly with [his] lips to do evil or to do good, whatever [it is] that a man may pronounce by an oath, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes [it,] then he shall be guilty in any of these [matters.]

Leviticus 5:5 'And it shall be, when he is guilty in any of these [matters,] that he shall confess that he has sinned in that [thing;]

Leviticus 5:6 'and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

Leviticus 5:7 ' If he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD, for his trespass which he has committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons: one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 5:8 'And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer [that] which [is] for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide [it] completely.

Leviticus 5:9 'Then he shall sprinkle [some] of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It [is] a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:10 'And he shall offer the second [as] a burnt offering according to the prescribed manner. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:11 ‘ But if he is not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it [is] a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:12 ‘Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as a memorial portion, and burn [it] on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. It [is] a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:13 ‘The priest shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has committed in any of these matters; and it shall be forgiven him. [The rest] shall be the priest’s as a grain offering.’ “

Leviticus 5:14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 5:15 “If a person commits a trespass, and sins unintentionally in regard to the holy things of the LORD, then he shall bring to the LORD as his trespass offering a ram without blemish from the flocks, with your valuation in shekels of silver according to the shekel of the sanctuary, as a trespass offering.

Leviticus 5:16 “And he shall make restitution for the harm that he has done in regard to the holy thing, and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. So the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:17 “ If a person sins, and commits any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD, though he does not know [it,] yet he is guilty and shall bear his iniquity.

Leviticus 5:18 “And he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his ignorance in which he erred and did not know [it,] and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:19 “It is a trespass offering; he has certainly trespassed against the LORD.”

Leviticus 6:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 6:2 “If a person sins and commits a trespass against the LORD by lying to his neighbor about what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or about a pledge, or about a robbery, or if he has extorted from his neighbor,

Leviticus 6:3 “or if he has found what was lost and lies concerning it, and swears falsely—in any one of these things that a man may do in which he sins:

Leviticus 6:4 “then it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore what he has stolen, or the thing which he has extorted, or what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or the lost thing which he found, Leviticus 6:5 “or all that about which he has sworn falsely. He shall restore its full value, add one-fifth more to it, [and] give it to whomever it belongs, on the day of his trespass offering.

Leviticus 6:6 “And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering, to the priest.

Leviticus 6:7 “So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any one of these things that he may have done in which he trespasses.”

Leviticus 6:8 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 6:9 “Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This [is] the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering [shall be] on the hearth upon the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.

Leviticus 6:10 ‘And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen trousers he shall put on his body, and take up the ashes of the burnt offering which the fire has consumed on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

Leviticus 6:11 ‘Then he shall take off his garments, put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

Leviticus 6:12 ‘And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order on it; and he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.

Leviticus 6:13 ‘A fire shall always be burning on the altar; it shall never go out.

Leviticus 6:14 ‘ This [is] the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it on the altar before the LORD.

Leviticus 6:15 ‘He shall take from it his handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil, and all the frankincense which [is] on the grain offering, and shall burn [it] on the altar [for] a sweet aroma, as a memorial to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:16 ‘And the remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; with unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of meeting they shall eat it.

Leviticus 6:17 ‘It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it [as] their portion of My offerings made by fire; it [is] most holy, like the sin offering and the trespass offering.

Leviticus 6:18 ‘All the males among the children of Aaron may eat it. [It shall be] a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings made by fire to the LORD. Everyone who touches them must be holy.’ “

Leviticus 6:19 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 6:20 “This [is] the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD, [beginning] on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a daily grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night.

Leviticus 6:21 “It shall be made in a pan with oil. [When it is] mixed, you shall bring it in. The baked pieces of the grain offering you shall offer [for] a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:22 “The priest from among his sons, who is anointed in his place, shall offer it. [It is] a statute forever to the LORD. It shall be wholly burned.

Leviticus 6:23 “For every grain offering for the priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.”

Leviticus 6:24 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 6:25 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This [is] the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It [is] most holy.

Leviticus 6:26 ‘The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 6:27 ‘Everyone who touches its flesh must be holy. And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled, in a holy place.

Leviticus 6:28 ‘But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water.

Leviticus 6:29 ‘All the males among the priests may eat it. It [is] most holy.

Leviticus 6:30 ‘But no sin offering from which [any] of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of meeting, to make atonement in the holy [place,] shall be eaten. It shall be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 7:1 ‘Likewise this [is] the law of the trespass offering (it [is] most holy):

Leviticus 7:2 ‘In the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the trespass offering. And its blood he shall sprinkle all around on the altar.

Leviticus 7:3 ‘And he shall offer from it all its fat. The fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails,

Leviticus 7:4 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that [is] on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe [attached] to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;

Leviticus 7:5 ‘and the priest shall burn them on the altar [as] an offering made by fire to the LORD. It [is] a trespass offering.

Leviticus 7:6 ‘Every male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It [is] most holy.

Leviticus 7:7 ‘The trespass offering [is] like the sin offering; [there is] one law for them both: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have [it.]

Leviticus 7:8 ‘And the priest who offers anyone’s burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered.

Leviticus 7:9 ‘Also every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in the covered pan, or in a pan, shall be the priest’s who offers it.

Leviticus 7:10 ‘Every grain offering, [whether] mixed with oil, or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, to one [as much] as the other.

Leviticus 7:11 ‘ This [is] the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which he shall offer to the LORD:

Leviticus 7:12 ‘If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer, with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers anointed with oil, or cakes of blended flour mixed with oil.

Leviticus 7:13 ‘Besides the cakes, [as] his offering he shall offer leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offering.

Leviticus 7:14 ‘And from it he shall offer one cake from each offering [as] a heave offering to the LORD. It shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering.

Leviticus 7:15 ‘ The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day it is offered. He shall not leave any of it until morning.

Leviticus 7:16 ‘But if the sacrifice of his offering [is] a vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice; but on the next day the remainder of it also may be eaten;

Leviticus 7:17 ‘the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day must be burned with fire.

Leviticus 7:18 ‘And if [any] of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, nor shall it be imputed to him; it shall be an abomination [to] him who offers it, and the person who eats of it shall bear guilt.

Leviticus 7:19 ‘ The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the [clean] flesh, all who are clean may eat of it.

Leviticus 7:20 ‘But the person who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that [belongs] to the LORD, while he is unclean, that person shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:21 ‘Moreover the person who touches any unclean thing, [such as] human uncleanness, [an] unclean animal, or any abominable unclean thing, and who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that [belongs] to the LORD, that person shall be cut off from his people.’ “

Leviticus 7:22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 7:23 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘You shall not eat any fat, of ox or sheep or goat.

Leviticus 7:24 ‘And the fat of an animal that dies [naturally,] and the fat of what is torn by wild beasts, may be used in any other way; but you shall by no means eat it.

Leviticus 7:25 ‘For whoever eats the fat of the animal of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, the person who eats [it] shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:26 ‘Moreover you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, [whether] of bird or beast.

Leviticus 7:27 ‘Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.’ “

Leviticus 7:28 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 7:29 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offering to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offering.

Leviticus 7:30 ‘His own hands shall bring the offerings made by fire to the LORD. The fat with the breast he shall bring, that the breast may be waved [as] a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 7:31 ‘And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron’s and his sons’.

Leviticus 7:32 ‘Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest [as] a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

Leviticus 7:33 ‘He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering and the fat, shall have the right thigh for [his] part.

Leviticus 7:34 ‘For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the children of Israel by a statute forever.’ “

Leviticus 7:35 This [is] the consecrated portion for Aaron and his sons, from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, on the day when [Moses] presented them to minister to the LORD as priests.

Leviticus 7:36 The LORD commanded this to be given to them by the children of Israel, on the day that He anointed them, [by] a statute forever throughout their generations.

Leviticus 7:37 This [is] the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the trespass offering, the consecrations, and the sacrifice of the peace offering,

Leviticus 7:38 which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day when He commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 8:2 "Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, the anointing oil, a bull as the sin offering, two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

Leviticus 8:3 "and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting."

Leviticus 8:4 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. And the congregation was gathered together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 8:5 And Moses said to the congregation, "This [is] what the LORD commanded to be done."

Leviticus 8:6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water.

Leviticus 8:7 And he put the tunic on him, girded him with the sash, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the intricately woven band of the ephod, and with it tied [the ephod] on him.

Leviticus 8:8 Then he put the breastplate on him, and he put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastplate.

Leviticus 8:9 And he put the turban on his head. Also on the turban, on its front, he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:10 Also Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that [was] in it, and consecrated them.

Leviticus 8:11 He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them.

Leviticus 8:12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

Leviticus 8:13 Then Moses brought Aaron's sons and put tunics on them, girded them with sashes, and put hats on them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:14 And he brought the bull for the sin offering. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering, Leviticus 8:15 and Moses killed [it.] Then he took the blood, and put [some] on the horns of the altar all around with his finger, and purified the altar. And he poured the blood at the base of the altar, and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.

Leviticus 8:16 Then he took all the fat that [was] on the entrails, the fatty lobe [attached to] the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned [them] on the altar.

Leviticus 8:17 But the bull, its hide, its flesh, and its offal, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:18 Then he brought the ram as the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, Leviticus 8:19 and Moses killed [it.] Then he sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.

Leviticus 8:20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burned the head, the pieces, and the fat.

Leviticus 8:21 Then he washed the entrails and the legs in water. And Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It [was] a burnt sacrifice for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:22 And he brought the second ram, the ram of consecration. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, Leviticus 8:23 and Moses killed [it.] Also he took [some] of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 8:24 Then he brought Aaron's sons. And Moses put [some] of the blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. And Moses sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.

Leviticus 8:25 Then he took the fat and the fat tail, all the fat that [was] on the entrails, the fatty lobe [attached to] the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh;

Leviticus 8:26 and from the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, a cake of bread [anointed with] oil, and one wafer, and put [them] on the fat and on the right thigh;

Leviticus 8:27 and he put all [these] in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and waved them [as] a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands and burned [them] on the altar, on the burnt offering. They [were] consecration offerings for a sweet aroma. That [was] an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 8:29 And Moses took the breast and waved it [as] a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' part of the ram of consecration, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which [was] on the altar, and sprinkled [it] on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

Leviticus 8:31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that [is] in the basket of consecration offerings, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'

Leviticus 8:32 "What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire.

Leviticus 8:33 "And you shall not go outside the door of the tabernacle of meeting [for] seven days, until the days of your consecration are ended. For seven days he shall consecrate you.

Leviticus 8:34 "As he has done this day, [so] the LORD has commanded to do, to make atonement for you.

Leviticus 8:35 "Therefore you shall stay [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting day and night for seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you may not die; for so I have been commanded."

Leviticus 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 9:1 It came to pass on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.

Leviticus 9:2 And he said to Aaron, "Take for yourself a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer [them] before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:3 "And to the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, 'Take a kid of the goats as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, [both] of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering,

Leviticus 9:4 'also a bull and a ram as peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.' "

Leviticus 9:5 So they brought what Moses commanded before the tabernacle of meeting. And all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:6 Then Moses said, "This [is] the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you."

Leviticus 9:7 And Moses said to Aaron, "Go to the altar, offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. Offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded.”

Leviticus 9:8 Aaron therefore went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which [was] for himself.

Leviticus 9:9 Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood, put [it] on the horns of the altar, and poured the blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 9:10 But the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe from the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 9:11 The flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.

Leviticus 9:12 And he killed the burnt offering; and Aaron’s sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar.

Leviticus 9:13 Then they presented the burnt offering to him, with its pieces and head, and he burned [them] on the altar.

Leviticus 9:14 And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burned [them] with the burnt offering on the altar.

Leviticus 9:15 Then he brought the people’s offering, and took the goat, which [was] the sin offering for the people, and killed it and offered it for sin, like the first one.

Leviticus 9:16 And he brought the burnt offering and offered it according to the prescribed manner.

Leviticus 9:17 Then he brought the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned [it] on the altar, besides the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

Leviticus 9:18 He also killed the bull and the ram [as] sacrifices of peace offerings, which [were] for the people. And Aaron’s sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar,

Leviticus 9:19 and the fat from the bull and the ram—the fatty tail, what covers [the entrails] and the kidneys, and the fatty lobe [attached to] the liver;

Leviticus 9:20 and they put the fat on the breasts. Then he burned the fat on the altar;

Leviticus 9:21 but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved [as] a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

Leviticus 9:22 Then Aaron lifted his hand toward the people, blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

Leviticus 9:23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of meeting, and came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people, Leviticus 9:24 and fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw [it,] they shouted and fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10:1 Then Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, put incense on it, and offered profane fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them.

Leviticus 10:2 So fire went out from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:3 And Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke, saying: 'By those who come near Me I must be regarded as holy; And before all the people I must be glorified.' " So Aaron held his peace.

Leviticus 10:4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp."

Leviticus 10:5 So they went near and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had said.

Leviticus 10:6 And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, "Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, lest you die, and wrath come upon all the people. But let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled.

Leviticus 10:7 "You shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die, for the anointing oil of the LORD [is] upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

Leviticus 10:8 Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 10:9 "Do not drink wine or intoxicating drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die. [It shall be] a statute forever throughout your generations,

Leviticus 10:10 "that you may distinguish between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean,

Leviticus 10:11 "and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moses."

Leviticus 10:12 And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were left: "Take the grain offering that remains of the offerings made by fire to the LORD, and eat it without leaven beside the altar; for it [is] most holy.

Leviticus 10:13 "You shall eat it in a holy place, because it [is] your due and your sons' due, of the sacrifices made by fire to the LORD; for so I have been commanded.

Leviticus 10:14 "The breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you shall eat in a clean place, you, your sons, and your daughters with you; for [they are] your due and your sons' due, [which] are given from the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

Leviticus 10:15 “The thigh of the heave offering and the breast of the wave offering they shall bring with the offerings of fat made by fire, to offer [as] a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be yours and your sons’ with you, by a statute forever, as the LORD has commanded.”

Leviticus 10:16 Then Moses made careful inquiry about the goat of the sin offering, and there it was—burned up. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron [who were] left, saying,

Leviticus 10:17 “Why have you not eaten the sin offering in a holy place, since it [is] most holy, and [God] has given it to you to bear the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

Leviticus 10:18 “See! Its blood was not brought inside the holy [place;] indeed you should have eaten it in a holy [place,] as I commanded.”

Leviticus 10:19 And Aaron said to Moses, “Look, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and such things have befallen me! [If] I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?”

Leviticus 10:20 So when Moses heard [that,] he was content.

Leviticus 11:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them,

Leviticus 11:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘These [are] the animals which you may eat among all the animals that [are] on the earth:

Leviticus 11:3 ‘Among the animals, whatever divides the hoof, having cloven hooves [and] chewing the cud—that you may eat.

Leviticus 11:4 ‘Nevertheless these you shall not eat among those that chew the cud or those that have cloven hooves: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;

Leviticus 11:5 ‘the rock hyrax, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, [is] unclean to you;

Leviticus 11:6 ‘the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, [is] unclean to you;

Leviticus 11:7 ‘and the swine, though it divides the hoof, having cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud, [is] unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:8 ‘Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They [are] unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:9 ‘ These you may eat of all that [are] in the water: whatever in the water has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers—that you may eat.

Leviticus 11:10 ‘But all in the seas or in the rivers that do not have fins and scales, all that move in the water or any living thing which [is] in the water, they [are] an abomination to you.

Leviticus 11:11 'They shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.

Leviticus 11:12 'Whatever in the water does not have fins or scales—that [shall be] an abomination to you.

Leviticus 11:13 ' And these you shall regard as an abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they [are] an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard,

Leviticus 11:14 'the kite, and the falcon after its kind;

Leviticus 11:15 'every raven after its kind,

Leviticus 11:16 'the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the sea gull, and the hawk after its kind;

Leviticus 11:17 'the little owl, the fisher owl, and the screech owl;

Leviticus 11:18 'the white owl, the jackdaw, and the carrion vulture;

Leviticus 11:19 'the stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

Leviticus 11:20 ' All flying insects that creep on [all] fours [shall be] an abomination to you.

Leviticus 11:21 'Yet these you may eat of every flying insect that creeps on [all] fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet with which to leap on the earth.

Leviticus 11:22 'These you may eat: the locust after its kind, the destroying locust after its kind, the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.

Leviticus 11:23 'But all [other] flying insects which have four feet [shall be] an abomination to you.

Leviticus 11:24 ' By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until evening;

Leviticus 11:25 'whoever carries part of the carcass of any of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening:

Leviticus 11:26 '[The carcass] of any animal which divides the foot, but is not cloven-hoofed or does not chew the cud, [is] unclean to you. Everyone who touches it shall be unclean.

Leviticus 11:27 'And whatever goes on its paws, among all kinds of animals that go on [all] fours, those [are] unclean to you. Whoever touches any such carcass shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:28 'Whoever carries [any such] carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. It [is] unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:29 ' These also [shall be] unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind;

Leviticus 11:30 ‘the gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

Leviticus 11:31 ‘These [are] unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:32 ‘Anything on which [any] of them falls, when they are dead shall be unclean, whether [it is] any item of wood or clothing or skin or sack, whatever item [it is,] in which [any] work is done, it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening; then it shall be clean.

Leviticus 11:33 ‘Any earthen vessel into which [any] of them falls you shall break; and whatever [is] in it shall be unclean:

Leviticus 11:34 ‘in such a vessel, any edible food upon which water falls becomes unclean, and any drink that may be drunk from it becomes unclean.

Leviticus 11:35 ‘And everything on which [a part] of [any such] carcass falls shall be unclean; [whether it is] an oven or cooking stove, it shall be broken down; [for] they [are] unclean, and shall be unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:36 ‘Nevertheless a spring or a cistern, [in which there is] plenty of water, shall be clean, but whatever touches any such carcass becomes unclean.

Leviticus 11:37 ‘And if a part of [any such] carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it [remains] clean.

Leviticus 11:38 ‘But if water is put on the seed, and if [a part] of [any such] carcass falls on it, it [becomes] unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:39 ‘ And if any animal which you may eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:40 ‘He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:41 ‘ And every creeping thing that creeps on the earth [shall be] an abomination. It shall not be eaten.

Leviticus 11:42 ‘Whatever crawls on its belly, whatever goes on [all] fours, or whatever has many feet among all creeping things that creep on the earth—these you shall not eat, for they [are] an abomination.

Leviticus 11:43 ‘You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps; nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, lest you be defiled by them.

Leviticus 11:44 ‘For I [am] the LORD your God. You shall therefore consecrate yourselves, and you shall be holy; for I [am] holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any creeping thing that creeps on the earth.

Leviticus 11:45 ‘For I [am] the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I [am] holy.

Leviticus 11:46 ‘ This [is] the law of the animals and the birds and every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,

Leviticus 11:47 ‘to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.’ “

Leviticus 12:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 12:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a woman has conceived, and borne a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her customary impurity she shall be unclean.

Leviticus 12:3 ‘And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

Leviticus 12:4 ‘She shall then continue in the blood of [her] purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.

Leviticus 12:5 ‘But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her customary impurity, and she shall continue in the blood of [her] purification sixty-six days.

Leviticus 12:6 ‘ When the days of her purification are fulfilled, whether for a son or a daughter, she shall bring to the priest a lamb of the first year as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove as a sin offering, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 12:7 ‘Then he shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement for her. And she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This [is] the law for her who has borne a male or a female.

Leviticus 12:8 ‘And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she may bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons—one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’ “

Leviticus 13:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 13:2 “When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes on the skin of his body [like] a leprous sore, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.

Leviticus 13:3 “The priest shall examine the sore on the skin of the body; and if the hair on the sore has turned white, and the sore appears [to be] deeper than the skin of his body, it [is] a leprous sore. Then the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean.

Leviticus 13:4 “But if the bright spot [is] white on the skin of his body, and does not appear [to be] deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate [the one who has] the sore seven days.

Leviticus 13:5 “And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day; and indeed [if] the sore appears to be as it was, [and] the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him another seven days.

Leviticus 13:6 “Then the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and indeed [if] the sore has faded, [and] the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it [is only] a scab, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:7 “But if the scab should at all spread over the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again.

Leviticus 13:8 “And [if] the priest sees that the scab has indeed spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It [is] leprosy.

Leviticus 13:9 “ When the leprous sore is on a person, then he shall be brought to the priest.

Leviticus 13:10 “And the priest shall examine [him;] and indeed [if] the swelling on the skin [is] white, and it has turned the hair white, and [there is] a spot of raw flesh in the swelling, Leviticus 13:11 “it [is] an old leprosy on the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not isolate him, for he [is] unclean.

Leviticus 13:12 “ And if leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of [the one who has] the sore, from his head to his foot, wherever the priest looks, Leviticus 13:13 “then the priest shall consider; and indeed [if] the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce [him] clean [who has] the sore. It has all turned white. He [is] clean.

Leviticus 13:14 “But when raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

Leviticus 13:15 “And the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean; [for] the raw flesh [is] unclean. It [is] leprosy.

Leviticus 13:16 “Or if the raw flesh changes and turns white again, he shall come to the priest.

Leviticus 13:17 “And the priest shall examine him; and indeed [if] the sore has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce [him] clean [who has] the sore. He [is] clean.

Leviticus 13:18 “ If the body develops a boil in the skin, and it is healed, Leviticus 13:19 “and in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be shown to the priest;

Leviticus 13:20 “and [if,] when the priest sees it, it indeed [appears] deeper than the skin, and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It [is] a leprous sore which has broken out of the boil.

Leviticus 13:21 “But if the priest examines it, and indeed [there are] no white hairs in it, and it [is] not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days;

Leviticus 13:22 “and if it should at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It [is] a leprous sore.

Leviticus 13:23 “But if the bright spot stays in one place, [and] has not spread, it [is] the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:24 “ Or if the body receives a burn on its skin by fire, and the raw [flesh] of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white or white, Leviticus 13:25 “then the priest shall examine it; and indeed [if] the hair of the bright spot has turned white, and it appears deeper than the skin, it [is] leprosy broken out in the burn. Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It [is] a leprous sore.

Leviticus 13:26 “But if the priest examines it, and indeed [there are] no white hairs in the bright spot, and it [is] not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days.

Leviticus 13:27 “And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It [is] a leprous sore.

Leviticus 13:28 “But if the bright spot stays in one place, [and] has not spread on the skin, but has faded, it [is] a swelling from the burn. The priest shall pronounce him clean, for it [is] the scar from the burn.

Leviticus 13:29 “ If a man or woman has a sore on the head or the beard, Leviticus 13:30 “then the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if it appears deeper than the skin, [and there is] in it thin yellow hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It [is] a scaly leprosy of the head or beard.

Leviticus 13:31 “But if the priest examines the scaly sore, and indeed it does not appear deeper than the skin, and [there is] no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate [the one who has] the scale seven days.

Leviticus 13:32 “And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed [if] the scale has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scale does not appear deeper than the skin, Leviticus 13:33 “he shall shave himself, but the scale he shall not shave. And the priest shall isolate [the one who has] the scale another seven days.

Leviticus 13:34 “On the seventh day the priest shall examine the scale; and indeed [if] the scale has not spread over the skin, and does not appear deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:35 “But if the scale should at all spread over the skin after his cleansing, Leviticus 13:36 “then the priest shall examine him; and indeed [if] the scale has spread over the skin, the priest need not seek for yellow hair. He [is] unclean.

Leviticus 13:37 “But if the scale appears to be at a standstill, and there is black hair grown up in it, the scale has healed. He [is] clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:38 “ If a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, [specifically] white bright spots, Leviticus 13:39 “then the priest shall look; and indeed [if] the bright spots on the skin of the body [are] dull white, it [is] a white spot [that] grows on the skin. He [is] clean.

Leviticus 13:40 “As for the man whose hair has fallen from his head, he [is] bald, [but] he [is] clean.

Leviticus 13:41 “He whose hair has fallen from his forehead, he [is] bald on the forehead, [but] he [is] clean.

Leviticus 13:42 “And if there is on the bald head or bald forehead a reddish-white sore, it [is] leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.

Leviticus 13:43 “Then the priest shall examine it; and indeed [if] the swelling of the sore [is] reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body, Leviticus 13:44 “he is a leprous man. He [is] unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his sore [is] on his head.

Leviticus 13:45 “Now the leper on whom the sore [is,] his clothes shall be torn and his head bare; and he shall cover his mustache, and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’

Leviticus 13:46 “He shall be unclean. All the days he has the sore he shall be unclean. He [is] unclean, and he shall dwell alone; his dwelling [shall be] outside the camp.

Leviticus 13:47 “ Also, if a garment has a leprous plague in it, [whether it is] a woolen garment or a linen garment, Leviticus 13:48 “whether [it is] in the warp or woof of linen or wool, whether in leather or in anything made of leather,

Leviticus 13:49 “and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it [is] a leprous plague and shall be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:50 “The priest shall examine the plague and isolate [that which has] the plague seven days.

Leviticus 13:51 “And he shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, in the leather [or] in anything made of leather, the plague [is] an active leprosy. It [is] unclean.

Leviticus 13:52 “He shall therefore burn that garment in which is the plague, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, for it [is] an active leprosy; [the garment] shall be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 13:53 “ But if the priest examines [it,] and indeed the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, Leviticus 13:54 “then the priest shall command that they wash [the thing] in which [is] the plague; and he shall isolate it another seven days.

Leviticus 13:55 “Then the priest shall examine the plague after it has been washed; and indeed [if] the plague has not changed its color, though the plague has not spread, it [is] unclean, and you shall burn it in the fire; it continues eating away, [whether] the damage [is] outside or inside.

Leviticus 13:56 “If the priest examines [it,] and indeed the plague has faded after washing it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, whether out of the warp or out of the woof, or out of the leather.

Leviticus 13:57 “But if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it [is] a spreading [plague;] you shall burn with fire that in which is the plague.

Leviticus 13:58 “And if you wash the garment, either warp or woof, or whatever is made of leather, if the plague has disappeared from it, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

Leviticus 13:59 “ This [is] the law of the leprous plague in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or in anything made of leather, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.”

Leviticus 14:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 14:2 “This shall be the law of the leper for the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the priest.

Leviticus 14:3 “And the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall examine [him;] and indeed, [if] the leprosy is healed in the leper, Leviticus 14:4 “then the priest shall command to take for him who is to be cleansed two living [and] clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.

Leviticus 14:5 “And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water.

Leviticus 14:6 “As for the living bird, he shall take it, the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird [that was] killed over the running water.

Leviticus 14:7 “And he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose in the open field.

Leviticus 14:8 “He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, and shall stay outside his tent seven days.

Leviticus 14:9 “But on the seventh day he shall shave all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows—all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes and wash his body in water, and he shall be clean.

Leviticus 14:10 “ And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, three-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one log of oil.

Leviticus 14:11 “Then the priest who makes [him] clean shall present the man who is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 14:12 “And the priest shall take one male lamb and offer it as a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them [as] a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:13 “Then he shall kill the lamb in the place where he kills the sin offering and the burnt offering, in a holy place; for as the sin offering [is] the priest’s, so [is] the trespass offering. It [is] most holy.

Leviticus 14:14 “The priest shall take [some] of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put [it] on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:15 “And the priest shall take [some] of the log of oil, and pour [it] into the palm of his own left hand.

Leviticus 14:16 “Then the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that [is] in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:17 “And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put [some] on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering.

Leviticus 14:18 “The rest of the oil that [is] in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:19 “Then the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:20 “And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

Leviticus 14:21 “ But if he [is] poor and cannot afford it, then he shall take one male lamb [as] a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, one-tenth [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, a log of oil, Leviticus 14:22 “and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford: one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:23 “He shall bring them to the priest on the eighth day for his cleansing, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:24 “And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them [as] a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:25 “Then he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take [some] of the blood of the trespass offering and put [it] on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:26 “And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

Leviticus 14:27 “Then the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger [some] of the oil that [is] in his left hand seven times before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:28 “And the priest shall put [some] of the oil that [is] in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering.

Leviticus 14:29 “The rest of the oil that [is] in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:30 “And he shall offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, such as he can afford—

Leviticus 14:31 “such as he is able to afford, the one [as] a sin offering and the other [as] a burnt offering, with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:32 “This [is] the law [for one] who had a leprous sore, who cannot afford the usual cleansing.”

Leviticus 14:33 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 14:34 “When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give you as a possession, and I put the leprous plague in a house in the land of your possession, Leviticus 14:35 “and he who owns the house comes and tells the priest, saying, ‘It seems to me that [there is] some plague in the house,’

Leviticus 14:36 “then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes [into it] to examine the plague, that all that [is] in the house may not be made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to examine the house.

Leviticus 14:37 “And he shall examine the plague; and indeed [if] the plague [is] on the walls of the house with ingrained streaks, greenish or reddish, which appear to be deep in the wall, Leviticus 14:38 “then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

Leviticus 14:39 “And the priest shall come again on the seventh day and look; and indeed [if] the plague has spread on the walls of the house, Leviticus 14:40 “then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which [is] the plague, and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:41 “And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside, all around, and the dust that they scrape off they shall pour out in an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:42 “Then they shall take other stones and put [them] in the place of [those] stones, and he shall take other mortar and plaster the house.

Leviticus 14:43 “ Now if the plague comes back and breaks out in the house, after he has taken away the stones, after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered, Leviticus 14:44 “then the priest shall come and look; and indeed [if] the plague has spread in the house, it [is] an active leprosy in the house. It [is] unclean.

Leviticus 14:45 “And he shall break down the house, its stones, its timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall carry [them] outside the city to an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:46 “Moreover he who goes into the house at all while it is shut up shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 14:47 “And he who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

Leviticus 14:48 “ But if the priest comes in and examines [it,] and indeed the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

Leviticus 14:49 “And he shall take, to cleanse the house, two birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.

Leviticus 14:50 “Then he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water;

Leviticus 14:51 “and he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Leviticus 14:52 “And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and the running water and the living bird, with the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet.

Leviticus 14:53 “Then he shall let the living bird loose outside the city in the open field, and make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

Leviticus 14:54 “ This [is] the law for any leprous sore and scale,

Leviticus 14:55 “for the leprosy of a garment and of a house,

Leviticus 14:56 “for a swelling and a scab and a bright spot,

Leviticus 14:57 “to teach when [it is] unclean and when [it is] clean. This [is] the law of leprosy.”

Leviticus 15:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Leviticus 15:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge [is] unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 ‘And this shall be his uncleanness in regard to his discharge—whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped up by his discharge, it [is] his uncleanness.

Leviticus 15:4 ‘Every bed is unclean on which he who has the discharge lies, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 ‘And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:6 ‘He who sits on anything on which he who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:7 ‘And he who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:8 ‘If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:9 ‘Any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:10 ‘Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening. He who carries [any of] those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:11 ‘And whomever the one who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:12 ‘The vessel of earth that he who has the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

Leviticus 15:13 ‘ And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe his body in running water; then he shall be clean.

Leviticus 15:14 ‘On the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and give them to the priest.

Leviticus 15:15 ‘Then the priest shall offer them, the one [as] a sin offering and the other [as] a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD because of his discharge.

Leviticus 15:16 ‘ If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall wash all his body in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:17 ‘And any garment and any leather on which there is semen, it shall be washed with water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:18 ‘Also, when a woman lies with a man, and [there is] an emission of semen, they shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:19 ‘ If a woman has a discharge, [and] the discharge from her body is blood, she shall be set apart seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:20 ‘Everything that she lies on during her impurity shall be unclean; also everything that she sits on shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 ‘Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:22 ‘And whoever touches anything that she sat on shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:23 ‘If [anything] is on [her] bed or on anything on which she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:24 ‘And if any man lies with her at all, so that her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 ‘ If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, other than at the time of her [customary] impurity, or if it runs beyond her [usual time of] impurity, all the days of her unclean discharge shall be as the days of her [customary] impurity. She [shall be] unclean.

Leviticus 15:26 ‘Every bed on which she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her impurity; and whatever she sits on shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her impurity.

Leviticus 15:27 ‘Whoever touches those things shall be unclean; he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:28 ‘ But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

Leviticus 15:29 ‘And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 15:30 ‘Then the priest shall offer the one [as] a sin offering and the other [as] a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the discharge of her uncleanness.

Leviticus 15:31 ‘ Thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness when they defile My tabernacle that [is] among them.

Leviticus 15:32 ‘This [is] the law for one who has a discharge, and [for him] who emits semen and is unclean thereby,

Leviticus 15:33 ‘and for her who is indisposed because of her [customary] impurity, and for one who has a discharge, either man or woman, and for him who lies with her who is unclean.’ “

Leviticus 16:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered [profane fire] before the LORD, and died;

Leviticus 16:2 and the LORD said to Moses: “Tell Aaron your brother not to come at [just] any time into the Holy [Place] inside the veil, before the mercy seat which [is] on the ark, lest he die; for I will appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

Leviticus 16:3 “Thus Aaron shall come into the Holy [Place:] with [the blood of] a young bull as a sin offering, and [of] a ram as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:4 “He shall put the holy linen tunic and the linen trousers on his body; he shall be girded with a linen sash, and with the linen turban he shall be attired. These [are] holy garments. Therefore he shall wash his body in water, and put them on.

Leviticus 16:5 “And he shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats as a sin offering, and one ram as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:6 “ Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering, which [is] for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house.

Leviticus 16:7 “He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Leviticus 16:8 “Then Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats: one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat.

Leviticus 16:9 “And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the LORD’s lot fell, and offer it [as] a sin offering.

Leviticus 16:10 “But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement upon it, [and] to let it go as the scapegoat into the wilderness.

Leviticus 16:11 “ And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house, and shall kill the bull as the sin offering which [is] for himself.

Leviticus 16:12 “Then he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, with his hands full of sweet incense beaten fine, and bring [it] inside the veil.

Leviticus 16:13 “And he shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of incense may cover the mercy seat that [is] on the Testimony, lest he die.

Leviticus 16:14 “He shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle [it] with his finger on the mercy seat on the east [side;] and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

Leviticus 16:15 “ Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which [is] for the people, bring its blood inside the veil, do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and before the mercy seat.

Leviticus 16:16 “So he shall make atonement for the Holy [Place,] because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, for all their sins; and so he shall do for the tabernacle of meeting which remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

Leviticus 16:17 “There shall be no man in the tabernacle of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the Holy [Place,] until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself, for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

Leviticus 16:18 “And he shall go out to the altar that [is] before the LORD, and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around.

Leviticus 16:19 “Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, cleanse it, and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

Leviticus 16:20 “ And when he has made an end of atoning for the Holy [Place,] the tabernacle of meeting, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat.

Leviticus 16:21 “Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, concerning all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send [it] away into the wilderness by the hand of a suitable man.

Leviticus 16:22 “The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to an uninhabited land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

Leviticus 16:23 “ Then Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of meeting, shall take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy [Place,] and shall leave them there.

Leviticus 16:24 “And he shall wash his body with water in a holy place, put on his garments, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.

Leviticus 16:25 “The fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.

Leviticus 16:26 “And he who released the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:27 “The bull [for] the sin offering and the goat [for] the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy [Place,] shall be carried outside the camp. And they shall burn in the fire their skins, their flesh, and their offal.

Leviticus 16:28 “Then he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:29 “ [This] shall be a statute forever for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth [day] of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, [whether] a native of your own country or a stranger who dwells among you.

Leviticus 16:30 “For on that day [the priest] shall make atonement for you, to cleanse you, [that] you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

Leviticus 16:31 “It [is] a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. [It is] a statute forever.

Leviticus 16:32 “And the priest, who is anointed and consecrated to minister as priest in his father’s place, shall make atonement, and put on the linen clothes, the holy garments;

Leviticus 16:33 “then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

Leviticus 16:34 “This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year.” And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 17:2 “Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘This [is] the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying:

Leviticus 17:3 “Whatever man of the house of Israel who kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or who kills [it] outside the camp,

Leviticus 17:4 “and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting to offer an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, the guilt of bloodshed shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people, Leviticus 17:5 “to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to the priest, and offer them [as] peace offerings to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:6 “And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:7 “They shall no more offer their sacrifices to demons, after whom they have played the harlot. This shall be a statute forever for them throughout their generations.” ‘

Leviticus 17:8 “Also you shall say to them: ‘Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,

Leviticus 17:9 ‘and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to offer it to the LORD, that man shall be cut off from among his people.

Leviticus 17:10 ‘ And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

Leviticus 17:11 ‘For the life of the flesh [is] in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it [is] the blood [that] makes atonement for the soul.’

Leviticus 17:12 “Therefore I said to the children of Israel, ‘No one among you shall eat blood, nor shall any stranger who dwells among you eat blood.’

Leviticus 17:13 “Whatever man of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who hunts and catches any animal or bird that may be eaten, he shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust;

Leviticus 17:14 “for [it is] the life of all flesh. Its blood sustains its life. Therefore I said to the children of Israel, ‘You shall not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.’

Leviticus 17:15 “ And every person who eats what died [naturally] or what was torn [by beasts, whether he is] a native of your own country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean.

Leviticus 17:16 “But if he does not wash [them] or bathe his body, then he shall bear his guilt.”

Leviticus 18:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 18:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:3 ‘According to the doings of the land of Egypt, where you dwelt, you shall not do; and according to the doings of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, you shall not do; nor shall you walk in their ordinances.

Leviticus 18:4 ‘You shall observe My judgments and keep My ordinances, to walk in them: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:5 ‘You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live by them: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 18:6 ‘ None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, to uncover his nakedness: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 18:7 ‘The nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother you shall not uncover. She [is] your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:8 ‘The nakedness of your father’s wife you shall not uncover; it [is] your father’s nakedness.

Leviticus 18:9 'The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, [whether] born at home or elsewhere, their nakedness you shall not uncover.

Leviticus 18:10 'The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for theirs [is] your own nakedness.

Leviticus 18:11 'The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten by your father—she [is] your sister—you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:12 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she [is] near of kin to your father.

Leviticus 18:13 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she [is] near of kin to your mother.

Leviticus 18:14 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother. You shall not approach his wife; she [is] your aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law—she [is] your son's wife—you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:16 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it [is] your brother's nakedness.

Leviticus 18:17 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness. They [are] near of kin to her. It [is] wickedness.

Leviticus 18:18 'Nor shall you take a woman as a rival to her sister, to uncover her nakedness while the other is alive.

Leviticus 18:19 ' Also you shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness as long as she is in her [customary] impurity.

Leviticus 18:20 'Moreover you shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife, to defile yourself with her.

Leviticus 18:21 'And you shall not let any of your descendants pass through [the fire] to Molech, nor shall you profane the name of your God: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 18:22 'You shall not lie with a male as with a woman. It [is] an abomination.

Leviticus 18:23 'Nor shall you mate with any animal, to defile yourself with it. Nor shall any woman stand before an animal to mate with it. It [is] perversion.

Leviticus 18:24 ' Do not defile yourselves with any of these things; for by all these the nations are defiled, which I am casting out before you.

Leviticus 18:25 'For the land is defiled; therefore I visit the punishment of its iniquity upon it, and the land vomits out its inhabitants.

Leviticus 18:26 'You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not commit [any] of these abominations, [either] any of your own nation or any stranger who dwells among you

Leviticus 18:27 '(for all these abominations the men of the land have done, who [were] before you, and thus the land is defiled),

Leviticus 18:28 'lest the land vomit you out also when you defile it, as it vomited out the nations that [were] before you.

Leviticus 18:29 'For whoever commits any of these abominations, the persons who commit [them] shall be cut off from among their people.

Leviticus 18:30 'Therefore you shall keep My ordinance, so that [you] do not commit [any] of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and that you do not defile yourselves by them: I [am] the LORD your God.' "

Leviticus 19:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 19:2 "Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them: 'You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God [am] holy.

Leviticus 19:3 ' Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and keep My Sabbaths: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:4 ' Do not turn to idols, nor make for yourselves molded gods: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:5 ' And if you offer a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, you shall offer it of your own free will.

Leviticus 19:6 'It shall be eaten the same day you offer [it,] and on the next day. And if any remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 19:7 'And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it [is] an abomination. It shall not be accepted.

Leviticus 19:8 'Therefore [everyone] who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed [offering] of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 19:9 ' When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

Leviticus 19:10 'And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather [every] grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the stranger: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:11 ' You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another.

Leviticus 19:12 ‘And you shall not swear by My name falsely, nor shall you profane the name of your God: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:13 ‘ You shall not cheat your neighbor, nor rob [him.] The wages of him who is hired shall not remain with you all night until morning.

Leviticus 19:14 ‘You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shall fear your God: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:15 ‘ You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.

Leviticus 19:16 ‘You shall not go about [as] a talebearer among your people; nor shall you take a stand against the life of your neighbor: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:17 ‘ You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him.

Leviticus 19:18 ‘You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:19 ‘ You shall keep My statutes. You shall not let your livestock breed with another kind. You shall not sow your field with mixed seed. Nor shall a garment of mixed linen and wool come upon you.

Leviticus 19:20 ‘Whoever lies carnally with a woman who [is] betrothed to a man as a concubine, and who has not at all been redeemed nor given her freedom, for this there shall be scourging; [but] they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

Leviticus 19:21 ‘And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, a ram as a trespass offering.

Leviticus 19:22 ‘The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed. And the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 19:23 ‘ When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as uncircumcised. Three years it shall be as uncircumcised to you. [It] shall not be eaten.

Leviticus 19:24 ‘But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, a praise to the LORD.

Leviticus 19:25 ‘And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:26 ‘ You shall not eat [anything] with the blood, nor shall you practice divination or soothsaying.

Leviticus 19:27 ‘You shall not shave around the sides of your head, nor shall you disfigure the edges of your beard.

Leviticus 19:28 'You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:29 ' Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a harlot, lest the land fall into harlotry, and the land become full of wickedness.

Leviticus 19:30 ' You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:31 ' Give no regard to mediums and familiar spirits; do not seek after them, to be defiled by them: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:32 ' You shall rise before the gray headed and honor the presence of an old man, and fear your God: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 19:33 ' And if a stranger dwells with you in your land, you shall not mistreat him.

Leviticus 19:34 'The stranger who dwells among you shall be to you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:35 ' You shall do no injustice in judgment, in measurement of length, weight, or volume.

Leviticus 19:36 'You shall have honest scales, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I [am] the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Leviticus 19:37 ' Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them: I [am] the LORD.' "

Leviticus 20:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 20:2 "Again, you shall say to the children of Israel: 'Whoever of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who gives [any] of his descendants to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones.

Leviticus 20:3 'I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from his people, because he has given [some] of his descendants to Molech, to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name.

Leviticus 20:4 'And if the people of the land should in any way hide their eyes from the man, when he gives [some] of his descendants to Molech, and they do not kill him,

Leviticus 20:5 'then I will set My face against that man and against his family; and I will cut him off from his people, and all who prostitute themselves with him to commit harlotry with Molech.

Leviticus 20:6 ' And the person who turns to mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will set My face against that person and cut him off from his people.

Leviticus 20:7 'Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 20:8 ‘ And you shall keep My statutes, and perform them: I [am] the LORD who sanctifies you.

Leviticus 20:9 ‘For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother. His blood [shall be] upon him.

Leviticus 20:10 ‘The man who commits adultery with [another] man’s wife, [he] who commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress, shall surely be put to death.

Leviticus 20:11 ‘The man who lies with his father’s wife has uncovered his father’s nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood [shall be] upon them.

Leviticus 20:12 ‘If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have committed perversion. Their blood [shall be] upon them.

Leviticus 20:13 ‘If a man lies with a male as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood [shall be] upon them.

Leviticus 20:14 ‘If a man marries a woman and her mother, it [is] wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.

Leviticus 20:15 ‘If a man mates with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.

Leviticus 20:16 ‘If a woman approaches any animal and mates with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood [is] upon them.

Leviticus 20:17 ‘If a man takes his sister, his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter, and sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it [is] a wicked thing. And they shall be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister’s nakedness. He shall bear his guilt.

Leviticus 20:18 ‘If a man lies with a woman during her sickness and uncovers her nakedness, he has exposed her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. Both of them shall be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 20:19 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister nor of your father’s sister, for that would uncover his near of kin. They shall bear their guilt.

Leviticus 20:20 ‘If a man lies with his uncle’s wife, he has uncovered his uncle’s nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

Leviticus 20:21 ‘If a man takes his brother’s wife, it [is] an unclean thing. He has uncovered his brother’s nakedness. They shall be childless.

Leviticus 20:22 ‘ You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them, that the land where I am bringing you to dwell may not vomit you out.

Leviticus 20:23 ‘And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they commit all these things, and therefore I abhor them.

Leviticus 20:24 ‘But I have said to you, “You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I [am] the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

Leviticus 20:25 ‘You shall therefore distinguish between clean animals and unclean, between unclean birds and clean, and you shall not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird, or by any kind of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

Leviticus 20:26 ‘And you shall be holy to Me, for I the LORD [am] holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be Mine.

Leviticus 20:27 ‘ A man or a woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood [shall be] upon them.’ “

Leviticus 21:1 And the LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: ‘None shall defile himself for the dead among his people,

Leviticus 21:2 ‘except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother;

Leviticus 21:3 ‘also his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may defile himself.

Leviticus 21:4 ‘[Otherwise] he shall not defile himself, [being] a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

Leviticus 21:5 ‘ They shall not make any bald [place] on their heads, nor shall they shave the edges of their beards nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

Leviticus 21:6 ‘They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, [and] the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

Leviticus 21:7 ‘They shall not take a wife [who is] a harlot or a defiled woman, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for [the priest] is holy to his God.

Leviticus 21:8 ‘Therefore you shall consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, who sanctify you, [am] holy.

Leviticus 21:9 ‘The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the harlot, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 21:10 ‘ [He who is] the high priest among his brethren, on whose head the anointing oil was poured and who is consecrated to wear the garments, shall not uncover his head nor tear his clothes;

Leviticus 21:11 ‘nor shall he go near any dead body, nor defile himself for his father or his mother;

Leviticus 21:12 ‘nor shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God [is] upon him: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 21:13 ‘And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

Leviticus 21:14 ‘A widow or a divorced woman or a defiled woman [or] a harlot—these he shall not marry; but he shall take a virgin of his own people as wife.

Leviticus 21:15 ‘Nor shall he profane his posterity among his people, for I the LORD sanctify him.’ “

Leviticus 21:16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 21:17 “Speak to Aaron, saying: ‘No man of your descendants in [succeeding] generations, who has [any] defect, may approach to offer the bread of his God.

Leviticus 21:18 ‘For any man who has a defect shall not approach: a man blind or lame, who has a marred [face] or any [limb] too long,

Leviticus 21:19 ‘a man who has a broken foot or broken hand,

Leviticus 21:20 ‘or is a hunchback or a dwarf, or [a man] who has a defect in his eye, or eczema or scab, or is a eunuch.

Leviticus 21:21 ‘No man of the descendants of Aaron the priest, who has a defect, shall come near to offer the offerings made by fire to the LORD. He has a defect; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.

Leviticus 21:22 ‘He may eat the bread of his God, [both] the most holy and the holy;

Leviticus 21:23 ‘only he shall not go near the veil or approach the altar, because he has a defect, lest he profane My sanctuaries; for I the LORD sanctify them.’ “

Leviticus 21:24 And Moses told [it] to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

Leviticus 22:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 22:2 “Speak to Aaron and his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy name [by] what they dedicate to Me: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 22:3 “Say to them: ‘Whoever of all your descendants throughout your generations, who goes near the holy things which the children of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has uncleanness upon him, that person shall be cut off from My presence: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 22:4 ‘Whatever man of the descendants of Aaron, who [is] a leper or has a discharge, shall not eat the holy offerings until he is clean.

And whoever touches anything made unclean [by] a corpse, or a man who has had an emission of semen,

Leviticus 22:5 ‘or whoever touches any creeping thing by which he would be made unclean, or any person by whom he would become unclean, whatever his uncleanness may be—

Leviticus 22:6 ‘the person who has touched any such thing shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat the holy [offerings] unless he washes his body with water.

Leviticus 22:7 ‘And when the sun goes down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat the holy [offerings,] because it [is] his food.

Leviticus 22:8 ‘Whatever dies [naturally] or is torn [by beasts] he shall not eat, to defile himself with it: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 22:9 ‘They shall therefore keep My ordinance, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby, if they profane it: I the LORD sanctify them.

Leviticus 22:10 ‘ No outsider shall eat the holy [offering;] one who dwells with the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat the holy thing.

Leviticus 22:11 ‘But if the priest buys a person with his money, he may eat it; and one who is born in his house may eat his food.

Leviticus 22:12 ‘If the priest’s daughter is married to an outsider, she may not eat of the holy offerings.

Leviticus 22:13 ‘But if the priest’s daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat her father’s food; but no outsider shall eat it.

Leviticus 22:14 ‘ And if a man eats the holy [offering] unintentionally, then he shall restore a holy [offering] to the priest, and add one-fifth to it.

Leviticus 22:15 ‘They shall not profane the holy [offerings] of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,

Leviticus 22:16 ‘or allow them to bear the guilt of trespass when they eat their holy [offerings;] for I the LORD sanctify them.’ “

Leviticus 22:17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 22:18 “Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who offers his sacrifice for any of his vows or for any of his freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering—

Leviticus 22:19 ‘[you shall offer] of your own free will a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats.

Leviticus 22:20 ‘Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it shall not be acceptable on your behalf.

Leviticus 22:21 ‘And whoever offers a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, to fulfill [his] vow, or a freewill offering from the cattle or the sheep, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it.

Leviticus 22:22 ‘Those [that are] blind or broken or maimed, or have an ulcer or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:23 ‘Either a bull or a lamb that has any limb too long or too short you may offer [as] a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

Leviticus 22:24 ‘You shall not offer to the LORD what is bruised or crushed, or torn or cut; nor shall you make [any offering of them] in your land.

Leviticus 22:25 ‘Nor from a foreigner’s hand shall you offer any of these as the bread of your God, because their corruption [is] in them, [and] defects [are] in them. They shall not be accepted on your behalf.’ “

Leviticus 22:26 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 22:27 “When a bull or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall be seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thereafter it shall be accepted as an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:28 “[Whether it is] a cow or ewe, do not kill both her and her young on the same day.

Leviticus 22:29 “And when you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, offer [it] of your own free will.

Leviticus 22:30 “On the same day it shall be eaten; you shall leave none of it until morning: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 22:31 “ Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and perform them: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 22:32 “You shall not profane My holy name, but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel. I [am] the LORD who sanctifies you,

Leviticus 22:33 “who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I [am] the LORD.”

Leviticus 23:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim [to be] holy convocations, these [are] My feasts.

Leviticus 23:3 ‘ Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day [is] a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work [on it;] it [is] the Sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

Leviticus 23:4 ‘ These [are] the feasts of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at their appointed times.

Leviticus 23:5 ‘On the fourteenth [day] of the first month at twilight [is] the LORD’s Passover.

Leviticus 23:6 ‘And on the fifteenth day of the same month [is] the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; seven days you must eat unleavened bread.

Leviticus 23:7 ‘On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it.

Leviticus 23:8 ‘But you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD for seven days. The seventh day [shall be] a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work [on it.’] “

Leviticus 23:9 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:10 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest.

Leviticus 23:11 ‘He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted on your behalf; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Leviticus 23:12 ‘And you shall offer on that day, when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:13 ‘Its grain offering [shall be] two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD, for a sweet aroma; and its drink offering [shall be] of wine, one-fourth of a hin.

Leviticus 23:14 ‘You shall eat neither bread nor parched grain nor fresh grain until the same day that you have brought an offering to your God; [it shall be] a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Leviticus 23:15 ‘ And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed.

Leviticus 23:16 ‘Count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:17 ‘You shall bring from your dwellings two wave [loaves] of two-tenths [of an ephah.] They shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven. [They are] the firstfruits to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:18 ‘And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year, without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be [as] a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:19 ‘Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of a peace offering.

Leviticus 23:20 'The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits [as] a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

Leviticus 23:21 'And you shall proclaim on the same day [that] it is a holy convocation to you. You shall do no customary work [on it. It shall be] a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

Leviticus 23:22 ' When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleaning from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I [am] the LORD your God.' "

Leviticus 23:23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:24 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'In the seventh month, on the first [day] of the month, you shall have a sabbath-[rest,] a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.

Leviticus 23:25 'You shall do no customary work [on it;] and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.' "

Leviticus 23:26 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 23:27 "Also the tenth [day] of this seventh month [shall be] the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:28 "And you shall do no work on that same day, for it [is] the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:29 "For any person who is not afflicted [in soul] on that same day shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 23:30 "And any person who does any work on that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people.

Leviticus 23:31 "You shall do no manner of work; [it shall be] a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Leviticus 23:32 "It [shall be] to you a sabbath of [solemn] rest, and you shall afflict your souls; on the ninth [day] of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall celebrate your sabbath."

Leviticus 23:33 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:34 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'The fifteenth day of this seventh month [shall be] the Feast of Tabernacles [for] seven days to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:35 'On the first day [there shall be] a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work [on it.]

Leviticus 23:36 '[For] seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. It [is] a sacred assembly, [and] you shall do no customary work [on it.]

Leviticus 23:37 'These [are] the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim [to be] holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, everything on its day—

Leviticus 23:38 'besides the Sabbaths of the LORD, besides your gifts, besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings which you give to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:39 ' Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD [for] seven days; on the first day [there shall be] a sabbath-[rest,] and on the eighth day a sabbath-[rest.]

Leviticus 23:40 'And you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of beautiful trees, branches of palm trees, the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

Leviticus 23:41 'You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. [It shall be] a statute forever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

Leviticus 23:42 'You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All who are native Israelites shall dwell in booths,

Leviticus 23:43 'that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I [am] the LORD your God.' "

Leviticus 23:44 So Moses declared to the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

Leviticus 24:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 24:2 "Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.

Leviticus 24:3 "Outside the veil of the Testimony, in the tabernacle of meeting, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning before the LORD continually; [it shall be] a statute forever in your generations.

Leviticus 24:4 "He shall be in charge of the lamps on the pure [gold] lampstand before the LORD continually.

Leviticus 24:5 " And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it. Two-tenths [of an ephah] shall be in each cake.

Leviticus 24:6 "You shall set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure [gold] table before the LORD.

Leviticus 24:7 "And you shall put pure frankincense on [each] row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 24:8 “Every Sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, [being taken] from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

Leviticus 24:9 “And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it [is] most holy to him from the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute.”

Leviticus 24:10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father [was] an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this Israelite [woman’s] son and a man of Israel fought each other in the camp.

Leviticus 24:11 And the Israelite woman’s son blasphemed the name [of the] [Lord] and cursed; and so they brought him to Moses. (His mother’s name [was] Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

Leviticus 24:12 Then they put him in custody, that the mind of the LORD might be shown to them.

Leviticus 24:13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 24:14 “Take outside the camp him who has cursed; then let all who heard [him] lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

Leviticus 24:15 “Then you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin.

Leviticus 24:16 ‘And whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall certainly stone him, the stranger as well as him who is born in the land. When he blasphemes the name [of the] [Lord,] he shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:17 ‘ Whoever kills any man shall surely be put to death.

Leviticus 24:18 ‘Whoever kills an animal shall make it good, animal for animal.

Leviticus 24:19 ‘If a man causes disfigurement of his neighbor, as he has done, so shall it be done to him—

Leviticus 24:20 ‘fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has caused disfigurement of a man, so shall it be done to him.

Leviticus 24:21 ‘And whoever kills an animal shall restore it; but whoever kills a man shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:22 ‘You shall have the same law for the stranger and for one from your own country; for I [am] the LORD your God.’ “

Leviticus 24:23 Then Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they took outside the camp him who had cursed, and stoned him with stones. So the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying, Leviticus 25:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD.

Leviticus 25:3 ‘Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather its fruit;

Leviticus 25:4 ‘but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

Leviticus 25:5 ‘What grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine, [for] it is a year of rest for the land.

Leviticus 25:6 ‘And the sabbath [produce] of the land shall be food for you: for you, your male and female servants, your hired man, and the stranger who dwells with you,

Leviticus 25:7 ‘for your livestock and the beasts that [are] in your land—all its produce shall be for food.

Leviticus 25:8 ‘ And you shall count seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

Leviticus 25:9 ‘Then you shall cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth [day] of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement you shall make the trumpet to sound throughout all your land.

Leviticus 25:10 ‘And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout [all] the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.

Leviticus 25:11 ‘That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you; in it you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of its own accord, nor gather [the grapes] of your untended vine.

Leviticus 25:12 ‘For it [is] the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat its produce from the field.

Leviticus 25:13 ‘ In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession.

Leviticus 25:14 ‘And if you sell anything to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor’s hand, you shall not oppress one another.

Leviticus 25:15 ‘According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years of crops he shall sell to you.

Leviticus 25:16 ‘According to the multitude of years you shall increase its price, and according to the fewer number of years you shall diminish its price; for he sells to you [according] to the number [of the years] of the crops.

Leviticus 25:17 'Therefore you shall not oppress one another, but you shall fear your God; for I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 25:18 ' So you shall observe My statutes and keep My judgments, and perform them; and you will dwell in the land in safety.

Leviticus 25:19 'Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill, and dwell there in safety.

Leviticus 25:20 'And if you say, "What shall we eat in the seventh year, since we shall not sow nor gather in our produce?"

Leviticus 25:21 'Then I will command My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it will bring forth produce enough for three years.

Leviticus 25:22 'And you shall sow in the eighth year, and eat old produce until the ninth year; until its produce comes in, you shall eat [of] the old [harvest.]

Leviticus 25:23 ' The land shall not be sold permanently, for the land [is] Mine; for you [are] strangers and sojourners with Me.

Leviticus 25:24 'And in all the land of your possession you shall grant redemption of the land.

Leviticus 25:25 ' If one of your brethren becomes poor, and has sold [some] of his possession, and if his redeeming relative comes to redeem it, then he may redeem what his brother sold.

Leviticus 25:26 'Or if the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it,

Leviticus 25:27 'then let him count the years since its sale, and restore the remainder to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return to his possession.

Leviticus 25:28 'But if he is not able to have [it] restored to himself, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Jubilee; and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.

Leviticus 25:29 'If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; [within] a full year he may redeem it.

Leviticus 25:30 'But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee.

Leviticus 25:31 'However the houses of villages which have no wall around them shall be counted as the fields of the country. They may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.

Leviticus 25:32 'Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, [and] the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time.

Leviticus 25:33 ‘And if a man purchases a house from the Levites, then the house that was sold in the city of his possession shall be released in the Jubilee; for the houses in the cities of the Levites [are] their possession among the children of Israel.

Leviticus 25:34 ‘But the field of the common-land of their cities may not be sold, for it [is] their perpetual possession.

Leviticus 25:35 ‘ If one of your brethren becomes poor, and falls into poverty among you, then you shall help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you.

Leviticus 25:36 ‘Take no usury or interest from him; but fear your God, that your brother may live with you.

Leviticus 25:37 ‘You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit.

Leviticus 25:38 ‘I [am] the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan [and] to be your God.

Leviticus 25:39 ‘ And if [one of] your brethren [who dwells] by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a slave.

Leviticus 25:40 ‘As a hired servant [and] a sojourner he shall be with you, [and] shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee.

Leviticus 25:41 ‘And [then] he shall depart from you—he and his children with him—and shall return to his own family. He shall return to the possession of his fathers.

Leviticus 25:42 ‘For they [are] My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.

Leviticus 25:43 ‘You shall not rule over him with rigor, but you shall fear your God.

Leviticus 25:44 ‘And as for your male and female slaves whom you may have—from the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves.

Leviticus 25:45 ‘Moreover you may buy the children of the strangers who dwell among you, and their families who are with you, which they beget in your land; and they shall become your property.

Leviticus 25:46 ‘And you may take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit [them as] a possession; they shall be your permanent slaves. But regarding your brethren, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with rigor.

Leviticus 25:47 ‘ Now if a sojourner or stranger close to you becomes rich, and [one of] your brethren [who dwells] by him becomes poor, and sells himself to the stranger [or] sojourner close to you, or to a member of the stranger’s family, Leviticus 25:48 ‘after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him;

Leviticus 25:49 ‘or his uncle or his uncle’s son may redeem him; or [anyone] who is near of kin to him in his family may redeem him; or if he is able he may redeem himself.

Leviticus 25:50 ‘Thus he shall reckon with him who bought him: The price of his release shall be according to the number of years, from the year that he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee; [it shall be] according to the time of a hired servant for him.

Leviticus 25:51 ‘If [there are] still many years [remaining,] according to them he shall repay the price of his redemption from the money with which he was bought.

Leviticus 25:52 ‘And if there remain but a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he shall reckon with him, [and] according to his years he shall repay him the price of his redemption.

Leviticus 25:53 ‘He shall be with him as a yearly hired servant, and he shall not rule with rigor over him in your sight.

Leviticus 25:54 ‘And if he is not redeemed in these [years,] then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee—he and his children with him.

Leviticus 25:55 ‘For the children of Israel [are] servants to Me; they [are] My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:1 ‘You shall not make idols for yourselves; neither a carved image nor a [sacred] pillar shall you rear up for yourselves; nor shall you set up an engraved stone in your land, to bow down to it; for I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:2 You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary: I [am] the LORD.

Leviticus 26:3 ‘ If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform them,

Leviticus 26:4 then I will give you rain in its season, the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:5 Your threshing shall last till the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last till the time of sowing; you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

Leviticus 26:6 I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make [you] afraid; I will rid the land of evil beasts, and the sword will not go through your land.

Leviticus 26:7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you.

Leviticus 26:8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword before you.

Leviticus 26:9 ‘ For I will look on you favorably and make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My covenant with you.

Leviticus 26:10 You shall eat the old harvest, and clear out the old because of the new.

Leviticus 26:11 I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you.

Leviticus 26:12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.

Leviticus 26:13 I [am] the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that [you] should not be their slaves; I have broken the bands of your yoke and made you walk upright.

Leviticus 26:14 ‘ But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe all these commandments,

Leviticus 26:15 and if you despise My statutes, or if your soul abhors My judgments, so that you do not perform all My commandments, [but] break My covenant,

Leviticus 26:16 I also will do this to you: I will even appoint terror over you, wasting disease and fever which shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Leviticus 26:17 I will set My face against you, and you shall be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you.

Leviticus 26:18 ‘ And after all this, if you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

Leviticus 26:19 I will break the pride of your power; I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze.

Leviticus 26:20 And your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:21 ‘ Then, if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to obey Me, I will bring on you seven times more plagues, according to your sins.

Leviticus 26:22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate.

Leviticus 26:23 ‘ And if by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me, Leviticus 26:24 then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:25 And I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; when you are gathered together within your cities I will send pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

Leviticus 26:26 When I have cut off your supply of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall bring back your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not be satisfied.

Leviticus 26:27 ‘ And after all this, if you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me,

Leviticus 26:28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

Leviticus 26:30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols; and My soul shall abhor you.

Leviticus 26:31 I will lay your cities waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the fragrance of your sweet aromas.

Leviticus 26:32 I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it.

Leviticus 26:33 I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you; your land shall be desolate and your cities waste.

Leviticus 26:34 Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you [are] in your enemies’ land; then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

Leviticus 26:35 As long as [it] lies desolate it shall rest—for the time it did not rest on your sabbaths when you dwelt in it.

Leviticus 26:36 ‘ And as for those of you who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee; they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues.

Leviticus 26:37 They shall stumble over one another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursues; and you shall have no [power] to stand before your enemies.

Leviticus 26:38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

Leviticus 26:39 And those of you who are left shall waste away in their iniquity in your enemies’ lands; also in their fathers’ iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.

Leviticus 26:40 ‘ [But] if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, and that they also have walked contrary to Me,

Leviticus 26:41 and [that] I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they accept their guilt—

Leviticus 26:42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham I will remember; I will remember the land.

Leviticus 26:43 The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; they will accept their guilt, because they despised My judgments and because their soul abhorred My statutes.

Leviticus 26:44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor shall I abhor them, to utterly destroy them and break My covenant with them; for I [am] the LORD their God.

Leviticus 26:45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I [am] the LORD.’ “

Leviticus 26:46 These [are] the statutes and judgments and laws which the LORD made between Himself and the children of Israel on Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 27:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 27:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When a man consecrates by a vow certain persons to the LORD, according to your valuation,

Leviticus 27:3 ‘if your valuation is of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 27:4 ‘If it [is] a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels;

Leviticus 27:5 ‘and if from five years old up to twenty years old, then your valuation for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels;

Leviticus 27:6 ‘and if from a month old up to five years old, then your valuation for a male shall be five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver;

Leviticus 27:7 ‘and if from sixty years old and above, if [it is] a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

Leviticus 27:8 ‘But if he is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall set a value for him; according to the ability of him who vowed, the priest shall value him.

Leviticus 27:9 ‘ If [it is] an animal that men may bring as an offering to the LORD, all that [anyone] gives to the LORD shall be holy.

Leviticus 27:10 ‘He shall not substitute it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good; and if he at all exchanges animal for animal, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy.

Leviticus 27:11 ‘If [it is] an unclean animal which they do not offer as a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest;

Leviticus 27:12 ‘and the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.

Leviticus 27:13 ‘But if he [wants] at all [to] redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to your valuation.

Leviticus 27:14 ‘ And when a man dedicates his house [to be] holy to the LORD, then the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

Leviticus 27:15 ‘If he who dedicated it [wants to] redeem his house, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

Leviticus 27:16 ‘ If a man dedicates to the LORD [part] of a field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it. A homer of barley seed [shall be valued] at fifty shekels of silver.

Leviticus 27:17 ‘If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand.

Leviticus 27:18 ‘But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money due according to the years that remain till the Year of Jubilee, and it shall be deducted from your valuation.

Leviticus 27:19 ‘And if he who dedicates the field ever wishes to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall belong to him.

Leviticus 27:20 ‘But if he does not want to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore;

Leviticus 27:21 ‘but the field, when it is released in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a devoted field; it shall be the possession of the priest.

Leviticus 27:22 ‘And if a man dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not the field of his possession,

Leviticus 27:23 ‘then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation, up to the Year of Jubilee, and he shall give your valuation on that day [as] a holy [offering] to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:24 ‘In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to the one who [owned] the land as a possession.

Leviticus 27:25 ‘And all your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.

Leviticus 27:26 ‘ But the firstborn of the animals, which should be the LORD’s firstborn, no man shall dedicate; whether [it is] an ox or sheep, it [is] the LORD’s.

Leviticus 27:27 ‘And if [it is] an unclean animal, then he shall redeem [it] according to your valuation, and shall add one-fifth to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

Leviticus 27:28 ‘ Nevertheless no devoted [offering] that a man may devote to the LORD of all that he has, [both] man and beast, or the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted [offering is] most holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:29 ‘No person under the ban, who may become doomed to destruction among men, shall be redeemed, [but] shall surely be put to death.

Leviticus 27:30 ‘And all the tithe of the land, [whether] of the seed of the land [or] of the fruit of the tree, [is] the LORD’s. It [is] holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:31 ‘If a man wants at all to redeem [any] of his tithes, he shall add one-fifth to it.

Leviticus 27:32 ‘And concerning the tithe of the herd or the flock, of whatever passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:33 ‘He shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, nor shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it at all, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.’ “

Leviticus 27:34 These [are] the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

1:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of meeting, on the first [day] of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

Numbers 1:2 “Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers’ houses, according to the number of names, every male individually, Numbers 1:3 “from twenty years old and above—all who [are able to] go to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

Numbers 1:4 “And with you there shall be a man from every tribe, each one the head of his father’s house.

Numbers 1:5 “ These are the names of the men who shall stand with you: from Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

Numbers 1:6 “from Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

Numbers 1:7 “from Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; Numbers 1:8 “from Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

Numbers 1:9 “from Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

Numbers 1:10 “from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

Numbers 1:11 “from Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

Numbers 1:12 “from Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

Numbers 1:13 “from Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran;

Numbers 1:14 “from Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

Numbers 1:15 “from Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.”

Numbers 1:16 These [were] chosen from the congregation, leaders of their fathers’ tribes, heads of the divisions in Israel.

Numbers 1:17 Then Moses and Aaron took these men who had been mentioned by name,

Numbers 1:18 and they assembled all the congregation together on the first [day] of the second month; and they recited their ancestry by families, by their fathers’ houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, each one individually.

Numbers 1:19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 1:20 Now the children of Reuben, Israel’s oldest son, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:21 those who were numbered of the tribe of Reuben [were] forty-six thousand five hundred.

Numbers 1:22 From the children of Simeon, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, of those who were numbered, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:23 those who were numbered of the tribe of Simeon [were] fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Numbers 1:24 From the children of Gad, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:25 those who were numbered of the tribe of Gad [were] forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Numbers 1:26 From the children of Judah, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:27 those who were numbered of the tribe of Judah [were] seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Numbers 1:28 From the children of Issachar, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:29 those who were numbered of the tribe of Issachar [were] fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:30 From the children of Zebulun, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:31 those who were numbered of the tribe of Zebulun [were] fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:32 From the sons of Joseph, the children of Ephraim, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:33 those who were numbered of the tribe of Ephraim [were] forty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 1:34 From the children of Manasseh, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:35 those who were numbered of the tribe of Manasseh [were] thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Numbers 1:36 From the children of Benjamin, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:37 those who were numbered of the tribe of Benjamin [were] thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:38 From the children of Dan, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:39 those who were numbered of the tribe of Dan [were] sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Numbers 1:40 From the children of Asher, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:41 those who were numbered of the tribe of Asher [were] forty-one thousand five hundred.

Numbers 1:42 From the children of Naphtali, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to] go to war:

Numbers 1:43 those who were numbered of the tribe of Naphtali [were] fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:44 These are the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each one representing his father's house.

Numbers 1:45 So all who were numbered of the children of Israel, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and above, all who [were able to go] to war in Israel—

Numbers 1:46 all who were numbered were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

Numbers 1:47 But the Levites were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe;

Numbers 1:48 for the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying:

Numbers 1:49 "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor take a census of them among the children of Israel;

Numbers 1:50 "but you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the Testimony, over all its furnishings, and over all things that belong to it; they shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they shall attend to it and camp around the tabernacle.

Numbers 1:51 "And when the tabernacle is to go forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

Numbers 1:52 "The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, everyone by his own camp, everyone by his own standard, according to their armies;

Numbers 1:53 "but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony."

Numbers 1:54 Thus the children of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did.

Numbers 2:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 2:2 "Everyone of the children of Israel shall camp by his own standard, beside the emblems of his father's house; they shall camp some distance from the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 2:3 "On the east side, toward the rising of the sun, those of the standard of the forces with Judah shall camp according to their armies; and Nahshon the son of Amminadab [shall be] the leader of the children of Judah."

Numbers 2:4 And his army was numbered at seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Numbers 2:5 “Those who camp next to him [shall be] the tribe of Issachar, and Nethanel the son of Zuar [shall be] the leader of the children of Issachar.”

Numbers 2:6 And his army was numbered at fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:7 “Then [comes] the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon [shall be] the leader of the children of Zebulun.”

Numbers 2:8 And his army was numbered at fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:9 “All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Judah, one hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred—these shall break camp first.

Numbers 2:10 “ On the south side [shall be] the standard of the forces with Reuben according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Reuben [shall be] Elizur the son of Shedeur.”

Numbers 2:11 And his army was numbered at forty-six thousand five hundred.

Numbers 2:12 “Those who camp next to him [shall be] the tribe of Simeon, and the leader of the children of Simeon [shall be] Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.”

Numbers 2:13 And his army was numbered at fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Numbers 2:14 “Then [comes] the tribe of Gad, and the leader of the children of Gad [shall be] Eliasaph the son of Reuel.”

Numbers 2:15 And his army was numbered at forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Numbers 2:16 “All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Reuben, one hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty—they shall be the second to break camp.

Numbers 2:17 “And the tabernacle of meeting shall move out with the camp of the Levites in the middle of the camps; as they camp, so they shall move out, everyone in his place, by their standards.

Numbers 2:18 “ On the west side [shall be] the standard of the forces with Ephraim according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Ephraim [shall be] Elishama the son of Ammihud.”

Numbers 2:19 And his army was numbered at forty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 2:20 “Next to him [comes] the tribe of Manasseh, and the leader of the children of Manasseh [shall be] Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.”

Numbers 2:21 And his army was numbered at thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Numbers 2:22 “Then [comes] the tribe of Benjamin, and the leader of the children of Benjamin [shall be] Abidan the son of Gideoni.”

Numbers 2:23 And his army was numbered at thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:24 “All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Ephraim, one hundred and eight thousand one hundred—they shall be the third to break camp.

Numbers 2:25 “ The standard of the forces with Dan [shall be] on the north side according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Dan [shall be] Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.”

Numbers 2:26 And his army was numbered at sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Numbers 2:27 “Those who camp next to him [shall be] the tribe of Asher, and the leader of the children of Asher [shall be] Pagiel the son of Ocran.”

Numbers 2:28 And his army was numbered at forty-one thousand five hundred.

Numbers 2:29 “Then [comes] the tribe of Naphtali, and the leader of the children of Naphtali [shall be] Ahira the son of Enan.”

Numbers 2:30 And his army was numbered at fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:31 “All who were numbered of the forces with Dan, one hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred—they shall break camp last, with their standards.”

Numbers 2:32 These [are] the ones who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers’ houses. All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces [were] six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

Numbers 2:33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 2:34 Thus the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; so they camped by their standards and so they broke camp, each one by his family, according to their fathers’ houses.

Numbers 3:1 Now these [are] the records of Aaron and Moses when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

Numbers 3:2 And these [are] the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab, the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Numbers 3:3 These [are] the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he consecrated to minister as priests.

Numbers 3:4 Nadab and Abihu had died before the LORD when they offered profane fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests in the presence of Aaron their father.

Numbers 3:5 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 3:6 “Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.

Numbers 3:7 “And they shall attend to his needs and the needs of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of meeting, to do the work of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:8 “Also they shall attend to all the furnishings of the tabernacle of meeting, and to the needs of the children of Israel, to do the work of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:9 “And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they [are] given entirely to him from among the children of Israel.

Numbers 3:10 “So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall attend to their priesthood; but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.”

Numbers 3:11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 3:12 “Now behold, I Myself have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore the Levites shall be Mine,

Numbers 3:13 “because all the firstborn [are] Mine. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine: I [am] the LORD.”

Numbers 3:14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying:

Numbers 3:15 “Number the children of Levi by their fathers’ houses, by their families; you shall number every male from a month old and above.”

Numbers 3:16 So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

Numbers 3:17 These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Numbers 3:18 And these [are] the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

Numbers 3:19 And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

Numbers 3:20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These [are] the families of the Levites by their fathers’ houses.

Numbers 3:21 From Gershon [came] the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites; these [were] the families of the Gershonites.

Numbers 3:22 Those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above—of those who were numbered [there were] seven thousand five hundred.

Numbers 3:23 The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward.

Numbers 3:24 And the leader of the fathers' house of the Gershonites [was] Eliasaph the son of Lael.

Numbers 3:25 The duties of the children of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting [included] the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting,

Numbers 3:26 the screen for the door of the court, the hangings of the court which [are] around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, according to all the work relating to them.

Numbers 3:27 From Kohath [came] the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these [were] the families of the Kohathites.

Numbers 3:28 According to the number of all the males, from a month old and above, [there were] eight thousand six hundred keeping charge of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:29 The families of the children of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:30 And the leader of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites [was] Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

Numbers 3:31 Their duty [included] the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary with which they ministered, the screen, and all the work relating to them.

Numbers 3:32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest [was to be] chief over the leaders of the Levites, [with] oversight of those who kept charge of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:33 From Merari [came] the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these [were] the families of Merari.

Numbers 3:34 And those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above, [were] six thousand two hundred.

Numbers 3:35 The leader of the fathers' house of the families of Merari [was] Zuriel the son of Abihail. These [were] to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:36 And the appointed duty of the children of Merari [included] the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, its utensils, all the work relating to them, Numbers 3:37 and the pillars of the court all around, with their sockets, their pegs, and their cords.

Numbers 3:38 Moreover those who were to camp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tabernacle of meeting, [were] Moses, Aaron, and his sons, keeping charge of the sanctuary, to meet the needs of the children of Israel; but the outsider who came near was to be put to death.

Numbers 3:39 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by their families, all the males from a month old and above, [were] twenty-two thousand.

Numbers 3:40 Then the LORD said to Moses: “Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and above, and take the number of their names.

Numbers 3:41 “And you shall take the Levites for Me—I [am] the LORD—instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel.”

Numbers 3:42 So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded him.

Numbers 3:43 And all the firstborn males, according to the number of names from a month old and above, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

Numbers 3:44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 3:45 “Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock. The Levites shall be Mine: I [am] the LORD.

Numbers 3:46 “And for the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, who are more than the number of the Levites, Numbers 3:47 “you shall take five shekels for each one individually; you shall take [them] in the currency of the shekel of the sanctuary, the shekel of twenty gerahs.

Numbers 3:48 “And you shall give the money, with which the excess number of them is redeemed, to Aaron and his sons.”

Numbers 3:49 So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites.

Numbers 3:50 From the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five [shekels,] according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:51 And Moses gave their redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 4:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 4:2 “Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the children of Levi, by their families, by their fathers’ house, Numbers 4:3 “from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 4:4 “ This [is] the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of meeting, [relating to] the most holy things:

Numbers 4:5 “When the camp prepares to journey, Aaron and his sons shall come, and they shall take down the covering veil and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.

Numbers 4:6 “Then they shall put on it a covering of badger skins, and spread over [that] a cloth entirely of blue; and they shall insert its poles.

Numbers 4:7 “On the table of showbread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the pans, the bowls, and the pitchers for pouring; and the showbread shall be on it.

Numbers 4:8 “They shall spread over them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles.

Numbers 4:9 “And they shall take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand of the light, with its lamps, its wick-trimmers, its trays, and all its oil vessels, with which they service it.

Numbers 4:10 “Then they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of badger skins, and put [it] on a carrying beam.

Numbers 4:11 “Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles.

Numbers 4:12 “Then they shall take all the utensils of service with which they minister in the sanctuary, put [them] in a blue cloth, cover them with a covering of badger skins, and put [them] on a carrying beam.

Numbers 4:13 “Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.

Numbers 4:14 “They shall put on it all its implements with which they minister there—the firepans, the forks, the shovels, the basins, and all the utensils of the altar—and they shall spread on it a covering of badger skins, and insert its poles.

Numbers 4:15 “And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is set to go, then the sons of Kohath shall come to carry [them;] but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These [are] the things in the tabernacle of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.

Numbers 4:16 “The appointed duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest [is] the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the daily grain offering, the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle, of all that [is] in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings.”

Numbers 4:17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 4:18 “Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites;

Numbers 4:19 “but do this in regard to them, that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each of them to his service and his task.

Numbers 4:20 “But they shall not go in to watch while the holy things are being covered, lest they die.”

Numbers 4:21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 4:22 “Also take a census of the sons of Gershon, by their fathers’ house, by their families.

Numbers 4:23 “From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 4:24 “This [is] the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and carrying:

Numbers 4:25 “They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tabernacle of meeting [with] its covering, the covering of badger skins that [is] on it, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, Numbers 4:26 “the screen for the door of the gate of the court, the hangings of the court which [are] around the tabernacle and altar, and their cords, all the furnishings for their service and all that is made for these things: so shall they serve.

Numbers 4:27 “Aaron and his sons shall assign all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their tasks and all their service. And you shall appoint to them all their tasks as their duty.

Numbers 4:28 “This [is] the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting. And their duties [shall be] under the authority of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 4:29 “ [As for] the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families and by their fathers’ house.

Numbers 4:30 “From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 4:31 “And this [is] what they must carry as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, Numbers 4:32 “and the pillars around the court with their sockets, pegs, and cords, with all their furnishings and all their service; and you shall assign [to each man] by name the items he must carry.

Numbers 4:33 “This [is] the service of the families of the sons of Merari, as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting, under the authority of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.”

Numbers 4:34 And Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers’ house,

Numbers 4:35 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting;

Numbers 4:36 and those who were numbered by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

Numbers 4:37 These [were] the ones who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 4:38 And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families and by their fathers’ house,

Numbers 4:39 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—

Numbers 4:40 those who were numbered by their families, by their fathers’ house, were two thousand six hundred and thirty.

Numbers 4:41 These [are] the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

Numbers 4:42 Those of the families of the sons of Merari who were numbered, by their families, by their fathers’ house,

Numbers 4:43 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—

Numbers 4:44 those who were numbered by their families were three thousand two hundred.

Numbers 4:45 These [are] the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 4:46 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers’ houses,

Numbers 4:47 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who came to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the tabernacle of meeting—

Numbers 4:48 those who were numbered were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.

Numbers 4:49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, each according to his service and according to his task; thus were they numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 5:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 5:2 "Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, everyone who has a discharge, and whoever becomes defiled by a corpse.

Numbers 5:3 "You shall put out both male and female; you shall put them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell."

Numbers 5:4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp; as the LORD spoke to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

Numbers 5:5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 5:6 "Speak to the children of Israel: 'When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit in unfaithfulness against the LORD, and that person is guilty,

Numbers 5:7 'then he shall confess the sin which he has committed. He shall make restitution for his trespass in full, plus one-fifth of it, and give [it] to the one he has wronged.

Numbers 5:8 'But if the man has no relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for the wrong [must go] to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of the atonement with which atonement is made for him.

Numbers 5:9 'Every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his.

Numbers 5:10 'And every man's holy things shall be his; whatever any man gives the priest shall be his.' "

Numbers 5:11 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 5:12 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'If any man's wife goes astray and behaves unfaithfully toward him,

Numbers 5:13 'and a man lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and it is concealed that she has defiled herself, and [there was] no witness against her, nor was she caught—

Numbers 5:14 'if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, who has defiled herself; or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, although she has not defiled herself—

Numbers 5:15 'then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. He shall bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an EPHAH of barley meal; he shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, because it [is] a grain offering of jealousy, an offering for remembering, for bringing iniquity to remembrance.

Numbers 5:16 ‘ And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD.

Numbers 5:17 ‘The priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put [it] into the water.

Numbers 5:18 ‘Then the priest shall stand the woman before the LORD, uncover the woman’s head, and put the offering for remembering in her hands, which [is] the grain offering of jealousy. And the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.

Numbers 5:19 ‘And the priest shall put her under oath, and say to the woman, “If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone astray to uncleanness [while] under your husband’s [authority,] be free from this bitter water that brings a curse.

Numbers 5:20 “But if you have gone astray [while] under your husband’s [authority,] and if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has lain with you”—

Numbers 5:21 ‘then the priest shall put the woman under the oath of the curse, and he shall say to the woman—“the LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh rot and your belly swell;

Numbers 5:22 “and may this water that causes the curse go into your stomach, and make [your] belly swell and [your] thigh rot.” Then the woman shall say, “Amen, so be it.”

Numbers 5:23 ‘ Then the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall scrape [them] off into the bitter water.

Numbers 5:24 ‘And he shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her [to become] bitter.

Numbers 5:25 ‘Then the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman’s hand, shall wave the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar;

Numbers 5:26 ‘and the priest shall take a handful of the offering, as its memorial portion, burn [it] on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.

Numbers 5:27 ‘When he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she has defiled herself and behaved unfaithfully toward her husband, that the water that brings a curse will enter her [and become] bitter, and her belly will swell, her thigh will rot, and the woman will become a curse among her people.

Numbers 5:28 'But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be free and may conceive children.

Numbers 5:29 ' This [is] the law of jealousy, when a wife, [while] under her husband's [authority,] goes astray and defiles herself,

Numbers 5:30 'or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he becomes jealous of his wife; then he shall stand the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute all this law upon her.

Numbers 5:31 'Then the man shall be free from iniquity, but that woman shall bear her guilt.' "

Numbers 6:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 6:2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When either a man or woman consecrates an offering to take the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD,

Numbers 6:3 'he shall separate himself from wine and [similar] drink; he shall drink neither vinegar made from wine nor vinegar made from [similar] drink; neither shall he drink any grape juice, nor eat fresh grapes or raisins.

Numbers 6:4 'All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, from seed to skin.

Numbers 6:5 'All the days of the vow of his separation no razor shall come upon his head; until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD, he shall be holy. [Then] he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

Numbers 6:6 'All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body.

Numbers 6:7 'He shall not make himself unclean even for his father or his mother, for his brother or his sister, when they die, because his separation to God [is] on his head.

Numbers 6:8 'All the days of his separation he shall be holy to the LORD.

Numbers 6:9 ' And if anyone dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shall shave it.

Numbers 6:10 'Then on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting;

Numbers 6:11 'and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and [the] other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned in regard to the corpse; and he shall sanctify his head that same day.

Numbers 6:12 ‘He shall consecrate to the LORD the days of his separation, and bring a male lamb in its first year as a trespass offering; but the former days shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

Numbers 6:13 ‘ Now this [is] the law of the Nazirite: When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 6:14 ‘And he shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb in its first year without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish as a sin offering, one ram without blemish as a peace offering,

Numbers 6:15 ‘a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their grain offering with their drink offerings.

Numbers 6:16 ‘Then the priest shall bring [them] before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering;

Numbers 6:17 ‘and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 6:18 ‘Then the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head [at] the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put [it] on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.

Numbers 6:19 ‘And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and put [them] upon the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated [hair,]

Numbers 6:20 ‘and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; they [are] holy for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.’

Numbers 6:21 “ This is the law of the Nazirite who vows to the LORD the offering for his separation, and besides that, whatever else his hand is able to provide; according to the vow which he takes, so he must do according to the law of his separation.”

Numbers 6:22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 6:23 “Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the way you shall bless the children of Israel. Say to them:

Numbers 6:24 “The LORD bless you and keep you;

Numbers 6:25 The LORD make His face shine upon you, And be gracious to you;

Numbers 6:26 The LORD lift up His countenance upon you, And give you peace.” ‘

Numbers 6:27 “So they shall put My name on the children of Israel, and I will bless them.”

Numbers 7:1 Now it came to pass, when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, that he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; so he anointed them and consecrated them.

Numbers 7:2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers’ houses, who [were] the leaders of the tribes and over those who were numbered, made an offering.

Numbers 7:3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for [every] two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

Numbers 7:4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 7:5 “Accept [these] from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tabernacle of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, [to] every man according to his service.”

Numbers 7:6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

Numbers 7:7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service;

Numbers 7:8 and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the authority of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 7:9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because theirs [was] the service of the holy things, [which] they carried on their shoulders.

Numbers 7:10 Now the leaders offered the dedication [offering] for the altar when it was anointed; so the leaders offered their offering before the altar.

Numbers 7:11 For the LORD said to Moses, “They shall offer their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.”

Numbers 7:89 Now when Moses went into the tabernacle of meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice of One speaking to him from above the mercy seat that [was] on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim; thus He spoke to him.

Numbers 8:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 8:2 “Speak to Aaron, and say to him, ‘When you arrange the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.’ “

Numbers 8:3 And Aaron did so; he arranged the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:4 Now this workmanship of the lampstand [was] hammered gold; from its shaft to its flowers it [was] hammered work. According to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Numbers 8:5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 8:6 “Take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them [ceremonially.]

Numbers 8:7 “Thus you shall do to them to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purification on them, and let them shave all their body, and let them wash their clothes, and [so] make themselves clean.

Numbers 8:8 “Then let them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull as a sin offering.

Numbers 8:9 “And you shall bring the Levites before the tabernacle of meeting, and you shall gather together the whole congregation of the children of Israel.

Numbers 8:10 “So you shall bring the Levites before the LORD, and the children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites; Numbers 8:11 “and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD, [like] a wave offering from the children of Israel, that they may perform the work of the LORD.

Numbers 8:12 “Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls, and you shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

Numbers 8:13 “And you shall stand the Levites before Aaron and his sons, and then offer them [like] a wave offering to the LORD.

Numbers 8:14 “Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine.

Numbers 8:15 “After that the Levites shall go in to service the tabernacle of meeting. So you shall cleanse them and offer them, [like] a wave offering.

Numbers 8:16 “For they [are] wholly given to Me from among the children of Israel; I have taken them for Myself instead of all who open the womb, the firstborn of all the children of Israel.

Numbers 8:17 “For all the firstborn among the children of Israel [are] Mine, [both] man and beast; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them to Myself.

Numbers 8:18 “I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

Numbers 8:19 “And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the work for the children of Israel in the tabernacle of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel come near the sanctuary.”

Numbers 8:20 Thus Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel did to the Levites; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them.

Numbers 8:21 And the Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes; then Aaron presented them, [like] a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.

Numbers 8:22 After that the Levites went in to do their work in the tabernacle of meeting before Aaron and his sons; as the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

Numbers 8:23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 8:24 “This [is] what [pertains] to the Levites: From twenty-five years old and above one may enter to perform service in the work of the tabernacle of meeting;

Numbers 8:25 “and at the age of fifty years they must cease performing this work, and shall work no more.

Numbers 8:26 “They may minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of meeting, to attend to needs, but they [themselves] shall do no work. Thus you shall do to the Levites regarding their duties.”

Numbers 9:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

Numbers 9:2 “Let the children of Israel keep the Passover at its appointed time.

Numbers 9:3 “On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time. According to all its rites and ceremonies you shall keep it.”

Numbers 9:4 So Moses told the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover.

Numbers 9:5 And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at twilight, in the Wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.

Numbers 9:6 Now there were [certain] men who were defiled by a human corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and Aaron that day.

Numbers 9:7 And those men said to him, “We [became] defiled by a human corpse. Why are we kept from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the children of Israel?”

Numbers 9:8 And Moses said to them, “Stand still, that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you.”

Numbers 9:9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 9:10 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If anyone of you or your posterity is unclean because of a corpse, or [is] far away on a journey, he may still keep the LORD’s Passover.

Numbers 9:11 ‘On the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they may keep it. They shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Numbers 9:12 ‘They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break one of its bones. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it.

Numbers 9:13 ‘But the man who [is] clean and is not on a journey, and ceases to keep the Passover, that same person shall be cut off from among his people, because he did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

Numbers 9:14 ‘And if a stranger dwells among you, and would keep the LORD’s Passover, he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony; you shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land.’ “

Numbers 9:15 Now on the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony; from evening until morning it was above the tabernacle like the appearance of fire.

Numbers 9:16 So it was always: the cloud covered it [by day,] and the appearance of fire by night.

Numbers 9:17 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, after that the children of Israel would journey; and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel would pitch their tents.

Numbers 9:18 At the command of the LORD the children of Israel would journey, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud stayed above the tabernacle they remained encamped.

Numbers 9:19 Even when the cloud continued long, many days above the tabernacle, the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey.

Numbers 9:20 So it was, when the cloud was above the tabernacle a few days: according to the command of the LORD they would remain encamped, and according to the command of the LORD they would journey.

Numbers 9:21 So it was, when the cloud remained only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they would journey; whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey.

Numbers 9:22 [Whether it was] two days, a month, or a year that the cloud remained above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would remain encamped and not journey; but when it was taken up, they would journey.

Numbers 9:23 At the command of the LORD they remained encamped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 10:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 10:2 “Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the camps.

Numbers 10:3 “When they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 10:4 “But if they blow [only] one, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to you.

Numbers 10:5 “When you sound the advance, the camps that lie on the east side shall then begin their journey.

Numbers 10:6 “When you sound the advance the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall begin their journey; they shall sound the call for them to begin their journeys.

Numbers 10:7 “And when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but not sound the advance.

Numbers 10:8 “The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and these shall be to you as an ordinance forever throughout your generations.

Numbers 10:9 “When you go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

Numbers 10:10 “Also in the day of your gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be a memorial for you before your God: I [am] the LORD your God.”

Numbers 10:11 Now it came to pass on the twentieth [day] of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.

Numbers 10:12 And the children of Israel set out from the Wilderness of Sinai on their journeys; then the cloud settled down in the Wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 10:13 So they started out for the first time according to the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 10:14 The standard of the camp of the children of Judah set out first according to their armies; over their army was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

Numbers 10:15 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar [was] Nethanel the son of Zuar.

Numbers 10:16 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun [was] Eliab the son of Helon.

Numbers 10:17 Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set out, carrying the tabernacle.

Numbers 10:18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set out according to their armies; over their army [was] Elizur the son of Shedeur.

Numbers 10:19 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon [was] Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 10:20 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad [was] Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

Numbers 10:21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things. (The tabernacle would be prepared for their arrival.)

Numbers 10:22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set out according to their armies; over their army [was] Elishama the son of Ammihud.

Numbers 10:23 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Manasseh [was] Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 10:24 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Benjamin [was] Abidan the son of Gideoni.

Numbers 10:25 Then the standard of the camp of the children of Dan (the rear guard of all the camps) set out according to their armies; over their army [was] Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 10:26 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher [was] Pagiel the son of Ocran.

Numbers 10:27 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali [was] Ahira the son of Enan.

Numbers 10:28 Thus [was] the order of march of the children of Israel, according to their armies, when they began their journey.

Numbers 10:29 Now Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

Numbers 10:30 And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will depart to my [own] land and to my relatives."

Numbers 10:31 So [Moses] said, "Please do not leave, inasmuch as you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes.

Numbers 10:32 "And it shall be, if you go with us—indeed it shall be—that whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same we will do to you."

Numbers 10:33 So they departed from the mountain of the LORD on a journey of three days; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them for the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

Numbers 10:34 And the cloud of the LORD [was] above them by day when they went out from the camp.

Numbers 10:35 So it was, whenever the ark set out, that Moses said: "Rise up, O LORD! Let Your enemies be scattered, And let those who hate You flee before You."

Numbers 10:36 And when it rested, he said: "Return, O LORD, [To] the many thousands of Israel."

Numbers 11:1 Now [when] the people complained, it displeased the LORD; for the LORD heard [it,] and His anger was aroused. So the fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed [some] in the outskirts of the camp.

Numbers 11:2 Then the people cried out to Moses, and when Moses prayed to the LORD, the fire was quenched.

Numbers 11:3 So he called the name of the place Taberah, because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.

Numbers 11:4 Now the mixed multitude who were among them yielded to intense craving; so the children of Israel also wept again and said: "Who will give us meat to eat?

Numbers 11:5 "We remember the fish which we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;

Numbers 11:6 "but now our whole being [is] dried up; [there is] nothing at all except this manna [before] our eyes!"

Numbers 11:7 Now the manna [was] like coriander seed, and its color like the color of bdellium.

Numbers 11:8 The people went about and gathered [it,] ground [it] on millstones or beat [it] in the mortar, cooked [it] in pans, and made cakes of it; and its taste was like the taste of pastry prepared with oil.

Numbers 11:9 And when the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.

Numbers 11:10 Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, everyone at the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was greatly aroused; Moses also was displeased.

Numbers 11:11 So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You afflicted Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid the burden of all these people on me?

Numbers 11:12 “Did I conceive all these people? Did I beget them, that You should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom, as a guardian carries a nursing child,’ to the land which You swore to their fathers?

Numbers 11:13 “Where am I to get meat to give to all these people? For they weep all over me, saying, ‘Give us meat, that we may eat.’

Numbers 11:14 “I am not able to bear all these people alone, because the burden [is] too heavy for me.

Numbers 11:15 “If You treat me like this, please kill me here and now—if I have found favor in Your sight—and do not let me see my wretchedness!”

Numbers 11:16 So the LORD said to Moses: “Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tabernacle of meeting, that they may stand there with you.

Numbers 11:17 “Then I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit that [is] upon you and will put [the same] upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear [it] yourself alone.

Numbers 11:18 “Then you shall say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, “Who will give us meat to eat? For [it was] well with us in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.

Numbers 11:19 ‘You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

Numbers 11:20 ‘but [for] a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we ever come up out of Egypt?” ‘ “

Numbers 11:21 And Moses said, “The people whom I [am] among [are] six hundred thousand men on foot; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, that they may eat [for] a whole month.’

Numbers 11:22 “Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to provide enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to provide enough for them?”

Numbers 11:23 And the LORD said to Moses, “Has the LORD’s arm been shortened? Now you shall see whether what I say will happen to you or not.”

Numbers 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tabernacle.

Numbers 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that [was] upon him, and placed [the same] upon the seventy elders; and it happened, when the Spirit rested upon them, that they prophesied, although they never did [so] again.

Numbers 11:26 But two men had remained in the camp: the name of one [was] Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. Now they [were] among those listed, but who had not gone out to the tabernacle; yet they prophesied in the camp.

Numbers 11:27 And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

Numbers 11:28 So Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ assistant, [one] of his choice men, answered and said, “Moses my lord, forbid them!”

Numbers 11:29 Then Moses said to him, “Are you zealous for my sake? Oh, that all the LORD’s people were prophets [and] that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!”

Numbers 11:30 And Moses returned to the camp, [both] he and the elders of Israel.

Numbers 11:31 Now a wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quail from the sea and left [them] fluttering near the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and about a day’s journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the ground.

Numbers 11:32 And the people stayed up all that day, all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten homers); and they spread [them] out for themselves all around the camp.

Numbers 11:33 But while the meat [was] still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was aroused against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.

Numbers 11:34 So he called the name of that place Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had yielded to craving.

Numbers 11:35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people moved to Hazeroth, and camped at Hazeroth.

Numbers 12:1 Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

Numbers 12:2 So they said, “Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us also?” And the LORD heard [it.]

Numbers 12:3 (Now the man Moses [was] very humble, more than all men who [were] on the face of the earth.)

Numbers 12:4 Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the tabernacle of meeting!” So the three came out.

Numbers 12:5 Then the LORD came down in the pillar of cloud and stood [in] the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both went forward.

Numbers 12:6 Then He said, “Hear now My words: If there is a prophet among you, [I,] the LORD, make Myself known to him in a vision; I speak to him in a dream.

Numbers 12:7 Not so with My servant Moses; He [is] faithful in all My house.

Numbers 12:8 I speak with him face to face, Even plainly, and not in dark sayings; And he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid To speak against My servant Moses?”

Numbers 12:9 So the anger of the LORD was aroused against them, and He departed.

Numbers 12:10 And when the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, suddenly Miriam [became] leprous, as [white as] snow. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper.

Numbers 12:11 So Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord! Please do not lay [this] sin on us, in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned.

Numbers 12:12 “Please do not let her be as one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother’s womb!”

Numbers 12:13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “Please heal her, O God, I pray!”

Numbers 12:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received [again.”]

Numbers 12:15 So Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey till Miriam was brought in [again.]

Numbers 12:16 And afterward the people moved from Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Numbers 13:2 “Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers you shall send a man, every one a leader among them.”

Numbers 13:3 So Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran according to the command of the LORD, all of them men who [were] heads of the children of Israel.

Numbers 13:4 Now these [were] their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

Numbers 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

Numbers 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

Numbers 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

Numbers 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

Numbers 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

Numbers 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

Numbers 13:11 from the tribe of Joseph, [that is,] from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

Numbers 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

Numbers 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

Numbers 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

Numbers 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

Numbers 13:16 These [are] the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

Numbers 13:17 Then Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up this [way] into the South, and go up to the mountains, Numbers 13:18 “and see what the land is like: whether the people who dwell in it [are] strong or weak, few or many;

Numbers 13:19 “whether the land they dwell in [is] good or bad; whether the cities they inhabit [are] like camps or strongholds;

Numbers 13:20 “whether the land [is] rich or poor; and whether there are forests there or not. Be of good courage. And bring some of the fruit of the land.” Now the time [was] the season of the first ripe grapes.

Numbers 13:21 So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath.

Numbers 13:22 And they went up through the South and came to Hebron; Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, [were] there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Numbers 13:23 Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and there cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes; they carried it between two of them on a pole. [They] also [brought] some of the pomegranates and figs.

Numbers 13:24 The place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down there.

Numbers 13:25 And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.

Numbers 13:26 Now they departed and came back to Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

Numbers 13:27 Then they told him, and said: “We went to the land where you sent us. It truly flows with milk and honey, and this [is] its fruit.

Numbers 13:28 “Nevertheless the people who dwell in the land [are] strong; the cities [are] fortified [and] very large; moreover we saw the descendants of Anak there.

Numbers 13:29 “The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan.”

Numbers 13:30 Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, “Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it.”

Numbers 13:31 But the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people, for they [are] stronger than we.”

Numbers 13:32 And they gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we have gone as spies [is] a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it [are] men of [great] stature.

Numbers 13:33 “There we saw the giants (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.”

Numbers 14:1 So all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night.

Numbers 14:2 And all the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, “If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness!

Numbers 14:3 “Why has the LORD brought us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and children should become victims? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?”

Numbers 14:4 So they said to one another, “Let us select a leader and return to Egypt.”

Numbers 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

Numbers 14:6 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, [who were] among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;

Numbers 14:7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying: “The land we passed through to spy out [is] an exceedingly good land.

Numbers 14:8 “If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, ‘a land which flows with milk and honey.’

Numbers 14:9 “Only do not rebel against the LORD, nor fear the people of the land, for they [are] our bread; their protection has departed from them, and the LORD [is] with us. Do not fear them.”

Numbers 14:10 And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Now the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of meeting before all the children of Israel.

Numbers 14:11 Then the LORD said to Moses: “How long will these people reject Me? And how long will they not believe Me, with all the signs which I have performed among them?

Numbers 14:12 “I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.”

Numbers 14:13 And Moses said to the LORD: “Then the Egyptians will hear [it,] for by Your might You brought these people up from among them, Numbers 14:14 “and they will tell [it] to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, [are] among these people; that You, LORD, are seen face to face and Your cloud stands above them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

Numbers 14:15 “Now [if] You kill these people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Your fame will speak, saying,

Numbers 14:16 ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring this people to the land which He swore to give them, therefore He killed them in the wilderness.’

Numbers 14:17 “And now, I pray, let the power of my LORD be great, just as You have spoken, saying,

Numbers 14:18 ‘The LORD is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He by no means clears [the guilty,] visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth [generation.’]

Numbers 14:19 “Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray, according to the greatness of Your mercy, just as You have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.”

Numbers 14:20 Then the LORD said: “I have pardoned, according to your word;

Numbers 14:21 “but truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD—

Numbers 14:22 “because all these men who have seen My glory and the signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have put Me to the test now these ten times, and have not heeded My voice, Numbers 14:23 “they certainly shall not see the land of which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who rejected Me see it.

Numbers 14:24 “But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit in him and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it.

Numbers 14:25 “Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn and move out into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.”

Numbers 14:26 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Numbers 14:27 “How long [shall I bear with] this evil congregation who complain against Me? I have heard the complaints which the children of Israel make against Me.

Numbers 14:28 “Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will do to you:

Numbers 14:29 ‘The carcasses of you who have complained against Me shall fall in this wilderness, all of you who were numbered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above.

Numbers 14:30 ‘Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun, you shall by no means enter the land which I swore I would make you dwell in.

Numbers 14:31 ‘But your little ones, whom you said would be victims, I will bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised.

Numbers 14:32 ‘But [as for] you, your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness.

Numbers 14:33 ‘And your sons shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and bear the brunt of your infidelity, until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness.

Numbers 14:34 ‘According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for each day you shall bear your guilt one year, [namely] forty years, and you shall know My rejection.

Numbers 14:35 ‘I the LORD have spoken this; I will surely do so to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.’ “

Numbers 14:36 Now the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report of the land, Numbers 14:37 those very men who brought the evil report about the land, died by the plague before the LORD.

Numbers 14:38 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of the men who went to spy out the land.

Numbers 14:39 Then Moses told these words to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned greatly.

Numbers 14:40 And they rose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Here we are, and we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned!”

Numbers 14:41 And Moses said, “Now why do you transgress the command of the LORD? For this will not succeed.

Numbers 14:42 “Do not go up, lest you be defeated by your enemies, for the LORD [is] not among you.

Numbers 14:43 “For the Amalekites and the Canaanites [are] there before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

Numbers 14:44 But they presumed to go up to the mountaintop; nevertheless, neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses departed from the camp.

Numbers 14:45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that mountain came down and attacked them, and drove them back as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 15:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you have come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving to you,

Numbers 15:3 ‘and you make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering or in your appointed feasts, to make a sweet aroma to the LORD, from the herd or the flock,

Numbers 15:4 ‘then he who presents his offering to the LORD shall bring a grain offering of one-tenth [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a HIN of oil;

Numbers 15:5 ‘and one-fourth of a HIN of wine as a drink offering you shall prepare with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for each lamb.

Numbers 15:6 ‘Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with one-third of a HIN of oil;

Numbers 15:7 ‘and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a HIN of wine as a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:8 ‘And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or as a peace offering to the LORD, Numbers 15:9 ‘then shall be offered with the young bull a grain offering of three-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with half a HIN of oil;

Numbers 15:10 ‘and you shall bring as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:11 ‘Thus it shall be done for each young bull, for each ram, or for each lamb or young goat.

Numbers 15:12 ‘According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do with everyone according to their number.

Numbers 15:13 ‘All who are native-born shall do these things in this manner, in presenting an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:14 ‘And if a stranger dwells with you, or whoever [is] among you throughout your generations, and would present an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD, just as you do, so shall he do.

Numbers 15:15 ‘One ordinance [shall be] for you of the assembly and for the stranger who dwells [with you,] an ordinance forever throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

Numbers 15:16 ‘One law and one custom shall be for you and for the stranger who dwells with you.’ “

Numbers 15:17 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 15:18 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land to which I bring you,

Numbers 15:19 ‘then it will be, when you eat of the bread of the land, that you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD.

Numbers 15:20 ‘You shall offer up a cake of the first of your ground meal [as] a heave offering; as a heave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you offer it up.

Numbers 15:21 ‘Of the first of your ground meal you shall give to the LORD a heave offering throughout your generations.

Numbers 15:22 ‘ If you sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses—

Numbers 15:23 ‘all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and onward throughout your generations—

Numbers 15:24 ‘then it will be, if it is unintentionally committed, without the knowledge of the congregation, that the whole congregation shall offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats as a sin offering.

Numbers 15:25 ‘So the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was unintentional; they shall bring their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their unintended sin.

Numbers 15:26 'It shall be forgiven the whole congregation of the children of Israel and the stranger who dwells among them, because all the people [did it] unintentionally.

Numbers 15:27 ' And if a person sins unintentionally, then he shall bring a female goat in its first year as a sin offering.

Numbers 15:28 'So the priest shall make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally, when he sins unintentionally before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

Numbers 15:29 'You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, [for] him who is native-born among the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwells among them.

Numbers 15:30 ' But the person who does [anything] presumptuously, [whether he is] native-born or a stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people.

Numbers 15:31 'Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt [shall be] upon him.' "

Numbers 15:32 Now while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.

Numbers 15:33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.

Numbers 15:34 They put him under guard, because it had not been explained what should be done to him.

Numbers 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man must surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp."

Numbers 15:36 So, as the LORD commanded Moses, all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died.

Numbers 15:37 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 15:38 "Speak to the children of Israel: Tell them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue thread in the tassels of the corners.

Numbers 15:39 "And you shall have the tassel, that you may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and that you [may] not follow the harlotry to which your own heart and your own eyes are inclined, Numbers 15:40 “and that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy for your God.

Numbers 15:41 “I [am] the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I [am] the LORD your God.”

Numbers 16:1 Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took [men;]

Numbers 16:2 and they rose up before Moses with some of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, representatives of the congregation, men of renown.

Numbers 16:3 They gathered together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “[You take] too much upon yourselves, for all the congregation [is] holy, every one of them, and the LORD [is] among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?”

Numbers 16:4 So when Moses heard [it,] he fell on his face;

Numbers 16:5 and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who [is] His and [who is] holy, and will cause [him] to come near to Him. That one whom He chooses He will cause to come near to Him.

Numbers 16:6 “Do this: Take censers, Korah and all your company;

Numbers 16:7 “put fire in them and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow, and it shall be [that] the man whom the LORD chooses [is] the holy one. [You take] too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi!”

Numbers 16:8 Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi:

Numbers 16:9 “[Is it] a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to serve them; Numbers 16:10 “and that He has brought you near [to Himself,] you and all your brethren, the sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking the priesthood also?

Numbers 16:11 “Therefore you and all your company [are] gathered together against the LORD. And what [is] Aaron that you complain against him?”

Numbers 16:12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come up!

Numbers 16:13 “[Is it] a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you should keep acting like a prince over us?

Numbers 16:14 “Moreover you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!”

Numbers 16:15 Then Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, “Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them.”

Numbers 16:16 And Moses said to Korah, “Tomorrow, you and all your company be present before the LORD—you and they, as well as Aaron.

Numbers 16:17 “Let each take his censer and put incense in it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; both you and Aaron, each [with] his censer.”

Numbers 16:18 So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of meeting with Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 16:19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

Numbers 16:20 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Numbers 16:21 “Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.”

Numbers 16:22 Then they fell on their faces, and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and You be angry with all the congregation?”

Numbers 16:23 So the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 16:24 “Speak to the congregation, saying, ‘Get away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.’ “

Numbers 16:25 Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.

Numbers 16:26 And he spoke to the congregation, saying, “Depart now from the tents of these wicked men! Touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins.”

Numbers 16:27 So they got away from around the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, with their wives, their sons, and their little children.

Numbers 16:28 And Moses said: “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, for [I have] not [done them] of my own will.

Numbers 16:29 “If these men die naturally like all men, or if they are visited by the common fate of all men, [then] the LORD has not sent me.

Numbers 16:30 “But if the LORD creates a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the pit, then you will understand that these men have rejected the LORD."

Numbers 16:31 Now it came to pass, as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground split apart under them,

Numbers 16:32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men with Korah, with all [their] goods.

Numbers 16:33 So they and all those with them went down alive into the pit; the earth closed over them, and they perished from among the assembly.

Numbers 16:34 Then all Israel who [were] around them fled at their cry, for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up [also!"]

Numbers 16:35 And a fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense.

Numbers 16:36 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 16:37 "Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers out of the blaze, for they are holy, and scatter the fire some distance away.

Numbers 16:38 "The censers of these men who sinned against their own souls, let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar. Because they presented them before the LORD, therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel."

Numbers 16:39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned up had presented, and they were hammered out as a covering on the altar,

Numbers 16:40 [to be] a memorial to the children of Israel that no outsider, who [is] not a descendant of Aaron, should come near to offer incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his companions, just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

Numbers 16:41 On the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD."

Numbers 16:42 Now it happened, when the congregation had gathered against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tabernacle of meeting; and suddenly the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Numbers 16:43 Then Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 16:44 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 16:45 "Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." And they fell on their faces.

Numbers 16:46 So Moses said to Aaron, "Take a censer and put fire in it from the altar, put incense [on it,] and take it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun."

Numbers 16:47 Then Aaron took [it] as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and already the plague had begun among the people. So he put in the incense and made atonement for the people.

Numbers 16:48 And he stood between the dead and the living; so the plague was stopped.

Numbers 16:49 Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the Korah incident.

Numbers 16:50 So Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, for the plague had stopped.

Numbers 17:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 17:2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and get from them a rod from each father's house, all their leaders according to their fathers' houses—twelve rods. Write each man's name on his rod.

Numbers 17:3 "And you shall write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi. For there shall be one rod for the head of [each] father's house.

Numbers 17:4 "Then you shall place them in the tabernacle of meeting before the Testimony, where I meet with you.

Numbers 17:5 "And it shall be [that] the rod of the man whom I choose will blossom; thus I will rid Myself of the complaints of the children of Israel, which they make against you."

Numbers 17:6 So Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and each of their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron [was] among their rods.

Numbers 17:7 And Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

Numbers 17:8 Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses went into the tabernacle of witness, and behold, the rod of Aaron, of the house of Levi, had sprouted and put forth buds, had produced blossoms and yielded ripe almonds.

Numbers 17:9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

Numbers 17:10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Bring Aaron's rod back before the Testimony, to be kept as a sign against the rebels, that you may put their complaints away from Me, lest they die."

Numbers 17:11 Thus did Moses; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

Numbers 17:12 So the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Surely we die, we perish, we all perish!

Numbers 17:13 “Whoever even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD must die. Shall we all utterly die?”

Numbers 18:1 Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You and your sons and your father’s house with you shall bear the iniquity [related to] the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity [associated with] your priesthood.

Numbers 18:2 “Also bring with you your brethren of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be joined with you and serve you while you and your sons [are] with you before the tabernacle of witness.

Numbers 18:3 “They shall attend to your needs and all the needs of the tabernacle; but they shall not come near the articles of the sanctuary and the altar, lest they die—they and you also.

Numbers 18:4 “They shall be joined with you and attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, for all the work of the tabernacle; but an outsider shall not come near you.

Numbers 18:5 “And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, that there [may] be no more wrath on the children of Israel.

Numbers 18:6 “Behold, I Myself have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel; [they are] a gift to you, given by the LORD, to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 18:7 “Therefore you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything at the altar and behind the veil; and you shall serve. I give your priesthood [to you] as a gift for service, but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.”

Numbers 18:8 And the LORD spoke to Aaron: “Here, I Myself have also given you charge of My heave offerings, all the holy gifts of the children of Israel; I have given them as a portion to you and your sons, as an ordinance forever.

Numbers 18:9 “This shall be yours of the most holy things [reserved] from the fire: every offering of theirs, every grain offering and every sin offering and every trespass offering which they render to Me, [shall be] most holy for you and your sons.

Numbers 18:10 “In a most holy [place] you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.

Numbers 18:11 “This also [is] yours: the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as an ordinance forever. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

Numbers 18:12 “All the best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and the grain, their firstfruits which they offer to the LORD, I have given them to you.

Numbers 18:13 “Whatever first ripe fruit is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

Numbers 18:14 “Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.

Numbers 18:15 “Everything that first opens the womb of all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether man or beast, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.

Numbers 18:16 “And those redeemed of the devoted things you shall redeem when one month old, according to your valuation, for five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which [is] twenty GERAHS.

Numbers 18:17 “But the firstborn of a cow, the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they [are] holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and burn their fat [as] an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 18:18 “And their flesh shall be yours, just as the wave breast and the right thigh are yours.

Numbers 18:19 “All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as an ordinance forever; it [is] a covenant of salt forever before the LORD with you and your descendants with you.”

Numbers 18:20 Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; I [am] your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

Numbers 18:21 “ Behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tithes in Israel as an inheritance in return for the work which they perform, the work of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 18:22 “Hereafter the children of Israel shall not come near the tabernacle of meeting, lest they bear sin and die.

Numbers 18:23 “But the Levites shall perform the work of the tabernacle of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; [it shall be] a statute forever, throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

Numbers 18:24 “For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer up [as] a heave offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, ‘Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.’ “

Numbers 18:25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 18:26 “Speak thus to the Levites, and say to them: ‘When you take from the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it to the LORD, a tenth of the tithe.

Numbers 18:27 ‘And your heave offering shall be reckoned to you as though [it were] the grain of the threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress.

Numbers 18:28 ‘Thus you shall also offer a heave offering to the LORD from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israel, and you shall give the LORD’s heave offering from it to Aaron the priest.

Numbers 18:29 ‘Of all your gifts you shall offer up every heave offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the consecrated part of them.’

Numbers 18:30 “Therefore you shall say to them: ‘When you have lifted up the best of it, then [the rest] shall be accounted to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the winepress.

Numbers 18:31 ‘You may eat it in any place, you and your households, for it [is] your reward for your work in the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 18:32 ‘And you shall bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy gifts of the children of Israel, lest you die.’ “

Numbers 19:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Numbers 19:2 “This [is] the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying: ‘Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without blemish, in which there [is] no defect [and] on which a yoke has never come.

Numbers 19:3 ‘You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, that he may take it outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered before him;

Numbers 19:4 ‘and Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of its blood seven times directly in front of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 19:5 ‘Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight: its hide, its flesh, its blood, and its offal shall be burned.

Numbers 19:6 ‘And the priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and cast [them] into the midst of the fire burning the heifer.

Numbers 19:7 ‘Then the priest shall wash his clothes, he shall bathe in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp; the priest shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:8 ‘And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes in water, bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:9 'Then a man [who is] clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and store [them] outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for the water of purification; it [is] for purifying from sin.

Numbers 19:10 'And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. It shall be a statute forever to the children of Israel and to the stranger who dwells among them.

Numbers 19:11 ' He who touches the dead body of anyone shall be unclean seven days.

Numbers 19:12 'He shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; [then] he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.

Numbers 19:13 'Whoever touches the body of anyone who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel. He shall be unclean, because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him; his uncleanness [is] still on him.

Numbers 19:14 ' This [is] the law when a man dies in a tent: All who come into the tent and all who [are] in the tent shall be unclean seven days;

Numbers 19:15 'and every open vessel, which has no cover fastened on it, [is] unclean.

Numbers 19:16 'Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain by a sword or who has died, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

Numbers 19:17 'And for an unclean [person] they shall take some of the ashes of the heifer burnt for purification from sin, and running water shall be put on them in a vessel.

Numbers 19:18 'A clean person shall take hyssop and dip [it] in the water, sprinkle [it] on the tent, on all the vessels, on the persons who were there, or on the one who touched a bone, the slain, the dead, or a grave.

Numbers 19:19 'The clean [person] shall sprinkle the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, wash his clothes, and bathe in water; and at evening he shall be clean.

Numbers 19:20 ' But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he [is] unclean.

Numbers 19:21 ‘It shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water of purification shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water of purification shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:22 ‘Whatever the unclean [person] touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches [it] shall be unclean until evening.’ “

Numbers 20:1 Then the children of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there and was buried there.

Numbers 20:2 Now there was no water for the congregation; so they gathered together against Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 20:3 And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying: “If only we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

Numbers 20:4 “Why have you brought up the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our animals should die here?

Numbers 20:5 “And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It [is] not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates; nor [is] there any water to drink.”

Numbers 20:6 So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

Numbers 20:7 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 20:8 “Take the rod; you and your brother Aaron gather the congregation together. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will yield its water; thus you shall bring water for them out of the rock, and give drink to the congregation and their animals.”

Numbers 20:9 So Moses took the rod from before the LORD as He commanded him.

Numbers 20:10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock; and he said to them, “Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?”

Numbers 20:11 Then Moses lifted his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their animals drank.

Numbers 20:12 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not believe Me, to hallow Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

Numbers 20:13 This [was] the water of Meribah, because the children of Israel contended with the LORD, and He was hallowed among them.

Numbers 20:14 Now Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. “Thus says your brother Israel: ‘You know all the hardship that has befallen us,

Numbers 20:15 ‘how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians afflicted us and our fathers.

Numbers 20:16 ‘When we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent the Angel and brought us up out of Egypt; now here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border.

Numbers 20:17 ‘Please let us pass through your country. We will not pass through fields or vineyards, nor will we drink water from wells; we will go along the King’s Highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory.’ “

Numbers 20:18 Then Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through my [land,] lest I come out against you with the sword.”

Numbers 20:19 So the children of Israel said to him, “We will go by the Highway, and if I or my livestock drink any of your water, then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing [more.”]

Numbers 20:20 Then he said, “You shall not pass through.” So Edom came out against them with many men and with a strong hand.

Numbers 20:21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.

Numbers 20:22 Then the children of Israel, the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:23 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor by the border of the land of Edom, saying:

Numbers 20:24 “Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the water of Meribah.

Numbers 20:25 “Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor;

Numbers 20:26 “and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; for Aaron shall be gathered [to his people] and die there.”

Numbers 20:27 So Moses did just as the LORD commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

Numbers 20:28 Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

Numbers 20:29 Now when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers 21:1 The king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South, heard that Israel was coming on the road to Atharim, then he fought against Israel and took [some] of them prisoners.

Numbers 21:2 So Israel made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.”

Numbers 21:3 And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of that place was called Hormah.

Numbers 21:4 Then they journeyed from Mount Hor by the Way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the soul of the people became very discouraged on the way.

Numbers 21:5 And the people spoke against God and against Moses: “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For [there is] no food and no water, and our soul loathes this worthless bread.”

Numbers 21:6 So the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died.

Numbers 21:7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, “We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

Numbers 21:8 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Make a fiery [serpent,] and set it on a pole; and it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live.”

Numbers 21:9 So Moses made a bronze serpent, and put it on a pole; and so it was, if a serpent had bitten anyone, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

Numbers 21:10 Now the children of Israel moved on and camped in Oboth.

Numbers 21:11 And they journeyed from Oboth and camped at Ije Abarim, in the wilderness which [is] east of Moab, toward the sunrise.

Numbers 21:12 From there they moved and camped in the Valley of Zered.

Numbers 21:13 From there they moved and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which [is] in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites; for the Arnon [is] the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

Numbers 21:14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD: “Waheb in Suphah, The brooks of the Arnon, Numbers 21:15 And the slope of the brooks That reaches to the dwelling of Ar, And lies on the border of Moab.”

Numbers 21:16 From there [they went] to Beer, which [is] the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together, and I will give them water.”

Numbers 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: “Spring up, O well! All of you sing to it—

Numbers 21:18 The well the leaders sank, Dug by the nation’s nobles, By the lawgiver, with their staves.” And from the wilderness [they went] to Mattanah,

Numbers 21:19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Numbers 21:20 and from Bamoth, [in] the valley that [is] in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah which looks down on the wasteland.

Numbers 21:21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

Numbers 21:22 “Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into fields or vineyards; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the King’s Highway until we have passed through your territory.”

Numbers 21:23 But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.

Numbers 21:24 Then Israel defeated him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the people of Ammon; for the border of the people of Ammon [was] fortified.

Numbers 21:25 So Israel took all these cities, and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all its villages.

Numbers 21:26 For Heshbon [was] the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon.

Numbers 21:27 Therefore those who speak in proverbs say: “Come to Heshbon, let it be built; Let the city of Sihon be repaired.

Numbers 21:28 “For fire went out from Heshbon, A flame from the city of Sihon; It consumed Ar of Moab, The lords of the heights of the Arnon.

Numbers 21:29 Woe to you, Moab! You have perished, O people of Chemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives, And his daughters into captivity, To Sihon king of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:30 “But we have shot at them; Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon. Then we laid waste as far as Nophah, Which [reaches] to Medeba.”

Numbers 21:31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:32 Then Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its villages and drove out the Amorites who [were] there.

Numbers 21:33 And they turned and went up by the way to Bashan. So Og king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

Numbers 21:34 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, with all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.”

Numbers 21:35 So they defeated him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left him; and they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22:1 Then the children of Israel moved, and camped in the plains of Moab on the side of the Jordan [across from] Jericho.

Numbers 22:2 Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

Numbers 22:3 And Moab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they [were] many, and Moab was sick with dread because of the children of Israel.

Numbers 22:4 So Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this company will lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field.” And Balak the son of Zippor [was] king of the Moabites at that time.

Numbers 22:5 Then he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which [is] near the River in the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying: “Look, a people has come from Egypt. See, they cover the face of the earth, and are settling next to me!

Numbers 22:6 “Therefore please come at once, curse this people for me, for they [are] too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that he whom you bless [is] blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.”

Numbers 22:7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the diviner’s fee in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak.

Numbers 22:8 And he said to them, “Lodge here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me.” So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

Numbers 22:9 Then God came to Balaam and said, “Who [are] these men with you?”

Numbers 22:10 So Balaam said to God, “Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, [saying,] Numbers 22:11 ‘Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to overpower them and drive them out.’ “

Numbers 22:12 And God said to Balaam, “You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they [are] blessed.”

Numbers 22:13 So Balaam rose in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, “Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to give me permission to go with you.”

Numbers 22:14 And the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, “Balaam refuses to come with us.”

Numbers 22:15 Then Balak again sent princes, more numerous and more honorable than they.

Numbers 22:16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: ‘Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me;

Numbers 22:17 ‘for I will certainly honor you greatly, and I will do whatever you say to me. Therefore please come, curse this people for me.’ “

Numbers 22:18 Then Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, “Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

Numbers 22:19 “Now therefore, please, you also stay here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me.”

Numbers 22:20 And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men come to call you, rise [and] go with them; but only the word which I speak to you—that you shall do.”

Numbers 22:21 So Balaam rose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

Numbers 22:22 Then God’s anger was aroused because he went, and the Angel of the LORD took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants [were] with him.

Numbers 22:23 Now the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. So Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back onto the road.

Numbers 22:24 Then the Angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, [with] a wall on this side and a wall on that side.

Numbers 22:25 And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam’s foot against the wall; so he struck her again.

Numbers 22:26 Then the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there [was] no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

Numbers 22:27 And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam's anger was aroused, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

Numbers 22:28 Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

Numbers 22:29 And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have abused me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you!"

Numbers 22:30 So the donkey said to Balaam, "[Am] I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since [I became] yours, to this day? Was I ever disposed to do this to you?" And he said, "No."

Numbers 22:31 Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face.

Numbers 22:32 And the Angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because [your] way is perverse before Me.

Numbers 22:33 "The donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."

Numbers 22:34 And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will turn back."

Numbers 22:35 Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

Numbers 22:36 Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which [is] on the border at the Arnon, the boundary of the territory.

Numbers 22:37 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?"

Numbers 22:38 And Balaam said to Balak, "Look, I have come to you! Now, have I any power at all to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I must speak."

Numbers 22:39 So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath Huzoth.

Numbers 22:40 Then Balak offered oxen and sheep, and he sent [some] to Balaam and to the princes who [were] with him.

Numbers 22:41 So it was the next day, that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal, that from there he might observe the extent of the people.

Numbers 23:1 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.”

Numbers 23:2 And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on [each] altar.

Numbers 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you.” So he went to a desolate height.

Numbers 23:4 And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on [each] altar a bull and a ram.”

Numbers 23:5 Then the LORD put a word in Balaam’s mouth, and said, “Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak.”

Numbers 23:6 So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

Numbers 23:7 And he took up his oracle and said: “Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram, From the mountains of the east. ‘Come, curse Jacob for me, And come, denounce Israel!’

Numbers 23:8 “How shall I curse whom God has not cursed? And how shall I denounce [whom] the LORD has not denounced?

Numbers 23:9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, And from the hills I behold him; There! A people dwelling alone, Not reckoning itself among the nations.

Numbers 23:10 “Who can count the dust of Jacob, Or number one-fourth of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, And let my end be like his!”

Numbers 23:11 Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed [them] bountifully!”

Numbers 23:12 So he answered and said, “Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?”

Numbers 23:13 Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only the outer part of them, and shall not see them all; curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:14 So he brought him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on [each] altar.

Numbers 23:15 And he said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet [the] [Lord] over there.”

Numbers 23:16 Then the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, “Go back to Balak, and thus you shall speak.”

Numbers 23:17 So he came to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”

Numbers 23:18 Then he took up his oracle and said: “Rise up, Balak, and hear! Listen to me, son of Zippor!

Numbers 23:19 “God [is] not a man, that He should lie, Nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?

Numbers 23:20 Behold, I have received [a command] to bless; He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

Numbers 23:21 “He has not observed iniquity in Jacob, Nor has He seen wickedness in Israel. The LORD his God [is] with him, And the shout of a King [is] among them.

Numbers 23:22 God brings them out of Egypt; He has strength like a wild ox.

Numbers 23:23 “For [there is] no sorcery against Jacob, Nor any divination against Israel. It now must be said of Jacob And of Israel, ‘Oh, what God has done!’

Numbers 23:24 Look, a people rises like a lioness, And lifts itself up like a lion; It shall not lie down until it devours the prey, And drinks the blood of the slain.”

Numbers 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all!”

Numbers 23:26 So Balaam answered and said to Balak, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘All that the LORD speaks, that I must do’?”

Numbers 23:27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that overlooks the wasteland.

Numbers 23:29 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.”

Numbers 23:30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on [every] altar.

Numbers 24:1 Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at other times, to seek to use sorcery, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

Numbers 24:2 And Balaam raised his eyes, and saw Israel encamped according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

Numbers 24:3 Then he took up his oracle and said: “The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor, The utterance of the man whose eyes are opened,

Numbers 24:4 The utterance of him who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

Numbers 24:5 “How lovely are your tents, O Jacob! Your dwellings, O Israel!

Numbers 24:6 Like valleys that stretch out, Like gardens by the riverside, Like aloes planted by the LORD, Like cedars beside the waters.

Numbers 24:7 He shall pour water from his buckets, And his seed [shall be] in many waters. “His king shall be higher than Agag, And his kingdom shall be exalted.

Numbers 24:8 “God brings him out of Egypt; He has strength like a wild ox; He shall consume the nations, his enemies; He shall break their bones And pierce [them] with his arrows.

Numbers 24:9 ‘He bows down, he lies down as a lion; And as a lion, who shall rouse him?’ “Blessed [is] he who blesses you, And cursed [is] he who curses you.”

Numbers 24:10 Then Balak’s anger was aroused against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have bountifully blessed [them] these three times!

Numbers 24:11 “Now therefore, flee to your place. I said I would greatly honor you, but in fact, the LORD has kept you back from honor.”

Numbers 24:12 So Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying,

Numbers 24:13 ‘If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own will. What the LORD says, that I must speak’?

Numbers 24:14 “And now, indeed, I am going to my people. Come, I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the latter days.”

Numbers 24:15 So he took up his oracle and said: “The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor, And the utterance of the man whose eyes are opened;

Numbers 24:16 The utterance of him who hears the words of God, And has the knowledge of the Most High, [Who] sees the vision of the Almighty, [Who] falls down, with eyes wide open:

Numbers 24:17 “I see Him, but not now; I behold Him, but not near; A Star shall come out of Jacob; A Scepter shall rise out of Israel, And batter the brow of Moab, And destroy all the sons of tumult.

Numbers 24:18 “And Edom shall be a possession; Seir also, his enemies, shall be a possession, While Israel does valiantly.

Numbers 24:19 Out of Jacob One shall have dominion, And destroy the remains of the city.”

Numbers 24:20 Then he looked on Amalek, and he took up his oracle and said: “Amalek [was] first among the nations, But [shall be] last until he perishes.”

Numbers 24:21 Then he looked on the Kenites, and he took up his oracle and said: “Firm is your dwelling place, And your nest is set in the rock;

Numbers 24:22 Nevertheless Kain shall be burned. How long until Asshur carries you away captive?”

Numbers 24:23 Then he took up his oracle and said: “Alas! Who shall live when God does this?

Numbers 24:24 But ships [shall come] from the coasts of Cyprus, And they shall afflict Asshur and afflict Eber, And so shall [Amalek,] until he perishes.”

Numbers 24:25 So Balaam rose and departed and returned to his place; Balak also went his way.

Numbers 25:1 Now Israel remained in Acacia Grove, and the people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab.

Numbers 25:2 They invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

Numbers 25:3 So Israel was joined to Baal of Peor, and the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel.

Numbers 25:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people and hang the offenders before the LORD, out in the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.”

Numbers 25:5 So Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Every one of you kill his men who were joined to Baal of Peor.”

Numbers 25:6 And indeed, one of the children of Israel came and presented to his brethren a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who [were] weeping at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Numbers 25:7 Now when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw [it,] he rose from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand;

Numbers 25:8 and he went after the man of Israel into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stopped among the children of Israel.

Numbers 25:9 And those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

Numbers 25:10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 25:11 “Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the children of Israel, because he was zealous with My zeal among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in My zeal.

Numbers 25:12 “Therefore say, ‘Behold, I give to him My covenant of peace;

Numbers 25:13 ‘and it shall be to him and his descendants after him a covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.’ “

Numbers 25:14 Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, who was killed with the Midianite woman, [was] Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father’s house among the Simeonites.

Numbers 25:15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed [was] Cozbi the daughter of Zur; he [was] head of the people of a father’s house in Midian.

Numbers 25:16 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 25:17 “Harass the Midianites, and attack them;

Numbers 25:18 “for they harassed you with their schemes by which they seduced you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister, who was killed in the day of the plague because of Peor.”

Numbers 26:1 And it came to pass, after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying:

Numbers 26:2 “Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel from twenty years old and above, by their fathers’ houses, all who are able to go to war in Israel.”

Numbers 26:3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [across from] Jericho, saying:

Numbers 26:4 “[Take a census of the people] from twenty years old and above, just as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt.”

Numbers 26:5 Reuben [was] the firstborn of Israel. The children of Reuben [were: of] Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; [of] Pallu, the family of the Palluites;

Numbers 26:6 [of] Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; [of] Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

Numbers 26:7 These [are] the families of the Reubenites: those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty.

Numbers 26:8 And the son of Pallu [was] Eliab.

Numbers 26:9 The sons of Eliab [were] Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These [are] the Dathan and Abiram, representatives of the congregation, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the LORD;

Numbers 26:10 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men; and they became a sign.

Numbers 26:11 Nevertheless the children of Korah did not die.

Numbers 26:12 The sons of Simeon according to their families [were: of] Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; [of] Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; [of] Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;

Numbers 26:19 The sons of Judah [were] Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 26:20 And the sons of Judah according to their families were: [of] Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; [of] Perez, the family of the Parzites; [of] Zerah, the family of the Zarhites.

Numbers 26:21 And the sons of Perez were: [of] Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; [of] Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.

Numbers 26:22 These [are] the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them: seventy-six thousand five hundred.

Numbers 26:25 These [are] the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them: sixty-four thousand three hundred.

Numbers 26:27 These [are] the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them: sixty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 26:28 The sons of Joseph according to their families, by Manasseh and Ephraim, [were:]

Numbers 26:29 The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir begot Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.

Numbers 26:30 These [are] the sons of Gilead: [of] Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

Numbers 26:31 [of] Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; [of] Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;

Numbers 26:32 [of] Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; [of] Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.

Numbers 26:33 Now Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters; and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad [were] Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Numbers 26:34 These [are] the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them [were] fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

Numbers 26:35 These [are] the sons of Ephraim according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites; of Becher, the family of the Bachrites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

Numbers 26:36 And these [are] the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.

Numbers 26:37 These [are] the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them: thirty-two thousand five hundred. These [are] the sons of Joseph according to their families.

Numbers 26:38 The sons of Benjamin according to their families were: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites;

Numbers 26:39 of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.

Numbers 26:40 And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: [of Ard,] the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.

Numbers 26:41 These [are] the sons of Benjamin according to their families; and those who were numbered of them [were] forty-five thousand six hundred.

Numbers 26:42 These [are] the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These [are] the families of Dan according to their families.

Numbers 26:43 All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, [were] sixty-four thousand four hundred.

Numbers 26:44 The sons of Asher according to their families [were:] of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites; of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites; of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.

Numbers 26:51 These [are] those who were numbered of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

Numbers 26:52 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 26:53 “To these the land shall be divided as an inheritance, according to the number of names.

Numbers 26:54 “To a large [tribe] you shall give a larger inheritance, and to a small [tribe] you shall give a smaller inheritance. Each shall be given its inheritance according to those who were numbered of them.

Numbers 26:55 “But the land shall be divided by lot; they shall inherit according to the names of the tribes of their fathers.

Numbers 26:56 “According to the lot their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller.”

Numbers 26:57 And these [are] those who were numbered of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

Numbers 26:58 These [are] the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, and the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begot Amram.

Numbers 26:59 The name of Amram's wife [was] Jochebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and to Amram she bore Aaron and Moses and their sister Miriam.

Numbers 26:60 To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Numbers 26:61 And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered profane fire before the LORD.

Numbers 26:62 Now those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and above; for they were not numbered among the other children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given to them among the children of Israel.

Numbers 26:63 These [are] those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [across from] Jericho.

Numbers 26:64 But among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they numbered the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 26:65 For the LORD had said of them, "They shall surely die in the wilderness." So there was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 27:1 Then came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these [were] the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Numbers 27:2 And they stood before Moses, before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, [by] the doorway of the tabernacle of meeting, saying:

Numbers 27:3 "Our father died in the wilderness; but he was not in the company of those who gathered together against the LORD, in company with Korah, but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons.

Numbers 27:4 "Why should the name of our father be removed from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers."

Numbers 27:5 So Moses brought their case before the LORD.

Numbers 27:6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 27:7 "The daughters of Zelophehad speak [what is] right; you shall surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brothers, and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.

Numbers 27:8 "And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

Numbers 27:9 ‘If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

Numbers 27:10 ‘If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

Numbers 27:11 ‘And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the relative closest him in his family, and he shall possess it.’ “ And it shall be to the children of Israel a statute of judgment, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 27:12 Now the LORD said to Moses: “Go up into this Mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.

Numbers 27:13 “And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered.

Numbers 27:14 “For in the Wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you rebelled against My command to hallow Me at the waters before their eyes.” (These [are] the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.)

Numbers 27:15 Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying:

Numbers 27:16 “Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,

Numbers 27:17 “who may go out before them and go in before them, who may lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep which have no shepherd.”

Numbers 27:18 And the LORD said to Moses: “Take Joshua the son of Nun with you, a man in whom [is] the Spirit, and lay your hand on him; Numbers 27:19 “set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation, and inaugurate him in their sight.

Numbers 27:20 “And you shall give [some] of your authority to him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.

Numbers 27:21 “He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire before the LORD for him by the judgment of the Urim. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, he and all the children of Israel with him—all the congregation.”

Numbers 27:22 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation.

Numbers 27:23 And he laid his hands on him and inaugurated him, just as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 28:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Numbers 28:2 “Command the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘My offering, My food for My offerings made by fire as a sweet aroma to Me, you shall be careful to offer to Me at their appointed time.’

Numbers 28:3 “And you shall say to them, ‘This [is] the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs in their first year without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering.

Numbers 28:4 ‘The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, the other lamb you shall offer in the evening,

Numbers 28:5 ‘and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil.

Numbers 28:6 ‘[It is] a regular burnt offering which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:7 ‘And its drink offering [shall be] one-fourth of a hin for each lamb; in a holy [place] you shall pour out the drink to the LORD as an offering.

Numbers 28:8 ‘The other lamb you shall offer in the evening; as the morning grain offering and its drink offering, you shall offer [it] as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 28:9 ‘ And on the Sabbath day two lambs in their first year, without blemish, and two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, with its drink offering—

Numbers 28:10 ‘[this is] the burnt offering for every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

Numbers 28:11 ‘ At the beginnings of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish;

Numbers 28:12 ‘three-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;

Numbers 28:13 ‘and one-tenth [of an ephah] of fine flour, mixed with oil, as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:14 ‘Their drink offering shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb; this [is] the burnt offering for each month throughout the months of the year.

Numbers 28:15 ‘Also one kid of the goats as a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:16 ‘ On the fourteenth day of the first month [is] the Passover of the LORD.

Numbers 28:17 ‘And on the fifteenth day of this month [is] the feast; unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days.

Numbers 28:18 ‘On the first day [you shall have] a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.

Numbers 28:19 ‘And you shall present an offering made by fire as a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish.

Numbers 28:20 ‘Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an ephah] you shall offer for a bull, and two-tenths for a ram;

Numbers 28:21 ‘you shall offer one-tenth [of an ephah] for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 28:22 ‘also one goat [as] a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:23 ‘You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which [is] for a regular burnt offering.

Numbers 28:24 ‘In this manner you shall offer the food of the offering made by fire daily for seven days, as a sweet aroma to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:25 ‘And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.

Numbers 28:26 ‘ Also on the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to the LORD at your [Feast of] Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.

Numbers 28:27 ‘You shall present a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year,

Numbers 28:28 ‘with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an ephah] for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

Numbers 28:29 ‘and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 28:30 ‘[also] one kid of the goats, to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:31 ‘Be sure they are without blemish. You shall present [them] with their drink offerings, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain offering.

Numbers 29:1 ‘And in the seventh month, on the first [day] of the month, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. For you it is a day of blowing the trumpets.

Numbers 29:2 ‘You shall offer a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, [and] seven lambs in their first year, without blemish.

Numbers 29:3 ‘Their grain offering [shall be] fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an ephah] for the bull, two-tenths for the ram, Numbers 29:4 ‘and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 29:5 ‘also one kid of the goats [as] a sin offering, to make atonement for you;

Numbers 29:6 ‘besides the burnt offering with its grain offering for the New Moon, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, as a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 29:7 ‘ On the tenth [day] of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall afflict your souls; you shall not do any work.

Numbers 29:8 ‘You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD [as] a sweet aroma: one young bull, one ram, [and] seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish.

Numbers 29:9 ‘Their grain offering [shall be of] fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an ephah] for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

Numbers 29:10 ‘and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 29:11 ‘also one kid of the goats [as] a sin offering, besides the sin offering for atonement, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:12 ‘ On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days.

Numbers 29:13 ‘You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs in their first year. They shall be without blemish.

Numbers 29:14 ‘Their grain offering [shall be of] fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an ephah] for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

Numbers 29:15 ‘and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;

Numbers 29:16 ‘also one kid of the goats [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:17 ‘ On the second day [present] twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,

Numbers 29:18 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:19 ‘also one kid of the goats [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:20 ‘ On the third day [present] eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish, Numbers 29:21 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:22 ‘also one goat [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:23 ‘ On the fourth day [present] ten bulls, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs in their first year, without blemish,

Numbers 29:24 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:25 ‘also one kid of the goats [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:26 ‘ On the fifth day [present] nine bulls, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,

Numbers 29:27 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:28 ‘also one goat [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:29 ‘ On the sixth day [present] eight bulls, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,

Numbers 29:30 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:31 ‘also one goat [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:32 ‘ On the seventh day [present] seven bulls, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,

Numbers 29:33 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:34 ‘also one goat [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:35 ‘ On the eighth day you shall have a sacred assembly. You shall do no customary work.

Numbers 29:36 ‘You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven lambs in their first year without blemish,

Numbers 29:37 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:38 ‘also one goat [as] a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:39 ‘ These you shall present to the LORD at your appointed feasts (besides your vowed offerings and your freewill offerings) as your burnt offerings and your grain offerings, as your drink offerings and your peace offerings.’ “

Numbers 29:40 So Moses told the children of Israel everything, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 30:1 Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, “This [is] the thing which the LORD has commanded:

Numbers 30:2 “If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

Numbers 30:3 “ Or if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds [herself] by some agreement while in her father’s house in her youth, Numbers 30:4 “and her father hears her vow and the agreement by which she has bound herself, and her father holds his peace, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement with which she has bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:5 “But if her father overrules her on the day that he hears, then none of her vows nor her agreements by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will release her, because her father overruled her.

Numbers 30:6 “ If indeed she takes a husband, while bound by her vows or by a rash utterance from her lips by which she bound herself, Numbers 30:7 “and her husband hears [it,] and makes no response to her on the day that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her agreements by which she bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:8 “But if her husband overrules her on the day that he hears [it,] he shall make void her vow which she took and what she uttered with her lips, by which she bound herself, and the LORD will release her.

Numbers 30:9 “ Also any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

Numbers 30:10 “ If she vowed in her husband’s house, or bound herself by an agreement with an oath, Numbers 30:11 “and her husband heard [it,] and made no response to her [and] did not overrule her, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement by which she bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:12 “But if her husband truly made them void on the day he heard [them,] then whatever proceeded from her lips concerning her vows or concerning the agreement binding her, it shall not stand; her husband has made them void, and the LORD will release her.

Numbers 30:13 “Every vow and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband may confirm it, or her husband may make it void.

Numbers 30:14 “Now if her husband makes no response whatever to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all the agreements that bind her; he confirms them, because he made no response to her on the day that he heard [them.]

Numbers 30:15 “But if he does make them void after he has heard [them,] then he shall bear her guilt.”

Numbers 30:16 These [are] the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter in her youth in her father’s house.

Numbers 31:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 31:2 “Take vengeance on the Midianites for the children of Israel. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people.”

Numbers 31:3 So Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm some of yourselves for war, and let them go against the Midianites to take vengeance for the LORD on Midian.

Numbers 31:4 “A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war.”

Numbers 31:5 So there were recruited from the divisions of Israel one thousand from [each] tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

Numbers 31:6 Then Moses sent them to the war, one thousand from [each] tribe; he sent them to the war with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the holy articles and the signal trumpets in his hand.

Numbers 31:7 And they warred against the Midianites, just as the LORD commanded Moses, and they killed all the males.

Numbers 31:8 They killed the kings of Midian with [the rest of] those who were killed—Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. Balaam the son of Beor they also killed with the sword.

Numbers 31:9 And the children of Israel took the women of Midian captive, with their little ones, and took as spoil all their cattle, all their flocks, and all their goods.

Numbers 31:10 They also burned with fire all the cities where they dwelt, and all their forts.

Numbers 31:11 And they took all the spoil and all the booty—of man and beast.

Numbers 31:12 Then they brought the captives, the booty, and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [across from] Jericho.

Numbers 31:13 And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp.

Numbers 31:14 But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, [with] the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who had come from the battle.

Numbers 31:15 And Moses said to them: “Have you kept all the women alive?

Numbers 31:16 “Look, these [women] caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to trespass against the LORD in the incident of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

Numbers 31:17 “Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man intimately.

Numbers 31:18 “But keep alive for yourselves all the young girls who have not known a man intimately.

Numbers 31:19 “And as for you, remain outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.

Numbers 31:20 “Purify every garment, everything made of leather, everything woven of goats’ [hair,] and everything made of wood.”

Numbers 31:21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to the battle, “This [is] the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses:

Numbers 31:22 “Only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, Numbers 31:23 “everything that can endure fire, you shall put through the fire, and it shall be clean; and it shall be purified with the water of purification. But all that cannot endure fire you shall put through water.

Numbers 31:24 “And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.”

Numbers 31:25 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 31:26 “Count up the plunder that was taken—of man and beast—you and Eleazar the priest and the chief fathers of the congregation;

Numbers 31:27 “and divide the plunder into two parts, between those who took part in the war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation.

Numbers 31:28 “And levy a tribute for the LORD on the men of war who went out to battle: one of every five hundred of the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep; Numbers 31:29 “take [it] from their half, and give [it] to Eleazar the priest as a heave offering to the LORD.

Numbers 31:30 “And from the children of Israel’s half you shall take one of every fifty, drawn from the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep, from all the livestock, and give them to the Levites who keep charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.”

Numbers 31:31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:32 The booty remaining from the plunder, which the men of war had taken, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,

Numbers 31:33 seventy-two thousand cattle,

Numbers 31:34 sixty-one thousand donkeys,

Numbers 31:35 and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of women who had not known a man intimately.

Numbers 31:36 And the half, the portion for those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep;

Numbers 31:37 and the LORD’s tribute of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.

Numbers 31:38 The cattle [were] thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD’s tribute [was] seventy-two.

Numbers 31:39 The donkeys [were] thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD’s tribute [was] sixty-one.

Numbers 31:40 The persons [were] sixteen thousand, of which the LORD’s tribute [was] thirty-two persons.

Numbers 31:41 So Moses gave the tribute [which was] the LORD’s heave offering to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:42 And from the children of Israel’s half, which Moses separated from the men who fought—

Numbers 31:43 now the half belonging to the congregation was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

Numbers 31:44 thirty-six thousand cattle,

Numbers 31:45 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

Numbers 31:46 and sixteen thousand persons—

Numbers 31:47 and from the children of Israel’s half Moses took one of every fifty, drawn from man and beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept charge of the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:48 Then the officers who [were] over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses;

Numbers 31:49 and they said to Moses, “Your servants have taken a count of the men of war who [are] under our command, and not a man of us is missing.

Numbers 31:50 “Therefore we have brought an offering for the LORD, what every man found of ornaments of gold: armlets and bracelets and signet rings and earrings and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.”

Numbers 31:51 So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all the fashioned ornaments.

Numbers 31:52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

Numbers 31:53 (The men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)

Numbers 31:54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

Numbers 32:1 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock; and when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that indeed the region [was] a place for livestock,

Numbers 32:2 the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

Numbers 32:3 “Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Shebam, Nebo, and Beon,

Numbers 32:4 “the country which the LORD defeated before the congregation of Israel, [is] a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.”

Numbers 32:5 Therefore they said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not take us over the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:6 And Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben: “Shall your brethren go to war while you sit here?

Numbers 32:7 “Now why will you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them?

Numbers 32:8 “Thus your fathers did when I sent them away from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.

Numbers 32:9 “For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

Numbers 32:10 “So the LORD’s anger was aroused on that day, and He swore an oath, saying,

Numbers 32:11 ‘Surely none of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and above, shall see the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they have not wholly followed Me,

Numbers 32:12 ‘except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the LORD.’

Numbers 32:13 “So the LORD’s anger was aroused against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was gone.

Numbers 32:14 “And look! You have risen in your father’s place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel.

Numbers 32:15 “For if you turn away from following Him, He will once again leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.”

Numbers 32:16 Then they came near to him and said: “We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones, Numbers 32:17 “but we ourselves will be armed, ready [to go] before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones will dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

Numbers 32:18 “We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israel has received his inheritance.

Numbers 32:19 “For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:20 Then Moses said to them: “If you do this thing, if you arm yourselves before the LORD for the war, Numbers 32:21 “and all your armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, Numbers 32:22 “and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you may return and be blameless before the LORD and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

Numbers 32:23 “But if you do not do so, then take note, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out.

Numbers 32:24 “Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do what has proceeded out of your mouth.”

Numbers 32:25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying: “Your servants will do as my lord commands.

Numbers 32:26 “Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead;

Numbers 32:27 “but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, just as my lord says.”

Numbers 32:28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

Numbers 32:29 And Moses said to them: “If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.

Numbers 32:30 “But if they do not cross over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”

Numbers 32:31 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying: “As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

Numbers 32:32 “We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance [shall remain] with us on this side of the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:33 So Moses gave to the children of Gad, to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with its cities within the borders, the cities of the surrounding country.

Numbers 32:34 And the children of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer,

Numbers 32:35 Atroth and Shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah,

Numbers 32:36 Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

Numbers 32:37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kirjathaim,

Numbers 32:38 Nebo and Baal Meon ([their] names being changed) and Shibmah; and they gave [other] names to the cities which they built.

Numbers 32:39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who [were] in it.

Numbers 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt in it.

Numbers 32:41 Also Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its small towns, and called them Havoth Jair.

Numbers 32:42 Then Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Numbers 33:1 These [are] the journeys of the children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 33:2 Now Moses wrote down the starting points of their journeys at the command of the LORD. And these [are] their journeys according to their starting points:

Numbers 33:3 They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with boldness in the sight of all the Egyptians.

Numbers 33:4 For the Egyptians were burying all [their] firstborn, whom the LORD had killed among them. Also on their gods the LORD had executed judgments.

Numbers 33:5 Then the children of Israel moved from Rameses and camped at Succoth.

Numbers 33:6 They departed from Succoth and camped at Etham, which [is] on the edge of the wilderness.

Numbers 33:7 They moved from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth, which [is] east of Baal Zephon; and they camped near Migdol.

Numbers 33:8 They departed from before Hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, went three days' journey in the Wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah.

Numbers 33:9 They moved from Marah and came to Elim. At Elim [were] twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there.

Numbers 33:10 They moved from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

Numbers 33:11 They moved from the Red Sea and camped in the Wilderness of Sin.

Numbers 33:12 They journeyed from the Wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah.

Numbers 33:13 They departed from Dophkah and camped at Alush.

Numbers 33:14 They moved from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

Numbers 33:15 They departed from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 33:16 They moved from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

Numbers 33:17 They departed from Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.

Numbers 33:18 They departed from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.

Numbers 33:19 They departed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.

Numbers 33:20 They departed from Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.

Numbers 33:21 They moved from Libnah and camped at Rissah.

Numbers 33:22 They journeyed from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.

Numbers 33:23 They went from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.

Numbers 33:24 They moved from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.

Numbers 33:25 They moved from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.

Numbers 33:26 They moved from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.

Numbers 33:27 They departed from Tahath and camped at Terah.

Numbers 33:28 They moved from Terah and camped at Mithkah.

Numbers 33:29 They went from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.

Numbers 33:30 They departed from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.

Numbers 33:31 They departed from Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.

Numbers 33:32 They moved from Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Hagidgad.

Numbers 33:33 They went from Hor Hagidgad and camped at Jotbathah.

Numbers 33:34 They moved from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.

Numbers 33:35 They departed from Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.

Numbers 33:36 They moved from Ezion Geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin, which [is] Kadesh.

Numbers 33:37 They moved from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the boundary of the land of Edom.

Numbers 33:38 Then Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first [day] of the fifth month.

Numbers 33:39 Aaron [was] one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Numbers 33:40 Now the king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.

Numbers 33:41 So they departed from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.

Numbers 33:42 They departed from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.

Numbers 33:43 They departed from Punon and camped at Oboth.

Numbers 33:44 They departed from Oboth and camped at Ije Abarim, at the border of Moab.

Numbers 33:45 They departed from Ijim and camped at Dibon Gad.

Numbers 33:46 They moved from Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.

Numbers 33:47 They moved from Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

Numbers 33:48 They departed from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [across from] Jericho.

Numbers 33:49 They camped by the Jordan, from Beth Jesimoth as far as the Abel Acacia Grove in the plains of Moab.

Numbers 33:50 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [across from] Jericho, saying,

Numbers 33:51 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Numbers 33:52 'then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their high places;

Numbers 33:53 'you shall dispossess [the inhabitants of] the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

Numbers 33:54 'And you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance; there everyone's [inheritance] shall be whatever falls to him by lot. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

Numbers 33:55 'But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain [shall be] irritants in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land where you dwell.

Numbers 33:56 'Moreover it shall be [that] I will do to you as I thought to do to them.' "

Numbers 34:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 34:2 “Command the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land of Canaan, this [is] the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance—the land of Canaan to its boundaries.

Numbers 34:3 ‘Your southern border shall be from the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom; then your southern border shall extend eastward to the end of the Salt Sea;

Numbers 34:4 ‘your border shall turn from the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, continue to Zin, and be on the south of Kadesh Barnea; then it shall go on to Hazar Addar, and continue to Azmon;

Numbers 34:5 ‘the border shall turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and it shall end at the Sea.

Numbers 34:6 ‘ As for the western border, you shall have the Great Sea for a border; this shall be your western border.

Numbers 34:7 ‘ And this shall be your northern border: From the Great Sea you shall mark out your [border] line to Mount Hor;

Numbers 34:8 ‘from Mount Hor you shall mark out [your border] to the entrance of Hamath; then the direction of the border shall be toward Zedad;

Numbers 34:9 ‘the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and it shall end at Hazar Enan. This shall be your northern border.

Numbers 34:10 ‘ You shall mark out your eastern border from Hazar Enan to Shepham;

Numbers 34:11 ‘the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; the border shall go down and reach to the eastern side of the Sea of Chinnereth;

Numbers 34:12 ‘the border shall go down along the Jordan, and it shall end at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with its surrounding boundaries.’ “

Numbers 34:13 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying: “This [is] the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe.

Numbers 34:14 “For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received [their inheritance;] and the half-tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance.

Numbers 34:15 “The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan, [across from] Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.”

Numbers 34:16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 34:17 “These [are] the names of the men who shall divide the land among you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 34:18 “And you shall take one leader of every tribe to divide the land for the inheritance.

Numbers 34:19 “These [are] the names of the men: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Numbers 34:20 “from the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud; Numbers 34:21 “from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon;

Numbers 34:22 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli; Numbers 34:23 “from the sons of Joseph: a leader from the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod, Numbers 34:24 “and a leader from the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan;

Numbers 34:25 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach; Numbers 34:26 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan; Numbers 34:27 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi;

Numbers 34:28 “and a leader from the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.”

Numbers 34:29 These [are] the ones the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance among the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan [across from] Jericho, saying:

Numbers 35:2 “Command the children of Israel that they give the Levites cities to dwell in from the inheritance of their possession, and you shall [also] give the Levites common-land around the cities.

Numbers 35:3 “They shall have the cities to dwell in; and their common-land shall be for their cattle, for their herds, and for all their animals.

Numbers 35:4 “The common-land of the cities which you shall give the Levites [shall extend] from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits all around.

Numbers 35:5 “And you shall measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, on the south side two thousand cubits, on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits. The city [shall be] in the middle. This shall belong to them as common-land for the cities.

Numbers 35:6 “Now among the cities which you will give to the Levites [you shall appoint] six cities of refuge, to which a manslayer may flee. And to these you shall add forty-two cities.

Numbers 35:7 “So all the cities you will give to the Levites [shall be] forty-eight; these [you shall give] with their common-land.

Numbers 35:8 “And the cities which you will give [shall be] from the possession of the children of Israel; from the larger [tribe] you shall give many, from the smaller you shall give few. Each shall give some of its cities to the Levites, in proportion to the inheritance that each receives.”

Numbers 35:9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 35:10 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Numbers 35:11 ‘then you shall appoint cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person accidentally may flee there.

Numbers 35:12 ‘They shall be cities of refuge for you from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation in judgment.

Numbers 35:13 ‘And of the cities which you give, you shall have six cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:14 ‘You shall appoint three cities on this side of the Jordan, and three cities you shall appoint in the land of Canaan, [which] will be cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:15 ‘These six cities shall be for refuge for the children of Israel, for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them, that anyone who kills a person accidentally may flee there.

Numbers 35:16 ‘ But if he strikes him with an iron implement, so that he dies, he [is] a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:17 ‘And if he strikes him with a stone in the hand, by which one could die, and he does die, he [is] a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:18 ‘Or [if] he strikes him with a wooden hand weapon, by which one could die, and he does die, he [is] a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:19 ‘The avenger of blood himself shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.

Numbers 35:20 ‘If he pushes him out of hatred or, while lying in wait, hurls something at him so that he dies,

Numbers 35:21 ‘or in enmity he strikes him with his hand so that he dies, the one who struck [him] shall surely be put to death. He [is] a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

Numbers 35:22 ‘ However, if he pushes him suddenly without enmity, or throws anything at him without lying in wait,

Numbers 35:23 ‘or uses a stone, by which a man could die, throwing [it] at him without seeing [him,] so that he dies, while he was not his enemy or seeking his harm,

Numbers 35:24 ‘then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments.

Numbers 35:25 ‘So the congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge where he had fled, and he shall remain there until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

Numbers 35:26 ‘But if the manslayer at any time goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled,

Numbers 35:27 ‘and the avenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of blood,

Numbers 35:28 ‘because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.

Numbers 35:29 ‘ And these [things] shall be a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Numbers 35:30 ‘Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the testimony of witnesses; but one witness is not [sufficient] testimony against a person for the death [penalty.]

Numbers 35:31 ‘Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who [is] guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:32 ‘And you shall take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the priest.

Numbers 35:33 ‘So you shall not pollute the land where you [are;] for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it.

Numbers 35:34 ‘Therefore do not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.’ “

Numbers 36:1 Now the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel.

Numbers 36:2 And they said: “The LORD commanded my lord [Moses] to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

Numbers 36:3 “Now if they are married to any of the sons of the [other] tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

Numbers 36:4 “And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

Numbers 36:5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying: “What the tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks is right.

Numbers 36:6 “This [is] what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, ‘Let them marry whom they think best, but they may marry only within the family of their father’s tribe.’

Numbers 36:7 “So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not change hands from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

Numbers 36:8 “And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be the wife of one of the family of her father’s tribe, so that the children of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

Numbers 36:9 “Thus no inheritance shall change hands from [one] tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Israel shall keep its own inheritance.”

Numbers 36:10 Just as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad;

Numbers 36:11 for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to the sons of their father’s brothers.

Numbers 36:12 They were married into the families of the children of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father’s family.

Numbers 36:13 These [are] the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded the children of Israel by the hand of Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [across from] Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1:1 These [are] the words which Moses spoke to all Israel on this side of the Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain opposite Suph, between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

Deuteronomy 1:2 [It is] eleven days’ [journey] from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:3 Now it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first [day] of the month, [that] Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him as commandments to them,

Deuteronomy 1:4 after he had killed Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei.

Deuteronomy 1:5 On this side of the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying, Deuteronomy 1:6 "The LORD our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying: 'You have dwelt long enough at this mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:7 'Turn and take your journey, and go to the mountains of the Amorites, to all the neighboring [places] in the plain, in the mountains and in the lowland, in the South and on the seacoast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates.

Deuteronomy 1:8 'See, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—to give to them and their descendants after them.'

Deuteronomy 1:9 " And I spoke to you at that time, saying: 'I alone am not able to bear you.

Deuteronomy 1:10 'The LORD your God has multiplied you, and here you [are] today, as the stars of heaven in multitude.

Deuteronomy 1:11 'May the LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times more numerous than you are, and bless you as He has promised you!

Deuteronomy 1:12 'How can I alone bear your problems and your burdens and your complaints?

Deuteronomy 1:13 'Choose wise, understanding, and knowledgeable men from among your tribes, and I will make them heads over you.'

Deuteronomy 1:14 "And you answered me and said, 'The thing which you have told [us] to do [is] good.'

Deuteronomy 1:15 "So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and knowledgeable men, and made them heads over you, leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, leaders of tens, and officers for your tribes.

Deuteronomy 1:16 "Then I commanded your judges at that time, saying, 'Hear [the cases] between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother or the stranger who is with him.

Deuteronomy 1:17 'You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid in any man's presence, for the judgment [is] God's. The case that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it.'

Deuteronomy 1:18 “And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

Deuteronomy 1:19 “ So we departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us. Then we came to Kadesh Barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:20 “And I said to you, ‘You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

Deuteronomy 1:21 ‘Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up [and] possess [it,] as the LORD God of your fathers has spoken to you; do not fear or be discouraged.’

Deuteronomy 1:22 “And everyone of you came near to me and said, ‘Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and bring back word to us of the way by which we should go up, and of the cities into which we shall come.’

Deuteronomy 1:23 “The plan pleased me well; so I took twelve of your men, one man from [each] tribe.

Deuteronomy 1:24 “And they departed and went up into the mountains, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out.

Deuteronomy 1:25 “They also took [some] of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought [it] down to us; and they brought back word to us, saying, ‘[It is] a good land which the LORD our God is giving us.’

Deuteronomy 1:26 “ Nevertheless you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 1:27 “and you complained in your tents, and said, ‘Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

Deuteronomy 1:28 ‘Where can we go up? Our brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, “The people [are] greater and taller than we; the cities [are] great and fortified up to heaven; moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.” ‘

Deuteronomy 1:29 “Then I said to you, ‘Do not be terrified, or afraid of them.

Deuteronomy 1:30 ‘The LORD your God, who goes before you, He will fight for you, according to all He did for you in Egypt before your eyes,

Deuteronomy 1:31 ‘and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.’

Deuteronomy 1:32 “Yet, for all that, you did not believe the LORD your God, Deuteronomy 1:33 “who went in the way before you to search out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you should go, in the fire by night and in the cloud by day.

Deuteronomy 1:34 “ And the LORD heard the sound of your words, and was angry, and took an oath, saying,

Deuteronomy 1:35 ‘Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that good land of which I swore to give to your fathers,

Deuteronomy 1:36 ‘except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and his children I am giving the land on which he walked, because he wholly followed the LORD.’

Deuteronomy 1:37 “The LORD was also angry with me for your sakes, saying, ‘Even you shall not go in there;

Deuteronomy 1:38 ‘Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

Deuteronomy 1:39 ‘Moreover your little ones and your children, who you say will be victims, who today have no knowledge of good and evil, they shall go in there; to them I will give it, and they shall possess it.

Deuteronomy 1:40 ‘But [as for] you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.’

Deuteronomy 1:41 “ Then you answered and said to me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.’ And when everyone of you had girded on his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:42 “And the LORD said to me, ‘Tell them, “Do not go up nor fight, for I [am] not among you; lest you be defeated before your enemies.” ‘

Deuteronomy 1:43 “So I spoke to you; yet you would not listen, but rebelled against the command of the LORD, and presumptuously went up into the mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:44 “And the Amorites who dwelt in that mountain came out against you and chased you as bees do, and drove you back from Seir to Hormah.

Deuteronomy 1:45 “Then you returned and wept before the LORD, but the LORD would not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

Deuteronomy 1:46 “So you remained in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you spent [there.]

Deuteronomy 2:1 “Then we turned and journeyed into the wilderness of the Way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and we skirted Mount Seir for many days.

Deuteronomy 2:2 “And the LORD spoke to me, saying:

Deuteronomy 2:3 'You have skirted this mountain long enough; turn northward.

Deuteronomy 2:4 'And command the people, saying, "You [are about to] pass through the territory of your brethren, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. Therefore watch yourselves carefully.

Deuteronomy 2:5 "Do not meddle with them, for I will not give you [any] of their land, no, not so much as one footstep, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau [as] a possession.

Deuteronomy 2:6 "You shall buy food from them with money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them with money, that you may drink.

Deuteronomy 2:7 "For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He knows your trudging through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God [has been] with you; you have lacked nothing." '

Deuteronomy 2:8 " And when we passed beyond our brethren, the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir, away from the road of the plain, away from Elath and Ezion Geber, we turned and passed by way of the Wilderness of Moab.

Deuteronomy 2:9 "Then the LORD said to me, 'Do not harass Moab, nor contend with them in battle, for I will not give you [any] of their land [as] a possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot [as] a possession.' "

Deuteronomy 2:10 (The Emim had dwelt there in times past, a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim.

Deuteronomy 2:11 They were also regarded as giants, like the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim.

Deuteronomy 2:12 The Horites formerly dwelt in Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their place, just as Israel did to the land of their possession which the LORD gave them.)

Deuteronomy 2:13 " 'Now rise and cross over the Valley of the Zered.' So we crossed over the Valley of the Zered.

Deuteronomy 2:14 "And the time we took to come from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the Valley of the Zered [was] thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war was consumed from the midst of the camp, just as the LORD had sworn to them.

Deuteronomy 2:15 "For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp until they were consumed.

Deuteronomy 2:16 " So it was, when all the men of war had finally perished from among the people, Deuteronomy 2:17 “that the LORD spoke to me, saying:

Deuteronomy 2:18 ‘This day you are to cross over at Ar, the boundary of Moab.

Deuteronomy 2:19 ‘And [when] you come near the people of Ammon, do not harass them or meddle with them, for I will not give you [any] of the land of the people of Ammon [as] a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot [as] a possession.’ “

Deuteronomy 2:20 (That was also regarded as a land of giants; giants formerly dwelt there. But the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,

Deuteronomy 2:21 a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim. But the LORD destroyed them before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt in their place,

Deuteronomy 2:22 just as He had done for the descendants of Esau, who dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them. They dispossessed them and dwelt in their place, even to this day.

Deuteronomy 2:23 And the Avim, who dwelt in villages as far as Gaza—the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their place.)

Deuteronomy 2:24 “ ‘ Rise, take your journey, and cross over the River Arnon. Look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess [it,] and engage him in battle.

Deuteronomy 2:25 ‘This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the nations under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.’

Deuteronomy 2:26 “ And I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying,

Deuteronomy 2:27 ‘Let me pass through your land; I will keep strictly to the road, and I will turn neither to the right nor to the left.

Deuteronomy 2:28 ‘You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat, and give me water for money, that I may drink; only let me pass through on foot,

Deuteronomy 2:29 ‘just as the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir and the Moabites who dwell in Ar did for me, until I cross the Jordan to the land which the LORD our God is giving us.’

Deuteronomy 2:30 “But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through, for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that He might deliver him into your hand, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 2:31 “And the LORD said to me, ‘See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin to possess [it,] that you may inherit his land.’

Deuteronomy 2:32 “Then Sihon and all his people came out against us to fight at Jahaz.

Deuteronomy 2:33 “And the LORD our God delivered him over to us; so we defeated him, his sons, and all his people.

Deuteronomy 2:34 “We took all his cities at that time, and we utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining.

Deuteronomy 2:35 “We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we took.

Deuteronomy 2:36 “From Aroer, which [is] on the bank of the River Arnon, and [from] the city that [is] in the ravine, as far as Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us; the LORD our God delivered all to us.

Deuteronomy 2:37 “Only you did not go near the land of the people of Ammon—anywhere along the River Jabbok, or to the cities of the mountains, or wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us.

Deuteronomy 3:1 “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan; and Og king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

Deuteronomy 3:2 “And the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.’

Deuteronomy 3:3 “So the LORD our God also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, with all his people, and we attacked him until he had no survivors remaining.

Deuteronomy 3:4 “And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:5 “All these cities [were] fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns.

Deuteronomy 3:6 “And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.

Deuteronomy 3:7 “But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.

Deuteronomy 3:8 “And at that time we took the land from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who [were] on this side of the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon

Deuteronomy 3:9 ‘(the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir),

Deuteronomy 3:10 “all the cities of the plain, all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:11 “For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants. Indeed his bedstead [was] an iron bedstead. ([Is] it not in Rabbah of the people of Ammon?) Nine cubits [is] its length and four cubits its width, according to the standard cubit.

Deuteronomy 3:12 “ And this land, [which] we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which [is] by the River Arnon, and half the mountains of Gilead and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.

Deuteronomy 3:13 “The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of the giants.

Deuteronomy 3:14 “Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and called Bashan after his own name, Havoth Jair, to this day.)

Deuteronomy 3:15 “Also I gave Gilead to Machir.

Deuteronomy 3:16 “And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead as far as the River Arnon, the middle of the river as [the] border, as far as the River Jabbok, the border of the people of Ammon;

Deuteronomy 3:17 “the plain also, with the Jordan as [the] border, from Chinnereth as far as the east side of the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 3:18 “ Then I commanded you at that time, saying: ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. All you men of valor shall cross over armed before your brethren, the children of Israel.

Deuteronomy 3:19 ‘But your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you,

Deuteronomy 3:20 ‘until the LORD has given rest to your brethren as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession which I have given you.’

Deuteronomy 3:21 “And I commandedJoshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so will the LORD do to all the kingdoms through which you pass.

Deuteronomy 3:22 ‘You must not fear them, for the LORD your God Himself fights for you.’

Deuteronomy 3:23 “ Then I pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying:

Deuteronomy 3:24 ‘O Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand, for what god [is there] in heaven or on earth who can do [anything] like Your works and Your mighty [deeds?]

Deuteronomy 3:25 ‘I pray, let me cross over and see the good land beyond the Jordan, those pleasant mountains, and Lebanon.’

Deuteronomy 3:26 “But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me. So the LORD said to me: ‘Enough of that! Speak no more to Me of this matter.

Deuteronomy 3:27 ‘Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift your eyes toward the west, the north, the south, and the east; behold [it] with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

Deuteronomy 3:28 ‘But command Joshua, and encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you will see.’

Deuteronomy 3:29 “So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy 4:1 “Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you.

Deuteronomy 4:2 “You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

Deuteronomy 4:3 “Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men who followed Baal of Peor.

Deuteronomy 4:4 “But you who held fast to the LORD your God [are] alive today, every one of you.

Deuteronomy 4:5 “Surely I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should act according [to them] in the land which you go to possess.

Deuteronomy 4:6 “Therefore be careful to observe [them;] for this [is] your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes, and say, ‘Surely this great nation [is] a wise and understanding people.’

Deuteronomy 4:7 “For what great nation [is there] that has God [so] near to it, as the LORD our God [is] to us, for whatever [reason] we may call upon Him?

Deuteronomy 4:8 “And what great nation [is there] that has [such] statutes and righteous judgments as are in all this law which I set before you this day?

Deuteronomy 4:9 “ Only take heed to yourself, and diligently keep yourself, lest you forget the things your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. And teach them to your children and your grandchildren,

Deuteronomy 4:10 “[especially concerning] the day you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, ‘Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and [that] they may teach their children.’

Deuteronomy 4:11 “Then you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the midst of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.

Deuteronomy 4:12 “And the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, but saw no form; [you] only [heard] a voice.

Deuteronomy 4:13 “So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.

Deuteronomy 4:14 “And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might observe them in the land which you cross over to possess.

Deuteronomy 4:15 “ Take careful heed to yourselves, for you saw no form when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the midst of the fire, Deuteronomy 4:16 “lest you act corruptly and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of any figure: the likeness of male or female,

Deuteronomy 4:17 “the likeness of any animal that [is] on the earth or the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air, Deuteronomy 4:18 “the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground or the likeness of any fish that [is] in the water beneath the earth.

Deuteronomy 4:19 “And [take heed,] lest you lift your eyes to heaven, and [when] you see the sun, the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, you feel driven to worship them and serve them, which the LORD your God has given to all the peoples under the whole heaven as a heritage.

Deuteronomy 4:20 “But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be His people, an inheritance, as you are this day.

Deuteronomy 4:21 “Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I would not cross over the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 4:22 “But I must die in this land, I must not cross over the Jordan; but you shall cross over and possess that good land.

Deuteronomy 4:23 “Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you.

Deuteronomy 4:24 “For the LORD your God [is] a consuming fire, a jealous God.

Deuteronomy 4:25 “ When you beget children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and act corruptly and make a carved image in the form of anything, and do evil in the sight of the LORD your God to provoke Him to anger, Deuteronomy 4:26 “I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong [your] days in it, but will be utterly destroyed.

Deuteronomy 4:27 “And the LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you.

Deuteronomy 4:28 “And there you will serve gods, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell.

Deuteronomy 4:29 “But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find [Him] if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 4:30 “When you are in distress, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, when you turn to the LORD your God and obey His voice

Deuteronomy 4:31 ‘(for the LORD your God [is] a merciful God), He will not forsake you nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

Deuteronomy 4:32 “ For ask now concerning the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and [ask] from one end of heaven to the other, whether [any] great [thing] like this has happened, or [anything] like it has been heard.

Deuteronomy 4:33 “Did [any] people [ever] hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

Deuteronomy 4:34 “Or did God [ever] try to go [and] take for Himself a nation from the midst of [another] nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

Deuteronomy 4:35 “To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD Himself [is] God; [there is] none other besides Him.

Deuteronomy 4:36 “Out of heaven He let you hear His voice, that He might instruct you; on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire.

Deuteronomy 4:37 “And because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their descendants after them; and He brought you out of Egypt with His Presence, with His mighty power, Deuteronomy 4:38 “driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land [as] an inheritance, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 4:39 “Therefore know this day, and consider [it] in your heart, that the LORD Himself [is] God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; [there is] no other.

Deuteronomy 4:40 “You shall therefore keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong [your] days in the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

Deuteronomy 4:41 Then Moses set apart three cities on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun,

Deuteronomy 4:42 that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without having hated him in time past, and that by fleeing to one of these cities he might live:

Deuteronomy 4:43 Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

Deuteronomy 4:44 Now this [is] the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

Deuteronomy 4:45 These [are] the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt,

Deuteronomy 4:46 on this side of the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel defeated after they came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 4:47 And they took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, who [were] on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun,

Deuteronomy 4:48 from Aroer, which [is] on the bank of the River Arnon, even to Mount Sion (that is, Hermon),

Deuteronomy 4:49 and all the plain on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5:1 And Moses called all Israel, and said to them: “Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe them.

Deuteronomy 5:2 “The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

Deuteronomy 5:3 “The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, those who [are] here today, all of us who [are] alive.

Deuteronomy 5:4 “The LORD talked with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire.

Deuteronomy 5:5 “I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain. [He] said:

Deuteronomy 5:6 ‘ I [am] the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Deuteronomy 5:7 ‘ You shall have no other gods before Me.

Deuteronomy 5:8 ‘ You shall not make for yourself a carved image— any likeness [of anything] that [is] in heaven above, or that [is] in the earth beneath, or that [is] in the water under the earth;

Deuteronomy 5:9 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, [am] a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth [generations] of those who hate Me,

Deuteronomy 5:10 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Deuteronomy 5:11 ‘ You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold [him] guiltless who takes His name in vain.

Deuteronomy 5:12 ‘ Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.

Deuteronomy 5:13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

Deuteronomy 5:14 but the seventh day [is] the Sabbath of the LORD your God. [In it] you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who [is] within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you.

Deuteronomy 5:15 And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

Deuteronomy 5:16 ‘ Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, that your days may be long, and that it may be well with you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 5:17 ‘ You shall not murder.

Deuteronomy 5:18 ‘ You shall not commit adultery.

Deuteronomy 5:19 ‘ You shall not steal.

Deuteronomy 5:20 ‘ You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Deuteronomy 5:21 ‘ You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife; and you shall not desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that [is] your neighbor's.'

Deuteronomy 5:22 " These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and He added no more. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 5:23 " So it was, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders.

Deuteronomy 5:24 "And you said: 'Surely the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. We have seen this day that God speaks with man; yet he [still] lives.

Deuteronomy 5:25 'Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God anymore, then we shall die.

Deuteronomy 5:26 'For who [is there] of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we [have,] and lived?

Deuteronomy 5:27 'You go near and hear all that the LORD our God may say, and tell us all that the LORD our God says to you, and we will hear and do [it.']

Deuteronomy 5:28 "Then the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They are right [in] all that they have spoken.

Deuteronomy 5:29 'Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and always keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children forever!

Deuteronomy 5:30 'Go and say to them, "Return to your tents."

Deuteronomy 5:31 'But as for you, stand here by Me, and I will speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe [them] in the land which I am giving them to possess.'

Deuteronomy 5:32 "Therefore you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Deuteronomy 5:33 "You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and [that it may be] well with you, and [that] you may prolong [your] days in the land which you shall possess.

Deuteronomy 6:1 "Now this [is] the commandment, [and these are] the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe [them] in the land which you are crossing over to possess, Deuteronomy 6:2 “that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.

Deuteronomy 6:3 “Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe [it,] that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply greatly as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you—‘a land flowing with milk and honey.’

Deuteronomy 6:4 “ Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD [is] one!

Deuteronomy 6:5 “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

Deuteronomy 6:6 “ And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart.

Deuteronomy 6:7 “You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

Deuteronomy 6:8 “You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deuteronomy 6:9 “You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:10 “ So it shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land of which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and beautiful cities which you did not build,

Deuteronomy 6:11 “houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, hewn-out wells which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant—when you have eaten and are full—

Deuteronomy 6:12 “[then] beware, lest you forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

Deuteronomy 6:13 “You shall fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and shall take oaths in His name.

Deuteronomy 6:14 “You shall not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples who [are] all around you

Deuteronomy 6:15 ‘(for the LORD your God [is] a jealous God among you), lest the anger of the LORD your God be aroused against you and destroy you from the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 6:16 “ You shall not tempt the LORD your God as you tempted [Him] in Massah.

Deuteronomy 6:17 “You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 6:18 “And you shall do [what is] right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land of which the LORD swore to your fathers, Deuteronomy 6:19 “to cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

Deuteronomy 6:20 “ When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What [is the meaning of] the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded you?’

Deuteronomy 6:21 “then you shall say to your son: ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand;

Deuteronomy 6:22 ‘and the LORD showed signs and wonders before our eyes, great and severe, against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household.

Deuteronomy 6:23 ‘Then He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in, to give us the land of which He swore to our fathers.

Deuteronomy 6:24 ‘And the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 6:25 ‘Then it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to observe all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us.’

Deuteronomy 7:1 “When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you go to possess, and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you, Deuteronomy 7:2 “and when the LORD your God delivers them over to you, you shall conquer them [and] utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them.

Deuteronomy 7:3 “Nor shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to their son, nor take their daughter for your son.

Deuteronomy 7:4 “For they will turn your sons away from following Me, to serve other gods; so the anger of the LORD will be aroused against you and destroy you suddenly.

Deuteronomy 7:5 “But thus you shall deal with them: you shall destroy their altars, and break down their [sacred] pillars, and cut down their wooden images, and burn their carved images with fire.

Deuteronomy 7:6 “ For you [are] a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 7:7 “The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any other people, for you were the least of all peoples;

Deuteronomy 7:8 “but because the LORD loves you, and because He would keep the oath which He swore to your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:9 “Therefore know that the LORD your God, He [is] God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments; Deuteronomy 7:10 “and He repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slack with him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face.

Deuteronomy 7:11 “Therefore you shall keep the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which I command you today, to observe them.

Deuteronomy 7:12 “ Then it shall come to pass, because you listen to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers.

Deuteronomy 7:13 “And He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land of which He swore to your fathers to give you.

Deuteronomy 7:14 “You shall be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be a male or female barren among you or among your livestock.

Deuteronomy 7:15 “And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will afflict you with none of the terrible diseases of Egypt which you have known, but will lay [them] on all those who hate you.

Deuteronomy 7:16 “And you shall destroy all the peoples whom the LORD your God delivers over to you; your eye shall have no pity on them; nor shall you serve their gods, for that [will be] a snare to you.

Deuteronomy 7:17 “ If you should say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’—

Deuteronomy 7:18 “you shall not be afraid of them, [but] you shall remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt:

Deuteronomy 7:19 “the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs and the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

Deuteronomy 7:20 “Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left, who hide themselves from you, are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:21 “You shall not be terrified of them; for the LORD your God, the great and awesome God, [is] among you.

Deuteronomy 7:22 “And the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you little by little; you will be unable to destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field become [too] numerous for you.

Deuteronomy 7:23 “But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, and will inflict defeat upon them until they are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:24 “And He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you will destroy their name from under heaven; no one shall be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 7:25 “You shall burn the carved images of their gods with fire; you shall not covet the silver or gold [that is] on them, nor take [it] for yourselves, lest you be snared by it; for it [is] an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 7:26 “Nor shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you be doomed to destruction like it. You shall utterly detest it and utterly abhor it, for it [is] an accursed thing.

Deuteronomy 8:1 “Every commandment which I command you today you must be careful to observe, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers.

Deuteronomy 8:2 “And you shall remember that the LORD your God led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you [and] test you, to know what [was] in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

Deuteronomy 8:3 “So He humbled you, allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna which you did not know nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man shall not live by bread alone; but man lives by every [word] that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 8:4 “Your garments did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.

Deuteronomy 8:5 “You should know in your heart that as a man chastens his son, [so] the LORD your God chastens you.

Deuteronomy 8:6 “Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.

Deuteronomy 8:7 “For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills;

Deuteronomy 8:8 “a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey;

Deuteronomy 8:9 “a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones [are] iron and out of whose hills you can dig copper.

Deuteronomy 8:10 “When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

Deuteronomy 8:11 “ Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I command you today,

Deuteronomy 8:12 “lest—[when] you have eaten and are full, and have built beautiful houses and dwell [in them;]

Deuteronomy 8:13 “and [when] your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold are multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;

Deuteronomy 8:14 “when your heart is lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

Deuteronomy 8:15 “who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, [in which were] fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty land where there was no water; who brought water for you out of the flinty rock;

Deuteronomy 8:16 “who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do you good in the end—

Deuteronomy 8:17 “then you say in your heart, ‘My power and the might of my hand have gained me this wealth.’

Deuteronomy 8:18 “And you shall remember the LORD your God, for [it is] He who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 8:19 “Then it shall be, if you by any means forget the LORD your God, and follow other gods, and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish.

Deuteronomy 8:20 “As the nations which the LORD destroys before you, so you shall perish, because you would not be obedient to the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9:1 “Hear, O Israel: You [are] to cross over the Jordan today, and go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to heaven,

Deuteronomy 9:2 “a people great and tall, the descendants of the Anakim, whom you know, and [of whom] you heard [it said,] ‘Who can stand before the descendants of Anak?’

Deuteronomy 9:3 “Therefore understand today that the LORD your God [is] He who goes over before you [as] a consuming fire. He will destroy them and bring them down before you; so you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to you.

Deuteronomy 9:4 “Do not think in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out before you, saying, ‘Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land’; but [it is] because of the wickedness of these nations [that] the LORD is driving them out from before you.

Deuteronomy 9:5 “[It is] not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart [that] you go in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations [that] the LORD your God drives them out from before you, and that He may fulfill the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 9:6 “Therefore understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you [are] a stiff-necked people.

Deuteronomy 9:7 “ Remember! Do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day that you departed from the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

Deuteronomy 9:8 “Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry [enough] with you to have destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 9:9 “When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water.

Deuteronomy 9:10 “Then the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them [were] all the words which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

Deuteronomy 9:11 “And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, [that] the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

Deuteronomy 9:12 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molded image.’

Deuteronomy 9:13 “ Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed they are a stiff-necked people.

Deuteronomy 9:14 ‘Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’

Deuteronomy 9:15 “So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant [were] in my two hands.

Deuteronomy 9:16 “And I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God—had made for yourselves a molded calf! You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.

Deuteronomy 9:17 “Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes.

Deuteronomy 9:18 “And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you committed in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

Deuteronomy 9:19 “For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry with you, to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also.

Deuteronomy 9:20 “And the LORD was very angry with Aaron [and] would have destroyed him; so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.

Deuteronomy 9:21 “Then I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it [and] ground [it] very small, until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that descended from the mountain.

Deuteronomy 9:22 “ Also at Taberah and Massah and Kibroth Hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath.

Deuteronomy 9:23 “Likewise, when the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, ‘Go up and possess the land which I have given you,’ then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe Him nor obey His voice.

Deuteronomy 9:24 “You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

Deuteronomy 9:25 “ Thus I prostrated myself before the LORD; forty days and forty nights I kept prostrating myself, because the LORD had said He would destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:26 “Therefore I prayed to the LORD, and said: ‘O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 9:27 ‘Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or their sin,

Deuteronomy 9:28 ‘lest the land from which You brought us should say, “Because the LORD was not able to bring them to the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.”

Deuteronomy 9:29 ‘Yet they [are] Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm.’

Deuteronomy 10:1 “At that time the LORD said to me, ‘Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me on the mountain and make yourself an ark of wood.

Deuteronomy 10:2 ‘And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you shall put them in the ark.’

Deuteronomy 10:3 “So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand.

Deuteronomy 10:4 “And He wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which the LORD had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 10:5 “Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me.”

Deuteronomy 10:6 (Now the children of Israel journeyed from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Moserah, where Aaron died, and where he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his stead.

Deuteronomy 10:7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of rivers of water.

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to Him and to bless in His name, to this day.

Deuteronomy 10:9 Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD [is] his inheritance, just as the LORD your God promised him.)

Deuteronomy 10:10 “As at the first time, I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights; the LORD also heard me at that time, [and] the LORD chose not to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 10:11 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, begin [your] journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.’

Deuteronomy 10:12 “ And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, Deuteronomy 10:13 “[and] to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I command you today for your good?

Deuteronomy 10:14 “Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the LORD your God, [also] the earth with all that [is] in it.

Deuteronomy 10:15 “The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 10:16 “Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be stiff-necked no longer.

Deuteronomy 10:17 “For the LORD your God [is] God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality nor takes a bribe.

Deuteronomy 10:18 “He administers justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and clothing.

Deuteronomy 10:19 “Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 10:20 “You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him, and to Him you shall hold fast, and take oaths in His name.

Deuteronomy 10:21 “He [is] your praise, and He [is] your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things which your eyes have seen.

Deuteronomy 10:22 “Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons, and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven in multitude.

Deuteronomy 11:1 “Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgments, and His commandments always.

Deuteronomy 11:2 “Know today that [I do] not [speak] with your children, who have not known and who have not seen the chastening of the LORD your God, His greatness and His mighty hand and His outstretched arm—

Deuteronomy 11:3 “His signs and His acts which He did in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to all his land;

Deuteronomy 11:4 “what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and their chariots: how He made the waters of the Red Sea overflow them as they pursued you, and [how] the LORD has destroyed them to this day;

Deuteronomy 11:5 “what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place;

Deuteronomy 11:6 “and what He did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and all the substance that [was] in their possession, in the midst of all Israel—

Deuteronomy 11:7 “but your eyes have seen every great act of the LORD which He did.

Deuteronomy 11:8 “ Therefore you shall keep every commandment which I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land which you cross over to possess, Deuteronomy 11:9 “and that you may prolong [your] days in the land which the LORD swore to give your fathers, to them and their descendants, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey.’

Deuteronomy 11:10 “For the land which you go to possess [is] not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered [it] by foot, as a vegetable garden;

Deuteronomy 11:11 “but the land which you cross over to possess [is] a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water from the rain of heaven,

Deuteronomy 11:12 “a land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God [are] always on it, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year.

Deuteronomy 11:13 ‘ And it shall be that if you earnestly obey My commandments which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deuteronomy 11:14 ‘then I will give [you] the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil.

Deuteronomy 11:15 ‘And I will send grass in your fields for your livestock, that you may eat and be filled.’

Deuteronomy 11:16 “Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them,

Deuteronomy 11:17 “lest the LORD’s anger be aroused against you, and He shut up the heavens so that there be no rain, and the land yield no produce, and you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you.

Deuteronomy 11:18 “ Therefore you shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deuteronomy 11:19 “You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

Deuteronomy 11:20 “And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, Deuteronomy 11:21 “that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, like the days of the heavens above the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:22 “ For if you carefully keep all these commandments which I command you to do—to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him—

Deuteronomy 11:23 “then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess greater and mightier nations than yourselves.

Deuteronomy 11:24 “Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the River Euphrates, even to the Western Sea, shall be your territory.

Deuteronomy 11:25 “No man shall be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put the dread of you and the fear of you upon all the land where you tread, just as He has said to you.

Deuteronomy 11:26 “ Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse:

Deuteronomy 11:27 “the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you today;

Deuteronomy 11:28 “and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known.

Deuteronomy 11:29 “Now it shall be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

Deuteronomy 11:30 “[Are] they not on the other side of the Jordan, toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, beside the terebinth trees of Moreh?

Deuteronomy 11:31 “For you will cross over the Jordan and go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess it and dwell in it.

Deuteronomy 11:32 “And you shall be careful to observe all the statutes and judgments which I set before you today.

Deuteronomy 12:1 “These [are] the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth.

Deuteronomy 12:2 “You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.

Deuteronomy 12:3 “And you shall destroy their altars, break their [sacred] pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place.

Deuteronomy 12:4 “You shall not worship the LORD your God [with] such [things.]

Deuteronomy 12:5 “But you shall seek the place where the LORD your God chooses, out of all your tribes, to put His name for His dwelling place; and there you shall go.

Deuteronomy 12:6 “There you shall take your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, your vowed offerings, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

Deuteronomy 12:7 “And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all to which you have put your hand, you and your households, in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 12:8 “You shall not at all do as we are doing here today—every man doing whatever [is] right in his own eyes—

Deuteronomy 12:9 “for as yet you have not come to the rest and the inheritance which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 12:10 “But [when] you cross over the Jordan and dwell in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety, Deuteronomy 12:11 “then there will be the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. There you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, and all your choice offerings which you vow to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:12 “And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levite who [is] within your gates, since he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

Deuteronomy 12:13 “Take heed to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see;

Deuteronomy 12:14 “but in the place which the LORD chooses, in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.

Deuteronomy 12:15 “ However, you may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates, whatever your heart desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, of the gazelle and the deer alike.

Deuteronomy 12:16 “Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water.

Deuteronomy 12:17 “You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or your new wine or your oil, of the firstborn of your herd or your flock, of any of your offerings which you vow, of your freewill offerings, or of the heave offering of your hand.

Deuteronomy 12:18 “But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God chooses, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, and the Levite who [is] within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all to which you put your hands.

Deuteronomy 12:19 “Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

Deuteronomy 12:20 “ When the LORD your God enlarges your border as He has promised you, and you say, ‘Let me eat meat,’ because you long to eat meat, you may eat as much meat as your heart desires.

Deuteronomy 12:21 “If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter from your herd and from your flock which the LORD has given you, just as I have commanded you, and you may eat within your gates as much as your heart desires.

Deuteronomy 12:22 “Just as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat them; the unclean and the clean alike may eat them.

Deuteronomy 12:23 “Only be sure that you do not eat the blood, for the blood [is] the life; you may not eat the life with the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:24 “You shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth like water.

Deuteronomy 12:25 “You shall not eat it, that it may go well with you and your children after you, when you do [what is] right in the sight of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:26 “Only the holy things which you have, and your vowed offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses.

Deuteronomy 12:27 “And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:28 “Observe and obey all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and your children after you forever, when you do [what is] good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 12:29 “ When the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land, Deuteronomy 12:30 “take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.’

Deuteronomy 12:31 “You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way; for every abomination to the LORD which He hates they have done to their gods; for they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:32 “Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it.

Deuteronomy 13:1 “If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder,

Deuteronomy 13:2 “and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, ‘Let us go after other gods’—which you have not known—‘and let us serve them,’ Deuteronomy 13:3 “you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 13:4 “You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice, and you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him.

Deuteronomy 13:5 “But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn [you] away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall put away the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 13:6 “ If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods,’ which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers,

Deuteronomy 13:7 “of the gods of the people which [are] all around you, near to you or far off from you, from [one] end of the earth to the [other] end of the earth,

Deuteronomy 13:8 “you shall not consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him;

Deuteronomy 13:9 “but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.

Deuteronomy 13:10 “And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

Deuteronomy 13:11 “So all Israel shall hear and fear, and not again do such wickedness as this among you.

Deuteronomy 13:12 “ If you hear someone in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell in, saying,

Deuteronomy 13:13 ‘Corrupt men have gone out from among you and enticed the inhabitants of their city, saying, “Let us go and serve other gods” ‘—which you have not known—

Deuteronomy 13:14 “then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. And [if it is] indeed true [and] certain [that] such an abomination was committed among you, Deuteronomy 13:15 “you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword—utterly destroying it, all that is in it and its livestock, with the edge of the sword.

Deuteronomy 13:16 “And you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and completely burn with fire the city and all its plunder, for the LORD your God. It shall be a heap forever; it shall not be built again.

Deuteronomy 13:17 “So none of the accursed things shall remain in your hand, that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers, Deuteronomy 13:18 “because you have listened to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do [what is] right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 14:1 “You [are] the children of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave the front of your head for the dead.

Deuteronomy 14:2 “For you [are] a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who [are] on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 14:3 “ You shall not eat any detestable thing.

Deuteronomy 14:4 “These [are] the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, Deuteronomy 14:5 “the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the mountain goat, the antelope, and the mountain sheep.

Deuteronomy 14:6 “And you may eat every animal with cloven hooves, having the hoof split into two parts, [and that] chews the cud, among the animals.

Deuteronomy 14:7 “Nevertheless, of those that chew the cud or have cloven hooves, you shall not eat, [such as] these: the camel, the hare, and the rock hyrax; for they chew the cud but do not have cloven hooves; they [are] unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:8 “Also the swine is unclean for you, because it has cloven hooves, yet [does] not [chew] the cud; you shall not eat their flesh or touch their dead carcasses.

Deuteronomy 14:9 “ These you may eat of all that [are] in the waters: you may eat all that have fins and scales.

Deuteronomy 14:10 “And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it [is] unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:11 “ All clean birds you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:12 “But these you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard, Deuteronomy 14:13 “the red kite, the falcon, and the kite after their kinds;

Deuteronomy 14:14 “every raven after its kind;

Deuteronomy 14:15 “the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the seagull, and the hawk after their kinds;

Deuteronomy 14:16 “the little owl, the screech owl, the white owl, Deuteronomy 14:17 “the jackdaw, the carrion vulture, the fisher owl, Deuteronomy 14:18 “the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe and the bat.

Deuteronomy 14:19 “Also every creeping thing that flies is unclean for you; they shall not be eaten.

Deuteronomy 14:20 “You may eat all clean birds.

Deuteronomy 14:21 “ You shall not eat anything that dies [of itself;] you may give it to the alien who [is] within your gates, that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you [are] a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Deuteronomy 14:22 “ You shall truly tithe all the increase of your grain that the field produces year by year.

Deuteronomy 14:23 “And you shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place where He chooses to make His name abide, the tithe of your grain and your new wine and your oil, of the firstborn of your herds and your flocks, that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

Deuteronomy 14:24 “But if the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry [the tithe, or] if the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, when the LORD your God has blessed you, Deuteronomy 14:25 “then you shall exchange [it] for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

Deuteronomy 14:26 “And you shall spend that money for whatever your heart desires: for oxen or sheep, for wine or similar drink, for whatever your heart desires; you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household.

Deuteronomy 14:27 “You shall not forsake the Levite who [is] within your gates, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

Deuteronomy 14:28 “ At the end of [every] third year you shall bring out the tithe of your produce of that year and store [it] up within your gates.

Deuteronomy 14:29 “And the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who [are] within your gates, may come and eat and be satisfied, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Deuteronomy 15:1 “At the end of [every] seven years you shall grant a release [of debts.]

Deuteronomy 15:2 “And this [is] the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent [anything] to his neighbor shall release [it;] he shall not require [it] of his neighbor or his brother, because it is called the LORD’s release.

Deuteronomy 15:3 “Of a foreigner you may require [it;] but you shall give up your claim to what is owed by your brother,

Deuteronomy 15:4 “except when there may be no poor among you; for the LORD will greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess [as] an inheritance—

Deuteronomy 15:5 “only if you carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe with care all these commandments which I command you today.

Deuteronomy 15:6 “For the LORD your God will bless you just as He promised you; you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

Deuteronomy 15:7 “ If there is among you a poor man of your brethren, within any of the gates in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother, Deuteronomy 15:8 “but you shall open your hand wide to him and willingly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he needs.

Deuteronomy 15:9 “Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand,’ and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing, and he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin among you.

Deuteronomy 15:10 “You shall surely give to him, and your heart should not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand.

Deuteronomy 15:11 “For the poor will never cease from the land; therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and your needy, in your land.’

Deuteronomy 15:12 “ If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.

Deuteronomy 15:13 “And when you send him away free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed;

Deuteronomy 15:14 “you shall supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. [From what] the LORD has blessed you with, you shall give to him.

Deuteronomy 15:15 “You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this thing today.

Deuteronomy 15:16 “And if it happens that he says to you, ‘I will not go away from you,’ because he loves you and your house, since he prospers with you, Deuteronomy 15:17 “then you shall take an awl and thrust [it] through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise.

Deuteronomy 15:18 “It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth a double hired servant in serving you six years. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

Deuteronomy 15:19 “All the firstborn males that come from your herd and your flock you shall sanctify to the LORD your God; you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.

Deuteronomy 15:20 “You and your household shall eat [it] before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD chooses.

Deuteronomy 15:21 “But if there is a defect in it, [if it is] lame or blind [or has] any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 15:22 “You may eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean [person] alike [may eat it,] as [if it were] a gazelle or a deer.

Deuteronomy 15:23 “Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16:1 “Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deuteronomy 16:2 “Therefore you shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock and the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to put His name.

Deuteronomy 16:3 “You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, [that is,] the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), that you may remember the day in which you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.

Deuteronomy 16:4 “And no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall [any] of the meat which you sacrifice the first day at twilight remain overnight until morning.

Deuteronomy 16:5 “You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you;

Deuteronomy 16:6 “but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at twilight, at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:7 “And you shall roast and eat [it] in the place which the LORD your God chooses, and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents.

Deuteronomy 16:8 “Six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there [shall be] a sacred assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work [on it.]

Deuteronomy 16:9 “ You shall count seven weeks for yourself; begin to count the seven weeks from [the time] you begin [to put] the sickle to the grain.

Deuteronomy 16:10 “Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you.

Deuteronomy 16:11 “You shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who [is] within your gates, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who [are] among you, at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide.

Deuteronomy 16:12 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.

Deuteronomy 16:13 “ You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, when you have gathered from your threshing floor and from your winepress.

Deuteronomy 16:14 “And you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant and the Levite, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow, who [are] within your gates.

Deuteronomy 16:15 “Seven days you shall keep a sacred feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you surely rejoice.

Deuteronomy 16:16 “Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles; and they shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 16:17 “Every man [shall give] as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

Deuteronomy 16:18 “ You shall appoint judges and officers in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

Deuteronomy 16:19 “You shall not pervert justice; you shall not show partiality, nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

Deuteronomy 16:20 “You shall follow what is altogether just, that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:21 “ You shall not plant for yourself any tree, as a wooden image, near the altar which you build for yourself to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 16:22 “You shall not set up a sacred pillar, which the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17:1 “You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God a bull or sheep which has any blemish [or] defect, for that [is] an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 17:2 “ If there is found among you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or a woman who has been wicked in the sight of the LORD your God, in transgressing His covenant,

Deuteronomy 17:3 “who has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, either the sun or moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded,

Deuteronomy 17:4 “and it is told you, and you hear [of it,] then you shall inquire diligently. And if [it is] indeed true [and] certain that such an abomination has been committed in Israel, Deuteronomy 17:5 “then you shall bring out to your gates that man or woman who has committed that wicked thing, and shall stone to death that man or woman with stones.

Deuteronomy 17:6 “Whoever is deserving of death shall be put to death on the testimony of two or three witnesses; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of one witness.

Deuteronomy 17:7 “The hands of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 17:8 “ If a matter arises which is too hard for you to judge, between degrees of guilt for bloodshed, between one judgment or another, or between one punishment or another, matters of controversy within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

Deuteronomy 17:9 “And you shall come to the priests, the Levites, and to the judge [there] in those days, and inquire [of them;] they shall pronounce upon you the sentence of judgment.

Deuteronomy 17:10 “You shall do according to the sentence which they pronounce upon you in that place which the LORD chooses. And you shall be careful to do according to all that they order you.

Deuteronomy 17:11 “According to the sentence of the law in which they instruct you, according to the judgment which they tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside [to] the right hand or [to] the left from the sentence which they pronounce upon you.

Deuteronomy 17:12 “Now the man who acts presumptuously and will not heed the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or the judge, that man shall die. So you shall put away the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 17:13 “And all the people shall hear and fear, and no longer act presumptuously.

Deuteronomy 17:14 “ When you come to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and possess it and dwell in it, and say, ‘I will set a king over me like all the nations that [are] around me,’ Deuteronomy 17:15 “you shall surely set a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses; [one] from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not set a foreigner over you, who [is] not your brother.

Deuteronomy 17:16 “But he shall not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt to multiply horses, for the LORD has said to you, ‘You shall not return that way again.’

Deuteronomy 17:17 “Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold for himself.

Deuteronomy 17:18 “ Also it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from [the one] before the priests, the Levites.

Deuteronomy 17:19 “And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes, Deuteronomy 17:20 “that his heart may not be lifted above his brethren, that he may not turn aside from the commandment [to] the right hand or [to] the left, and that he may prolong [his] days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel.

Deuteronomy 18:1 “The priests, the Levites—all the tribe of Levi—shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His portion.

Deuteronomy 18:2 “Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as He said to them.

Deuteronomy 18:3 “ And this shall be the priest’s due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether [it is] bull or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach.

Deuteronomy 18:4 “The firstfruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.

Deuteronomy 18:5 “For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.

Deuteronomy 18:6 “ So if a Levite comes from any of your gates, from where he dwells among all Israel, and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place which the LORD chooses, Deuteronomy 18:7 “then he may serve in the name of the LORD his God as all his brethren the Levites [do,] who stand there before the LORD.

Deuteronomy 18:8 “They shall have equal portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

Deuteronomy 18:9 “ When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominations of those nations.

Deuteronomy 18:10 “There shall not be found among you [anyone] who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, [or one] who practices witchcraft, [or] a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, Deuteronomy 18:11 “or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.

Deuteronomy 18:12 “For all who do these things [are] an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you.

Deuteronomy 18:13 “You shall be blameless before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 18:14 “For these nations which you will dispossess listened to soothsayers and diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not appointed such for you.

Deuteronomy 18:15 “ The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear, Deuteronomy 18:16 “according to all you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, nor let me see this great fire anymore, lest I die.’

Deuteronomy 18:17 “And the LORD said to me: ‘What they have spoken is good.

Deuteronomy 18:18 ‘I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak to them all that I command Him.

Deuteronomy 18:19 ‘And it shall be [that] whoever will not hear My words, which He speaks in My name, I will require [it] of him.

Deuteronomy 18:20 ‘But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.’

Deuteronomy 18:21 “And if you say in your heart, ‘How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?’—

Deuteronomy 18:22 “when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that [is] the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy 19:1 “When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses, Deuteronomy 19:2 “you shall separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:3 “You shall prepare roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, that any manslayer may flee there.

Deuteronomy 19:4 “ And this [is] the case of the manslayer who flees there, that he may live: Whoever kills his neighbor unintentionally, not having hated him in time past—

Deuteronomy 19:5 “as when [a man] goes to the woods with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies—he shall flee to one of these cities and live;

Deuteronomy 19:6 “lest the avenger of blood, while his anger is hot, pursue the manslayer and overtake him, because the way is long, and kill him, though he [was] not deserving of death, since he had not hated the victim in time past.

Deuteronomy 19:7 “Therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall separate three cities for yourself.’

Deuteronomy 19:8 “Now if the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your fathers, and gives you the land which He promised to give to your fathers, Deuteronomy 19:9 “and if you keep all these commandments and do them, which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways, then you shall add three more cities for yourself besides these three, Deuteronomy 19:10 “lest innocent blood be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you [as] an inheritance, and [thus] guilt of bloodshed be upon you.

Deuteronomy 19:11 “ But if anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises against him and strikes him mortally, so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities, Deuteronomy 19:12 “then the elders of his city shall send and bring him from there, and deliver him over to the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

Deuteronomy 19:13 “Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away [the guilt of] innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you.

Deuteronomy 19:14 “ You shall not remove your neighbor’s landmark, which the men of old have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:15 “ One witness shall not rise against a man concerning any iniquity or any sin that he commits; by the mouth of two or three witnesses the matter shall be established.

Deuteronomy 19:16 “If a false witness rises against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, Deuteronomy 19:17 “then both men in the controversy shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who serve in those days.

Deuteronomy 19:18 “And the judges shall make careful inquiry, and indeed, [if] the witness [is] a false witness, who has testified falsely against his brother, Deuteronomy 19:19 “then you shall do to him as he thought to have done to his brother; so you shall put away the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 19:20 “And those who remain shall hear and fear, and hereafter they shall not again commit such evil among you.

Deuteronomy 19:21 “Your eye shall not pity: life [shall be] for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20:1 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots [and] people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God [is] with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 20:2 “So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people.

Deuteronomy 20:3 “And he shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them;

Deuteronomy 20:4 ‘for the LORD your God [is] He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’

Deuteronomy 20:5 “Then the officers shall speak to the people, saying: ‘What man [is there] who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.

Deuteronomy 20:6 ‘Also what man [is there] who has planted a vineyard and has not eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it.

Deuteronomy 20:7 ‘And what man [is there] who is betrothed to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man marry her.’

Deuteronomy 20:8 “The officers shall speak further to the people, and say, ‘What man [is there who is] fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest the heart of his brethren faint like his heart.’

Deuteronomy 20:9 “And so it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

Deuteronomy 20:10 “ When you go near a city to fight against it, then proclaim an offer of peace to it.

Deuteronomy 20:11 “And it shall be that if they accept your offer of peace, and open to you, then all the people [who are] found in it shall be placed under tribute to you, and serve you.

Deuteronomy 20:12 “Now if [the city] will not make peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it.

Deuteronomy 20:13 “And when the LORD your God delivers it into your hands, you shall strike every male in it with the edge of the sword.

Deuteronomy 20:14 “But the women, the little ones, the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall plunder for yourself; and you shall eat the enemies’ plunder which the LORD your God gives you.

Deuteronomy 20:15 “Thus you shall do to all the cities [which are] very far from you, which [are] not of the cities of these nations.

Deuteronomy 20:16 “But of the cities of these peoples which the LORD your God gives you [as] an inheritance, you shall let nothing that breathes remain alive,

Deuteronomy 20:17 “but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, Deuteronomy 20:18 “lest they teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their gods, and you sin against the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 20:19 “ When you besiege a city for a long time, while making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them; if you can eat of them, do not cut them down to use in the siege, for the tree of the field [is] man’s [food.]

Deuteronomy 20:20 “Only the trees which you know [are] not trees for food you may destroy and cut down, to build siegeworks against the city that makes war with you, until it is subdued.

Deuteronomy 21:1 “If [anyone] is found slain, lying in the field in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, [and] it is not known who killed him, Deuteronomy 21:2 “then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure [the distance] from the slain man to the surrounding cities.

Deuteronomy 21:3 “And it shall be [that] the elders of the city nearest to the slain man will take a heifer which has not been worked [and] which has not pulled with a yoke.

Deuteronomy 21:4 “The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with flowing water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and they shall break the heifer’s neck there in the valley.

Deuteronomy 21:5 “Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; by their word every controversy and every assault shall be [settled.]

Deuteronomy 21:6 “And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain [man] shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley.

Deuteronomy 21:7 “Then they shall answer and say, ‘Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen [it.]

Deuteronomy 21:8 ‘Provide atonement, O LORD, for Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Your people Israel.’ And atonement shall be provided on their behalf for the blood.

Deuteronomy 21:9 “So you shall put away the [guilt of] innocent blood from among you when you do [what is] right in the sight of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 21:10 “ When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hand, and you take them captive, Deuteronomy 21:11 “and you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and desire her and would take her for your wife, Deuteronomy 21:12 “then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails.

Deuteronomy 21:13 “She shall put off the clothes of her captivity, remain in your house, and mourn her father and her mother a full month; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.

Deuteronomy 21:14 “And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall set her free, but you certainly shall not sell her for money; you shall not treat her brutally, because you have humbled her.

Deuteronomy 21:15 “ If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, [both] the loved and the unloved, and [if] the firstborn son is of her who is unloved, Deuteronomy 21:16 “then it shall be, on the day he bequeaths his possessions to his sons, [that] he must not bestow firstborn status on the son of the loved wife in preference to the son of the unloved, the [true] firstborn.

Deuteronomy 21:17 “But he shall acknowledge the son of the unloved wife [as] the firstborn by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he [is] the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn [is] his.

Deuteronomy 21:18 “ If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and [who,] when they have chastened him, will not heed them, Deuteronomy 21:19 “then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, to the gate of his city.

Deuteronomy 21:20 “And they shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.’

Deuteronomy 21:21 “Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones; so you shall put away the evil from among you, and all Israel shall hear and fear.

Deuteronomy 21:22 “ If a man has committed a sin deserving of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, Deuteronomy 21:23 “his body shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you shall surely bury him that day, so that you do not defile the land which the LORD your God is giving you [as] an inheritance; for he who is hanged [is] accursed of God.

Deuteronomy 22:1 “You shall not see your brother’s ox or his sheep going astray, and hide yourself from them; you shall certainly bring them back to your brother.

Deuteronomy 22:2 “And if your brother [is] not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him.

Deuteronomy 22:3 “You shall do the same with his donkey, and so shall you do with his garment; with any lost thing of your brother’s, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do likewise; you must not hide yourself.

Deuteronomy 22:4 “ You shall not see your brother’s donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him lift [them] up again.

Deuteronomy 22:5 “ A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman’s garment, for all who do so [are] an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 22:6 “ If a bird’s nest happens to be before you along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young;

Deuteronomy 22:7 “you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, that it may be well with you and [that] you may prolong [your] days.

Deuteronomy 22:8 “ When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring guilt of bloodshed on your household if anyone falls from it.

Deuteronomy 22:14 “and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings a bad name on her, and says, ‘I took this woman, and when I came to her I found she [was] not a virgin,’ Deuteronomy 22:15 “then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out [the evidence of] the young woman’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

Deuteronomy 22:16 “And the young woman’s father shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he detests her.

Deuteronomy 22:17 ‘Now he has charged her with shameful conduct, saying, “I found your daughter [was] not a virgin,” and yet these [are the evidences of] my daughter’s virginity.’ And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

Deuteronomy 22:20 “But if the thing is true, [and evidences of] virginity are not found for the young woman, Deuteronomy 22:21 “then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to play the harlot in her father’s house. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 24:20 “When you beat your olive trees, you shall not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:21 “When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean [it] afterward; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:22 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing.

Deuteronomy 25:1 “If there is a dispute between men, and they come to court, that [the judges] may judge them, and they justify the righteous and condemn the wicked, Deuteronomy 25:2 “then it shall be, if the wicked man deserves to be beaten, that the judge will cause him to lie down and be beaten in his presence, according to his guilt, with a certain number of blows.

Deuteronomy 25:3 “Forty blows he may give him [and] no more, lest he should exceed this and beat him with many blows above these, and your brother be humiliated in your sight.

Deuteronomy 25:4 “ You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out [the grain.]

Deuteronomy 25:5 “ If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not be [married] to a stranger outside [the family;] her husband’s brother shall go in to her, take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her.

Deuteronomy 25:6 “And it shall be [that] the firstborn son which she bears will succeed to the name of his dead brother, that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.

Deuteronomy 25:7 “But if the man does not want to take his brother’s wife, then let his brother’s wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he will not perform the duty of my husband’s brother.’

Deuteronomy 25:8 “Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. But [if] he stands firm and says, ‘I do not want to take her,’

Deuteronomy 25:9 “then his brother’s wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, remove his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and answer and say, ‘So shall it be done to the man who will not build up his brother’s house.’

Deuteronomy 25:10 “And his name shall be called in Israel, ‘The house of him who had his sandal removed.’

Deuteronomy 25:11 “ If [two] men fight together, and the wife of one draws near to rescue her husband from the hand of the one attacking him, and puts out her hand and seizes him by the genitals, Deuteronomy 25:12 “then you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall not pity [her.]

Deuteronomy 25:13 “ You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light.

Deuteronomy 25:14 “You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small.

Deuteronomy 25:15 “You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure, that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 25:16 “For all who do such things, all who behave unrighteously, [are] an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 25:17 “ Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt, Deuteronomy 25:18 “how he met you on the way and attacked your rear ranks, all the stragglers at your rear, when you [were] tired and weary; and he did not fear God.

Deuteronomy 25:19 “Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess [as] an inheritance, [that] you will blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget.

Deuteronomy 26:1 “And it shall be, when you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you [as] an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it, Deuteronomy 26:2 “that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground, which you shall bring from your land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put [it] in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide.

Deuteronomy 26:3 “And you shall go to the one who is priest in those days, and say to him, ‘I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come to the country which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’

Deuteronomy 26:4 “Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 26:5 “And you shall answer and say before the LORD your God: ‘My father [was] a Syrian, about to perish, and he went down to Egypt and dwelt there, few in number; and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and populous.

Deuteronomy 26:6 ‘But the Egyptians mistreated us, afflicted us, and laid hard bondage on us.

Deuteronomy 26:7 ‘Then we cried out to the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression.

Deuteronomy 26:8 ‘So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, with great terror and with signs and wonders.

Deuteronomy 26:9 ‘He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, “a land flowing with milk and honey”;

Deuteronomy 26:10 ‘and now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land which you, O LORD, have given me.’ Then you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 26:11 “So you shall rejoice in every good [thing] which the LORD your God has given to you and your house, you and the Levite and the stranger who [is] among you.

Deuteronomy 26:12 “ When you have finished laying aside all the tithe of your increase in the third year—the year of tithing—and have given [it] to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within your gates and be filled,

Deuteronomy 26:13 “then you shall say before the LORD your God: ‘I have removed the holy [tithe] from [my] house, and also have given them to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed Your commandments, nor have I forgotten [them.]

Deuteronomy 26:14 ‘I have not eaten any of it when in mourning, nor have I removed [any] of it for an unclean [use,] nor given [any] of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that You have commanded me.

Deuteronomy 26:15 ‘Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land which You have given us, just as You swore to our fathers, “a land flowing with milk and honey.” ‘

Deuteronomy 26:16 “ This day the LORD your God commands you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall be careful to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 26:17 “Today you have proclaimed the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments, and that you will obey His voice.

Deuteronomy 26:18 “Also today the LORD has proclaimed you to be His special people, just as He promised you, that [you] should keep all His commandments, Deuteronomy 26:19 “and that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, in praise, in name, and in honor, and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.”

Deuteronomy 27:1 Now Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying: “Keep all the commandments which I command you today.

Deuteronomy 27:2 “And it shall be, on the day when you cross over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, that you shall set up for yourselves large stones, and whitewash them with lime.

Deuteronomy 27:3 “You shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have crossed over, that you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey,’ just as the LORD God of your fathers promised you.

Deuteronomy 27:4 “Therefore it shall be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, [that] on Mount Ebal you shall set up these stones, which I command you today, and you shall whitewash them with lime.

Deuteronomy 27:5 “And there you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not use an iron [tool] on them.

Deuteronomy 27:6 “You shall build with whole stones the altar of the LORD your God, and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:7 “You shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:8 “And you shall write very plainly on the stones all the words of this law.”

Deuteronomy 27:9 Then Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, “Take heed and listen, O Israel: This day you have become the people of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:10 “Therefore you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, and observe His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.”

Deuteronomy 27:11 And Moses commanded the people on the same day, saying,

Deuteronomy 27:12 “These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have crossed over the Jordan: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin;

Deuteronomy 27:13 “and these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

Deuteronomy 27:14 “ And the Levites shall speak with a loud voice and say to all the men of Israel:

Deuteronomy 27:15 ‘Cursed [is] the one who makes a carved or molded image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets [it] up in secret.' And all the people shall answer and say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:16 'Cursed [is] the one who treats his father or his mother with contempt.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:17 'Cursed [is] the one who moves his neighbor's landmark.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:18 'Cursed [is] the one who makes the blind to wander off the road.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:19 'Cursed [is] the one who perverts the justice due the stranger, the fatherless, and widow.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:20 'Cursed [is] the one who lies with his father's wife, because he has uncovered his father's bed.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:21 'Cursed [is] the one who lies with any kind of animal.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:22 'Cursed [is] the one who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:23 'Cursed [is] the one who lies with his mother-in-law.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:24 'Cursed [is] the one who attacks his neighbor secretly.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:25 'Cursed [is] the one who takes a bribe to slay an innocent person.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 27:26 'Cursed [is] the one who does not confirm [all] the words of this law.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Deuteronomy 28:1 "Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that the LORD your God will set you high above all nations of the earth.

Deuteronomy 28:2 "And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of the LORD your God:

Deuteronomy 28:3 "Blessed [shall] you [be] in the city, and blessed [shall] you [be] in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:4 "Blessed [shall be] the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground and the increase of your herds, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.

Deuteronomy 28:5 "Blessed [shall be] your basket and your kneading bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:6 "Blessed [shall] you [be] when you come in, and blessed [shall] you [be] when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:7 “ The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways.

Deuteronomy 28:8 “The LORD will command the blessing on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:9 “The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways.

Deuteronomy 28:10 “Then all peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you.

Deuteronomy 28:11 “And the LORD will grant you plenty of goods, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground, in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you.

Deuteronomy 28:12 “The LORD will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow.

Deuteronomy 28:13 “And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe [them.]

Deuteronomy 28:14 “So you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, [to] the right or the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Deuteronomy 28:15 “ But it shall come to pass, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

Deuteronomy 28:16 “Cursed [shall] you [be] in the city, and cursed [shall] you [be] in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:17 “Cursed [shall be] your basket and your kneading bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:18 “Cursed [shall be] the fruit of your body and the produce of your land, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.

Deuteronomy 28:19 “Cursed [shall] you [be] when you come in, and cursed [shall] you [be] when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:20 “ The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings in which you have forsaken Me.

Deuteronomy 28:21 “The LORD will make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from the land which you are going to possess.

Deuteronomy 28:22 “The LORD will strike you with consumption, with fever, with inflammation, with severe burning fever, with the sword, with scorching, and with mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish.

Deuteronomy 28:23 “And your heavens which [are] over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you [shall be] iron.

Deuteronomy 28:24 “The LORD will change the rain of your land to powder and dust; from the heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:25 “The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them; and you shall become troublesome to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Deuteronomy 28:26 “Your carcasses shall be food for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and no one shall frighten [them] away.

Deuteronomy 28:27 “The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, with the scab, and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed.

Deuteronomy 28:28 “The LORD will strike you with madness and blindness and confusion of heart.

Deuteronomy 28:29 “And you shall grope at noonday, as a blind man gropes in darkness; you shall not prosper in your ways; you shall be only oppressed and plundered continually, and no one shall save [you.]

Deuteronomy 28:30 “You shall betroth a wife, but another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house, but you shall not dwell in it; you shall plant a vineyard, but shall not gather its grapes.

Deuteronomy 28:31 “Your ox [shall be] slaughtered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it; your donkey [shall be] violently taken away from before you, and shall not be restored to you; your sheep [shall be] given to your enemies, and you shall have no one to rescue [them.]

Deuteronomy 28:32 “Your sons and your daughters [shall be] given to another people, and your eyes shall look and fail [with longing] for them all day long; and [there shall be] no strength in your hand.

Deuteronomy 28:33 “A nation whom you have not known shall eat the fruit of your land and the produce of your labor, and you shall be only oppressed and crushed continually.

Deuteronomy 28:34 “So you shall be driven mad because of the sight which your eyes see.

Deuteronomy 28:35 “The LORD will strike you in the knees and on the legs with severe boils which cannot be healed, and from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

Deuteronomy 28:36 “The LORD will bring you and the king whom you set over you to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods—wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:37 “And you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword among all nations where the LORD will drive you.

Deuteronomy 28:38 “You shall carry much seed out to the field but gather little in, for the locust shall consume it.

Deuteronomy 28:39 “You shall plant vineyards and tend [them,] but you shall neither drink [of] the wine nor gather the [grapes;] for the worms shall eat them.

Deuteronomy 28:40 “You shall have olive trees throughout all your territory, but you shall not anoint [yourself] with the oil; for your olives shall drop off.

Deuteronomy 28:41 “You shall beget sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity.

Deuteronomy 28:42 “Locusts shall consume all your trees and the produce of your land.

Deuteronomy 28:43 “The alien who [is] among you shall rise higher and higher above you, and you shall come down lower and lower.

Deuteronomy 28:44 “He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

Deuteronomy 28:45 “Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you.

Deuteronomy 28:46 “And they shall be upon you for a sign and a wonder, and on your descendants forever.

Deuteronomy 28:47 “ Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything, Deuteronomy 28:48 “therefore you shall serve your enemies, whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in need of everything; and He will put a yoke of iron on your neck until He has destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 28:49 “The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, [as swift] as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you will not understand, Deuteronomy 28:50 “a nation of fierce countenance, which does not respect the elderly nor show favor to the young.

Deuteronomy 28:51 “And they shall eat the increase of your livestock and the produce of your land, until you are destroyed; they shall not leave you grain or new wine or oil, [or] the increase of your cattle or the offspring of your flocks, until they have destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 28:52 “They shall besiege you at all your gates until your high and fortified walls, in which you trust, come down throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you at all your gates throughout all your land which the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:53 “You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you.

Deuteronomy 28:54 “The sensitive and very refined man among you will be hostile toward his brother, toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his children whom he leaves behind, Deuteronomy 28:55 “so that he will not give any of them the flesh of his children whom he will eat, because he has nothing left in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates.

Deuteronomy 28:56 “The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and sensitivity, will refuse to the husband of her bosom, and to her son and her daughter, Deuteronomy 28:57 “her placenta which comes out from between her feet and her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of everything in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates.

Deuteronomy 28:58 “ If you do not carefully observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name, THE LORD YOUR GOD, Deuteronomy 28:59 “then the LORD will bring upon you and your descendants extraordinary plagues—great and prolonged plagues—and serious and prolonged sicknesses.

Deuteronomy 28:60 “Moreover He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid, and they shall cling to you.

Deuteronomy 28:61 “Also every sickness and every plague, which [is] not written in this Book of the Law, will the LORD bring upon you until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:62 “You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven in multitude, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 28:63 “And it shall be, [that] just as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good and multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you and bring you to nothing; and you shall be plucked from off the land which you go to possess.

Deuteronomy 28:64 “ Then the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods, which neither you nor your fathers have known—wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:65 “And among those nations you shall find no rest, nor shall the sole of your foot have a resting place; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and anguish of soul.

Deuteronomy 28:66 “Your life shall hang in doubt before you; you shall fear day and night, and have no assurance of life.

Deuteronomy 28:67 “In the morning you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were evening!’ And at evening you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were morning!’ because of the fear which terrifies your heart, and because of the sight which your eyes see.

Deuteronomy 28:68 “And the LORD will take you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, ‘You shall never see it again.’ And there you shall be offered for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy [you.”]

Deuteronomy 29:1 These [are] the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

Deuteronomy 29:2 Now Moses called all Israel and said to them: “You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land—

Deuteronomy 29:3 “the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders.

Deuteronomy 29:4 “Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this [very] day.

Deuteronomy 29:5 “And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.

Deuteronomy 29:6 “You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or [similar] drink, that you may know that I [am] the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 29:7 “And when you came to this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us to battle, and we conquered them.

Deuteronomy 29:8 “We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh.

Deuteronomy 29:9 “Therefore keep the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

Deuteronomy 29:10 “ All of you stand today before the LORD your God: your leaders and your tribes and your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel, Deuteronomy 29:11 “your little ones and your wives—also the stranger who [is] in your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water—

Deuteronomy 29:12 “that you may enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath, which the LORD your God makes with you today, Deuteronomy 29:13 “that He may establish you today as a people for Himself, and [that] He may be God to you, just as He has spoken to you, and just as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 29:14 “ I make this covenant and this oath, not with you alone,

Deuteronomy 29:15 “but with [him] who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, as well as with [him] who [is] not here with us today

Deuteronomy 29:16 (for you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we came through the nations which you passed by,

Deuteronomy 29:17 and you saw their abominations and their idols which [were] among them—wood and stone and silver and gold);

Deuteronomy 29:18 “so that there may not be among you man or woman or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go [and] serve the gods of these nations, and that there may not be among you a root bearing bitterness or wormwood;

Deuteronomy 29:19 “and so it may not happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, ‘I shall have peace, even though I follow the dictates of my heart’—as though the drunkard could be included with the sober.

Deuteronomy 29:20 “The LORD would not spare him; for then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy would burn against that man, and every curse that is written in this book would settle on him, and the LORD would blot out his name from under heaven.

Deuteronomy 29:21 “And the LORD would separate him from all the tribes of Israel for adversity, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law,

Deuteronomy 29:22 “so that the coming generation of your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a far land, would say, when they see the plagues of that land and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid on it:

Deuteronomy 29:23 ‘The whole land [is] brimstone, salt, and burning; it is not sown, nor does it bear, nor does any grass grow there, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and His wrath.'

Deuteronomy 29:24 "All nations would say, 'Why has the LORD done so to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?'

Deuteronomy 29:25 "Then [people] would say: 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt;

Deuteronomy 29:26 'for they went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods that they did not know and that He had not given to them.

Deuteronomy 29:27 'Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against this land, to bring on it every curse that is written in this book.

Deuteronomy 29:28 'And the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as [it is] this day.'

Deuteronomy 29:29 "The secret [things belong] to the LORD our God, but those [things which are] revealed [belong] to us and to our children forever, that [we] may do all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30:1 "Now it shall come to pass, when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you call [them] to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God drives you,

Deuteronomy 30:2 "and you return to the LORD your God and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul, Deuteronomy 30:3 "that the LORD your God will bring you back from captivity, and have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you.

Deuteronomy 30:4 "If [any] of you are driven out to the farthest [parts] under heaven, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you.

Deuteronomy 30:5 "Then the LORD your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers.

Deuteronomy 30:6 "And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

Deuteronomy 30:7 "Also the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.

Deuteronomy 30:8 "And you will again obey the voice of the LORD and do all His commandments which I command you today.

Deuteronomy 30:9 “The LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good. For the LORD will again rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers, Deuteronomy 30:10 “if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, [and] if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 30:11 “ For this commandment which I command you today [is] not [too] mysterious for you, nor [is] it far off.

Deuteronomy 30:12 “It [is] not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend into heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’

Deuteronomy 30:13 “Nor [is] it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’

Deuteronomy 30:14 “But the word [is] very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.

Deuteronomy 30:15 “ See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, Deuteronomy 30:16 “in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess.

Deuteronomy 30:17 “But if your heart turns away so that you do not hear, and are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them, Deuteronomy 30:18 “I announce to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong [your] days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to go in and possess.

Deuteronomy 30:19 “I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, [that] I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live;

Deuteronomy 30:20 “that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He [is] your life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.”

Deuteronomy 31:1 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:2 And he said to them: “I [am] one hundred and twenty years old today. I can no longer go out and come in. Also the LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not cross over this Jordan.’

Deuteronomy 31:3 “The LORD your God Himself crosses over before you; He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua himself crosses over before you, just as the LORD has said.

Deuteronomy 31:4 “And the LORD will do to them as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites and their land, when He destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 31:5 “The LORD will give them over to you, that you may do to them according to every commandment which I have commanded you.

Deuteronomy 31:6 “Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, He [is] the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you.”

Deuteronomy 31:7 Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and of good courage, for you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it.

Deuteronomy 31:8 “And the LORD, He [is] the one who goes before you. He will be with you, He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed.”

Deuteronomy 31:9 So Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:10 And Moses commanded them, saying: “At the end of [every] seven years, at the appointed time in the year of release, at the Feast of Tabernacles, Deuteronomy 31:11 “when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

Deuteronomy 31:12 “Gather the people together, men and women and little ones, and the stranger who [is] within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn to fear the LORD your God and carefully observe all the words of this law,

Deuteronomy 31:13 “and [that] their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land which you cross the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 31:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, the days approach when you must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of meeting, that I may inaugurate him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of meeting.

Deuteronomy 31:15 Now the LORD appeared at the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood above the door of the tabernacle.

Deuteronomy 31:16 And the LORD said to Moses: “Behold, you will rest with your fathers; and this people will rise and play the harlot with the gods of the foreigners of the land, where they go [to be] among them, and they will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.

Deuteronomy 31:17 “Then My anger shall be aroused against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide My face from them, and they shall be devoured. And many evils and troubles shall befall them, so that they will say in that day, ‘Have not these evils come upon us because our God [is] not among us?’

Deuteronomy 31:18 “And I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods.

Deuteronomy 31:19 “Now therefore, write down this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel; put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for Me against the children of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:20 “When I have brought them to the land flowing with milk and honey, of which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and filled themselves and grown fat, then they will turn to other gods and serve them; and they will provoke Me and break My covenant.

Deuteronomy 31:21 “Then it shall be, when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify against them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten in the mouths of their descendants, for I know the inclination of their behavior today, even before I have brought them to the land of which I swore [to give them.”]

Deuteronomy 31:22 Therefore Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:23 Then He inaugurated Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land of which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

Deuteronomy 31:24 So it was, when Moses had completed writing the words of this law in a book, when they were finished,

Deuteronomy 31:25 that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying:

Deuteronomy 31:26 “Take this Book of the Law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there as a witness against you;

Deuteronomy 31:27 “for I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. [If] today, while I am yet alive with you, you have been rebellious against the LORD, then how much more after my death?

Deuteronomy 31:28 “Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them.

Deuteronomy 31:29 “For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.”

Deuteronomy 31:30 Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until they were ended:

Deuteronomy 32:1 “Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Deuteronomy 32:2 Let my teaching drop as the rain, My speech distill as the dew, As raindrops on the tender herb, And as showers on the grass.

Deuteronomy 32:3 For I proclaim the name of the LORD: Ascribe greatness to our God.

Deuteronomy 32:4 [He is] the Rock, His work [is] perfect; For all His ways [are] justice, A God of truth and without injustice; Righteous and upright [is] He.

Deuteronomy 32:5 “They have corrupted themselves; [They are] not His children, Because of their blemish: A perverse and crooked generation.

Deuteronomy 32:6 Do you thus deal with the LORD, O foolish and unwise people? [Is] He not your Father, [who] bought you? Has He not made you and established you?

Deuteronomy 32:7 “Remember the days of old, Consider the years of many generations. Ask your father, and he will show you; Your elders, and they will tell you:

Deuteronomy 32:8 When the Most High divided their inheritance to the nations, When He separated the sons of Adam, He set the boundaries of the peoples According to the number of the children of Israel.

Deuteronomy 32:9 For the LORD’s portion [is] His people; Jacob [is] the place of His inheritance.

Deuteronomy 32:10 “He found him in a desert land And in the wasteland, a howling wilderness; He encircled him, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eye.

Deuteronomy 32:11 As an eagle stirs up its nest, Hovers over its young, Spreading out its wings, taking them up, Carrying them on its wings,

Deuteronomy 32:12 [So] the LORD alone led him, And [there was] no foreign god with him.

Deuteronomy 32:13 “He made him ride in the heights of the earth, That he might eat the produce of the fields; He made him draw honey from the rock, And oil from the flinty rock;

Deuteronomy 32:14 Curds from the cattle, and milk of the flock, With fat of lambs; And rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, With the choicest wheat; And you drank wine, the blood of the grapes.

Deuteronomy 32:15 " But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; You grew fat, you grew thick, You are obese! Then he forsook God [who] made him, And scornfully esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

Deuteronomy 32:16 They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign [gods;] With abominations they provoked Him to anger.

Deuteronomy 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, not to God, [To gods] they did not know, To new [gods,] new arrivals That your fathers did not fear.

Deuteronomy 32:18 Of the Rock [who] begot you, you are unmindful, And have forgotten the God who fathered you.

Deuteronomy 32:19 " And when the LORD saw [it,] He spurned [them,] Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.

Deuteronomy 32:20 And He said: 'I will hide My face from them, I will see what their end [will be,] For they [are] a perverse generation, Children in whom [is] no faith.

Deuteronomy 32:21 They have provoked Me to jealousy by [what] is not God; They have moved Me to anger by their foolish idols. But I will provoke them to jealousy by [those who are] not a nation; I will move them to anger by a foolish nation.

Deuteronomy 32:22 For a fire is kindled by my anger, And shall burn to the lowest hell; It shall consume the earth with her increase, And set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Deuteronomy 32:23 ' I will heap disasters on them; I will spend My arrows on them.

Deuteronomy 32:24 [They shall be] wasted with hunger, Devoured by pestilence and bitter destruction; I will also send against them the teeth of beasts, With the poison of serpents of the dust.

Deuteronomy 32:25 The sword shall destroy outside; [There shall be] terror within For the young man and virgin, The nursing child with the man of gray hairs.

Deuteronomy 32:26 I would have said, "I will dash them in pieces, I will make the memory of them to cease from among men,"

Deuteronomy 32:27 Had I not feared the wrath of the enemy, Lest their adversaries should misunderstand, Lest they should say, "Our hand [is] high; And it is not the LORD who has done all this." '

Deuteronomy 32:28 " For they [are] a nation void of counsel, Nor [is there any] understanding in them.

Deuteronomy 32:29 Oh, that they were wise, [that] they understood this, [That] they would consider their latter end!

Deuteronomy 32:30 How could one chase a thousand, And two put ten thousand to flight, Unless their Rock had sold them, And the LORD had surrendered them?

Deuteronomy 32:31 For their rock [is] not like our Rock, Even our enemies themselves [being] judges.

Deuteronomy 32:32 For their vine [is] of the vine of Sodom And of the fields of Gomorrah; Their grapes [are] grapes of gall, Their clusters [are] bitter.

Deuteronomy 32:33 Their wine [is] the poison of serpents, And the cruel venom of cobras.

Deuteronomy 32:34 ' [Is] this not laid up in store with Me, Sealed up among My treasures?

Deuteronomy 32:35 Vengeance is Mine, and recompense; Their foot shall slip in [due] time; For the day of their calamity [is] at hand, And the things to come hasten upon them.'

Deuteronomy 32:36 "For the LORD will judge His people And have compassion on His servants, When He sees that [their] power is gone, And [there is] no one [remaining,] bond or free.

Deuteronomy 32:37 He will say: 'Where [are] their gods, The rock in which they sought refuge?

Deuteronomy 32:38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, [And] drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise and help you, [And] be your refuge.

Deuteronomy 32:39 'Now see that I, [even] I, [am] He, And [there is] no God besides Me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; Nor [is there any] who can deliver from My hand.

Deuteronomy 32:40 For I raise My hand to heaven, And say, "[As] I live forever,

Deuteronomy 32:41 If I whet My glittering sword, And My hand takes hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to My enemies, And repay those who hate Me.

Deuteronomy 32:42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood, And My sword shall devour flesh, With the blood of the slain and the captives, From the heads of the leaders of the enemy." '

Deuteronomy 32:43 "Rejoice, O Gentiles, [with] His people; For He will avenge the blood of His servants, And render vengeance to His adversaries; He will provide atonement for His land [and] His people."

Deuteronomy 32:44 So Moses came with Joshua the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.

Deuteronomy 32:45 Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, Deuteronomy 32:46 and He said to them: “Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your children to be careful to observe—all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 32:47 “For it [is] not a futile thing for you, because it [is] your life, and by this word you shall prolong [your] days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 32:48 Then the LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying:

Deuteronomy 32:49 “Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which [is] in the land of Moab, across from Jericho; view the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel as a possession;

Deuteronomy 32:50 “and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people;

Deuteronomy 32:51 “because you trespassed against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, because you did not hallow Me in the midst of the children of Israel.

Deuteronomy 32:52 “Yet you shall see the land before [you,] though you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33:1 Now this [is] the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

Deuteronomy 33:2 And he said: “The LORD came from Sinai, And dawned on them from Seir; He shone forth from Mount Paran, And He came with ten thousands of saints; From His right hand [Came] a fiery law for them.

Deuteronomy 33:3 Yes, He loves the people; All His saints [are] in Your hand; They sit down at Your feet; [Everyone] receives Your words.

Deuteronomy 33:4 Moses commanded a law for us, A heritage of the congregation of Jacob.

Deuteronomy 33:5 And He was King in Jeshurun, When the leaders of the people were gathered, All the tribes of Israel together.

Deuteronomy 33:6 “ Let Reuben live, and not die, [Nor] let his men be few.”

Deuteronomy 33:7 And this he said of Judah: “Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, And bring him to his people; Let his hands be sufficient for him, And may You be a help against his enemies.”

Deuteronomy 33:8 And of Levi he said: “[Let] Your Thummim and Your Urim [be] with Your holy one, Whom You tested at Massah, And with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah, Deuteronomy 33:9 Who says of his father and mother, ‘I have not seen them’; Nor did he acknowledge his brothers, Or know his own children; For they have observed Your word And kept Your covenant.

Deuteronomy 33:10 They shall teach Jacob Your judgments, And Israel Your law. They shall put incense before You, And a whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar.

Deuteronomy 33:11 Bless his substance, LORD, And accept the work of his hands; Strike the loins of those who rise against him, And of those who hate him, that they rise not again.”

Deuteronomy 33:12 Of Benjamin he said: “The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him, [Who] shelters him all the day long; And he shall dwell between His shoulders.”

Deuteronomy 33:13 And of Joseph he said: “Blessed of the LORD [is] his land, With the precious things of heaven, with the dew, And the deep lying beneath,

Deuteronomy 33:14 With the precious fruits of the sun, With the precious produce of the months,

Deuteronomy 33:15 With the best things of the ancient mountains, With the precious things of the everlasting hills,

Deuteronomy 33:16 With the precious things of the earth and its fullness, And the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush. Let [the blessing] come ‘on the head of Joseph, And on the crown of the head of him [who was] separate from his brothers.’

Deuteronomy 33:17 His glory [is like] a firstborn bull, And his horns [like] the horns of the wild ox; Together with them He shall push the peoples To the ends of the earth; They [are] the ten thousands of Ephraim, And they [are] the thousands of Manasseh.”

Deuteronomy 33:18 And of Zebulun he said: “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, And Issachar in your tents!

Deuteronomy 33:19 They shall call the peoples [to] the mountain; There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness; For they shall partake [of] the abundance of the seas And [of] treasures hidden in the sand.”

Deuteronomy 33:20 And of Gad he said: “Blessed [is] he who enlarges Gad; He dwells as a lion, And tears the arm and the crown of his head.

Deuteronomy 33:21 He provided the first [part] for himself, Because a lawgiver’s portion was reserved there. He came [with] the heads of the people; He administered the justice of the LORD, And His judgments with Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33:22 And of Dan he said: “Dan [is] a lion’s whelp; He shall leap from Bashan.”

Deuteronomy 33:23 And of Naphtali he said: “O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, And full of the blessing of the LORD, Possess the west and the south.”

Deuteronomy 33:24 And of Asher he said: “Asher [is] most blessed of sons; Let him be favored by his brothers, And let him dip his foot in oil.

Deuteronomy 33:25 Your sandals [shall be] iron and bronze; As your days, [so shall] your strength [be.]

Deuteronomy 33:26 “[There is] no one like the God of Jeshurun, [Who] rides the heavens to help you, And in His excellency on the clouds.

Deuteronomy 33:27 The eternal God [is your] refuge, And underneath [are] the everlasting arms; He will thrust out the enemy from before you, And will say, ‘Destroy!’

Deuteronomy 33:28 Then Israel shall dwell in safety, The fountain of Jacob alone, In a land of grain and new wine; His heavens shall also drop dew.

Deuteronomy 33:29 Happy [are] you, O Israel! Who [is] like you, a people saved by the LORD, The shield of your help And the sword of your majesty! Your enemies shall submit to you, And you shall tread down their high places.”

Deuteronomy 34:1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan,

Deuteronomy 34:2 all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea,

Deuteronomy 34:3 the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.

Deuteronomy 34:4 Then the LORD said to him, “This [is] the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have caused you to see [it] with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.”

Deuteronomy 34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 34:6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth Peor; but no one knows his grave to this day.

Deuteronomy 34:7 Moses [was] one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim nor his natural vigor diminished.

Deuteronomy 34:8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. So the days of weeping [and] mourning for Moses ended.

Deuteronomy 34:9 Now Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; so the children of Israel heeded him, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Deuteronomy 34:10 But since then there has not arisen in Israel a prophet like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

Deuteronomy 34:11 in all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, before Pharaoh, before all his servants, and in all his land,

Deuteronomy 34:12 and by all that mighty power and all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

1:1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying:

Joshua 1:2 "Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel.

Joshua 1:3 "Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses.

Joshua 1:4 "From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory.

Joshua 1:5 "No man shall [be able to] stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, [so] I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you.

Joshua 1:6 "Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

Joshua 1:7 "Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go.

Joshua 1:8 "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

Joshua 1:9 "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God [is] with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

Joshua 1:11 "Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.' "

Joshua 1:12 And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying,

Joshua 1:13 “Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest and is giving you this land.’

Joshua 1:14 “Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But you shall pass before your brethren armed, all your mighty men of valor, and help them,

Joshua 1:15 “until the LORD has given your brethren rest, as He [gave] you, and they also have taken possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD’s servant gave you on this side of the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

Joshua 1:16 So they answered Joshua, saying, “All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

Joshua 1:17 “Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses.

Joshua 1:18 “Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage.”

Joshua 2:1 Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men from Acacia Grove to spy secretly, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.” So they went, and came to the house of a harlot named Rahab, and lodged there.

Joshua 2:2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men have come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country.”

Joshua 2:3 So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country.”

Joshua 2:4 Then the woman took the two men and hid them. So she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they [were] from.

Joshua 2:5 “And it happened as the gate was being shut, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them.”

Joshua 2:6 (But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.)

Joshua 2:7 Then the men pursued them by the road to the Jordan, to the fords. And as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate.

Joshua 2:8 Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,

Joshua 2:9 and said to the men: “I know that the LORD has given you the land, that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land are fainthearted because of you.

Joshua 2:10 “For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who [were] on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

Joshua 2:11 “And as soon as we heard [these things,] our hearts melted; neither did there remain any more courage in anyone because of you, for the LORD your God, He [is] God in heaven above and on earth beneath.

Joshua 2:12 “Now therefore, I beg you, swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to my father’s house, and give me a true token,

Joshua 2:13 “and spare my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.”

Joshua 2:14 So the men answered her, “Our lives for yours, if none of you tell this business of ours. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

Joshua 2:15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house [was] on the city wall; she dwelt on the wall.

Joshua 2:16 And she said to them, “Get to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you. Hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward you may go your way.”

Joshua 2:17 So the men said to her: “We [will be] blameless of this oath of yours which you have made us swear, Joshua 2:18 “unless, [when] we come into the land, you bind this line of scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household to your own home.

Joshua 2:19 “So it shall be [that] whoever goes outside the doors of your house into the street, his blood [shall be] on his own head, and we [will be] guiltless. And whoever is with you in the house, his blood [shall be] on our head if a hand is laid on him.

Joshua 2:20 “And if you tell this business of ours, then we will be free from your oath which you made us swear.”

Joshua 2:21 Then she said, “According to your words, so [be] it.” And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.

Joshua 2:22 They departed and went to the mountain, and stayed there three days until the pursuers returned. The pursuers sought [them] all along the way, but did not find [them.]

Joshua 2:23 So the two men returned, descended from the mountain, and crossed over; and they came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all that had befallen them.

Joshua 2:24 And they said to Joshua, “Truly the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for indeed all the inhabitants of the country are fainthearted because of us.”

Joshua 3:1 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they set out from Acacia Grove and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they crossed over.

Joshua 3:2 So it was, after three days, that the officers went through the camp;

Joshua 3:3 and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, the Levites, bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it.

Joshua 3:4 “Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you must go, for you have not passed [this] way before.”

Joshua 3:5 And Joshua said to the people, “Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you.”

Joshua 3:6 Then Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, “Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over before the people.” So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

Joshua 3:7 And the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, [so] I will be with you.

Joshua 3:8 “You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you have come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, you shall stand in the Jordan.’ “

Joshua 3:9 So Joshua said to the children of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.”

Joshua 3:10 And Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God [is] among you, and [that] He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites:

Joshua 3:11 “Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over before you into the Jordan.

Joshua 3:12 “Now therefore, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from every tribe.

Joshua 3:13 “And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, [that] the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters that come down from upstream, and they shall stand as a heap.”

Joshua 3:14 So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people,

Joshua 3:15 and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest),

Joshua 3:16 that the waters which came down from upstream stood [still, and] rose in a heap very far away at Adam, the city that [is] beside Zaretan. So the waters that went down into the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, failed, [and] were cut off; and the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

Joshua 3:17 Then the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; and all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until all the people had crossed completely over the Jordan.

Joshua 4:1 And it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying:

Joshua 4:2 “Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from every tribe,

Joshua 4:3 “and command them, saying, ‘Take for yourselves twelve stones from here, out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet stood firm. You shall carry them over with you and leave them in the lodging place where you lodge tonight.’ “

Joshua 4:4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the children of Israel, one man from every tribe;

Joshua 4:5 and Joshua said to them: “Cross over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, Joshua 4:6 “that this may be a sign among you when your children ask in time to come, saying, ‘What do these stones [mean] to you?’

Joshua 4:7 “Then you shall answer them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.”

Joshua 4:8 And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

Joshua 4:9 Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day.

Joshua 4:10 So the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over.

Joshua 4:11 Then it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over, that the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people.

Joshua 4:12 And the men of Reuben, the men of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them.

Joshua 4:13 About forty thousand prepared for war crossed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho.

Joshua 4:14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.

Joshua 4:15 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

Joshua 4:16 “Command the priests who bear the ark of the Testimony to come up from the Jordan.”

Joshua 4:17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, “Come up from the Jordan.”

Joshua 4:18 And it came to pass, when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come from the midst of the Jordan, [and] the soles of the priests’ feet touched the dry land, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks as before.

Joshua 4:19 Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth [day] of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

Joshua 4:20 And those twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.

Joshua 4:21 Then he spoke to the children of Israel, saying: “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What [are] these stones?’

Joshua 4:22 “then you shall let your children know, saying, ‘Israel crossed over this Jordan on dry land’;

Joshua 4:23 “for the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed over, Joshua 4:24 “that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it [is] mighty, that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

Joshua 5:1 So it was, when all the kings of the Amorites who [were] on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites who [were] by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel until we had crossed over, that their heart melted; and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the children of Israel.

Joshua 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Israel again the second time.”

Joshua 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

Joshua 5:4 And this [is] the reason why Joshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Egypt [who were] males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Egypt.

Joshua 5:5 For all the people who came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness, on the way as they came out of Egypt, had not been circumcised.

Joshua 5:6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people [who were] men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD—to whom the LORD swore that He would not show them the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, “a land flowing with milk and honey.”

Joshua 5:7 Then Joshua circumcised their sons [whom] He raised up in their place; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

Joshua 5:8 So it was, when they had finished circumcising all the people, that they stayed in their places in the camp till they were healed.

Joshua 5:9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” Therefore the name of the place is called Gilgal to this day.

Joshua 5:10 Now the children of Israel camped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight on the plains of Jericho.

Joshua 5:11 And they ate of the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and parched grain, on the very same day.

Joshua 5:12 Then the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the produce of the land; and the children of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Canaan that year.

Joshua 5:13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a Man stood opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, “[Are] You for us or for our adversaries?”

Joshua 5:14 So He said, “No, but [as] Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and said to Him, “What does my Lord say to His servant?”

Joshua 5:15 Then the Commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand [is] holy.” And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6:1 Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in.

Joshua 6:2 And the LORD said to Joshua: “See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, [and] the mighty men of valor.

Joshua 6:3 “You shall march around the city, all [you] men of war; you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days.

Joshua 6:4 “And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.

Joshua 6:5 “It shall come to pass, when they make a long [blast] with the ram’s horn, [and] when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him.”

Joshua 6:6 Then Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:7 And he said to the people, “Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:8 So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

Joshua 6:9 The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while [the priests] continued blowing the trumpets.

Joshua 6:10 Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, “You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout.”

Joshua 6:11 So he had the ark of the LORD circle the city, going around [it] once. Then they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

Joshua 6:12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Joshua 6:13 Then seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while [the priests] continued blowing the trumpets.

Joshua 6:14 And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

Joshua 6:15 But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times.

Joshua 6:16 And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city!

Joshua 6:17 "Now the city shall be doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who [are] in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who [are] with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

Joshua 6:18 "And you, by all means abstain from the accursed things, lest you become accursed when you take of the accursed things, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it.

Joshua 6:19 "But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, [are] consecrated to the LORD; they shall come into the treasury of the LORD."

Joshua 6:20 So the people shouted when [the priests] blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

Joshua 6:21 And they utterly destroyed all that [was] in the city, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

Joshua 6:22 But Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, "Go into the harlot's house, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her."

Joshua 6:23 And the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel.

Joshua 6:24 But they burned the city and all that [was] in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

Joshua 6:25 And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father's household, and all that she had. So she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

Joshua 6:26 Then Joshua charged [them] at that time, saying, "Cursed [be] the man before the LORD who rises up and builds this city Jericho; he shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates."

Joshua 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

Joshua 7:1 But the children of Israel committed a trespass regarding the accursed things, for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed things; so the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

Joshua 7:2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which [is] beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the country." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

Joshua 7:3 And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for [the people of Ai are] few."

Joshua 7:4 So about three thousand men went up there from the people, but they fled before the men of Ai.

Joshua 7:5 And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six men, for they chased them [from] before the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent; therefore the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

Joshua 7:6 Then Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

Joshua 7:7 And Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all—to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content, and dwelt on the other side of the Jordan!

Joshua 7:8 "O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns its back before its enemies?

Joshua 7:9 "For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear [it,] and surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great name?"

Joshua 7:10 So the LORD said to Joshua: "Get up! Why do you lie thus on your face?

Joshua 7:11 "Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken some of the accursed things, and have both stolen and deceived; and they have also put [it] among their own stuff.

Joshua 7:12 “Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, [but] turned [their] backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you.

Joshua 7:13 “Get up, sanctify the people, and say, ‘Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: “[There is] an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you.”

Joshua 7:14 ‘In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your tribes. And it shall be [that] the tribe which the LORD takes shall come according to families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come man by man.

Joshua 7:15 ‘Then it shall be [that] he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.’ “

Joshua 7:16 So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

Joshua 7:17 He brought the clan of Judah, and he took the family of the Zarhites; and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

Joshua 7:18 Then he brought his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Joshua 7:19 Now Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I beg you, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession to Him, and tell me now what you have done; do not hide [it] from me.”

Joshua 7:20 And Achan answered Joshua and said, “Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I have done:

Joshua 7:21 “When I saw among the spoils a beautiful Babylonian garment, two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. And there they are, hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent, with the silver under it.”

Joshua 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.

Joshua 7:23 And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

Joshua 7:24 Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the garment, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and they brought them to the Valley of Achor.

Joshua 7:25 And Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” So all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

Joshua 7:26 Then they raised over him a great heap of stones, still there to this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor to this day.

Joshua 8:1 Now the LORD said to Joshua: “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

Joshua 8:2 “And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it.”

Joshua 8:3 So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by night.

Joshua 8:4 And he commanded them, saying: “Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready.

Joshua 8:5 “Then I and all the people who [are] with me will approach the city; and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that we shall flee before them.

Joshua 8:6 “For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, ‘[They are] fleeing before us as at the first.’ Therefore we will flee before them.

Joshua 8:7 “Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

Joshua 8:8 “And it will be, when you have taken the city, [that] you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you.”

Joshua 8:9 Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

Joshua 8:10 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

Joshua 8:11 And all the people of war who [were] with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley [lay] between them and Ai.

Joshua 8:12 So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

Joshua 8:13 And when they had set the people, all the army that [was] on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

Joshua 8:14 Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw [it,] that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he did not know that [there was] an ambush against him behind the city.

Joshua 8:15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

Joshua 8:16 So all the people who [were] in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.

Joshua 8:17 There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. So they left the city open and pursued Israel.

Joshua 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the spear that [is] in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the spear that [was] in his hand toward the city.

Joshua 8:19 So [those in] ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire.

Joshua 8:20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

Joshua 8:21 Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

Joshua 8:22 Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were [caught] in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

Joshua 8:23 But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

Joshua 8:24 And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

Joshua 8:25 So it was [that] all who fell that day, both men and women, [were] twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.

Joshua 8:26 For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

Joshua 8:27 Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

Joshua 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day.

Joshua 8:29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones [that remains] to this day.

Joshua 8:30 Now Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal,

Joshua 8:31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: “an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron [tool.”] And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

Joshua 8:32 And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.

Joshua 8:33 Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them [were] in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

Joshua 8:34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.

Joshua 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

Joshua 9:1 And it came to pass when all the kings who [were] on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of the Great Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard [about it,]

Joshua 9:2 that they gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.

Joshua 9:3 But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

Joshua 9:4 they worked craftily, and went and pretended to be ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, old wineskins torn and mended,

Joshua 9:5 old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry [and] moldy.

Joshua 9:6 And they went to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us.”

Joshua 9:7 Then the men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you dwell among us; so how can we make a covenant with you?”

Joshua 9:8 But they said to Joshua, “We [are] your servants.” And Joshua said to them, “Who [are] you, and where do you come from?”

Joshua 9:9 So they said to him: “From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt, Joshua 9:10 “and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who [were] beyond the Jordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

Joshua 9:11 “Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, “We [are] your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us.” ‘

Joshua 9:12 “This bread of ours we took hot [for] our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and moldy.

Joshua 9:13 “And these wineskins which we filled [were] new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey.”

Joshua 9:14 Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions; but they did not ask counsel of the LORD.

Joshua 9:15 So Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the rulers of the congregation swore to them.

Joshua 9:16 And it happened at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they [were] their neighbors who dwelt near them.

Joshua 9:17 Then the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities [were] Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim.

Joshua 9:18 But the children of Israel did not attack them, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation complained against the rulers.

Joshua 9:19 Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them.

Joshua 9:20 “This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them.”

Joshua 9:21 And the rulers said to them, “Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them.”

Joshua 9:22 Then Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We [are] very far from you,’ when you dwell near us?

Joshua 9:23 “Now therefore, you [are] cursed, and none of you shall be freed from being slaves—woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God.”

Joshua 9:24 So they answered Joshua and said, “Because your servants were clearly told that the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

Joshua 9:25 “And now, here we are, in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us.”

Joshua 9:26 So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them.

Joshua 9:27 And that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, in the place which He would choose, even to this day.

Joshua 10:1 Now it came to pass when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it—as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king—and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,

Joshua 10:2 that they feared greatly, because Gibeon [was] a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it [was] greater than Ai, and all its men [were] mighty.

Joshua 10:3 Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying,

Joshua 10:4 “Come up to me and help me, that we may attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.”

Joshua 10:5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [and] the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon and made war against it.

Joshua 10:6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, “Do not forsake your servants; come up to us quickly, save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us.”

Joshua 10:7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.

Joshua 10:8 And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hand; not a man of them shall stand before you.”

Joshua 10:9 Joshua therefore came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal.

Joshua 10:10 So the LORD routed them before Israel, killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, chased them along the road that goes to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

Joshua 10:11 And it happened, as they fled before Israel [and] were on the descent of Beth Horon, that the LORD cast down large hailstones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died. [There were] more who died from the hailstones than the children of Israel killed with the sword.

Joshua 10:12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel: “Sun, stand still over Gibeon; And Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon.”

Joshua 10:13 So the sun stood still, And the moon stopped, Till the people had revenge Upon their enemies. [Is] this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go [down] for about a whole day.

Joshua 10:14 And there has been no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD heeded the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:15 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 10:16 But these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

Joshua 10:17 And it was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

Joshua 10:18 So Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them.

Joshua 10:19 “And do not stay [there] yourselves, [but] pursue your enemies, and attack their rear [guard.] Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.”

Joshua 10:20 Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities.

Joshua 10:21 And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

Joshua 10:22 Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave.”

Joshua 10:23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [and] the king of Eglon.

Joshua 10:24 So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” And they drew near and put their feet on their necks.

Joshua 10:25 Then Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.”

Joshua 10:26 And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging on the trees until evening.

Joshua 10:27 So it was at the time of the going down of the sun [that] Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, cast them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave’s mouth, [which remain] until this very day.

Joshua 10:28 On that day Joshua took Makkedah, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them—all the people who [were] in it. He let none remain. He also did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah; and they fought against Libnah.

Joshua 10:30 And the LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel; he struck it and all the people who [were] in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:31 Then Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish; and they encamped against it and fought against it.

Joshua 10:32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people who [were] in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

Joshua 10:33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he left him none remaining.

Joshua 10:34 From Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it.

Joshua 10:35 They took it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; all the people who [were] in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

Joshua 10:36 So Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it.

Joshua 10:37 And they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword—its king, all its cities, and all the people who [were] in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but utterly destroyed it and all the people who [were] in it.

Joshua 10:38 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and they fought against it.

Joshua 10:39 And he took it and its king and all its cities; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the people who [were] in it. He left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.

Joshua 10:40 So Joshua conquered all the land: the mountain country and the South and the lowland and the wilderness slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded.

Joshua 10:41 And Joshua conquered them from Kadesh Barnea as far as Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even as far as Gibeon.

Joshua 10:42 All these kings and their land Joshua took at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:43 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11:1 And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor heard [these things,] that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,

Joshua 11:2 and to the kings who [were] from the north, in the mountains, in the plain south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,

Joshua 11:3 to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the mountains, and the Hivite below Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

Joshua 11:4 So they went out, they and all their armies with them, [as] many people [as] the sand that [is] on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots.

Joshua 11:5 And when all these kings had met together, they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

Joshua 11:6 But the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”

Joshua 11:7 So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and they attacked them.

Joshua 11:8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who defeated them and chased them to Greater Sidon, to the Brook Misrephoth, and to the Valley of Mizpah eastward; they attacked them until they left none of them remaining.

Joshua 11:9 So Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

Joshua 11:10 Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.

Joshua 11:11 And they struck all the people who [were] in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying [them.] There was none left breathing. Then he burned Hazor with fire.

Joshua 11:12 So all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took and struck with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

Joshua 11:13 But [as for] the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only, [which] Joshua burned.

Joshua 11:14 And all the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the children of Israel took as booty for themselves; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they left none breathing.

Joshua 11:15 As the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:16 Thus Joshua took all this land: the mountain country, all the South, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, and the Jordan plain—the mountains of Israel and its lowlands,

Joshua 11:17 from Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, even as far as Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings, and struck them down and killed them.

Joshua 11:18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

Joshua 11:19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. All [the others] they took in battle.

Joshua 11:20 For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might utterly destroy them, [and] that they might receive no mercy, but that He might destroy them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:21 And at that time Joshua came and cut off the Anakim from the mountains: from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.

Joshua 11:22 None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel; they remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.

Joshua 11:23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land rested from war.

Joshua 12:1 These [are] the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain:

Joshua 12:2 [One king was] Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon [and] ruled half of Gilead, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, [which is] the border of the Ammonites,

Joshua 12:3 and the eastern Jordan plain from the Sea of Chinneroth as far as the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

Joshua 12:4 [The other king was] Og king of Bashan and his territory, [who was] of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

Joshua 12:5 and reigned over Mount Hermon, over Salcah, over all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and over half of Gilead [to] the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Joshua 12:6 These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and Moses the servant of the LORD had given it [as] a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 12:7 And these [are] the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel conquered on this side of the Jordan, on the west, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon as far as Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel [as] a possession according to their divisions, Joshua 12:8 in the mountain country, in the lowlands, in the [Jordan] plain, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the South—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

Joshua 12:9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which [is] beside Bethel, one;

Joshua 12:10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

Joshua 12:11 the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

Joshua 12:12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

Joshua 12:13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

Joshua 12:14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

Joshua 12:15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

Joshua 12:16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

Joshua 12:17 the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;

Joshua 12:18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

Joshua 12:19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

Joshua 12:20 the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

Joshua 12:21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

Joshua 12:22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

Joshua 12:23 the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of the people of Gilgal, one;

Joshua 12:24 the king of Tirzah, one—all the kings, thirty-one.

Joshua 13:1 Now Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: "You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.

Joshua 13:2 "This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all [that of] the Geshurites,

Joshua 13:3 "from Sihor, which [is] east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward ([which] is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites;

Joshua 13:4 "from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;

Joshua 13:5 "the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath;

Joshua 13:6 "all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as the Brook Misrephoth, [and] all the Sidonians—them I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only divide it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

Joshua 13:7 “Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh.”

Joshua 13:8 With the other half tribe the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses had given them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD had given them:

Joshua 13:9 from Aroer which [is] on the bank of the River Arnon, and the town that [is] in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon;

Joshua 13:10 all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the children of Ammon;

Joshua 13:11 Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salcah;

Joshua 13:12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants; for Moses had defeated and cast out these.

Joshua 13:13 Nevertheless the children of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

Joshua 13:14 Only to the tribe of Levi he had given no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire [are] their inheritance, as He said to them.

Joshua 13:15 And Moses had given to the tribe of the children of Reuben [an inheritance] according to their families.

Joshua 13:16 Their territory was from Aroer, which [is] on the bank of the River Arnon, and the city that [is] in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain by Medeba;

Joshua 13:17 Heshbon and all its cities that [are] in the plain: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon,

Joshua 13:18 Jahaza, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

Joshua 13:19 Kirjathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the mountain of the valley,

Joshua 13:20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth—

Joshua 13:21 all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses had struck with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who [were] princes of Sihon dwelling in the country.

Joshua 13:22 The children of Israel also killed with the sword Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, among those who were killed by them.

Joshua 13:23 And the border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This [was] the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Joshua 13:24 Moses also had given [an inheritance] to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families.

Joshua 13:25 Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, which [is] before Rabbah,

Joshua 13:26 and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir,

Joshua 13:27 and in the valley Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as [its] border, as far as the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth, on the other side of the Jordan eastward.

Joshua 13:28 This [is] the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Joshua 13:29 Moses also had given [an inheritance] to half the tribe of Manasseh; it was for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families:

Joshua 13:30 Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

Joshua 13:31 half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, [were] for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir according to their families.

Joshua 13:32 These [are the areas] which Moses had distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward.

Joshua 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel [was] their inheritance, as He had said to them.

Joshua 14:1 These [are the areas] which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed as an inheritance to them.

Joshua 14:2 Their inheritance [was] by lot, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

Joshua 14:3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of the Jordan; but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them.

Joshua 14:4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell [in,] with their common-lands for their livestock and their property.

Joshua 14:5 As the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.

Joshua 14:6 Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him: “You know the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning you and me in Kadesh Barnea.

Joshua 14:7 “I [was] forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as [it was] in my heart.

Joshua 14:8 “Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

Joshua 14:9 “So Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children’s forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.’

Joshua 14:10 “And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years, ever since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel wandered in the wilderness; and now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old.

Joshua 14:11 “As yet I [am as] strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength [was] then, so now [is] my strength for war, both for going out and for coming in.

Joshua 14:12 “Now therefore, give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim [were] there, and [that] the cities [were] great [and] fortified. It may be that the LORD [will be] with me, and I shall be able to drive them out as the LORD said.”

Joshua 14:13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.

Joshua 14:14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

Joshua 14:15 And the name of Hebron formerly was Kirjath Arba ([Arba was] the greatest man among the Anakim). Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15:1 So [this] was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families: The border of Edom at the Wilderness of Zin southward [was] the extreme southern boundary.

Joshua 15:2 And their southern border began at the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward.

Joshua 15:3 Then it went out to the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, passed along to Zin, ascended on the south side of Kadesh

Barnea, passed along to Hezron, went up to Adar, and went around to Karkaa.

Joshua 15:4 [From there] it passed toward Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.

Joshua 15:5 The east border [was] the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. And the border on the northern quarter [began] at the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.

Joshua 15:6 The border went up to Beth Hoglah and passed north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

Joshua 15:7 Then the border went up toward Debir from the Valley of Achor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which [is] before the Ascent of Adummim, which [is] on the south side of the valley. The border continued toward the waters of En Shemesh and ended at En Rogel.

Joshua 15:8 And the border went up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the southern slope of the Jebusite [city] (which [is] Jerusalem). The border went up to the top of the mountain that [lies] before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which [is] at the end of the Valley of Rephaim northward.

Joshua 15:9 Then the border went around from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and extended to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around to Baalah (which [is] Kirjath Jearim).

Joshua 15:10 Then the border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (which [is] Chesalon), went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed on to Timnah.

Joshua 15:11 And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward. Then the border went around to Shicron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and extended to Jabneel; and the border ended at the sea.

Joshua 15:12 The west border [was] the coastline of the Great Sea. This [is] the boundary of the children of Judah all around according to their families.

Joshua 15:13 Now to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a share among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, [namely,] Kirjath Arba, which [is] Hebron ([Arba was] the father of Anak).

Joshua 15:14 Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak from there: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

Joshua 15:15 Then he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir (formerly the name of Debir [was] Kirjath Sepher).

Joshua 15:16 And Caleb said, “He who attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife.”

Joshua 15:17 So Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

Joshua 15:18 Now it was so, when she came [to him,] that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So she dismounted from [her] donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

Joshua 15:19 She answered, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.” So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Joshua 15:20 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families:

Joshua 15:21 The cities at the limits of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the border of Edom in the South, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Joshua 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Joshua 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Joshua 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Joshua 15:25 Hazor, Hadattah, Kerioth, Hezron (which [is] Hazor),

Joshua 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Joshua 15:27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,

Joshua 15:28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Bizjothjah,

Joshua 15:29 Baalah, Ijim, Ezem,

Joshua 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,

Joshua 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Joshua 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities [are] twenty-nine, with their villages.

Joshua 15:33 In the lowland: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,

Joshua 15:34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,

Joshua 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,

Joshua 15:36 Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad,

Joshua 15:38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,

Joshua 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,

Joshua 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmas, Kithlish,

Joshua 15:41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

Joshua 15:43 Jiphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,

Joshua 15:44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:45 Ekron, with its towns and villages;

Joshua 15:46 from Ekron to the sea, all that [lay] near Ashdod, with their villages;

Joshua 15:47 Ashdod with its towns and villages, Gaza with its towns and villages—as far as the Brook of Egypt and the Great Sea with [its] coastline.

Joshua 15:48 And in the mountain country: Shamir, Jattir, Sochoh,

Joshua 15:49 Dannah, Kirjath Sannah (which [is] Debir),

Joshua 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,

Joshua 15:51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshean,

Joshua 15:53 Janum, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

Joshua 15:54 Humtah, Kirjath Arba (which [is] Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

Joshua 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

Joshua 15:57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,

Joshua 15:59 Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages;

Joshua 15:60 Kirjath Baal (which [is] Kirjath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:61 In the wilderness: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,

Joshua 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En Gedi: six cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:63 As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Joshua 16:1 The lot fell to the children of Joseph from the Jordan, by Jericho, to the waters of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through the mountains to Bethel,

Joshua 16:2 then went out from Bethel to Luz, passed along to the border of the Archites at Ataroth, Joshua 16:3 and went down westward to the boundary of the Japhletites, as far as the boundary of Lower Beth Horon to Gezer; and it ended at the sea.

Joshua 16:4 So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

Joshua 16:5 The border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was [thus:] The border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth Addar as far as Upper Beth Horon.

Joshua 16:6 And the border went out toward the sea on the north side of Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah.

Joshua 16:7 Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarah, reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.

Joshua 16:8 The border went out from Tappuah westward to the Brook Kanah, and it ended at the sea. This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families.

Joshua 16:9 The separate cities for the children of Ephraim [were] among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

Joshua 16:10 And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced laborers.

Joshua 17:1 There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he [was] the firstborn of Joseph: [namely] for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war; therefore he was given Gilead and Bashan.

Joshua 17:2 And there was [a lot] for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, the children of Hepher, and the children of Shemida; these [were] the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

Joshua 17:3 But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these [are] the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Joshua 17:4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers.

Joshua 17:5 Ten shares fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which [were] on the other side of the Jordan, Joshua 17:6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

Joshua 17:7 And the territory of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, that [lies] east of Shechem; and the border went along south to the inhabitants of En Tappuah.

Joshua 17:8 Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh [belonged] to the children of Ephraim.

Joshua 17:9 And the border descended to the Brook Kanah, southward to the brook. These cities of Ephraim [are] among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh [was] on the north side of the brook; and it ended at the sea.

Joshua 17:10 Southward [it was] Ephraim's, northward [it was] Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. Manasseh's territory was adjoining Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

Joshua 17:11 And in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth Shean and its towns, Ibleam and its towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three hilly regions.

Joshua 17:12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out [the inhabitants of] those cities, but the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

Joshua 17:13 And it happened, when the children of Israel grew strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

Joshua 17:14 Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given us [only] one lot and one share to inherit, since we [are] a great people, inasmuch as the LORD has blessed us until now?"

Joshua 17:15 So Joshua answered them, "If you [are] a great people, [then] go up to the forest [country] and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the mountains of Ephraim are too confined for you."

Joshua 17:16 But the children of Joseph said, "The mountain country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, [both those] who [are] of Beth Shean and its towns and [those] who [are] of the Valley of Jezreel."

Joshua 17:17 And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—saying, "You [are] a great people and have great power; you shall not have [only] one lot, Joshua 17:18 "but the mountain country shall be yours. Although it [is] wooded, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots [and] are strong.”

Joshua 18:1 Now the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them.

Joshua 18:2 But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.

Joshua 18:3 Then Joshua said to the children of Israel: “How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you?

Joshua 18:4 “Pick out from among you three men for [each] tribe, and I will send them; they shall rise and go through the land, survey it according to their inheritance, and come [back] to me.

Joshua 18:5 “And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall remain in their territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall remain in their territory on the north.

Joshua 18:6 “You shall therefore survey the land in seven parts and bring [the survey] here to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

Joshua 18:7 “But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the LORD [is] their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

Joshua 18:8 Then the men arose to go away; and Joshua charged those who went to survey the land, saying, “Go, walk through the land, survey it, and come back to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

Joshua 18:9 So the men went, passed through the land, and wrote the survey in a book in seven parts by cities; and they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh.

Joshua 18:10 Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

Joshua 18:11 Now the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot came out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

Joshua 18:12 Their border on the north side began at the Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the mountains westward; it ended at the Wilderness of Beth Aven.

Joshua 18:13 The border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz (which [is] Bethel) southward; and the border descended to Ataroth Addar, near the hill that [lies] on the south side of Lower Beth Horon.

Joshua 18:14 Then the border extended around the west side to the south, from the hill that [lies] before Beth Horon southward; and it ended at Kirjath Baal (which [is] Kirjath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This [was] the west side.

Joshua 18:15 The south side [began] at the end of Kirjath Jearim, and the border extended on the west and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.

Joshua 18:16 Then the border came down to the end of the mountain that [lies] before the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which [is] in the Valley of the Rephaim on the north, descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite [city] on the south, and descended to En Rogel.

Joshua 18:17 And it went around from the north, went out to En Shemesh, and extended toward Geliloth, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

Joshua 18:18 Then it passed along toward the north side of Arabah, and went down to Arabah.

Joshua 18:19 And the border passed along to the north side of Beth Hoglah; then the border ended at the north bay at the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This [was] the southern boundary.

Joshua 18:20 The Jordan was its border on the east side. This [was] the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its boundaries all around, according to their families.

Joshua 18:21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

Joshua 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Joshua 18:23 Avim, Parah, Ophrah,

Joshua 18:24 Chephar Haammoni, Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages;

Joshua 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Joshua 18:26 Mizpah, Chephirah, Mozah,

Joshua 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

Joshua 18:28 Zelah, Eleph, Jebus (which [is] Jerusalem), Gibeath, [and] Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Joshua 19:1 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.

Joshua 19:2 They had in their inheritance Beersheba (Sheba), Moladah, Joshua 19:3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,

Joshua 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Joshua 19:5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,

Joshua 19:6 Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their villages;

Joshua 19:7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their villages;

Joshua 19:8 and all the villages that [were] all around these cities as far as Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

Joshua 19:9 The inheritance of the children of Simeon [was included] in the share of the children of Judah, for the share of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had [their] inheritance within the inheritance of that people.

Joshua 19:10 The third lot came out for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.

Joshua 19:11 Their border went toward the west and to Maralah, went to Dabbasheth, and extended along the brook that is east of Jokneam.

Joshua 19:12 Then from Sarid it went eastward toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth Tabor, and went out toward Daberath, bypassing Japhia.

Joshua 19:13 And from there it passed along on the east of Gath Hepher, toward Eth Kazin, and extended to Rimmon, which borders on Neah.

Joshua 19:14 Then the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and it ended in the Valley of Jiphthah El.

Joshua 19:15 Included were Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:16 This [was] the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:17 The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

Joshua 19:18 And their territory went to Jezreel, and [included] Chesulloth, Shunem,

Joshua 19:19 Haphraim, Shion, Anaharath,

Joshua 19:20 Rabbith, Kishion, Abez,

Joshua 19:21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez.

Joshua 19:22 And the border reached to Tabor, Shahazimah, and Beth Shemesh; their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:23 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Joshua 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

Joshua 19:25 And their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,

Joshua 19:26 Alammelech, Amad, and Mishal; it reached to Mount Carmel westward, along [the Brook] Shihor Libnath.

Joshua 19:27 It turned toward the sunrise to Beth Dagon; and it reached to Zebulun and to the Valley of Jiphthah El, then northward beyond Beth Emek and Neiel, bypassing Cabul [which was] on the left, Joshua 19:28 including Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.

Joshua 19:29 And the border turned to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre; then the border turned to Hosah, and ended at the sea by the region of Achzib.

Joshua 19:30 Also Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob [were included:] twenty-two cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:31 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

Joshua 19:33 And their border began at Heleph, enclosing the territory from the terebinth tree in Zaanannim, Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; it ended at the Jordan.

Joshua 19:34 From Heleph the border extended westward to Aznoth Tabor, and went out from there toward Hukkok; it adjoined Zebulun on the south side and Asher on the west side, and ended at Judah by the Jordan toward the sunrise.

Joshua 19:35 And the fortified cities [are] Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,

Joshua 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Joshua 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

Joshua 19:38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:39 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Joshua 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

Joshua 19:41 And the territory of their inheritance was Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,

Joshua 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Jethlah,

Joshua 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Joshua 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Joshua 19:45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,

Joshua 19:46 Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the region near Joppa.

Joshua 19:47 And the border of the children of Dan went beyond these, because the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem and took it; and they struck it with the edge of the sword, took possession of it, and dwelt in it. They called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

Joshua 19:48 This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:49 When they had made an end of dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

Joshua 19:50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

Joshua 19:51 These [were] the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

Joshua 20:1 The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying,

Joshua 20:2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

Joshua 20:3 ‘that the slayer who kills a person accidentally [or] unintentionally may flee there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

Joshua 20:4 ‘And when he flees to one of those cities, and stands at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declares his case in the hearing of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

Joshua 20:5 ‘Then if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him beforehand.

Joshua 20:6 ‘And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, [and] until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.’ “

Joshua 20:7 So they appointed Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba (which [is] Hebron) in the mountains of Judah.

Joshua 20:8 And on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 20:9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwelt among them, that whoever killed a person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Joshua 21:1 Then the heads of the fathers' [houses] of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' [houses] of the tribes of the children of Israel.

Joshua 21:2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for our livestock."

Joshua 21:3 So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common-lands:

Joshua 21:4 Now the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the children of Aaron the priest, [who were] of the Levites, had thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin.

Joshua 21:5 The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 21:6 And the children of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Joshua 21:7 The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.

Joshua 21:8 And the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

Joshua 21:9 So they gave from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon these cities which are designated by name,

Joshua 21:10 which were for the children of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, [who were] of the children of Levi; for the lot was theirs first.

Joshua 21:11 And they gave them Kirjath Arba ([Arba was] the father of Anak), which [is] Hebron, in the mountains of Judah, with the common-land surrounding it.

Joshua 21:12 But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

Joshua 21:13 Thus to the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Libnah with its common-land,

Joshua 21:14 Jattir with its common-land, Eshtemoa with its common-land,

Joshua 21:15 Holon with its common-land, Debir with its common-land,

Joshua 21:16 Ain with its common-land, Juttah with its common-land, and Beth Shemesh with its common-land: nine cities from those two tribes;

Joshua 21:17 and from the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its common-land, Geba with its common-land,

Joshua 21:18 Anathoth with its common-land, and Almon with its common-land: four cities.

Joshua 21:19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, [were] thirteen cities with their common-lands.

Joshua 21:20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, the rest of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot from the tribe of Ephraim.

Joshua 21:21 For they gave them Shechem with its common-land in the mountains of Ephraim (a city of refuge for the slayer), Gezer with its common-land,

Joshua 21:22 Kibzaim with its common-land, and Beth Horon with its common-land: four cities;

Joshua 21:23 and from the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its common-land, Gibbethon with its common-land,

Joshua 21:24 Aijalon with its common-land, [and] Gath Rimmon with its common-land: four cities;

Joshua 21:25 and from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with its common-land and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: two cities.

Joshua 21:26 All the ten cities with their common-lands were for the rest of the families of the children of Kohath.

Joshua 21:27 Also to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the [other] half-tribe of Manasseh, [they gave] Golan in Bashan with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), and Be Eshterah with its common-land: two cities;

Joshua 21:28 and from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its common-land, Daberath with its common-land,

Joshua 21:29 Jarmuth with its common-land, [and] En Gannim with its common-land: four cities;

Joshua 21:30 and from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its common-land, Abdon with its common-land,

Joshua 21:31 Helkath with its common-land, and Rehob with its common-land: four cities;

Joshua 21:32 and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Hammoth Dor with its common-land, and Kartan with its common-land: three cities.

Joshua 21:33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families [were] thirteen cities with their common-lands.

Joshua 21:34 And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its common-land, Kartah with its common-land,

Joshua 21:35 Dimnah with its common-land, [and] Nahalal with its common-land: four cities;

Joshua 21:36 and from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its common-land, Jahaz with its common-land,

Joshua 21:37 Kedemoth with its common-land, and Mephaath with its common-land: four cities;

Joshua 21:38 and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Mahanaim with its common-land,

Joshua 21:39 Heshbon with its common-land, [and] Jazer with its common-land: four cities in all.

Joshua 21:40 So all the cities for the children of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites, were [by] their lot twelve cities.

Joshua 21:41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel [were] forty-eight cities with their common-lands.

Joshua 21:42 Every one of these cities had its common-land surrounding it; thus [were] all these cities.

Joshua 21:43 So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it.

Joshua 21:44 The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

Joshua 21:45 Not a word failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

Joshua 22:1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh,

Joshua 22:2 and said to them: "You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.

Joshua 22:3 "You have not left your brethren these many days, up to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

Joshua 22:4 "And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brethren, as He promised them; now therefore, return and go to your tents [and] to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Joshua 22:5 "But take careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul."

Joshua 22:6 So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

Joshua 22:7 Now to half the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the [other] half of it Joshua gave [a possession] among their brethren on this side of the Jordan, westward. And indeed, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them,

Joshua 22:8 and spoke to them, saying, "Return with much riches to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren."

Joshua 22:9 So the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which [is] in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Joshua 22:10 And when they came to the region of the Jordan which [is] in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan—a great, impressive altar.

Joshua 22:11 Now the children of Israel heard [someone] say, "Behold, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan—on the children of Israel's side."

Joshua 22:12 And when the children of Israel heard [of it,] the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh to go to war against them.

Joshua 22:13 Then the children of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead,

Joshua 22:14 and with him ten rulers, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Israel; and each one [was] the head of the house of his father among the divisions of Israel.

Joshua 22:15 Then they came to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,

Joshua 22:16 "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: 'What treachery [is] this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, that you might rebel this day against the LORD?

Joshua 22:17 '[Is] the iniquity of Peor not enough for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

Joshua 22:18 'but that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it shall be, if you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.

Joshua 22:19 'Nevertheless, if the land of your possession [is] unclean, [then] cross over to the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.

Joshua 22:20 'Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.' "

Joshua 22:21 Then the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the divisions of Israel:

Joshua 22:22 "The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows, and let Israel itself know—if [it is] in rebellion, or if in treachery against the LORD, do not save us this day.

Joshua 22:23 "If we have built ourselves an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer on it burnt offerings or grain offerings, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself require [an account.]

Joshua 22:24 "But in fact we have done it for fear, for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your descendants may speak to our descendants, saying, "What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?

Joshua 22:25 “For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between you and us, [you] children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no part in the LORD.” So your descendants would make our descendants cease fearing the LORD.’

Joshua 22:26 “Therefore we said, ‘Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice,

Joshua 22:27 ‘but [that] it [may be] a witness between you and us and our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your descendants may not say to our descendants in time to come, “You have no part in the LORD.” ‘

Joshua 22:28 “Therefore we said that it will be, when they say [this] to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, ‘Here is the replica of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices; but it [is] a witness between you and us.’

Joshua 22:29 “Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn from following the LORD this day, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God which [is] before His tabernacle.”

Joshua 22:30 Now when Phinehas the priest and the rulers of the congregation, the heads of the divisions of Israel who [were] with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

Joshua 22:31 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh, “This day we perceive that the LORD [is] among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.”

Joshua 22:32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought back word to them.

Joshua 22:33 So the thing pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God; they spoke no more of going against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

Joshua 22:34 The children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar, [Witness,] “For [it is] a witness between us that the LORD [is] God.”

Joshua 23:1 Now it came to pass, a long time after the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old, advanced in age.

Joshua 23:2 And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them: “I am old, advanced in age.

Joshua 23:3 “You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God [is] He who has fought for you.

Joshua 23:4 “See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward.

Joshua 23:5 “And the LORD your God will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

Joshua 23:6 “Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, lest you turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left,

Joshua 23:7 “[and] lest you go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause [anyone] to swear [by them;] you shall not serve them nor bow down to them, Joshua 23:8 “but you shall hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

Joshua 23:9 “For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations; but [as for] you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day.

Joshua 23:10 “One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God [is] He who fights for you, as He promised you.

Joshua 23:11 “Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

Joshua 23:12 “Or else, if indeed you do go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you, Joshua 23:13 “know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:14 “ Behold, this day I [am] going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed.

Joshua 23:15 “Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you all harmful things, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:16 “When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

Joshua 24:1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua 24:2 And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Your fathers, [including] Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of the River in old times; and they served other gods.

Joshua 24:3 ‘Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.

Joshua 24:4 ‘To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

Joshua 24:5 ‘Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterward I brought you out.

Joshua 24:6 ‘Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

Joshua 24:7 ‘So they cried out to the LORD; and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness a long time.

Joshua 24:8 ‘And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you.

Joshua 24:9 ‘Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

Joshua 24:10 ‘But I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand.

Joshua 24:11 ‘Then you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought against you—[also] the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I delivered them into your hand.

Joshua 24:12 'I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, [also] the two kings of the Amorites, [but] not with your sword or with your bow.

Joshua 24:13 'I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; you eat of the vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.'

Joshua 24:14 " Now therefore, fear the LORD, serve Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD!

Joshua 24:15 "And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that [were] on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

Joshua 24:16 So the people answered and said: "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods;

Joshua 24:17 "for the LORD our God [is] He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed.

Joshua 24:18 "And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, including the Amorites who dwelt in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He [is] our God."

Joshua 24:19 But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD, for He [is] a holy God. He [is] a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

Joshua 24:20 "If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you, after He has done you good."

Joshua 24:21 And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve the LORD!"

Joshua 24:22 So Joshua said to the people, "You [are] witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve Him." And they said, "[We are] witnesses!"

Joshua 24:23 "Now therefore," [he said,] "put away the foreign gods which [are] among you, and incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel."

Joshua 24:24 And the people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey!"

Joshua 24:25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

Joshua 24:26 Then Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. And he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak that [was] by the sanctuary of the LORD.

Joshua 24:27 And Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us. It shall therefore be a witness to you, lest you deny your God.”

Joshua 24:28 So Joshua let the people depart, each to his own inheritance.

Joshua 24:29 Now it came to pass after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, [being] one hundred and ten years old.

Joshua 24:30 And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Serah, which [is] in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.

Joshua 24:31 Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had known all the works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

Joshua 24:32 The bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, they buried at Shechem, in the plot of ground which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for one hundred pieces of silver, and which had become an inheritance of the children of Joseph.

Joshua 24:33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in a hill [belonging to] Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the mountains of Ephraim.

Judges

1:1 Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, “Who shall be first to go up for us against the Canaanites to fight against them?”

Judges 1:2 And the LORD said, “Judah shall go up. Indeed I have delivered the land into his hand.”

Judges 1:3 So Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me to my allotted territory, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory.” And Simeon went with him.

Judges 1:4 Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at Bezek.

Judges 1:5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him; and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

Judges 1:6 Then Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Judges 1:7 And Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather [scraps] under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me.” Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

Judges 1:8 Now the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it; they struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.

Judges 1:9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the mountains, in the South, and in the lowland.

Judges 1:10 Then Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron [was] formerly Kirjath Arba.) And they killed Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

Judges 1:11 From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The name of Debir [was] formerly Kirjath Sepher.)

Judges 1:12 Then Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife.”

Judges 1:13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

Judges 1:14 Now it happened, when she came [to him,] that she urged him to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted from [her] donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

Judges 1:15 So she said to him, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.” And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Judges 1:16 Now the children of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms with the children of Judah into the Wilderness of Judah, which [lies] in the South [near] Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

Judges 1:17 And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they attacked the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.

Judges 1:18 Also Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.

Judges 1:19 So the LORD was with Judah. And they drove out the mountaineers, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the lowland, because they had chariots of iron.

Judges 1:20 And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said. Then he expelled from there the three sons of Anak.

Judges 1:21 But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; so the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

Judges 1:22 And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD [was] with them.

Judges 1:23 So the house of Joseph sent men to spy out Bethel. (The name of the city [was] formerly Luz.)

Judges 1:24 And when the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, “Please show us the entrance to the city, and we will show you mercy.”

Judges 1:25 So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go.

Judges 1:26 And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which [is] its name to this day.

Judges 1:27 However, Manasseh did not drive out [the inhabitants of] Beth Shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

Judges 1:28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites under tribute, but did not completely drive them out.

Judges 1:29 Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; so the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

Judges 1:30 Nor did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites dwelt among them, and were put under tribute.

Judges 1:31 Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob.

Judges 1:32 So the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

Judges 1:33 Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were put under tribute to them.

Judges 1:34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley;

Judges 1:35 and the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim; yet when the strength of the house of Joseph became greater, they were put under tribute.

Judges 1:36 Now the boundary of the Amorites [was] from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela, and upward.

Judges 2:1 Then the Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: “I led you up from Egypt and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, ‘I will never break My covenant with you.

Judges 2:2 ‘And you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.’ But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this?

Judges 2:3 “Therefore I also said, ‘I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be [thorns] in your side, and their gods shall be a snare to you.’ “

Judges 2:4 So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

Judges 2:5 Then they called the name of that place Bochim; and they sacrificed there to the LORD.

Judges 2:6 And when Joshua had dismissed the people, the children of Israel went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

Judges 2:7 So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

Judges 2:8 Now Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died [when he was] one hundred and ten years old.

Judges 2:9 And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Heres, in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.

Judges 2:10 When all that generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD nor the work which He had done for Israel.

Judges 2:11 Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals;

Judges 2:12 and they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; and they followed other gods from [among] the gods of the people who [were] all around them, and they bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.

Judges 2:13 They forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.

Judges 2:14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. So He delivered them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

Judges 2:15 Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for calamity, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.

Judges 2:16 Nevertheless, the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them.

Judges 2:17 Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so.

Judges 2:18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.

Judges 2:19 And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.

Judges 2:20 Then the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded My voice, Judges 2:21 “I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

Judges 2:22 “so that through them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept [them,] or not.”

Judges 2:23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges 3:1 Now these [are] the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, [that is,] all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan

Judges 3:2 ([this was] only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it),

Judges 3:3 [namely,] five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

Judges 3:4 And they were [left, that He might] test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

Judges 3:5 Thus the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Judges 3:6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons; and they served their gods.

Judges 3:7 So the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and Asherahs.

Judges 3:8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.

Judges 3:9 When the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

Judges 3:10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim.

Judges 3:11 So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Judges 3:12 And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

Judges 3:13 Then he gathered to himself the people of Ammon and Amalek, went and defeated Israel, and took possession of the City of Palms.

Judges 3:14 So the children of Israel served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.

Judges 3:15 But when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them: Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. By him the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

Judges 3:16 Now Ehud made himself a dagger (it was double-edged and a cubit in length) and fastened it under his clothes on his right thigh.

Judges 3:17 So he brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. (Now Eglon [was] a very fat man.)

Judges 3:18 And when he had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried the tribute.

Judges 3:19 But he himself turned back from the stone images that [were] at Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." He said, "Keep silence!" And all who attended him went out from him.

Judges 3:20 And Ehud came to him (now he was sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." So he arose from [his] seat.

Judges 3:21 Then Ehud reached with his left hand, took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.

Judges 3:22 Even the hilt went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and his entrails came out.

Judges 3:23 Then Ehud went out through the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

Judges 3:24 When he had gone out, Eglon’s servants came to look, and [to their] surprise, the doors of the upper room were locked. So they said, “He is probably attending to his needs in the cool chamber.”

Judges 3:25 So they waited till they were embarrassed, and still he had not opened the doors of the upper room. Therefore they took the key and opened [them.] And there was their master, fallen dead on the floor.

Judges 3:26 But Ehud had escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the stone images and escaped to Seirah.

Judges 3:27 And it happened, when he arrived, that he blew the trumpet in the mountains of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountains; and he led them.

Judges 3:28 Then he said to them, “Follow [me,] for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.” So they went down after him, seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over.

Judges 3:29 And at that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all stout men of valor; not a man escaped.

Judges 3:30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

Judges 3:31 After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad; and he also delivered Israel.

Judges 4:1 When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD.

Judges 4:2 So the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army [was] Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth Hagoyim.

Judges 4:3 And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD; for Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he harshly oppressed the children of Israel.

Judges 4:4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time.

Judges 4:5 And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

Judges 4:6 Then she sent and called for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, ‘Go and deploy [troops] at Mount Tabor; take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun;

Judges 4:7 ‘and against you I will deploy Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude at the River Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand’?”

Judges 4:8 And Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go!”

Judges 4:9 So she said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

Judges 4:10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; he went up with ten thousand men under his command, and Deborah went up with him.

Judges 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite, of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent near the terebinth tree at Zaanaim, which [is] beside Kedesh.

Judges 4:12 And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

Judges 4:13 So Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who [were] with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the River Kishon.

Judges 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this [is] the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

Judges 4:15 And the LORD routed Sisera and all [his] chariots and all [his] army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from [his] chariot and fled away on foot.

Judges 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

Judges 4:17 However, Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for [there was] peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

Judges 4:18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear.” And when he had turned aside with her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket.

Judges 4:19 Then he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.” So she opened a jug of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him.

Judges 4:20 And he said to her, “Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there any man here?’ you shall say, ‘No.’ “

Judges 4:21 Then Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

Judges 4:22 And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, I will show you the man whom you seek.” And when he went into her [tent,] there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in his temple.

Judges 4:23 So on that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan in the presence of the children of Israel.

Judges 4:24 And the hand of the children of Israel grew stronger and stronger against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Judges 5:1 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

Judges 5:2 “When leaders lead in Israel, When the people willingly offer themselves, Bless the LORD!

Judges 5:3 “Hear, O kings! Give ear, O princes! I, [even] I, will sing to the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

Judges 5:4 “LORD, when You went out from Seir, When You marched from the field of Edom, The earth trembled and the heavens poured, The clouds also poured water;

Judges 5:5 The mountains gushed before the LORD, This Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.

Judges 5:6 “In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath, In the days of Jael, The highways were deserted, And the travelers walked along the byways.

Judges 5:7 Village life ceased, it ceased in Israel, Until I, Deborah, arose, Arose a mother in Israel.

Judges 5:8 They chose new gods; Then [there was] war in the gates; Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

Judges 5:9 My heart [is] with the rulers of Israel Who offered themselves willingly with the people. Bless the LORD!

Judges 5:10 “Speak, you who ride on white donkeys, Who sit in judges’ attire, And who walk along the road.

Judges 5:11 Far from the noise of the archers, among the watering places, There they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD, The righteous acts [for] His villagers in Israel; Then the people of the LORD shall go down to the gates.

Judges 5:12 “Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, sing a song! Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away, O son of Abinoam!

Judges 5:13 “Then the survivors came down, the people against the nobles; The LORD came down for me against the mighty.

Judges 5:14 From Ephraim [were] those whose roots were in Amalek. After you, Benjamin, with your peoples, From Machir rulers came down, And from Zebulun those who bear the recruiter’s staff.

Judges 5:15 And the princes of Issachar [were] with Deborah; As Issachar, so [was] Barak Sent into the valley under his command; Among the divisions of Reuben [There were] great resolves of heart.

Judges 5:16 Why did you sit among the sheepfolds, To hear the pipings for the flocks? The divisions of Reuben have great searchings of heart.

Judges 5:17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan, And why did Dan remain on ships? Asher continued at the seashore, And stayed by his inlets.

Judges 5:18 Zebulun [is] a people [who] jeopardized their lives to the point of death, Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

Judges 5:19 “The kings came [and] fought, Then the kings of Canaan fought In Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; They took no spoils of silver.

Judges 5:20 They fought from the heavens; The stars from their courses fought against Sisera.

Judges 5:21 The torrent of Kishon swept them away, That ancient torrent, the torrent of Kishon. O my soul, march on in strength!

Judges 5:22 Then the horses’ hooves pounded, The galloping, galloping of his steeds.

Judges 5:23 ‘Curse Meroz,’ said the angel of the LORD, ‘Curse its inhabitants bitterly, Because they did not come to the help of the LORD, To the help of the LORD against the mighty.’

Judges 5:24 “Most blessed among women is Jael, The wife of Heber the Kenite; Blessed is she among women in tents.

Judges 5:25 He asked for water, she gave milk; She brought out cream in a lordly bowl.

Judges 5:26 She stretched her hand to the tent peg, Her right hand to the workmen’s hammer; She pounded Sisera, she pierced his head, She split and struck through his temple.

Judges 5:27 At her feet he sank, he fell, he lay still; At her feet he sank, he fell; Where he sank, there he fell dead.

Judges 5:28 “The mother of Sisera looked through the window, And cried out through the lattice, ‘Why is his chariot [so] long in coming? Why tarries the clatter of his chariots?’

Judges 5:29 Her wisest ladies answered her, Yes, she answered herself, Judges 5:30 ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil: To every man a girl [or] two; For Sisera, plunder of dyed garments, Plunder of garments embroidered and dyed, Two pieces of dyed embroidery for the neck of the looter?’

Judges 5:31 “Thus let all Your enemies perish, O LORD! But [let] those who love Him [be] like the sun When it comes out in full strength.” So the land had rest for forty years.

Judges 6:1 Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years,

Judges 6:2 and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, the caves, and the strongholds which [are] in the mountains.

Judges 6:3 So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them.

Judges 6:4 Then they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey.

Judges 6:5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it.

Judges 6:6 So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.

Judges 6:7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites,

Judges 6:8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of bondage;

Judges 6:9 ‘and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.

Judges 6:10 ‘Also I said to you, “I [am] the LORD your God; do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.” But you have not obeyed My voice.’ “

Judges 6:11 Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which [was] in Ophrah, which [belonged] to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide [it] from the Midianites.

Judges 6:12 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, “The LORD [is] with you, you mighty man of valor!”

Judges 6:13 Gideon said to Him, “O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where [are] all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.”

Judges 6:14 Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?”

Judges 6:15 So he said to Him, “O my Lord, how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan [is] the weakest in Manasseh, and I [am] the least in my father’s house.”

Judges 6:16 And the LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man.”

Judges 6:17 Then he said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who talk with me.

Judges 6:18 “Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set [it] before You.” And He said, “I will wait until you come back.”

Judges 6:19 So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought [them] out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented [them.]

Judges 6:20 The Angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay [them] on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And he did so.

Judges 6:21 Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that [was] in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

Judges 6:22 Now Gideon perceived that He [was] the Angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, “Alas, O Lord GOD! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face.”

Judges 6:23 Then the LORD said to him, “Peace [be] with you; do not fear, you shall not die.”

Judges 6:24 So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it The-LORD-[Is-Peace.] To this day it [is] still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 6:25 Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the wooden image that [is] beside it;

Judges 6:26 “and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down.”

Judges 6:27 So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the LORD had said to him. But because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city too much to do [it] by day, he did [it] by night.

Judges 6:28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, torn down; and the wooden image that [was] beside it was cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar [which had been] built.

Judges 6:29 So they said to one another, “Who has done this thing?” And when they had inquired and asked, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.”

Judges 6:30 Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that [was] beside it.”

Judges 6:31 But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he [is] a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been torn down!”

Judges 6:32 Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, “Let Baal plead against him, because he has torn down his altar.”

Judges 6:33 Then all the Midianites and Amalekites, the people of the East, gathered together; and they crossed over and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.

Judges 6:34 But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; then he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites gathered behind him.

Judges 6:35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also gathered behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

Judges 6:36 So Gideon said to God, “If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said—

Judges 6:37 “look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and [it is] dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.”

Judges 6:38 And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.

Judges 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew.”

Judges 6:40 And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

Judges 7:1 Then Jerubbaal (that [is,] Gideon) and all the people who [were] with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

Judges 7:2 And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people who [are] with you [are] too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel claim glory for itself against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.'

Judges 7:3 "Now therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Whoever [is] fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.' " And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

Judges 7:4 But the LORD said to Gideon, "The people [are] still [too] many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, [that] of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' the same shall go with you; and of whomever I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' the same shall not go."

Judges 7:5 So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink."

Judges 7:6 And the number of those who lapped, [putting] their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water.

Judges 7:7 Then the LORD said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the [other] people go, every man to his place."

Judges 7:8 So the people took provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And he sent away all [the rest of] Israel, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Judges 7:9 It happened on the same night that the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.

Judges 7:10 "But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant,

Judges 7:11 "and you shall hear what they say; and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the armed men who [were] in the camp.

Judges 7:12 Now the Midianites and Amalekites, all the people of the East, were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels [were] without number, as the sand by the seashore in multitude.

Judges 7:13 And when Gideon had come, there was a man telling a dream to his companion. He said, "I have had a dream: [To my] surprise, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent collapsed.”

Judges 7:14 Then his companion answered and said, “This [is] nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel! Into his hand God has delivered Midian and the whole camp.”

Judges 7:15 And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, “Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand.”

Judges 7:16 Then he divided the three hundred men [into] three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man’s hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers.

Judges 7:17 And he said to them, “Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do:

Judges 7:18 “When I blow the trumpet, I and all who [are] with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, ‘[The sword of] the LORD and of Gideon!’ “

Judges 7:19 So Gideon and the hundred men who [were] with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that [were] in their hands.

Judges 7:20 Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers—they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing—and they cried, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!”

Judges 7:21 And every man stood in his place all around the camp; and the whole army ran and cried out and fled.

Judges 7:22 When the three hundred blew the trumpets, the LORD set every man’s sword against his companion throughout the whole camp; and the army fled to Beth Acacia, toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.

Judges 7:23 And the men of Israel gathered together from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and pursued the Midianites.

Judges 7:24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the mountains of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites, and seize from them the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.” Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and seized the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.

Judges 7:25 And they captured two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

Judges 8:1 Now the men of Ephraim said to him, “Why have you done this to us by not calling us when you went to fight with the Midianites?” And they reprimanded him sharply.

Judges 8:2 So he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? [Is] not the gleaning [of the grapes] of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

Judges 8:3 “God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he said that.

Judges 8:4 When Gideon came to the Jordan, he and the three hundred men who [were] with him crossed over, exhausted but still in pursuit.

Judges 8:5 Then he said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”

Judges 8:6 And the leaders of Succoth said, “[Are] the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?”

Judges 8:7 So Gideon said, “For this cause, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!”

Judges 8:8 Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.

Judges 8:9 So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, “When I come back in peace, I will tear down this tower!”

Judges 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna [were] at Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East; for one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword had fallen.

Judges 8:11 Then Gideon went up by the road of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah; and he attacked the army while the camp felt secure.

Judges 8:12 When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.

Judges 8:13 Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, from the Ascent of Heres.

Judges 8:14 And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and interrogated him; and he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

Judges 8:15 Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you ridiculed me, saying, ‘[Are] the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your weary men?' "

Judges 8:16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

Judges 8:17 Then he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

Judges 8:18 And he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men [were they] whom you killed at Tabor?" So they answered, "As you [are,] so [were] they; each one resembled the son of a king."

Judges 8:19 Then he said, "They [were] my brothers, the sons of my mother. [As] the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."

Judges 8:20 And he said to Jether his firstborn, "Rise, kill them!" But the youth would not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he [was] still a youth.

Judges 8:21 So Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise yourself, and kill us; for as a man [is, so is] his strength." So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that [were] on their camels' necks.

Judges 8:22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you and your son, and your grandson also; for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian."

Judges 8:23 But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you."

Judges 8:24 Then Gideon said to them, "I would like to make a request of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from his plunder." For they had gold earrings, because they [were] Ishmaelites.

Judges 8:25 So they answered, "We will gladly give [them."] And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder.

Judges 8:26 Now the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred [shekels] of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, pendants, and purple robes which [were] on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that [were] around their camels' necks.

Judges 8:27 Then Gideon made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, Ophrah. And all Israel played the harlot with it there. It became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

Judges 8:28 Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Judges 8:29 Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

Judges 8:30 Gideon had seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives.

Judges 8:31 And his concubine who [was] in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

Judges 8:32 Now Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 8:33 So it was, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made Baal-Berith their god.

Judges 8:34 Thus the children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;

Judges 8:35 nor did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (Gideon) in accordance with the good he had done for Israel.

Judges 9:1 Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

Judges 9:2 "Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem: 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?' Remember that I [am] your own flesh and bone."

Judges 9:3 And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem; and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

Judges 9:4 So they gave him seventy [shekels] of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men; and they followed him.

Judges 9:5 Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.

Judges 9:6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that [was] in Shechem.

Judges 9:7 Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out. And he said to them: "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, That God may listen to you!

Judges 9:8 "The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!'

Judges 9:9 But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I cease giving my oil, With which they honor God and men, And go to sway over trees?'

Judges 9:10 “Then the trees said to the fig tree, ‘You come [and] reign over us!’

Judges 9:11 But the fig tree said to them, ‘Should I cease my sweetness and my good fruit, And go to sway over trees?’

Judges 9:12 “Then the trees said to the vine, ‘You come [and] reign over us!’

Judges 9:13 But the vine said to them, ‘Should I cease my new wine, Which cheers [both] God and men, And go to sway over trees?’

Judges 9:14 “Then all the trees said to the bramble, ‘You come [and] reign over us!’

Judges 9:15 And the bramble said to the trees, ‘If in truth you anoint me as king over you, [Then] come [and] take shelter in my shade; But if not, let fire come out of the bramble And devour the cedars of Lebanon!’

Judges 9:16 “ Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and sincerity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as he deserves—

Judges 9:17 “for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian;

Judges 9:18 “but you have risen up against my father’s house this day, and killed his seventy sons on one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother—

Judges 9:19 “if then you have acted in truth and sincerity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, [then] rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.

Judges 9:20 “But if not, let fire come from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and Beth Millo; and let fire come from the men of Shechem and from Beth Millo and devour Abimelech!”

Judges 9:21 And Jotham ran away and fled; and he went to Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

Judges 9:22 After Abimelech had reigned over Israel three years,

Judges 9:23 God sent a spirit of ill will between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech,

Judges 9:24 that the crime [done] to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be settled and their blood be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of his brothers.

Judges 9:25 And the men of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abimelech.

Judges 9:26 Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

Judges 9:27 So they went out into the fields, and gathered [grapes] from their vineyards and trod [them,] and made merry. And they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.

Judges 9:28 Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who [is] Abimelech, and who [is] Shechem, that we should serve him? [Is he] not the son of Jerubbaal, and [is not] Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?

Judges 9:29 “If only this people were under my authority! Then I would remove Abimelech.” So he said to Abimelech, “Increase your army and come out!”

Judges 9:30 When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused.

Judges 9:31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, “Take note! Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and here they are, fortifying the city against you.

Judges 9:32 “Now therefore, get up by night, you and the people who [are] with you, and lie in wait in the field.

Judges 9:33 “And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, [that] you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and [when] he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may then do to them as you find opportunity.”

Judges 9:34 So Abimelech and all the people who [were] with him rose by night, and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

Judges 9:35 When Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, Abimelech and the people who [were] with him rose from lying in wait.

Judges 9:36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!” But Zebul said to him, “You see the shadows of the mountains as [if they were] men.”

Judges 9:37 So Gaal spoke again and said, “See, people are coming down from the center of the land, and another company is coming from the Diviners’ Terebinth Tree.”

Judges 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where indeed [is] your mouth now, with which you said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ [Are] not these the people whom you despised? Go out, if you will, and fight with them now.”

Judges 9:39 So Gaal went out, leading the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

Judges 9:40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded, to the [very] entrance of the gate.

Judges 9:41 Then Abimelech dwelt at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Shechem.

Judges 9:42 And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.

Judges 9:43 So he took his people, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and there were the people, coming out of the city; and he rose against them and attacked them.

Judges 9:44 Then Abimelech and the company that [was] with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the [other] two companies rushed upon all who [were] in the fields and killed them.

Judges 9:45 So Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city and killed the people who [were] in it; and he demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

Judges 9:46 Now when all the men of the tower of Shechem had heard [that,] they entered the stronghold of the temple of the god Berith.

Judges 9:47 And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

Judges 9:48 Then Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who [were] with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid [it] on his shoulder; then he said to the people who were with him, “What you have seen me do, make haste [and] do as I [have done.”]

Judges 9:49 So each of the people likewise cut down his own bough and followed Abimelech, put [them] against the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.

Judges 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he encamped against Thebez and took it.

Judges 9:51 But there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled there and shut themselves in; then they went up to the top of the tower.

Judges 9:52 So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it; and he drew near the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

Judges 9:53 But a certain woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull.

Judges 9:54 Then he called quickly to the young man, his armorbearer, and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, ‘A woman killed him.’ “ So his young man thrust him through, and he died.

Judges 9:55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed, every man to his place.

Judges 9:56 Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers.

Judges 9:57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their own heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

Judges 10:1 After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim.

Judges 10:2 He judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died and was buried in Shamir.

Judges 10:3 After him arose Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years.

Judges 10:4 Now he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys; they also had thirty towns, which are called “Havoth Jair” to this day, which [are] in the land of Gilead.

Judges 10:5 And Jair died and was buried in Camon.

Judges 10:6 Then the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD and did not serve Him.

Judges 10:7 So the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the people of Ammon.

Judges 10:8 From that year they harassed and oppressed the children of Israel for eighteen years—all the children of Israel who [were] on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, in Gilead.

Judges 10:9 Moreover the people of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was severely distressed.

Judges 10:10 And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, “We have sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals!”

Judges 10:11 So the LORD said to the children of Israel, “[Did I] not [deliver you] from the Egyptians and from the Amorites and from the people of Ammon and from the Philistines?

Judges 10:12 “Also the Sidonians and Amalekites and Maonites oppressed you; and you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hand.

Judges 10:13 “Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods. Therefore I will deliver you no more.

Judges 10:14 “Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in your time of distress.”

Judges 10:15 And the children of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned! Do to us whatever seems best to You; only deliver us this day, we pray.”

Judges 10:16 So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD. And His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.

Judges 10:17 Then the people of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in Mizpah.

Judges 10:18 And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, “Who [is] the man who will begin the fight against the people of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11:1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he [was] the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah.

Judges 11:2 Gilead’s wife bore sons; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, “You shall have no inheritance in our father’s house, for you [are] the son of another woman.”

Judges 11:3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out [raiding] with him.

Judges 11:4 It came to pass after a time that the people of Ammon made war against Israel.

Judges 11:5 And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

Judges 11:6 Then they said to Jephthah, “Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon.”

Judges 11:7 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father’s house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?”

Judges 11:8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “That is why we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11:9 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them to me, shall I be your head?”

Judges 11:10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “The LORD will be a witness between us, if we do not do according to your words.”

Judges 11:11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

Judges 11:12 Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, "What do you have against me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?"

Judges 11:13 And the king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore, restore those [lands] peaceably."

Judges 11:14 So Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon,

Judges 11:15 and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: 'Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon;

Judges 11:16 'for when Israel came up from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.

Judges 11:17 'Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Please let me pass through your land." But the king of Edom would not heed. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not [consent.] So Israel remained in Kadesh.

Judges 11:18 'And they went along through the wilderness and bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Moab, for the Arnon [was] the border of Moab.

Judges 11:19 'Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, "Please let us pass through your land into our place."

Judges 11:20 'But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

Judges 11:21 'And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.

Judges 11:22 'They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

Judges 11:23 'And now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; should you then possess it?

Judges 11:24 'Will you not possess whatever Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess.

Judges 11:25 ‘And now, [are] you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them?

Judges 11:26 ‘While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover [them] within that time?

Judges 11:27 ‘Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, the Judge, render judgment this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.’ “

Judges 11:28 However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Judges 11:29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced [toward] the people of Ammon.

Judges 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands,

Judges 11:31 “then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD’s, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.”

Judges 11:32 So Jephthah advanced toward the people of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

Judges 11:33 And he defeated them from Aroer as far as Minnith—twenty cities—and to Abel Keramim, with a very great slaughter. Thus the people of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

Judges 11:34 When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing; and she [was his] only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

Judges 11:35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low! You are among those who trouble me! For I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot go back on it.”

Judges 11:36 So she said to him, “My father, [if] you have given your word to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon.”

Judges 11:37 Then she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my friends and I.”

Judges 11:38 So he said, “Go.” And he sent her away [for] two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.

Judges 11:39 And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She knew no man. And it became a custom in Israel

Judges 11:40 [that] the daughters of Israel went four days each year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges 12:1 Then the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you with fire!”

Judges 12:2 And Jephthah said to them, “My people and I were in a great struggle with the people of Ammon; and when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands.

Judges 12:3 “So when I saw that you would not deliver [me,] I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the people of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?”

Judges 12:4 Now Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, “You Gileadites [are] fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites [and] among the Manassites.”

Judges 12:5 The Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites [arrived.] And when [any] Ephraimite who escaped said, “Let me cross over,” the men of Gilead would say to him, “[Are] you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No,”

Judges 12:6 then they would say to him, “Then say, ‘Shibboleth’!” And he would say, “Sibboleth,” for he could not pronounce [it] right. Then they would take him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites.

Judges 12:7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in among the cities of Gilead.

Judges 12:8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

Judges 12:9 He had thirty sons. And he gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and brought in thirty daughters from elsewhere for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.

Judges 12:10 Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

Judges 12:11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years.

Judges 12:12 And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

Judges 12:13 After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

Judges 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israel eight years.

Judges 12:15 Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mountains of the Amalekites.

Judges 13:1 Again the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

Judges 13:2 Now there was a certain man from Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name [was] Manoah; and his wife [was] barren and had no children.

Judges 13:3 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son.

Judges 13:4 “Now therefore, please be careful not to drink wine or [similar] drink, and not to eat anything unclean.

Judges 13:5 “For behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.”

Judges 13:6 So the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A Man of God came to me, and His countenance [was] like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I did not ask Him where He [was] from, and He did not tell me His name.

Judges 13:7 “And He said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or [similar] drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’ “

Judges 13:8 Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, and said, “O my Lord, please let the Man of God whom You sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born.”

Judges 13:9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband [was] not with her.

Judges 13:10 Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the Man who came to me the [other] day has just now appeared to me!”

Judges 13:11 So Manoah arose and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he said to Him, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?” And He said, “I [am.”]

Judges 13:12 Manoah said, “Now let Your words come [to pass!] What will be the boy’s rule of life, and his work?”

Judges 13:13 So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful.

Judges 13:14 “She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor may she drink wine or [similar] drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe.”

Judges 13:15 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for You.”

Judges 13:16 And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know He [was] the Angel of the LORD.)

Judges 13:17 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What [is] Your name, that when Your words come [to pass] we may honor You?”

Judges 13:18 And the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask My name, seeing it [is] wonderful?”

Judges 13:19 So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD. And He did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on—

Judges 13:20 it happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar—the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar! When Manoah and his wife saw [this,] they fell on their faces to the ground.

Judges 13:21 When the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, then Manoah knew that He [was] the Angel of the LORD.

Judges 13:22 And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, because we have seen God!”

Judges 13:23 But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these [things,] nor would He have told us [such things] as these at this time.”

Judges 13:24 So the woman bore a son and called his name Samson; and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

Judges 13:25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him at Mahaneh Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14:1 Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines.

Judges 14:2 So he went up and told his father and mother, saying, “I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, get her for me as a wife.”

Judges 14:3 Then his father and mother said to him, “[Is there] no woman among the daughters of your brethren, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?” And Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, for she pleases me well.”

Judges 14:4 But his father and mother did not know that it was of the LORD—that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

Judges 14:5 So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah. Now [to his] surprise, a young lion [came] roaring against him.

Judges 14:6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart as one would have torn apart a young goat, though [he had] nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

Judges 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

Judges 14:8 After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey [were] in the carcass of the lion.

Judges 14:9 He took some of it in his hands and went along, eating. When he came to his father and mother, he gave [some] to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

Judges 14:10 So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, for young men used to do so.

Judges 14:11 And it happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

Judges 14:12 Then Samson said to them, “Let me pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly solve and explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.

Judges 14:13 “But if you cannot explain [it] to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.” And they said to him, “Pose your riddle, that we may hear it.”

Judges 14:14 So he said to them: “Out of the eater came something to eat, And out of the strong came something sweet.” Now for three days they could not explain the riddle.

Judges 14:15 But it came to pass on the seventh day that they said to Samson’s wife, “Entice your husband, that he may explain the riddle to us, or else we will burn you and your father’s house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? [Is that] not [so?”]

Judges 14:16 Then Samson’s wife wept on him, and said, “You only hate me! You do not love me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained [it] to me.” And he said to her, “Look, I have not explained [it] to my father or my mother; so should I explain [it] to you?”

Judges 14:17 Now she had wept on him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she pressed him so much. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people.

Judges 14:18 So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down: “What [is] sweeter than honey? And what [is] stronger than a lion?” And he said to them: “If you had not plowed with my heifer, You would not have solved my riddle!”

Judges 14:19 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes [of clothing] to those who had explained the riddle. So his anger was aroused, and he went back up to his father’s house.

Judges 14:20 And Samson’s wife was [given] to his companion, who had been his best man.

Judges 15:1 After a while, in the time of wheat harvest, it happened that Samson visited his wife with a young goat. And he said, “Let me go in to my wife, into [her] room.” But her father would not permit him to go in.

Judges 15:2 Her father said, “I really thought that you thoroughly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. [Is] not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead.”

Judges 15:3 And Samson said to them, “This time I shall be blameless regarding the Philistines if I harm them!”

Judges 15:4 Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned [the foxes] tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.

Judges 15:5 When he had set the torches on fire, he let [the foxes] go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards [and] olive groves.

Judges 15:6 Then the Philistines said, “Who has done this?” And they answered, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion.” So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

Judges 15:7 Samson said to them, “Since you would do a thing like this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease.”

Judges 15:8 So he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; then he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

Judges 15:9 Now the Philistines went up, encamped in Judah, and deployed themselves against Lehi.

Judges 15:10 And the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” So they answered, “We have come up to arrest Samson, to do to him as he has done to us.”

Judges 15:11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? What [is] this you have done to us?” And he said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”

Judges 15:12 But they said to him, “We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines.” Then Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves.”

Judges 15:13 So they spoke to him, saying, “No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you.” And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

Judges 15:14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that [were] on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands.

Judges 15:15 He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.

Judges 15:16 Then Samson said: “With the jawbone of a donkey, Heaps upon heaps, With the jawbone of a donkey I have slain a thousand men!”

Judges 15:17 And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Lehi.

Judges 15:18 Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?”

Judges 15:19 So God split the hollow place that [is] in Lehi, and water came out, and he drank; and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name En Hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.

Judges 15:20 And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Judges 16:1 Now Samson went to Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her.

Judges 16:2 [When] the Gazites [were told,] “Samson has come here!” they surrounded [the place] and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, “In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him.”

Judges 16:3 And Samson lay [low] till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put [them] on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

Judges 16:4 Afterward it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name [was] Delilah.

Judges 16:5 And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, “Entice him, and find out where his great strength [lies,] and by what [means] we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred [pieces] of silver.”

Judges 16:6 So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength [lies,] and with what you may be bound to afflict you.”

Judges 16:7 And Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any [other] man.”

Judges 16:8 So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with them.

Judges 16:9 Now [men were] lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, “The Philistines [are] upon you, Samson!” But he broke the bowstrings as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

Judges 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with.”

Judges 16:11 So he said to her, “If they bind me securely with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any [other] man.”

Judges 16:12 Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines [are] upon you, Samson!” And [men were] lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

Judges 16:13 Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with.” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom”—

Judges 16:14 So she wove [it] tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, “The Philistines [are] upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.

Judges 16:15 Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart [is] not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength [lies.”]

Judges 16:16 And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, [so] that his soul was vexed to death,

Judges 16:17 that he told her all his heart, and said to her, “No razor has ever come upon my head, for I [have been] a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any [other] man."

Judges 16:18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart." So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand.

Judges 16:19 Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him, and his strength left him.

Judges 16:20 And she said, "The Philistines [are] upon you, Samson!" So he awoke from his sleep, and said, "I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!" But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

Judges 16:21 Then the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze fetters, and he became a grinder in the prison.

Judges 16:22 However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

Judges 16:23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said: "Our god has delivered into our hands Samson our enemy!"

Judges 16:24 When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said: "Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy, The destroyer of our land, And the one who multiplied our dead."

Judges 16:25 So it happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may perform for us." So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars.

Judges 16:26 Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them."

Judges 16:27 Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines [were] there—about three thousand men and women on the roof watching while Samson performed.

Judges 16:28 Then Samson called to the LORD, saying, "O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, just this once, O God, that I may with one [blow] take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes!"

Judges 16:29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left.

Judges 16:30 Then Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" And he pushed with [all his] might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who [were] in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.

Judges 16:31 And his brothers and all his father's household came down and took him, and brought [him] up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Judges 17:1 Now there was a man from the mountains of Ephraim, whose name [was] Micah.

Judges 17:2 And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred [shekels] of silver that were taken from you, and on which you put a curse, even saying it in my ears—here [is] the silver with me; I took it." And his mother said, "[May you be] blessed by the LORD, my son!"

Judges 17:3 So when he had returned the eleven hundred [shekels] of silver to his mother, his mother said, "I had wholly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son, to make a carved image and a molded image; now therefore, I will return it to you."

Judges 17:4 Thus he returned the silver to his mother. Then his mother took two hundred [shekels] of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a molded image; and they were in the house of Micah.

Judges 17:5 The man Micah had a shrine, and made an ephod and household idols; and he consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

Judges 17:6 In those days [there was] no king in Israel; everyone did [what was] right in his own eyes.

Judges 17:7 Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; he [was] a Levite, and was staying there.

Judges 17:8 The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find [a place.] Then he came to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

Judges 17:9 And Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" So he said to him, "I [am] a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am on my way to find [a place] to stay."

Judges 17:10 Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten [shekels] of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your sustenance." So the Levite went in.

Judges 17:11 Then the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became like one of his sons to him.

Judges 17:12 So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and lived in the house of Micah.

Judges 17:13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since I have a Levite as priest!"

Judges 18:1 In those days [there was] no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in; for until that day [their] inheritance among the tribes of Israel had not fallen to them.

Judges 18:2 So the children of Dan sent five men of their family from their territory, men of valor from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and search it. They said to them, “Go, search the land.” So they went to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

Judges 18:3 While they [were] at the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this [place?] What do you have here?”

Judges 18:4 He said to them, “Thus and so Micah did for me. He has hired me, and I have become his priest.”

Judges 18:5 So they said to him, “Please inquire of God, that we may know whether the journey on which we go will be prosperous.”

Judges 18:6 And the priest said to them, “Go in peace. The presence of the LORD [be] with you on your way.”

Judges 18:7 So the five men departed and went to Laish. They saw the people who [were] there, how they dwelt safely, in the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. [There were] no rulers in the land who might put [them] to shame for anything. They [were] far from the Sidonians, and they had no ties with anyone.

Judges 18:8 Then [the spies] came back to their brethren at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brethren said to them, “What [is] your [report?”]

Judges 18:9 So they said, “Arise, let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and indeed it [is] very good. [Would] you [do] nothing? Do not hesitate to go, [and] enter to possess the land.

Judges 18:10 “When you go, you will come to a secure people and a large land. For God has given it into your hands, a place where [there is] no lack of anything that [is] on the earth.”

Judges 18:11 And six hundred men of the family of the Danites went from there, from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed with weapons of war.

Judges 18:12 Then they went up and encamped in Kirjath Jearim in Judah. (Therefore they call that place Mahaneh Dan to this day. There [it is,] west of Kirjath Jearim.)

Judges 18:13 And they passed from there to the mountains of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

Judges 18:14 Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brethren, “Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a molded image? Now therefore, consider what you should do.”

Judges 18:15 So they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man—to the house of Micah—and greeted him.

Judges 18:16 The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who [were] of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

Judges 18:17 Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up. Entering there, they took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men [who were] armed with weapons of war.

Judges 18:18 When these went into Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

Judges 18:19 And they said to him, "Be quiet, put your hand over your mouth, and come with us; be a father and a priest to us. [Is it] better for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"

Judges 18:20 So the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.

Judges 18:21 Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them.

Judges 18:22 When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who [were] in the houses near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan.

Judges 18:23 And they called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Micah, "What ails you, that you have gathered such a company?"

Judges 18:24 So he said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. Now what more do I have? How can you say to me, 'What ails you?' "

Judges 18:25 And the children of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry men fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!"

Judges 18:26 Then the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they [were] too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Judges 18:27 So they took [the things] Micah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and went to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

Judges 18:28 [There was] no deliverer, because it [was] far from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs to Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and dwelt there.

Judges 18:29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However, the name of the city formerly [was] Laish.

Judges 18:30 Then the children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

Judges 18:31 So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19:1 And it came to pass in those days, when [there was] no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote mountains of Ephraim. He took for himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Judges 19:2 But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there four whole months.

Judges 19:3 Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her [and] bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him.

Judges 19:4 Now his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.

Judges 19:5 Then it came to pass on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he stood to depart; but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way."

Judges 19:6 So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please be content to stay all night, and let your heart be merry."

Judges 19:7 And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again.

Judges 19:8 Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.

Judges 19:9 And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing toward evening; please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get home."

Judges 19:10 However, the man was not willing to spend that night; so he rose and departed, and came to opposite Jebus (that [is,] Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine [was] also with him.

Judges 19:11 They [were] near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, “Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it.”

Judges 19:12 But his master said to him, “We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who [are] not of the children of Israel; we will go on to Gibeah.”

Judges 19:13 So he said to his servant, “Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah.”

Judges 19:14 And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

Judges 19:15 They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would take them into [his] house to spend the night.

Judges 19:16 Just then an old man came in from his work in the field at evening, who also [was] from the mountains of Ephraim; he was staying in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place [were] Benjamites.

Judges 19:17 And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, “Where are you going, and where do you come from?”

Judges 19:18 So he said to him, “We [are] passing from Bethlehem in Judah toward the remote mountains of Ephraim; I [am] from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; [now] I am going to the house of the LORD. But there [is] no one who will take me into his house,

Judges 19:19 “although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your female servant, and for the young man [who is] with your servant; [there is] no lack of anything.”

Judges 19:20 And the old man said, “Peace [be] with you! However, [let] all your needs [be] my responsibility; only do not spend the night in the open square.”

Judges 19:21 So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Judges 19:22 As they were enjoying themselves, suddenly certain men of the city, perverted men, surrounded the house [and] beat on the door. They spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him [carnally!”]

Judges 19:23 But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act [so] wickedly! Seeing this man has come into my house, do not commit this outrage.

Judges 19:24 “Look, [here is] my virgin daughter and [the man’s] concubine; let me bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!”

Judges 19:25 But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought [her] out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go.

Judges 19:26 Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her master [was,] till it was light.

Judges 19:27 When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen [at] the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

Judges 19:28 And he said to her, “Get up and let us be going.” But there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

Judges 19:29 When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and divided her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

Judges 19:30 And so it was that all who saw it said, “No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, confer, and speak up!”

Judges 20:1 So all the children of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, as well as from the land of Gilead, and the congregation gathered together as one man before the LORD at Mizpah.

Judges 20:2 And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who drew the sword.

Judges 20:3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the children of Israel said, “Tell [us,] how did this wicked deed happen?”

Judges 20:4 So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night.

Judges 20:5 “And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, but instead they ravished my concubine so that she died.

Judges 20:6 “So I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they committed lewdness and outrage in Israel.

Judges 20:7 “Look! All of you [are] children of Israel; give your advice and counsel here and now!”

Judges 20:8 So all the people arose as one man, saying, “None [of us] will go to his tent, nor will any turn back to his house;

Judges 20:9 “but now this [is] the thing which we will do to Gibeah: [We will go up] against it by lot.

Judges 20:10 “We will take ten men out of [every] hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of [every] thousand, and a thousand out of [every] ten thousand, to make provisions for the people, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the vileness that they have done in Israel.”

Judges 20:11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united together as one man.

Judges 20:12 Then the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What [is] this wickedness that has occurred among you?

Judges 20:13 “Now therefore, deliver up the men, the perverted men who [are] in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and remove the evil from Israel!” But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the children of Israel.

Judges 20:14 Instead, the children of Benjamin gathered together from their cities to Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel.

Judges 20:15 And from their cities at that time the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred select men.

Judges 20:16 Among all this people [were] seven hundred select men [who were] left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair’s [breadth] and not miss.

Judges 20:17 Now besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these [were] men of war.

Judges 20:18 Then the children of Israel arose and went up to the house of God to inquire of God. They said, “Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?” The LORD said, “Judah first!”

Judges 20:19 So the children of Israel rose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.

Judges 20:20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array to fight against them at Gibeah.

Judges 20:21 Then the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites.

Judges 20:22 And the people, that is, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and again formed the battle line at the place where they had put themselves in array on the first day.

Judges 20:23 Then the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, “Shall I again draw near for battle against the children of my brother Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”

Judges 20:24 So the children of Israel approached the children of Benjamin on the second day.

Judges 20:25 And Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah on the second day, and cut down to the ground eighteen thousand more of the children of Israel; all these drew the sword.

Judges 20:26 Then all the children of Israel, that is, all the people, went up and came to the house of God and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

Judges 20:27 So the children of Israel inquired of the LORD (the ark of the covenant of God [was] there in those days, Judges 20:28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.”

Judges 20:29 Then Israel set men in ambush all around Gibeah.

Judges 20:30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in battle array against Gibeah as at the other times.

Judges 20:31 So the children of Benjamin went out against the people, [and] were drawn away from the city. They began to strike down [and] kill some of the people, as at the other times, in the highways (one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah) and in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

Judges 20:32 And the children of Benjamin said, “They [are] defeated before us, as at first.” But the children of Israel said, “Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.”

Judges 20:33 So all the men of Israel rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Baal Tamar. Then Israel’s men in ambush burst forth from their position in the plain of Geba.

Judges 20:34 And ten thousand select men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. But [the Benjamites] did not know that disaster [was] upon them.

Judges 20:35 The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty-five thousand one hundred Benjamites; all these drew the sword.

Judges 20:36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel had given ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.

Judges 20:37 And the men in ambush quickly rushed upon Gibeah; the men in ambush spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.

Judges 20:38 Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise up from the city,

Judges 20:39 whereupon the men of Israel would turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to strike [and] kill about thirty of the men of Israel. For they said, “Surely they are defeated before us, as [in] the first battle.”

Judges 20:40 But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and there was the whole city going up [in smoke] to heaven.

Judges 20:41 And when the men of Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin panicked, for they saw that disaster had come upon them.

Judges 20:42 Therefore they turned [their backs] before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and whoever [came] out of the cities they destroyed in their midst.

Judges 20:43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, [and] easily trampled them down as far as the front of Gibeah toward the east.

Judges 20:44 And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these [were] men of valor.

Judges 20:45 Then they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they cut down five thousand of them on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly up to Gidom, and killed two thousand of them.

Judges 20:46 So all who fell of Benjamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these [were] men of valor.

Judges 20:47 But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months.

Judges 20:48 And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—from [every] city, men and beasts, all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to.

Judges 21:1 Now the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, “None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife.”

Judges 21:2 Then the people came to the house of God, and remained there before God till evening. They lifted up their voices and wept bitterly, Judges 21:3 and said, “O LORD God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that today there should be one tribe [missing] in Israel?”

Judges 21:4 So it was, on the next morning, that the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

Judges 21:5 The children of Israel said, “Who [is there] among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up with the assembly to the LORD?” For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.”

Judges 21:6 And the children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, “One tribe is cut off from Israel today.

Judges 21:7 “What shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them our daughters as wives?”

Judges 21:8 And they said, “What one [is there] from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?” And, in fact, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly.

Judges 21:9 For when the people were counted, indeed, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead [was] there.

Judges 21:10 So the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their most valiant men, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and children.

Judges 21:11 “And this [is] the thing that you shall do: You shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has known a man intimately.”

Judges 21:12 So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

Judges 21:13 Then the whole congregation sent [word] to the children of Benjamin who [were] at the rock of Rimmon, and announced peace to them.

Judges 21:14 So Benjamin came back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead; and yet they had not found enough for them.

Judges 21:15 And the people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a void in the tribes of Israel.

Judges 21:16 Then the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?”

Judges 21:17 And they said, “[There must be] an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be destroyed from Israel.

Judges 21:18 “However, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, for the children of Israel have sworn an oath, saying, ‘Cursed [be] the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.’ “

Judges 21:19 Then they said, “In fact, [there is] a yearly feast of the LORD in Shiloh, which [is] north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

Judges 21:20 Therefore they instructed the children of Benjamin, saying, “Go, lie in wait in the vineyards, Judges 21:21 “and watch; and just when the daughters of Shiloh come out to perform their dances, then come out from the vineyards, and every man catch a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh; then go to the land of Benjamin.

Judges 21:22 “Then it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them, ‘Be kind to them for our sakes, because we did not take a wife for any of them in the war; for [it is] not [as though] you have given the [women] to them at this time, making yourselves guilty of your oath.’ “

Judges 21:23 And the children of Benjamin did so; they took enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.

Judges 21:24 So the children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family; they went out from there, every man to his inheritance.

Judges 21:25 In those days [there was] no king in Israel; everyone did [what was] right in his own eyes.
